Negative Covenants

So long as the Termination Conditions are not satisfied:

SECTION 7.01 Liens. The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create, incur or assume any Lien (except any Permitted Lien(s)) that secures obligations under any Indebtedness or any related guarantee of Indebtedness on any asset or property of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary, or any income or profits therefrom.

The expansion of Liens by virtue of accretion or amortization of original issue discount, the payment of dividends in the form of Indebtedness, and increases in the amount of Indebtedness outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Liens for purposes of this Section 7.01.
SECTION 7.02 Indebtedness.

(a) The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly:

(i) create, incur, issue, assume, guarantee or otherwise become directly or indirectly liable, contingently or otherwise (collectively, “incur” and collectively, an “incurrence”) with respect to any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), or provided that the Borrower may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) or issue shares of Disqualified Stock, and any Restricted Subsidiary may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), issue shares of Disqualified Stock and issue shares of Preferred Stock, in each case, if (any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred or issued pursuant to following clauses (A), (B) and (C), “Permitted Ratio Debt”):

(A) with respect to Indebtedness secured by the Collateral on a pari passu basis with the First Lien Obligations, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 4.25 to 1.00;

(B) with respect to Indebtedness secured by the Collateral on a basis that is junior in priority to the First Lien Obligations, the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 5.25 to 1.00; or

(C) with respect to Indebtedness that is not secured by the Collateral, including all Indebtedness of Restricted Subsidiaries that are not Guarantors, or any Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, the Total Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred or such Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 5.50 to 1.00, in each case, determined on a pro forma basis (including a pro forma application of the net proceeds therefrom), as if the additional Indebtedness had been incurred, or the Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock had been issued, as the case may be, and the application of proceeds therefrom had occurred at the beginning of such Test Period;

provided further that (i) Restricted Subsidiaries of the Borrower that are not Guarantors may not incur Indebtedness or issue Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock under this Section 7.02(a) if, after giving pro forma effect to such incurrence or issuance (including a pro forma application of the net proceeds therefrom), the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness, liquidation preference of Disqualified Stock and amount of Preferred Stock of such Restricted Subsidiaries incurred or issued pursuant to this Section 7.02(a), together with any principal amounts incurred or issued by such Restricted Subsidiaries under Section 7.02(b)(14)(a) and Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of any of the foregoing (excluding any Incremental Amounts), in each case then outstanding, would exceed (as of the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued, incurred or otherwise obtained) the greater of (i) $500.0 and (ii) 65.0% of Consolidated EBITDA of the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a pro forma basis), (II) Permitted Ratio Debt in the form of Indebtedness (x) shall not mature earlier than the Original Term Loan Maturity Date and (y) shall have a Weighted Average Life to Maturity not shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Closing Date Term Loans on the date of incurrence of such Permitted Ratio Debt, (III) if the terms of any such Permitted Ratio Debt in the form of revolving loans or commitments contain a Previously Absent Financial Maintenance Covenant that is in effect prior to the applicable Latest Maturity Date of the Revolving Facility, such Previously Absent Financial Maintenance Covenant shall be included for the benefit of the Revolving Facility and (IV) if any such Indebtedness in clause (A) of the definition of Permitted Ratio Debt consists of syndicated Dollar-denominated or Euro-denominated term loans secured by a Lien on the Collateral ranking pari passu with the First Lien Obligations under this Agreement, then the Borrower shall comply with the “most favored nation” pricing provisions of Section 2.14(5)(c) (to the extent then applicable) as if such Indebtedness were Incremental Term Loans incurred pursuant to Section 2.14.

(b) The provisions of Section 7.02(a) will not apply to:

1. Indebtedness under the Loan Documents (including Incremental Loans, Other Loans, Extended Term Loans, Loans made pursuant to Extended Revolving Commitments and Replacement Loans);

2. the incurrence by the Borrower and any Guarantor of Indebtedness pursuant to the Second Lien Credit Documents or consisting of “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (or equivalent term) (as defined in the Second Lien Credit Agreement) or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof (including any “Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness” (or equivalent term) (as defined in the Second Lien Credit Agreement)) in an aggregate outstanding principal amount not to exceed $600.0 million (plus (x)(i) the amount of any “Incremental Loans” and “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (or equivalent terms) (each, as defined in the Second Lien Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof)) permitted under Sections 2.14(4)(c) and 7.02 (or equivalent provisions) of the Second Lien Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof) and (y) the amount of accrued interest, fees and premiums (including tender premium) and penalties (if any) with respect to any such Indebtedness under this clause (b)(2) refinanced, and fees, expenses, original issue discount and upfront fees incurred in connection with any such refinancing);

3. the incurrence of Indebtedness by the Borrower and any Restricted Subsidiary in existence on the Closing Date (excluding Indebtedness described in the preceding clauses (1) and (2)); provided that any such item of Indebtedness with an aggregate outstanding principal amount on the Closing Date in excess of $15.0 million shall be set forth on Schedule 7.02;

5) Indebtedness incurred by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (a) constituting reimbursement obligations with respect to letters of credit, bank guarantees, banker’s acceptances, warehouse receipts, or similar instruments issued or entered into, or relating to obligations or liabilities incurred, in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice, including in respect of workers’ compensation claims, performance, completion or surety bonds, health, disability or other employee benefits or property, casualty or liability insurance or self-insurance, unemployment insurance or other social security legislation or other Indebtedness with respect to reimbursement-type obligations regarding workers’ compensation claims, performance, completion or surety bonds, health, disability or other employee benefits or property, casualty or liability insurance or self-insurance or (b) as an account party in respect of letters of credit, bank guarantees or similar instruments in favor of suppliers, trade creditors or other Persons issued or incurred in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice;

6) the incurrence of Indebtedness arising from agreements of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary providing for indemnification, adjustment of purchase price, earnouts, other contingent consideration obligations and other deferred purchase price or similar obligations, in each case, incurred or assumed in connection with the acquisition or disposition of any business, assets or a Subsidiary, other than guarantees of Indebtedness incurred by any Person acquiring all or any portion of such business, assets or a Subsidiary for the purpose of financing such acquisition;

7) the incurrence of Indebtedness by the Borrower and owing to a Restricted Subsidiary or the issuance of Disqualified Stock of the Borrower to a Restricted Subsidiary (or to any Parent Company which is substantially contemporaneously transferred to any Restricted Subsidiary); provided that any such Indebtedness for borrowed money owing to a Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Loans to the extent permitted by applicable law; provided further that any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock or any other event that results in any such Restricted Subsidiary ceasing to be a Restricted Subsidiary or any other subsequent transfer of any such Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock (except to the Borrower or another Restricted Subsidiary or any pledge of such Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock constituting a Permitted Lien) will be deemed, in each case, to be an incurrence of such Indebtedness (to the extent such Indebtedness is then outstanding) or issuance of such Disqualified Stock (to the extent such Disqualified Stock is then outstanding) not permitted by this clause (7);

(9) the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary to the Borrower or a Restricted Subsidiary (or to any Parent Company which is substantially contemporaneously transferred to the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary); provided that any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock or any other event that results in any such Restricted Subsidiary that holds such Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock ceasing to be a Restricted Subsidiary or any other subsequent transfer of any such shares of Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (except to the Borrower or another Restricted Subsidiary or any pledge of such Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock constituting a Permitted Lien) will be deemed, in each case, to be an issuance of such shares of Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (to the extent such Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock is then outstanding) not permitted by this clause (9);

(10) the incurrence of Hedging Obligations (excluding Hedging Obligations entered into for speculative purposes);

(11) the incurrence of obligations in respect of self-insurance and obligations in respect of performance, bid, appeal and surety bonds and performance, banker’s acceptance facilities and completion guarantees and similar obligations provided by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary or obligations in respect of letters of credit, bank guarantees or similar instruments related thereto, in each case in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice, including those incurred to secure health, safety and environmental obligations;

(12) the incurrence of:

(a) Indebtedness or issuance of Disqualified Stock of the Borrower and the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock of any Restricted Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount or liquidation preference up to 200.0% of the net cash proceeds received by the Borrower since the Closing Date from the issue or sale of Equity Interests of the Borrower or contributions to the capital of the Borrower, including through consolidation, amalgamation or merger (in each case, other than proceeds of Disqualified Stock or any exercise of the cure right set forth in Section 8.04 and other than proceeds received from the Borrower or a Restricted Subsidiary) as determined in accordance with clauses (3)(b) and (3)(c) of Section 7.05(a) to the extent such net cash proceeds or cash have not been applied pursuant to such clauses to make Restricted Payments pursuant to Section 7.05(a) or to make Permitted Investments (other than Permitted Investments specified in clause (1), (2) or (3) of the definition thereof); and

(c) For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 7.02:

(1) the principal amount of Indebtedness outstanding under any clause of this Section 7.02 will be determined after giving effect to the application of proceeds of any such Indebtedness to refinance any such other Indebtedness;
(2) guarantees of, or obligations in respect of letters of credit relating to, Indebtedness that are otherwise included in the determination of a particular amount of Indebtedness will not be included in the determination of such amount of Indebtedness; provided that the incurrence of the Indebtedness represented by such guarantee or letter of credit, as the case may be, was incurred in compliance with this Section 7.02.

The accrual of interest or dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accrual or amortization of original issue discount and the payment of interest or dividends in the form of additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and increases in the amount of Indebtedness outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies, in each case, will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock for purposes of this Section 7.02. Any Indebtedness incurred, or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued, to refinance Indebtedness incurred, or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued, pursuant to clauses (2), (3), (4), (12), (13), (14), (23), (30) and (31) of Section 7.02(b) will be permitted to include additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred to pay (I) any accrued and unpaid interest on the Indebtedness, any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock, and any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Disqualified Stock being so refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased and (II) the amount of any tender premium or penalty or premium required to be paid under the terms of the instrument or documents governing such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock and any defeasance costs and any fees and expenses (including original issue discount, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with the issuance of such new Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock or the extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance of such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (and with respect to Indebtedness under Designated Revolving Commitments, including an amount equal to any unutilized Designated Revolving Commitments being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased to the extent permanently terminated at the time of incurrence of such Refinancing Indebtedness).

For purposes of determining compliance with any Dollar denominated restriction on the incurrence of Indebtedness or issuance of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, the Dollar equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness or liquidation preference of Disqualified Stock or amount of Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency will be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock was incurred or issued (or, in the case of revolving credit debt, the date such Indebtedness was first committed or first incurred (whichever yields the lower Dollar equivalent)); provided that if such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued to Refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency, and such refinancing would cause the applicable Dollar denominated restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such Dollar denominated restriction will be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock does not exceed (i) the principal amount of such Indebtedness, the liquidation preference of such Disqualified Stock or the amount of such Preferred Stock (as applicable) being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased plus (ii) any accrued and unpaid interest on the Indebtedness, any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock, and any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Disqualified Stock being so refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased, plus (iii) the amount of any tender premium or penalty or premium required to be paid under the terms of the instrument or documents governing such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock and any defeasance costs and any fees and expenses (including original issue discount, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with the issuance of such new Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock or the extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance of such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (and with respect to Indebtedness under Designated Revolving Commitments, including an amount equal to any unutilized Designated Revolving Commitments being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased to the extent permanently terminated at the time of incurrence of such Refinancing Indebtedness).
The principal amount of any Indebtedness incurred or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued to refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, if incurred or issued in a different currency from the Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as applicable, being refinanced, will be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing. The principal amount of any non-interest bearing Indebtedness or other discount security constituting Indebtedness at any date will be the principal amount thereof that would be shown on a balance sheet of the Borrower dated such date prepared in accordance with GAAP.

(18) payments made for the benefit of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary to the extent such payments could have been made by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary because such payments (a) would not otherwise be Restricted Payments and (b) would be permitted by Section 7.07;

(6) the existence of, or the performance by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of its obligations under the terms of, any agreement

(18) intellectual property licenses in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice;

(19) the payment of reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses relating to registration rights and indemnities provided to equity holders of the Borrower or any Parent Company pursuant to any equity holders agreement or registration rights agreement entered into on or after the Closing Date;

(20) transactions permitted by, and complying with, Section 7.03 solely for the purpose of (a) reorganizing to facilitate any initial public offering of securities of the Borrower or any Parent Company, (b) forming a holding company or (c) reincorporating the Borrower in a new jurisdiction;
(21) transactions undertaken in good faith (as determined by the Board of Directors or certified by senior management of the Borrower in an Officer’s Certificate) for the purposes of improving the consolidated tax efficiency of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries and not for the purpose of circumventing Articles VI and VII of this Agreement; so long as such transactions, when taken as a whole, do not result in a material adverse effect on the Liens on the Collateral granted by the Loan Parties in favor of the Secured Parties, when taken as a whole, in each case, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors or certified by senior management of the Borrower in an Officer’s Certificate;

(22) (a) transactions with a Person that is an Affiliate of the Borrower (other than an Unrestricted Subsidiary) solely because the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary owns Equity Interests in such Person and (b) transactions with any Person that is an Affiliate solely because a director or officer of such Person is a director or officer of the Borrower, any Restricted Subsidiary or any Parent Company;

(23) (a) pledges and other transfers of Equity Interests in Unrestricted Subsidiaries and (b) any transactions with an Affiliate in which the consideration paid consists solely of Equity Interests of the Borrower or a Parent Company;

(25) investments by any Investor or Parent Company in securities or Indebtedness of the Borrower or any Guarantor;

(27) transactions undertaken in the ordinary course of business pursuant to membership in a purchasing consortium; and

(28) any transactions and payments contemplated by, and the performance by the Parent Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of any other obligations under, each of the Transaction Documents (and any amendment thereto and similar agreements or arrangements that it may enter into thereafter), including any Restricted Payment made in connection with such transactions or used to fund amounts owed to Affiliates (including Restricted Payments to any Parent Company to permit payment by such Parent Company of such amounts); provided that the existence of, or the performance by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of obligations under any such amendment to such Transaction Document or under such similar agreement or arrangement entered into after the Closing Date will only be permitted by this clause (28) to the extent that the terms of any such amendment or new agreement or arrangement are not otherwise materially disadvantageous in the good faith judgment of the Borrower to the Lenders when taken as a whole (as compared to such Transaction Document in effect on the Closing Date).

SECTION 7.08 Burdensome Agreements.

(a) The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor (or, solely in the case of clause (4), that is a Subsidiary Guarantor) to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or consensual restriction (other than this Agreement or any other Loan Document) on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor (or, solely in the case of clause (4), that is a Subsidiary Guarantor) to:

(1) (a) pay dividends or make any other distributions to the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Guarantor on its Capital Stock or with respect to any other interest or participation in, or measured by, its profits, or provided that any dividend or liquidation priority between or among classes or series of Capital Stock, and the subordination of any obligation (including the application of any remedy bars thereto) to any other obligation will not be deemed to constitute such an encumbrance or restriction.

(b) Section 7.08(a) will not apply to any encumbrances or restrictions existing under or by reason of:

(1) encumbrances or restrictions in effect on the Closing Date, including pursuant to the Loan Documents and any Hedge Agreements, Hedging Obligations and the related documentation;

(6) contracts or agreements for the sale or disposition of assets, including any restrictions with respect to a Subsidiary of the Borrower pursuant to an agreement that has been entered into for the sale or disposition of any of the Capital Stock or assets of such Subsidiary;

(7) [reserved];

(8) restrictions on cash or other deposits or net worth imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice or arising in connection with any Liens permitted by Section 7.01;

(9) provisions in agreements governing Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock of Restricted Subsidiaries that are not Guarantors permitted to be incurred subsequent to the Closing Date pursuant to Section 7.02;

(14) customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of any lease governing a leasehold interest of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary;

(15) customary provisions restricting assignment of any agreement;

(16) restrictions arising in connection with cash or other deposits permitted under Section 7.01;

(17) any other agreement or instrument governing any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock, or Preferred Stock permitted to be incurred or issued pursuant to Section 7.02 entered into after the Closing Date that contains encumbrances and restrictions that either (i) are no more restrictive in any material respect, taken as a whole, with respect to the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary than (A) the restrictions contained in the Loan Documents and the Second Lien Credit Documents as of the Closing Date or (B) those encumbrances and other restrictions that are in effect on the Closing Date with respect to the Borrower or that Restricted Subsidiary pursuant to agreements in effect on the Closing Date, (ii) are not materially more disadvantageous, taken as a whole, to the Lenders than is customary in comparable financings for similarly situated issuers or (iii) will not materially impair the Borrower’s ability to make payments on the Obligations when due, in each case in the good faith judgment of the Borrower;

(18) (i) under terms of Indebtedness and Liens in respect of Indebtedness permitted to be incurred pursuant to Section 7.02(b)(4) and any permitted refinancing in respect of the foregoing and (ii) agreements entered into in connection with any Sale-Leaseback Transaction entered into in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice;

(19) customary restrictions and conditions contained in documents relating to any Lien so long as (i) such Lien is a Permitted Lien and such restrictions or conditions relate only to the specific asset subject to such Lien and (ii) such restrictions and conditions are not created for the purpose of avoiding the restrictions imposed by this Section 7.08;

(20) any encumbrance or restriction with respect to a Restricted Subsidiary that was previously an Unrestricted Subsidiary which encumbrance or restriction exists pursuant to or by reason of an agreement that such Subsidiary is a party to or entered into before the date on which such Subsidiary became a Restricted Subsidiary; provided that such agreement was not entered into in anticipation of an Unrestricted Subsidiary becoming a Restricted Subsidiary and any such encumbrance or restriction does not extend to any assets or property of the Borrower or any other Restricted Subsidiary other than the assets and property of such Restricted Subsidiary;

(21) any encumbrances or restrictions imposed by any amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of the contracts, instruments or obligations referred to in clauses (1) through (20) above; provided that such amendments, modifications, restatements, renewals, increases, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings are, in the good faith judgment of the Borrower, no more restrictive in any material respect with respect to such encumbrance and other restrictions, taken as a whole, than those prior to such amendment, modification, restatement, renewal, increase, supplement, refunding, replacement or refinancing;

(22) any encumbrance or restriction existing under, by reason of or with respect to Refinancing Indebtedness; provided that the encumbrances and restrictions contained in the agreements governing that Refinancing Indebtedness are, in the good faith judgment of the Borrower, not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than those contained in the agreements governing the Indebtedness being refinanced; and

(23) applicable law or any applicable rule, regulation or order in any jurisdiction where Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock of Foreign Subsidiaries permitted to be incurred or issued pursuant to Section 7.02 is incurred.

SECTION 7.09 Accounting Changes. The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, make any change in fiscal year; provided, however, that the Borrower may, upon written notice to the Administrative Agent, (i) change its fiscal year to a calendar year ending December 31 and (ii) change its fiscal year to any other fiscal year reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent, and in the case of each of (i) and (ii), the Borrower and the Administrative Agent will, and are hereby authorized by the Lenders to, make any adjustments to this Agreement that are necessary to reflect such change in fiscal year.
SECTION 7.10 Modification of Terms of Subordinated Indebtedness. The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, amend, modify or change in any manner materially adverse to the interests of the Lenders, as determined in good faith by the Borrower, any term or condition of any Junior Indebtedness that is contractually subordinated in right of payment and having an aggregate outstanding principal amount greater than the Threshold Amount (other than as a result of any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) without the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that no amendment, modification or change of any term or condition of any Junior Indebtedness permitted by any subordination provisions set forth in the applicable Junior Indebtedness or any other stand-alone subordination agreement in respect thereof shall be deemed to be materially adverse to the interests of the Lenders.

SECTION 7.11 Holdings. Holdings shall not engage in any material operating or business activities; provided that the following and any activities incidental thereto shall be permitted in any event:

(i) its ownership of the Equity Interests of the Borrower and its other Subsidiaries, including receipt and payment of Restricted Payments and other amounts in respect of Equity Interests,

SECTION 7.12 Financial Covenant. The Borrower and each of the Restricted Subsidiaries covenant and agree that:

(1) If on the last day of any Test Period (commencing with the fiscal quarter ending on or about December 30, 2017) there are outstanding Revolving Loans and Letters of Credit (excluding (a) undrawn Letters of Credit in an aggregate amount not to exceed $30.0 million and (b) Letters of Credit to the extent Cash Collateralized or backstopped (whether drawn or undrawn) on terms reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank) in an aggregate principal amount exceeding 35% of the aggregate principal amount of all Revolving Commitments under all outstanding Revolving Facilities (including any Incremental Revolving Facilities), the Borrower shall not permit the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio as of the last day of such Test Period to be greater than 6.30 to 1.00 (such compliance to be determined on the basis of the financial information most recently delivered to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 6.01(1) and Section 6.01(2) for such Test Period) (the “Financial Covenant”).

(2) The provisions of this Section 7.12 are for the benefit of the Revolving Lenders only and the Required Facility Lenders in respect of the Revolving Facility may amend, waive or otherwise modify this Section 7.12 or the defined terms used in this Section 7.12 (solely in respect of the use of such defined terms in this Section 7.12) or waive any Default or Event of Default resulting from a breach of this Section 7.12 without the consent of any Lenders other than the Required Facility Lenders in respect of the Revolving Facility.

Article VIII
Events of Default and Remedies

SECTION 8.01 Events of Default. Each of the events referred to in clauses (1) through (11) of this Section 8.01 shall constitute an “Event of Default”:

(1) Non-Payment. The Borrower fails to pay (a) when and as required to be paid herein, any amount of principal of any Loan or (b) within five (5) Business Days after the same becomes due, any interest on any Loan or any other amount payable hereunder or with respect to any other Loan Document; or

(2) Specific Covenants. The Borrower, any Subsidiary Guarantor or, in the case of Section 7.11, Holdings, fails to perform or observe any term, covenant or agreement contained in Section 6.03(1), 6.05(1) (solely with respect to the Borrower, other than in a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or 7.04) or Article VII; provided that the Borrower’s failure to comply with the Financial Covenant or a breach of a financial maintenance covenant under any Incremental Revolving Commitments or any revolving facility that constitutes Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness (each, a “Financial Covenant Event of Default”) shall not constitute an Event of Default with respect to any Term Loans or Term Commitments unless and until the Required Facility Lenders for the Revolving Facilities have actually terminated the Revolving Commitments and declared all Obligations with respect to the applicable Revolving Facility to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 8.02 as a result of such failure to comply (and such declaration has not been rescinded as of the applicable date) (the occurrence of such termination and declaration by the Required Facility Lenders for the Revolving Facilities, a “Financial Covenant Cross Default”); provided further that any Financial Covenant Event of Default is subject to cure pursuant to Section 8.04; or

(3) Other Defaults. The Borrower or any Subsidiary Guarantor fails to perform or observe any other covenant or agreement (not specified in Section 8.01(1) or (2) above) contained in any Loan Document on its part to be performed or observed and such failure continues for thirty (30) days after receipt by the Borrower of written notice thereof from the Administrative Agent; or

(4) Representations and Warranties. Any representation, warranty, certification or statement of fact made or deemed made by any Loan Party herein, in any other Loan Document, or in any document required to be delivered in connection herewith or therewith shall be untrue in any material respect when made or deemed made; or

(5) Cross-Default. The Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (a) fails to make any payment beyond the applicable grace period, if any, whether by scheduled maturity, required prepayment, acceleration, demand, or otherwise, in respect of any Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness hereunder) having an aggregate outstanding principal amount (individually or in the aggregate with all other Indebtedness as to which such a failure shall exist) of not less than the Threshold Amount, or (b) fails to observe or perform any other agreement or condition relating to any such Indebtedness, or any other event occurs (other than, with respect to Indebtedness consisting of Hedging Obligations, termination events or equivalent events pursuant to the terms of such Hedging Obligations and not as a result of any default hereunder by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary), the effect of which default or other event is to cause, or to permit the holder or holders of such Indebtedness (or a trustee or agent on behalf of such holder or holders or beneficiary or beneficiaries) to cause, with the giving of notice if required, such Indebtedness to become due or to be repurchased, prepaid, defeased or redeemed (automatically or otherwise), or an offer to repurchase, prepay, defease or redeem all of such Indebtedness to be made, prior to its stated maturity; provided that (A) such failure is unremedied and is not waived by the holders of such Indebtedness prior to any termination of the Commitments or acceleration of the Loans pursuant to Section 8.02 and (B) this clause (5)(b) shall not apply to secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness, if such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder and under the documents providing for such Indebtedness; or

(6) Insolvency Proceedings, etc. The Borrower, any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Restricted Subsidiaries that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary, institutes or consents to the institution of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or applies for or consents to the appointment of any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer for it or for all or any material part of its property; or any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed without the application or consent of such Person and the appointment continues undischarged or unstayed for sixty (60) calendar days; or any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law relating to any such Person or to all or any material part of its property is instituted without the consent of such Person and continues undismissed or unstayed for sixty (60) calendar days, or an order for relief is entered in any such proceeding; or
(7) Judgments. There is entered against the Borrower, any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Restricted Subsidiaries that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary, a final non-appealable judgment and order for the payment of money in an aggregate amount exceeding the Threshold Amount (to the extent not paid or covered by insurance or indemnities as to which the insurer or indemnity has been notified of such judgment or order and the applicable insurance company or indemnity has not denied coverage thereof) and such judgment or order shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending an appeal for a period of sixty (60) consecutive days; or

(8) ERISA. (a) An ERISA Event occurs with respect to a Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan, (b) the Borrower or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any of their respective ERISA Affiliates fails to pay when due, after the expiration of any applicable grace period, any installment payment with respect to its Withdrawal Liability under Section 4201 of ERISA under a Multiemployer Plan, or (c) with respect to a Foreign Plan, a termination, withdrawal or noncompliance with applicable Law or plan terms occurs, except, with respect to each of the foregoing clauses of this Section 8.01(8), as would not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect; or

(9) Invalidity of Loan Documents. Any material provision of the Loan Documents, taken as a whole, at any time after its execution and delivery and for any reason (other than (a) as expressly permitted by a Loan Document (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or 7.04), (b) as a result of acts or omissions by an Agent or any Lender or (c) due to the satisfaction in full of the Termination Conditions) ceases to be in full force and effect; or any Loan Party contests in writing the validity or enforceability of the Loan Documents, taken as a whole (other than as a result of the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions), or any Loan Party denies in writing that it has any or further liability or obligation under the Loan Documents, taken as a whole (other than (i) as expressly permitted by a Loan Document (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or 7.04) or (ii) as a result of the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions), or purports in writing to revoke or rescind the Loan Documents, taken as a whole, prior to the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions; or

(10) Collateral Documents. Any Collateral Document with respect to a material portion of the Collateral after delivery thereof pursuant to Section 4.01, 6.11, 6.13 or pursuant to the provisions of any Collateral Document for any reason (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof including as a result of a transaction not prohibited under this Agreement) ceases to create, or any Lien purported to be created by any Collateral Document with respect to a material portion of the Collateral shall be asserted in writing by any Loan Party (prior to the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions) not to be, a valid and perfected Lien with the priority required by such Collateral Document (or other security purported to be created on the applicable Collateral) on, and security interest in, any material portion of the Collateral purported to be covered thereby, subject to Liens permitted under Section 7.01, except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the failure of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to maintain possession of Collateral actually delivered to it and pledged under the Collateral Documents, to file Uniform Commercial Code amendments relating to a Loan Party’s change of name or jurisdiction of formation (solely to the extent that the Borrower provides the Collateral Agent written notice thereof in accordance with the Security Agreement, and the Collateral Agent and the Borrower have agreed that the Collateral Agent will be responsible for filing such amendments) or continuation statements and except as to Collateral consisting of real property to the extent that such losses are covered by a lender’s title insurance policy and such insurer has not denied coverage; or
(11) Change of Control. There occurs any Change of Control.

SECTION 8.02 Remedies upon Event of Default. Subject to Section 8.04, if any Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Administrative Agent may with the consent of the Required Lenders and shall, at the request of the Required Lenders, take any or all of the following actions:

1. declare the Commitments of each Lender and any obligation of the Issuing Banks to make L/C Credit Extensions to be terminated, whereupon such Commitments and obligation will be terminated;
2. declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable under any Loan Document to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrower;
3. require that the Borrower Cash Collateralize the then outstanding Letters of Credit (in an amount equal to the then Outstanding Amount thereof); and provided that (a) upon the occurrence of an actual or deemed entry of an order for relief with respect to the Borrower under Title 11 of the United States Code entitled “Bankruptcy,” as now or hereafter in effect, or any successor thereto (the “Bankruptcy Code”), the Commitments of each Lender and any obligation of the Issuing Banks to issue Letters of Credit, will automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid will automatically become due and payable, and the obligation of the Borrower to Cash Collateralize the Letters of Credit as aforesaid will automatically become effective, in each case without further act of the Administrative Agent or any Lender and (b) notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if the only Events of Default then having occurred and continuing are pursuant to a Financial Covenant Event of Default, then, unless a Financial Covenant Cross Default has occurred and is continuing, the Administrative Agent shall only take the actions set forth in this Section 8.02 at the request (or with the consent) of the Required Facility Lenders under the Revolving Facilities (as opposed to the Required Lenders) and only with respect to the Revolving Commitments, Revolving Loans, Letters of Credit and Obligations under the Revolving Facilities.

SECTION 8.03 Application of Funds. After the exercise of remedies provided for in Section 8.02 (or after the Loans have automatically become immediately due and payable as set forth in clause (a) of the proviso to Section 8.02), subject to any Intercreditor Agreement then in effect, any amounts received on account of the Obligations will be applied by the Administrative Agent in the following order:

First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs payable under Section 10.04 and amounts payable under Article III) payable to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in their capacities as such;
Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs payable under Section 10.04 and amounts payable under Article III) payable to the Lenders, ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them;

Third, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting accrued and unpaid interest on the Loans and L/C Borrowings, ratably among the Lenders in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause Third payable to them;

Fourth, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting unpaid principal of the Loans and L/C Borrowings (including to Cash Collateralize that portion of L/C Obligations comprised of the aggregate undrawn amount of Letters of Credit), the Obligations under Secured Hedge Agreements and Cash Management Obligations under Secured Cash Management Agreements, ratably among the Secured Parties in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause Fourth held by them;

Fifth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Loan Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties on such date; and

Last, the balance, if any, after all of the Obligations have been paid in full, to the Borrower or as otherwise required by Law.

Subject to Section 2.03(3), amounts used to Cash Collateralize the aggregate undrawn amount of Letters of Credit pursuant to clause Fourth above will be applied to satisfy drawings under such Letters of Credit as they occur. If any amount remains on deposit as Cash Collateral after all Letters of Credit have either been fully drawn or expired, such remaining amount will be applied to the other Obligations, if any, in the order set forth above and, if no Obligations remain outstanding, will be paid to the Borrower.

SECTION 8.04 Right to Cure.

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 8.01 or Section 8.02, but subject to Sections 8.04(2) and (3), for the purpose of determining whether an Event of Default under the Financial Covenant has occurred, the Borrower may on one or more occasions designate any portion of the Net Proceeds from any Permitted Equity Issuance or of any contribution to the common equity capital of the Borrower (or from any other contribution to capital or sale or issuance of any other Equity Interests on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent) (the “Cure Amount”) as an increase to Consolidated EBITDA of the Borrower for the applicable fiscal quarter; provided that

(a) such amounts to be designated are actually received by the Borrower (i) on or after the first Business Day of the applicable fiscal quarter and (ii) on or prior to the tenth (10th) Business Day after the date on which financial statements are required to be delivered with respect to such applicable fiscal quarter (the “Cure Expiration Date”),
(b) such amounts do not exceed the maximum aggregate amount necessary to cure any Event of Default under the Financial Covenant as of such date and

(c) the Borrower will have provided notice to the Administrative Agent on the date such amounts are designated as a “Cure Amount” (it being understood that to the extent such notice is provided in advance of delivery of a Compliance Certificate for the applicable period, the amount of such Net Proceeds that is designated as the Cure Amount may be lower than specified in such notice to the extent that the amount necessary to cure any Event of Default under the Financial Covenant is less than the full amount of such originally designated amount).

The Cure Amount used to calculate Consolidated EBITDA for one fiscal quarter will be used and included when calculating Consolidated EBITDA for each Test Period that includes such fiscal quarter. The parties hereby acknowledge that this Section 8.04(1) may not be relied on for purposes of calculating any financial ratios other than as applicable to the Financial Covenant (and may not be included for purposes of determining pricing, mandatory prepayments and the availability or amount permitted pursuant to any covenant under Article VII) and may not result in any adjustment to any amounts (including the amount of Indebtedness) or increase in cash with respect to the fiscal quarter with respect to which such Cure Amount was received other than the amount of the Consolidated EBITDA referred to in the immediately preceding sentence, except to the extent such proceeds are actually applied to prepay Indebtedness under the Facilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 8.01 and Section 8.02, (A) upon designation of the Cure Amount by the Borrower in an amount necessary to cure any Event of Default under the Financial Covenant, the Financial Covenant will be deemed satisfied and complied with as of the end of the relevant fiscal quarter with the same effect as though there had been no failure to comply with the Financial Covenant and any Event of Default under the Financial Covenant (and any other Default as a result thereof) will be deemed not to have occurred for purposes of the Loan Documents, (B) from and after the date that the Borrower delivers a written notice to the Administrative Agent that it intends to exercise its cure right under this Section 8.04 (a "Notice of Intent to Cure") neither the Administrative Agent nor any Lender may exercise any rights or remedies under Section 8.02 (or under any other Loan Document) on the basis of any actual or purported Event of Default under the Financial Covenant (and any other Default as a result thereof) until and unless the Cure Expiration Date has occurred without the Cure Amount having been designated and (C) no Lender or Issuing Bank shall be required to (but in its sole discretion may) make any Revolving Loan or issue or amend any Letter of Credit from and after such time as the Administrative Agent has received the Notice of Intent to Cure unless and until the Cure Amount is actually received.

(2) In each period of four consecutive fiscal quarters, there shall be no more than two (2) fiscal quarters in which the cure right set forth in Section 8.04(1) is exercised.

(3) There shall be no more than five (5) fiscal quarters in which the cure rights set forth in Section 8.04(1) are exercised during the term of the Facilities; provided that, so long as the Closing Date Revolving Facility is no longer outstanding, there may be an additional fiscal quarter after the Original Revolving Facility Maturity Date in which the cure rights set forth in this Section 8.04 are exercised during the term of any Revolving Commitments.
Article IX

Administrative Agent and Other Agents

SECTION 9.01 Appointment and Authorization of the Administrative Agent.

(1) Each Lender and Issuing Bank hereby irrevocably appoints Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Article IX (other than Sections 9.07, 9.11, 9.12, 9.15 and 9.16) are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and each Issuing Bank and the Borrower shall not have rights as a third-party beneficiary of any such provision. The Administrative Agent hereby represents and warrants that it is either (i) a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” and that it will comply with its “obligation to withhold,” each within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(ii) or (ii) a Withholding U.S. Branch.

(2) The Administrative Agent shall also act as the “collateral agent” under the Loan Documents, and each of the Lenders (including in its capacities as a Lender and a potential Hedge Bank or Cash Management Bank) and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as the agent of (and to hold any security interest created by the Collateral Documents for and on behalf of or in trust for) such Lender and Issuing Bank for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Loan Parties to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Administrative Agent, as “collateral agent” (and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 9.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Collateral Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Administrative Agent), shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article IX and Article X with respect to the Administrative Agent (including Sections 10.04 and 10.05), as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the “collateral agent” under the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto (including any Intercreditor Agreement), as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Collateral Documents and acknowledge and agree that any such action by any Agent shall bind the Lenders.

SECTION 9.02 Rights as a Lender. Any Lender that is also serving as an Agent (including as Administrative Agent) hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent and the term “Lender” or “Lenders” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include each Lender (if any) serving as an Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Any such Person serving as an Agent and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not an Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, any Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that no Agent shall be under any obligation to provide such information to them.
SECTION 9.03 Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Agent (including the Administrative Agent):

(1) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term “agent” herein and in the other Loan Documents with reference to any Agent or Arranger is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law and instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties;

(2) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that such Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents), provided that no Agent shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law; and

(3) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by any Person serving as an Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its Related Persons shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Sections 10.01 and 8.02) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower, a Lender, or an Issuing Bank.

No Agent-Related Person shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any recital, statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Collateral Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent. The duties of the Administrative Agent shall be mechanical and administrative in nature; the Administrative Agent shall not have by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Document a fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender or the holder of any Note; and nothing in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, expressed or implied, is intended to or shall be so construed as to impose upon the Administrative Agent any obligations in respect of this Agreement or any other Loan Document except as expressly set forth herein or therein.
Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any provision of any other Loan Document, each Arranger is named as such for recognition purposes only, and in its capacity as such shall have no powers, duties, responsibilities or liabilities with respect to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; it being understood and agreed that each Arranger shall be entitled to all indemnification and reimbursement rights in favor of the Arrangers as, and to the extent, provided for under Section 10.05. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Arranger shall not, solely by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents, have any fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender or any other Person.

SECTION 9.04 Lack of Reliance on the Administrative Agent. Independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the holder of each Note, to the extent it deems appropriate, has made and shall continue to make (i) its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of Holdings, the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries in connection with the making and the continuance of the Loans and the taking or not taking of any action in connection herewith and (ii) its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of Holdings, the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility, either initially or on a continuing basis, to provide any Lender or the holder of any Note with any credit or other information with respect thereto, whether coming into its possession before the making of the Loans or at any time or times thereafter. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible to any Lender or the holder of any Note for any recitals, statements, information, representations or warranties herein or in any document, certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or for the execution, effectiveness, genuineness, validity, enforceability, perfection, collectability, priority or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the financial condition of Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries or be required to make any inquiry concerning either the performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or the financial condition of Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries or the existence or possible existence of any Default or Event of Default.

SECTION 9.05 Certain Rights of the Administrative Agent. If the Administrative Agent requests instructions from the Required Lenders with respect to any act or action (including failure to act) in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to refrain from such act or taking such action unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received instructions from the Required Lenders; and the Administrative Agent shall not incur liability to any Lender by reason of so refraining. Without limiting the foregoing, neither any Lender nor the holder of any Note shall have any right of action whatsoever against the Administrative Agent as a result of the Administrative Agent acting or refraining from acting hereunder or under any other Loan Document in accordance with the instructions of the Required Lenders.

SECTION 9.06 Reliance by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, any note, writing, resolution, notice, statement, certificate, telex, teletype or facsimile message, cablegram, radiogram, order or other document or telephone message signed, sent or made by any Person that the Administrative Agent believed to be the proper Person, and, with respect to all legal matters pertaining to this Agreement and any other Loan Document and its duties hereunder and thereunder, upon advice of counsel selected by the Administrative Agent. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan or the issuance, extension, renewal or increase of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender or Issuing Bank unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan or issuances of such Letter of Credit. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 9.07 Delegation of Duties. The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Loan Documents by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Agent-Related Persons. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub agent and to the Agent-Related Persons of the Administrative Agent and any such sub agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.07 or Section 9.15, the Administrative Agent shall not delegate to any Supplemental Administrative Agent responsibility for receiving any payments under any Loan Document for the account of any Lender, which payments shall be received directly by the Administrative Agent, without prior written consent of the Borrower (not to unreasonably withheld or delayed).

SECTION 9.08 Indemnification. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to the extent the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) is not reimbursed and indemnified by the Borrower, the Lenders will reimburse and indemnify the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) in proportion to their respective Pro Rata Shares for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of whatsoever kind or nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) in performing its duties hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent’s or any other Agent-Related Person’s gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision). In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any Indemnified Liabilities, this Section 9.08 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person.
Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse the Administrative Agent upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out-of-pocket expenses (including Attorney Costs) incurred by the Administrative Agent in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Loan Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that the Administrative Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower, provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower’s continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto, provided further that the failure of any Lender to indemnify or reimburse the Administrative Agent shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation in respect thereof. The undertaking in this Section 9.08 shall survive termination of the Aggregate Commitments, the payment of all other Obligations and the resignation of the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.09 The Administrative Agent in Its Individual Capacity. With respect to its obligation to make Loans under this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have the rights and powers specified herein for a “Lender” and may exercise the same rights and powers as though it were not performing the duties specified herein; and the term “Lender,” “Required Lenders” or any similar terms shall, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, include the Administrative Agent in its respective individual capacities. The Administrative Agent and its affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of banking, investment banking, trust or other business with, or provide debt financing, equity capital or other services (including financial advisory services) to any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party (or any Person engaged in a similar business with any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof) as if they were not performing the duties specified herein, and may accept fees and other consideration from any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party for services in connection with this Agreement and otherwise without having to account for the same to the Lenders. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, any Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that no Agent shall be under any obligation to provide such information to them.

SECTION 9.10 Reserved.

SECTION 9.11 Resignation by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may resign from the performance of all its respective functions and duties hereunder or under the other Loan Documents at any time by giving 30 Business Days prior written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower. If the Administrative Agent becomes subject to a Lender-Related Distress Event, then the Administrative Agent may be removed as the Administrative Agent at the reasonable request of the Required Lenders. If the Administrative Agent becomes subject to an Agent-Related Distress Event, then the Borrower may remove the Administrative Agent from such role upon 15 days’ prior written notice to the Lenders. Such resignation or removal shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Administrative Agent as provided below.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no successor Administrative Agent shall be appointed unless such successor Administrative Agent represents and warrants that it is (i) a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” and that it will comply with its “obligation to withhold,” each within the meaning of U.S. Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1, or (ii) a Withholding U.S. Branch.

Upon any such notice of resignation by, or notice of removal of, the Administrative Agent, the Required Lenders shall appoint a successor Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder who shall be a commercial bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Borrower, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed (provided that the Borrower’s approval shall not be required if an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing).

If a successor Administrative Agent shall not have been so appointed within such 30 Business Day period, the Administrative Agent, with the consent of the Borrower (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided that the Borrower’s consent shall not be required if an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing), shall then appoint a successor Administrative Agent who shall serve as Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided above.
If no successor Administrative Agent has been appointed pursuant to the foregoing by the 35th Business Day after the date such notice of resignation was given by the Administrative Agent or such notice of removal was given by the Required Lenders or the Borrower, as applicable, the Administrative Agent’s resignation shall nonetheless become effective and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided above. The retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders or the Issuing Banks under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed) and except for any indemnity payments or other amounts then owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent, all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender or Issuing Bank directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this Section 9.11.

Upon the acceptance of a successor’s appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder and upon the execution and filing or recording of such financing statements, or amendments thereto, and such amendments or supplements to the Mortgages, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as the Required Lenders may request, in order to (i) continue the perfection of the Liens granted or purported to be granted by the Collateral Documents or (ii) otherwise ensure that the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement is satisfied, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section 9.11).

The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Administrative Agent’s resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article and Sections 10.04 and 10.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Agent-Related Persons in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

Upon a resignation or removal of the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 9.11, the Administrative Agent (i) shall continue to be subject to Section 10.09 and (ii) shall remain indemnified to the extent provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the provisions of this Article IX (and the analogous provisions of the other Loan Documents) shall continue in effect for the benefit of the Administrative Agent for all of its actions and inactions while serving as the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.12 Collateral Matters. Each Lender (including in its capacities as a potential Cash Management Bank and a potential Hedge Bank) irrevocably authorizes and directs the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to take the actions to be taken by them as set forth in Sections 7.04 and 10.24.

Each Lender hereby agrees, and each holder of any Note by the acceptance thereof will be deemed to agree, that, except as otherwise set forth herein, any action taken by the Required Lenders or the Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the Collateral Documents, and the exercise by the Required Lenders or the Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, of the powers set forth herein or therein, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, shall be authorized and binding upon all of the Lenders. The Collateral Agent is hereby authorized on behalf of all of the Lenders, without the necessity of any notice to or further consent from any Lender, from time to time, to take any action with respect to any Collateral or Collateral Documents which may be necessary to perfect and maintain perfected the security interest in and liens upon the Collateral granted pursuant to the Collateral Documents.
Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent’s authority to release particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 9.12. In each case as specified in this Section 9.12, Section 7.04 and Section 10.24, the applicable Agent will (and each Lender irrevocably authorizes the applicable Agent to), at the Borrower’s expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release or subordination of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Collateral Documents, or to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents, this Section 9.12, Section 7.04 and Section 10.24.

The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Lenders or to any other Person to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by any Loan Party or is cared for, protected or insured or that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent herein or pursuant hereto have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to exercise or to continue exercising at all or in any manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Collateral Agent in this Section 9.12, Section 7.04, Section 10.24 or in any of the Collateral Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its sole discretion, given the Collateral Agent’s own interest in the Collateral as one of the Lenders and that the Collateral Agent shall have no duty or liability whatsoever to the Lenders, except for its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

SECTION 9.13 [Reserved].

SECTION 9.14 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, L/C Obligations and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, any Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, any Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, any Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;
and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender and Issuing Bank to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders and relevant Issuing Banks, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Agents and their respective agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or Issuing Bank any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or Issuing Bank or to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or Issuing Bank in any such proceeding.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar Laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Loan Party is subject, (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable Law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (a) through (i) of the first proviso to Section 10.01(1) of this Agreement), (iii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to assign the relevant Obligations to any such acquisition vehicle pro rata by the Lenders, as a result of which each of the Lenders shall be deemed to have received a pro rata portion of any Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by such an acquisition vehicle on account of the assignment of the Obligations to be credit bid, all without the need for any Secured Party or acquisition vehicle to take any further action, and (iv) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.
SECTION 9.15 Appointment of Supplemental Administrative Agents.

(1) It is the purpose of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that there shall be no violation of any Law of any jurisdiction denying or restricting the right of banking corporations or associations to transact business as agent or trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, and in particular in case of the enforcement of any of the Loan Documents, or in case the Administrative Agent deems that by reason of any present or future Law of any jurisdiction it may not exercise any of the rights, powers or remedies granted herein or in any of the other Loan Documents or take any other action which may be desirable or necessary in connection therewith, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized to appoint an additional individual or institution selected by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion as a separate trustee, co-trustee, administrative agent, collateral agent, administrative sub-agent or administrative co-agent (any such additional individual or institution being referred to herein individually as a “Supplemental Administrative Agent” and collectively as “Supplemental Administrative Agents”).

(2) In the event that the Administrative Agent appoints a Supplemental Administrative Agent with respect to any Collateral, (i) each and every right, power, privilege or duty expressed or intended by this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Administrative Agent with respect to such Collateral shall be exercisable by and vest in such Supplemental Administrative Agent to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to enable such Supplemental Administrative Agent to exercise such rights, powers and privileges with respect to such Collateral and to perform such duties with respect to such Collateral, and every covenant and obligation contained in the Loan Documents and necessary to the exercise or performance thereof by such Supplemental Administrative Agent shall run to and be enforceable by either the Administrative Agent or such Supplemental Administrative Agent, and (ii) the provisions of this Article IX and of Sections 10.04 and 10.05 that refer to the Administrative Agent shall inure to the benefit of such Supplemental Administrative Agent and all references therein to the Administrative Agent shall be deemed to be references to the Administrative Agent or such Supplemental Administrative Agent, as the context may require.

(3) Should any instrument in writing from any Loan Party be reasonably required by any Supplemental Administrative Agent so appointed by the Administrative Agent for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to him or it such rights, powers, privileges and duties, the Borrower shall, or shall cause such Loan Party to, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all such instruments reasonably acceptable to it promptly upon request by the Administrative Agent. In case any Supplemental Administrative Agent, or a successor thereto, shall die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of such Supplemental Administrative Agent, to the extent permitted by Law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Administrative Agent until the appointment of a new Supplemental Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.16 Intercreditor Agreements. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent are hereby authorized to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement to the extent contemplated by the terms hereof, and the parties hereto acknowledge that such Intercreditor Agreement is binding upon them. Each Secured Party (a) hereby agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, (b) hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to enter into the Intercreditor Agreements and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations to the provisions thereof and (c) without any further consent of the Lenders, hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to negotiate, execute and deliver on behalf of the Secured Parties any intercreditor agreement or any amendment (or amendment and restatement) to the Collateral Documents or any Intercreditor Agreement contemplated hereunder (including any such amendment (or amendment and restatement) of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement to provide for the incurrence of any Indebtedness permitted hereunder that will be secured on a junior lien or pari passu basis to (x) the Obligations and/or (y) any Indebtedness pursuant to the Second Lien Credit Documents). In addition, each Secured Party hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to enter into (i) any amendments to any Intercreditor Agreements, and (ii) any other intercreditor arrangements, in the case of clauses (i) and (ii) to the extent required to give effect to the establishment of intercreditor rights and privileges as contemplated and required or permitted by this Agreement (including any such amendment (or amendment and restatement) of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement to provide for the incurrence of any Indebtedness permitted hereunder that will be secured on a junior lien or pari passu basis to (x) the Obligations and/or (y) any Indebtedness pursuant to the Second Lien Credit Documents). Each Secured Party acknowledges and agrees that any of the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent (or one or more of their respective Affiliates) may (but are not obligated to) act as the “Debt Representative” or like term for the holders of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness under the security agreements with respect thereto or any Intercreditor Agreement then in effect.

Each Lender waives any conflict of interest, now contemplated or arising hereafter, in connection therewith and agrees not to assert against any Agent or any of its affiliates any claims, causes of action, damages or liabilities of whatever kind or nature relating thereto.

SECTION 9.17 Secured Cash Management Agreements and Secured Hedge Agreements. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein or in any Guaranty or any Collateral Document, no Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank that obtains the benefits of Section 8.03, any Guaranty or any Collateral by virtue of the provisions hereof or of any Guaranty or any Collateral Document shall have any right to notice of any action or to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender and, in such case, only to the extent expressly provided in the Loan Documents. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article IX to the contrary, the Administrative Agent shall not be required to verify the payment of, or that other satisfactory arrangements have been made with respect to, Obligations arising under Secured Cash Management Agreements and Secured Hedge Agreements unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice of such Obligations, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may request, from the applicable Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank, as the case may be.

SECTION 9.18 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by any applicable Laws, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting or expanding the provisions of Section 3.01, each Lender shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent against, and shall make payable in respect thereof within ten (10) days after demand therefor, any and all Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Administrative Agent to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of such Lender for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective). A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 9.18. The agreements in this Section 9.18 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.
(1) Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the Required Lenders (other than (x) with respect to any amendment or waiver contemplated in clauses (g), (h) or (i) below (in the case of clause (i), to the extent permitted by Section 2.14), which shall only require the consent of the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Facility or Facilities, as applicable (and not the Required Lenders) and (y) with respect to any amendment or waiver contemplated in clauses (a), (b) or (c), which shall only require the consent of the Lenders expressly set forth therein and not the Required Lenders) or by the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders and the Borrower or the applicable Loan Party, as the case may be, and acknowledged by the Administrative Agent, and the Administrative Agent hereby agrees to acknowledge any such waiver, consent or amendment that otherwise satisfies the requirements of this Section 10.01 as promptly as possible, however, to the extent the final form of such waiver, consent or amendment has been delivered to the Administrative Agent at least one Business Day prior to the proposed effectiveness of the consents by the Lenders party thereto, the Administrative Agent shall acknowledge such waiver, consent or amendment (i) immediately, in the case of any amendment which does not require the consent of any existing Lender under this Agreement or (ii) otherwise, within two hours of the time copies of the Required Lender consents or other applicable Lender consents required by this Section 10.01 have been provided to the Administrative Agent; and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided that no such amendment, waiver or consent shall:

(a) extend or increase the Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of such Lender (it being understood that a waiver of any condition precedent set forth in Section 4.01 or 4.02 or the waiver of any Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of the Commitments shall not constitute an extension or increase of any Commitment of any Lender);

(b) postpone any date scheduled for, or reduce the amount of, any payment of principal or interest under Section 2.07 or 2.08 (other than pursuant to Section 2.08(2)) or any payment of fees or premiums hereunder or under any Loan Document with respect to payments to any Lender without the written consent of such Lender, it being understood that none of the following will constitute a postponement of any date scheduled for, or a reduction in the amount of, any payment of principal, interest, fees or premiums: (i) the waiver of (or amendment to the terms of) any mandatory prepayment of the Loans, (ii) the waiver of any Default or Event of Default, and (iii) any change to the definition of “First Lien Net Leverage Ratio,” “Secured Net Leverage Ratio,” “Total Net Leverage Ratio,” “Interest Coverage Ratio” or, in each case, in the component definitions thereof;

(c) reduce the principal of, or the rate of interest specified herein on, any Loan or Unreimbursed Amount, or any fees or other amounts payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to any Lender without the written consent of such Lender, it being understood that none of the following will constitute a reduction in any rate of interest or any fees: any change to the definition of “First Lien Net Leverage Ratio,” “Secured Net Leverage Ratio,” “Total Net Leverage Ratio,” “Interest Coverage Ratio”, or, in each case, in the component definitions thereof; provided that only the consent of (A) the Required Lenders shall be necessary to amend the definition of “Default Rate” and (B) the Required Lenders or, with respect to any Default Rate payable in respect of the Revolving Facility, the Required Facility Lenders under the Closing Date Revolving Facility, shall be necessary to waive any obligation of the Borrower to pay interest at the Default Rate;
(d) except as contemplated by clause (C) in the second proviso immediately succeeding clause (i) of this Section 10.01(1), change any provision of this Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders” or “Required Facility Lenders,” “Pro Rata Share” or any other provision specifying the number of Lenders or portion of the Loans or Commitments required to take any action under the Loan Documents or Section 2.13 or 8.03, without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(e) other than in a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or Section 7.04, release all or substantially all of the aggregate value of the Collateral in any transaction or series of related transactions, without the written consent of each Lender;

(f) other than in a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or Section 7.04, release all or substantially all of the aggregate value of the Guaranty, without the written consent of each Lender;

(g) amend, waive or otherwise modify any term or provision (including the waiver of any conditions set forth in Section 4.02 as to any Credit Extension under one or more Revolving Facilities) which directly affects Lenders under one or more Revolving Facilities and does not directly affect Lenders under any other Facilities, in each case, without the written consent of the Required Facility Lenders under such applicable Revolving Facility or Facilities with respect to Revolving Commitments (and in the case of multiple Facilities which are affected, such Required Facility Lenders shall consent together as one Facility); provided, however, that the waivers described in this clause (g) shall not require the consent of the Required Lenders or any other Lenders other than the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Revolving Facility or Facilities (it being understood that any amendment to the conditions of effectiveness of Incremental Commitments set forth in Section 2.14 shall be subject to clause (i) below);

(h) amend, waive or otherwise modify the Financial Covenant or any definition related thereto (solely in respect of the use of such defined terms in the Financial Covenant) or waive any Default or Event of Default resulting from a failure to perform or observe the Financial Covenant without the written consent of the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Revolving Facility or Facilities with respect to Revolving Commitments (such Required Facility Lenders shall consent together as one Facility); provided, however, that the amendments, waivers and other modifications described in this clause (h) shall not require the consent of the Required Lenders or any other Lenders other than the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Revolving Facility or Facilities;

(i) amend, waive or otherwise modify any term or provision (including the availability and conditions to funding (subject to the requirements of Section 2.14) with respect to Incremental Term Loans and Incremental Revolving Commitments, but excluding the rate of interest applicable thereto which shall be subject to clause (c) above)) which directly affects Lenders of one or more Incremental Term Loans or Incremental Revolving Commitments and does not directly affect Lenders under any other Facility, in each case, without the written consent of the Required Facility Lenders under such applicable Incremental Term Loans or Incremental Revolving Commitments (and in the case of multiple Facilities which are affected, such Required Facility Lenders shall consent together as one Facility); provided, however, that, to the extent permitted under Section 2.14, no amendments or waivers described in this clause (i) shall require the consent of the Required Lenders or any other Lenders and shall only require the consent of the Required Facility Lenders under such applicable Incremental Term Loans or Incremental Revolving Commitments, including to the extent such amendment or waiver includes provisions that benefit the Lenders under any other Facility and are not adverse to such other Lenders;

(I) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by each Issuing Bank in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of such Issuing Bank under this Agreement or any Issuing Bank Document relating to any Letter of Credit issued or to be issued by it; provided, however, that this Agreement may be amended to adjust the mechanics related to the issuance of Letters of Credit, including mechanical changes relating to the existence of multiple Issuing Banks, with only the written consent of the Administrative Agent, the applicable Issuing Bank and the Borrower so long as the obligations of the Revolving Lenders, if any, who have not executed such amendment, and if applicable the other Issuing Banks, if any, who have not executed such amendment, are not adversely affected thereby;

(II) [reserved]

(III) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of, or any fees or other amounts payable to, the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; and provided further that notwithstanding the foregoing:

(A) no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove of any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder (and any amendment, waiver or consent which by its terms requires the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender may be effected with the consent of the applicable Lenders other than Defaulting Lenders), except that the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Defaulting Lender (it being understood that any Commitments or Loans held or deemed held by any Defaulting Lender shall be excluded for a vote of the Lenders hereunder requiring any consent of the Lenders);

(B) no Lender consent is required to effect any amendment or supplement to any Intercreditor Agreement (i) that is for the purpose of adding the holders of Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or any other Permitted Indebtedness that is Secured Indebtedness (or a Debt Representative with respect thereto) as parties thereto, as expressly contemplated by the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable (it being understood that any such amendment, modification or supplement may make such other changes to the applicable Intercreditor Agreement as, in the good faith determination of the Administrative Agent, are required to effectuate the foregoing and provided that such other changes are not adverse, in any material respect, to the interests of the Lenders) or (ii) that is expressly contemplated by any Intercreditor Agreement in connection with joiners and supplements; provided further that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable;
(C) this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower (i) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans, the Revolving Loans and L/C Obligations and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (ii) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders;

(D) any waiver, amendment or modification of this Agreement that by its terms affects the rights or duties under this Agreement of Lenders holding Loans or Commitments of a particular Class (but not the Lenders holding Loans or Commitments of any other Class) may be effected by an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrower and the requisite percentage in interest of the affected Class of Lenders that would be required to consent thereto under this Section 10.01 if such Class of Lenders were the only Class of Lenders hereunder at the time;

(E) any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document may be amended by an agreement in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (or the Collateral Agent, as applicable) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency (including amendments, supplements or waivers to any of the Collateral Documents, guarantees, intercreditor agreements or related documents executed by any Loan Party or any other Subsidiary in connection with this Agreement if such amendment, supplement or waiver is delivered in order to cause such Collateral Documents, guarantees, intercreditor agreements or related documents to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents) so long as, in each case, the Lenders shall have received at least five (5) Business Days’ prior written notice thereof and the Administrative Agent shall not have received, within five (5) Business Days of the date of such notice to the Lenders, a written notice from the Required Lenders stating that the Required Lenders object to such amendment; provided that the consent of the Lenders or the Required Lenders, as the case may be, shall not be required to make any such changes necessary to be made in connection with any borrowing of Incremental Loans, any borrowing of Other Loans, any Extension or any borrowing of Replacement Loans and otherwise to effect the provisions of Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 or the immediately succeeding paragraph of this Section 10.01, respectively; and

(F) the Borrower and the Administrative Agent may, without the input or consent of the other Lenders, (i) effect changes to any Mortgage as may be necessary or appropriate in the opinion of the Collateral Agent and (ii) effect changes to this Agreement that are necessary and appropriate to effect the offering process set forth in Section 2.05(1)(e).
(2) In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 10.01, this Agreement may be amended with the written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and the Lenders providing the Replacement Loans (as defined below) to permit the refinancing of all outstanding Term Loans of any Class ("Replaced Loans") with replacement term loans ("Replacement Loans") hereunder; provided that

(a) the aggregate principal amount of such Replacement Loans shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of such Replaced Loans, plus accrued interest, fees, premiums (if any) and penalties thereon and reasonable fees and expenses incurred in connection with such refinancing of Replaced Loans with such Replacement Loans,

(b) the All-In Yield with respect to such Replacement Loans (or similar interest rate spread applicable to such Replacement Loans) shall not be higher than the All-In Yield for such Replaced Loans (or similar interest rate spread applicable to such Replaced Loans) immediately prior to such refinancing,

(c) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Replacement Loans shall not be shorter than the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Replaced Loans at the time of such refinancing, and

(d) all other terms (other than with respect to pricing, interest rate margins, fees, discounts, rate floors and prepayment or redemption terms) applicable to such Replacement Loans shall either, at the option of the Borrower, (i) reflect market terms and conditions (taken as a whole) at the time of incurrence of such Replacement Loans (as determined by the Borrower in good faith) or (ii) if not otherwise consistent with the terms of such Replaced Loans, not be materially more restrictive to the Borrower (as determined by the Borrower in good faith), when taken as a whole, than the terms of such Replaced Loans, except with respect to covenants and other terms applicable to any period after the Latest Maturity Date of the Loans in effect immediately prior to such refinancing.

Each amendment to this Agreement providing for Replacement Loans may, without the consent of any other Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower to effect the provisions of this paragraph, and for the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall supersede any other provisions in this Section 10.01 to the contrary.

(3) In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.01,

(a) the Guaranty, the Collateral Documents and related documents executed by Loan Parties in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be in a form reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and may be, together with this Agreement, amended and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent at the request of the Borrower without the need to obtain the consent of any other Lender if such amendment or waiver is delivered in order (i) to comply with local Law or advice of local counsel, (ii) to cure ambiguities or defects or (iii) to cause the Guaranty, Collateral Documents or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including by adding additional parties as contemplated herein or therein) and

(b) if the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall have jointly identified an obvious error, mistake, ambiguity, incorrect cross-reference or any error or omission of a technical or immaterial nature, in each case, in any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any exhibit, schedule or other attachment to any Loan Document), then the Administrative Agent (acting in its sole discretion) and the Borrower or any other relevant Loan Party shall be permitted to amend such provision and such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Loan Document. Notification of such amendment shall be made by the Administrative Agent to the Lenders promptly upon such amendment becoming effective.

SECTION 10.02 Notices and Other Communications; Facsimile Copies.

(1) General. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in subsection (2) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(a) if to Holdings, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 10.02; and

(b) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire.

Notices and other communications sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices and other communications sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next succeeding Business Day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in subsection (2) below shall be effective as provided in such subsection (2).

(2) Electronic Communication. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article II if such Lender, as applicable, has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

(3) Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender’s receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the “return receipt requested” function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), provided that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next succeeding Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.
THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE.” THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Agent-Related Persons or any Arranger (collectively, the “Agent Parties”) have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, any Lender, or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower’s or the Administrative Agent’s transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Agent Party; provided, however, that in no event shall any Agent Party have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages).

Each Loan Party and the Administrative Agent may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the other parties hereto. Each other Lender may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender. Furthermore, each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the “Private-Side Information” or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender’s compliance procedures and applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws, to make reference to Borrower Materials that are not made available through the “Public Side Information” portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or its securities for purposes of United States Federal or state securities laws.

The Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices (including telephonic Committed Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Agent-Related Persons of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower. All telephonic notices to and other telephonic communications with the Administrative Agent may be recorded by the Administrative Agent, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.
Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 8.02 for the benefit of all the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) any Issuing Bank from exercising the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Issuing Bank, as the case may be) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (c) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 10.10 (subject to the terms of Section 2.13), or (d) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided further that if at any time there is no Person acting as Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 8.02 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.13, any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders.

SECTION 10.04 Costs and Expenses. The Borrower agrees (a) if the Closing Date occurs and to the extent not paid or reimbursed on or prior to the Closing Date, to pay or reimburse the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Administrative Agent and such Arrangers incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, syndication, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated thereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all Attorney Costs of a single U.S. counsel and, if necessary, a single local counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction, and (b) upon presentation of a summary statement, together with any supporting documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower, to pay or reimburse the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and the other Lenders, taken as a whole, promptly following a written demand therefor for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of any rights or remedies under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents (including all such costs and expenses incurred during any legal proceeding, including any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, and including all Attorney Costs of one counsel to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders taken as a whole (and, if necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction and solely in the case of a conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction to each group of affected Lenders similarly situated taken as a whole)). The agreements in this Section 10.04 shall survive the termination of the Aggregate Commitments and repayment of all other Obligations. All amounts due under this Section 10.04 shall be paid within thirty (30) Business Days following receipt by the Borrower of an invoice relating thereto setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail. If any Loan Party fails to pay when due any costs, expenses or other amounts payable by it hereunder or under any Loan Document, such amount may be paid on behalf of such Loan Party by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion.

SECTION 10.05 Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify and hold harmless the Agents, each Issuing Bank, each other Lender, the Arrangers and their respective Related Persons (collectively, the “Indemnitees”) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses (including Attorney Costs and Environmental Liabilities) to which any such Indemnitee may become subject arising out of, resulting from or in connection with (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of one counsel to all Indemnitees taken as a whole and, if reasonably necessary, a single local counsel for all Indemnitees taken as a whole in each relevant material jurisdiction, and solely in the case of a conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction to each group of affected Indemnitees similarly situated taken as a whole) any actual or threatened claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to the Transactions or to the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance and administration of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents, the Loans, the Letters of Credit or the use, or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom (including any refusal by any Issuing Bank to honor a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit if the documents presented in connection with such demand do not strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit), whether based on contract, tort or any other theory (including any investigation of, preparation for, or defense of any pending or threatened claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding), and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto (all the foregoing, collectively, the “Indemnified Liabilities”); provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Persons as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, a material breach of any obligations under any Loan Document by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Persons as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or any dispute solely among Indemnitees other than any claims against an Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an administrative agent or arranger or any similar role under any Loan Document and other than any claims arising out of any act or omission of Holdings or any of its Affiliates (as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction). To the extent that the undertakings to indemnify and hold harmless set forth in this Section 10.05 may be unenforceable in whole or in part because they are violative of any applicable Law or public policy, the Borrower shall contribute the maximum portion that they are permitted to pay and satisfy under applicable Law to the payment and satisfaction of all Indemnified Liabilities incurred by the Indemnitees or any of them. No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by others of any information or other materials obtained through IntraLinks or other similar information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement (except to the extent such damages are found in a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of such Indemnitee), nor shall any Indemnitee or any Loan Party have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or arising out of its activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date) other than, in the case of any Loan Party, in respect of any such damages incurred or paid by an Indemnitee to a third party for which such Indemnitee is otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 10.05). In the case of an investigation, litigation or other proceeding to which the indemnity in this Section 10.05 applies, such indemnity shall be effective whether or not such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Loan Party, its directors, stockholders or creditors or an Indemnitee or any other Person, whether or not any Indemnitee is otherwise a party thereto and whether or not any of the transactions contemplated hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents is consummated. All amounts due under this Section 10.05 shall be paid within thirty (30) Business Days after written demand therefor. The agreements in this Section 10.05 shall survive the resignation of the Administrative Agent, the replacement of any Lender, the termination of the Aggregate Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the other Obligations. This Section 10.05 shall not apply to Taxes, except any Taxes that represent losses or damages arising from any non-Tax claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnitee shall be obligated to refund and return promptly any and all amounts paid by any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates under this Section 10.05 to such Indemnitee for any such fees, expenses or damages to the extent such Indemnitee is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof.
SECTION 10.06 Marshaling; Payments Set Aside. None of the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of the Loan Parties or any other party or against or in payment of any or all of the Obligations. To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Borrower is made to any Agent or any Lender, or any Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the Overnight Rate from time to time in effect.

SECTION 10.07 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and registered assigns permitted hereby, except that neither Holdings nor the Borrower may, except as permitted by Section 7.03, assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder (including to existing Lenders and their Affiliates) except (i) to an assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(b) (such an assignee, an “Eligible Assignee”) and (A) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that, immediately prior to or upon giving effect to such assignment, is an Affiliated Lender, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(h), (B) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that is Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(l), or (C) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that, immediately prior to or upon giving effect to such assignment, is a Debt Fund Affiliate, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(k), (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(d), (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest subject to the restrictions of Section 10.07(f), or (iv) to an SPC in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(g) (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void) or (or in the case of any such attempted assignment or transfer to a Disqualified Institution shall be subject to the provisions set forth in the fourth sentence of the definition of “Lender”). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants to the extent provided in Section 10.07(d) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, Related Persons of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans (including for purposes of this Section 10.07(b), participations in L/C Obligations) at the time owing to it); provided that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Amounts.

(A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender’s Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it or in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, no minimum amount need be assigned; and
(B) in any case not described in subsection (b)(i)(A) of this Section 10.07, the aggregate amount of the Commitment or, the principal outstanding balance of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if “Trade Date” is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $1.0 million, in the case of USD Term Loans, not less than €1.0 million, in the case of Euro Term Loans, and not less than $5.0 million, in the case of Revolving Loans and Revolving Commitments, unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower otherwise consents (in the case of an assignment of Term Loans, each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that concurrent assignments to members of an Assignee Group and concurrent assignments from members of an Assignee Group to a single Eligible Assignee (or to an Eligible Assignee and members of its Assignee Group) will be treated as a single assignment for purposes of determining whether such minimum amount has been met.

(ii) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned (it being understood that assignments under separate Facilities shall not be required to be made on a pro rata basis).

(iii) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by Section 10.07(b)(i)(B) and, in addition:

(A) the consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required unless (1) an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if a “Trade Date” is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date or (2) in respect of an assignment of all or a portion of the Term Loans only, such assignment is to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; provided that (x) consent for any affiliate of a Disqualified Institution that is not a Disqualified Institution may be withheld, (y) the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to any assignment of all or a portion of the Term Loans unless it shall have objected thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice of a failure to respond to such request for assignment and (z) no consent of the Borrower shall be required for an assignment of all or a portion of the Loans pursuant to Section 10.07(h), (k) or (l);

(B) the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of all or a portion of the Loans pursuant to Section 10.07(h), (k) or (l);

(C) the consent of each applicable Issuing Bank at the time of such assignment (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required; provided that no consent of the applicable Issuing Bank shall be required for any assignment not related to Revolving Commitments or Revolving Exposure; and
(E) with respect to assignments of any Commitments and Loans under the Revolving Facility, the consent of TPG VII Manta Holdings II, LP (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required (so long as TPG VII Manta Holdings II, LP and its affiliates hold, directly or indirectly, at least a majority of the aggregate ordinary voting power represented by the issued and outstanding Equity Interests of the Borrower) unless an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if a “Trade Date” is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date (it being understood that TPG VII Manta Holdings II, LP shall be an express third party beneficiary of the provisions in this Section 10.07(b)(iii)(E)).

(iv) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent). Other than in the case of assignments pursuant to Section 10.07(l), the Eligible Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and all applicable tax forms.

(v) No Assignments to Certain Persons. No such assignment shall be made (A) to Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Borrower’s Subsidiaries except as permitted under Sections 2.05(1)(e) and 10.07(l), (B) subject to Sections 10.07(h), (k) and (l) below, to any Affiliate of the Borrower, (C) to a natural person, (D) to any Disqualified Institution or (E) to any Defaulting Lender.

In connection with any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder, no such assignment shall be effective unless and until, in addition to the other conditions thereto set forth herein, the parties to the assignment shall make such additional payments to the Administrative Agent in an aggregate amount sufficient, upon distribution thereof as appropriate (which may be outright payment, purchases by the assignee of participations or sub participations, or other compensating actions, including funding, with the consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, the applicable Pro Rata Share of Loans previously requested but not funded by the Defaulting Lender, to each of which the applicable assignee and assignor hereby irrevocably consent), to (x) pay and satisfy in full all payment liabilities then owed by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent or any Lender hereunder (and interest accrued thereon) and (y) acquire (and fund as appropriate) its full Pro Rata Share of all Loans and participations in Letters of Credit in accordance with its Pro Rata Share. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder shall become effective under applicable Law without compliance with the provisions of this paragraph, then the assignee of such interest shall be deemed to be a Defaulting Lender for all purposes of this Agreement until such compliance occurs.

Subject to acceptance and recording thereof by the Administrative Agent pursuant to clause (c) of this Section 10.07 (and, in the case of an Affiliated Lender or a Person that, after giving effect to such assignment, would become an Affiliated Lender, to the requirements of clause (h) of this Section 10.07), from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption, other than in connection with an assignment pursuant to Section 10.07(l), (x) the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and (y) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01, 3.04, 3.05, 10.04 and 10.05 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment), but shall in any event continue to be subject to Section 10.09. Upon request, and the surrender by the assigning Lender of its Note, the Borrower (at its expense) shall execute and deliver a Note to the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this subsection shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.07(d).

(c) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent’s Office a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it, each Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption delivered to it, each notice of cancellation of any Loans delivered by the Borrower pursuant to subsections (h) or (l) below, and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of the Loans, L/C Obligations (specifying Unreimbursed Amounts), L/C Borrowings and amounts due under Section 2.03, owing to each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Agents and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, any Agent and, with respect to its own Loans, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. This Section 10.07(c) and Section 2.11 shall be construed so that all Loans are at all times maintained in “registered form” within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related Treasury regulations (or any other relevant or successor provisions of the Code or of such Treasury regulations). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Administrative Agent be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender is an Affiliated Lender, nor shall the Administrative Agent be obligated to monitor the aggregate amount of the Term Loans or Incremental Term Loans held by Affiliated Lenders.

(d) Any Lender may at any time, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to any Person (other than a natural person, the Borrower and its Affiliates, a Defaulting Lender or a Disqualified Institution) (each, a “Participant”) in all or a portion of such Lender’s rights or obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment or the Loans (including such Lender’s participations in L/C Obligations) owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender’s obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) the Borrower, the Agents and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, waiver or other modification described in the first proviso to Section 10.01(1) (other than clauses (g),(h) and (i) thereof) that directly and adversely affects such Participant. Subject to subsection (e) of this Section 10.07, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01 (subject to the requirements of Section 3.01 (including subsections (2), (3) and (4), as applicable) as though it were a Lender; provided that any forms required to be provided under Section 3.01(3) shall be provided solely to the participating Lender), 3.04 and 3.05 (through the applicable Lender) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section 10.07. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 10.10 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant shall agree to be subject to Section 2.13 as though it were a Lender.

(e) Limitations upon Participant Rights. A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01, 3.04 or 3.05 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Borrower’s prior written consent. Each Lender that sells a participation shall (acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower) maintain a register complying with the requirements of Sections 163(f), 871(h) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and the Treasury regulations issued thereunder on which is entered the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of each Participant’s interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the “Participant Register”). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender and the Borrower shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary; provided that no Lender shall have the obligation to disclose all or a portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of the Participant or any information relating to a Participant’s interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to establish that any such commitments, loans, letters of credit or other obligations are in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes or such disclosure is otherwise required under Treasury Regulations Section 5f.103-1(c).

(f) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or any other central bank; provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a “Granting Lender”) may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower (an “SPC”) the option to provide all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to fund any Loan, (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to make all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof and (iii) such SPC and the applicable Loan or any applicable part thereof shall be appropriately reflected in the Participant Register. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (i) neither the grant to any SPC nor the exercise by any SPC of such option shall increase the costs or expenses or otherwise increase or change the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement (including its obligations under Section 3.01, 3.04 or 3.05), (ii) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement for which a Lender would be liable, and (iii) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes, including the approval of any amendment, waiver or other modification of any provision of any Loan Document, remain the Lender hereunder. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any SPC may (i) with notice to, but without prior consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and with the payment of a processing fee of $3,500 (which processing fee may be waived by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion), assign all or any portion of its right to receive payment with respect to any Loan to the Granting Lender and (ii) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its funding of Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety or Guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC.
(h) Any Lender may at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Term Loans under this Agreement to a Person who is or will become, after such assignment, an Affiliated Lender through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase or take by assignment open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures determined by such Affiliated Lender in its sole discretion or (y) open market purchase on a non-pro rata basis, in each case subject to the following limitations:

(i) Affiliated Lenders will not (A) receive information provided solely to Lenders by the Administrative Agent or any Lender and will not be permitted to attend or participate in conference calls or meetings attended solely by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, other than the right to receive notices of prepayments and other administrative notices in respect of its Loans or Commitments required to be delivered to Lenders pursuant to Article II or (B) make any challenge to the Administrative Agent’s or any other Lender’s attorney-client privilege on the basis of its status as a Lender;

(ii) [reserved];

(iii) each Lender (other than any other Affiliated Lender) that assigns any Loans to an Affiliated Lender pursuant to clause (y) above shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower a customary Big Boy Letter;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans of any Class under this Agreement held by Affiliated Lenders at the time of any such purchase or assignment shall not exceed 25% of the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans of such Class outstanding at such time under this Agreement (such percentage, the “Affiliated Lender Cap”); provided that to the extent any assignment to an Affiliated Lender would result in the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans of any Class held by Affiliated Lenders exceeding the Affiliated Lender Cap, the assignment of such excess amount will be void ab initio;

(v) as a condition to each assignment pursuant to this subsection (h), the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall have been provided a notice in connection with each assignment to an Affiliated Lender or a Person that upon effectiveness of such assignment would constitute an Affiliated Lender pursuant to which such Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as such) shall waive any right to bring any action in connection with such Loans against the Administrative Agent, in its capacity as such; and

(vi) the assigning Lender and the Affiliated Lender purchasing such Lender’s Term Loans shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an assignment agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit D-2 hereto (an “Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption”).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Affiliated Lender that has purchased Term Loans pursuant to this subsection (h) may, in its sole discretion, contribute, directly or indirectly, the principal amount of such Term Loans or any portion thereof, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, to the Borrower for the purpose of cancelling and extinguishing such Term Loans. Upon the date of such contribution, assignment or transfer, (x) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Term Loans shall reflect such cancellation and extinguishing of the Term Loans then held by the Borrower and (y) the Borrower shall promptly provide notice to the Administrative Agent of such contribution of such Term Loans, and the Administrative Agent, upon receipt of such notice, shall reflect the cancellation of the applicable Term Loans in the Register.

Each Affiliated Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days) if it acquires any Person who is also a Lender, and each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days) if it becomes an Affiliated Lender. The Administrative Agent may conclusively rely upon any notice delivered pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence or pursuant to clause (v) of this subsection (h) and shall not have any liability for any losses suffered by any Person as a result of any purported assignment to or from an Affiliated Lender.

(i) Notwithstanding anything in Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders,” or “Required Facility Lenders” to the contrary, for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders and Required Facility Lenders (in respect of a Class of Term Loans) have (i) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action with respect to any of the terms of any Loan Document or any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, or subject to Section 10.07(j), any plan of reorganization pursuant to the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, (ii) otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document, or (iii) directed or required the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to or under any Loan Document, no Affiliated Lender shall have any right to consent (or not consent), otherwise act or direct or require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to take (or refrain from taking) any such action and, except with respect to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action (x) in Section 10.01 requiring the consent of all Lenders, all Lenders directly and adversely affected or specifically such Lender, (y) that alters an Affiliated Lender’s pro rata share of any payments given to all Lenders, or (z) affects the Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as a Lender) in a manner that is disproportionate to the effect on any Lender in the same Class, the Loans held by an Affiliated Lender shall be disregarded in both the numerator and denominator in the calculation of any Lender vote (and shall be deemed to have been voted in the same percentage as all other applicable Lenders voted if necessary to give legal effect to this paragraph) (but, in any event, in connection with any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action, shall be entitled to any consent fee, calculated as if all of such Affiliated Lender’s Loans had voted in favor of any matter for which a consent fee or similar payment is offered).

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the other Loan Documents to the contrary, each Affiliated Lender hereby agrees that, and each Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption shall provide a confirmation that, if a proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law shall be commenced by or against the Borrower or any other Loan Party at a time when such Lender is an Affiliated Lender, such Affiliated Lender irrevocably authorizes and empowers the Administrative Agent to vote on behalf of such Affiliated Lender with respect to the Term Loans held by such Affiliated Lender in any manner in the Administrative Agent’s sole discretion, unless the Administrative Agent instructs such Affiliated Lender to vote, in which case such Affiliated Lender shall vote with respect to the Term Loans held by it as the Administrative Agent directs; provided that such Affiliated Lender shall be entitled to vote in accordance with its sole discretion (and not in accordance with the direction of the Administrative Agent) in connection with any plan of reorganization to the extent any such plan of reorganization proposes to treat any Obligations held by such Affiliated Lender in a disproportionately adverse manner than the proposed treatment of similar Obligations held by Term Lenders that are not Affiliated Lenders.
(k) Although any Debt Fund Affiliate(s) shall be Eligible Assignees and shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 10.07(h), (i) or (j), any Lender may, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Term Loans under this Agreement to a Person who is or will become, after such assignment, a Debt Fund Affiliate only through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase or take by assignment open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures of the type described in Section 2.05(1)(e) (for the avoidance of doubt, without requiring any representation as to the possession of material non-public information by such Affiliate) or (y) open market purchase on a non-pro rata basis. Notwithstanding anything in Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders” to the contrary, for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders have (i) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action with respect to any of the terms of any Loan Document or any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, (ii) otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document or (iii) directed or required the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to or under any Loan Document, all Term Loans, Revolving Commitments and Revolving Loans held by Debt Fund Affiliates, in the aggregate, may not account for more than 49.9% of the Term Loans, Revolving Commitments and Revolving Loans of Lenders included in determining whether the Required Lenders have consented to any action pursuant to Section 10.01.

(l) Any Lender may, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Term Loans under this Agreement to Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures of the type described in Section 2.05(1)(e) or (y) open market purchases on a non-pro rata basis; provided that:

(i) (x) if the assignee is Holdings or a Subsidiary of the Borrower, upon such assignment, transfer or contribution, the applicable assignee shall automatically be deemed to have contributed or transferred the principal amount of such Term Loans, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, to the Borrower; or (y) if the assignee is the Borrower (including through contribution or transfers set forth in clause (x)), (a) the principal amount of such Term Loans, along with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, so contributed, assigned or transferred to the Borrower shall be deemed automatically cancelled and extinguished on the date of such contribution, assignment or transfer, (b) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Term Loans of the remaining Lenders shall reflect such cancellation and extinguishing of the Term Loans then held by the Borrower and (c) the Borrower shall promptly provide notice to the Administrative Agent of such contribution, assignment or transfer of such Term Loans, and the Administrative Agent, upon receipt of such notice, shall reflect the cancellation of the applicable Term Loans in the Register;

(ii) [reserved];

(iii) each Lender (other than an Affiliated Lender) that assigns any Loans to Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower pursuant to clause (y) above shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower a customary Big Boy Letter; and

(iv) purchases of Term Loans pursuant to this subsection (l) may not be funded with the proceeds of Revolving Loans.

(m) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, (1) any Lender may in accordance with applicable Law create a security interest in all or any portion of the Loans owing to it and the Note, if any, held by it and (2) any Lender that is a Fund may create a security interest in all or any portion of the Loans owing to it and the Note, if any, held by it to the trustee for holders of obligations owed, or securities issued, by such Fund as security for such obligations or securities; provided that unless and until such trustee actually becomes a Lender in compliance with the other provisions of this Section 10.07, (i) no such pledge shall release the pledging Lender from any of its obligations under the Loan Documents and (ii) such trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a Lender under the Loan Documents even though such trustee may have acquired ownership rights with respect to the pledged interest through foreclosure or otherwise.
(n) The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible or have any liability for, or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into, monitor or enforce, compliance with the provisions hereof relating to Disqualified Institutions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall not (x) be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender or Participant or prospective Lender or Participant is a Disqualified Institution or (y) have any liability with respect to or arising out of any assignment or participation of Loans or Commitments, or disclosure of confidential information, to any Disqualified Institution.

SECTION 10.08 Resignation of Issuing Bank. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Issuing Bank may, upon thirty (30) Business Days’ notice to the Borrower and the Lenders, resign as an Issuing Bank, so long as on or prior to the expiration of such 30-Business Day period with respect to such resignation, the relevant Issuing Bank shall have identified a successor Issuing Bank reasonably acceptable to the Borrower willing to accept its appointment as successor Issuing Bank. In the event of any such resignation of an Issuing Bank, the Borrower shall be entitled to appoint from among the Lenders willing to accept such appointment a successor Issuing Bank hereunder; provided that no failure by the Borrower to appoint any such successor shall affect the resignation of the relevant Issuing Bank except as expressly provided above. If an Issuing Bank resigns as an Issuing Bank, it shall retain all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank hereunder with respect to all Letters of Credit outstanding as of the effective date of its resignation as an Issuing Bank and all L/C Obligations with respect thereto (including the right to require the Lenders to make Base Rate Loans or fund risk participations in Unreimbursed Amounts pursuant to Section 2.03(3)).

SECTION 10.09 Confidentiality. Each of the Agents, the Arrangers, the Lenders and each Issuing Bank agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information in accordance with its customary procedures (as set forth below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its Affiliates and to its and its Affiliates’ respective partners, directors, officers, employees, legal counsel, independent auditors, agents, trustees, advisors and representatives (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential, with such Affiliate being responsible for such Person’s compliance with this Section 10.09; provided, however, that such Agent, Arranger, Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, shall be principally liable to the extent this Section 10.09 is violated by one or more of its Affiliates or any of its or their respective employees, directors or officers), (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority purporting to have jurisdiction over it (including any self-regulatory authority, such as the National Association of Insurance Commissioners); provided, however, that each Agent, each Arranger, each Lender and each Issuing Bank agrees to notify the Borrower promptly thereof (except in connection with any request as part of a regulatory examination) to the extent it is legally permitted to do so, (c) to the extent required by applicable laws or regulations or by any subpoena or otherwise as required by applicable Law or regulation or as requested by a governmental authority; provided that such Agent, such Arranger, such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as applicable, agrees that it will (x) notify the Borrower as soon as practicable in the event of any such disclosure by such Person (except in connection with any request as part of a regulatory examination) unless such notification is prohibited by law, rule or regulation and (y) seek confidential treatment with respect to any such disclosure, (d) to any other party hereto, (e) subject to an agreement containing provisions at least as restrictive as those of this Section 10.09, to (i) subject to Section 10.07(1)(b)(v)(D), any assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any Eligible Assignee (or its agent) invited to be an Additional Lender or (ii) with the prior consent of the Borrower, any actual or prospective direct or indirect counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to the Borrower or any of their Subsidiaries or any of their respective obligations; provided that such disclosure shall be made subject to the acknowledgment and acceptance by such prospective Lender, Participant or Eligible Assignee that such Information is being disseminated on a confidential basis (on substantially the terms set forth in this paragraph or as is otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Borrower, the Agents and the Arrangers, including as set forth in any confidential information memorandum or other marketing materials) in accordance with the standard syndication process of the Agents and the Arrangers or market standards for dissemination of such type of information which shall in any event require “click through” or other affirmative action on the part of the recipient to access such confidential information, (f) for purposes of establishing a “due diligence” defense, (g) on a confidential basis to (i) any rating agency in connection with rating the Borrower or its Subsidiaries or the credit facilities provided hereunder, (ii) the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers or other market identifiers with respect to the credit facilities provided hereunder, or (iii) service providers to the Agents and the Lenders in connection with the administration, settlement and management of this Agreement and the credit facilities provided hereunder, (h) with the consent of the Borrower or (i) to the extent such Information (x) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach by any Person of this Section 10.09 or any other confidentiality provision in favor of any Loan Party, (y) becomes available to any Agent, any Arranger, any Lender, any Issuing Bank or any of their respective Affiliates on a nonconfidential basis from a source other than Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary thereof, and which source is not known by such Agent, such Lender, such Issuing Bank or the applicable Affiliate to be subject to a confidentiality restriction in respect thereof in favor of Holdings, the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or (z) is independently developed by the Agents, the Lenders, the Issuing Banks, the Arrangers or their respective Affiliates, in each case, so long as not based on information obtained in a manner that would otherwise violate this Section 10.09.

For purposes of this Section 10.09, “Information” means all information received from any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof relating to any Loan Party or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof or their respective businesses, other than any such information that is available to any Agent, any Lender or any Issuing Bank on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure by any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof; it being understood that no information received from Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof after the date hereof shall be deemed nonconfidential on account of such information not being clearly identified at the time of delivery as being confidential. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 10.09 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so in accordance with its customary procedures if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

Each Agent, each Arranger, each Lender and each Issuing Bank acknowledges that (a) the Information may include trade secrets, protected confidential information, or material non-public information concerning the Borrower or a Subsidiary, as the case may be, (b) it has developed compliance procedures regarding the use of such information and (c) it will handle such information in accordance with applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws and to preserve its trade secret or confidential character.

The respective obligations of the Agents, the Arrangers, the Lenders and any Issuing Bank under this Section 10.09 shall survive, to the extent applicable to such Person, (x) the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement, (y) any assignment of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and (z) the resignation or removal of any Agent.
SECTION 10.10 Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender and each Issuing Bank is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, after obtaining the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency) at any time held and other obligations (in whatever currency) at any time owing by such Lender or such Issuing Bank to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any and all of the obligations of such Loan Party then due and payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, irrespective of whether or not such Lender or such Issuing Bank shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of setoff, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.17 and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks, and the Lenders, and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of setoff. The rights of each Lender and each Issuing Bank under this Section 10.10 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that such Lender or such Issuing Bank may have. Each Lender and each Issuing Bank agrees to notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

SECTION 10.11 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable Law (the "Maximum Rate"). If any Agent or any Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by an Agent or a Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

SECTION 10.12 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement and each of the other Loan Documents may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic imaging (including in .pdf format) means shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 10.13 Electronic Execution of Assignments and Certain Other Documents. The words “delivery,” “execution,” “execute,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in or related to any document to be signed in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including without limitation Assignment and Assumptions, amendments or other modifications, Committed Loan Notices, waivers and consents) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, the electronic matching of assignment terms and contract formations on electronic platforms.
SECTION 10.14 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Administrative Agent and each Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of any Credit Extension, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

SECTION 10.15 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 10.16 GOVERNING LAW.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) THE BORROWER, HOLDINGS, THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND EACH LENDER EACH IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN AND OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK SITTING IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY THEREOF, IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT, OR FOR RECOGNITION OR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT, AND EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE HEARD AND DETERMINED IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE COURT OR, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN SUCH FEDERAL COURT. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. EACH PARTY HERETO AGREES THAT THE AGENTS AND LENDERS RETAIN THE RIGHT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO BRING PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER ANY COLLATERAL DOCUMENT OR THE ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT.
(c) THE BORROWER, HOLDINGS, THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND EACH LENDER EACH IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY COURT REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (b) OF THIS SECTION 10.16. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

SECTION 10.17 WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 10.17.

SECTION 10.18 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by each Lender that each such Lender has executed it and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Borrower, each Agent, each Lender, each other party hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 10.19 Lender Action. Each Lender agrees that it shall not take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the Loan Documents or the Secured Hedge Agreements (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker’s lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or institute any actions or proceedings, or otherwise commence any remedial procedures, with respect to any Collateral or any other property of any such Loan Party, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent. The provision of this Section 10.19 are for the sole benefit of the Lenders and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party.

SECTION 10.20 Use of Name, Logo, etc. Each Loan Party consents to the publication in the ordinary course by Administrative Agent or the Arrangers of customary advertising material relating to the financing transactions contemplated by this Agreement using such Loan Party’s name, product photographs, logo or trademark; provided that any such material shall be provided to the Borrower for its review a reasonable period of time in advance of publication. Such consent shall remain effective until revoked by such Loan Party in writing to the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers.

SECTION 10.21 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Lender that is subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act. The Borrower shall, promptly following a request by the Administrative Agent or any Lender, provide all documentation and other information that the Administrative Agent or such Lender requests in order to comply with its ongoing obligations under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the USA PATRIOT Act.

SECTION 10.22 Service of Process. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 10.02. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

SECTION 10.23 No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document), each of the Borrower and Holdings acknowledges and agrees that (i) (A) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders are arm’s-length commercial transactions between the Borrower, Holdings and their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Arrangers and the Lenders, on the other hand, (B) each of the Borrower and Holdings has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate, and (C) each of the Borrower and Holdings is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents; (ii) (A) each Agent, Arranger and Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and, except as expressly agreed in writing by the relevant parties, has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower, Holdings or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other Person and (B) none of the Agents, the Arrangers nor any Lender has any obligation to the Borrower, Holdings or any of their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; and (iii) the Agents, the Arrangers, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower, Holdings and their respective Affiliates, and none of the Agents, the Arrangers nor any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Borrower, Holdings or any of their respective Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each of the Borrower and Holdings hereby waives and releases any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Arrangers or any Lender with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transaction contemplated hereby.

SECTION 10.24 Release of Collateral and Guarantee Obligations; Subordination of Liens.

(a) The Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably agree that the Liens granted to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent by the Loan Parties on any Collateral shall be automatically released (i) in full, as set forth in clause (b) below, (ii) upon the sale or other transfer of such Collateral (including as part of or in connection with any other sale or other transfer permitted hereunder (including any Receivables Financing Transaction)) to any Person other than another Loan Party, to the extent such sale, transfer or other disposition is made in compliance with the terms of this Agreement (and the Collateral Agent may rely conclusively on a certificate to that effect provided to it by any Loan Party upon its reasonable request without further inquiry), (iii) to the extent such Collateral is comprised of property leased to a Loan Party by a Person that is not a Loan Party, upon termination or expiration of such lease, (iv) if the release of such Lien is approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other percentage of the Lenders whose consent may be required in accordance with Section 10.01), (v) to the extent the property constituting such Collateral is owned by any Guarantor, upon the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty (in accordance with the second succeeding sentence), (vi) as required by the Collateral Agent to effect any sale, transfer or other disposition of Collateral in connection with any exercise of remedies of the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Collateral Documents and (vii) to the extent such Collateral otherwise becomes Excluded Assets. Any such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those being released) upon (or obligations (other than those being released) of the Loan Parties in respect of) all interests retained by the Loan Parties, including the proceeds of any sale, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral except to the extent otherwise released in accordance with the provisions of the Loan Documents. Additionally, the Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably agree that the Guarantors shall be released from the Guaranties upon consummation of any transaction permitted hereunder resulting in such Subsidiary ceasing to constitute a Restricted Subsidiary, or otherwise becoming an Excluded Subsidiary. The Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to execute and deliver any instruments, documents, consents, acknowledgements, and agreements necessary or desirable to evidence or confirm the release of any Guarantor or Collateral pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, all without the further consent or joinder of any Lender or Issuing Bank. Any representation, warranty or covenant contained in any Loan Document relating to any such released Collateral or Guarantor shall no longer be deemed to be repeated.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, when the Termination Conditions are satisfied, upon request of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Secured Party) take such actions as shall be required to release its security interest in all Collateral, and to release all obligations under any Loan Document, whether or not on the date of such release there may be any (i) Hedging Obligations in respect of any Secured Hedge Agreements, (ii) Cash Management Obligations in respect of any Secured Cash Management Agreements, (iii) contingent obligations not then due and (iv) Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations related to any Letter of Credit that has been Cash Collateralized, backstopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or deemed reissued under another agreement reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank. Any such release of Obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such Obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Borrower or any Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Borrower or any Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, upon request of the Borrower in connection with any Liens permitted by the Loan Documents, the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Secured Party) take such actions as shall be required to subordinate the Lien on any Collateral to any Lien permitted under Section 7.01 to be senior to the Liens in favor of the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 10.25 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among the parties hereto, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any EEA Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the write-down and conversion powers of an EEA Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by an EEA Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an EEA Financial Institution; and
(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such EEA Financial Institution, its parent entity, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the write-down and conversion powers of any EEA Resolution Authority.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

Section 2.05) and (b) on the Maturity Date for the Closing Date Term Loans, the aggregate principal amount of all Closing Date Term Loans outstanding on such date. In connection with any Incremental Term Loans that constitute part of the same Class as the Closing Date USD Term Loans or Closing Date Euro Term Loans, as applicable, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to adjust the rate of prepayment in respect of such Class such that the Term Lenders holding Closing Date USD Term Loans or Closing Date Euro Term Loans, as applicable, comprising part of such Class continue to receive a payment that is not less than the same Dollar amount that such Term Lenders would have received absent the incurrence of such Incremental Term Loans; provided, that if such Incremental Term Loans are to be “fungible” with the Closing Date USD Term Loans or Closing Date Euro Term Loans, as applicable, notwithstanding any other conditions specified in this Section 2.07(1), the amortization schedule for such “fungible” Incremental Term Loan may provide for amortization in such other percentage(s) to be agreed by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to ensure that the Incremental Term Loans will be “fungible” with the Closing Date USD Term Loans or Closing Date Euro Term Loans, as applicable.”

(j) Section 6.14 of the Credit Agreement is hereby amended by (i) adding the text “made on the Closing Date” immediately after the text “Closing Date Term Loans” in subclause (a) and deleting the word “(i)” therein, (ii) replacing the word “and” immediately preceding subclause (b) with a comma and (iii) adding the following language immediately prior to the period at the end thereof:

SECTION 3. The Initial Incremental Term Loan Commitment and the Initial Incremental Term Loans. In accordance with Section 2.14 of the Credit Agreement, and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 6 hereof, on and as of the First Amendment Effective Date, each Initial Incremental Term Lender hereby agrees that such Initial Incremental Term Lender (i) shall have, as contemplated by this Amendment and the Amended Credit Agreement, an Initial Incremental Term Loan Commitment under the Amended Credit Agreement in an amount equal to the amount set forth opposite such Initial Incremental Term Lender’s name under the heading “Initial Incremental USD Term Loan Commitments” or “Initial Incremental Euro Term Loan Commitments” on Schedule 2.01(a) to the Amended Credit Agreement, as applicable, and (ii) shall be deemed to be, and shall become, an “Initial Incremental Term Lender” (including an “Initial Incremental USD Term Lender” and/or “Initial Incremental Euro Term Lender”, as applicable), an “Additional Lender”, a “Term Lender”, a “Lender” and a “Secured Party” for all purposes of, and subject to all the obligations of an “Initial Incremental Term Lender”, an “Additional Lender”, a “Term Lender”, a “Lender” and a “Secured Party” under, the Amended Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents. The Borrower and the Administrative Agent hereby agree that from and after the First Amendment Effective Date, each Initial Incremental Term Lender shall be deemed to be, and shall become, an “Initial Incremental Term Lender” (including an “Initial Incremental USD Term Lender” and/or “Initial Incremental Euro Term Lender”, as applicable), an “Additional Lender”, a “Term Lender”, a “Lender” and a “Secured Party” for all purposes of, and with all the rights and remedies of an “Initial Incremental Term Lender” (including an “Initial Incremental USD Term Lender” and/or “Initial Incremental Euro Term Lender”, as applicable), an “Additional Lender”, a “Term Lender”, a “Lender” and a “Secured Party” under, the Amended Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(b) The Borrower hereby designates that the Initial Incremental Term Loans are being incurred in reliance on clauses (c)(A) and (c)(D)(x) of Section 2.14(4) in the Credit Agreement, and giving effect, for the avoidance of doubt, to Section 1.07(8).

(c) In accordance with Section 2.14 of the Credit Agreement, and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 6 hereof, on and as of the First Amendment Effective Date, each Initial Incremental Term Lender party hereto hereby agrees that such Initial Incremental Term Lender shall make Initial Incremental Term Loans to the Borrower pursuant to Section 2.01(1)(c) or (d), as applicable, of the Amended Credit Agreement on the First Amendment Effective Date in a principal amount not to exceed its Initial Incremental Term Loan Commitment under the Amended Credit Agreement.

(d) The Initial Incremental USD Term Loans shall constitute a Term Loan Increase of the Closing Date USD Term Loans and shall be of the same Class as the Closing Date USD Term Loans. The Initial Incremental Euro Term Loans shall constitute a Term Loan Increase of the Closing Date Euro Term Loans and shall be of the same Class as the Closing Date Euro Term Loans. The terms, provisions and documentation of the Initial Incremental USD Term Loans shall be identical (other than with respect to upfront fees, OID or similar fees) (including call protection, interest rate margins and interest rate floors) to the Closing Date USD Term Loans as existing on the First Amendment Effective Date and are in compliance with Sections 2.14(5)(a) and (c) of the Credit Agreement. The terms, provisions and documentation of the Initial Incremental Euro Term Loans shall be identical (other than with respect to upfront fees, OID or similar fees) (including call protection, interest rate margins and interest rate floors) to the Closing Date Euro Term Loans as existing on the First Amendment Effective Date and are in compliance with Sections 2.14(5)(a) and (c) of the Credit Agreement. The parties hereto intend to treat the Initial Incremental USD Term Loans as fungible with the existing Closing Date USD Term Loans for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The parties hereto intend to treat the Initial Incremental Euro Term Loans as fungible with the existing Closing Date Euro Term Loans for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(e) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that the Administrative Agent may, in accordance with Section 2.14(6) of the Credit Agreement, take any and all actions as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that all Initial Incremental Term Loans, when originally made, are Closing Date Term Loans for all purposes under the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents and are included in each Borrowing of outstanding Closing Date USD Term Loans or Closing Date Euro Term Loans, as applicable, on a pro rata basis. This may be accomplished by allocating a portion of each Initial Incremental Term Loan to each outstanding Eurocurrency Rate Loan or EURIBOR Rate Loan, as applicable, that is a Closing Date Term Loan on a pro rata basis, even though as a result thereof such Initial Incremental Term Loan may effectively have a shorter Interest Period than the Closing Date Term Loans included in the Borrowing of which they are a part (and notwithstanding any other provision of the Credit Agreement that would prohibit such an initial Interest Period). The Initial Incremental Term Loans shall not accrue interest for any period prior to the First Amendment Effective Date and the Borrower shall not be required to pay interest on the Initial Incremental Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.08 of the Credit Agreement for any period prior to the First Amendment Effective Date.

(f) As of the First Amendment Effective Date, after giving effect to the making of the Initial Incremental Term Loans, (i) the aggregate principal amount of Closing Date USD Term Loans outstanding pursuant to the Amended Credit Agreement shall be $2,872,612,500.00 and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Closing Date Euro Term Loans outstanding pursuant to the Amended Credit Agreement shall be €655,732,500.00.

SECTION 4. Assignment and Assumption Agreement. On and after the First Amendment Effective Date, the “Assignment and Assumption” (as defined in the Credit Agreement) shall be in a form separately agreed to by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Initial Incremental Term Lenders in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement and in lieu of the Assignment and Assumption attached as Exhibit D-1 to the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 5. Reference to and Effect on the Loan Documents. On and after the First Amendment Effective Date, each reference in the Credit Agreement to “this Agreement”, “hereunder”, “thereof” or words of like import referring to the Credit Agreement, and each reference in the other Loan Documents to “the Credit Agreement”, “thereunder”, “thereof” or words of like import referring to the “Credit Agreement”, shall mean and be a reference to the Amended Credit Agreement, and any reference to “Obligations” shall mean and be a reference to the “Obligations” under the Amended Credit Agreement.

(a) On and after the First Amendment Effective Date, the Credit Agreement, as specifically amended by this Amendment, and the other Loan Documents are, and shall continue to be, in full force and effect, and are hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed.

(b) From and after the First Amendment Effective Date, this Amendment shall be deemed an Incremental Amendment and a Loan Document for all purposes under the Amended Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(c) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the amendment of the Credit Agreement pursuant to this Amendment and all other Loan Documents amended and/or executed and delivered in connection herewith shall not constitute a novation of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents as in effect prior to the First Amendment Effective Date.

SECTION 6. Conditions of Effectiveness. The obligations of the Initial Incremental Term Lenders to make Initial Incremental Term Loans under the Amended Credit Agreement and the amendments to the Credit Agreement contained in Section 2 hereof shall become effective as of the first date (the “First Amendment Effective Date”) on which the following conditions shall have been satisfied (or waived by the Initial Incremental Term Lenders):

(d) The Administrative Agent and the Initial Incremental Term Lenders shall have received a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower certifying (i) that the conditions in clauses (f) and (g) of this Section 6 have been satisfied and (ii) the amount, if any, of Initial Incremental Term Loans being incurred in reliance on such clause (D)(x) of the definition of “Available Incremental Amount”;

(e) The Administrative Agent and the Initial Incremental Term Lenders shall have received a solvency certificate from a Financial Officer of Holdings or the Borrower (after giving effect to the transactions contemplated by this Amendment) based on and consistent with the form attached to the Credit Agreement as Exhibit I;

(f) The Specified Representations (which, for the purposes of this Section 6(f), shall include Skyhigh Networks, Inc. and its Restricted Subsidiaries, as applicable) shall be true and correct in all material respects on the First Amendment Effective Date (unless such Specified Representations relate to an earlier date, in which case, such Specified Representations shall have been true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date); provided, that each reference to the “Closing Date” set forth in the Specified Representations shall, for purposes of this clause 6(f), be a reference to the First Amendment Effective Date;

(g) Immediately after giving effect to this Amendment, no Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) of the Credit Agreement or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) of the Credit Agreement, shall exist after giving effect to the making of the Initial Incremental Term Loans;

(h) The Administrative Agent and the Initial Incremental Term Lenders shall have received a Committed Loan Notice no later than 1:00 p.m. (New York time) at least three Business Days (in the case of Eurodollar Rate Loans or EURIBOR Rate Loans) prior to, or on (in the case of Base Rate Loans), as applicable, the requested date of the Borrowing in respect of the Initial Incremental Term Loans;
(i) The Borrower shall have paid all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the Administrative Agent (including, without limitation, the Attorney Costs of the Administrative Agent to the extent provided for in Section 10.04 of the Credit Agreement) and the Initial Incremental Term Lenders in connection with this Amendment invoiced at least three (3) Business Days (unless otherwise reasonably agreed by the Borrower) prior to the First Amendment Effective Date;

(j) The Borrower shall have paid all fees required to be paid pursuant to the amended and restated fee letter, dated as of December 8, 2017, by and between the Borrower, Bank of America, N.A., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Goldman Sachs Bank USA, UBS AG, Stamford Branch and UBS Securities LLC;

(k) The Administrative Agent shall have received at least two (2) Business Days prior to the First Amendment Effective Date all documentation and other information about the Borrower and the Guarantors (other than any Excluded Subsidiary) required under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations (including the USA PATRIOT Act) that has been reasonably requested in writing at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the First Amendment Effective Date; and

(l) The Borrower shall have paid all accrued and unpaid interest on the Closing Date Term Loans up to, but excluding, the First Amendment Effective Date.

For purposes of determining compliance with the conditions specified in this Section 6, the Initial Incremental Term Lenders shall be deemed to have consented to, approved or accepted or to be satisfied with, each document or other matter required hereunder to be consented to or approved by or acceptable or satisfactory to the Initial Incremental Term Lenders from and after the making by the Initial Incremental Term Lenders of the Initial Incremental Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.01(1)(c) and (d) of the Amended Credit Agreement. The Initial Incremental Term Lenders and the Borrower shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent of the occurrence of the First Amendment Effective Date.

(b) None of the execution, delivery or performance by the Borrower of this Amendment or the execution, delivery or performance by any Guarantor of the Guarantor Consent will contravene the terms of any of the Borrower’s or any Guarantor’s Organizational Documents;

(c) This Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower, and the Guarantor Consent has been duly executed and delivered by each Guarantor. This Amendment constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower, and the Guarantor Consent constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Guarantor, enforceable against the Borrower and each Guarantor, as applicable, in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by Debtor Relief Laws, by general principles of equity and by principles of good faith and fair dealing; and
(d) Each Loan Party and each of its respective Restricted Subsidiaries that is a Material Subsidiary is a Person duly organized or formed, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization (to the extent such concept exists in such jurisdiction).

(7) Any determination of Total Assets shall be made by reference to the last day of the Test Period most recently ended for which internal financial statements of the Borrower are available (as determined in good faith by the Borrower) on or prior to the relevant date of determination.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event any item of Indebtedness (including any Class of Indebtedness incurred under this Agreement (including pursuant to Section 2.14)), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Permitted Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action (or any of the foregoing in a single transaction or a series of substantially concurrent related transactions) meets the criteria of one or more than one of the categories of Baskets under this Agreement (including within any defined terms), including any financial ratio based Baskets (including the Interest Coverage Ratio, First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, Secured Net Leverage Ratio and the Total Net Leverage Ratio), (i) unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the Borrower may, in its sole discretion, divide and classify and later re-divide and reclassify on or more occasions (based on circumstances existing on the date of any such re-division and reclassification) any such item of Indebtedness (including any Class of Indebtedness incurred under this Agreement (including pursuant to Section 2.14)), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action, in whole or in part, among one or more than one categories of Baskets under this Agreement, and (ii) availability and utilization of any category of financial ratio based Baskets (i.e., incurrence-based Baskets) with respect to any covenant (and including clause (D) of the Available Incremental Amount for purposes hereof) shall first be calculated without giving effect to the amount or portion of any item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Permitted Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action to be utilized under any other category of Baskets under such covenant (or the Available Incremental Amount, as applicable) at such time of determination (including at the time of any initial division and classification and any later re-divisions and reclassifications) and thereafter, availability and utilization of any category of Baskets that are not financial ratio based (including all Baskets based on fixed Dollar amounts or a percentage of Consolidated EBITDA or total assets under such covenant (including, as applicable, under clause (A)(1) of the Available Incremental Amount)) shall be calculated; provided that all Indebtedness (x) incurred hereunder on the Closing Date and (y) represented by the Indebtedness pursuant to the First Lien Credit Documents and related Guarantees on the Closing Date will, at all times, be treated as incurred on the Closing Date under Section 7.02(b)(1) and (2), respectively, and may not be reclassified. Each item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Permitted Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action will be deemed to have been incurred, issued, made or taken first, to the extent available, pursuant to any available categories of financial ratio based Baskets (including the Interest Coverage Ratio, First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, Secured Net Leverage Ratio and the Total Net Leverage Ratio) as set forth above prior to any other category of Baskets. If any item of Indebtedness (including any Class of Indebtedness incurred under this Agreement (including pursuant to Section 2.14)), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Permitted Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action (or any portion of the foregoing) previously divided and classified (or re-divided and reclassified) as set forth above under any category of non-financial ratio based Baskets could subsequently be re-divided and reclassified under a category of financial ratio based Baskets (including the Interest Coverage Ratio, Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio or Total Net Leverage Ratio (including clause (D) of the Available Incremental Amount)), such re-division and reclassification shall be deemed to occur automatically and item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Permitted Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action (or any portion of the foregoing) shall cease to be deemed made or outstanding for purposes of any category of Baskets that are not financial ratio based.

(9) If any item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action (any of the foregoing in a single transaction or a series of substantially concurrent related transactions) is incurred, issued, taken or consummated in reliance on categories of Baskets measured by reference to a percentage of Consolidated EBITDA, and any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, Lien, Restricted Payment, Permitted Investment or other transaction or action (including in connection with refinancing thereof) would subsequently exceed the applicable percentage of Consolidated EBITDA if calculated based on the Consolidated EBITDA on a later date (including the date of any refinancing), such percentage of Consolidated EBITDA will not be deemed to be exceeded (and in the case of refinancing any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, to the extent the principal amount or the liquidation preference of such newly incurred or issued Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock does not exceed the maximum principal amount, liquidation preference or amount of Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of the Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased).
(10) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any Loan Document to the contrary, when (a) calculating the availability under any Basket or ratio in this Agreement (including the Available Incremental Amount) or compliance with any provision of in this Agreement in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including acquisitions, Investments, the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness (including pursuant to Section 2.14), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof, the incurrence of Liens, repayments and Restricted Payments), in each case, at the option of the Borrower (the Borrower’s election to exercise such option, an “LCT Election”), the date of determination for availability under any such Basket or ratio and whether any such action or transaction is permitted (or any requirement or condition therefor is complied with or satisfied (including as to the absence of any (or any type of) continuing Default or Event of Default and satisfaction of any representations and warranties)) in this Agreement shall be deemed to be the date (the “LCT Test Date”) the definitive agreements for such Limited Condition Transaction are entered into (or, if applicable, the date of delivery of an irrevocable notice, declaration of a Restricted Payment or similar event), and if, after giving pro forma effect to the Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including acquisitions, Investments, the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness (including pursuant to Section 2.14), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof, the incurrence of Liens, repayments and Restricted Payments) and any related pro forma adjustments, the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries would have been permitted to take such actions or consummate such transactions on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with such ratio, test or basket (and any related requirements and conditions), such ratio, test or basket (and any related requirements and conditions) shall be deemed to have been complied with (or satisfied) for all purposes (in the case of Indebtedness, for example, whether such Indebtedness is committed, issued or incurred at the LCT Test Date or at any time thereafter); provided that (a) if financial statements for one or more subsequent fiscal quarters shall have become available, the Borrower may elect, in its sole discretion, to re-determine all such ratios, tests or baskets on the basis of such financial statements, in which case, such date of redetermination shall thereafter be deemed to be the applicable LCT Test Date for purposes of such ratios, tests or baskets, and (b) except as contemplated in the foregoing clause (a), compliance with such ratios, tests or baskets (and any related requirements and conditions) shall not be determined or tested at any time after the applicable LCT Test Date for such Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including acquisitions, Investments, the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof, the incurrence of Liens, repayments and Restricted Payments).

For the avoidance of doubt, if the Borrower has made an LCT Election, (1) if any of the ratios, tests or baskets for which compliance was determined or tested as of the LCT Test Date would at any time after the LCT Test Date have been exceeded or otherwise failed to have been complied with as a result of fluctuations in any such ratio, test or basket, including due to fluctuations in EBITDA or total assets of the Borrower or the Person subject to such Limited Condition Transaction, such baskets, tests or ratios will not be deemed to have been exceeded or failed to have been complied with as a result of such fluctuations; (2) if any related requirements and conditions (including as to the absence of any (or any type of) continuing Default or Event of Default and satisfaction of any representations and warranties) for which compliance or satisfaction was determined or tested as of the LCT Test Date would at any time after the LCT Test Date not have been complied with or satisfied (including due to the occurrence or continuation of any Default or Event of Default or failure to satisfy any representations and warranties), such requirements and conditions will not be deemed to have been failed to be complied with or satisfied (and such Default or Event of Default shall be deemed not to have occurred or be continuing and such representations and warranties shall be deemed to have been satisfied); and (3) in calculating the availability under any ratio, test or basket in connection with any action or transaction unrelated to such Limited Condition Transaction following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earlier of the date on which such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated or the date that the definitive agreement or date for redemption, purchase or repayment specified in an irrevocable notice or declaration for such Limited Condition Transaction is terminated, expires or passes, as applicable, without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, any such ratio, test or basket shall be determined or tested giving pro forma effect to such Limited Condition Transaction.
SECTION 1.08 Available Amount Transaction. If more than one action occurs on any given date the permissibility of the taking of which is determined hereunder by reference to the amount specified in clause (3) of Section 7.05(a) immediately prior to the taking of such action, the permissibility of the taking of each such action shall be determined independently and in no event may any two or more such actions be treated as occurring simultaneously, i.e., each transaction must be permitted under clause (3) of Section 7.05(a) as so calculated.

SECTION 1.09 Guaranties of Hedging Obligations. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in any Loan Document, no non-Qualified ECP Guarantor shall be required to guarantee or provide security for Excluded Swap Obligations, and any reference in any Loan Document with respect to such non-Qualified ECP Guarantor guaranteeing or providing security for the Obligations shall be deemed to be all Obligations other than the Excluded Swap Obligations.

SECTION 1.10 Currency Generally.

(1) The Borrower shall determine in good faith the Dollar equivalent amount of any utilization or other measurement denominated in a currency other than Dollars for purposes of compliance with any Basket. For purposes of determining compliance with any Basket under Article VII or VIII with respect to any amount expressed in a currency other than Dollars, no Default shall be deemed to have occurred solely as a result of changes in rates of currency exchange occurring after the time such Basket utilization occurs or other Basket measurement is made (so long as such Basket utilization or other measurement, at the time incurred, made or acquired, was permitted hereunder). Except with respect to any ratio calculated under any Basket, any subsequent change in rates of currency exchange with respect to any prior utilization or other measurement of a Basket previously made in reliance on such Basket (as the same may have been reallocated in accordance with this Agreement) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining any unutilized portion under such Basket.

(2) For purposes of determining the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, Secured Net Leverage Ratio and the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the amount of Indebtedness and cash and Cash Equivalents shall reflect the currency translation effects, determined in accordance with GAAP, of Hedging Obligations permitted hereunder for currency exchange risks with respect to the applicable currency in effect on the date of determination of the Dollar equivalent of such Indebtedness.

Article II

SECTION 2.01 The Loans.

(1) Borrowings. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 4.01 hereof, each Lender severally agrees to make to the Borrower on the Closing Date one or more Initial Loans denominated in Dollars in an aggregate principal amount equal to such Lender’s Closing Date Commitment on the Closing Date. Amounts borrowed under this Section 2.01(1) and repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed. The Initial Loans may be Base Rate Loans or Eurodollar Rate Loans, as further provided herein.
(1) Each Borrowing, each conversion of Loans from one Type to the other, and each continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be made upon the Borrower’s irrevocable notice, on behalf of the Borrower, to the Administrative Agent (provided that the notice in respect of the initial Borrowing, or in connection with any Permitted Acquisition or other transaction permitted under this Agreement, may be conditioned on the closing of such Permitted Acquisition or other transaction, as applicable), which may be given by: (A) telephone or (B) a Committed Loan Notice; provided that any telephonic notice by the Borrower must be confirmed immediately by delivery to the Administrative Agent of a Committed Loan Notice. Each such notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than (a) 1:00 p.m., New York time, three (3) Business Days prior to the requested date of any Borrowing or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or any conversion of Base Rate Loans to Eurodollar Rate Loans and (b) 1:00 p.m., New York time, on the requested date of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans or any conversion of Eurodollar Rate Loans to Base Rate Loans; provided that the notice referred to in subclause (a) above may be delivered not later than 1:00 p.m., New York time, one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date in the case of the Initials Loans. Each telephonic notice by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.02(1) must be confirmed promptly by delivery to the Administrative Agent of a written Committed Loan Notice, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower. Except as provided in Sections 2.14, 2.15 and 2.16, each Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $1.0 million or a whole multiple amount of $250,000 in excess thereof. Except as provided in Sections 2.14, 2.15 and 2.16, each Borrowing of or conversion to Base Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $500,000 or a whole multiple amount of $100,000 in excess thereof. Each Committed Loan Notice (whether telephonic or written) shall specify

(i) whether the Borrower is requesting a Borrowing, a conversion of Loans from one Type to the other or a continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans,

(ii) the requested date of the Borrowing, conversion or continuation, as the case may be (which shall be a Business Day),

(iii) the principal amount of Loans to be borrowed, converted or continued,

(iv) the Class and Type of Loans to be borrowed or to which existing Loans are to be converted,

(v) if applicable, the duration of the Interest Period with respect thereto and

(vi) wire instructions of the account(s) to which funds are to be disbursed.

If the Borrower fails to specify a Type of Loan to be made in a Committed Loan Notice, then the applicable Loans shall be made as Eurodollar Rate Loans with an Interest Period of one (1) month. If the Borrower fails to give a timely notice requesting a conversion or continuation, then the applicable Loans shall be made or continued as the same Type of Loan, which if a Eurodollar Rate Loan, shall have a one-month Interest Period. Any such automatic continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be effective as of the last day of the Interest Period then in effect with respect to the applicable Eurodollar Rate Loans. If the Borrower requests a Borrowing of, conversion to, or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans in any such Committed Loan Notice, but fails to specify an Interest Period, it will be deemed to have specified an Interest Period of one (1) month.
(2) Following receipt of a Committed Loan Notice, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender of the amount of its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the applicable Class of Loans, and if no timely notice of a conversion or continuation is provided by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Lender of the details of any automatic continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or continuation of Loans described in Section 2.02(1). In the case of each Borrowing, each Appropriate Lender shall make the amount of its Loan available to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds at the Administrative Agent’s Office not later than, in the case of Borrowing on the Closing Date, 10:00 a.m., New York time, and otherwise 3:00 p.m., New York time, on the Business Day specified in the applicable Committed Loan Notice. Upon satisfaction of the applicable conditions set forth in Section 4 for any Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall make all funds so received available to the Borrower in like funds as received by the Administrative Agent either by (a) crediting the account(s) of the Borrower on the books of the Administrative Agent with the amount of such funds or (b) wire transfer of such funds, in each case in accordance with instructions provided by the Borrower to (and reasonably acceptable to) the Administrative Agent.

(3) Except as otherwise provided herein, a Eurodollar Rate Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such Eurodollar Rate Loan, unless the Borrower pays the amount due, if any, under Section 3.05 in connection therewith. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent at the direction of the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Facility may require by notice to the Borrower that no Loans under such Facility may be converted to or continued as Eurodollar Rate Loans.

(4) The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Lenders of the interest rate applicable to any Interest Period for Eurodollar Rate Loans upon determination of such interest rate. The determination of the Eurodollar Rate by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. At any time when Base Rate Loans are outstanding, the Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders of any change in the Administrative Agent’s prime rate used in determining the Base Rate promptly following the announcement of such change.

(5) After giving effect to all Borrowings, all conversions of Loans from one Type to the other, and all continuations of Loans as the same Type, there shall not be more than ten (10) Interest Periods in effect unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and the Administrative Agent; provided that after the establishment of any new Class of Loans pursuant to an Incremental Amendment, a Refinancing Amendment, an Extension Amendment or an amendment in respect of Replacement Loans, the number of Interest Periods otherwise permitted by this Section 2.02(5) shall increase by three (3) Interest Periods for each applicable Class so established.

(6) The failure of any Lender to make the Loan to be made by it as part of any Borrowing shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation, if any, hereunder to make its Loan on the date of such Borrowing, but no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make the Loan to be made by such other Lender on the date of any Borrowing.

(7) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing, or, in the case of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans, prior to 1:30 p.m., New York time, on the date of such Borrowing, that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender’s Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such Pro Rata Share and such other applicable share available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with paragraph (2) above, and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available, then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, each of such Lender and the Borrower severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to the Borrower until the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (a) in the case of the Borrower, the interest rate applicable at the time to the Loans comprising such Borrowing and (b) in the case of such Lender, the Overnight Rate plus any administrative, processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Administrative Agent in accordance with the foregoing. A certificate of the Administrative Agent submitted to any Lender with respect to any amounts owing under this Section 2.02(7) shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. If the Borrower and such Lender shall both pay all or any portion of the principal amount in respect of such Borrowing or interest to the Administrative Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Administrative Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrower the amount of such Borrowing or interest paid by the Borrower for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Borrowing to the Administrative Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender’s Loan included in such Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrower shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrower may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 2.03 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.04 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.05 Prepayments.

(1) Optional.

(a) The Borrower may, upon notice to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay any Class or Classes of Loans in whole or in part without premium (except as set forth in Section 2.18) or penalty, provided that

(i) such notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than (A) 1:00 p.m., New York time, three (3) Business Days prior to any date of prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans and (B) 12:00 p.m., New York time, on the date of prepayment of Base Rate Loans;

(ii) any prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $1.0 million or a whole multiple of $250,000 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding; and

(iii) any prepayment of Base Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $500,000 or a whole multiple of $100,000 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding.

Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class(es) and Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of such prepayment. If such notice is given by the Borrower, the Borrower shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein. Any prepayment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 3.05. In the case of each prepayment of the Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(1), the Borrower may in its sole discretion select the Borrowing or Borrowings (and the order of maturity of principal payments) to be repaid, and such payment shall be paid to the Appropriate Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares.
(b) [Reserved]

c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrower may rescind (or delay the date of prepayment identified in) any notice of prepayment under Section 2.05(1)(a) by written notice to the Administrative Agent not later than 12:00 p.m., New York time, on such prepayment date if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing of all or a portion of the applicable Facility or other conditional event, which refinancing or other conditional event shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed.

d) Each prepayment in respect of any Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05 may be applied to any Class of Loans as directed by the Borrower. For the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower may (i) prepay Loans of an Existing Loan Class pursuant to this Section 2.05 without any requirement to prepay Extended Loans that were converted or exchanged from such Existing Loan Class and (ii) prepay Extended Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05 without any requirement to prepay Loans of an Existing Loan Class that were converted or exchanged for such Extended Loans. In the event that the Borrower does not specify the order in which to apply prepayments or as between Classes of Loans, the Borrower shall be deemed to have elected that such proceeds be applied on a pro rata basis among Loan Classes.

e) Notwithstanding anything in any Loan Document to the contrary, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any Borrower Party may (i) purchase outstanding Loans on a non-pro rata basis through open market purchases or (ii) prepay the outstanding Loans (which Loans shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be automatically and permanently canceled immediately upon such purchase or prepayment), which in the case of clause (ii) only shall be prepaid without premium or penalty on the following basis:

   (A) Any Borrower Party shall have the right to make a voluntary prepayment of Loans at a discount to par pursuant to a Borrower Offer of Specified Discount Prepayment, Borrower Solicitation of Discount Range Prepayment Offers or Borrower Solicitation of Discounted Prepayment Offers (any such prepayment, the “Discounted Loan Prepayment”), in each case made in accordance with this Section 2.05(1)(e) and without premium or penalty.

   (B) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time offer to make a Discounted Loan Prepayment by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days’ notice (or such shorter period as agreed by the Auction Agent) in the form of a Specified Discount Prepayment Notice; provided that (I) any such offer shall be made available, at the sole discretion of the applicable Borrower Party, to (x) each Lender or (y) each Lender with respect to any Class of Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such offer shall specify the aggregate principal amount offered to be prepaid (the “Specified Discount Prepayment Amount”) with respect to each applicable Class, the Class or Classes of Loans subject to such offer and the specific percentage discount to par (the “Specified Discount”) of such Loans to be prepaid (it being understood that different Specified Discounts or Specified Discount Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(1)(e)(B)), (III) the Specified Discount Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5.0 million and whole increments of $1.0 million in excess thereof and (IV) each such offer shall remain outstanding through the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Specified Discount Prepayment Notice and a form of the Specified Discount Prepayment Response to be completed and returned by each such Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Lenders (the “Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date”).
(2) Each Lender receiving such offer shall notify the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date whether or not it agrees to accept a prepayment of any of its applicable then outstanding Loans at the Specified Discount and, if so (such accepting Lender, a “Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender”), the amount and the Classes of such Lender’s Loans to be prepaid at such offered discount. Each acceptance of a Discounted Loan Prepayment by a Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender shall be irrevocable. Any Lender whose Specified Discount Prepayment Response is not received by the Auction Agent by the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined to accept the applicable Borrower Offer of Specified Discount Prepayment.

(3) If there is at least one Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender, the relevant Borrower Party will make a prepayment of outstanding Loans pursuant to this paragraph (B) to each Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender in accordance with the respective outstanding amount and Classes of Loans specified in such Lender’s Specified Discount Prepayment Response given pursuant to subsection (2) above; provided that if the aggregate principal amount of Loans accepted for prepayment by all Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders exceeds the Specified Discount Prepayment Amount, such prepayment shall be made pro rata among the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts accepted to be prepaid by each such Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the “Specified Discount Proration”). The Auction Agent shall promptly, and in any case within three (3) Business Days following the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date, notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the respective Lenders’ responses to such offer, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date and the aggregate principal amount of the Discounted Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, and the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of Loans to be prepaid at the Specified Discount on such date and (III) each Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender of the Specified Discount Proration, if any, and confirmation of the principal amount, Class and Type of Loans of such Lender to be prepaid at the Specified Discount on such date. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to the applicable Borrower Party and such Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to the applicable Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).

(C) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time solicit Discount Range Prepayment Offers by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days’ notice (or such shorter period as agreed by the Auction Agent) in the form of a Discount Range Prepayment Notice; provided that (I) any such solicitation shall be extended, at the sole discretion of such Borrower Party, to (x) each Lender or (y) each Lender with respect to any Class of Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such notice shall specify the maximum aggregate principal amount of the relevant Loans (the “Discount Range Prepayment Amount”), the Class or Classes of Loans subject to such offer and the maximum and minimum percentage discounts to par (the “Discount Range”) of the principal amount of such Loans with respect to each relevant Class of Loans willing to be prepaid by such Borrower Party (it being understood that different Discount Ranges or Discount Range Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(1)(e)(C)), (III) the Discount Range Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5.0 million and whole increments of $1.0 million in excess thereof and (IV) unless rescinded, each such solicitation by the applicable Borrower Party shall remain outstanding through the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Discount Range Prepayment Notice and a form of the Discount Range Prepayment Offer to be submitted by a responding Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Lenders (the “Discount Range Prepayment Response Date”). Each Lender’s Discount Range Prepayment Offer shall be irrevocable and shall specify a discount to par within the Discount Range (the “Submitted Discount”) at which such Lender is willing to allow prepayment of any or all of its then outstanding Loans of the applicable Class or Classes and the maximum aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Lender’s Loans (the “Submitted Amount”) such Lender is willing to have prepaid at the Submitted Discount. Any Lender whose Discount Range Prepayment Offer is not received by the Auction Agent by the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined to accept a Discounted Loan Prepayment of any of its Loans at any discount to their par value within the Discount Range.

(2) The Auction Agent shall review all Discount Range Prepayment Offers received on or before the applicable Discount Range Prepayment Response Date and shall determine (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) the Applicable Discount and Loans to be prepaid at such Applicable Discount in accordance with this subsection (C). The relevant Borrower Party agrees to accept on the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date all Discount Range Prepayment Offers received by the Auction Agent by the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date, in the order from the Submitted Discount that is the largest discount to par to the Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par, up to and including the Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par within the Discount Range (such Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par within the Discount Range being referred to as the “Applicable Discount”) which yields a Discounted Loan Prepayment in an aggregate principal amount equal to the lower of (I) the Discount Range Prepayment Amount and (II) the sum of all Submitted Amounts. Each Lender that has submitted a Discount Range Prepayment Offer to accept prepayment at a discount to par that is larger than or equal to the Applicable Discount shall be deemed to have irrevocably consented to prepayment of Loans equal to its Submitted Amount (subject to any required proration pursuant to the following subsection (3)) at the Applicable Discount (each such Lender, a “Participating Lender”).

(3) If there is at least one Participating Lender, the relevant Borrower Party will prepay the respective outstanding Loans of each Participating Lender in the aggregate principal amount and of the Classes specified in such Lender’s Discount Range Prepayment Offer at the Applicable Discount; provided that if the Submitted Amount by all Participating Lenders offered at a discount to par greater than the Applicable Discount exceeds the Discount Range Prepayment Amount, prepayment of the principal amount of the relevant Loans for those Participating Lenders whose Submitted Discount is a discount to par greater than or equal to the Applicable Discount (the “Identified Participating Lenders”) shall be made pro rata among the Identified Participating Lenders in accordance with the Submitted Amount of each such Identified Participating Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the “Discount Range Proration”). The Auction Agent shall promptly, and in any case within five (5) Business Days following the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date, notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the respective Lenders’ responses to such solicitation, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Applicable Discount, the aggregate principal amount of the Discounted Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Applicable Discount and the aggregate principal amount and Classes of Loans to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date, (III) each Participating Lender of the aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Lender to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date and (IV) if applicable, each Identified Participating Lender of the Discount Range Proration. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to the relevant Borrower Party and Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to the applicable Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).

(D) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time solicit Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days’ notice in the form of a Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice (or such later notice specified therein); provided that (I) any such solicitation shall be extended, at the sole discretion of such Borrower Party, to (x) each Lender or (y) each Lender with respect to any Class of Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such notice shall specify the maximum aggregate amount of the Loans (the “Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount”) and the Class or Classes of Loans the applicable Borrower Party is willing to prepay at a discount (it being understood that different Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(1)(e)(D)), (III) the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5.0 million and whole increments of $1.0 million in excess thereof and (IV) unless rescinded, each such solicitation by the applicable Borrower Party shall remain outstanding through the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice and a form of the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer to be submitted by a responding Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Lenders (the “Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date”). Each Lender’s Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer shall (x) be irrevocable, (y) remain outstanding until the Acceptance Date and (z) specify both a discount to par (the “Offered Discount”) at which such Lender is willing to allow prepayment of its then outstanding Loan and the maximum aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Loans (the “Offered Amount”) such Lender is willing to have prepaid at the Offered Discount. Any Lender whose Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer is not received by the Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined prepayment of any of its Loans at any discount.

(2) The Auction Agent shall promptly provide the relevant Borrower Party with a copy of all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received on or before the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date. Such Borrower Party shall review all such Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers and select the smallest of the Offered Discounts specified by the relevant responding Lenders in the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers that is acceptable to the applicable Borrower Party (the “Acceptable Discount”), if any. If the applicable Borrower Party elects to accept any Offered Discount as the Acceptable Discount, then as soon as practicable after the determination of the Acceptable Discount, but in no event later than by the third Business Day after the date of receipt by such Borrower Party from the Auction Agent of a copy of all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers pursuant to the first sentence of this subsection (2) (the “Acceptance Date”), the applicable Borrower Party shall submit an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice to the Auction Agent setting forth the Acceptable Discount. If the Auction Agent shall fail to receive an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice from the applicable Borrower Party by the Acceptance Date, such Borrower Party shall be deemed to have rejected all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers.

(3) Based upon the Acceptable Discount and the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received by the Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date, within three (3) Business Days after receipt of an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice (the “Discounted Prepayment Determination Date”), the Auction Agent will determine (with the consent of such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of Loans (the “Acceptable Prepayment Amount”) to be prepaid by the relevant Borrower Party at the Acceptable Discount in accordance with this Section 2.05(1)(e)(D). If the applicable Borrower Party elects to accept any Acceptable Discount, then such Borrower Party agrees to accept all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received by the Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date, in the order from largest Offered Discount to smallest Offered Discount, up to and including the Acceptable Discount. Each Lender that has submitted a Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer with an Offered Discount that is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount shall be deemed to have irrevocably consented to prepayment of Loans equal to its Offered Amount (subject to any required pro-rata reduction pursuant to the following sentence) at the Acceptable Discount (each such Lender, a “Qualifying Lender”). The applicable Borrower Party will prepay outstanding Loans pursuant to this subsection (D) to each Qualifying Lender in the aggregate principal amount and of the Classes specified in such Lender’s Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer at the Acceptable Discount; provided that if the aggregate Offered Amount by all Qualifying Lenders whose Offered Discount is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount exceeds the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount, prepayment of the principal amount of the Loans for those Qualifying Lenders whose Offered Discount is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount (the “Identified Qualifying Lenders”) shall be made pro rata among the Identified Qualifying Lenders in accordance with the Offered Amount of each such Identified Qualifying Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the “Solicited Discount Proration”). On or prior to the Discounted Prepayment Determination Date, the Auction Agent shall promptly notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date and Acceptable Prepayment Amount comprising the Discounted Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Acceptable Discount, and the Acceptable Prepayment Amount of all Loans and the Classes to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date, (III) each Qualifying Lender of the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of such Lender to be prepaid at the Acceptable Discount on such date, and (IV) if applicable, each Identified Qualifying Lender of the Solicited Discount Proration. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to such Borrower Party and Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to such Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).
(E) In connection with any Discounted Loan Prepayment, the Borrower Parties and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Auction Agent may require, as a condition to the applicable Discounted Loan Prepayment, the payment of customary fees and expenses from a Borrower Party to such Auction Agent for its own account in connection therewith.

(F) If any Loan is prepaid in accordance with subsections (B) through (D) above, a Borrower Party shall prepay such Loans on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date. The relevant Borrower Party shall make such prepayment to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders, Participating Lenders, or Qualifying Lenders, as applicable, at the Administrative Agent’s Office in immediately available funds not later than 12:00 p.m., New York time, on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date and all such prepayments shall be applied to the relevant Class(es) of Loans and Lenders as specified by the applicable Borrower Party in the applicable offer. The Loans so prepaid shall be accompanied by all accrued and unpaid interest on the par principal amount so prepaid up to, but not including, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date. Each prepayment of the outstanding Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(1)(e) shall be paid to the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders, Participating Lenders, or Qualifying Lenders, as applicable, and shall be applied to the relevant Loans of such Lenders in accordance with their respective applicable share as calculated by the Auction Agent in accordance with this Section 2.05(1)(e) and, if the Administrative Agent is not the Auction Agent, the Administrative Agent shall be fully protected in relying on such calculations of the Auction Agent. The aggregate principal amount of the Classes and installments of the relevant Loans outstanding shall be deemed reduced by the full par value of the aggregate principal amount of the Classes of Loans prepaid on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in any Discounted Loan Prepayment.

(G) To the extent not expressly provided for herein, each Discounted Loan Prepayment shall be consummated pursuant to procedures consistent with the provisions in this Section 2.05(1)(e), established by the Auction Agent acting in its reasonable discretion and as reasonably agreed by the applicable Borrower Party.

(H) Notwithstanding anything in any Loan Document to the contrary, for purposes of this Section 2.05(1)(e), each notice or other communication required to be delivered or otherwise provided to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) shall be deemed to have been given upon Auction Agent’s (or its delegate’s) actual receipt during normal business hours of such notice or communication; provided that any notice or communication actually received outside of normal business hours shall be deemed to have been given as of the opening of business on the next succeeding Business Day.

(I) Each of the Borrower Parties and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Auction Agent may perform any and all of its duties under this Section 2.05(1)(e) by itself or through any Affiliate of the Auction Agent and expressly consents to any such delegation of duties by the Auction Agent to such Affiliate and the performance of such delegated duties by such Affiliate. The exculpatory provisions pursuant to this Agreement shall apply to each Affiliate of the Auction Agent and its respective activities in connection with any Discounted Loan Prepayment provided for in this Section 2.05(1)(e) as well as activities of the Auction Agent.
(J) Each Borrower Party shall have the right, by written notice to the Auction Agent, to revoke in full (but not in part) its offer to make a Discounted Loan Prepayment and rescind the applicable Specified Discount Prepayment Notice, Discount Range Prepayment Notice or Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice therefor at its discretion at any time on or prior to the applicable Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date, Discount Range Prepayment Response Date or Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date (and if such offer is revoked pursuant to the preceding clauses, any failure by such Borrower Party to make any prepayment to a Lender, as applicable, pursuant to this Section 2.05(1)(e) shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under Section 8.01 or otherwise).

(2) Mandatory.

(a) Subject to the last paragraph of this Section 2.05(2), within five (5) Business Days after financial statements have been delivered pursuant to Section 6.01(1) and the related Compliance Certificate has been delivered pursuant to Section 6.02(1), commencing with the delivery of financial statements for the fiscal year ended on or about December 29, 2018, the Borrower shall, subject to clauses (g) and (h) of this Section 2.05(2), prepay, or cause to be prepaid, an aggregate principal amount of Loans (the "ECF Payment Amount") equal to 50% (such percentage as it may be reduced as described below, the "ECF Percentage") of Excess Cash Flow, if any, for the fiscal year covered by such financial statements minus the sum of all voluntary prepayments, repurchase or redemptions of

(i) Loans made pursuant to Sections 2.05(1)(a) and 2.05(1)(e) (in an amount, in the case of prepayments pursuant to Section 2.05(1)(e), equal to the discounted amount actually paid in respect of the principal amount of such Loans and only to the extent that such Loans have been cancelled), and in the case of each of the immediately preceding clauses (i) and (ii), made during such fiscal year (without duplication of any prepayments in such fiscal year that reduced the amount of Excess Cash Flow required to be repaid pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(a) for any prior fiscal year) or after the fiscal year-end but prior to the date a prepayment pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(a) is required to be made in respect of such fiscal year and in each case to the extent such prepayments are not funded with the proceeds of Funded Debt (other than any Indebtedness under any revolving credit facilities (including any Revolving Credit Facility (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement))); provided that (w) a prepayment of Loans pursuant to this 2.05(2)(a) in respect of any fiscal year shall only be required in the amount (if any) by which the ECF Payment Amount for such fiscal year exceeds $35.0 million, (x) the ECF Percentage shall be 25% if the Secured Net Leverage Ratio as of the end of the fiscal year covered by such financial statements was less than or equal to 4.25 to 1.00 and greater than 3.50 to 1.00 (calculated after giving effect to such prepayment at a rate of 50%) and (y) the ECF Percentage shall be 0% if the Secured Net Leverage Ratio as of the end of the fiscal year covered by such financial statements was less than or equal to 3.50 to 1.00 (calculated after giving effect to such prepayment at a rate of 25%); provided further that:

(ii) First Lien Loans, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness, "Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness" (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement), Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt, “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement), and any other Indebtedness in the form of notes or term or revolving loans, in each case to the extent secured by the Collateral in whole or in part on a senior or pari passu basis with the Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement (but without regard to the control of remedies) (provided, in the case of any prepayments of loans under any revolving credit facility, only to the extent accompanied by a permanent reduction in the corresponding revolving commitments),

(A) if at the time that any such prepayment would be required, the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) is required to Discharge Other Applicable Indebtedness with Other Applicable ECF pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness, then the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) may apply such portion of Excess Cash Flow otherwise required to repay the Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(a) on a pro rata basis (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Loans and Other Applicable Indebtedness requiring such Discharge at such time) to the prepayment of the Loans and to the repurchase or prepayment of Other Applicable Indebtedness, and the amount of prepayment of the Loans that would have otherwise been required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(a) shall be reduced accordingly (provided that the portion of such Excess Cash Flow allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of such Other Applicable ECF required to be allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness pursuant to the terms thereof and the remaining amount, if any, of such portion of Excess Cash Flow shall be allocated to the Loans to the extent required in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.05(2)(a)); and

(B) to the extent the lenders or holders of Other Applicable Indebtedness decline to have such Indebtedness repurchased or prepaid with such portion of Excess Cash Flow, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to prepay the Loans to the extent required in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.05(2)(a).

(b) Subject to the last paragraph of this Section 2.05(2), (i) if (x) the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary makes an Asset Sale or (y) any Casualty Event occurs, which results in the realization or receipt by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of Net Proceeds, the Borrower shall prepay, or cause to be prepaid, on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the date of the realization or receipt by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds, subject to clause (ii) of this Section 2.05(2)(b) and clauses (2)(g) and (h) of this Section 2.05, an aggregate principal amount of Loans equal to 100% (such percentage as it may be reduced as described below, the “Net Proceeds Percentage”) of all Net Proceeds realized or received; provided that no prepayment shall be required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(b)(i) with respect to such portion of such Net Proceeds that the Borrower shall have, on or prior to such date, given written notice to the Administrative Agent of its intent to reinvest (or entered into a binding commitment or a binding letter of intent to reinvest) in accordance with Section 2.05(2)(b)(ii); provided further that (x) the Net Proceeds Percentage shall be 50% if the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended prior to the date of such required prepayment is less than or equal to 4.25 to 1.00 and greater than 3.50 to 1.00 and (y) the Net Proceeds Percentage shall be 0% if the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended prior to the date of such required prepayment is less than or equal to 3.50 to 1.00; provided further that

(A) if at the time that any such prepayment would be required, the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) is required to Discharge any Other Applicable Indebtedness with Any Other Applicable Net Proceeds pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness, then the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) may apply such Net Proceeds otherwise required to repay the Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(b)(i) on a pro rata basis (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Loans and Other Applicable Indebtedness requiring such Discharge at such time), to the prepayment of the Loans and to the repurchase or prepayment of Other Applicable Indebtedness, and the amount of prepayment of the Loans that would have otherwise been required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(b)(i) shall be reduced accordingly (provided that the portion of such Net Proceeds allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of such Other Applicable Net Proceeds required to be allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness pursuant to the terms thereof and the remaining amount, if any, of such portion of Net Proceeds shall be allocated to the Loans to the extent required in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.05(2)(b)(i));

(B) to the extent the holders of Other Applicable Indebtedness decline to have such Indebtedness repurchased or prepaid with such portion of such Net Proceeds, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to prepay the Loans to the extent required in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.05(2)(b)(i).

(ii) With respect to any Net Proceeds realized or received with respect to any Asset Sale or any Casualty Event, the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary, at its option, may reinvest all or any portion of such Net Proceeds in assets useful for their business within (x) eighteen (18) months following receipt of such Net Proceeds or (y) if the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary enters into a legally binding commitment or a legally binding letter of intent to reinvest such Net Proceeds within eighteen (18) months following receipt thereof, within the later of (A) eighteen (18) months following receipt thereof and (B) one hundred eighty (180) days of the date of such legally binding commitment or legally binding letter of intent; provided that the Borrower may elect to deem expenditures that otherwise would be permissible reinvestments that occur prior to receipt of such Net Proceeds to have been reinvested in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.05(2)(b)(ii) (it being understood that such deemed expenditures shall have been made no earlier than the earliest of notice to the Administrative Agent, execution of a definitive agreement for such Asset Sale and consummation of such Asset Sale or Casualty Event); provided further that if any Net Proceeds are no longer intended to be or cannot be so reinvested at any time after such reinvestment election, and subject to clauses (g) and (h) of this Section 2.05(2), an amount equal to any such Net Proceeds shall be applied within five (5) Business Days after the Borrower reasonably determines that such Net Proceeds are no longer intended to be or cannot be so reinvested to the prepayment of the Loans as set forth in this Section 2.05.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) If the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary incurs or issues any Indebtedness (i) not expressly permitted to be incurred or issued pursuant to Section 7.02 or (ii) that constitutes Other Loans or Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness, in each case, incurred or issued to refinance any Class (or Classes) of Loans resulting in Net Proceeds (as opposed to such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or Other Loans arising out of an exchange of existing Loans for such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or Other Loans), the Borrower shall (in the case of the foregoing clause (d)(i), subject to the last paragraph of this Section 2.05(2)) prepay, or cause to be prepaid, an aggregate principal amount of Loans of any Class or Classes (in each case, as directed by the Borrower) equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds received therefrom on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days after the receipt by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds.

(e) (i) Except as otherwise set forth in any Refinancing Amendment, Extension Amendment or Incremental Amendment, each prepayment of Loans required by Sections 2.05(2)(a), (b) and (d)(i) shall be allocated to any Class of Loans outstanding as directed by the Borrower, shall be applied pro rata to Lenders within such Class of Loans, based upon the outstanding principal amounts owing to each such Lender under such Class of Loans; provided that
(x) such prepayments may not be directed to a later maturing Class of Loans without at least a pro rata repayment of any earlier maturing Classes of Loans (except that any Class of Incremental Loans, Other Loans, Extended Loans or Replacement Loans may specify that one or more other Classes of later maturing Loans may be prepaid prior to such Class of earlier maturing Loans), and

(y) in the event that there are two or more outstanding Classes of Loans with the same Maturity Date, such prepayments may not be directed to any such Class of Loans without at least a pro rata repayment of any Classes of Loans maturing on the same date (except that any Class of Incremental Loans, Other Loans, Extended Loans or Replacement Loans may specify that one or more other Classes of Loans with the same Maturity Date may be prepaid prior to such Class of Loans maturing on the same date), and

(ii) each prepayment of Loans required by Section 2.05(2)(d)(ii) shall be allocated to any Class or Classes of Loans being refinanced as directed by the Borrower and shall be applied pro rata to Lenders within each such Class, based upon the outstanding principal amounts owing to each such Lender under each such Class of Loans.

(f) [Reserved].

(g) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) through (d) of this Section 2.05(2) at least three (3) Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment (provided that, in the case of clause (b) or (d) of this Section 2.05(2), the Borrower may rescind (or delay the date of prepayment identified in) such notice if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing of all or any portion of the applicable Facility or other conditional event, which refinancing or other conditional event shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed). Each such notice shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the aggregate amount of such prepayment to be made by the Borrower. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the contents of the Borrower’s prepayment notice and of such Appropriate Lender’s Pro Rata Share of the prepayment. Each Lender may reject all or a portion of its Pro Rata Share of any mandatory prepayment (such declined amounts, the “Declined Proceeds”) of Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a), (b) and (d)(i) of this Section 2.05(2) by providing written notice (each, a “Rejection Notice”) to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, one (1) Business Day after the date of such Lender’s receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment. Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Loans. Any Declined Proceeds remaining shall be retained by the Borrower (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) and may be applied by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary in any manner not prohibited by this Agreement.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 2.05(2), (A) to the extent that any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale by a Foreign Subsidiary giving rise to a prepayment event pursuant to Section 2.05(2)(b) (a “Foreign Asset Sale”), the Net Proceeds of any Casualty Event from a Foreign Subsidiary (a “Foreign Casualty Event”) or all or a portion of Excess Cash Flow are prohibited or delayed by applicable local law from being repatriated to the United States, an amount equal to the portion of such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(2) so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law will not permit repatriation to the United States (the Borrower hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Foreign Subsidiary to promptly take all actions reasonably required by the applicable local law to permit such repatriation), and once such repatriation of any of such affected Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law, an amount equal to such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow permitted to be repatriated will be promptly (and in any event not later than two (2) Business Days after any such repatriation) applied (net of additional taxes that are or would be payable or reserved against as a result thereof) to the repayment of the Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(2) to the extent otherwise provided herein and (B) to the extent that the Borrower has determined in good faith that repatriation of any of or all the Net Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale or Foreign Casualty Event or Excess Cash Flow would have a material adverse tax consequence (taking into account any foreign tax credit or benefit actually realized in connection with such repatriation) with respect to such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, an amount equal to the Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(2).

(i) All prepayments under this Section 2.05 shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with, in the case of any such prepayment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan on a date prior to the last day of an Interest Period therefor, any amounts owing in respect of such Eurodollar Rate Loan pursuant to Section 3.05.

Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this Section 2.05, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, if any prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans is required to be made under this Section 2.05 prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, in lieu of making any payment pursuant to this Section 2.05 in respect of any such Eurodollar Rate Loan prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, the Borrower may, in its discretion, deposit an amount sufficient to make any such prepayment otherwise required to be made thereunder together with accrued interest to the last day of such Interest Period into a Cash Collateral Account until the last day of such Interest Period, at which time the Administrative Agent shall be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of such Loans in accordance with this Section 2.05. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, the Administrative Agent shall also be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of the outstanding Loans in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Section 2.05. Such deposit shall be deemed to be a prepayment of such Loans by the Borrower for all purposes under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no prepayment of Loans shall be required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2) (other than pursuant to Section 2.05(2)(d)(ii)), (x) if such prepayment is prohibited by the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement or (y) prior to the Discharge of Senior Obligations, except to the extent of, and not to exceed, the amount of Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, as the case may be, consisting of amounts declined by (A) the First Lien Term Lenders pursuant to Section 2.05(2)(g) of the First Lien Credit Agreement, (B) the holders of any “Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness” (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or other Indebtedness secured on a basis senior to the Liens securing the Second Lien Obligations and (C) the holders of any Refinancing Indebtedness incurred, issued or otherwise obtained to Refinance (in whole or in part) such Indebtedness (and any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) described under clause (x)(A) or (x)(B) of this paragraph, in each case constituting Senior Obligations (as defined in the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement) pursuant to the equivalent provisions of the credit documentation governing such Refinancing Indebtedness, which shall in each case be required to be applied as a mandatory prepayment hereunder (to the extent otherwise required herein) in an amount equal to the amounts so declined.
SECTION 2.06 Termination or Reduction of Commitments. The Closing Date Commitment of each Lender on the Closing Date shall be automatically and permanently reduced to $0 upon the making of such Lender’s Initial Loans to the Borrower pursuant to Section 2.01(1).

SECTION 2.07 Repayment of Loans. The Borrower shall repay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Appropriate Lenders on the Maturity Date for the Initial Loans, the aggregate principal amount of all Initial Loans outstanding on such date.

SECTION 2.08 Interest.

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.08(2), (a) each Eurodollar Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof for each Interest Period at a rate per annum equal to the Eurodollar Rate for such Interest Period, plus the Applicable Rate and (b) each Base Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the applicable Borrowing date at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate, plus the Applicable Rate.

(2) During the continuance of a Default under Section 8.01(1), the Borrower shall pay interest on past due amounts hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws. Accrued and unpaid interest on past due amounts (including interest on past due interest) shall be due and payable upon demand.

(3) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date applicable thereto and at such other times as may be specified herein. Interest hereunder shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

SECTION 2.09 Fees. The Borrower shall pay to the Agents such fees as shall have been separately agreed upon in writing in the amounts and at the times so specified. Such fees shall be fully earned when paid and shall not be refundable for any reason whatsoever (except as expressly agreed between the Borrower and the applicable Agent).

SECTION 2.10 Computation of Interest and Fees. All computations of interest for Base Rate Loans shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 days or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed. All other computations of fees and interest shall be made on the basis of a 360-day year and actual days elapsed. Interest shall accrue on each Loan for the day on which the Loan is made, and shall not accrue on a Loan, or any portion thereof, for the day on which the Loan or such portion is paid; provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same day on which it is made shall, subject to Section 2.12(1), bear interest for one day. Each determination by the Administrative Agent of an interest rate or fee hereunder shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.11 Evidence of Indebtedness.

(1) The Loans made by each Lender shall be evidenced by one or more accounts or records maintained by such Lender and evidenced by one or more entries in the Register maintained by the Administrative Agent, acting solely for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 5f.103-1(c), as agent for the Borrower, in each case in the ordinary course of business. The accounts or records maintained by the Administrative Agent and each Lender shall be prima facie evidence absent manifest error of the amount of the Loans made by the Lenders to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations. In the event of any conflict between the accounts and records maintained by any Lender and the accounts and records of the Administrative Agent, as set forth in the Register, in respect of such matters, the accounts and records of the Administrative Agent shall control in the absence of manifest error. Upon the request of any Lender made through the Administrative Agent, the Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender (through the Administrative Agent) a Note payable to such Lender, which shall evidence such Lender’s Loans in addition to such accounts or records. Each Lender may attach schedules to its Note and endorse thereon the date, Type (if applicable), amount and maturity of its Loans and payments with respect thereto.

(2) [Reserved.]

(3) Entries made in good faith by the Administrative Agent in the Register pursuant to Section 2.11(1), and by each Lender in its account or accounts pursuant to Section 2.11(1), shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of principal and interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrower to, in the case of the Register, each Lender and, in the case of such account or accounts, such Lender, under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, absent manifest error; provided that the failure of the Administrative Agent or such Lender to make an entry, or any finding that an entry is incorrect, in the Register or such account or accounts shall not limit or otherwise affect the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 2.12 Payments Generally.

(1) All payments to be made by the Borrower hereunder shall be made in Dollars without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by the Borrower hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the applicable Administrative Agent’s Office for payment and in Same Day Funds not later than 2:00 p.m., New York time, on the date specified herein. The Administrative Agent will promptly distribute to each Appropriate Lender its Pro Rata Share (or other applicable share as provided herein) of such payment in like funds as received by wire transfer to such Lender’s Lending Office. Any payments under this Agreement that are made later than 2:00 p.m., New York time, shall be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day (but the Administrative Agent may extend such deadline for purposes of computing interest and fees (but not beyond the end of such day) in its sole discretion whether or not such payments are in process).

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, if any payment to be made by the Borrower shall come due on a day other than a Business Day, payment shall be made on the next following Business Day, and such extension of time shall be reflected in computing interest or fees, as the case may be.

(3) Unless the Borrower or any Lender has notified the Administrative Agent, prior to the date, or in the case of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans, prior to 1:00 p.m., New York time, on the date of such Borrowing, any payment is required to be made by it to the Administrative Agent hereunder (in the case of the Borrower, for the account of any Lender hereunder or, in the case of the Lenders, for the account of the Borrower hereunder), that the Borrower or such Lender, as the case may be, will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower or such Lender, as the case may be, has timely made such payment and may (but shall not be so required to), in reliance thereon, make available a corresponding amount to the Person entitled thereto. If and to the extent that such payment was not in fact made to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds, then:

(a) if the Borrower failed to make such payment, each Lender shall forthwith on demand repay to the Administrative Agent the portion of such assumed payment that was made available to such Lender in Same Day Funds, together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such amount was made available by the Administrative Agent to such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds at the Overnight Rate from time to time in effect; and

(b) if any Lender failed to make such payment, such Lender shall forthwith on demand pay to the Administrative Agent the amount thereof in Same Day Funds, together with interest thereon for the period from the date such amount was made available by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower to the date such amount is recovered by the Administrative Agent (the "Compensation Period") at a rate per annum equal to the Overnight Rate from time to time in effect. When such Lender makes payment to the Administrative Agent (together with all accrued interest thereon), then such payment amount (excluding the amount of any interest which may have accrued and been paid in respect of such late payment) shall constitute such Lender’s Loan included in the applicable Borrowing. If such Lender does not pay such amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent’s demand therefor, the Administrative Agent may make a demand therefor upon the Borrower, and the Borrower shall pay such amount, or cause such amount to be paid, to the Administrative Agent, together with interest thereon for the Compensation Period at a rate per annum equal to the rate of interest applicable to the applicable Borrowing. Nothing herein shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to fulfill its Commitment or to prejudice any rights which the Administrative Agent or the Borrower may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender hereunder. A notice of the Administrative Agent to any Lender or the Borrower with respect to any amount owing under this Section 2.12(3) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(c) If any Lender makes available to the Administrative Agent funds for any Loan to be made by such Lender as provided in this Article II, and such funds are not made available to the Borrower by the Administrative Agent because the conditions to the borrowing of the Initial Loans set forth in Section 4.01 are not satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms hereof, the Administrative Agent shall return such funds (in like funds as received from such Lender) to such Lender, without interest.

(d) The obligations of the Lenders hereunder to make Loans are several and not joint. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan on any date required hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its corresponding obligation to do so on such date, and no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to so make its Loan.

(e) Nothing herein shall be deemed to obligate any Lender to obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner or to constitute a representation by any Lender that it has obtained or will obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner.

(f) Whenever any payment received by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents is insufficient to pay in full all amounts due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under or in respect of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents on any date, such payment shall be distributed by the Administrative Agent and applied by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in the order of priority set forth in Section 8.03 (or otherwise expressly set forth herein). If the Administrative Agent receives funds for application to the Obligations of the Loan Parties under or in respect of the Loan Documents under circumstances for which the Loan Documents do not specify the manner in which such funds are to be applied, the Administrative Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, elect to distribute such funds to each of the Lenders in accordance with such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount of all Loans outstanding at such time, in repayment or prepayment of such of the outstanding Loans or other Obligations then owing to such Lender.
SECTION 2.13 Sharing of Payments. Other than as expressly provided elsewhere herein, if any Lender of any Class shall obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on account of the Loans of such Class made by it (whether voluntary, involuntary, through the exercise of any right of setoff, or otherwise) in excess of its ratable share (or other share contemplated hereunder) thereof, such Lender shall immediately (1) notify the Administrative Agent of such fact, and (2) purchase from the other Lenders such participations in the Loans of such Class made by them, as shall be necessary to cause such purchasing Lender to share the excess payment in respect of any principal of or interest on such Loans of such Class pro rata with each of them; provided that if all or any portion of such excess payment is thereafter recovered from the purchasing Lender under any of the circumstances described in Section 10.06 (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the purchasing Lender in its discretion), such purchase shall to that extent be rescinded and each other Lender shall repay to the purchasing Lender the purchase price paid therefor, together with an amount equal to such paying Lender’s ratable share (according to the proportion of (a) the amount of such paying Lender’s required repayment to (b) the total amount so recovered from the purchasing Lender) of any interest or other amount paid or payable by the purchasing Lender in respect of the total amount so recovered, without further interest thereon. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 2.13 shall not be construed to apply to (i) any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement as in effect from time to time or (ii) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant permitted hereunder. The Borrower agrees that any Lender so purchasing a participation from another Lender pursuant to this Section 2.13 may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, exercise all its rights of payment (including the right of setoff, but subject to Section 10.10) with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were the direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation. The Administrative Agent will keep records (which shall be conclusive and binding in the absence of manifest error) of participations purchased under this Section 2.13 and will in each case notify the Lenders following any such purchases or repayments. Each Lender that purchases a participation pursuant to this Section 2.13 shall from and after such purchase have the right to give all notices, requests, demands, directions and other communications under this Agreement with respect to the portion of the Obligations purchased to the same extent as though the purchasing Lender were the original owner of the Obligations purchased. For purposes of clause (3) of the definition of Excluded Taxes, any participation acquired by a Lender pursuant to this Section 2.13 shall be treated as having been acquired on the earlier date(s) on which the applicable interest(s) in the Commitment(s) or Loan(s) to which such participation relates were acquired by such Lender.

SECTION 2.14 Incremental Facilities.

(1) Incremental Loan Request. The Borrower may at any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, by notice to the Administrative Agent (an “Incremental Loan Request”), request one or more new commitments which may be of the same Class as any outstanding Loans (a “Loan Increase”) or a new Class of term loans (collectively with any Loan Increase, the “Incremental Commitments”), whereupon the Administrative Agent shall promptly deliver a copy to each of the Lenders. Each Incremental Loan Request from the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.14 shall set forth the requested amount and proposed terms of the relevant Incremental Commitments.
(2) Incremental Loans. Any Incremental Loans or Incremental Commitments effected through the establishment of one or more new term loans made on an Incremental Facility Closing Date (other than a Loan Increase) shall be designated a separate Class of Incremental Loans for all purposes of this Agreement. On any Incremental Facility Closing Date on which any Incremental Commitments of any Class are effected (including through any Loan Increase), subject to the satisfaction of the terms and conditions in this Section 2.14, (i) each Incremental Lender of such Class shall make a Loan to the Borrower (an "Incremental Loan") in an amount equal to its Incremental Commitment of such Class and (ii) each Incremental Lender of such Class shall become a Lender hereunder with respect to the Incremental Commitment of such Class and the Incremental Loans of such Class made pursuant thereto.

(3) Incremental Lenders. Incremental Loans may be made by any existing Lender as approved by the Borrower (but no existing Lender will have an obligation to make any Incremental Commitment (or Incremental Loan), nor will the Borrower have any obligation to approach any existing Lenders to provide any Incremental Commitment (or Incremental Loan)) or by any Additional Lender (each such existing Lender or Additional Lender providing such Loan or Commitment, an "Incremental Lender" and, collectively, the "Incremental Lenders"); provided that (i) the Administrative Agent shall have consented (in each case, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) to such Additional Lender’s making such Incremental Loans to the extent such consent, if any, would be required under Section 10.07(b) for an assignment of Loans to such Additional Lender and (ii) with respect to Incremental Commitments, any Affiliated Lender providing an Incremental Commitment shall be subject to the same restrictions set forth in Section 10.07(b) as they would otherwise be subject to with respect to any purchase by or assignment to such Affiliated Lender of Loans.

(4) Effectiveness of Incremental Amendment. The effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment and the availability of any initial credit extensions thereunder shall be subject to the satisfaction on the date thereof (the "Incremental Facility Closing Date") of each of the following conditions (subject to Section 1.07(10)):

(a) (x) no Event of Default shall exist after giving effect to such Incremental Commitments; provided that, with respect to any Incremental Amendment the primary purpose of which is to finance an acquisition or other Investment permitted by this Agreement, the requirement pursuant to this clause (4)(a)(x) shall be that no Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) shall exist after giving effect to such Incremental Commitments, and (y) the representations and warranties of the Borrower contained in Article V or any other Loan Document shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the date of such Incremental Amendment (provided that, to the extent that such representations and warranties specifically refer to an earlier date, they shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date; provided, further, that, any representation and warranty that is qualified as to “materiality,” “Material Adverse Effect” or similar language shall be true and correct (after giving effect to any qualification therein) in all respects on such respective dates); provided that, in connection with an acquisition or other Investment permitted hereunder, the conditions in clause (x) and in clause (y) shall only be required to the extent that the Persons providing more than 50% of the applicable Incremental Loans and Incremental Commitments (provided, further, that, in the case of an acquisition or other Investment with a purchase price in excess of $100.0 million, the conditions contained in the proviso to clause (x) with respect to no Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) and in clause (y) with respect to Specified Representations, in each case, shall be required whether or not requested by such Persons, unless waived in accordance with Section 10.01);
(b) each Incremental Commitment shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $5.0 million (provided that such amount may be less than $5.0 million if such amount represents all remaining availability under the limit set forth in clause (c) of this Section 2.14(4));

(c) the aggregate principal amount of Incremental Loans and Incremental Commitments shall not, together with the aggregate principal amount of Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt, exceed the sum of:

(A) (1) $500.0 million plus any General Debt Basket Reallocated Amount less the First Lien Incremental Usage Amount plus (2) the aggregate amount of (w) voluntary prepayments, redemptions or repurchases of Incremental Loans and Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt (other than any Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt that is a revolving credit facility) (including purchases of Incremental Loans or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt by Holdings, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries at or below par, in which case the amount of voluntary prepayments of such Incremental Loans or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt shall be deemed not to exceed the actual purchase price of such Loans or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt below par), in each case, only to the extent such Incremental Loans or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt was incurred in reliance on clause (A)(1) above, (x) voluntary permanent commitment reductions in respect of Incremental Revolving Commitments (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) consisting of revolving credit commitments, in each case, to the extent such Incremental Revolving Commitments or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt was incurred in reliance on Section 2.14(4)(c)(A)(1) of the First Lien Credit Agreement, (y) voluntary prepayments, redemption or repurchase of First Lien Incremental Usage Amount Debt (including purchases of First Lien Incremental Usage Amount Debt by Holdings, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries) and (z) voluntary prepayments, redemptions or repurchases of any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness, Other Loans, Refinancing Indebtedness or other Indebtedness, in each case, previously applied to the prepayment, redemption or repurchase of any Incremental Loans and Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt incurred in reliance on clause (A)(1) above or any First Lien Incremental Usage Amount Debt, in the case of this clause (2), so long as such prepayment, redemption or repurchase was not previously included in clause (w) or clause (y) above; other than, in each case under clauses (w), (y) and (z), from proceeds of long-term Indebtedness (other than revolving credit facilities), plus

(B) (x) in the case of any Incremental Loans that effectively extend the Maturity Date of, or refinance, any Facility, an amount equal to the portion of the Facility to be replaced with (or refinanced by) such Incremental Loans and (y) in the case of any Incremental Loans that effectively replace any Loan that is terminated or cancelled in accordance with Section 3.07, an amount equal to the portion of the relevant terminated or cancelled Loan, plus

(C) solely to the extent not in duplication of prepayments, redemptions, repurchases or permanent commitment reductions described in Section 2.14(4)(c)(A)(2), the aggregate amount of (x) voluntary prepayments, redemptions or repurchases of Loans and Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt (other than any Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt that is a revolving credit facility) (including purchases of Loans or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt by Holdings, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, (y) voluntary permanent commitment reductions in respect of Revolving Commitments (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) consisting of revolving
(D) an unlimited amount, so long as in the case of this clause (D) only,

(x) in the case of Incremental Loans secured by Liens on all or a portion of the Collateral, either (I) the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended calculated on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any such incurrence, does not exceed 5.25 to 1.00 (including in connection with an acquisition or other similar Investment permitted under this Agreement) or (II) to the extent such Incremental Loans are incurred in connection with an acquisition or other similar Investment permitted under this Agreement, the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended calculated on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any such incurrence is no greater than the Secured Net Leverage Ratio immediately prior to giving effect to such incurrence of Incremental Loans and

(y) in the case of Incremental Loans that are unsecured, (i) the Total Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended calculated on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any such incurrence, does not exceed 5.50 to 1.00 (including in connection with an acquisition or other similar Investment permitted under this Agreement) or (ii) to the extent such Incremental Loans are incurred in connection with an acquisition or other Investment permitted under this Agreement, the Total Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period most recently ended calculated on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any such incurrence is no greater than the Total Net Leverage Ratio immediately prior to giving effect to such incurrence of Incremental Loans;

(5) Required Terms. The terms, provisions and documentation of the Incremental Loans of any Class and any Loan Increase shall be as agreed between the Borrower and the applicable Incremental Lenders providing such Incremental Commitments, and except as otherwise set forth herein, to the extent not identical to the Initial Loans existing on the Incremental Facility Closing Date, shall either, at the option of the Borrower, (A) reflect market terms and conditions (taken as a whole) at the time of incurrence of such Indebtedness (as determined by the Borrower in good faith), (B) be not materially more restrictive to the Borrower (as determined by the Borrower in good faith), when taken as a whole, than the terms of the Initial Loans, except with respect to covenants and other terms applicable to any period after the Latest Maturity Date in effect immediately prior to the incurrence of the Incremental Loans or (C) if neither clause (A) or (B) are satisfied, such terms, provisions and documentation shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent (it being understood that, at Borrower’s election, to the extent any term or provision is added for the benefit of the Lenders of Incremental Loans, no consent shall be required from the Administrative Agent to the extent that such term or provision is also added (or the features of such term are provided) for the benefit of the Lenders of the Initial Loans); provided, further, that in the case of a Loan Increase, the terms, provisions and documentation of such Loan Increase shall be identical (other than with respect to upfront fees, OID or similar fees, it being understood that, if required to consummate such Loan Increase transaction, the interest rate margins and rate floors may be increased, any call protection provision may be made more favorable to the applicable existing Lenders and additional upfront or similar fees may be payable to the lenders providing the Loan Increase) to the applicable Loans being increased, in each case, as existing on the Incremental Facility Closing Date (provided that if such Incremental Loans are to be “fungible” with the Initial Loans, notwithstanding any other conditions specified in this Section 2.14(5), the amortization schedule for such “fungible” Incremental Loan may provide for amortization in such other percentage(s) to be agreed by Borrower and the Administrative Agent to ensure that the Incremental Loans will be “fungible” with the Initial Loans). In any event:

(a) the Incremental Loans:

   (i) (x) shall rank equal in priority in right of payment with the Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement and (y) shall either (1) rank equal (but without regard to the control of remedies) or junior in priority of right of security with the Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement (subject to the applicable Intercreditor Agreement) or (2) be unsecured, in each case as applicable pursuant to clause (4)(c) above,

   (ii) shall not mature earlier than the Original Maturity Date,

   (iii) shall have a Weighted Average Life to Maturity not shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Initial Loans on the date of incurrence of such Incremental Loans,

   (iv) subject to clause (5)(a)(iii) above and clause (5)(b) below, respectively, shall have amortization and an Applicable Rate determined by the Borrower and the applicable Incremental Lenders,

   (v) may participate on a pro rata basis, less than a pro rata basis or greater than a pro rata basis in any mandatory prepayments of Loans hereunder (except that, unless otherwise permitted under this Agreement, such Incremental Loans may not participate on a greater than a pro rata basis as compared to any earlier maturing Class of Loans constituting Second Lien Obligations in any mandatory prepayments under Section 2.05(2)(a), (b) and (d)(i)), as specified in the applicable Incremental Amendment,

   (vi) shall be denominated in Dollars or, subject to the consent of the Administrative Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), another currency as determined by the Borrower and the applicable Incremental Lenders,

   (vii) shall not at any time be guaranteed by any Subsidiary of the Borrower other than Subsidiaries that are Guarantors.

(b) the amortization schedule applicable to any Incremental Loans and the All-In Yield applicable to the Incremental Loans of each Class shall be determined by the Borrower and the applicable Incremental Lenders and shall be set forth in each applicable Incremental Amendment; provided, however, that with respect to any syndicated Dollar-denominated Class of Incremental Loans that rank equal in priority of right of security with the Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement (but without regard to the control of remedies), the All-In Yield applicable to such Incremental Loans shall not be greater than the applicable All-In Yield payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement as amended through the date of such calculation with respect to Initial Loans, plus 50 basis points per annum unless the Applicable Rate (together with, as provided in the proviso below, the Eurodollar Rate or Base Rate floor) with respect to the Initial Loans is increased so as to cause the then applicable All-In Yield under this Agreement on the Initial Loans to equal the All-In Yield then applicable to the Incremental Loans, minus 50 basis points per annum; provided that any increase in All-In Yield on the Initial Loans due to the application of a Eurodollar Rate or Base Rate floor on any Incremental Loan shall be effected solely through an increase in (or implementation of, as applicable) the Eurodollar Rate or Base Rate floor applicable to such Initial Loans.

(6) Incremental Amendment. Commitments in respect of Incremental Loans shall become Commitments under this Agreement pursuant to an amendment (an “Incremental Amendment”) to this Agreement and, as appropriate, the other Loan Documents, executed by the Borrower, each Incremental Lender providing such Incremental Commitments and the Administrative Agent. The Incremental Amendment may, without the consent of any other Loan Party, Agent or Lender, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.14. In connection with any Incremental Amendment, the Borrower shall, if reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, deliver customary reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Collateral Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that such Incremental Loans are provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents. The Borrower will use the proceeds (if any) of the Incremental Loans for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement. No Lender shall be obligated to provide any Incremental Commitments or Incremental Loans unless it so agrees.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 10.01, the Administrative Agent is expressly permitted, without the consent of any Lenders, to amend the Loan Documents (including Section 2.07) to the extent necessary or appropriate in the reasonable discretion of the Administrative Agent to give effect to any Incremental Commitment pursuant to this Section 2.14 (which may be in the form of an amendment and restatement), including to provide to the Lenders of any Class of Loans or Commitments hereunder the benefit of any term or provision that is added under any Incremental Amendment for the benefit of the Lenders of a Class of Incremental Commitments (including to the extent necessary or advisable to allow any Class of Incremental Commitments to be an Incremental Increase).

(7) [Reserved.]

(8) This Section 2.14 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.12, 2.13 or 10.01 to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, any of the provisions of this Section 2.14 may be amended with the consent of the Required Lenders (or the applicable Required Facility Lenders, if applicable).
SECTION 2.15 Refinancing Amendments.

(1) At any time after the Closing Date, the Borrower may obtain, from any Lender or any Additional Lender (it being understood that (i) no Lender shall be required to provide any Other Loan without its consent and (ii) Other Loans provided by Affiliated Lenders shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 10.07(h)), Other Loans to refinance all or any portion of the applicable Class or Classes of Loans then outstanding under this Agreement which will be made pursuant to Other Commitments, pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment; provided that such Other Loans (i) shall rank equal in priority in right of payment with the other Loans and Commitments hereunder, (ii) shall be unsecured or rank pari passu (without regard to the control of remedies) or junior in right of security with any Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement and, if secured on a junior basis, shall be subject to an applicable Intercreditor Agreement(s), (iii) if secured, shall not be secured by any property or assets of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary other than the Collateral, (iv) shall not at any time be guaranteed by any Subsidiary of the Borrower other than Subsidiaries that are Guarantors, (v) shall have interest rates (including through fixed interest rates), interest margins, rate floors, upfront fees, funding discounts, original issue discounts and prepayment terms and premiums as may be agreed by the Borrower and the Lenders thereof and/or (B) may provide for additional fees and/or premiums payable to the Lenders providing such Other Loans in addition to any of the items contemplated by the preceding clause (A), in each case, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment, (vi) may have optional prepayment terms (including call protection and prepayment terms and premiums) as may be agreed between the Borrower and the Lenders thereof, (vii) will have a final maturity date no earlier than, and will have a Weighted Average Life to Maturity equal to or greater than, the Loans being refinanced and (viii) will have such other terms and conditions (other than as provided in foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii)) that either, at the option of the Borrower, (1) reflect market terms and conditions (taken as a whole) at the time of incurrence of such Other Loans (as determined by the Borrower in good faith) or (2) if otherwise not consistent with the terms of such Class of Loans or Commitments being refinanced, not be materially more restrictive to the Borrower (as determined by the Borrower in good faith), when taken as a whole, than the terms of such Class of Loans being refinanced, except with respect to covenants and other terms applicable to any period after the Latest Maturity Date of the Loans in effect immediately prior to such refinancing. Any Other Loans may participate on a pro rata basis, less than a pro rata basis or greater than a pro rata basis in any mandatory prepayments of Loans hereunder (except that, unless otherwise permitted under this Agreement or unless the Class of Loans being refinanced was so entitled to participate on a greater than a pro rata basis in such mandatory prepayments, such Other Loans may not participate on a greater than a pro rata basis as compared to any earlier maturing Class of Loans constituting Second Lien Obligations in any mandatory prepayments under Section 2.05(2)(a), (b) and (d)(i)), as specified in the applicable Refinancing Amendment. In connection with any Refinancing Amendment, the Borrower shall, if reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, deliver customary reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Collateral Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that such Other Loans are provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents.

(2) Each Class of Other Commitments and Other Loans incurred under this Section 2.15 shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $5.0 million. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Refinancing Amendment. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that, upon the effectiveness of any Refinancing Amendment, this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Other Commitments and Other Loans incurred pursuant thereto (including any amendments necessary to treat the Other Loans and/or Other Commitments as Loans and Commitments). Any Refinancing Amendment may, without the consent of any other Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.15.

SECTION 2.16 Extensions of Loans.

(1) Extension of Loans. The Borrower may at any time and from time to time request that all or a portion of the Loans of any Class (each, an "Existing Loan Class") be converted or exchanged to extend the scheduled Maturity Date(s) of any payment of principal with respect to all or a portion of any principal amount of such Loans (any such Loans which have been so extended, "Extended Loans") and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.16. Prior to entering into any Extension Amendment with respect to any Extended Loans, the Borrower shall provide written notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Lenders under the applicable Existing Loan Class, with such request offered equally to all such Lenders of such Existing Loan Class) (each, an "Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Loans to be established, which terms shall be identical in all material respects to the Loans of the Existing Loan Class from which they are to be extended except that (i) the scheduled final maturity date shall be extended and all or any of the scheduled amortization payments, if any, of all or a portion of any principal amount of such Extended Loans may be delayed to later dates than the scheduled amortization, if any, of principal of the Loans of such Existing Loan Class (with any such delay resulting in a corresponding adjustment to the scheduled amortization payments reflected in the Extension Amendment, the Incremental Amendment, the Refinancing Amendment or any other amendment, as the case may be, with respect to the Existing Loan Class from which such Extended Loans were extended), (ii)(A) the interest rates (including through fixed interest rates), interest margins, rate floors, upfront fees, funding discounts, original issue discounts and voluntary prepayment terms and premiums with respect to the Extended Loans may be different than those for the Loans of such Existing Loan Class and/or (B) additional fees and/or premiums may be payable to the Lenders providing such Extended Loans in addition to any of the items contemplated by the preceding clause (A), in each case, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, (iii) the Extended Loans may have optional prepayment terms (including call protection and prepayment terms and premiums) as may be agreed between the Borrower and the Lenders thereof, (iv) any Extended Loans may participate on a pro rata basis, less than a pro rata basis or greater than a pro rata basis in any mandatory prepayments of Loans hereunder (except that, unless otherwise permitted under this Agreement, such Extended Loans may not participate on a greater than pro rata basis as compared to any earlier maturing Class of Loans in any mandatory prepayments under Section 2.05(2)(a), (b) and (d)(i)), in each case as specified in the respective Extension Request and (v) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply to any period after the Latest Maturity Date in respect of Loans that is in effect immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Loans. No Lender shall have any obligation to agree to have any of its Loans of any Existing Loan Class converted into Extended Loans pursuant to any Extension Request. Any Extended Loans extended pursuant to any Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, an "Extension Series") of Extended Loans for all purposes of this Agreement and shall constitute a separate Class of Loans from the Existing Loan Class from which they were extended; provided that any Extended Loans amended from an Existing Loan Class may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Extension Series with respect to such Existing Loan Class.

(2) [Reserved.]

(3) Extension Request. The Borrower shall provide the applicable Extension Request to the Administrative Agent at least five (5) Business Days (or such shorter period as the Administrative Agent may determine in its sole discretion) prior to the date on which Lenders under the applicable Existing Loan Class are requested to respond. Any Lender holding a Loan under an Existing Loan Class shall notify the Administrative Agent whether the Lender desires to have its Loans included in any such Extension Series provided for in such Extension Request. If the Borrower shall have received the requisite consent to the Establishment of any such Extension Series, the Administrative Agent shall provide written notice of any such Establishment to the applicable Lenders in the Extension Request. A Lender's consent to the Establishment of any such Extension Series shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided that a Lender may object to the Establishment of any such Extension Series if it does not desire to have any of its Loans included in such Extension Series.
Loan Class (each, an “Extending Lender”) wishing to have all or a portion of its Loans of an Existing Loan Class or Existing Loan Classes, as applicable, subject to such Extension Request converted or exchanged into Extended Loans shall notify the Administrative Agent (each, an “Extension Election”) on or prior to the date specified in such Extension Request of the amount of its Loans which it has elected to convert or exchange into Extended Loans. In the event that the aggregate principal amount of Loans subject to Extension Elections exceeds the amount of Extended Loans requested pursuant to the Extension Request, Loans subject to Extension Elections shall be converted or exchanged into Extended Loans on a pro rata basis (subject to such rounding requirements as may be established by the Administrative Agent) based on the aggregate principal amount of Loans included in each such Extension Election or as may be otherwise agreed to in the applicable Extension Amendment.

(4) Extension Amendment. Extended Loans shall be established pursuant to an amendment (each, an “Extension Amendment”) to this Agreement (which, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 10.01, shall not require the consent of any Lender other than the Extending Lenders with respect to the Extended Loans established thereby) executed by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Extending Lenders, it being understood that such Extension Amendment shall not require the consent of any Lender other than the Extending Lenders. Each request for an Extension Series of Extended Loans proposed to be incurred under this Section 2.16 shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $5.0 million (it being understood that the actual principal amount thereof provided by the applicable Lenders may be lower than such minimum amount), and the Borrower may condition the effectiveness of any Extension Amendment on an Extension Minimum Condition, which may be waived by the Borrower in its sole discretion. In addition to any terms and changes required or permitted by Section 2.16(1), each of the parties hereto agrees that this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be amended pursuant to an Extension Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent necessary to (i) in respect of each Extension Amendment in respect of Extended Loans, amend the scheduled amortization payments pursuant to Section 2.07 or the applicable Incremental Amendment, Extension Amendment, Refinancing Amendment or other amendment, as the case may be, with respect to the Existing Loan Class from which the Extended Loans were exchanged to reduce each scheduled repayment amount for the Existing Loan Class in the same proportion as the amount of Loans of the Existing Loan Class is to be reduced pursuant to such Extension Amendment (it being understood that the amount of any repayment amount payable with respect to any individual Loan of such Existing Loan Class that is not an Extended Loan shall not be reduced as a result thereof); (ii) reflect the existence and terms of the Extended Loans incurred pursuant thereto; (iii) modify the prepayments set forth in Section 2.05 to reflect the existence of the Extended Loans and the application of prepayments with respect thereto; and (iv) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.16, and the Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Extension Amendment. In connection with any Extension Amendment, the Borrower shall, if reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, deliver customary reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Collateral Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that such Extended Loans are provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, on any date on which any Existing Loan Class is converted or exchanged to extend the related scheduled maturity date(s) in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Section 2.16, in the case of the existing Loans of each Extending Lender, the aggregate principal amount of such existing Loans shall be deemed reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Extended Loans so converted or exchanged by such Lender on such date, and the Extended Loans shall be established as a separate Class of Loans, except as otherwise provided under Section 2.16(1).
In the event that the Administrative Agent determines in its sole discretion that the allocation of Extended Loans of a given Extension Series to a given Lender was incorrectly determined as a result of manifest administrative error in the receipt and processing of an Extension Election timely submitted by such Lender in accordance with the procedures set forth in the applicable Extension Amendment, then the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and such affected Lender may (and hereby are authorized to), in their sole discretion and without the consent of any other Lender, enter into an amendment to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (each, a “Corrective Extension Amendment”) within 15 days following the effective date of such Extension Amendment, as the case may be, which Corrective Extension Amendment shall (i) provide for the conversion or exchange and extension of Loans under the Existing Loan Class in such amount as is required to cause such Lender to hold Extended Loans of the applicable Extension Series into which such other Loans were initially converted or exchanged, as the case may be, in the amount such Lender would have held had such administrative error not occurred and had such Lender received the minimum allocation of the applicable Loans to which it was entitled under the terms of such Extension Amendment, in the absence of such error, (ii) be subject to the satisfaction of such conditions as the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and such Extending Lender may agree, and (iii) effect such other amendments of the type (with appropriate reference and nomenclature changes) described in the penultimate sentence of Section 2.16(4).

No conversion or exchange of Loans or Commitments pursuant to any Extension Amendment in accordance with this Section 2.16 shall constitute a voluntary or mandatory payment or prepayment for purposes of this Agreement.

This Section 2.16 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.12, 2.13 or 10.01 to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, any of the provisions of this Section 2.16 may be amended with the consent of the Required Lenders (or the applicable Required Facility Lenders, if applicable).

SECTION 2.17 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.18 Prepayment Premium. Each prepayment of the Initial Loans pursuant to Section 2.05(1) or Section 2.05(2)(d) shall be accompanied by a premium equal to (a) if such prepayment is made prior to the first anniversary of the Closing Date, 2.00% of the principal amount of the Initial Loans so prepaid, (b) if such prepayment is made on or after the first anniversary of the Closing Date but prior to the second anniversary of the Closing Date, 1.00% of the principal amount of the Initial Loans so prepaid and (c) if such prepayment is made on or after the second anniversary of the Closing Date, 0% of the principal amount of the Initial Loans so prepaid.

Article III

Taxes, Increased Costs Protection and Illegality

SECTION 3.01 Taxes.

(1) Except as required by applicable Law, all payments by or on account of any Loan Party to or for the account of any Agent or any Lender under any Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes.

(2) If any Loan Party or any other applicable withholding agent is required by applicable Law to make any deduction or withholding on account of any Taxes from any sum paid or payable by or on account of any Loan Party to or for the account of any Lender or Agent under any of the Loan Documents:
(a) the applicable Loan Party or other applicable withholding agent shall make such deduction or withholding and pay to the relevant Governmental Authority any such Tax before the date on which penalties attach thereto, such payment to be made (if the liability to pay is imposed on any Loan Party) for such Loan Party’s account or (if that liability is imposed on the Lender or Agent) on behalf of and in the name of the Lender or Agent (as applicable);

(b) if the Tax in question is a Non-Excluded Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable to such Lender or Agent (as applicable) shall be increased by such Loan Party to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of any required deduction or withholding for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes (including any deductions or withholdings for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes attributable to any payments required to be made under this Section 3.01), such Lender (or, in the case of any payment made to the Administrative Agent for its own account, the Administrative Agent) receives on the due date a net sum equal to what it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required or made; and

(c) within thirty days after paying any sum from which it is required by Law to make any deduction or withholding, and within thirty days after the due date of payment of any Tax which it is required by clause (a) above to pay (or, in each case, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent evidence reasonably satisfactory to the other affected parties of such deduction or withholding and of the remittance thereof to the relevant Governmental Authority.

(3) Status of Lender. Each Lender shall, at such times as are reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, provide the Borrower and the Administrative Agent with any documentation prescribed by Laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or reduction in, withholding Tax with respect to any payments to be made to such Lender under any Loan Document. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable Law or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each such Lender shall, whenever a lapse in time or change in circumstances renders any such documentation (including any specific documentation required below in this Section 3.01(3)) obsolete, expired or inaccurate in any respect, deliver promptly to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent updated or other appropriate documentation (including any new documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) or promptly notify the Borrower and Administrative Agent of its legal ineligibility to do so.

Without limiting the foregoing:

(a) Each U.S. Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement two properly completed and duly signed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding.

(b) Each Foreign Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) whichever of the following is applicable:

(i) two properly completed and duly signed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor forms) claiming eligibility for the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party, and such other documentation as required under the Code,

(ii) two properly completed and duly signed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI (or any successor forms),

(iii) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 871(h) or Section 881(c) of the Code, (A) two properly completed and duly signed certificates substantially in the form of Exhibit H (any such certificate, a “United States Tax Compliance Certificate”) and (B) two properly completed and duly signed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor forms),

(iv) to the extent a Foreign Lender is not the beneficial owner (for example, where such Foreign Lender is a partnership or a participating Lender), IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor forms) of such Foreign Lender, accompanied by an IRS Form W-8ECI, Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, United States Tax Compliance Certificate, Form W-9, Form W-8IMY and any other required information (or any successor forms) from each beneficial owner that would be required under this Section 3.01(3) if such beneficial owner were a Lender, as applicable (provided that, if a Lender is a partnership (and not a participating Lender) and if one or more beneficial owners are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, the United States Tax Compliance Certificate may be provided by such Foreign Lender on behalf of such beneficial owner(s)), or

(v) two properly completed and duly signed copies of any other documentation prescribed by applicable U.S. federal income tax laws (including the Treasury Regulations) as a basis for claiming a complete exemption from, or a reduction in, U.S. federal withholding tax on any payments to such Lender under the Loan Documents.

(c) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender’s obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount, if any, to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this paragraph (c), the term “FATCA” shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Lender is an entity disregarded from its owner for U.S. federal income tax purposes, references to the foregoing documentation are intended to refer to documentation with respect to such Lender’s owner and, as applicable, such Lender.
Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.01(3), a Lender shall not be required to deliver any documentation that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to deliver to the Loan Parties and to any successor Administrative Agent any documentation provided by such Lender to the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 3.01(3).

(4) Without duplication of other amounts payable by the Borrower pursuant to Section 3.01(2), the Borrower shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(5) The Loan Parties shall, jointly and severally, indemnify a Lender or the Administrative Agent (each a “Tax Indemnitee”), within 10 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Non-Excluded Taxes paid or payable by such Tax Indemnitee on or attributable to any payment under or with respect to any Loan Document, and any Other Taxes payable by such Tax Indemnitee (including Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes imposed on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 3.01) (other than any interest, penalties and other costs determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Tax Indemnitee), whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the Governmental Authority; provided that if the Borrower reasonably believes that such Taxes were not correctly or legally asserted, such Tax Indemnitee will use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Borrower to obtain a refund of such Taxes (which shall be repaid to the Borrower in accordance with Section 3.01(6)) so long as such efforts would not, in the sole determination of such Tax Indemnitee (exercised in good faith), result in any additional out-of-pocket costs or expenses not reimbursed by such Loan Party or be otherwise materially disadvantageous to such Tax Indemnitee. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability prepared in good faith and delivered by the Tax Indemnitee or by the Administrative Agent on behalf of another Tax Indemnitee, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(6) If and to the extent that a Tax Indemnitee, in its sole discretion (exercised in good faith), determines that it has received a refund (whether received in cash or applied as a credit against any other cash Taxes payable) of any Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes in respect of which it has received indemnification payments or additional amounts under this Section 3.01, then such Tax Indemnitee shall pay to the relevant Loan Party the amount of such refund, net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Tax Indemnitee (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund), and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund), provided that the Loan Party, upon the request of the Tax Indemnitee, agrees to repay the amount paid over by the Tax Indemnitee (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Tax Indemnitee to the extent the Tax Indemnitee is required to pay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 3.01(6), in no event will the Tax Indemnitee be required to pay any amount to a Loan Party pursuant to this Section 3.01(6) the payment of which would place the Tax Indemnitee in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Tax Indemnitee would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This subsection shall not be construed to require a Tax Indemnitee to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Loan Party or any other Person.

(7) On or before the date the Administrative Agent becomes a party to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall deliver to the Borrower whichever of the following is applicable: (i) if the Administrative Agent is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, two executed original copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Administrative Agent is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding or (ii) if the Administrative Agent is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, (A) with respect to payments received for its own account, two executed original copies of IRS Form W-8ECI and (ii) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, two executed original copies of IRS Form W-8IMY (together with all required accompanying documentation) certifying that the Administrative Agent is a U.S. branch and may be treated as a United States person for purposes of applicable U.S. federal withholding Tax. At any time thereafter, the Administrative Agent shall provide updated documentation previously provided (or a successor form thereto) when any documentation previously delivered has expired or become obsolete or invalid or otherwise upon the reasonable request of the Borrower. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 3.01(7), the Administrative Agent shall not be required to provide any documentation that the Administrative Agent is not legally eligible to deliver as a result of a Change in Law after the Closing Date.

(8) The agreements in this Section 3.01 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

SECTION 3.02 Illegality. If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make, maintain or fund Loans whose interest is determined by reference to the Eurodollar Rate, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon the Eurodollar Rate, or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to purchase or sell, or to take deposits of, Dollars in the London interbank market, then, on written notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower through the Administrative Agent, (1) any obligation of such Lender to make or continue Eurodollar Rate Loans or to convert Base Rate Loans to Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be suspended, and (2) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender making or maintaining Base Rate Loans the interest rate on which is determined by reference to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate, the interest rate on which Base Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate, in each case until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, (a) the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans and shall, upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), prepay or, if applicable, convert all Eurodollar Rate Loans of such Lender to Base Rate Loans (the interest rate on which Base Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate), either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Eurodollar Rate Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Eurodollar Rate Loans and (b) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender determining or charging interest rates based upon the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate with respect to any Base Rate Loans, the Administrative Agent shall during the period of such suspension compute the Base Rate applicable to such Lender without reference to the Eurodollar Rate component thereof until the Administrative Agent is advised in writing by such Lender that it is no longer illegal for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates based upon the Eurodollar Rate. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

SECTION 3.03 Inability to Determine Rates. If the Administrative Agent (in the case of clause (1) or (2) below) or the Required Lenders (in the case of clause (3) below) reasonably determine that for any reason in connection with any request for a Eurodollar Rate Loan or a conversion to or continuation thereof that

(1) Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the London interbank eurodollar market for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such Eurodollar Rate Loan,
(2) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining the Eurodollar Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan or in connection with an existing or proposed Base Rate Loan, or

(3) the Eurodollar Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan, the Administrative Agent will promptly so notify the Borrower and each Lender. Thereafter, (i) the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain Eurodollar Rate Loans shall be suspended, and (ii) in the event of a determination described in the preceding sentence with respect to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate, the utilization of the Eurodollar Rate component in determining the Base Rate shall be suspended, in each case until the Administrative Agent (upon the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans in the amount specified therein.

SECTION 3.04 Increased Cost and Reduced Return; Capital Adequacy; Reserves on Eurodollar Rate Loans

(1) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(a) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender;

(b) subject any Lender to any Tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Eurodollar Rate Loan made by it, or change the basis of taxation of payments to such Lender in respect thereof (except for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes covered by Section 3.01 and any Excluded Taxes); or

(c) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense affecting this Agreement or Eurodollar Rate Loans made by such Lender that is not otherwise accounted for in the definition of “Eurodollar Rate” or this clause (1); and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Loan the interest on which is determined by reference to the Eurodollar Rate (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan), or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, from time to time within fifteen (15) days after demand by such Lender setting forth in reasonable detail such increased costs (with a copy of such demand to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered; provided that such amounts shall only be payable by the Borrower to the applicable Lender under this Section 3.04(1) so long as it is such Lender’s general policy or practice to demand compensation in similar circumstances under comparable provisions of other financing agreements.

(2) Capital Requirements. If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or any Lending Office of such Lender or such Lender’s holding company, if any, regarding capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender’s capital or on the capital of such Lender’s holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by it to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender’s holding company, as the case may be, could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender’s policies and the policies of such Lender’s holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time upon demand of such Lender setting forth in reasonable detail the charge and the calculation of such reduced rate of return (with a copy of such demand to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower will pay to such Lender additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender’s holding company for any such reduction suffered; provided that such amounts shall only be payable by the Borrower to the applicable Lender under this Section 3.04(2) so long as it is such Lender’s general policy or practice to demand compensation in similar circumstances under comparable provisions of other financing agreements.

(3) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in subsection (1) or (2) of this Section 3.04 and delivered to the Borrower shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within fifteen (15) days after receipt thereof.

SECTION 3.05 Funding Losses. Upon written demand of any Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) from time to time, which demand shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such amount, the Borrower shall promptly compensate such Lender for and hold such Lender harmless from any loss, cost or expense (excluding loss of anticipated profits or margin) actually incurred by it as a result of:

1. any continuation, conversion, payment or prepayment of any Eurodollar Rate Loan on a day prior to the last day of the Interest Period for such Loan (whether voluntary, mandatory, automatic, by reason of acceleration, or otherwise);
2. any failure by the Borrower (for a reason other than the failure of such Lender to make a Loan) to prepay, borrow, continue or convert any Eurodollar Rate Loan on the date or in the amount notified by the Borrower; or
3. any assignment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan on a day prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor as a result of a request by the Borrower pursuant to Section 3.07; including any loss or expense (excluding loss of anticipated profits or margin) actually incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of funds obtained by it to maintain such Eurodollar Rate Loan or from fees payable to terminate the deposits from which such funds were obtained.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Lender may make any demand under this Section 3.05 with respect to the “floor” specified in the proviso to the definition of “Eurodollar Rate.”

SECTION 3.06 Matters Applicable to All Requests for Compensation.

1. Designation of a Different Lending Office. If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.04, or the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01, or if any Lender gives a notice pursuant to Section 3.02, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the good faith judgment of such Lender such designation or assignment (a) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 3.01 or 3.04, as the case may be, in the future, or eliminate the need for the notice pursuant to Section 3.02, as applicable, and (b) in each case, would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender in any material economic, legal or regulatory respect.
Section 3.01. Suspension of Lender Obligations. If any Lender requests compensation by the Borrower under Section 3.04, the Borrower may, by notice to such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), suspend the obligation of such Lender to make or continue Eurodollar Rate Loans from one Interest Period to another Interest Period, or to convert Base Rate Loans into Eurodollar Rate Loans until the event or condition giving rise to such request ceases to be in effect (in which case the provisions of Section 3.06(3) shall be applicable); provided that such suspension shall not affect the right of such Lender to receive the compensation so requested.

Section 3.02. Conversion of Eurodollar Rate Loans. If any Lender gives notice to the Borrower (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) that the circumstances specified in Section 3.02, 3.03 or 3.04 hereof that gave rise to the conversion of such Lender’s Eurodollar Rate Loans no longer exist (which such Lender agrees to do promptly upon such circumstances ceasing to exist) at a time when Eurodollar Rate Loans made by other Lenders, as applicable, are outstanding, such Lender’s Base Rate Loans shall be automatically converted, on the first day(s) of the next succeeding Interest Period(s) for such outstanding Eurodollar Rate Loans to the extent necessary so that, after giving effect thereto, all Loans of a given Class held by the Lenders of such Class holding Eurodollar Rate Loans and by such Lender are held pro rata (as to principal amounts, interest rate basis, and Interest Periods) in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares.

Section 3.03. Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to the foregoing provisions of Sections 3.01 or 3.04 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender’s right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to the foregoing provisions of Section 3.01 or 3.04 for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrower of the event giving rise to such claim and of such Lender’s intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the circumstance giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

SECTION 3.07 Replacement of Lenders under Certain Circumstances. If (1) any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.04 or ceases to make Eurodollar Rate Loans as a result of any condition described in Section 3.02 or Section 3.04, (2) the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01 or 3.04, (3) any Lender is a Non-Consenting Lender or (4) any other circumstance exists hereunder that gives the Borrower the right to replace a Lender as a party hereto, then the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent,

(a) require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in, and consents required by, Section 10.07), all of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement (or, with respect to clause (3) above, all of its interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Class of Loans or Commitments that is the subject of the related consent, waiver, or amendment, as applicable) and the related Loan Documents to one or more Eligible Assignees that shall assume such obligations (any of which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment), provided that:

(i) the Borrower shall have paid to the Administrative Agent the assignment fee specified in Section 10.07(b)(iv);
such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the applicable outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (including any amounts under Section 3.05) from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrower (in the case of all other amounts);

such Lender being replaced pursuant to this Section 3.07 shall (i) execute and deliver an Assignment and Assumption with respect to all, or a portion, as applicable, of such Lender’s Commitment and outstanding Loans and (ii) deliver any Notes evidencing such Loans to the Borrower or Administrative Agent (or a lost or destroyed note indemnity in lieu thereof); provided that the failure of any such Lender to execute an Assignment and Assumption or deliver such Notes shall not render such sale and purchase (and the corresponding assignment) invalid and such assignment shall be recorded in the Register and the Notes shall be deemed to be canceled upon such failure;

the Eligible Assignee shall become a Lender hereunder and the assigning Lender shall cease to constitute a Lender hereunder with respect to such assigned Loans, Commitments and participations, except with respect to indemnification and confidentiality provisions under this Agreement, which shall survive as to such assigning Lender;

in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 3.04 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 3.01, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter;

such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws; and the Lender that acts as Administrative Agent cannot be replaced in its capacity as Administrative Agent other than in accordance with Section 9.11, or

(b) terminate the Commitment of such Lender and repay all Obligations of the Borrower owing to such Lender relating to the Loans and participations held by such Lender as of such termination date.

In the event that (i) the Borrower or the Administrative Agent has requested that the Lenders consent to a departure or waiver of any provisions of the Loan Documents or agree to any amendment thereto, (ii) the consent, waiver or amendment in question requires the agreement of each Lender, all affected Lenders or all the Lenders or all affected Lenders with respect to a certain Class or Classes of the Loans/Commitments and (iii) the Required Lenders or Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, have agreed to such consent, waiver or amendment, then any Lender who does not agree to such consent, waiver or amendment shall be deemed a “Non-Consenting Lender.”

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

SECTION 3.08 Survival. All of the Borrower’s obligations under this Article III shall survive termination of the Commitments, repayment of all other Obligations hereunder and resignation of the Administrative Agent.

(4) together with the delivery of the Compliance Certificate with respect to the financial statements referred to in Section 6.01(1), (a) a report setting forth the information required by Section 1(a) of the Perfection Certificate (or confirming that there has been no change in such information since the later of the Closing Date or the last report delivered pursuant to this clause (a)) and (b) a list of each Subsidiary of the Borrower that identifies each Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary or an Unrestricted Subsidiary as of the date of delivery of such list or a confirmation that there is no change in such information since the later of the Closing Date and the last such list; and

(5) promptly, but subject to the limitations set forth in Section 6.10 and Section 10.09, such additional information regarding the business and financial affairs of any Loan Party or any Material Subsidiary that is a Restricted Subsidiary, or compliance with the terms of the Loan Documents, as the Administrative Agent may from time to time on its own behalf or on behalf of any Lender reasonably request in writing from time to time.

Documents required to be delivered pursuant to Section 6.01 or Section 6.02(2) may be delivered electronically and if so delivered, shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date (a) on which the Borrower posts such documents, or provides a link thereto, on the Borrower’s (or any Parent Company’s) website on the Internet at the website address listed on Schedule 10.02 hereto (or as such address may be updated from time to time in accordance with Section 10.02); or (b) on which such documents are posted on the Borrower’s behalf on IntraLinks/IntraAgency or another relevant website, if any, to which each Lender and the Administrative Agent have access (whether a commercial, third-party website or whether sponsored by the Administrative Agent); provided that (i) upon written request by the Administrative Agent, the Borrower will deliver paper copies of such documents to the Administrative Agent for further distribution by the Administrative Agent to each Lender (subject to the limitations on distribution of any such information to Public Lenders as described in Section 6.02) until a written request to cease delivering paper copies is given by the Administrative Agent and (ii) the Borrower shall notify (which may be by facsimile or electronic mail) the Administrative Agent of the posting of any such documents or link and, upon the Administrative Agent’s request, provide to the Administrative Agent by electronic mail electronic versions (i.e., soft copies) of such documents. Each Lender shall be solely responsible for timely accessing posted documents or requesting delivery of paper copies of such documents from the Administrative Agent and maintaining its copies of such documents.

The Borrower hereby acknowledges that (a) the Administrative Agent will make available to the Lenders materials or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrower hereunder (collectively, the “Borrower Materials”) by posting the Borrower Materials on IntraLinks, SyndTrak, ClearPar or another similar electronic system (the “Platform”) and (b) certain of the Lenders may have personnel who do not wish to receive any information with respect to Holdings, their Subsidiaries or their respective securities that is not Public-Side Information, and who may be engaged in investment and other market-related activities with respect to such Person’s securities (each, a “Public Lender”). The Borrower hereby agrees that (i) at the Administrative Agent’s request, all Borrower Materials that are to be made available to Public Lenders will be clearly and conspicuously marked “PUBLIC” which, at a minimum, means that the word “PUBLIC” will appear prominently on the first page thereof; (ii) by marking Borrower Materials “PUBLIC,” the Borrower will be deemed to have authorized the Administrative Agent, the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as containing only Public-Side Information (provided, however, that to the extent such Borrower Materials constitute Information, they will be treated as set forth in Section 10.09); (iii) all Borrower Materials marked “PUBLIC” and, except to the extent the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent to the contrary, any Borrower Materials provided pursuant to Sections 6.01(1), 6.01(2) or 6.02(1) are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated as “Public Side Information”; and (iv) the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers shall be entitled to treat Borrower Materials that are not specifically identified as “PUBLIC” as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not designated as “Public Side Information.” Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall be under no obligation to mark the Borrower Materials “PUBLIC.”

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, nothing in this Agreement will require Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary to disclose, permit the inspection, examination or making copies or abstracts of, or discussion of, any document, information or other matter, or provide information (i) that constitutes non-financial trade secrets or non-financial proprietary information, (ii) in respect of which disclosure is prohibited by Law or binding agreement or (iii) that is subject to attorney-client or similar privilege or constitutes attorney work product; provided that in the event that the Borrower does not provide information that otherwise would be required to be provided hereunder in reliance on the exclusions in this paragraph relating to violation of any obligation of confidentiality, the Borrower shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide notice to the Administrative Agent promptly upon obtaining knowledge that such information is being withheld (but solely if providing such notice would not violate such obligation of confidentiality).

SECTION 6.03 Notices. Promptly after a Responsible Officer obtains actual knowledge thereof, notify the Administrative Agent of:

(1) the occurrence of any Default; and

(2) (a) any dispute, litigation, investigation or proceeding between any Loan Party and any arbitrator or Governmental Authority, (b) the filing or commencement of, or any material development in, any litigation or proceeding affecting any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries, including pursuant to any applicable Environmental Laws or in respect of IP Rights, the occurrence of any violation by any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries of, or liability under, any Environmental Law or Environmental Permit, or (c) the occurrence of any ERISA Event that, in any such case referred to in clauses (a), (b) or (c) of this Section 6.03(2), has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Each notice pursuant to this Section 6.03 shall be accompanied by a written statement of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower (a) that such notice is being delivered pursuant to Section 6.03(1) or (2) (as applicable) and (b) setting forth details of the occurrence referred to therein and stating what action the Borrower has taken and proposes to take with respect thereto.

SECTION 6.04 Payment of Obligations. Timely pay, discharge or otherwise satisfy, as the same shall become due and payable, all of its obligations in respect of Taxes imposed upon it or upon its income or profits or in respect of its property, except, in each case, to the extent (1) any such Tax is being contested in good faith and by appropriate actions for which appropriate reserves have been established in accordance with GAAP or (2) the failure to pay or discharge the same would not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect.
SECTION 6.05 Preservation of Existence, etc.

(1) Preserve, renew and maintain in full force and effect its legal existence under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization; and
(2) take all reasonable action to obtain, preserve, renew and keep in full force and effect its rights, licenses, permits, privileges, franchises, and IP Rights material to the conduct of its business, except in the case of clause (1) or (2) to the extent (other than with respect to the preservation of the existence of the Borrower) that failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect or pursuant to any merger, consolidation, liquidation, dissolution or disposition permitted by Article VII.

SECTION 6.06 Maintenance of Properties. Except if the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, maintain, preserve and protect all of its material properties and equipment used in the operation of its business in good working order, repair and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted and casualty or condemnation excepted and any repairs and replacements that are the obligation of the owner or landlord of any property leased by the Borrower or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries excepted.

SECTION 6.07 Maintenance of Insurance. Maintain with insurance companies that the Borrower believes (in the good faith judgment of its management) are financially sound and reputable at the time the relevant coverage is placed or renewed or with a Captive Insurance Subsidiary, insurance with respect to the Borrower’s and the Restricted Subsidiaries’ properties and business against loss or damage of the kinds customarily insured against by Persons engaged in the same or similar business, of such types and in such amounts (after giving effect to any self-insurance reasonable and customary for similarly situated Persons engaged in the same or similar businesses as the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries) as are customarily carried under similar circumstances by such other Persons, and will furnish to the Lenders, upon written request from the Administrative Agent, information presented in reasonable detail as to the insurance so carried; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary be required to obtain or maintain insurance that is more restrictive than its normal course of practice. Subject to Section 6.13(2), each such policy of insurance will, as appropriate, (i) name the Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, as an additional insured thereunder as its interests may appear or (ii) in the case of each casualty insurance policy, contain an additional loss payable clause or endorsement that names the Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, as the additional loss payee thereunder.

SECTION 6.08 Compliance with Laws. Comply in all material respects with the requirements of all Laws and comply with the USA PATRIOT Act, sanctions administered by OFAC and all orders, writs, injunctions and decrees of any Governmental Authority applicable to it or to its business or property, except if the failure to comply therewith would not reasonably be expected individually or in the aggregate to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 6.09 Books and Records. Maintain proper books of record and account, in which entries that are full, true and correct in all material respects shall be made of all material financial transactions and matters involving the assets and business of the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be (it being understood and agreed that certain Foreign Subsidiaries may maintain individual books and records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in their respective countries of organization and that such maintenance shall not constitute a breach of the representations, warranties or covenants hereunder).
SECTION 6.10 Inspection Rights. Permit representatives and independent contractors of the Administrative Agent to visit and inspect any of its properties, to examine its corporate, financial and operating records, and make copies thereof or abstracts therefrom and to discuss its affairs, finances and accounts with its directors, officers, and independent public accountants (subject to such accountants’ customary policies and procedures), all at the reasonable expense of the Borrower and at such reasonable times during normal business hours and as often as may be reasonably desired, upon reasonable advance notice to the Borrower; provided that only the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders may exercise rights under this Section 6.10 and the Administrative Agent shall not exercise such rights more often than two (2) times during any calendar year absent the existence of an Event of Default and only one (1) such time shall be at the Borrower’s expense; provided further that when an Event of Default exists, the Administrative Agent (or any of its representatives or independent contractors) may do any of the foregoing at the expense of the Borrower at any time during normal business hours and upon reasonable advance notice. The Administrative Agent shall give the Borrower the opportunity to participate in any discussions with the Borrower’s independent public accountants. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.10 is subject to the last paragraph of Section 6.02.

SECTION 6.11 Covenant to Guarantee Obligations and Give Security. At the Borrower’s expense, subject to the provisions of the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement, the terms of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any applicable limitation in any Collateral Document, take all action necessary or reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to ensure that the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement continues to be satisfied, including:

(1) (x) upon (i) the formation or acquisition of any new direct or indirect wholly owned Material Domestic Subsidiary (other than any Excluded Subsidiary) by any Loan Party, (ii) the designation of any existing direct or indirect wholly owned Material Domestic Subsidiary (other than any Excluded Subsidiary) as a Restricted Subsidiary, (iii) any Subsidiary (other than any Excluded Subsidiary) becoming a wholly owned Material Domestic Subsidiary or (iv) an Excluded Subsidiary that is a wholly owned Material Domestic Subsidiary ceasing to be an Excluded Subsidiary but continuing as a wholly owned Material Domestic Subsidiary of the Borrower, (y) upon the acquisition of any material assets by the Borrower or any Subsidiary Guarantor or (z) with respect to any Subsidiary at the time it becomes a Loan Party, for any material assets held by such Subsidiary (in each case, other than assets constituting Collateral under a Collateral Document that becomes subject to the Lien created by such Collateral Document upon acquisition thereof (without limitation of the obligations to perfect such Lien) but excluding Excluded Assets):

(a) within the days specified below after such formation, acquisition or designation or, in each case, such longer period as the Administrative Agent may agree in its reasonable discretion, cause each such Material Domestic Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement to execute the Guaranty (or a joinder thereto) and other documentation the Administrative Agent may reasonably request from time to time in order to carry out more effectively the purposes of the Guaranty and the Collateral Documents and
(A) within sixty (60) days (or within ninety (90) days in the case of documents listed in Section 6.11(2)(b)) after such formation, acquisition or designation, cause each such Material Domestic Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement to duly execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent items listed in Section 6.11(2)(b), mutatis mutandis, with respect to any supplements to the Security Agreement, a counterpart signature page to the Intercompany Note, Intellectual Property Security Agreements and other security agreements and documents (if applicable), as reasonably requested by and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent (consistent with the Security Agreement, Intellectual Property Security Agreements and other Collateral Documents in effect on the Closing Date as amended and in effect from time to time), in each case granting and perfecting Liens required by the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement;

(B) within sixty (60) days after such formation, acquisition or designation, cause each such Material Domestic Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement to deliver to the Collateral Agent (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement) any and all certificates representing Equity Interests (to the extent certificated and required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement)) that are required to be pledged pursuant to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement, accompanied by undated stock powers or other appropriate instruments of transfer executed in blank and, if applicable, a joinder to the Intercompany Note substantially in the form of Annex I thereto with respect to the intercompany Indebtedness held by such Material Domestic Subsidiary and required to be pledged pursuant to the Collateral Documents;

(C) within sixty (60) days (or within ninety (90) days in the case of documents listed in Section 6.11(2)(b)) after such formation, acquisition or designation, take and cause (i) the applicable Material Domestic Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement and (ii) to the extent applicable, each direct or indirect parent of such applicable Material Domestic Subsidiary, in each case, to take customary action(s) (including the filing of Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and delivery to the Collateral Agent (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement) of stock and membership interest certificates to the extent certificated and required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement)) as may be necessary in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent to vest in the Collateral Agent (or in any representative of the Collateral Agent designated by it) (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement) valid and perfected (subject to Liens permitted by Section 7.01) Liens required by the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement, enforceable against all third parties in accordance with their terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by Debtor Relief Laws and by general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law); and provided that actions relating to Liens on real property are governed by Section 6.11(2) and not this Section 6.11(1).

(2) Material Real Property.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6.11, the Collateral Agent may grant one or more extensions of time from any time period set forth herein for the taking of or causing any action, delivering or furnishing any notice, information, documents, insurance or opinions or for the creation and perfection of any Liens in its reasonable discretion and any such extensions may, in the sole discretion of the Collateral Agent, be effective retroactively.

Article VII

Negative Covenants

So long as the Termination Conditions are not satisfied:

SECTION 7.01 Liens. The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create, incur or assume any Lien (except any Permitted Lien(s)) that secures obligations under any Indebtedness or any related guarantee of Indebtedness on any asset or property of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary, or any income or profits therefrom.

The expansion of Liens by virtue of accretion or amortization of original issue discount, the payment of dividends in the form of Indebtedness, and increases in the amount of Indebtedness outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Liens for purposes of this Section 7.01.

SECTION 7.02 Indebtedness.

(a) The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly:

(i) create, incur, issue, assume, guarantee or otherwise become directly or indirectly liable, contingently or otherwise (collectively, “incur” and collectively, an “incurrence”) with respect to any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), or

(ii) issue any shares of Disqualified Stock or permit any Restricted Subsidiary to issue any shares of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock; provided that the Borrower may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) or issue shares of Disqualified Stock, and any Restricted Subsidiary may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), issue shares of Disqualified Stock and issue shares of Preferred Stock, in each case, if (any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred or issued pursuant to following clauses (A), (B) and (C), “Permitted Ratio Debt”):
(A) with respect to Indebtedness secured by the Collateral on a senior lien basis to the Second Lien Obligations, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 4.50 to 1.00;

(B) with respect to Indebtedness secured by the Collateral on a basis that is pari passu with or junior in priority to the Second Lien Obligations, the Secured Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 5.50 to 1.00; or

(C) with respect to Indebtedness that is not secured by the Collateral, including all Indebtedness of Restricted Subsidiaries that are not Guarantors, or any Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, the Total Net Leverage Ratio for the Test Period preceding the date on which such Indebtedness is incurred or such Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued (without netting any cash received from the incurrence of such Indebtedness proposed to be incurred) would be no greater than 5.75 to 1.00, in each case, determined on a pro forma basis (including a pro forma application of the net proceeds therefrom), as if the additional Indebtedness had been incurred, or the Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock had been issued, as the case may be, and the application of proceeds therefrom had occurred at the beginning of such Test Period;

provided further that (I) Restricted Subsidiaries of the Borrower that are not Guarantors may not incur Indebtedness or issue Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock under this Section 7.02(a) if, after giving pro forma effect to such incurrence or issuance (including a pro forma application of the net proceeds therefrom), the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness, liquidation preference of Disqualified Stock and amount of Preferred Stock of such Restricted Subsidiaries incurred or issued pursuant to this Section 7.02(a), together with any principal amounts incurred or issued by such Restricted Subsidiaries under Section 7.02(b)(14)(a) and Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of any of the foregoing (excluding any Incremental Amounts), in each case then outstanding, would exceed (as of the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued, incurred or otherwise obtained) the greater of (i) $625.0 million and (ii) 81.25% of Consolidated EBITDA of the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a pro forma basis), (II) Indebtedness incurred under clause (A) of the definition of Permitted Ratio Debt, Permitted Ratio Debt in the form of Indebtedness (x) shall not mature earlier than the Original Maturity Date and (y) shall have a Weighted Average Life to Maturity not shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Initial Loans on the date of incurrence of such Permitted Ratio Debt and (III) if any such Indebtedness in clause (A) of the definition of Permitted Ratio Debt consists of syndicated Dollar-denominated term loans secured by a Lien on the Collateral ranking pari passu with the Second Lien Obligations under this Agreement, then the Borrower shall comply with the “most favored nation” pricing provisions of Section 2.14(5)(b) (to the extent then applicable) as if such Indebtedness were Incremental Loans incurred pursuant to Section 2.14.

(b) The provisions of Section 7.02(a) will not apply to:

(1) Indebtedness under the Loan Documents (including Incremental Loans, Other Loans, Extended Loans and Replacement Loans);
(2) the incurrence by the Borrower and any Guarantor of Indebtedness pursuant to the First Lien Credit Documents or consisting of “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (or equivalent term) (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof (including any “Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness” (or equivalent term) (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement)) in an aggregate outstanding principal amount not to exceed (A) $3.055 billion plus (B) $595,901,399.16 (plus (x)(i) the amount of any “Incremental Loans” and “Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt” (or equivalent terms) (each, as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof)) permitted under Sections 2.14(4)(c) and 7.02 (or equivalent provisions) of the First Lien Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof) and (ii) any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof and (y) the amount of accrued interest, fees and premiums (including tender premium) and penalties (if any) with respect to any such Indebtedness under this clause (b)(2) refinanced, and fees, expenses, original issue discount and upfront fees incurred in connection with any such refinancing; provided that any First Lien Term Loan denominated in Euros incurred on the Closing Date shall be deemed to be incurred under (and will be subject to the limitations of) clause (B) of this Section 7.02(b)(2);

(3) the incurrence of Indebtedness by the Borrower and any Restricted Subsidiary in existence on the Closing Date (excluding Indebtedness described in the preceding clauses (1) and (2)); provided that any such item of Indebtedness with an aggregate outstanding principal amount on the Closing Date in excess of $18.75 million shall be set forth on Schedule 7.02;

(4) the incurrence of Attributable Indebtedness and Indebtedness (including Capitalized Lease Obligations and Purchase Money Obligations) and Disqualified Stock incurred or issued by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary and Preferred Stock issued by any Restricted Subsidiary, to finance the purchase, lease, expansion, construction, installation, replacement, repair or improvement of property (real or personal), equipment or other assets, including assets that are used or useful in a Similar Business, whether through the direct purchase of assets or the Capital Stock of any Person owning such assets in an aggregate principal amount, together with any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof (excluding any Incremental Amounts) and all other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred or issued and outstanding under this clause (4) at such time, not to exceed (as of the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued, incurred or otherwise obtained) the greater of (I) $287.5 million and (II) 37.5% of Consolidated EBITDA of the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a pro forma basis);

(5) Indebtedness incurred by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (a) constituting reimbursement obligations with respect to letters of credit, bank guarantees, banker’s acceptances, warehouse receipts, or similar instruments issued or entered into, or relating to obligations or liabilities incurred, in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice, including in respect of workers’ compensation claims, performance, completion or surety bonds, health, disability or other employee benefits or property, casualty or liability insurance or self-insurance, unemployment insurance or other social security legislation or other Indebtedness with respect to reimbursement-type obligations regarding workers’ compensation claims, performance, completion or surety bonds, health, disability or other employee benefits or property, casualty or liability insurance or self-insurance or (b) as an account party in respect of letters of credit, bank guarantees or similar instruments in favor of suppliers, trade creditors or other Persons issued or incurred in the ordinary course of business or consistent with industry practice;
(6) the incurrence of Indebtedness arising from agreements of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary providing for indemnification, adjustment of purchase price, earnouts, other contingent consideration obligations and other deferred purchase price or similar obligations, in each case, incurred or assumed in connection with the acquisition or disposition of any business, assets or a Subsidiary, other than guarantees of Indebtedness incurred by any Person acquiring all or any portion of such business, assets or a Subsidiary for the purpose of financing such acquisition;

(7) the incurrence of Indebtedness by the Borrower and owing to a Restricted Subsidiary or the issuance of Disqualified Stock of the Borrower to a Restricted Subsidiary (or to any Parent Company which is substantially contemporaneously transferred to any Restricted Subsidiary); provided that any such Indebtedness for borrowed money owing to a Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Loans to the extent permitted by applicable law; provided further that any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock or any other event that results in any such Restricted Subsidiary ceasing to be a Restricted Subsidiary or any other subsequent transfer of any such Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock (except to the Borrower or another Restricted Subsidiary or any pledge of such Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock constituting a Permitted Lien) will be deemed, in each case, to be an incurrence of such Indebtedness (to the extent such Indebtedness is then outstanding) or issuance of such Disqualified Stock (to the extent such Disqualified Stock is then outstanding) not permitted by this clause (7);

(c) For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 7.02:

(1) the principal amount of Indebtedness outstanding under any clause of this Section 7.02 will be determined after giving effect to the application of proceeds of any such Indebtedness to refinance any such other Indebtedness;

(2) guarantees of, or obligations in respect of letters of credit relating to, Indebtedness that are otherwise included in the determination of a particular amount of Indebtedness will not be included in the determination of such amount of Indebtedness; provided that the incurrence of the Indebtedness represented by such guarantee or letter of credit, as the case may be, was incurred in compliance with this Section 7.02.

The accrual of interest or dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount and the payment of interest or dividends in the form of additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and increases in the amount of Indebtedness outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies, in each case, will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock for purposes of this Section 7.02. Any Indebtedness incurred, or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued, to refinance Indebtedness incurred, or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued, pursuant to clauses (2), (3), (4), (12), (13), (14), (23), (30) and (31) of Section 7.02(b) will be permitted to include additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred to pay (I) any accrued and unpaid interest on the Indebtedness, any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock, and any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Disqualified Stock being so refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased and (II) the amount of any tender premium or penalty or premium required to be paid under the terms of the instrument or documents governing such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock and any defeasance costs and any fees and expenses (including original issue discount, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with the issuance of such new Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock or the extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance of such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (and with respect to Indebtedness under Designated Revolving Commitments, including an amount equal to any unutilized Designated Revolving Commitments being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased to the extent permanently terminated at the time of incurrence of such Refinancing Indebtedness).

For purposes of determining compliance with any Dollar denominated restriction on the incurrence of Indebtedness or issuance of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, the Dollar equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness or liquidation preference of Disqualified Stock or amount of Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency will be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock was incurred or issued (or, in the case of revolving credit debt, the date such Indebtedness was first committed or first incurred (whichever yields the lower Dollar equivalent)); provided that if such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued to Refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency, and such refinancing would cause the applicable Dollar denominated restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such Dollar denominated restriction will be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock does not exceed (i) the principal amount of such Indebtedness, the liquidation preference of such Disqualified Stock or the amount of such Preferred Stock (as applicable) being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased plus (ii) any accrued and unpaid interest on the Indebtedness, any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock, and any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Disqualified Stock being so refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased, plus (iii) the amount of any tender premium or penalty or premium required to be paid under the terms of the instrument or documents governing such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock and any defeasance costs and any fees and expenses (including original issue discount, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with the issuance of such new Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock or the extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance of such refinanced Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Disqualified Stock (and with respect to Indebtedness under Designated Revolving Commitments, including an amount equal to any unutilized Designated Revolving Commitments being refinanced, extended, replaced, refunded, renewed or defeased to the extent permanently terminated at the time of incurrence of such Refinancing Indebtedness); provided, further, that for the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the Dollar denominated restriction in Section 7.02(b)(2)(B), the principal amount of First Lien Term Loans incurred on the Closing Date hereof in Euros shall be calculated based on an exchange rate of 1.175347927 Dollars per Euro.

The principal amount of any Indebtedness incurred or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued to refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, if incurred or issued in a different currency from the Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as applicable, being refinanced, will be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing. The principal amount of any non-interest bearing Indebtedness or other discount security constituting Indebtedness at any date will be the principal amount thereof that would be shown on a balance sheet of the Borrower dated such date prepared in accordance with GAAP.

SECTION 7.03 Fundamental Changes. The Borrower shall not, nor shall the Borrower permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, consolidate, amalgamate or merge with or into or wind up into another Person, or liquidate or dissolve or dispose of (whether in one transaction or in a series of transactions) all or substantially all of its assets (whether now owned or hereafter acquired) to or in favor of any Person (other than as part of the Transactions), except that:

(iv) to the extent reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent shall have received at least two (2) Business Days prior to the consummation of such transaction all documentation and other information in respect of the Successor Borrower required under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the USA PATRIOT Act;
provided further that if the foregoing are satisfied, the Successor Borrower will succeed to, and be substituted for, the Borrower under this Agreement and in the case of the disposition of all or substantially all assets, the original Borrower will be released;

(b) The foregoing restriction will not apply to the following:

(1) (a) transactions between or among the Borrower and one or more Restricted Subsidiaries or between or among Restricted Subsidiaries or, in any case, any entity that becomes a Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such transaction and (b) any merger, consolidation or amalgamation of the Borrower and any Parent Company; provided that such merger, consolidation or amalgamation of the Borrower is otherwise in compliance with the terms of this Agreement;

(2) (a) Restricted Payments permitted by Section 7.05 (including any transaction specifically excluded from the definition of the term “Restricted Payments,” including pursuant to the exceptions contained in the definition thereof and the parenthetical exclusions of such definition, but excluding any Restricted Payment permitted by Section 7.05(14)(g)), (b) any Permitted Investment(s) or any acquisition otherwise permitted hereunder and (c) Indebtedness permitted by Section 7.02;

(b) the payment of indemnification and similar amounts to, and reimbursement of expenses to, the Investors and their officers, directors, employees and Affiliates, in each case, approved by, or pursuant to arrangements approved by, the Board of Directors,

(6) the existence of, or the performance by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of its obligations under the terms of, any agreement as in effect as of the Closing Date, or any amendment thereto or replacement thereof (so long as any such amendment or replacement is not materially disadvantageous in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors to the Lenders, when taken as a whole, as compared to the applicable agreement as in effect on the Closing Date);

(7) the existence of, or the performance by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of its obligations under the terms of, any equity holders agreement or the equivalent (including any registration rights agreement or purchase agreement related thereto) to which it is a party as of the Closing Date and any amendment thereto and, similar agreements or arrangements that it may enter into thereafter; provided that the existence of, or the performance by the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary of obligations under any future amendment to any such existing agreement or arrangement or under any similar agreement or arrangement entered into after the Closing Date will only be permitted by this clause (7) to the extent that the terms of any such amendment or new agreement or arrangement are not otherwise materially disadvantageous in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors to the Lenders, when taken as a whole, as compared to the original agreement or arrangement in effect on the Closing Date;

(8) ERISA. (a) An ERISA Event occurs with respect to a Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan, (b) the Borrower or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any of their respective ERISA Affiliates fails to pay when due, after the expiration of any applicable grace period, any installment payment with respect to its Withdrawal Liability under Section 4201 of ERISA under a Multiemployer Plan, or (c) with respect to a Foreign Plan, a termination, withdrawal or noncompliance with applicable Law or plan terms occurs, except, with respect to each of the foregoing clauses of this Section 8.01(8), as would not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect; or

(9) Invalidity of Loan Documents. Any material provision of the Loan Documents, taken as a whole, at any time after its execution and delivery and for any reason (other than (a) as expressly permitted by a Loan Document (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or 7.04), (b) as a result of acts or omissions by an Agent or any Lender or (c) due to the satisfaction in full of the Termination Conditions) ceases to be in full force and effect; or any Loan Party contests in writing the validity or enforceability of the Loan Documents, taken as a whole (other than as expressly permitted by a Loan Document (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or 7.04) or (ii) as a result of the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions), or purports in writing to revoke or rescind the Loan Documents, taken as a whole, prior to the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions; or
(10) Collateral Documents. Any Collateral Document with respect to a material portion of the Collateral after delivery thereof pursuant to Section 4.01, 6.11, 6.13 or pursuant to the provisions of any Collateral Document for any reason (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof including as a result of a transaction not prohibited under this Agreement) ceases to create, or any Lien purported to be created by any Collateral Document with respect to a material portion of the Collateral shall be asserted in writing by any Loan Party (prior to the satisfaction of the Termination Conditions) not to be, a valid and perfected Lien with the priority required by such Collateral Document (or other security purported to be created on the applicable Collateral) on, and security interest in, any material portion of the Collateral purported to be covered thereby, subject to Liens permitted under Section 7.01, except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the failure of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or their respective agents, designees or bailees in accordance with the terms of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement) to maintain possession of Collateral actually delivered to the Collateral Agent (or its agent, designee or bailee pursuant to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and/or any other Intercreditor Agreement) and pledged under the Collateral Documents, to file Uniform Commercial Code amendments relating to a Loan Party’s change of name or jurisdiction of formation (solely to the extent that the Borrower provides the Collateral Agent written notice thereof in accordance with the Security Agreement, and the Collateral Agent and the Borrower have agreed that the Collateral Agent will be responsible for filing such amendments) or continuation statements and except as to Collateral consisting of real property to the extent that such losses are covered by a lender’s title insurance policy and such insurer has not denied coverage; or

(11) Change of Control. There occurs any Change of Control.

SECTION 8.02 Remedies upon Event of Default. Subject to Section 8.04, if any Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Administrative Agent may with the consent of the Required Lenders and shall, at the request of the Required Lenders, take any or all of the following actions:

1. declare the Commitments of each Lender to be terminated, whereupon such Commitments will be terminated;
2. declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable under any Loan Document to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrower;
3. [reserved]; and

provided that upon the occurrence of an actual or deemed entry of an order for relief with respect to the Borrower under Title 11 of the United States Code entitled “Bankruptcy,” as now or hereafter in effect, or any successor thereto (the “Bankruptcy Code”), the Commitments of each Lender will automatically terminate and the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid will automatically become due and payable without further act of the Administrative Agent or any Lender.

SECTION 8.03 Application of Funds. After the exercise of remedies provided for in Section 8.02 (or after the Loans have automatically become immediately due and payable as set forth in clause (a) of the proviso to Section 8.02), subject to any Intercreditor Agreement then in effect, any amounts received on account of the Obligations will be applied by the Administrative Agent in the following order:
First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs payable under Section 10.04 and amounts payable under Article III) payable to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in their capacities as such;

Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs payable under Section 10.04 and amounts payable under Article III) payable to the Lenders, ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them;

Third, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting accrued and unpaid interest on the Loans ratably among the Lenders in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause Third payable to them;

Fourth, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting unpaid principal of the Loans, the Obligations under Secured Hedge Agreements and Cash Management Obligations under Secured Cash Management Agreements, ratably among the Secured Parties in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause Fourth held by them;

Fifth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Loan Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties on such date; and

Article IX

Administrative Agent and Other Agents

SECTION 9.01 Appointment and Authorization of the Administrative Agent.

(1) Each Lender hereby irrevocably appoints JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Article IX (other than Sections 9.07, 9.11, 9.12, 9.15 and 9.16) are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and the Borrower shall not have rights as a third-party beneficiary of any such provision. The Administrative Agent hereby represents and warrants that it is either (i) a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” and that it will comply with its “obligation to withhold,” each within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(ii) or (ii) a Withholding U.S. Branch.

(2) The Administrative Agent shall also act as the “collateral agent” under the Loan Documents, and each of the Lenders (including in its capacities as a Lender and a potential Hedge Bank or Cash Management Bank) hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as the agent of (and to hold any security interest created by the Collateral Documents for and on behalf of or in trust for) such Lender for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Loan Parties to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Administrative Agent, as “collateral agent” (and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 9.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Collateral Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Administrative Agent), shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article IX and Article X with respect to the Administrative Agent (including Sections 10.04 and 10.05), as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the “collateral agent” under the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto (including any Intercreditor Agreement), as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Collateral Documents and acknowledge and agree that any such action by any Agent shall bind the Lenders.

SECTION 9.02 Rights as a Lender. Any Lender that is also serving as an Agent (including as Administrative Agent) hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent and the term “Lender” or “Lenders” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include each Lender (if any) serving as an Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Any such Person serving as an Agent and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not an Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, any Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that no Agent shall be under any obligation to provide such information to them.

SECTION 9.03 Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Agent (including the Administrative Agent):

1. shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term “agent” herein and in the other Loan Documents with reference to any Agent or Arranger is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law and instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties;

2. shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that such Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents), provided that no Agent shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law; and
(3) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by any Person serving as an Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its Related Persons shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Sections 10.01 and 8.02) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower, a Lender, or an Issuing Bank.

No Agent-Related Person shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any recital, statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Collateral Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent. The duties of the Administrative Agent shall be mechanical and administrative in nature; the Administrative Agent shall not have by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Document a fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender or the holder of any Note; and nothing in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, expressed or implied, is intended to or shall be so construed as to impose upon the Administrative Agent any obligations in respect of this Agreement or any other Loan Document except as expressly set forth herein or therein.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any provision of any other Loan Document, each Arranger is named as such for recognition purposes only, and in its capacity as such shall have no powers, duties, responsibilities or liabilities with respect to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; it being understood and agreed that each Arranger shall be entitled to all indemnification and reimbursement rights in favor of the Arrangers as, and to the extent, provided for under Section 10.05. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Arranger shall not, solely by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents, have any fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender or any other Person.

SECTION 9.04 Lack of Reliance on the Administrative Agent. Independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the holder of each Note, to the extent it deems appropriate, has made and shall continue to make (i) its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of Holdings, the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries in connection with the making and the continuance of the Loans and the taking or not taking of any action in connection herewith and (ii) its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of Holdings, the Borrower and the Restricted Subsidiaries and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility, either initially or on a continuing basis, to provide any Lender or the holder of any Note with any credit or other information with respect thereto, whether coming into its possession before the making of the Loans or at any time or times thereafter. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible to any Lender or the holder of any Note for any recitals, statements, information, representations or warranties herein or in any document, certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or for the execution, effectiveness, genuineness, validity, enforceability, perfection, collectability, priority or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the financial condition of Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries or be required to make any inquiry concerning either the performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or the financial condition of Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries or the existence or possible existence of any Default or Event of Default.

SECTION 9.05 Certain Rights of the Administrative Agent. If the Administrative Agent requests instructions from the Required Lenders with respect to any act or action (including failure to act) in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to refrain from such act or taking such action unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received instructions from the Required Lenders; and the Administrative Agent shall not incur liability to any Lender by reason of so refraining. Without limiting the foregoing, neither any Lender nor the holder of any Note shall have any right of action whatsoever against the Administrative Agent as a result of the Administrative Agent acting or refraining from acting hereunder or under any other Loan Document in accordance with the instructions of the Required Lenders.

SECTION 9.06 Reliance by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, any note, writing, resolution, notice, statement, certificate, telex, teletype or facsimile message, cablegram, radiogram, order or other document or telephone message signed, sent or made by any Person that the Administrative Agent believed to be the proper Person, and, with respect to all legal matters pertaining to this Agreement and any other Loan Document and its duties hereunder and thereunder, upon advice of counsel selected by the Administrative Agent. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 9.07 Delegation of Duties. The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Loan Documents by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Agent-Related Persons. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Agent-Related Persons of the Administrative Agent and any such sub agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.07 or Section 9.15, the Administrative Agent shall not delegate to any Supplemental Administrative Agent responsibility for receiving any payments under any Loan Document for the account of any Lender, which payments shall be received directly by the Administrative Agent, without prior written consent of the Borrower (not to unreasonably withheld or delayed).
SECTION 9.08 Indemnification. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to the extent the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) is not reimbursed and indemnified by the Borrower, the Lenders will reimburse and indemnify the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) in proportion to their respective Pro Rata Shares for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of whatsoever kind or nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent or any other Agent-Related Person (solely to the extent any such Agent-Related Person was performing services on behalf of the Administrative Agent) in performing its duties hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent’s or any other Agent-Related Person’s gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision). In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any Indemnified Liabilities, this Section 9.08 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person.

Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse the Administrative Agent upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out-of-pocket expenses (including Attorney Costs) incurred by the Administrative Agent in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Loan Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that the Administrative Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower, provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower’s continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto, provided further that the failure of any Lender to indemnify or reimburse the Administrative Agent shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation in respect thereof. The undertaking in this Section 9.08 shall survive the payment of all Obligations and the resignation of the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.09 The Administrative Agent in Its Individual Capacity. With respect to its obligation to make Loans under this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have the rights and powers specified herein for a “Lender” and may exercise the same rights and powers as though it were not performing the duties specified herein; and the term “Lender,” “Required Lenders” or any similar terms shall, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, include the Administrative Agent in its respective individual capacities. The Administrative Agent and its affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of banking, investment banking, trust or other business with, or provide debt financing, equity capital or other services (including financial advisory services) to any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party (or any Person engaged in a similar business with any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof) as if they were not performing the duties specified herein, and may accept fees and other consideration from any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party for services in connection with this Agreement and otherwise without having to account for the same to the Lenders. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, any Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that no Agent shall be under any obligation to provide such information to them.

SECTION 9.10 [Reserved].

SECTION 9.11 Resignation by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may resign from the performance of all its respective functions and duties hereunder or under the other Loan Documents at any time by giving 30 Business Days prior written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower. If the Administrative Agent becomes subject to a Lender-Related Distress Event, then the Administrative Agent may be removed as the Administrative Agent at the reasonable request of the Required Lenders. If the Administrative Agent becomes subject to an Agent-Related Distress Event, then the Borrower may remove the Administrative Agent from such role upon 15 days’ prior written notice to the Lenders. Such resignation or removal shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Administrative Agent as provided below.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no successor Administrative Agent shall be appointed unless such successor Administrative Agent represents and warrants that it is (i) a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” and that it will comply with its “obligation to withhold,” each within the meaning of U.S. Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1, or (ii) a Withholding U.S. Branch.

Upon any such notice of resignation by, or notice of removal of, the Administrative Agent, the Required Lenders shall appoint a successor Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder who shall be a commercial bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Borrower, which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed (provided that the Borrower’s approval shall not be required if an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing).

If a successor Administrative Agent shall not have been so appointed within such 30 Business Day period, the Administrative Agent, with the consent of the Borrower (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided that the Borrower’s consent shall not be required if an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing), shall then appoint a successor Administrative Agent who shall serve as Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided above.

If no successor Administrative Agent has been appointed pursuant to the foregoing by the 35th Business Day after the date such notice of resignation was given by the Administrative Agent or such notice of removal was given by the Required Lenders or the Borrower, as applicable, the Administrative Agent’s resignation shall nonetheless become effective and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided above. The retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed) and except for any indemnity payments or other amounts then owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent, all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this Section 9.11.

Upon the acceptance of a successor’s appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder and upon the execution and filing or recording of such financing statements, or amendments thereto, and such amendments or supplements to the Mortgages, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as the Required Lenders may request, in order to (i) continue the perfection of the Liens granted or purported to be granted by the Collateral Documents or (ii) otherwise ensure that the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement is satisfied, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section 9.11).
The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Administrative Agent’s resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article and Sections 10.04 and 10.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Agent-Related Persons in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

Upon a resignation or removal of the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 9.11, the Administrative Agent (i) shall continue to be subject to Section 10.09 and (ii) shall remain indemnified to the extent provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the provisions of this Article IX (and the analogous provisions of the other Loan Documents) shall continue in effect for the benefit of the Administrative Agent for all of its actions and inactions while serving as the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.12 Collateral Matters. Each Lender (including in its capacities as a potential Cash Management Bank and a potential Hedge Bank) irrevocably authorizes and directs the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to take the actions to be taken by them as set forth in Sections 7.04 and 10.24.

Each Lender hereby agrees, and each holder of any Note by the acceptance thereof will be deemed to agree, that, except as otherwise set forth herein, any action taken by the Required Lenders or the Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the Collateral Documents, and the exercise by the Required Lenders or the Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, of the powers set forth herein or therein, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, shall be authorized and binding upon all of the Lenders. The Collateral Agent is hereby authorized on behalf of all of the Lenders, without the necessity of any notice to or further consent from any Lender, from time to time, to take any action with respect to any Collateral or Collateral Documents which may be necessary to perfect and maintain perfected the security interest in and liens upon the Collateral granted pursuant to the Collateral Documents.

Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent’s authority to release particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 9.12. In each case as specified in this Section 9.12, Section 7.04 and Section 10.24, the applicable Agent will (and each Lender irrevocably authorizes the applicable Agent to), at the Borrower’s expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release or subordination of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Collateral Documents, or to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents, this Section 9.12, Section 7.04 and Section 10.24.

The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Lenders or to any other Person to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by any Loan Party or is cared for, protected or insured or that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent herein or pursuant hereto have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to exercise or to continue exercising at all or in any manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Collateral Agent in this Section 9.12, Section 7.04, Section 10.24 or in any of the Collateral Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its sole discretion, given the Collateral Agent’s own interest in the Collateral as one of the Lenders and that the Collateral Agent shall have no duty or liability whatsoever to the Lenders, except for its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

SECTION 9.13 [Reserved].

SECTION 9.14 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, any Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Agents and their respective agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or Issuing Bank in any such proceeding.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar Laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Loan Party is subject, (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable Law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest 193 upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consume such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (a) through (i) of the first proviso to Section 10.01(1) of this Agreement), (iii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to assign the relevant Obligations to any such acquisition vehicle pro rata by the Lenders, as a result of which each of the Lenders shall be deemed to have received a pro rata portion of any Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by such an acquisition vehicle on account of the assignment of the Obligations to be credit bid, all without the need for any Secured Party or acquisition vehicle to take any further action, and (iv) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

SECTION 9.15 Appointment of Supplemental Administrative Agents.

(1) It is the purpose of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that there shall be no violation of any Law of any jurisdiction denying or restricting the right of banking corporations or associations to transact business as agent or trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, and in particular in case of the enforcement of any of the Loan Documents, or in case the Administrative Agent deems that by reason of any present or future Law of any jurisdiction it may not exercise any of the rights, powers or remedies granted herein or in any of the other Loan Documents or take any other action which may be desirable or necessary in connection therewith, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized to appoint an additional individual or institution selected by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion as a separate trustee, co-trustee, administrative agent, collateral agent, administrative sub-agent or administrative co-agent (any such additional individual or institution being referred to herein individually as a “Supplemental Administrative Agent” and collectively as “Supplemental Administrative Agents”).

(2) In the event that the Administrative Agent appoints a Supplemental Administrative Agent with respect to any Collateral, (i) each and every right, power, privilege or duty expressed or intended by this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Administrative Agent with respect to such Collateral shall be exercisable by and vest in such Supplemental Administrative Agent to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to enable such Supplemental Administrative Agent to exercise such rights, powers and privileges with respect to such Collateral and to perform such duties with respect to such Collateral, and every covenant and obligation contained in the Loan Documents and necessary to the exercise or performance thereof by such Supplemental Administrative Agent shall run to and be enforceable by either the Administrative Agent or such Supplemental Administrative Agent, and (ii) the provisions of this Article IX and of Sections 10.04 and 10.05 that refer to the Administrative Agent shall inure to the benefit of such Supplemental Administrative Agent and all references therein to the Administrative Agent shall be deemed to be references to the Administrative Agent or such Supplemental Administrative Agent, as the context may require.

(3) Should any instrument in writing from any Loan Party be reasonably required by any Supplemental Administrative Agent so appointed by the Administrative Agent for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to him or it such rights, powers, privileges and duties, the Borrower shall, or shall cause such Loan Party to, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all such instruments reasonably acceptable to it promptly upon request by the Administrative Agent. In case any Supplemental Administrative Agent, or a successor thereto, shall die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of such Supplemental Administrative Agent, to the extent permitted by Law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Administrative Agent until the appointment of a new Supplemental Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.16 Intercreditor Agreements. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent are hereby authorized to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement to the extent contemplated by the terms hereof, and the parties hereto acknowledge that such Intercreditor Agreement is binding upon them. Each Secured Party (a) hereby agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, (b) hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to enter into the Intercreditor Agreements and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations to the provisions thereof and (c) without any further consent of the Lenders, hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to negotiate, execute and deliver on behalf of the Secured Parties any intercreditor agreement or any amendment (or amendment and restatement) to the Collateral Documents or any Intercreditor Agreement contemplated hereunder (including any such amendment (or amendment and restatement) of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement to provide for the incurrence of any Indebtedness permitted hereunder that will be secured (x) on a senior lien, junior lien or pari passu basis to the Obligations and/or (y) on a junior lien or pari passu basis to any Indebtedness pursuant to the First Lien Credit Documents). In addition, each Secured Party hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to enter into (i) any amendments to any Intercreditor Agreements, and (ii) any other intercreditor arrangements, in the case of clauses (i) and (ii) to the extent required to give effect to the establishment of intercreditor rights and privileges as contemplated and required or permitted by this Agreement (including any such amendment (or amendment and restatement) of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement to provide for the incurrence of any Indebtedness permitted hereunder that will be secured (x) on a senior lien, junior lien or pari passu basis to the Obligations and/or (y) on a junior lien or pari passu basis to any Indebtedness pursuant to the First Lien Credit Documents). Each Secured Party acknowledges and agrees that any of the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent (or one or more of their respective Affiliates) may (but are not obligated to) act as the “Debt Representative” or like term for the holders of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness under the security agreements with respect thereto or any Intercreditor Agreement then in effect. Each Lender waives any conflict of interest, now contemplated or arising hereafter, in connection therewith and agrees not to assert against any Agent or any of its affiliates any claims, causes of action, damages or liabilities of whatever kind or nature relating thereto.

SECTION 9.17 Secured Cash Management Agreements and Secured Hedge Agreements. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein or in any Guaranty or any Collateral Document, no Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank that obtains the benefits of Section 8.03, any Guaranty or any Collateral by virtue of the provisions hereof or of any Guaranty or any Collateral Document shall have any right to notice of any action or to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender and, in such case, only to the extent expressly provided in the Loan Documents. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article IX to the contrary, the Administrative Agent shall not be required to verify the payment of, or that other satisfactory arrangements have been made with respect to, Obligations arising under Secured Cash Management Agreements and Secured Hedge Agreements unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice of such Obligations, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may request, from the applicable Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank, as the case may be.

SECTION 9.18 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by any applicable Laws, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting or expanding the provisions of Section 3.01, each Lender shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent against, and shall make payable in respect thereof within ten (10) days after demand therefor, any and all Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Administrative Agent to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of such Lender for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective). A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 9.18. The agreements in this Section 9.18 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

Article X

Miscellaneous

SECTION 10.01 Amendments, etc.

(1) Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the Required Lenders (other than (x) with respect to any amendment or waiver contemplated in clause (i) below (to the extent permitted by Section 2.14), which shall only require the consent of the Required Facility Lenders under the applicable Facility or Facilities, as applicable (and not the Required Lenders) and (y) with respect to any amendment or waiver contemplated in clauses (a), (b) or (c), which shall only require the consent of the Lenders expressly set forth therein and not the Required Lenders) or (or by the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders) and the Borrower or the applicable Loan Party, as the case may be, and acknowledged by the Administrative Agent, and the Administrative Agent hereby agrees to acknowledge any such waiver, consent or amendment that otherwise satisfies the requirements of this Section 10.01 as promptly as possible, however, to the extent the final form of such waiver, consent or amendment has been delivered to the Administrative Agent at least one Business Day prior to the proposed effectiveness of the consents by the Lenders party thereto, the Administrative Agent shall acknowledge such waiver, consent or amendment (i) immediately, in the case of any amendment which does not require the consent of any existing Lender under this Agreement or (ii) otherwise, within two hours of the time copies of the Required Lender consents or other applicable Lender consents required by this Section 10.01 have been provided to the Administrative Agent; and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided that no such amendment, waiver or consent shall:
(a) extend or increase the Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of such Lender (it being understood that a waiver of any condition precedent set forth in Section 4.01 or the waiver of any Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of the Commitments shall not constitute an extension or increase of any Commitment of any Lender);

(b) postpone any date scheduled for, or reduce the amount of, any payment of principal or interest under Section 2.07 or 2.08 (other than pursuant to Section 2.08(2)) or any payment of fees or premiums hereunder or under any Loan Document with respect to payments to any Lender without the written consent of such Lender, it being understood that none of the following will constitute a postponement of any date scheduled for, or a reduction in the amount of, any payment of principal, interest, fees or premiums: (i) the waiver of (or amendment to the terms of) any mandatory prepayment of the Loans, (ii) the waiver of any Default or Event of Default, and (iii) any change to the definition of “First Lien Net Leverage Ratio,” “Secured Net Leverage Ratio,” “Total Net Leverage Ratio,” “Interest Coverage Ratio” or, in each case, in the component definitions thereof;

(c) reduce the principal of, or the rate of interest specified herein on, any Loan or any fees or other amounts payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to any Lender without the written consent of such Lender, it being understood that none of the following will constitute a reduction in any rate of interest or any fees: any change to the definition of “First Lien Net Leverage Ratio,” “Secured Net Leverage Ratio,” “Total Net Leverage Ratio,” “Interest Coverage Ratio,” or, in each case, in the component definitions thereof; provided that only the consent of (A) the Required Lenders shall be necessary to amend the definition of “Default Rate” and (B) the Required Lenders shall be necessary to waive any obligation of the Borrower to pay interest at the Default Rate;

(d) except as contemplated by clause (C) in the second proviso immediately succeeding clause (i) of this Section 10.01(1), change any provision of this Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders” or “Required Facility Lenders,” “Pro Rata Share” or any other provision specifying the number of Lenders or portion of the Loans or Commitments required to take any action under the Loan Documents or Section 2.13 or 8.03, without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(e) other than in a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or Section 7.04, release all or substantially all of the aggregate value of the Collateral in any transaction or series of related transactions, without the written consent of each Lender;

(f) other than in a transaction permitted under Section 7.03 or Section 7.04, release all or substantially all of the aggregate value of the Guaranty, without the written consent of each Lender;

(g) [reserved];

(h) [reserved];

(i) amend, waive or otherwise modify any term or provision (including the availability and conditions to funding (subject to the requirements of Section 2.14) with respect to Incremental Loans, but excluding the rate of interest applicable thereto which shall be subject to clause (c) above) which directly affects Lenders of one or more Incremental Loans and does not directly affect Lenders under any other Facility, in each case, without the written consent of the Required Facility Lenders under such applicable Incremental Loans (and in the case of multiple Facilities which are affected, such Required Facility Lenders shall consent together as one Facility); provided, however, that, to the extent permitted under Section 2.14, no amendments or waivers described in this clause (i) shall require the consent of the Required Lenders or any other Lenders and shall only require the consent of the Required Facility Lenders under such applicable Incremental Loans, including to the extent such amendment or waiver includes provisions that benefit the Lenders under any other Facility and are not adverse to such other Lenders;

provided that:

(I) [reserved];

(II) [reserved]

(III) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of, or any fees or other amounts payable to, the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; and provided further that notwithstanding the foregoing:

(A) [reserved];

(B) no Lender consent is required to effect any amendment or supplement to any Intercreditor Agreement (i) that is for the purpose of adding the holders of Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or any other Permitted Indebtedness that is Secured Indebtedness (or a Debt Representative with respect thereto) as parties thereto, as expressly contemplated by the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable (it being understood that any such amendment, modification or supplement may make such other changes to the applicable Intercreditor Agreement as, in the good faith determination of the Administrative Agent, are required to effectuate the foregoing and provided that such other changes are not adverse, in any material respect, to the interests of the Lenders) or (ii) that is expressly contemplated by any Intercreditor Agreement in connection with joinders and supplements; provided further that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable;

(C) this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower (i) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Loans and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (ii) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders;
(D) any waiver, amendment or modification of this Agreement that by its terms affects the rights or duties under this Agreement of Lenders holding Loans or Commitments of a particular Class (but not the Lenders holding Loans or Commitments of any other Class) may be effected by an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrower and the requisite percentage in interest of the affected Class of Lenders that would be required to consent thereto under this Section 10.01 if such Class of Lenders were the only Class of Lenders hereunder at the time;

(E) any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document may be amended by an agreement in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (or the Collateral Agent, as applicable) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency (including amendments, supplements or waivers to any of the Collateral Documents, guarantees, intercreditor agreements or related documents executed by any Loan Party or any other Subsidiary in connection with this Agreement if such amendment, supplement or waiver is delivered in order to cause such Collateral Documents, guarantees, intercreditor agreements or related documents to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents) so long as, in each case, the Lenders shall have received at least five (5) Business Days’ prior written notice thereof and the Administrative Agent shall not have received, within five (5) Business Days of the date of such notice to the Lenders, a written notice from the Required Lenders stating that the Required Lenders object to such amendment; provided that the consent of the Lenders or the Required Lenders, as the case may be, shall not be required to make any such changes necessary to be made in connection with any borrowing of Incremental Loans, any borrowing of Other Loans, any Extension or any borrowing of Replacement Loans and otherwise to effect the provisions of Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 or the immediately succeeding paragraph of this Section 10.01, respectively; and

(F) the Borrower and the Administrative Agent may, without the input or consent of the other Lenders, (i) effect changes to any Mortgage as may be necessary or appropriate in the opinion of the Collateral Agent and (ii) effect changes to this Agreement that are necessary and appropriate to effect the offering process set forth in Section 2.05(1)(e).

(2) In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 10.01, this Agreement may be amended with the written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and the Lenders providing the Replacement Loans (as defined below) to permit the refinancing of all outstanding Loans of any Class ("Replaced Loans") with replacement term loans ("Replacement Loans") hereunder; provided that

(a) the aggregate principal amount of such Replacement Loans shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of such Replaced Loans, plus accrued interest, fees, premiums (if any) and penalties thereon and reasonable fees and expenses incurred in connection with such refinancing of Replacement Loans, and

(b) the All-In Yield with respect to such Replacement Loans (or similar interest rate spread applicable to such Replacement Loans) shall not be higher than the All-In Yield for such Replaced Loans (or similar interest rate spread applicable to such Replacement Loans) immediately prior to such refinancing.
(c) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Replacement Loans shall not be shorter than the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Replaced Loans at the time of such refinancing, and

(d) all other terms (other than with respect to pricing, interest rate margins, fees, discounts, rate floors and prepayment or redemption terms) applicable to such Replacement Loans shall either, at the option of the Borrower, (i) reflect market terms and conditions (taken as a whole) at the time of incurrence of such Replacement Loans (as determined by the Borrower in good faith) or (ii) if not otherwise consistent with the terms of such Replaced Loans, not be materially more restrictive to the Borrower (as determined by the Borrower in good faith), when taken as a whole, than the terms of such Replaced Loans, except with respect to covenants and other terms applicable to any period after the Latest Maturity Date of the Loans in effect immediately prior to such refinancing.

Each amendment to this Agreement providing for Replacement Loans may, without the consent of any other Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower to effect the provisions of this paragraph, and for the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall supersede any other provisions in this Section 10.01 to the contrary.

(3) In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.01,

(a) the Guaranty, the Collateral Documents and related documents executed by Loan Parties in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be in a form reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and may be, together with this Agreement, amended and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent at the request of the Borrower without the need to obtain the consent of any other Lender if such amendment or waiver is delivered in order (i) to comply with local Law or advice of local counsel, (ii) to cure ambiguities or defects or (iii) to cause the Guaranty, Collateral Documents or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including by adding additional parties as contemplated herein or therein) and

(b) if the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall have jointly identified an obvious error, mistake, ambiguity, incorrect cross-reference or any error or omission of a technical or immaterial nature, in each case, in any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any exhibit, schedule or other attachment to any Loan Document), then the Administrative Agent (acting in its sole discretion) and the Borrower or any other relevant Loan Party shall be permitted to amend such provision and such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Loan Document. Notification of such amendment shall be made by the Administrative Agent to the Lenders promptly upon such amendment becoming effective.

SECTION 10.02 Notices and Other Communications; Facsimile Copies.

(1) General. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in subsection (2) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(a) if to Holdings, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 10.02, and
(b) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire.

Notices and other communications sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices and other communications sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next succeeding Business Day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in subsection (2) below shall be effective as provided in such subsection (2).

(2) Electronic Communication. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article II if such Lender, as applicable, has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

(3) Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender’s receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the “return receipt requested” function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), provided that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next succeeding Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(4) The Platform. THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE.” THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMissions FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. IN no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Agent-Related Persons or any Arranger (collectively, the “Agent Parties”) have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, any Lender, or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower’s or the Administrative Agent’s transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Agent Party; provided, however, that in no event shall any Agent Party have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages).
(5) Change of Address. Each Loan Party and the Administrative Agent may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the other parties hereto. Each other Lender may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender. Furthermore, each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the “Private-Side Information” or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender’s compliance procedures and applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities laws, to make reference to Borrower Materials that are not made available through the “Public Side Information” portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or its securities for purposes of United States Federal or state securities laws.

(6) Reliance by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices (including telephonic Committed Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Agent-Related Persons of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower. All telephonic notices to and other telephonic communications with the Administrative Agent may be recorded by the Administrative Agent, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.

SECTION 10.03 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure by any Lender or the Administrative Agent to exercise, and no delay by any such Person in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided, and provided under each other Loan Document, are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by Law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 8.02 for the benefit of the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 10.10 (subject to the terms of Section 2.13), or (c) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided further that if at any time there is no Person acting as Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 8.02 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.13, any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders.
SECTION 10.04 Costs and Expenses. The Borrower agrees (a) if the Closing Date occurs and to the extent not paid or reimbursed on or prior to the Closing Date, to pay or reimburse the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Administrative Agent and such Arrangers incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, syndication, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all Attorney Costs of a single U.S. counsel and, if necessary, a single local counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction, and (b) upon presentation of a summary statement, together with any supporting documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower, to pay or reimburse the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders, taken as a whole, promptly following a written demand therefor for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of any rights or remedies under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents (including all such costs and expenses incurred during any legal proceeding, including any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, and including all Attorney Costs of one counsel to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders taken as a whole (and, if necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction and solely in the case of a conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction to each group of affected Lenders similarly situated taken as a whole)). The agreements in this Section 10.04 shall survive the termination of the Aggregate Commitments and repayment of all other Obligations. All amounts due under this Section 10.04 shall be paid within thirty (30) Business Days following receipt by the Borrower of an invoice relating thereto setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail. If any Loan Party fails to pay when due any costs, expenses or other amounts payable by it hereunder or under any Loan Document, such amount may be paid on behalf of such Loan Party by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion.

SECTION 10.05 Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify and hold harmless the Agents, each other Lender, the Arrangers and their respective Related Persons (collectively, the “Indemnitees”) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses (including Attorney Costs and Environmental Liabilities) to which any such Indemnitee may become subject arising out of, resulting from or in connection with (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of one counsel to all Indemnitees taken as a whole and, if reasonably necessary, a single local counsel for all Indemnitees taken as a whole in each relevant material jurisdiction, and solely in the case of a conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each relevant material jurisdiction to each group of affected Indemnitees similarly situated taken as a whole) any actual or threatened claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to the Transactions or to the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance and administration of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents, the Loans or the use, or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory (including any investigation of, preparation for, or defense of any pending or threatened claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding), and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto (all the foregoing, collectively, the “Indemnified Liabilities”); provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses resulted from (x) the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Persons as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, (y) a material breach of any obligations under any Loan Document by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Persons as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees other than any claims against an Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an administrative agent or arranger or any similar role under any Loan Document and other than any claims arising out of any act or omission of Holdings or any of its Affiliates (as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction). To the extent that the undertakings to indemnify and hold harmless set forth in this Section 10.05 may be unenforceable in whole or in part because they are violative of any applicable Law or public policy, the Borrower shall contribute the maximum portion that they are permitted to pay and satisfy under applicable Law to the payment and satisfaction of all Indemnified Liabilities incurred by the Indemnites or any of them. No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by others of any information or other materials obtained through IntraLinks or other similar information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement (except to the extent such damages are found in a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of such Indemnitee), nor shall any Indemnitee or any Loan Party have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or arising out of its activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date) (other than, in the case of any Loan Party, in respect of any such damages incurred or paid by an Indemnitee to a third party for which such Indemnitee is otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 10.05). In the case of an investigation, litigation or other proceeding to which the indemnity in this Section 10.05 applies, such indemnity shall be effective whether or not such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Loan Party, its directors, stockholders or creditors or an Indemnitee or any other Person, whether or not any Indemnitee is otherwise a party thereto and whether or not any of the transactions contemplated hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents is consummated. All amounts due under this Section 10.05 shall be paid within thirty (30) Business Days after written demand therefor. The agreements in this Section 10.05 shall survive the resignation of the Administrative Agent, the replacement of any Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the Obligations. This Section 10.05 shall not apply to Taxes, except any Taxes that represent losses or damages arising from any non-Tax claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnitee shall be obligated to refund and return promptly any and all amounts paid by any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates under this Section 10.05 to such Indemnitee for any such fees, expenses or damages to the extent such Indemnitee is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof.

SECTION 10.06 Marshaling; Payments Set Aside. None of the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of the Loan Parties or any other party or against or in payment of any or all of the Obligations. To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Borrower is made to any Agent or any Lender, or any Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the Overnight Rate from time to time in effect.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and registered assigns permitted hereby, except that neither Holdings nor the Borrower may, except as permitted by Section 7.03, assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent.
and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder (including to existing Lenders and their Affiliates) except (i) to an assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(b) (such an assignee, an “Eligible Assignee”) and (A) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that, immediately prior to or upon giving effect to such assignment, is an Affiliated Lender, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(h), (B) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that is Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(l), or (C) in the case of any Eligible Assignee that, immediately prior to or upon giving effect to such assignment, is a Debt Fund Affiliate, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(k), (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(d), (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest subject to the restrictions of Section 10.07(f), or (iv) to an SPC in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07(g) (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void) (or in the case of any such attempted assignment or transfer to a Disqualified Institution shall be subject to the provisions set forth in the fourth sentence of the definition of “Lender”). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants to the extent provided in Section 10.07(d) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, Related Persons of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Amounts.

   (A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender’s Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it or in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, no minimum amount need be assigned; and

   (B) in any case not described in subsection (b)(i)(A) of this Section 10.07, the aggregate amount of the Commitment or, the principal outstanding balance of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if “Trade Date” is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $500,000 unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower otherwise consents (each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that concurrent assignments to members of an Assignee Group and concurrent assignments from members of an Assignee Group to a single Eligible Assignee (or to an Eligible Assignee and members of its Assignee Group) will be treated as a single assignment for purposes of determining whether such minimum amount has been met.

(ii) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned (it being understood that assignments under separate Facilities shall not be required to be made on a pro rata basis).
(iii) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by Section 10.07(b)(i)(B) and, in addition:

(A) the consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required unless (1) an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1) or, solely with respect to the Borrower, Section 8.01(6) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if “Trade Date” is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date, or (2) such assignment is to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; provided that (x) consent for any affiliate of a Disqualified Institution that is not a Disqualified Institution may be withheld, (y) the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to any assignment of all or a portion of the Loans unless it shall have objected thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice of a failure to respond to such request for assignment and (z) no consent of the Borrower shall be required for an assignment of all or a portion of the Loans pursuant to Section 10.07(h), (k) or (l); and

(B) the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of all or a portion of the Loans pursuant to Section 10.07 (h), (k) or (l).

(iv) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent). Other than in the case of assignments pursuant to Section 10.07(l), the Eligible Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and all applicable tax forms.

(v) No Assignments to Certain Persons. No such assignment shall be made (A) to Holdings, the Borrower or any of the Borrower’s Subsidiaries except as permitted under Sections 2.05(1)(e) and 10.07(l), (B) subject to Sections 10.07(h), (k) and (l) below, to any Affiliate of the Borrower, (C) to a natural person or (D) to any Disqualified Institution.

Subject to acceptance and recording thereof by the Administrative Agent pursuant to clause (c) of this Section 10.07 (and, in the case of an Affiliated Lender or a Person that, after giving effect to such assignment, would become an Affiliated Lender, to the requirements of clause (h) of this Section 10.07), from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption, other than in connection with an assignment pursuant to Section 10.07(l), (x) the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and (y) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01, 3.04, 3.05, 10.04 and 10.05 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment), but shall in any event continue to be subject to Section 10.09. Upon request, and the surrender by the assigning Lender of its Note, the Borrower (at its expense) shall execute and deliver a Note to the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this subsection shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.07(d).

(c) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent’s Office a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it, each Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption delivered to it, each notice of cancellation of any Loans delivered by the Borrower pursuant to subsections (h) or (l) below, and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of the Loans owing to each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Agents and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, any Agent and, with respect to its own Loans, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. This Section 10.07(c) and Section 2.11 shall be construed so that all Loans are at all times maintained in “registered form” within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related Treasury regulations (or any other relevant or successor provisions of the Code or of such Treasury regulations). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Administrative Agent be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender is an Affiliated Lender, nor shall the Administrative Agent be obligated to monitor the aggregate amount of the Loans or Incremental Loans held by Affiliated Lenders.

(d) Any Lender may at any time, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to any Person (other than a natural person, the Borrower and its Affiliates or a Disqualified Institution) (each, a “Participant”) in all or a portion of such Lender’s rights or obligations under this Agreement owing to it; provided that (i) such Lender’s obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) the Borrower, the Agents and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, waiver or other modification described in the first proviso to Section 10.01(1) (other than clause (i) thereof) that directly and adversely affects such Participant. Subject to subsection (e) of this Section 10.07, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01 (subject to the requirements of Section 3.01 (including subsections (2), (3) and (4), as applicable) as though it were a Lender; provided that any forms required to be provided under Section 3.01(3) shall be provided solely to the participating Lender), 3.04 and 3.05 (through the applicable Lender) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section 10.07. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 10.10 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant shall agree to be subject to Section 2.13 as though it were a Lender.

(e) Limitations upon Participant Rights. A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01, 3.04 or 3.05 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Borrower’s prior written consent. Each Lender that sells a participation shall (acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower) maintain a register complying with the requirements of Sections 163(f), 871(h) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and the Treasury regulations thereunder on which is entered the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of each Participant’s interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the “Participant Register”). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender and the Borrower shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary; provided that no Lender shall have the obligation to disclose all or a portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of the Participant or any information relating to a Participant’s interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to establish that any such commitments, loans, letters of credit or other obligations are in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes or such disclosure is otherwise required under Treasury Regulations Section 5f.103-1(c).

(f) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or any other central bank; provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower (an “SPC”) the option to provide all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to fund any Loan, (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to make all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof and (iii) such SPC and the applicable Loan or any applicable part thereof shall be appropriately reflected in the Participant Register. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (i) neither the grant to any SPC nor the exercise by any SPC of such option shall increase the costs or expenses or otherwise increase or change the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement (including its obligations under Section 3.01, 3.04 or 3.05), (ii) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement for which a Lender would be liable, and (iii) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes, including the approval of any amendment, waiver or other modification of any provision of any Loan Document, remain the Lender hereunder. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any SPC may (i) with notice to, but without prior consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and with the payment of a processing fee of $3,500 (which processing fee may be waived by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion), assign all or any portion of its right to receive payment with respect to any Loan to the Granting Lender and (ii) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its funding of Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety or Guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC.

(h) Any Lender may at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement to a Person who is or will become, after such assignment, an Affiliated Lender through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase or take by assignment open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures determined by such Affiliated Lender in its sole discretion or (y) open market purchase on a non-pro rata basis, in each case subject to the following limitations:
(i) Affiliated Lenders will not (A) receive information provided solely to Lenders by the Administrative Agent or any Lender and will not be permitted to attend or participate in conference calls or meetings attended solely by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, other than the right to receive notices of prepayments and other administrative notices in respect of its Loans or Commitments required to be delivered to Lenders pursuant to Article II or (B) make any challenge to the Administrative Agent’s or any other Lender’s attorney-client privilege on the basis of its status as a Lender;

(ii) [reserved];

(iii) each Lender (other than any other Affiliated Lender) that assigns any Loans to an Affiliated Lender pursuant to clause (y) above shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower a customary Big Boy Letter;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of Loans of any Class under this Agreement held by Affiliated Lenders at the time of any such purchase or assignment shall not exceed 25% of the aggregate principal amount of Loans of such Class outstanding at such time under this Agreement (such percentage, the “Affiliated Lender Cap”); provided that to the extent any assignment to an Affiliated Lender would result in the aggregate principal amount of all Loans of any Class held by Affiliated Lenders exceeding the Affiliated Lender Cap, the assignment of such excess amount will be void ab initio;

(v) as a condition to each assignment pursuant to this subsection (h), the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall have been provided a notice in connection with each assignment to an Affiliated Lender or a Person that upon effectiveness of such assignment would constitute an Affiliated Lender pursuant to which such Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as such) shall waive any right to bring any action in connection with such Loans against the Administrative Agent, in its capacity as such; and

(vi) the assigning Lender and the Affiliated Lender purchasing such Lender’s Loans shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an assignment agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit D-2 hereto (an “Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption”).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Affiliated Lender that has purchased Loans pursuant to this subsection (h) may, in its sole discretion, contribute, directly or indirectly, the principal amount of such Loans or any portion thereof, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, to the Borrower for the purpose of cancelling and extinguishing such Loans. Upon the date of such contribution, assignment or transfer, (x) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Loans shall reflect such cancellation and extinguishing of the Loans then held by the Borrower and (y) the Borrower shall promptly provide notice to the Administrative Agent of such contribution of such Loans, and the Administrative Agent, upon receipt of such notice, shall reflect the cancellation of the applicable Loans in the Register.

Each Affiliated Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days) if it acquires any Person who is also a Lender, and each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days) if it becomes an Affiliated Lender. The Administrative Agent may conclusively rely upon any notice delivered pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence or pursuant to clause (v) of this subsection (h) and shall not have any liability for any losses suffered by any Person as a result of any purported assignment to or from an Affiliated Lender.
(i) Notwithstanding anything in Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders,” or “Required Facility Lenders” to the contrary, for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders and Required Facility Lenders (in respect of a Class of Loans) have (i) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action with respect to any of the terms of any Loan Document or any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, or subject to Section 10.07(j), any plan of reorganization pursuant to the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, (ii) otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document, or (iii) directed or required the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to or under any Loan Document, no Affiliated Lender shall have any right to consent (or not consent), otherwise act or direct or require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to take (or refrain from taking) any such action and, except with respect to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action (x) in Section 10.01 requiring the consent of all Lenders, all Lenders directly and adversely affected or specifically such Lender, (y) that alters an Affiliated Lender’s pro rata share of any payments given to all Lenders, or (z) affects the Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as a Lender) in a manner that is disproportionate to the effect on any Lender in the same Class, the Loans held by an Affiliated Lender shall be disregarded in both the numerator and denominator in the calculation of any Lender vote (and shall be deemed to have been voted in the same percentage as all other applicable Lenders voted if necessary to give legal effect to this paragraph) (but, in any event, in connection with any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action, shall be entitled to any consent fee, calculated as if all of such Affiliated Lender’s Loans had voted in favor of any matter for which a consent fee or similar payment is offered).

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the other Loan Documents to the contrary, each Affiliated Lender hereby agrees that, and each Affiliated Lender Assignment and Assumption shall provide a confirmation that, if a proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law shall be commenced by or against the Borrower or any other Loan Party at a time when such Lender is an Affiliated Lender, such Affiliated Lender irrevocably authorizes and empowers the Administrative Agent to vote on behalf of such Affiliated Lender with respect to the Loans held by such Affiliated Lender in any manner in the Administrative Agent’s sole discretion, unless the Administrative Agent instructs such Affiliated Lender to vote, in which case such Affiliated Lender shall vote with respect to the Loans held by it as the Administrative Agent directs; provided that such Affiliated Lender shall be entitled to vote in accordance with its sole discretion (and not in accordance with the direction of the Administrative Agent) in connection with any plan of reorganization to the extent any such plan of reorganization proposes to treat any Obligations held by such Affiliated Lender in a disproportionately adverse manner than the proposed treatment of similar Obligations held by Lenders that are not Affiliated Lenders.

(k) Although any Debt Fund Affiliate(s) shall be Eligible Assignees and shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 10.07(h), (i) or (j), any Lender may, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement to a Person who is or will become, after such assignment, a Debt Fund Affiliate only through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase or take by assignment open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures of the type described in Section 2.05(1)(e) (for the avoidance of doubt, without requiring any representation as to the possession of material non-public information by such Affiliate) or (y) open market purchase on a non-pro rata basis. Notwithstanding anything in Section 10.01 or the definition of “Required Lenders” to the contrary, for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders have (i) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action with respect to any of the terms of any Loan Document or any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, (ii) otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document or (iii) directed or required the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to or under any Loan Document, all Loans held by Debt Fund Affiliates, in the aggregate, may not account for more than 49.9% of the Loans of Lenders included in determining whether the Required Lenders have consented to any action pursuant to Section 10.01.
(l) Any Lender may, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement to Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower through (x) Dutch auctions or other offers to purchase open to all Lenders on a pro rata basis in accordance with procedures of the type described in Section 2.05(1)(e) or (y) open market purchases on a non-pro rata basis; provided that:

(i) (x) if the assignee is Holdings or a Subsidiary of the Borrower, upon such assignment, transfer or contribution, the applicable assignee shall automatically be deemed to have contributed or transferred the principal amount of such Loans, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, to the Borrower; or (y) if the assignee is the Borrower (including through contribution or transfers set forth in clause (x)), (a) the principal amount of such Loans, along with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, so contributed, assigned or transferred to the Borrower shall be deemed automatically cancelled and extinguished on the date of such contribution, assignment or transfer, (b) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Loans of the remaining Lenders shall reflect such cancellation and extinguishing of the Loans then held by the Borrower and (c) the Borrower shall promptly provide notice to the Administrative Agent of such contribution, assignment or transfer of such Loans, and the Administrative Agent, upon receipt of such notice, shall reflect the cancellation of the applicable Loans in the Register;

(ii) [reserved]; and

(iii) each Lender (other than an Affiliated Lender) that assigns any Loans to Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower pursuant to clause (y) above shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower a customary Big Boy Letter.

(m) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, (1) any Lender may in accordance with applicable Law create a security interest in all or any portion of the Loans owing to it and the Note, if any, held by it and (2) any Lender that is a Fund may create a security interest in all or any portion of the Loans owing to it and the Note, if any, held by it to the trustee for holders of obligations owed, or securities issued, by such Fund as security for such obligations or securities; provided that unless and until such trustee actually becomes a Lender in compliance with the other provisions of this Section 10.07, (i) no such pledge shall release the pledging Lender from any of its obligations under the Loan Documents and (ii) such trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a Lender under the Loan Documents even though such trustee may have acquired ownership rights with respect to the pledged interest through foreclosure or otherwise.

(n) The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible or have any liability for, or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into, monitor or enforce, compliance with the provisions hereof relating to Disqualified Institutions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall not (x) be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender or Participant or prospective Lender or Participant is a Disqualified Institution or (y) have any liability with respect to or arising out of any assignment or participation of Loans or Commitments, or disclosure of confidential information, to any Disqualified Institution.

SECTION 10.09 Confidentiality. Each of the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information in accordance with its customary procedures (as set forth below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its Affiliates and to its and its Affiliates’ respective partners, directors, officers, employees, legal counsel, independent auditors, agents, trustees,

For purposes of this Section 10.09, “Information” means all information received from any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof relating to any Loan Party or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof or their respective businesses, other than any such information that is available to any Agent or any Lender on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure by any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof; it being understood that no information received from Holdings, the Borrower or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof after the date hereof shall be deemed nonconfidential on account of such information not being clearly identified at the time of delivery as being confidential. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 10.09 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so in accordance with its customary procedures if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

Each Agent, each Arranger and each Lender acknowledges that (a) the Information may include trade secrets, protected confidential information, or material non-public information concerning the Borrower or a Subsidiary, as the case may be, (b) it has developed compliance procedures regarding the use of such information and (c) it will handle such information in accordance with applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws and to preserve its trade secret or confidential character.

The respective obligations of the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders under this Section 10.09 shall survive, to the extent applicable to such Person, (x) the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement, (y) any assignment of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and (z) the resignation or removal of any Agent.

SECTION 10.10 Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, after obtaining the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency) at any time held and other obligations (in whatever currency) at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any and all of the obligations of such Loan Party then due and payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document. The rights of each Lender under this Section 10.10 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that such Lender may have. Each Lender agrees to notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

SECTION 10.11 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable Law (the “Maximum Rate”). If any Agent or any Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by an Agent or a Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

SECTION 10.12 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement and each of the other Loan Documents may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic imaging (including in .pdf format) means shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.
SECTION 10.13 Electronic Execution of Assignments and Certain Other Documents. The words “delivery,” “execution,” “execute,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in or related to any document to be signed in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including without limitation Assignment and Assumptions, amendments or other modifications, Committed Loan Notices, waivers and consents) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, the electronic matching of assignment terms and contract formations on electronic platforms approved by the Administrative Agent, or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery thereof or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 10.14 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Administrative Agent and each Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of any Borrowing, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

SECTION 10.15 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

All of the remaining terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain in full force and effect during the foregoing Basic Rent Abatement Period. If any Event of Default (as defined in Section 20.1 of the Lease) occurs under this Lease and Landlord terminates the Lease or Tenant’s right to possession of the Premises, then, in addition to Landlord’s other remedies available at law, in equity or under this Lease, the Basic Rent abatement provided for in this Section 1.12 shall immediately terminate, and Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord upon demand the unamortized portion of the previously abated Basic Rent.

II. PREMISES

2.1 Lease of Premises. In consideration of the agreements contained herein, Landlord hereby leases the Premises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases the Premises from Landlord, for the Term and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease. As an appurtenance to the Premises, subject to the terms of the Lease and Landlord’s reservations of rights under Section 2.2 with respect to the Common Area, Tenant shall have (1) the general non-exclusive right together with the other tenants of Building 4 to use the fire pit and lounge for Building 4 shown on Exhibit G-1 attached hereto and incorporated herein and (2) the general and non-exclusive right, (a) together with Landlord, the owner of Building 3 and the other tenants of Building 3 and Building 4, to use the Amenity Building, the Phase II Common Area and the Phase II Parking Garage and (b) together with Landlord, the other owners and the other tenants of the Project, to use the other Common Area; provided, however, except to the extent Landlord’s prior written approval is obtained, Landlord excepts and reserves exclusively to itself the use of (i) roofs (except for any Amenities (as defined in, and subject to the terms of, Section 16.6) on the roof of the Amenity Building); (ii) maintenance and utility equipment rooms and closets, and (iii) conduits, wires and appurtenant equipment within the Project and equipment rooms and closets, and exterior utility lines. Subject to the terms of the Lease, including, without limitation, Landlord’s reservation of rights under Section 2.2, Tenant shall have access 24 hours per day, seven days per week, 365 days per year to the Premises, Building, the Surface Lot and the Phase II Parking Garage. For purposes of clarity, subject to the terms of the Lease and Landlord’s reservations of rights under Section 2.2 with respect to the Common Area, (A) the fire pit and lounge for Building 4 is for the exclusive use of the tenants of Building 4 and (B) the Amenity Building, the Phase II Common Area and the Phase II Parking Garage are for the exclusive use of Landlord, the owner of Building 3 and the other tenants of Building 3 and Building 4. Landlord agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly address any complaints and concerns by Tenant that the exclusivity of the Phase II Common Area is not being adhered to by the occupants of the Phase I Buildings.

2.2 Landlord’s Reservations. Provided Tenant’s use of and access to the Premises is not materially adversely affected, Landlord reserves the right from time to time to: (i) install, use, maintain, repair, replace and relocate pipes, ducts, conduits, wires and appurtenant meters and equipment above the ceiling surfaces, below the floor surfaces, within the walls and in the central core areas of the Building; (ii) make changes to the design and layout of the Project, including, without limitation, changes to buildings, driveways, entrances, loading and unloading areas, direction of traffic, landscaped areas and walkways, parking spaces and parking areas; (iii) use or close temporarily the Common Areas, and/or other portions of the Project while engaged in making improvements, repairs or alterations to the Building, the Project or any portion thereof; and (iv) Landlord reserves for itself, Landlord’s operators of the Amenities, Landlord’s property manager, and their respective Agents, the right from time to time to use, access and periodically reserve portions of the Amenity Building, the Phase II Common Area, the Parking Facilities, the Sports Park and the other Common Area; provided that Landlord shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate with Tenant in connection with the exercise of such right in order that there shall be no material adverse effect to Tenant’s use of and access to such Common Areas (including, without limitation, the Common Area Amenities (as defined in Exhibit C)). In addition, Landlord expressly reserves the right to change the name of the Building, the Other Buildings or the Project, provided any name change to the Building shall not include the name of any Competitor (as defined in Article XXVII). Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Tenant shall have no right to use or access the exclusive fire pit and lounge for Building 3 as shown on Exhibit G-1 or any of the Parking Facilities other than the Surface Lot and the Phase II Parking Garage. To the extent Landlord reasonably determines practicable, Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts when exercising its rights to construct additional buildings at the Project under this Section 2.2 in order to minimize any material disruption or interference with Tenant’s use of the Premises (or any material portion thereof) for Tenant’s business purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, to the extent that Landlord has obligations under this Lease with respect to portions of the Common Area that are located on portions of the Project that are not owned by Landlord, unless otherwise provided in the Phase II Easement Agreement, Landlord’s obligation shall be to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cause the owners of such portions of the Project to perform their respective material obligations, to the extent of Landlord’s rights under the Phase II Easement Agreement, the Sports Park Easement Agreement or any other applicable recorded easement agreements, covenants, conditions and restrictions and to enforce or exercise any remedies under the foregoing documents against the applicable owner or other responsible party who fails to perform its material obligations pursuant to such documents.

III. TERM

3.1 Commencement Date. Subject to the earlier termination or extension as otherwise provided in this Lease, the Term shall commence on the Commencement Date and expire at midnight on the Expiration Date. Promptly following the request of either party, Landlord and Tenant shall enter into an agreement confirming the Commencement Date and the Expiration Date, and certain other information, in the form of the Confirmation of Commencement Date attached hereto as Exhibit E.
3.2 Early Possession. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, upon the later of the Date of Lease, Tenant’s delivery of satisfactory evidence of insurance in accordance with Article XV, the first month’s payment of Basic Rent and Additional Rent (as defined in Section 4.2), and payment of any Security Deposit and continuing until the Commencement Date (the “Early Access Period”), Tenant shall have non-exclusive reasonable rights of entry to the Premises for the purpose of performing the Tenant Work (as defined in Exhibit B-1) and installing furniture, fixtures, equipment and Cabling (as defined in Section 12.3) (the “Early Access Activities”). Tenant’s entry to the Premises and conducting of any Early Access Activities during the Early Access Period shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease, including, without limitation, the indemnification and hold harmless agreements set forth in Article XVII; provided, however, except for the cost of services requested by Tenant, Tenant shall not be required to pay Rent (as defined in Section 4.2) for any days during the Early Access Period on which Tenant is in possession of the Premises for the sole purpose of the Early Access Activities; provided, however, if Tenant uses or accepts all or any portion of the Premises during the Early Access Period for the purpose of conducting business operations or any purposes other than the Early Access Activities, then Tenant shall pay as Additional Rent in accordance with Section 4.3 Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental (as such terms are defined in Section 4.3), commencing on the date of such use. Tenant will coordinate all Early Access Activities with Landlord so as not to interfere with Landlord or with other occupants of the Building.

4.1 Basic Rent. Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Basic Rent as specified in Section 1.12. Basic Rent shall be payable in monthly installments as specified in Section 1.12, in advance, without demand, notice, deduction, offset or counterclaim, on or before the first day of each and every calendar month during the Term; provided, however, the installment of Basic Rent and Additional Rent in the amount of $454,124.30 payable for the first full calendar month of the Term in which Basic Rent and Additional Rent are due shall be due and payable at the time of execution and delivery of this Lease. Any payment made by Tenant to Landlord on account of Basic Rent may be credited by Landlord to the payment of any late charges then due and payable and to any Basic Rent or Additional Rent (as defined in Section 4.2) then past due before being credited to Basic Rent currently due. Tenant shall pay Basic Rent and all Additional Rent electronically via automatic debit, ACH credit or wire transfer to such account as Landlord designates in writing to Tenant. Landlord may, in its sole discretion, designate an address for payment in lawful U.S. Dollars. If the Term commences on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or terminates on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, the monthly Basic Rent and Additional Rent shall be prorated based upon the number of days in such calendar month. Tenant’s covenant to pay Rent and the obligation of Tenant to perform Tenant’s other covenants and duties hereunder constitute independent, unconditional obligations to be performed at all times provided for hereunder, save and except only when an abatement thereof or reduction therein is expressly provided for in this Lease and not otherwise.

4.2 Additional Rent; Rent. All sums payable by Tenant under this Lease, other than Basic Rent, shall be deemed “Additional Rent” and, unless otherwise set forth herein, shall be payable in the same manner as set forth above for Basic Rent. Basic Rent and Additional Rent shall jointly be referred to as “Rent” within the meaning of California Civil Code Section 1951(a), the nonpayment of which beyond any applicable cure periods set forth in Article XX shall entitle Landlord to exercise all rights and remedies provided in Article XX or by law. It is intended that the Rent provided for in this Lease shall be an absolutely net return to Landlord for the Term of this Lease and any renewals or extensions thereof, free of any and all expenses or charges with respect to the Premises except for those obligations of Landlord expressly set forth herein.

4.3 Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental. Tenant shall pay to Landlord throughout the remainder of the Term, as Additional Rent, (1) the Amenity Building Rent (as defined in this Section 4.3), the Management Fee (as defined in this Section 4.3), and Tenant’s Proportionate Share of Operating Expenses (as defined in Section 6.1) during each Calendar Year (collectively, the “Operating Expense Rental”); and (2) Tenant’s Proportionate Share of Real Estate Taxes (as defined in Article VII) during each Calendar Year (“Real Estate Tax Rental”). The “Amenity Building Rent” shall be in the amount set forth in schedule in Section 4.5 and included in the Operating Expense Rental. The “Management Fee” shall be equal to three percent (3%) of the total of Basic Rent, Operating Expense Rental (exclusive of the Management Fee component) and Real Estate Tax Rental owed by Tenant for each Calendar Year and will be included in the Operating Expense Rental; provided, however, during the Basic Rent Abatement Period, the amount of $3,792,285.00 shall be used for purposes of calculating the portion of the Management Fee that is based on annual Basic Rent for the Calendar Year of 2020, even though Basic Rent is subject to abatement during the Basic Rent Abatement Period as provided in Section 1.12. In the event the Expiration Date is other than the last day of a Calendar Year, Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental for the applicable Calendar Year shall be appropriately prorated. Landlord shall submit to Tenant at the beginning of each Calendar Year, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible, a statement of Landlord’s estimate of Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental due from Tenant during such Calendar Year. In addition to Basic Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on or before the first day of each month during such Calendar Year an amount equal to 1/12th of Landlord’s estimated Operating Expense Rental and estimated Real Estate Tax Rental as set forth in Landlord’s statement. If Landlord fails to give Tenant notice of its estimated payments due for any Calendar Year, then Tenant shall continue making monthly estimated Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental payments in accordance with the estimate for the previous Calendar Year until a new estimate is provided. If Landlord determines that, because of unexpected increases in Operating Expenses or Real Estate Taxes, Landlord’s estimate of the Operating Expense Rental or Real Estate Tax Rental was too low, then Landlord shall have the right to give a new statement of the estimated Operating Expense Rental and estimated Real Estate Tax Rental due from Tenant for the balance of such Calendar Year and bill Tenant for any deficiency. Tenant shall thereafter pay monthly estimated payments based on such new statement.

Within 90 days after the expiration of each Calendar Year, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, Landlord shall submit a statement to Tenant showing the actual Operating Expenses Rental and the actual Real Estate Tax Rental due from Tenant for such Calendar Year. If for any Calendar Year, Tenant’s estimated Operating Expense Rental payments exceed the actual Operating Expense Rental due from Tenant, then Landlord shall give Tenant a credit in the amount of the overpayment toward Tenant’s next monthly payment of estimated Operating Expense Rental, or, in the event this Lease has expired or terminated and no Event of Default (as defined in Section 20.1) exists, Landlord shall pay Tenant the total amount of such excess within 30 days after delivery of the reconciliation to Tenant. If for any Calendar Year, Tenant’s estimated Operating Expense Rental payments are less than the actual Operating Expense Rental due from Tenant, then Tenant shall pay the total amount of such deficiency to Landlord within 30 days after receipt of the reconciliation from Landlord. If for any Calendar Year, Tenant’s estimated Real Estate Tax Rental payments exceed the actual Real Estate Tax Rental due from Tenant, then Landlord shall give Tenant a credit in the amount of the overpayment toward Tenant’s next monthly payment of estimated Real Estate Tax Rental, or, in the event this Lease has expired or terminated and no Event of Default exists, Landlord shall pay Tenant the total amount of such excess within 30 days after delivery of the reconciliation to Tenant. If for any Calendar Year, Tenant’s estimated Real Estate Tax Rental payments are less than the actual Real Estate Tax Rental due from Tenant, then Tenant shall pay the total amount of such deficiency to Landlord within 30 days after receipt of the reconciliation from Landlord. Landlord’s and Tenant’s obligations with respect to any overpayment or underpayment of Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

4.4 Sales or Excise Taxes. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, concurrently with payment of Basic Rent all taxes, including, but not limited to any and all sales, rent or excise taxes (but specifically excluding income taxes calculated upon the net income of Landlord) on Basic Rent, Additional Rent or other amounts otherwise benefiting Landlord, as levied or assessed by any governmental or political body or subdivision thereof against Landlord on account of such Basic Rent, Additional Rent or other amounts otherwise benefiting Landlord, or any portion thereof.

V. SECURITY DEPOSIT

5.1 General. Simultaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant shall deposit the Security Deposit with Landlord to be held by Landlord until disbursement in accordance with the terms of this Lease. The Security Deposit shall not bear interest to Tenant and shall be security for Tenant’s obligations under this Lease. Landlord shall be entitled to commingle the Security Deposit with Landlord’s other funds. The Security Deposit is not an advance payment of Rent or a measure of Tenant’s liability for damages. Within 60 days after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, or such lesser period as may be required by law, provided that Tenant has notified Landlord of the address to which the Security Deposit should be returned, Landlord shall (provided an Event of Default does not then exist) return the Security Deposit to Tenant, less such portion thereof as Landlord shall have applied in accordance with this Article V. If Tenant defaults with respect to any provisions of this Lease, including without limitation any provisions relating to the payment of Rent, then Landlord may use, apply, or retain all or any part of the Security Deposit for the payment of any Rent or any other sum in default, or for the payment of any other amount that Landlord may spend or become obligated to spend by reason of Tenant’s default or to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage that Landlord may suffer by reason of Tenant’s default. If Landlord so applies the Security Deposit or any portion thereof before the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord, upon demand, the amount necessary to restore the Security Deposit to its original amount. If Landlord shall sell or transfer its interest in the Building, Landlord shall have the right to transfer the Security Deposit to such purchaser or transferee, in which event Tenant shall look solely to the new landlord for the return of the Security Deposit, and Landlord thereupon shall be released from all liability to Tenant for the return of the Security Deposit. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 1950.7 of the California Civil code, and all other provisions of any law, now or hereafter in force, which provide that Landlord may claim from a security deposit only those sums reasonably necessary to remedy defaults in the payment of rent, to repair damage caused by Tenant or to clean the Premises, it being agreed that Landlord may, in addition, claim those sums reasonably necessary to compensate Landlord for any other loss or damage, foreseeable or unforeseeable, caused by the act or omission of Tenant or its agents, contractors, employers or invitees.

5.2 Letter of Credit. Tenant shall satisfy Tenant’s obligations under Section 5.1 by posting with Landlord a Letter of Credit meeting the requirements of this Section 5.2 (the “Letter of Credit”). The Letter of Credit shall be (i) irrevocable; (ii) issued by Morgan Stanley Bank, N.A., JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Citibank, N.A. or Bank of America, N.A. or a financial institution approved by Landlord in Landlord’s sole discretion (provided that Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold such approval if the financial institution is a U.S. national bank of a similar size and reputation as the financial institutions specifically named in this clause (ii)); (iii) in a form permitting partial and multiple drawings; (iv) for multiple terms of one (1) year each in duration, renewed at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration thereof, the entire term extending until the date which is ninety (90) days after the expiration of the Term, as such Term may be extended pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; and (v) be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit M or otherwise in form and substance acceptable to the Landlord, in its reasonable discretion. If a partial drawing occurs under the Letter of Credit, Tenant shall, upon demand but not more than five (5) days after such partial drawing, cause the financial institution to reissue the Letter of Credit in the amount then currently required under the terms of the Lease. In addition, within five (5) days after the bank that issued the Letter of Credit then held by Landlord enters into any form of regulatory or governmental receivership or other similar regulatory or governmental proceeding, including any receivership instituted or commenced by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), or is otherwise declared insolvent or downgraded by the FDIC, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a replacement Letter of Credit in the same form and in the amount then currently required under the terms of the Lease and from a financial institution approved by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion, except as provided in clause (ii) of this Section 5.2 above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall be entitled to draw down the entire amount of the Letter of Credit, without any notice, at any time on or after the earlier of (i) the occurrence of an Event of Default by Tenant under the Lease; or (ii) the thirtieth (30th) day preceding the expiration date of the Letter of Credit in the event Tenant is required to and fails to replace the Letter of Credit. If Landlord draws on the Letter of Credit (or Tenant replaces the Letter of Credit with a Security Deposit in the form of cash with Landlord’s approval), then such cash shall be held by Landlord as a Security Deposit until disbursement or application in accordance with the terms of the Lease.

5.3 Decline of Security Deposit/Letter of Credit. Provided no Event of Default exists under this Lease or would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided for in Section 20.1 herein, the Security Deposit, or Letter of Credit posted in lieu thereof, shall be reduced on the following dates (each a “Reduction Date”) as follows: (a) on January 1, 2022, to $2,502,908.10; (b) on January 1, 2023, to $1,668,605.40; (c) on January 1, 2024, to $1,251,454.05 and (d) on January 1, 2025, to $834,302.70. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (i) a material adverse change in Tenant’s financial condition has occurred; or (ii) an uncured Event of Default exists on the applicable Reduction Date, or would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided in Section 20.1 herein, Tenant shall waive any right to a reduced Security Deposit or Letter of Credit, as applicable, and shall deposit any additional sums necessary to increase the Security Deposit, or provide a replacement Letter of Credit increased, to the full amount of $3,754,362.15.

VI. OPERATING EXPENSES

6.1 Operating Expenses Defined. As used herein, the term “Operating Expenses” shall mean all expenses, costs and disbursements of every kind and nature, except as specifically excluded otherwise herein, which Landlord incurs because of or in connection with the ownership, maintenance, management and operation of the Project, and, if the Building, Phase II Buildings, or Project is less than 95% occupied, all additional costs and expenses of ownership, operation, management and maintenance of the Building or Project, as applicable, which Landlord determines that it would have paid or incurred during any Calendar Year if the Building, Phase II Buildings or Project, as applicable had been 95% occupied. With respect to Operating Expenses shared among the Building and one or more Other Buildings or relating to amenities or services provided only to, or used on a disproportionate basis by, Tenant or other specific tenants, Landlord shall allocate on an equitable basis such Operating Expenses to the Building and Other Buildings or among specific tenants of the Project, as determined in Landlord’s reasonable discretion; provided that, (a) in accordance with the Phase II Easement Agreement, fifty percent (50%) of the Operating Expenses of the Amenity Building and the Phase II Common Area shall be allocated to the Building, (b) in accordance with the Sports Park Easement Agreement, twenty five percent (25%) of the Operating Expenses of the Sports Park shall be allocated to the Building and (c) in accordance with the Phase II Easement Agreement, forty percent (40%) of the Operating Expenses of the Phase II Parking Garage shall be allocated to the Building.
Operating Expenses may include, without limitation, all costs, expenses and disbursements incurred or made in connection with the following:

(i) Wages and salaries of all employees, whether employed by Landlord or the Project’s management company, to the extent engaged in the operation and maintenance of the Project, and all costs related to or associated with such employees or the carrying out of their duties, including uniforms and their cleaning, taxes, auto allowances, training and insurance and benefits (including, without limitation, contributions to pension and/or profit sharing plans and vacation or other paid absences);

(ii) The costs of equipping and maintaining a management office, including, but not limited to, rent, accounting and legal fees, supplies and other administrative costs;

(iii) All supplies, tools, equipment and materials, including Common Area janitorial and lighting supplies, used directly in the operation and maintenance of the Project, including any lease payments therefor;

(iv) All utilities, including, without limitation, electricity, water, sewer and gas, for the Building and Common Area, except for charges for submetered electricity and gas and other Project utilities reasonably allocated to Tenant based on such submetered usage, for which Tenant pays Landlord in accordance with Section 16.4;

(v) All maintenance, operation and service agreements for the Phase II Buildings and the Common Area, and any equipment related thereto, including, without limitation, service and/or maintenance agreements for the Parking Facilities, the Shuttle Service (as defined in Section 16.6), energy management, HVAC, plumbing and electrical systems, exterior window repair, replacement and maintenance, and window cleaning, elevator maintenance, janitorial service for the Common Area, groundskeeping, interior and exterior landscaping and plant maintenance, and maintenance of existing utility connections located outside the Building and connected to the exterior of the Building;

(vi) Premiums and deductibles paid for insurance relating to the Project including, without limitation, fire and extended coverage, boiler, earthquake, windstorm, rental loss, and commercial general liability insurance;

(vii) All repairs to the Project, including interior, exterior, structural or nonstructural repairs and replacements, and regardless of whether foreseen or unforeseen; provided, however, any repairs and replacements which under generally accepted accounting principles should be classified as capital improvements shall be subject to inclusion pursuant to the terms of Section 6.1(ix) and otherwise excluded pursuant to Section 6.2(v) below;

(viii) All maintenance of the Project, including, without limitation, repainting Common Areas, replacing Common Area wall coverings, window coverings and carpet, ice and snow removal, window washing, landscaping, groundskeeping, trash removal and the patching, painting, resealing and complete resurfacing of roads, driveways and parking lots;
Any capital improvements made to the Project for the purpose of reducing Operating Expenses or which are required under any governmental law or regulation that was not applicable to the Project as of the Date of Lease, the cost of which shall be amortized on a straight-line basis over the improvement’s useful life, not to exceed the Project’s useful life, together with interest on the unamortized balance of such cost at the Interest Rate, or such higher rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purposes of constructing such capital improvements, or, at Landlord’s election in the case of capital improvements that lower operating costs, the amortization amount will be Landlord’s reasonable estimate of annual cost savings; and

All amounts paid under easements, declarations, or other agreements or instruments affecting the Project, including, without limitation, assessments paid to property owners’ or similar associations or bodies and assessments, costs and expenses incurred pursuant to the Declaration, the Phase II Easement Agreement, the Sports Park Easement Agreement or other easements, declarations, agreements or instruments affecting the Project.

6.2 Operating Expense Exclusions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Operating Expenses shall not include:

(i) depreciation on the Project; (ii) costs of tenant improvements incurred in renovating leased space for the exclusive use of a particular tenant of the Project, including, without limitation, architectural, engineering and other design consultant fees, costs of permits and licenses, and costs of inspections incurred in connection with such tenant improvements; (iii) brokers’ commissions; (iv) Project mortgage principal or interest; (v) capital items other than those referred to in Section 6.1; (vi) costs of repairs or other work to the extent Landlord is reimbursed by warranties, service contracts, insurance or condemnation proceeds, or otherwise; (vii) costs for utilities and Lighting Maintenance (as defined in Section 11.2) or other expenses charged directly to, or paid directly by, Tenant pursuant to Section 16.4 or other tenants of the Project other than as a part of the Operating Expenses, including such costs charged directly to, or paid directly by, Tenant or other tenants for providing overtime heating, ventilation and air conditioning to the Premises or any other leasable space in the Building (whether or not leased to tenants); (viii) fines, interest and penalties incurred due to the late payment of Operating Expenses; (ix) organizational expenses associated with the creation and operation of the entity which constitutes Landlord; (x) any penalties or damages that Landlord pays to Tenant under this Lease or to other tenants in the Project under their respective leases; (xi) Real Estate Taxes as provided for in Article VII; (xii) advertising, promotional and marketing expenses; (xiii) legal expenses incurred in negotiating leases, collecting rents, evicting tenants or costs incurred in legal proceedings with or against any tenant or to enforce the provisions of any lease; provided, however, Operating Expenses shall include those reasonable, out of pocket attorneys’ fees and other costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with Landlord’s non-discriminatory efforts to enforce of any Rules and Regulations relating to tenants’ or occupants’ use of the Common Areas of the Project, Landlord’s successful negotiations of disputes or claims related to items of Operating Expenses, negotiation of service contracts for the Project that benefit Tenant directly or indirectly and such other matters relating to the maintenance of standards required by Landlord under the Lease; (xiv) costs, fines, and penalties incurred as a result of a violation of laws, including, without limitation, any violations of law for failure to obtain (and subsequently maintain) any required governmental permits, consents, approvals, or other documentation, except to the extent resulting from the failure of Tenant to pay Rent in a timely manner, or to the extent incurred due to violation by any other tenant in the Project of the terms and conditions of any lease or laws; (xv) contributions to reserves for Operating Expenses or Real Estate Taxes; (xvi), bad debt loss, rent loss, or reserves for bad debt loss or rent loss; (xvii) costs of the correction of any latent defects in the initial design, materials, equipment or workmanship of the Project (as opposed to the cost of normal repair, maintenance and replacement); (xviii) salaries and other compensation and fringe benefits paid to executive employees of Landlord above the level of property manager; (xix) costs incurred in connection with the operation of the business of the entity constituting Landlord, as distinguished from the costs of operating the Building, including Landlord’s general corporate overhead and administrative expenses other than those referred to in Section 6.1; (xx) costs of selling, financing or refinancing Landlord’s interest in the Building or Project, including, without limitation, legal and accounting costs related to the foregoing or to defending any lawsuits with any mortgagee in connection with the foregoing; (xxi) ground rental payments; (xxii) amounts paid to any affiliate of Landlord for goods supplied to the Building or for services (other than the Management Fee, which is subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.3) in or to the Building, to the extent the same would exceed the costs of such goods sold or services rendered of comparable quality at the then existing market rates by third parties that are not affiliates of Landlord; (xxiii) the cost of acquiring, leasing, restoring, removing or replacing sculptures, paintings or other objects of art located within or outside of the Building or Project, unless decorative and non-investment grade in terms of quality and utilized for cosmetic enhancement of the Common Areas only; (xxiv) the cost of Landlord’s voluntary political contributions or voluntary charitable contributions; (xxv) any costs or expenses necessitated by or resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its agents, employees and/or independent contractors; (xxvi) any cost incurred in connection with upgrading the Building to comply with insurance requirements, life safety codes, ordinances, statutes, or other laws, including without limitation the ADA (as defined in Section 9.3), to the extent the foregoing were required or in effect prior to the Commencement Date, including penalties or damages incurred as a result of non-compliance; (xxvii) costs incurred to test, survey, cleanup, contain, abate, remove, or otherwise remedy Hazardous Materials incurred as a result of the presence of any Hazardous Materials which are other than the Pre-existing Contamination (as defined in Section 9.2(b)) in, on, or under the Building or Project as of the Date of Lease, to the extent such Hazardous Materials (other than the Pre-existing Contamination) are in violation of applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements in effect as of the Date of Lease; (except that Operating Expenses shall include costs incurred in connection with the prudent and ordinary operation and maintenance of the Building, such as monitoring air quality and cleaning up minor chemical spills); (xxviii) any and all costs and expenses to the extent incurred in connection with the clean-up, removal or remediation of the Pre-existing Contamination regardless of whether such Pre-existing Contamination is in violation of applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements in effect as of the Date of Lease; provided, however that Landlord shall be permitted to include in Operating Expenses the out of pocket costs incurred by Landlord in connection with the inspection, maintenance and/or monitoring (as opposed to the cleanup, removal or remediation) of the Pre-existing Contamination; (xxix) the cost of litigation or arbitration and any award paid by Landlord as a result thereof for tort liability when a judgment of negligence is rendered against Landlord; and (xxx) costs of lease concessions granted by Landlord to Tenant or other tenants of the Project, including, without limitation, lease takeover obligations, build out allowances, and moving allowances; and (xxxi) costs for common area expenses, upgrades, and improvements attributable solely to the Phase I Buildings and to any Common Area located on the Land on which Phase I Buildings are located, except with respect to the Sports Park, 25% of which are allocated to the Building.

6.3 Tenant’s Right to Audit. Tenant shall have a right, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, to audit not more than once per Calendar Year Landlord’s Operating Expense Rental reconciliation statement upon the following terms and conditions. Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing that it is exercising its right to audit within 90 days following delivery of the Operating Expense Rental reconciliation statement, indicating in such notice with reasonable specificity those cost components of Operating Expense Rental to be subject to audit. The audit shall take place at Landlord’s regional offices or, at Landlord’s option, the Project, at a time mutually convenient to Landlord and Tenant (but not later than 60 days after receipt of Tenant’s notice to audit). Except as Landlord may consent in writing, the audit shall be completed within 45 days after commencement. No copying of Landlord’s books or records will be allowed. The audit may be accomplished by either Tenant’s own employees with accounting experience reasonably sufficient to conduct such review, or a nationally or regionally recognized public accounting firm mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant that is engaged on either a fixed price or hourly basis, and is not compensated on a contingency or bonus basis. Under no circumstances shall Landlord be required to consent to an accounting firm that is also a tenant of Landlord (or any Landlord affiliate) in the Project. The records reviewed by Tenant shall be treated as confidential and prior to commencing the audit, Tenant and any other person which may perform such audit for Tenant, shall execute a Confidentiality Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to Landlord. A copy of the results of the audit shall be delivered to Landlord within 30 days after the completion of the audit. If Landlord and Tenant determine that Operating Expense Rental for the Calendar Years audited is less than reported, Landlord shall give Tenant a credit in the amount of the overpayment toward Tenant’s next monthly payment of estimated Operating Expense Rental, or, in the event this Lease has expired or terminated and no Event of Default exists, Landlord shall pay Tenant the total amount of such overpayment within 30 days. If Landlord and Tenant determine that Operating Expense Rental for the Calendar Years audited is more than reported, Tenant shall pay Landlord the amount of any underpayment within 30 days. Failure by Tenant to timely request an audit, or to timely deliver to Landlord the results of the audit, or to follow any of the procedures set forth in this Section 6.3 is deemed a waiver of the applicable audit right and any right to contest Operating Expense Rental for the applicable Calendar Year and, except as expressly provided in this Section 6.3 with respect to the 2020 Audit (as defined in this Section 6.3) and any Prior Year Audits (as defined in this Section 6.3), is deemed acceptance of the Operating Expense Rental contained in the Operating Expense Rental reconciliation statement for the applicable Calendar Year. Provided that 2020 Audit is completed as contemplated herein, as part of its audit, Tenant’s auditors may review Landlord’s books and records for the Calendar Year connected to the most current reconciliation statement and the Calendar Year prior thereto (“Prior Year Audit”), unless Tenant previously audited such prior Calendar Year, in which case Tenant shall not have the right to conduct another audit of such prior Calendar Year. Landlord agrees to maintain at all times its books and records for no less than the then immediately preceding two (2) year period. Any audit review by Tenant shall not postpone or alter the liability and obligation of Tenant to pay any Operating Expense Rental due under the terms of this Lease. If an Event of Default exists at the time that Tenant requests an audit, Tenant must cure the Event of Default as a condition to conducting the audit, but shall still have 45 days to complete the audit upon commencement of the audit. No assignee or subtenant shall have any right to conduct an audit except for a permitted assignee or subtenant under Article X of this Lease occupying the entire Premises and no assignee or subtenant shall conduct an audit for any period during which such assignee or sublessee was not in possession of the Premises or for any period in which Tenant has conducted an audit. Landlord and Tenant agree that in order to confirm the proper allocation of Operating Expenses for the Building and the Project attributable to the Premises, Tenant will audit Landlord’s 2020 Operating Expense Rental (the “2020 Audit”) within 90 days following receipt by Tenant of the 2020 Operating Expense Rental reconciliation statement pursuant to the terms of this Section 6.3. Tenant and Landlord will equally split the cost of the 2020 Audit. For any audit following the 2020 Audit, if Landlord and Tenant finally determine as a result of any such audit by Tenant of Landlord’s books and records that Tenant’s actual Operating Expense Rental for the Calendar Year audited is less than the Operating Expense Rental charged to Tenant for such Calendar Year by more than five percent (5%), as substantiated, at Landlord’s option and expense, by a certified public accountant, then upon receipt of Tenant’s documented invoice, Landlord shall credit to Tenant’s next monthly payment of estimated Operating Expense Rental all reasonable out-of-pocket third party costs incurred by Tenant in performing the audit of such Calendar Year, which amount shall not exceed $10,000.00, or if the Lease has expired or terminated, then Landlord shall pay such amount to Tenant within 30 days after receipt of Tenant’s documented invoice, less any amounts applied in accordance with this Lease to cure an existing Event of Default.

VII. REAL ESTATE TAXES

Real Estate Taxes shall be defined as (i) all real property taxes, assessments that are assessed, levied, or imposed on the land, buildings, and/or other improvements comprising all or part of the Project, or which are otherwise imposed in connection with the ownership, leasing, and operation of the Project; (ii) all personal property taxes levied by any public authority on personal property of Landlord used in the management, operation, maintenance and repair of the Project; (iii) all taxes, assessments and reassessments of every kind and nature whatsoever levied or assessed in lieu of or in substitution for existing or additional real or personal property taxes and assessments on the Project, including any so-called value-added tax; and (iv) amounts necessary to be expended because of governmental orders, charges or other actions, whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, unforeseen as well as foreseen, of any kind and nature for public improvements, services, benefits or any other purposes which are assessed, levied, confirmed, imposed or become a lien upon the Premises or Project or become payable during or are allocable to the Term; further, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord within 30 days after demand for all taxes and assessments required to be paid by Landlord (except to the extent included in Real Estate Taxes by Landlord), when (a) such taxes are measured by or reasonably attributable to the cost or value of (i) Tenant’s equipment, furniture, fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises, or (ii) the Tenant Work (as defined in Exhibit B-1) or any other leasehold improvements made in or to the Premises by or for Tenant, to the extent the cost or value of such Tenant Work or other leasehold improvements exceeds the cost or value of a Building standard build-out as reasonably determined by Landlord regardless of whether title to such Tenant Work or improvements is vested in Tenant or Landlord; (b) such taxes are assessed upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operation, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant of the Premises or any portion of the Project (including the Parking Facilities); or (c) such taxes are assessed upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party creating or transferring an interest or an estate in the Premises, or upon rent or receipts (including any business license tax or gross receipts tax based on the rents or other revenues received by Landlord), the square footage of land or improvements within the Project, or the occupancy by tenants of space within the Project. The Building and the Other Buildings (except for the Amenity Building, which is part of the Building 3 tax parcel) each constitute separate tax parcels, but with respect to Real Estate Taxes shared among the Building and one or more Other Buildings or relating to amenities or services provided only to, or used on a disproportionate basis by, Tenant or other specific tenants, Landlord shall allocate on an equitable basis such Real Estate Taxes to the Building and Other Buildings or among specific tenants of the Project, as determined in Landlord’s reasonable discretion; provided that (A) fifty percent (50%) of the Real Estate Taxes of the Amenity Building and the Phase II Common Area, twenty five percent (25%) of the Real Estate Taxes of the Sports Park and forty percent (40%) of the Real Estate Taxes of the Phase II Parking Garage shall be allocated to the Building and (B) except for the Real Estate Taxes attributable to the Sports Park, Real Estate Taxes attributed solely to the Phase I Buildings and to any Common Area located on the Land on which Phase I Buildings are located shall not be allocated to the Building. Real Estate Taxes include any and all increases in Real Estate Taxes resulting from a change in ownership or new construction with respect to the Premises, the Building or the Project. Further, for the purposes of this Article VII, Real Estate Taxes shall include the reasonable expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees) incurred by Landlord in challenging or obtaining or attempting to obtain a reduction of such Real Estate Taxes, regardless of the outcome of such challenge, and any costs incurred by Landlord for compliance, review and appeal of tax liabilities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no obligation to challenge Real Estate Taxes. If as a result of any such challenge, a tax refund is made to Landlord, then provided no Event of Default exists under this Lease, the net amount of such refund after payment of all costs and expenses of the challenge shall be deducted from Real Estate Taxes due in the Calendar Year such refund is received. In the case of any Real Estate Taxes which may be evidenced by improvement or other bonds or which may be paid in annual or other periodic installments, Landlord shall elect to cause such bonds to be issued or cause such assessment to be paid in installments over the maximum period permitted by law. Nothing contained in this Lease shall require Tenant to pay (1) any franchise, gift, estate, inheritance or succession transfer tax of Landlord, or any income, profits or revenue tax or charge, upon the net income of Landlord from all sources, or (2) any penalties or interest incurred by reason of Landlord’s late payment of Real Estate Taxes. Tenant hereby waives any and all rights to protest reappraised values or to receive notice of reappraised values regarding the Project or other property of Landlord.

VIII. PARKING

8.1 General. During the Term, Tenant shall have the right in common with other tenants and occupants in the Phase II Buildings to use the Parking Space Allocation (as defined in Section 1.17). Landlord shall not reduce the number of spaces designated as unreserved, reserved, Car-Charging Stalls or Future Car-Charging Stalls in the Parking Space Allocation without Tenant’s prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in Tenant’s sole discretion. All parking rights are subject to the Rules and Regulations (as defined in Article XVIII), validation, key-card, sticker or other identification systems set forth by Landlord from time to time. Landlord may restrict certain portions of the Parking Facilities for the exclusive use of one or more tenants of the Project and may designate other areas to be used at large only by customers and visitors of tenants of the Project. Landlord reserves the right to delegate the operation of the Parking Facilities to a parking operator which shall be entitled to all the obligations and benefits of Landlord under this Article VIII; provided, however, Landlord shall have no liability whatsoever for claims arising through acts or omissions of any independent operator of the Parking Facilities. Except in connection with an assignment or sublease that is expressly permitted under this Lease, Tenant’s parking rights and privileges described herein are personal to Tenant and may not be assigned or transferred; provided that Tenant’s Agents may use Tenant’s Parking Space Allocation. Landlord shall have the right to cause to be removed any vehicles of Tenant or its Agents that are parked in violation of this Lease or in violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Building, without liability of any kind to Landlord.

8.2 Parking Space Alterations. Provided that no Event of Default exists under this Lease or would exist but for the pendency of any cure period provided for in Section 20.1 and that the Parking Space Alterations (as defined in this Section 8.2) are performed and completed in accordance with Section 8.2 and Article XII of the Lease, Tenant, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, shall have the right to make Alterations (as defined by Section 12.3) to the Future Car-Charging Stalls in order to connect to the existing electrical conduit and convert the Future Car-Charging Stalls into additional Car-Charging Stalls by installing equipment, facilities and Alterations consistent with the existing Car-Charging Stalls as necessary in order to accomplish such conversion (collectively, the “Parking Space Alterations”): provided, however, Landlord reserves the right as provided in Article XII to perform the Parking Space Alterations on behalf of Tenant.

8.3 Valet Parking. Tenant shall have the right, at its sole cost and expense, to establish valet parking with respect to parking spaces that are included in Tenant’s Parking Space Allocation and located in a portion of the Surface Lot or the Phase II Parking Garage as reasonably agreed by Landlord and Tenant (“Valet Spaces”) and to use the Common Area driveways and aisles to and from the Building and the Valet Spaces, subject to the terms of this Section 8.3. In such event, Landlord and Tenant shall execute a license agreement in substantially the form of Landlord’s standard form license agreement (“License Agreement”) for the Project, which License Agreement shall set forth (a) the mutually acceptable terms for Tenant’s license of the Valet Spaces, (b) the reasonable qualifications and insurance requirements applicable to the valet services provider (“Valet Service”) selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), to provide, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, the valet and parking services for Tenant’s Agents to and from the Building and the Valet Spaces, pursuant to a contract between Tenant and such Valet Service, (c) the location of the Valet Spaces, and (d) the location in the Common Area adjacent to the Building where the Valet Service will pick-up and return the vehicles of Tenant’s Agents and of the driveways and aisles the Valet Service will use to and from the Building and the Valet Spaces, and such other mutually acceptable terms that Landlord and Tenant determine appropriate.

IX. USE AND REQUIREMENTS OF LAW

9.1 Use. The Premises will be used only for the Permitted Use and for no other purpose. Tenant and Tenant’s Agents will not: (i) do or permit to be done in or about the Premises, do in or about the Project, nor bring to, keep or permit to be brought or kept in the Premises or bring to or keep in the Project, anything which is prohibited by or will in any way conflict with any law, statute, ordinance or governmental rule or regulation which is now in force or which may be enacted or promulgated after the Date of Lease or with the Declaration; (ii) do or permit anything to be done in or about the Premises, or do in or about the Project, which will in any way obstruct or interfere with the rights of other tenants of the Building or Project; (iii) do or permit anything to be done in or about the Premises, or do in or about the Project, anything which is dangerous to persons or property; or (iv) cause, maintain or permit any nuisance in, on or about the Premises or cause or maintain any nuisance in, on or about the Project; or (v) commit or allow to be committed any waste in, on or about the Premises or commit any waste in, on or about the Project. At its sole cost and expense, Tenant will promptly comply with (a) all laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements now in force or in force after the Commencement Date of this Lease regarding the operation of Tenant’s business and the use, condition, configuration and occupancy of the Premises (except to the extent of Landlord’s obligations under Section 9.3); (b) the certificate of occupancy issued for the Building and the Premises; and (c) any recorded easement agreements, covenants, conditions and restrictions, if any, which affect the use, condition, configuration and occupancy of the Premises or the Project, including, without limitation, the Declaration, the Phase II Easement Agreement and the Sports Park Easement Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant’s obligations under this Section 9.1 shall not include the performance of structural alterations or structural repairs to the Premises (“Structural Work”), except to the extent such work is required in connection with (a) Tenant’s Alterations (as defined in Section 12.3), (b) Tenant’s particular use of the Premises (as opposed to Tenant’s use of the Premises for the Permitted Use in a normal and customary manner), or (c) a change in the Permitted Use stated in Section 1.8, regardless of whether Landlord approves such change. The term “Permitted Use” specifically excludes any use as a call center or similar high-density use that exceeds the Standard Density Limitation (as defined in Exhibit C), as an employment agency for day labor; by a governmental agency; or that is inconsistent with the Building being a Class A professional office building consistent with other Class A office buildings in San Jose and Santa Clara, California market areas.

(a) Tenant Obligations. Tenant shall not bring or allow any of Tenant’s Agents to bring on the Premises or the Project, any asbestos, petroleum or petroleum products, used oil, explosives, toxic materials or substances defined as hazardous wastes, hazardous materials or hazardous substances under any federal, state or local law or regulation (“Hazardous Materials”), except for routine office, lab, research and development, and janitorial supplies used on the Premises and stored in the usual and customary manner and quantities, and in compliance with all applicable environmental laws and regulations. In the event of any release of Hazardous Materials on, from, under or about the Premises or the Project, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation to the extent such release is as the result of Tenant’s occupancy or use of the Premises, to cause Tenant, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, to clean up, remove, remediate and repair any soil or groundwater contamination or other damage or contamination as required by and in conformance with the requirements of applicable law. Tenant shall indemnify, protect, hold harmless and defend (by counsel acceptable to Landlord) Landlord, its affiliates, its Agents and each of their respective Agents, successors and assigns, from and against any and all demands, claims, causes of action, damages, penalties, fines, liabilities, judgments, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees and court costs) (“Claims”) to the extent caused by or arising out of (i) a violation of the foregoing prohibitions by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents or (ii) the presence or release of any Hazardous Materials on, from, under or about the Premises, the Project or other properties as the result of Tenant’s occupancy or use of the Premises. Neither the written consent of Landlord to the presence of the Hazardous Materials, nor Tenant’s compliance with all laws applicable to such Hazardous Materials, shall relieve Tenant of its indemnification obligation under this Lease. Tenant shall immediately give Landlord written notice (a) of any suspected breach of this Section 9.2, (b) upon learning of the presence or any release of any Hazardous Materials within or about the Premises, or (c) upon receiving any notices from governmental agencies or other parties pertaining to Hazardous Materials which may affect the Premises. Landlord shall have the right from time to time, but not the obligation, to (1) request from Tenant information showing Tenant’s compliance with its obligations under Section 9.2; and (2) to enter upon the Premises in accordance with Article XIV to conduct such inspections and undertake such sampling and testing activities as Landlord deems necessary or desirable to determine whether Tenant is in compliance with its obligations under Section 9.2, except that in no event may Landlord sample or test tenant raw materials, lab materials, products or processes, except with the prior written consent of Tenant, which consent may be withheld if commercially reasonable alternative means exist to assure Tenant compliance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, in no event shall Tenant be responsible or liable under this Section 9.2 in any manner whatsoever for any Claims that arise or result from the Pre-Existing Contamination, except for any Tenant Responsible Contamination (as defined in Section 9.2(b)), subject to the waivers set forth in Section 15.5.

(b) Hazardous Materials Disclosure: Landlord Obligations.

(i) Pursuant to the provisions of California Health & Safety Code Section 25359.7, Landlord disclosed to Tenant prior to the Date of Lease that the Project has been developed on the site of a former landfill and that Hazardous Materials have come to be located at the Project, including without limitation related to the South Bay Asbestos Superfund Site. Pursuant to the provisions of California Health & Safety Code Section 25249.6 (Proposition 65), Landlord provided Tenant with the following warning: “WARNING: ! The Hazardous Materials that are located at the Project could expose persons to chemicals, including asbestos, which are known to the State of California to cause cancer. For more information, go to www.P65Warnings.ca.gov.”. For more information also refer to the Environmental Reports (as defined in this Section 9.2(b)). Tenant acknowledges that Landlord made available to Tenant for review, and Tenant had the opportunity to review, prior to the Date of Lease the reports and other materials identified on Exhibit F attached to this Lease, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (collectively, the “Environmental Reports”) regarding actual or potential releases of Hazardous Materials at, on, under, about, or otherwise affecting the Project. Landlord represents that to its knowledge based on the recommendations of Crawford Consulting, Inc., Landlord has provided Tenant with access to the Environmental Reports and that such Environmental Reports comprise all material, relevant reports in Landlord’s possession or in the possession of its consultant, Crawford Consulting, Inc., related to the former landfill and Pre-Existing Contamination. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that (A) those Environmental Reports identified as “Confidential” in Exhibit F, have been agreed upon between Landlord and Tenant to continue to be treated as Confidential Information (as defined in the Environmental NDA (as defined in this Section 9.2(b)) from and after the Date of Lease, (B) Tenant is obligated under the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement dated February 13, 2019 (“Environmental NDA”) between Landlord and Tenant, which Environmental NDA is attached.
hereto as Exhibit F-1, to protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of the Environmental NDA, and such obligation shall continue from and after the Date of Lease with respect to such Confidential Information, (C) any other reports and materials delivered on or after the Date of Lease on behalf of Landlord to Tenant which Landlord identifies or marks as “confidential” or “proprietary” shall constitute Confidential Information that is subject to the Environmental NDA (potentially including, without limitation, reports, data, documents, materials and other information provided on behalf of Landlord, or prepared in connection with Tenant’s evaluations pursuant to Section 9.2(b)) and Tenant shall be obligated to protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of the Environmental NDA, (D) Tenant’s obligations under this Section 9.2(b) with respect to all Confidential Information shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, (E) Landlord shall continue to make all of the Environmental Reports available for Tenant’s review during the Term upon Tenant’s request and, to the extent applicable, under the terms of the Environmental NDA, and (F) Landlord makes no representations or warranties as to the accuracy of the contents of the Environmental Reports, and no representations or warranties regarding the actual or potential releases, except as set forth below in this Section 9.2(b). Tenant acknowledges that, prior to the Date of Lease, it has had the opportunity to conduct all investigation and testing of the Premises with respect to its environmental condition, either by itself or with the assistance of an expert, as it deems necessary, but that Tenant has not done any testing of the Premises with respect to its environmental condition.

(ii) During the Term, Landlord shall give written notice to Tenant as soon as reasonably practicable of (A) any written communication of any inquiry or claim received from any governmental authority concerning any Hazardous Materials which relates to the Project, and (B) any contamination of the Premises or the Project by Hazardous Materials of which Landlord has notice or actual knowledge and which constitutes a violation of applicable law, statute, ordinance or governmental rule or regulation or results in damage or contamination for which clean up, removal, remediation or repair is required in conformance with applicable laws, statutes, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations. Landlord shall, at its expense (which may be included in Operating Expenses, subject to the terms of Article VI above, including, without limitation, the exclusions set forth in Section 6.2), through its own actions, or by exercising commercially reasonable efforts to compel the actions of others to, observe, comply with and meet all requirements of applicable laws, statutes, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations and the Declaration in connection with the monitoring, inspection, maintenance, repair and remediation of any Hazardous Materials in, on, or under the Building or Project as of the Date of Lease, including, without limitation, performance of the maintenance and operation obligations of Landlord with respect to the methane mitigation systems at the Building as set forth in the Operations, Maintenance and Monitoring Plan and Vapor Mitigation System manual dated May 2018 prepared by Haley & Aldrich, Inc. for the methane mitigation systems at the Building, Building 3, the Amenity Building, the Parking Structure, and the aboveground Parking Facilities and other Common Areas (except for the Parking Facilities and Common Area located on the Land on which Phase I Buildings are located) (“MMS O&M Manual”). Landlord shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate with Tenant in connection with the Landlord’s performance of its obligations under this Section 9.2(b)(ii), in order to minimize any material adverse effect to Tenant’s use of and access to the Premises and Common Areas. In addition, Landlord shall: 1) provide Tenant upon Tenant’s request and subject to the terms of the Environmental NDA if applicable, the annual report and any other reports, notices, amendments or other documents prepared, and provided or made available to Landlord, by the Association (as defined by the Declaration) pursuant to the Declaration, the semi-annual methane detection and calibration reports created with respect to the Building and the Amenity Building and, to the extent prepared and available, any other material documents, data and reports, including as to maintenance and repair, that Landlord is obligated to prepare under the Declaration or applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements related to the former landfill and the Improvements (as defined by the Declaration) comprising the related cap and equipment and systems at the Project, including, without limitation, the Methane Mitigation Systems or that are related to Pre-Existing Contamination at the Project; 2) except in the case of an Emergency (as defined in Article XIV), provide Tenant with reasonable prior written notice of any excavation, any other work or expected event on the Project of which Landlord is aware and reasonably expects to both affect the pre-existing contamination and disrupt Tenant’s use of the Premises or Common Areas; 3) except in the case of an Emergency, provide Tenant with reasonable prior written notice of any excavation, any other work or expected event on the Project of which Landlord is aware and that Landlord reasonably expects to (or has been advised by the Association or an owner of another Building may) pierce the landfill cap and 4) immediately provide notice to Tenant of any data, condition or event of which Landlord is aware that is related to the Pre-Existing Contamination and that poses risk to the health or welfare of Tenant or any Tenant employee or invitee and Landlord promptly shall provide Tenant with all related material documents, data and reports as they become available to Landlord thereafter, subject to the terms of the Environmental NDA as applicable to any Confidential Information, as determined pursuant to Section 9.2(b).

(iii) Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from and against any and all Claims to the extent arising out of or in connection with any Hazardous Materials to the extent resulting from (A) the existence of Hazardous Materials brought on the Premises, Building or Project by Landlord or its Agents; (B) Landlord’s breach of Section 9.2(b)(ii) or (C) Hazardous Materials existing in or under the Land on which the Project is situated at the Date of Lease (collectively, “Pre-Existing Contamination”): provided, however, Landlord’s obligation to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant as provided in this Section 9.2(c)(iii) shall be subject to the waivers in Section 15.5 and shall not apply to the extent of remediation resulting solely from, or to the extent of remediation increased due to, Tenant’s or Tenant’s Agents’ release of Hazardous Materials, negligent, knowing or intentional exacerbation of Pre-Existing Contamination, violation of any applicable laws, statutes, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations or breach by Tenant of its obligations under this Section 9.2 (collectively, and separately referred to as “Tenant Responsible Contamination”).

(c) The obligations of Landlord and Tenant under this Section 9.2 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination, for any reason, of this Lease.

9.3 Compliance with ADA: Warm Shell Condition. Notwithstanding any other statement in this Lease, the provisions in this Section 9.3 shall govern the parties’ compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended from time to time, Public Law 101-336; 42 U.S.C. §§12101, et seq. (the foregoing, together with any similar state statute governing access for the disabled or handicapped collectively referred to as the “ADA”).
(a) Landlord represents and warrants that, to Landlord’s actual knowledge, as of the Date of Lease, the Building, the Premises, the Parking Facilities and Common Areas comply in all material respects with all laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements now in force, including, but not limited to, the ADA and Title 24 (as the foregoing are applied and interpreted by the applicable governmental authorities or quasi-governmental authorities as of the Date of Lease) and with respect to the Premises only, applicable to a “warm shell” condition, without regard to any specific use of the Premises, Alterations or the Tenant Work; it being agreed by the parties that Landlord’s representation above regarding compliance with all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements, including, but not limited to, the ADA and Title 24, is based solely upon the receipt by Landlord of the Permit Records issued by the City of San Jose under Permit# 2016-119262CI and the absence of receipt by Landlord from the City of San Jose of any notification of subsequent non-compliance.

(i) Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for any damages for any violation that is contrary to the foregoing representation, but as Tenant’s sole remedy, Landlord shall perform such corrective work as may be required in this Section 9.3(a)(i). To the extent governmentally required as of Date of Lease, Landlord shall be responsible for compliance with Title III of the ADA with respect to any repairs, replacements or alterations to the core and shell of the Building, and such expense shall not be included as an Operating Expense of the Project; provided, however, if compliance with ADA under this Section 9.3 is required due to (a) Alterations, (b) the Tenant Work, (c) the installation of any of Tenant’s furniture, fixtures, equipment or property, (d) Tenant’s particular use or occupancy of the Premises (as opposed to Tenant’s use and occupancy of the Premises for the Permitted Use in a normal and customary manner), (e) the particular manner in which Tenant conducts its business in the Premises (f) a change in the Permitted Use stated in Section 1.8, or (g) the Access Improvements (as defined in Section 9.3(c)) that are Tenant’s responsibility under Section 9.3(c), regardless of whether Landlord approves such change, then such compliance shall be Tenant’s responsibility under Section 9.3(b) (collectively and each a, “Tenant ADA Responsibility”). Landlord shall have the right to apply for and obtain a waiver or deferment of compliance, the right to contest any such violation in good faith, including, but not limited to, the right to assert any and all defenses allowed by applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements, and the right to appeal any decisions, judgments or rulings to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements, and Landlord’s obligation to perform such corrective work under this Section 9.3(a)(i) shall not apply until after the exhaustion of any and all rights to appeal or contest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if prior to the completion of the Tenant Work, Tenant does not notify Landlord in writing of any violation or alleged violation of applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements as of the Date of Lease respect to the Building, Parking Facilities or Common Area, then the issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy (or sign off on the job card) for the Tenant Work to be constructed pursuant to the Work Agreement shall conclusively establish that the foregoing representation in this Section 9.3(a) was true and correct, and Landlord shall thereafter have no further liability or responsibility pursuant to this Section 9.3(a)(i).

(ii) To the extent governmentally required subsequent to the Date of Lease as a result of an amendment to Title III of the ADA or any regulation thereunder enacted subsequent to the Date of Lease, Landlord shall be responsible for compliance with Title III of the ADA with respect to any repairs, replacements or alterations to the core and shell of the Building, and such expense shall be included as an Operating Expense of the Project, subject to the terms of Article VI: provided, however, if such compliance is required due to a Tenant ADA Responsibility, then such compliance shall be Tenant’s responsibility under Section 9.3(b).

(iii) To the extent governmentally required as of the Commencement Date, or subsequent to the Commencement Date of this Lease as a result of an amendment to Title III of the ADA or any regulation thereunder enacted subsequent to the Commencement Date of this Lease, Landlord shall be responsible for compliance with Title III of the ADA with respect to any repairs, replacements or alterations to the Common Area of the Project, and such expense shall be included as an Operating Expense of the Project, subject to the terms of Article VI. Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant and its Agents from all fines, suits, procedures, penalties, claims, liability, losses, expenses and actions of every kind, and all costs associated therewith (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ and consultants’ fees) arising out of or in any way connected with Landlord’s failure to comply with Title III of the ADA as required above.

(b) To the extent governmentally required, Tenant shall be responsible for compliance, at its expense, with Titles I of the ADA and Title III of the ADA with respect to the Premises (including, without limitation, the Tenant Work), any Alterations and any Tenant ADA Responsibility; provided, however, Tenant shall not be responsible for compliance with Title III of the ADA with respect to the core and shell of the Building, except for the Tenant ADA Responsibility. Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord and its Agents from all fines, suits, procedures, penalties, claims, liability, losses, expenses and actions of every kind, and all costs associated therewith (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ and consultants’ fees) arising out of or in any way connected with Tenant’s failure to comply with Titles I and III of the ADA as required above.

(c) Statement Required under California Civil Code § 1938. The Premises has not undergone inspection by a Certified Access Specialist and the Premises has not been determined to meet all applicable construction-related accessibility standards pursuant to California Civil Code § 55.53. Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Lease, Landlord shall have no liability or responsibility to make any repairs or modifications to the Premises or the Project in order to comply with accessibility standards. Landlord hereby discloses pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1938 as follows: “A Certified Access Specialist (“CASp”) can inspect the subject premises and determine whether the subject premises comply with all of the applicable construction-related accessibility standards under state law. Although state law does not require a CASp inspection of the subject premises, the commercial property owner or lessor may not prohibit the lessee or tenant from obtaining a CASp inspection of the subject premises for the occupancy or potential occupancy of the lessee or tenant, if requested by the lessee or tenant. The parties shall mutually agree on the arrangements for the time and manner of the CASp inspection, the payment of the fee for the CASp inspection, and the cost of making any repairs to correct violations of the construction-related accessibility standards within the premises.” Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge and agree that in the event that Tenant elects to perform a CASp inspection of all or any portion of the Premises hereunder (the “Inspection”), such Inspection shall be (a) performed at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, (b) limited to the Premises. and the Common Areas of the Building and the portion of the Land on which the Building is located, and (c) performed by a CASp who has been approved or designated by Landlord prior to the Inspection. Any Inspection must be performed in a manner which minimizes the disruption of business activities in the Project, and at a time reasonably approved by Landlord. Landlord reserves the right to be present during the Inspection. Tenant agrees to: (i) promptly provide to Landlord a copy of the report or certification prepared by the CASp inspector upon request (the “Report”) and (ii) keep the information contained in the Report confidential, except to the extent required by applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements or to the extent disclosure is needed in order to complete any necessary modifications or improvements required to comply with all applicable accessibility standards under the ADA or other state or federal laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements as well as any other repairs, upgrades, improvements, modifications or alterations required by the Report or that may be otherwise required to comply with accessibility requirements, the ADA or other applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements (the “Access Improvements”). As part of the Tenant ADA Responsibility, if governmentally required, Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of Access Improvements to the Premises necessary to correct any such violations of construction-related accessibility standards identified by such Inspection as required by the ADA or other applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements, which Access Improvements may, at Landlord’s option, be performed in whole or in part by Landlord at Tenant’s expense, payable as Additional Rent within thirty (30) days following Landlord’s demand; provided, however, nothing in this Section 9.3(c) shall be construed to make Landlord responsible under this Lease for performing, or paying the cost of, any Access Improvements that are identified by any such Inspection with respect to the Premises, the Building or the Project, unless Landlord is otherwise obligated to perform, or pay for, such Access Improvements under Section 9.3(a) or other provisions of this Lease.

X. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

10.1 Landlord’s Consent.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 10.4 and 10.5, Tenant shall not assign, transfer, mortgage or otherwise encumber this Lease or sublet or rent (or permit a third party to occupy or use) the Premises, or any part thereof, nor shall any assignment or transfer of this Lease or the right of occupancy hereunder be effected by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, except as provided otherwise in this Section 10.1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.1, Landlord may withhold consent in its sole discretion to any sublease, or other occupancy by a third party, of a portion Premises that comprises less than an entire floor, unless such portion of a floor is located in the First Floor Premises. Subject to the terms of Sections 10.4 and 10.5. A transfer at any one time or from time to time of a majority interest in Tenant (whether stock, partnership interest or other form of ownership or control) shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Lease, unless at the time of such transfer Tenant is an entity whose outstanding stock is listed on a recognized security exchange. Within 10 business days following Landlord’s receipt of Tenant’s request for Landlord’s consent to a proposed assignment, sublease, or other encumbrance, together with all information required to be delivered by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Section 10.1, Landlord shall: (i) consent to such proposed transaction; (ii) refuse such consent with a statement of the reasons for such refusal; or (iii) elect to terminate this Lease in the event of an assignment, or in the case of a sublease, terminate this Lease as to the portion of the Premises proposed to be sublet in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.2.

If Landlord fails to timely deliver to Tenant notice of Landlord’s consent, refusal or election to terminate with respect to a proposed assignment or sublease, Tenant may send a second (2nd) notice (“2nd Notice of Proposed Transfer”) to Landlord, which notice must contain the following inscription, in bold faced lettering: “SECOND NOTICE DELIVERED PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH 10.1 OF LEASE - FAILURE TO TIMELY RESPOND WITHIN FIVE (5) BUSINESS DAYS SHALL RESULT IN DEEMED CONSENT TO ASSIGNMENT OR SUBLEASE.” If Landlord fails to deliver notice of Landlord’s consent, refusal or election to terminate with respect to a proposed transfer described in Tenant’s 2nd Notice of Proposed Transfer within five (5) business days after receipt of such 2nd Notice of Proposed Transfer, Landlord shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed transfer described in the 2nd Notice of Proposed Transfer. Any assignment, sublease or other encumbrance without Landlord’s written consent or deemed consent shall be voidable by Landlord and, at Landlord’s election, constitute an Event of Default hereunder. Without limiting other instances in which Landlord may reasonably withhold consent to an assignment or sublease, Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that it shall be reasonable for Landlord to withhold consent (a) if an Event of Default exists under this Lease or if an Event of Default would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided under Section 20.1; or (b) if the proposed assignee or sublessee is: a governmental entity; a person or entity with whom Landlord has negotiated for space in the Project during the prior three months and for whom Landlord has space available to meet their needs; a present tenant in the Project; a person or entity whose tenancy in the Project would not be a Permitted Use or would violate any exclusivity arrangement which Landlord has with any other tenant; a person or entity of a character or reputation or engaged in a business which is not consistent with the quality of the Project; or not a party of reasonable financial worth and/or financial stability in light of the responsibilities involved under this Lease on the date consent is requested, but taking into account the financial condition of Tenant if and to the extent that Tenant continues to be liable for the obligations under this Lease. If Tenant requests Landlord’s consent to a specific assignment or subletting, Tenant will submit in writing to Landlord: (1) the name and address of the proposed assignee or subtenant; (2) a counterpart of the proposed agreement of assignment or sublease; (3) reasonably satisfactory information as to the nature and character of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant, and as to the nature of its proposed use of the space; (4) banking, financial or other credit information reasonably sufficient to enable Landlord to determine the financial responsibility and character of the proposed assignee or subtenant; (5) executed estoppel certificates from Tenant containing such information as provided in Section 24.4; and (6) any other information reasonably requested by Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if Tenant claims that Landlord has unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed its consent under this Section 10.1, Tenant’s sole remedies shall be a declaratory judgment and an injunction for the relief sought and Tenant hereby waives all other remedies, including, without limitation, any right at law or equity to obtain damages or terminate this Lease, whether under California Civil Code Section 1995.310 or otherwise.
(b) Notwithstanding that the prior express written permission of Landlord to any of the aforesaid transactions may have been obtained, the following shall apply:

(i) In the event of an assignment, contemporaneously with the granting of Landlord’s aforesaid consent, Tenant shall cause the assignee to expressly assume in writing and agree to perform all of the covenants, duties, and obligations of Tenant hereunder and such assignee shall be jointly and severally liable therefor along with Tenant.

(ii) All terms and provisions of this Lease shall continue to apply after any such transaction.

(iii) In any case where Landlord consents to an assignment, transfer, encumbrance or subletting, the undersigned Tenant and any Guarantor shall nevertheless remain directly and primarily liable for the performance of all of the covenants, duties, and obligations of Tenant hereunder (including, without limitation, the obligation to pay all Rent and other sums herein provided to be paid), and Landlord shall be permitted to enforce the provisions of this instrument against the undersigned Tenant, any Guarantor and/or any assignee without demand upon or proceeding in any way against any other person. Neither the consent by Landlord to any assignment, transfer, encumbrance or subletting nor the collection or acceptance by Landlord of rent from any assignee, subtenant or occupant shall be construed as a waiver or release of the initial Tenant or any Guarantor from the terms and conditions of this Lease or relieve Tenant or any subtenant, assignee or other party from obtaining the consent in writing of Landlord to any further assignment, transfer, encumbrance or subletting.

(iv) Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord the rent and other sums due from any subtenant, assignee or other occupant of the Premises and hereby authorizes and directs each such subtenant, assignee or other occupant to pay such rent or other sums directly to Landlord; provided however, that until the occurrence of an Event of Default, Tenant shall have the license to continue collecting such rent and other sums. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the rent due and payable by a sublessee under any such permitted sublease (or a combination of the rent payable under such sublease plus any bonus or other consideration therefor or incident thereto) exceeds the hereinabove provided Rent payable under this Lease, or if with respect to a permitted assignment, permitted license, or other transfer by Tenant permitted by Landlord, the consideration payable to Tenant by the assignee, licensee, or other transferee exceeds the Rent payable under this Lease, then Tenant shall be bound and obligated to pay Landlord, in accordance with Section 10.3, the Net Profits (as defined in Section 10.3) and any other excess consideration within 10 days following receipt thereof by Tenant from such sublessee, assignee, licensee, or other transferee, as the case may be.

(v) Tenant shall pay Landlord a fee in the amount of $3,000.00 to reimburse Landlord for its legal and administrative expenses under this Article X, in connection with any review of, and Landlord’s consent to, any sublease, assignment or deemed assignment made under this Article X, regardless of whether Landlord’s consent is required under this Article X and whether Landlord consents to such request.

10.2 Landlord’s Option to Recapture Premises. Subject to Sections 10.4 and 10.5, if Tenant proposes to assign this Lease, Landlord may, at its option, upon written notice to Tenant given within 10 business days after its receipt of Tenant’s notice of proposed assignment, together with all other necessary information, elect to recapture the Premises and terminate this Lease. If Tenant proposes to sublease for the entire remainder of the Term the entire First Floor Premises, the entire Fifth Floor Premises, the entire Sixth Floor Premises, or any combination thereof, then Landlord may, at its option upon written notice to Tenant given within 10 business days after its receipt of Tenant’s notice of proposed subletting, together with all other necessary information as outlined in Section 10.1, elect to recapture such portion of the Premises as Tenant proposes to sublease and upon such election by Landlord, this Lease shall terminate as to the portion of the Premises recaptured, with such date of termination being the earlier of the proposed date of sublease or assignment or 30 days after Landlord provides notice of recapture to Tenant. If a portion of the Premises is recaptured, the Rent payable under this Lease shall be proportionately reduced based on the square footage of the Rentable Square Feet retained by Tenant and the square footage of the Rentable Square Feet leased by Tenant immediately prior to such recapture and termination, and Landlord and Tenant shall thereupon execute an amendment to this Lease in accordance therewith. Landlord may thereafter, without limitation, lease the recaptured portion of the Premises to the proposed assignee or subtenant without liability to Tenant. Upon any such termination, Landlord and Tenant shall have no further obligations or liabilities to each other under this Lease with respect to the recaptured portion of the Premises, except with respect to obligations or liabilities which accrue or have accrued hereunder as of the date of such termination (in the same manner as if the date of such termination were the date originally fixed for the expiration of the Term).

10.3 Distribution of Net Profits. In the event that Tenant assigns this Lease or sublets all or any portion of the Premises during the Term, Landlord shall receive 50% of any “Net Profits” (as hereinafter defined) and Tenant shall receive 50% of any Net Profits received by Tenant from any such assignment or subletting. The term “Net Profits” as used herein shall mean such portion of the Rent payable by such assignee or subtenant in excess of the Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease (or pro rata portion thereof in the event of a subletting) for the corresponding period, after deducting from such excess Rent all of Tenant’s documented reasonable third party costs associated with such assignment or subletting, including, without limitation, broker commissions, attorney fees, any costs incurred by Tenant to prepare or alter the Premises, or portion thereof, for the assignee or sublessee and any free rent periods, reduced rent periods, improvements allowances, moving allowances or other market economic concessions granted by Tenant in the applicable assignment or sublease.

10.4 Transfers to Related Entities. Notwithstanding anything in this Article X to the contrary, provided no Event of Default exists under this Lease or would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided for under Section 20.1, Tenant may, without Landlord’s consent, but after providing written notice to Landlord and subject to the provisions of Section 10.1(b)(i-v), assign this Lease or sublet all or any portion of the Premises to any Related Entity (as hereinafter defined) provided that (a) such Related Entity is not a governmental entity or agency; (b) such Related Entity’s use of the Premises would not cause Landlord to be in violation of any exclusivity agreement within the Project; and (c) with respect to an assignment of this Lease to a Related Entity, such Related Entity as of the date of such assignment meets or exceeds the Minimum Credit Standards (as defined in Section 10.6) and proof satisfactory to Landlord that such Minimum Credit Standards have been met shall be delivered to Landlord at least 10 days prior to the effective date of any such transfer. “Related Entity” shall be defined as (i) any parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or related corporate entity of Tenant that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Tenant or (ii) the assignee of Tenant’s interest under this Lease as part of the sale of all or substantially all of Tenant’s assets to such assignee in one or more transactions.
10.5 Transfers of Ownership. Notwithstanding anything in this Article X to the contrary, unless an Event of Default exists under this Lease or Landlord has delivered notice to Tenant of a default and an Event of Default would exist if such default remains uncured after the pendency of any cure periods provided for under Section 20.1, Tenant may, without Landlord’s consent, but after providing at least 10 days’ prior notice to Landlord and subject to the provisions of Section 10.1(b)(i-iii) and (v), transfer a majority interest in Tenant in one or more transactions in connection with a merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of the equity interests in Tenant, or reorganization (“Ownership Transfer”) (as long as such transfer is not used solely to circumvent the obligation to obtain Landlord’s consent pursuant to this Article X), provided that the Tenant after each such Ownership Transfer meets or exceeds the Minimum Credit Standards and proof reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such Minimum Credit Standards have been met shall have been delivered to Landlord at least 10 days prior to the effective date of any such transaction.

10.6 Minimum Credit Standards. As used in this Lease, the “Minimum Credit Standards” mean the Tenant or Related Entity, as applicable based upon the provision to which the requirement applies, (a) has annual earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization as adjusted consistent with Tenant’s then existing credit agreement (“EBITDA”) in excess of $600,000,000; and (b) either (i) has a credit rating of “B” or greater issued by Standard & Poor’s Financial Services LLC ("S&P") or if S&P ceases issuing credit ratings, then an equivalent credit rating issued by a nationally recognized credit rating firm reasonably acceptable to Landlord; or (ii) has a credit rating of “B2” or greater issued by Moody’s Investors Service ("Moody’s") or if Moody’s ceases issuing credit ratings, then an equivalent credit rating issued by a nationally recognized credit rating firm reasonably acceptable to Landlord; provided, however, if such credit rating is not available as required in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) because the then Tenant or the Related Entity, as applicable, has not issued debt, then Tenant or the Related Entity, as applicable (A) has tangible assets (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles exclusive of goodwill) greater than or equal to $900,000,000; and (B) has a tangible net worth (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles exclusive of goodwill) greater than or equal to $900,000,000; and (B) has a tangible net worth (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles exclusive of goodwill) greater than or equal to $1.00.

XI. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

11.1 Landlord’s Obligation. Landlord will cause to be maintained, repaired and restored in reasonably good order and condition (i) the Common Area, including, without limitation, the Parking Facilities serving the Building, landscaping, walkways and exterior lighting; (ii) the mechanical, plumbing, electrical and HVAC equipment serving the Building; (iii) the structure of the Building (including roof, exterior walls and foundation); (iv) exterior windows of the Building; and (v) Building standard lighting, except for Lightning Maintenance, which is governed by Section 11.2. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.2, Section 9.2, Section 9.3, or Section 11.2, the cost of such maintenance, repairs, replacements and restorations shall be included in the Operating Expenses and paid by Tenant as provided in Article VI; provided, however, subject to the waivers in Section 15.5, Tenant shall bear the full cost, plus 5% of such cost for Landlord’s overhead, of any maintenance, repair, replacements or restoration to the extent necessitated by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its Agents’ or that is necessitated in connection with the Dog Visitation Policy (as defined in Exhibit C-1), including, without limitation, carpet cleaning, excrement removal, painting, wall repair, floor care and landscape. repair and replacement. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord shall not be obligated to provide any of the services that Tenant is responsible for providing under Section 16.1. Tenant waives all rights to make repairs at the expense of Landlord, to deduct the cost of such repairs from any payment owed to Landlord under this Lease or to vacate the Premises or terminate this Lease whether under California Civil Code Section 1942 or any other law. Tenant further waives the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1932 with respect to Landlord’s obligations under this Lease.

11.2 Tenant’s Obligation. Subject to Landlord’s express obligations set forth in Section 11.1, Tenant, at its expense, shall maintain the Premises in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and casualty governed by the provisions of Article XIX excepted. Tenant’s obligation shall include without limitation the obligation to provide in a first-class manner consistent with the first-class nature of the Building and Project (i) janitorial services and pest control for the Premises using contractors approved by Landlord pursuant to service contracts approved by Landlord and (ii) maintain, repair and replace all (A) interior windows and walls; (B) floor coverings; (C) ceilings; (D) doors; (E) entrances to the Premises; (F) supplemental HVAC systems within or serving the Premises, including, without limitation, any Rooftop Installations (as defined in Section 16.7); (G) private restrooms and kitchens, including hot water heaters, plumbing and similar facilities serving Tenant exclusively; and (H) all light bulbs, lamps, starters and ballasts for lighting fixtures within the Premises (“Lighting Maintenance”) using contractors approved by Landlord pursuant to service contracts approved by Landlord; provided that, Landlord shall have the right to contract directly, subject to reimbursement by Tenant of the associated cost and expense as provided in Section 16.4, for such Lighting Maintenance. Landlord may establish reasonable measures to conserve energy and water. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Premises for compliance with this Section 11.2(a) in accordance with Article XIV and to require Tenant to provide additional cleaning, if necessary. Tenant will promptly advise Landlord of any damage to the Premises. All damage or injury to the Premises (excluding Tenant’s equipment, personal property and trade fixtures) may be repaired, restored or replaced by Landlord, at the expense of Tenant, and such expense (plus 10% of such expense for Landlord’s overhead) will be collectible as Additional Rent and will be paid by Tenant upon demand. If Tenant fails to provide or perform any of the services or maintenance required to be provided or performed by Tenant for more than five (5) business days after notice from Landlord or if Tenant fails to make any repairs to the Premises for more than 30 days after notice from Landlord (although notice shall not be required in the event of an emergency as defined in Article XIV), Landlord may, at its option, cause all required services, maintenance, repairs, restorations or replacements to be made and Tenant shall pay Landlord pursuant to this Section 11.2(a).

XII. INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: ALTERATIONS

12.1 Initial Construction. Landlord and Tenant agree that the construction of any “Tenant Work” shall be performed by Tenant in accordance with and as defined in Exhibit B-1. Subject to the funding the Tenant Work Allowance (as defined in Exhibit B-1) for the construction of the Tenant Work, Landlord shall have no obligations whatsoever to construct any improvements to the Premises and Tenant accepts the Premises “AS IS”, “WHERE IS” and “WITH ANY AND ALL FAULTS”, and Landlord neither makes nor has made any representations or warranties, express or implied, with respect to the quality, suitability or fitness thereof of the Premises, or the condition or repair thereof. Tenant taking possession of the Premises shall be conclusive evidence for all purposes of Tenant’s acceptance of the Premises in good order and satisfactory condition, and in a state and condition satisfactory, acceptable and suitable for Tenant’s use pursuant to this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall deliver all structural elements and subsystems of the Premises, including but not limited to the HVAC, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems serving the Premises, in good working condition and repair as of the Date of Lease and Landlord will be responsible, without cost to Tenant, to repair any latent structural or design defects in, the curtain wall, windows and window framing, interior structural framing, foundation, roof, HVAC systems, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems occurring or discovered prior to the later of the date that is 12 months after the Date of Lease and the date of expiration of any applicable warranty therefor; provided that Tenant delivers notice to Landlord thereof prior to the later of the date that is 12 months after Date of Lease and date of expiration of any applicable warranty therefor.

12.2 Installing and Operating Tenant’s Equipment. Without first obtaining the written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, Tenant shall not install or operate in the Premises (i) any electrically operated equipment or other machinery, other than standard office equipment that does not require wiring, cooling or other service in excess of Building standards; (ii) any equipment of any kind or nature whatsoever which will require any changes, replacements or additions to, or changes in the use of, any water, heating, plumbing, air conditioning or electrical system of the Premises or the Project; or (iii) any equipment which exceeds the electrical or floor load capacity per square foot for the Building. Landlord’s consent to such installation or operation may be conditioned upon the payment by Tenant of additional compensation for any excess consumption of utilities and any additional power, wiring, cooling or other service that may result from such equipment.
Machines and equipment which cause noise or vibration that may be transmitted to the structure of the Building or to any space therein so as to be objectionable to Landlord or any other Project tenant shall be installed and maintained by Tenant, at its expense, on vibration eliminators or other devices sufficient to eliminate such noise and vibration. Tenant and Tenant’s telecommunications companies, including but not limited to, local exchange telecommunications companies and alternative access vendor services companies, shall have no right of access to the Land, Building or the Project for the installation and operation of telecommunications systems, including but not limited to, voice, video, data, and any other telecommunications services provided over wire, fiber optic, microwave, wireless, and any other transmission systems, for part or all of Tenant’s telecommunications within the Building without Landlord’s prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

12.3 Alterations. Other than Minor Changes (as defined in this Section 12.3), Tenant shall not make or permit any alterations, decorations, additions or improvements of any kind or nature to the Premises or the Project, whether structural or nonstructural, interior, exterior or otherwise ("Alterations") without the prior written consent of Landlord, said consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Other than for Minor Changes, Landlord may impose any reasonable conditions to its consent, including, without limitation: (i) prior approval of the plans and specifications and contractor(s) with respect to the Alterations (provided that Landlord may designate specific contractors with respect to Building systems); (ii) supervision by Landlord’s representative, at Tenant’s expense, of the Alterations; (iii) proof of worker’s compensation insurance and commercial general liability insurance in such amounts and meeting such requirements as reasonably requested by Landlord; (iv) delivery to Landlord of written and unconditional waivers of mechanic’s and materialmen’s liens as to the Project for all work, labor and services to be performed and materials to be furnished, signed by all contractors, subcontractors, materialmen and laborers participating in the Alterations; (v) delivery of permits, certificates of occupancy, “as-built” plans, and equipment manuals; and (vi) any security for performance or payment that is reasonably required by Landlord. The Alterations shall conform to Landlord’s Specifications (as defined in Exhibit B-1) and set forth in Exhibit B-3 attached hereto and made a part hereof and the requirements of federal, state and local governments having jurisdiction over the Premises, including, without limitation, the ADA, the California ADA, the OSHA General Industry Standard (29 C.F.R. Section 1910.1001, et seq.), and the OSHA Construction Standard (29 C.F.R. Section 1926.1001, et seq.) and shall be performed in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease and all warranties in effect and in a good and workmanlike manner using material of a quality that is at least equal to the quality designated by Landlord as the minimum standard for the Building. Any deviations from Landlord’s Specifications with respect to Alterations and any Alterations comprised of light fixtures, entry doors, interior doors, HVAC diffusers or demountable walls shall be subject to Landlord’s approval in its sole discretion. Provided that Tenant gives Landlord notice of each proposed Alteration at least five (5) business days prior to commencing such Alteration and complies with all of the provisions of this Section 12.3, Tenant shall not be required to obtain Landlord’s consent for Alterations that meet the following requirements (“Minor Changes”): (a) do not affect the other tenants of the Building, any of the Building’s mechanical, electrical, plumbing, HVAC or fire, life safety systems or the roof, foundations, exterior walls or structural portions of the Building, (b) are not visible from the Common Areas or the exterior of the Building, (c) do not affect the architectural or structural integrity of the Building, including, without limitation, the water tight character of the Building or its roof, (d) do not require a building permit, (e) do not move any interior walls or otherwise change the layout of the Building, (f) the Alteration, together with any other Alterations, does not exceed a cost of $250,000 in any one Calendar Year (provided that Tenant shall not perform such Alterations in stages in order to subvert this provision), (g) do not materially or negatively impact the future marketability of the Building or increase the Building’s assessed value for tax purposes; (h) do not require any other alteration, addition, or improvement to be performed in or made to any other portion of the Project other than the Premises and (i) do not include deviations from the Specifications or any light fixtures, entry doors, interior doors, HVAC diffusers or demountable walls. All computer, telecommunications or other cabling, wiring and associated appurtenances (collectively, “Cabling”) installed by Tenant inside any of the interior walls of the Premises, above the ceiling of the Premises, in any portion of the ceiling plenum above or below the Premises, or in any portion of the Common Areas of the Project, including but not limited to any of the shafts or utility rooms of the Building, shall be clearly labeled or otherwise identified as having been installed by Tenant. All Cabling installed by Tenant shall comply with the requirements of the National Electric Code and any other applicable fire and safety codes. Landlord may designate reasonable rules, regulations and procedures for the performance of work in the Building and, to the extent reasonably necessary to avoid disruption to the occupants of the Project, shall have the right to designate the time when Alterations may be performed. If the Alterations are not performed as herein required, Landlord shall have the right, at Landlord’s option, to halt any further Alterations, or to require Tenant to perform the Alterations as herein required or to require Tenant to return the Premises to its condition before such Alterations. All or any part of the Alterations, whether made with or without the consent of Landlord, shall, at the election of Landlord, either be removed by Tenant at its expense before the expiration of the Term or shall remain upon the Premises and be surrendered therewith at the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease as the property of Landlord without disturbance, molestation or injury; provided, Tenant shall remove all Cabling installed by Tenant anywhere in the Premises, the Building or the Project to the point of the origin of such Cabling, unless Landlord consents, in its sole discretion, to a request by Tenant not to remove such Cabling. If requested by Tenant, Landlord’s election shall be made at the time Landlord approves installation of such Alterations or if the Alterations are Minor Changes, then Landlord shall make such election within 30 days after Tenant’s notice of the Minor Changes if requested by Tenant at the time that Tenant provided notice of its intention to install such Minor Changes. Landlord will not unreasonably require removal of Alterations at the end of the Term such as by requiring removal of Alterations that are not specialized to Tenant’s use of the Building, do not materially and negatively impact the Building’s structure or systems or the future marketability of the Building are not visible from the Common Areas or the exterior of the Building and are consistent with use of the Premises as a class A office building. If Landlord requires the removal of all or part of the Alterations, Tenant, at its expense, shall repair any damage to the Premises or the Project caused by such removal and restore the Premises and the Project to its condition prior to the construction of such Alterations, reasonable wear and tear excepted. If Tenant fails to remove the Alterations upon Landlord’s request and repair and restore the Premises and Project, then Landlord may (but shall not be obligated to) remove, repair and restore the same and the cost of such removal, repair and restoration together with any and all damages which Landlord may suffer and sustain by reason of the failure of Tenant to remove, repair and restore the same, shall be charged to Tenant and paid upon demand. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may remove any trade fixtures, business equipment, personal property and furniture and Tenant repairs any damage to the Premises resulting from the removal of such items and restores the Premises to its condition prior to the installation of such items, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

12.4 Mechanics’ Liens. Tenant will pay or cause to be paid all costs and charges for: (i) work done by Tenant or caused to be done by Tenant, in or to the Premises; and (ii) materials furnished for or in connection with such work. Tenant will indemnify Landlord against and hold Landlord, the Premises, and the Project free, clear and harmless from and against, all mechanics’ and materialmen’s stop notices, liens and claims of liens (collectively, “Liens”), and all other liabilities, liens, claims, and demands on account of such work by or on behalf of Tenant. If any such Lien, at any time, is filed against the Premises, or any part of the Project, Tenant will cause such Lien to be discharged of record within 30 days after the date Tenant receives notice of the filing of such Lien, either by resolving the matter and causing a release to be recorded in the Official Records of the County in which the Project is located, or by recording a mechanic’s lien release bond in accordance with the provisions of Civil Code Section 8424. If Tenant fails to timely cause the Lien to be removed as described above, Landlord may, at its option, pay to the claimant all amounts necessary to discharge the Lien, regardless of the validity or enforceability of the claim, together with any related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with attorneys’ fees incurred in connection with such Lien, will be immediately due from Tenant to Landlord as Additional Rent. Nothing contained in this Lease will be deemed the consent or agreement of Landlord to subject Landlord’s interest in all or any portion of the Project to liability under any Lien or to any other lien law. If Tenant receives notice that a Lien has been or is about to be filed against the Premises or any part of the Project, or that any action affecting title to the Project has been commenced to enforce a Lien or otherwise on account of work done by or for or materials furnished to or for Tenant, it will immediately give Landlord written notice. of such notice. At least 15 days prior to the commencement of any work (including, but not limited to, any maintenance, repairs or Alterations) in or to the Premises, by or for Tenant or any party claiming through Tenant, Tenant will give Landlord written notice of the proposed work and the names and addresses of the persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed work. Landlord will have the right to post notices of non-responsibility or similar notices, if applicable, on the Premises or in the public records in order to protect the Premises and Project against such Liens.

XIII. SIGNS

Except as expressly provided for in this Article XIII, no sign, advertisement or notice shall be inscribed, painted, affixed, placed or otherwise displayed by Tenant on any part of the Project or the outside or the inside of the Building or the Premises (to the extent visible from the exterior of the Premises or the Building). Landlord shall provide, at Tenant’s expense, a listing on the directory in the lobby of the Building listing all Building tenants. Landlord also shall, at Tenant’s expense, place the suite number and/or Tenant name on or in the immediate vicinity of the entry door to the First Floor Premises using Building standard sign material and lettering. Landlord shall, at Tenant’s expense, (a) place nonexclusive signage (“Project Monument Signage”) on the future monument sign of the Project (the “Project Monument Sign”) at the bottom position on Project Monument Sign or the fourth (4th) position from the top on the Project Monument Sign, whichever is higher, subject to approval by the City of San Jose; and (b) place non-exclusive signage (“Building Monument Signage”) on the existing monument sign (“Building Monument Sign”) adjacent to the Building at an available right top position. Tenant shall, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, and subject to the terms of this Article XIII, have the nonexclusive right to display exterior building top signage in the one (1) location on the Building exterior (“Building Signage”) identified on Exhibit H-1 attached hereto and incorporated herein. Tenant’s right to display the Building Signage is further conditioned on Tenant’s installation and maintenance of such Building Signage in a good and workmanlike manner by contractors approved by Landlord and otherwise in accordance with the same terms that apply to Alterations. All Project Monument Signage, Building Monument Signage and Building Signage (collectively, the “Tenant Signage”) shall contain only the name and logo of MCAFEE, LLC (unless Landlord grants consent to another name and logo, in its sole discretion) and shall be subject to Landlord’s approval, in its sole discretion, as to consistency in appearance with other tenant signage on the Project Monument Sign, Building Monument Sign and the Other Buildings, location, lettering, design, material, size, lighting, logo and color scheme prior to fabrication and installation; provided that Landlord has approved the representative lettering, design, material, size, lighting, logo and color scheme shown for the Building Signage on Exhibit H-2 attached hereto. Accordingly, Tenant shall submit a signage plan to Landlord detailing the design and specifications of all such Tenant Signage. In no event shall any Tenant Signage displayed by Tenant interfere with the visibility of the Building or the Other Buildings. All Tenant Signage must conform to all applicable recorded covenants, conditions and restrictions, zoning and other applicable laws, ordinances and governmental requirements, and the Project’s design signage and graphics program, including, without limitation the Exterior Master Sign Program approved by the City of San Jose attached as Exhibit H and incorporated herein, and Tenant shall obtain all required approvals of third parties, if any. Landlord shall be responsible for the maintenance of the Project Monument Signage, Building Monument Signage, the Project Monument Sign and the Building Monument Sign in good condition and repair; provided that Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Tenant’s pro rata share of the costs and expenses associated with such maintenance of (i) the Project Monument Signage and the Project Monument Sign, which pro rata share shall be the percentage amount equal to the number of square feet of area on the Project Monument Sign that is occupied by the Project Monument Signage divided by the total number of square feet of area on the Project Monument Sign then occupied by monument signage displaying the names of any occupants of the Project and multiplying the resulting quotient by one hundred and rounding to the second decimal place; and (ii) the Building Monument Signage and the Building Monument Sign, which pro rata share shall be the percentage amount equal to the number of square feet of area on the Building Monument Sign that is occupied by the Building Monument Signage divided by the total number of square feet of area on the Building Monument Sign then occupied by monument signage displaying the names of any occupants of the Building and multiplying the resulting quotient by one hundred and rounding to the second decimal place. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease or the occurrence of a Signage Revocation Condition (as defined in this Article XIII), Landlord shall have the right to remove, at Landlord’s option, the Tenant Signage, and repair the affected portions of the Project Monument Sign, Building Monument Sign and Building, as applicable, to the condition as it existed prior to installation of the Tenant Signage, reasonable wear and tear and casualty damage excepted, all at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, for which Tenant shall reimburse Landlord the cost and expense incurred for the same upon demand. Tenant’s right to display the Tenant Signage under this Article XIII shall be personal to MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and either a Related Entity to whom this Lease is assigned in accordance with Section 10.4 or an assignee to whom this Lease is assigned pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Article XIII without consent of Landlord provided, however, that if Landlord grants its consent to Tenant’s Signage Assignment (as defined in this Article XII), which may be withheld in Landlord’s sole discretion, MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company may assign its rights to the Tenant Signage under this Article XIII (“Tenant’s Signage Assignment”) to its assignee of this Lease or its subtenant of the entire Premises pursuant to an assignment or sublease, as applicable, made with Landlord’s consent in accordance with Section 10.1 (“Permitted Transferee”). As used in this Article XIII, a “Signage Revocation Condition” means one or more of the following: (i) Landlord terminates this Lease or Tenant’s right to possession of the Premises upon the occurrence of an Event of Default; (ii) the entire Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises ceases to be occupied by MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, or its Related Entity pursuant to an assignment or sublease made in accordance with Section 10.4; (iii) Tenant terminates this Lease prior to the Expiration Date; or (iv) MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company assigns this Lease or sublets any portion of the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises other than to its Related Entity pursuant to an assignment or sublease made in accordance with Section 10.4 or its assignee pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Article XIII. If any prohibited sign, advertisement or notice is nevertheless exhibited by Tenant, Landlord shall have the right to remove the same, and Tenant shall pay upon demand any and all expenses incurred by Landlord in such removal, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the demand date.

XIV. RIGHT OF ENTRY

Tenant shall permit Landlord or its Agents to enter the Premises without charge therefor to Landlord and without diminution of Rent or claim of constructive eviction: (i) to clean, inspect and protect the Premises and the Project and to satisfy Landlord’s obligations under this Lease, the Declaration or applicable laws, ordinances or governmental requirements; (ii) to make such alterations and repairs to the Premises or any portion of the Building, including other tenants’ premises, which Landlord determines to be reasonably necessary; (iii) to exhibit the same to prospective purchaser(s) of the Building or the Project or to present or future Mortgagees; or (iv) to exhibit the same to prospective tenants during the last 12 months of the Term. Landlord will endeavor to minimize, as reasonably practicable, any interference with Tenant’s business and shall provide Tenant with at least 24 hours’ prior notice of entry into the Premises (which may be given verbally or by e-mail), except in the event of an apparent emergency condition arising within or affecting the Premises that endangers or threatens to endanger property or the safety of individuals (an “Emergency”). Except in the case of Emergency, as a condition to Landlord’s entry into the Premises: (i) Tenant shall have the right to have a representative of Tenant accompany Landlord or its Agents on any entry into the Premises, if such representative is reasonably made available to Landlord; (ii) Landlord and its Agents shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant’s commercially reasonable security protocols in connection with entry into the Premises, so long as the same have been delivered to Landlord in writing prior to such entry and so long as any such protocols that are ongoing and capable of remaining in place for future entry do not have to be repeated in connection with Landlord’s subsequent entry; and (iii) Tenant may limit Landlord and its Agents from accessing sensitive or secured areas of the Premises reasonably designated as to size and location in advance by Tenant, unless such limitation would prevent Landlord from satisfying its obligations under this Lease, the Declaration or applicable laws, ordinances or governmental requirements.

XV. INSURANCE

15.1 Certain Insurance Risks. 15.2 Landlord’s Insurance. At all times during the Term, Landlord will carry and maintain with reputable insurers:

(c) Such other insurance as Landlord reasonably determines from time to time but generally consistent with the types and amounts of insurance carried by prudent owners of comparable buildings in the San Jose, California area.

All such insurance will be on an occurrence ISO form including without limitation, bodily injury, property damage, personal injury, advertising injury, products and completed operations liability, contractual liability coverage for the performance by Tenant of the indemnity agreements set forth in this Lease and must include coverage for any claims arising from any dogs brought onto the Project by any of Tenant’s Agents;

(g) All insurance required under this Section 15.3 shall be issued by such good and reputable insurance companies qualified to do and doing business in the state in which the Premises are located and having a policyholder rating of not less than “A” and a financial rating of “VIII” in the most current copy of Best’s Insurance Report in the form customary to this locality.

15.4 Forms of the Policies. Landlord and its affiliates, Landlord’s management company, Landlord’s Mortgagee (as defined in Article XXI), and such other parties as Landlord shall designate to Tenant who have an insurable interest in the Premises or Project shall: (i) be named as additional insureds with respect to the coverages provided for under Section 15.3(a), (d) and (e), (ii) have waiver of subrogation rights with respect to the coverages provided for under Section 15.3 (a), (c), (d) and (e), and (ii) be named as loss payees as their interest may appear with respect to the coverage provided under Section 15.3 (b). All commercial general liability and property policies (including any umbrella policies in excess of such policies) herein required to be maintained by Tenant will be written as primary policies, not contributing with and not supplemental to the coverage that Landlord may carry. Commercial general liability insurance required to be maintained by Tenant by this Article XV will not be subject to a deductible or any self-insured retention in excess of $1,000,000.00.

15.5 Waiver of Subrogation. Landlord and Tenant each releases, discharges and waives and shall cause their respective insurance carriers to waive any and all rights to recover against the other or against the Agents of such other party and, in the case of Tenant’s waiver, Landlord’s affiliates, management company, and Mortgagee, for any loss or damage to such waiving party (including deductible amounts and self-insured retention) arising from any cause covered by any property insurance required to be carried by such party pursuant to this Article XV or any other property insurance actually carried by such party to the extent of the limits of such policy. Tenant agrees to cause all other occupants of the Premises claiming by, under or through Tenant, to execute and deliver to Landlord and its affiliates, Landlord’s management company, and Landlord’s Mortgagee such a release, discharge and waiver of claims and to obtain such waiver of subrogation rights endorsements.

15.6 Adequacy of Coverage. Landlord makes no representation that the limits of liability specified to be carried by Tenant pursuant to this Article XV are adequate to protect Tenant and Tenant should obtain such additional insurance or increased liability limits as Tenant deems appropriate. Furthermore, in no way does the insurance required herein limit the liability of Tenant assumed elsewhere in this Lease.

XVI. SERVICES AND UTILITIES

16.1 Ordinary Services to the Premises. Landlord shall furnish to the Premises throughout the Term so long as the Premises are occupied: (i) heating, ventilation, and air conditioning (“HVAC”) appropriate for the Permitted Use during Normal Business Hours (as defined in the Rules and Regulations), except for legal holidays observed by the federal government; (ii) trash removal from the Premises; (iii) reasonable use of all existing basic intra-Building and/or Project telephone and network cabling; (iv) hot and cold water from points of supply; (v) Common Area restrooms; (vi) elevator service, provided that Landlord shall have the right to remove such elevators from service as may reasonably be required for moving freight or for servicing or maintaining the elevators or the Building, provided, further that at all times at least two elevators will be operational and available for use by Tenant; and (vii) proper facilities to furnish sufficient electrical power for Building standard lighting, facsimile machines, personal computers, printers, copiers and other customary business equipment, but not including electricity and air conditioning units required for equipment of Tenant that is in excess of Building standard. The cost of all services provided by Landlord hereunder shall be included within Operating Expenses, unless charged directly (and not as a part of Operating Expenses) to Tenant or another tenant of the Project. Landlord may establish reasonable measures to conserve energy and water.
16.2 Additional Services. Should Tenant desire, or Landlord determine it necessary to provide, any additional services beyond those described in Section 16.1, or a rendition of any of such services outside the normal times for providing such service or in excess of standard services, including, without limitation, excess janitorial or pest control services in connection with Tenant’s exercise of its rights under the Dog Visitation Policy, Landlord may (at Landlord’s option), upon reasonable advance notice from Tenant to Landlord, furnish such services, and Tenant agrees to pay Landlord upon demand Landlord’s additional documented expenses resulting therefrom. Landlord may, from time to time during the Term, set a charge for such additional services, or a per hour charge for additional or after hours service which shall include the utility, service, labor, and administrative costs and a cost for depreciation of the equipment used to provide such additional or after hours service.

16.3 Interruption of Services. Landlord will not be liable to Tenant or any other person for direct or consequential damages (including, without limitation, damages to persons or property or for injury to, or interruption of, business), Tenant shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of rent except as expressly set forth in this Section 16.3, nor shall a constructive eviction exist or shall Tenant be released from any of Tenant’s obligations under this Lease: (i) for any failure to supply any heat, air conditioning, elevator, cleaning, lighting or security or for any surges or interruptions of electricity, telecommunications or other service Landlord has agreed to supply during any period when Landlord uses reasonable diligence to supply such services; (ii) as a result of the admission to or exclusion from the Building or Project of any person; or (iii) for any discontinuance permitted under this Article XVI. Landlord reserves the right temporarily to discontinue the services set forth in the foregoing sentence, or any of them, at such times as may be necessary by reason of accident, repairs, alterations or improvement, strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of God, governmental preemption in connection with a national or local emergency, any rule, order or regulation of any governmental agency, conditions of supply and demand which make any product unavailable, Landlord’s compliance with any mandatory or voluntary governmental energy conservation or environmental protection program, or any other happening beyond the control of Landlord. In the event of invasion, mob, riot, public excitement or other circumstances rendering such action advisable in Landlord’s reasonable opinion, Landlord will have the right to prevent access to the Building or Project during the continuance of the same by such means as Landlord, in its reasonable discretion may deem appropriate, including, without limitation, locking doors and closing Parking Facilities and the Common Areas. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any failure to furnish, or any stoppage of, the specified services set forth in this Section 16.3 for a period in excess of five consecutive days, and if: (a) such interruption is restricted to the Building and is not a neighborhood blackout or caused by an Event of Force Majeure; (b) such failure to furnish or stoppage is caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or by the failure of Landlord to commence and diligently pursue repairs for which Landlord is responsible under this Lease; (c) such interruption results in the Premises, or any portion thereof in excess of 25% of the Rentable Square Feet of the Premises, becoming untenable; and (d) Tenant actually ceases to occupy the Premises, or any untenable portion of the Premises, as a result thereof, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent in proportion to the area rendered untenable and that is unoccupied, which abatement shall commence on the sixth day (and shall not be retroactive) and shall continue for the remainder of the period of such failure to furnish or stoppage of such specified services. As used in this Section 16.3, the specified services are electricity, water, natural gas and sewer service. If Tenant vacates the entire Premises due to such failure to furnish or stoppage of such specified services and more than fifty percent (50%) of the Premises is untenantable in a manner that allows Tenant to abate Rent under this Section 16.3, (1) Tenant will be entitled to deem one hundred percent (100%) of the Premises to be untenantable and (2) if such conditions that permit Rent abatement described in this Section 16.3 for such failure continue for more than two hundred forty (240) consecutive days, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by providing written notice to Landlord, such termination to be effective within five (5) Business Days of delivery of such notice.

16.4 Meters; Lighting Maintenance. The Premises shall be submetered as of the Commencement Date to measure Tenant’s usage of gas and electricity in the Premises. Landlord shall bill to Tenant directly as Additional Rent the charges for submetered gas and electricity usage in the Premises and charges for other Project utilities that Landlord reasonably allocates to Tenant based on such submetered gas and electricity usage. In addition, Landlord reserves the right to perform the Lighting Maintenance and to separately meter or monitor other utility services provided to the Premises, at Tenant’s expense, and bill the charges directly to Tenant, or to separately meter or monitor any other tenant and bill the charges directly to such tenant and to make appropriate adjustments to the Operating Expenses based on the meter charges. Tenant shall pay the charges Landlord bills to Tenant pursuant to this Section 16.4 within 30 days after receipt of Landlord’s invoice.

16.5 Telephone and Other Utility Charges. All telephone and other utility service used by Tenant in the Premises shall be paid for directly by Tenant except to the extent the cost of same is included within Operating Expenses or billed to Tenant pursuant to Article XVI.

16.6 Amenities. Landlord desires to offer certain amenities (“Amenities”), which are available only to the tenants of the Phase II Buildings, subject to the terms of Article II, and as of the Date of Lease include: (a) a café, pub, and barbeque area (as shown as “BBQ” on Exhibit G-3) which are located on the ground floor and patio area of the Amenity Building; (b) a fitness/health club facility, which is located on the second floor of the Amenity Building; (c) a putting green and recreation area, which is located on the roof of the Amenity Building; (d) the Stage, Entertainment Center, Orchard and Gaming Tables located in the Phase II Common Area; and (e) a bike room. Landlord also desires to offer a shuttle service to and from the Project and the Bart, Caltrain and light rail mass transit service locations (“Shuttle Service”), which Shuttle Service may be made available, at Landlord’s option, to other tenants of the Project in addition to the tenants of the Phase II Buildings. Tenant shall have the general and nonexclusive right, together with Landlord, the owner of Building 3 and the other tenants and occupants of the Building and Building 3, to use such Amenities and the Shuttle Service subject to (i) the terms and conditions of this Lease, and (ii) the Rules and Regulations and any rules and regulations that Landlord, the owner of Building 3 and Landlord’s independent operators may impose governing the hours, access to and use of the Amenities; provided, however, if the Shuttle Service is made available to other tenants of the Project, then Tenant shall have the general and nonexclusive right, together with Landlord, the other owners and the other tenants of the Project, to use the Shuttle Service. Landlord reserves the right to delegate the operation of the Shuttle Service and the Amenities to one or more independent operators (each an “Operator”). Landlord agrees that Tenant will be entitled to reserve the Amenity Building roof, the Amenity Building café, the Amenity Building pub, the Entertainment Center, and the Stage (collectively, the “Reservation Amenities” and, each a “Reservation Amenity”) for Tenant’s exclusive use from time to time upon request to Landlord, which request shall set forth the dates, times and reason for such reservation. Landlord shall maintain an electronic calendar that permits Tenant, the tenants of the Building and the tenants of Building 3 to determine the dates available for such reservations and to make such reservations by selecting the available dates and times and entering the Reservation Amenity subject to the reservation and a description of the purpose of the reservation. The Reservation Amenities will be available for reservation on a first-come, first-served basis (except as provided in this Section 16.6), with the following limitations, (A) the reservation of the Amenity Building café or the Amenity Building pub (or both) shall be limited to 3:00 pm - 10:00 pm Monday through Friday, excluding Building holidays; and (B) the reservation of the Amenity Building roof, the Entertainment Center and the Stage shall be limited to 6:00 am - 10:00 pm Monday through Friday, excluding Building holidays and 7:00 am - 10:00 pm on weekends and Building holidays. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant requests a reservation of the Stage, the Entertainment Center, or a Reservation Amenity in the Amenity Building more than 12 times per year, collectively, then such reservation will be subject to the written consent to such reservation by the tenants of the Building and Building 3, which Landlord shall request from such tenants and exercise commercially reasonable efforts to obtain. By reserving a Reservation Amenity, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that (1) Landlord may require that Tenant execute Landlord’s commercially reasonable form of license agreement if Landlord reasonably determines appropriate due to Tenant’s purpose for reserving the Reservation Amenity, (2) Tenant shall be responsible, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, in connection with its use of the Reservation Amenity and for Tenant’s set-up, takedown, security and cleanup, including, without limitation, the removal of all debris, litter, trash, and other materials left by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents in or about such Reservation Amenity, (3) Tenant shall return such Reservation Amenity to its condition immediately prior to Tenant’s use of such Reservation Amenity, (4) Tenant shall pay to Landlord within 30 days after Landlord’s delivery of a reasonably documented invoice for any costs and expenses incurred by Landlord and Landlord’s Agents in connection with Tenant’s failure to comply with the foregoing obligations, including, without limitation, for costs for extra janitorial, trash removal, repairs or maintenance, and (5) if Tenant desires services for food, beverage, valet, recreation, planning, programming, activities or any other purpose in connection with its reservation of any Reservation Amenity, then Tenant shall be responsible for contracting, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, for such services directly with an Operator or a separate reputable vendor approved by Landlord, maintaining all licenses required under applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements for providing such services, and providing proof of worker’s compensation insurance, commercial general liability insurance and any other insurance requested by Landlord in such amounts and meeting such requirements as reasonably requested by Landlord.

16.7 Roof Access. Subject to the terms of this Section 16.7, Tenant may during the Term install as an Alteration in accordance with Section 12.3, operate, maintain and use on the roof of the Building, in connection with Tenant’s use of the Premises supplemental HVAC equipment and associated Cabling and connections (collectively, “Rooftop Installations”). All costs and expenses associated with the design, fabrication, engineering, permitting, installation, screening, maintenance, repair and removal of the Rooftop Installations shall be borne solely by Tenant. Prior to Tenant’s installation of any Rooftop Installations, Tenant and Landlord shall execute a license agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit I ("License Agreement").
Further, as a condition to Tenant’s installation of any Rooftop Installations, Tenant shall comply with Article XII of this Lease in connection with the installation of the Rooftop Installations and perform and complete any work pursuant to the License Agreement (Rooftop Installations) in accordance with Article XII of the Lease and such License Agreement (Generator). Unless and until Landlord and Tenant have executed such License Agreement (Rooftop Installations) or unless otherwise accompanied by Landlord, Tenant shall not have the right to access the roof of the Building. Further, Tenant shall not perform work on, or make any modifications to, the roof of the Building, without Landlord’s prior consent, unless expressly permitted by such License Agreement (Rooftop Installations).

16.8 Emergency Generator. Subject to the terms of this Section 16.8, Tenant may during the Term, install as an Alteration in accordance with Section 12.3, maintain, operate and use an emergency generator and associated equipment, connections and Cabling (collectively, the “Generator Facilities”) for the sole purpose of providing back-up power for the Premises (and not for the use of any other tenant in the Building) during a power outage in the Premises; provided that (a) Landlord and Tenant execute a license agreement (“License Agreement (Generator)”) in substantially the form of the License Agreement (Rooftop Installations), with mutually acceptable modifications consistent with this Section 16.8; (b) Tenant complies with, and performs and completes any work performed pursuant to the License Agreement (Generator) in accordance with the License Agreement (Generator) and this Lease, including, without limitation, Article XII; (c) Tenant pays associated Additional Rent as provided in Section 16.2 of this Lease for any excess electricity use; and (d) such Generator Facilities are installed in the location identified on Exhibit J. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 16.8, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate to agree to modifications to the License Agreement (Rooftop Installations) reasonably requested by the other party and as necessary to take into account the type of Generator Facilities to be installed pursuant to such License Agreement (Generator) and the location thereof; provided that the License Agreement (Generator) shall provide, in any event, that (i) the installation of the Generator Facilities pursuant thereto shall be at Tenant’s sole cost and expense and shall be subject to Landlord’s reasonable approval of plans, specifications, location, method of installation, shielding, type of generator to be installed, manner of placement and manner of connection to the electrical system serving the Premises; (ii) Tenant shall be responsible for restoring and repairing any damage caused by the installation, use, maintenance or removal of such Generator Facilities (or reimbursing Landlord for the cost thereof); and (iii) if the Landlord requires the removal of the Generator Facilities, the Generator Facilities shall be removed by Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, before the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the License in accordance with Section 12.3 and Section 22.1 of this Lease. In addition to Tenant’s obligations under the License Agreement (Generator), Tenant’s rights under this Section 16.8 are conditioned on Tenant’s compliance, at its sole cost and expense, with the following:

(A) Tenant shall maintain, repair, operate, use and remove the Generator Facilities in compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations and with the Rules and Regulations. If governmentally required, Tenant shall file all necessary permits, registrations, plans and documents with the Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”) and appropriate agencies of the State of California in connection with the installation, maintenance, repair, operation, use and removal of the Generator Facilities. Further, Tenant shall comply with any and all applicable rules, regulations and requirements which are imposed by the EPA and such agencies in connection with the installation, maintenance, repair, operation, use and removal of the Generator Facilities.
Tenant shall maintain and repair the Generator Facilities in good working order and condition. Accordingly, Tenant shall enter into and maintain from and after the date of installation of the Generator Facilities and throughout the term of the Lease one or more regularly scheduled preventative maintenance/service contracts, consistent with any applicable manufacturer’s specifications for the Generator Facilities and with one or more maintenance contractors reasonably acceptable to Landlord. Tenant’s service contracts shall include all services recommended by the Generator Facilities manufacturer within any applicable operation/maintenance manual and shall become effective on or before the date of installation of the Generator Facilities. Within five (5) business days after Landlord’s request (or immediately if Tenant is in default under this Section 16.8), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of such service contracts and any renewals or replacements. Alternatively, and subject to Landlord’s prior approval (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Tenant may perform some or all of the services required under the above-described preventative maintenance/service contracts with Tenant’s own qualified maintenance personnel. Tenant will make its records of such work available to Landlord for inspection, with timely and detailed entries in those logs so that the logs at all times accurately reflect, in commercially reasonable detail, the maintenance activity performed with respect to the Generator Facilities. Landlord or its employees and agent’s may inspect and copy such logs at any reasonable time and upon reasonable notice.

Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Generator Facilities upon reasonable prior notice to Tenant in order to verify compliance with this Section 16.8 and the License Agreement (Generator). If such inspections reveal any deviation from the requirements of this Section 16.8 or the License Agreement (Generator), Landlord may, in addition to any other rights and remedies under the Lease, require that Tenant immediately remedy such non-compliance or, if Tenant fails to so remedy such non-compliance, remove the Generator Facilities in accordance with this Section 16.8 and the License Agreement (Generator). Tenant shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to remove in accordance with the requirements of this Section 16.8 or discontinue its use of the Generator Facilities at any time; provided, however, if Tenant discontinues use of the Generator Facilities for more than 30 consecutive days, then Landlord shall have the right to require removal upon 30 days’ notice to Tenant and Tenant’s right to remove the Generator Facilities as provided in this Section 16.8 shall not affect Landlord’s right to require removal before the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the License.

16.9 Additional Conduits. Subject to the terms of this Section 16.9, Tenant may during the Term, at Tenant’s sole cost and expense, install as an Alteration in accordance with Section 12.3 and use additional conduit in the Building in connection with Tenant’s use of the Premises. As a condition to Tenant’s installation of such conduit, Tenant shall comply with Article XII of this Lease in connection with such installation and perform and complete any associated work in accordance with Article XII of the Lease and any conditions to Landlord’s approval pursuant thereto; provided, however, that Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant shall not be required to remove such additional conduit at the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease.
17.1 Tenant’s Indemnification. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 17.1 and in Section 17.2 and subject to the waiver of subrogation set forth in Section 15.5, Tenant will neither hold nor attempt to hold Landlord, its affiliates, their respective Agents or Mortgagee liable for, and Tenant will indemnify, hold harmless and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord) Landlord, its affiliates, their respective Agents and Mortgagee, from and against, any and all Claims incurred in connection with or arising from (i) the use or occupancy or manner of use or occupancy of the Premises, or the use of Common Areas, by Tenant or its Agents; (ii) any activity, work or thing done, permitted or suffered by Tenant or its Agents in or about the Premises or done by Tenant or its Agents in or about the Project; (iii) any acts, omissions or negligence of Tenant or its Agents in or about the Premises or the Project; (iv) any breach, violation or nonperformance by Tenant, or violation by Tenant’s Agents, of any term, covenant or provision of this Lease or any law, ordinance or governmental requirement of any kind; (v) any injury or damage to the person, property or business of Tenant or its Agents, including, without limitation, to vehicles (or the contents thereof) of Tenant or Tenant’s Agent’s that are parked in the Parking Facilities, whether incurred in connection with the removal of any vehicles of Tenant or its Agents that are parked in violation of this Lease, the Rules and Regulations or otherwise; and (vi) arising in connection with the exercise by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents of the rights granted to Tenant’s employees in connection with the Dog Visitation Policy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant’s indemnities and hold harmless agreements set forth in this Section 17.1 shall not apply to the extent that the Claim is caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord.

17.2 Landlord’s Indemnification. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 17.2 and in Section 17.1 and except to the extent caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant’s Agents, but subject to the waivers in Section 15.5, Landlord will neither hold nor attempt to hold Tenant or its Agents liable for, and Landlord will indemnify, hold harmless and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Tenant) Tenant and its Agents from and against, any and all Claims to the extent incurred in connection with or arising from (i) acts or omissions of Landlord or Landlord’s Agents with respect to the performance of Landlord’s maintenance, repair, restoration and replacement obligations under this Lease constituting negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord’s Agents and (ii) any other acts or omissions of Landlord or Landlord’s Agents constituting gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord’s Agents.

17.3 Waiver and Release. Except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord and its Agents, Tenant covenants and agrees that Landlord, its affiliates, their respective Agents and Mortgagee will not at any time or to any extent whatsoever be liable, responsible or in any way accountable for any loss, injury, death or damage (including consequential damages) to persons, property or Tenant’s business occasioned by (i) subject to Section 17.2, any act or omission of Landlord, its affiliates, or their respective Agents; (ii) any acts or omissions, including theft, of or by any other tenant, occupant or visitor of the Project; (iii) any casualty, explosion, falling plaster or other masonry or glass, steam, gas, electricity, water or rain which may leak from any part of the Building or any other portion of the Project or from the pipes, appliances or plumbing works therein or from the roof, street or subsurface or from any other place, or resulting from dampness; or (iv) the parking of vehicles by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents in the Parking Facilities, including, without limitation, when incurred in connection with the removal of any vehicles of Tenant or its Agents that are parked in violation of this Lease or the Rules and Regulations or otherwise. Tenant agrees to give prompt notice to Landlord upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in this Section 17.3 or of defects in the Premises or the Building, or in the fixtures or equipment.

17.4 Survival. The covenants, agreements and indemnification obligations under this Article XVII will survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease. Tenant’s covenants, agreements and indemnification obligations are not intended to and will not relieve any insurance carrier of its obligations under policies required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Lease.

XVIII. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Tenant and its Agents shall at all times abide by and observe the Rules and Regulations set forth in Exhibit C and any amendments thereto that may reasonably be promulgated in a nondiscriminatory manner from time to time by Landlord, with 14 days’ prior written notice of any such amendments, for the operation and maintenance of the Building, the Common Area and the Project and the Rules and Regulations shall be deemed to be covenants of this Lease to be performed and/or observed by Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to impose upon Landlord any duty or obligation to enforce the Rules and Regulations, or the terms or provisions contained in any other lease, against any other tenant of the Project; provided, however, that Landlord agrees to apply the Rules and Regulations on a non-discriminatory basis with respect to Tenant and all other tenants of the Project. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for any violation by any party of the Rules and Regulations or the terms of any other Project lease. If there is any inconsistency between this Lease (other than Exhibit C) and the then current Rules and Regulations, this Lease shall govern.

XIX. DAMAGE: CONDEMNATION

19.1 Damage to the Premises. (a) If the Premises or the Building shall be damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall diligently and as soon as practicable after such damage occurs (taking into account the time necessary to effect a satisfactory settlement with any insurance company involved) repair such damage at the expense of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord’s obligation to repair such damage shall not exceed the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord (reduced by any proceeds retained pursuant to the rights of Mortgagee). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Premises or the Building are damaged by fire or other casualty to such an extent that, in Landlord’s reasonable judgment, the damage cannot be substantially repaired within 240 days after the date of such damage, or if the Premises are substantially damaged during the last Lease Year, then: (i) Landlord may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage by written notice to Tenant; or (ii) Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage by written notice to Landlord within 10 days after (a) Landlord’s delivery of a notice that the repairs cannot be made within such 240-day period (Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to deliver to Tenant such notice within 45 days of the date of such damage. or casualty); or (b) the date of damage, in the event the damage occurs during the last year of this Lease. Without limitation to the foregoing, if the Premises or the Building are damaged by fire or other casualty and Landlord’s reasonable estimate of the cost to repair such damage exceeds the proceeds of insurance available to Landlord (reduced by any proceeds retained pursuant to the rights of Mortgagee) or no such proceeds are available to Landlord, then Landlord shall not be obligated to incur expenses in excess of such insurance proceeds to repair such damage and may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage by written notice to Tenant. Rent shall be apportioned and paid to the date of such damage.

(b) During the period that Tenant is deprived of the use of the damaged portion of the Premises, Basic Rent, Amenity Building Rent and Tenant’s Proportionate Share shall be reduced by the ratio that the Rentable Square Footage of the Premises damaged bears to the total Rentable Square Footage of the Premises before such damage; provided, however, that if more than fifty percent (50%) of the Premises or if access to the Premises is unusable in a manner that allows Tenant to abate Basic Rent, Operating Expense Rental and Real Estate Tax Rental under this Section 19.1(b), Tenant will be entitled to deem one hundred percent (100%) of the Premises to be unusable and receive a full abatement of Rent if Tenant vacates the entire Premises due to such casualty damage. All injury or damage to the Premises or the Project resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its Agents shall be repaired by Landlord, at Tenant’s expense, subject to the waivers in Section 15.5, and Rent shall not abate nor shall Tenant be entitled to terminate this Lease. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord shall not be required to rebuild, replace, or repair any of the following: (i) specialized Tenant improvements as reasonably determined by Landlord; (ii) Alterations; (iii) Tenant Work; or (iv) personal property of Tenant. Tenant, as a material inducement to Landlord entering into this Lease, irrevocably waives and releases Tenant’s rights under California Civil Code Section 1932(2) and 1933(4) and agrees that in the event of any casualty, the terms of this Lease shall govern.

(c) If the Amenity Building shall be damaged by fire or other casualty, then to the extent that the Amenity Building Rent is not already subject to abatement under Section 19.1(b), the Amenity Building Rent shall be reduced during the period that Tenant is deprived of the use of Amenities of the Amenity Building by the ratio that the Rentable Square Footage of the Amenity Building damaged bears to the total Rentable Square Footage of the Amenity Building before such damage; provided, however if the injury or damage to the Amenity Building results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its Agents, then the Amenity Building Rent shall not abate.

19.2 Condemnation. If (a) 10% or more of the Building or (b) any portion of the Building or Land shall be taken or condemned by any governmental authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose (including, without limitation, sale under threat of such a taking), and (i) Tenant no longer have access to the Building or the Parking Facilities or (ii) the Parking Facilities will no longer have sufficient parking spaces to comply with applicable zoning codes (each a, “Material Taking”), then Landlord or Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of such termination to the other party, in which event the Term shall cease and terminate as of the date when title vests in such governmental or quasi-governmental authority, and Rent shall be prorated to the date when title vests in such governmental or quasi-governmental authority; provided that, if Landlord terminates this Lease in connection with a Material Taking, then Landlord shall terminate all other similarly situation leases in the Building.

If a portion of the Building or the Land is taken or condemned by any governmental or quasi-governmental authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose (including, without limitation, sale under threat of such a taking), but such taking does not result in a Material Taking, Basic Rent, the Amenity Building Rent and Tenant’s Proportionate Share shall be reduced by the ratio that the Rentable Square Footage of the portion of the Premises so taken bears to the Rentable Square Footage of the Premises before such taking, effective as of the date when title vests in such governmental or quasi-governmental authority, and this Lease shall otherwise continue in full force and effect. If a portion of the Amenity Building is taken or condemned by any governmental or quasigovernmental authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose (including, without limitation, sale under threat of such a taking), but such taking does not occur in connection with a Material Taking in connection with which Landlord or Tenant terminates this Lease, then to the extent that the Amenity Building Rent is not already subject to reduction under this Section 19.2, the Amenity Building Rent shall be reduced by the ratio that the Rentable Square Footage of the portion of the Amenity Building so taken bears to the Rentable Square Footage of the Amenity Building before such taking, effective as of the date when title vests in such governmental or quasi-governmental authority, and this Lease shall otherwise continue in full force and effect. Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord (or otherwise) as a result of such taking, and Tenant hereby agrees to make no claim against the condemning authority for any portion of the amount that may be awarded as compensation or damages as a result of such taking; provided, however, that Tenant may, to the extent allowed by law, claim an award for moving expenses and for the taking of any of Tenant’s property (other than its leasehold interest in the Premises) which does not, under the terms of this Lease, become the property of Landlord at the termination hereof, as long as such claim is separate and distinct from any claim of Landlord and does not diminish Landlord’s award. Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord any right and interest it may have in any award for its leasehold interest in the Premises. This Section 19.2 shall be Tenant’s sole and exclusive remedy in the event of a taking or condemnation. Tenant hereby waives the benefit of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1265.130.

XX. DEFAULT

20.1 Events of Default by Tenant. Each of the following shall constitute an Event of Default: (i) Tenant fails to pay Rent within five (5) business days after notice from Landlord; provided that no such notice shall be required if at least two such notices shall have been given during the previous 12 months; (ii) Tenant fails to observe or perform any other term, condition or covenant herein binding upon or obligating Tenant within 30 days after notice from Landlord; provided, however, that if such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such 30-day period, then such period to cure the default shall be extended for up to an additional 60 days provided Tenant has commenced to cure the default within the 30-day period and diligently pursues such cure to completion (notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord provides Tenant with notice of Tenant’s failure to observe or perform any term, condition or covenant under this Subsection (ii) on two or more occasions during any 12 month period, then Tenant’s subsequent violation of the same term, condition or covenant shall, at Landlord’s option, be deemed an Event of Default immediately upon the occurrence of such failure, regardless of whether Landlord provides Tenant notice, or Tenant has commenced the cure of the same); (iii) Tenant fails to pay Rent when due and abandons or vacates the Premises or fails to take occupancy of the Premises within 90 days after the Commencement Date; (iv) Tenant fails to execute and return a SNDA (as defined in Article XXI) or estoppel within the time periods provided for in Article XXI or Section 24.4 and such failure
20.2 Landlord’s Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Landlord, at its option, without further notice or demand to Tenant, may, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided in this Lease, at law or in equity, elect one or more of the following remedies:

(a) Terminate this Lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord, and Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by California Civil Code Section 1951.2, and in addition to any other rights and remedies Landlord may have, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

(i) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination; plus

(ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus

(iii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Lease Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus

(iv) Any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant’s failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including, but not limited to, the costs and expenses (including attorneys’ fees, whether in-house or outside counsel) of recovering possession of the Premises, expenses of reletting, including necessary repair, renovation and alteration of the Premises and brokerage commissions, and any other reasonable costs and expenses.

As used in Sections 20.2(a)(i) and (ii) above, the “worth at the time of award” is computed by allowing interest at the Default Rate.
(b) Landlord shall have the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (lessor may continue lease in effect after lessee's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if lessee has right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Accordingly, Tenant acknowledges that in the event Tenant has breached this Lease and abandoned the Premises, this Lease may, at Landlord's election, continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant’s right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all its rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover the Rent as it becomes due under this Lease. Without limiting the generality of California Civil Code Section 1951.4(c), acts of maintenance or preservation or efforts to relet the Premises, or the appointment of a receiver upon initiative of Landlord to protect Landlord’s interest under this Lease shall not constitute a termination of Tenant’s right to possession.

(c) Even though Landlord may have re-entered the Premises as provided in clause (b) above, Landlord may thereafter elect to terminate this Lease and all of the rights of Tenant in or to the Premises.

(d) Landlord may cure the Event of Default for the account of Tenant, and in such event Tenant shall pay Landlord upon invoice as Additional Rent all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including consultants’ and attorneys’ fees and costs, together with an administrative charge equal to twenty percent (20%) of such costs.

(e) Landlord may pursue injunctive relief, and/or recovery of damages, without terminating this Lease.

20.3 Mitigation of Damages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent (but no further) Landlord is required by applicable law to mitigate damages, or is required by law to use efforts to do so, and such requirement cannot be lawfully and effectively waived (it being the intention of Landlord and Tenant that Tenant waive and Tenant hereby waives such requirements to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law), Tenant agrees that if Landlord markets the Premises in a manner substantially similar to the manner in which Landlord and its affiliates market other space in the Project, then Landlord shall be deemed to have used commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate damages. Tenant shall continue to be liable for all Rent (whether accruing prior to, on or after the date of termination of this Lease or Tenant’s right of possession and/or pursuant to the holdover provisions of Section 22.2 below) and Damages, except to the extent that Tenant pleads and proves by clear and convincing evidence that Landlord fails to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate damages to the extent required under this Section 20.3 and that Landlord’s failure caused an avoidable and quantifiable increase in Landlord’s damages for unpaid Rent. Without limitation to the foregoing, Landlord shall not be deemed to have failed to mitigate damages, or to have failed to use efforts required by law to do so, because: (i) Landlord leases other space in the Project which is vacant prior to re-letting the Premises; (ii) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises to any Related Entity of Tenant, or any principal of Tenant, or any Related Entity of such principal; (iii) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises to any person or entity whose creditworthiness is not acceptable to Landlord in the exercise of its reasonable discretion; (iv) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises to any person or entity because the use proposed to be made of the Premises by such prospective tenant is not general office use of a type and nature consistent with that of the other tenants in the portions of the Project leased or held for lease for general office purposes as of the date Tenant defaults under this Lease (by way of illustration, but not limitation, call center or other high-density use, government offices, consular offices, doctor’s offices or medical or dental clinics or laboratories, or schools would not be uses consistent with that of other tenants in the Project), or such use would, in Landlord’s reasonable judgment, impose unreasonable or excessive demands upon the Building systems, equipment or facilities; (v) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises to any person or entity, or any affiliate of such person or entity, who has been engaged in litigation with Landlord or any of its affiliates; (vi) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises because the tenant or the terms and provisions of the proposed lease are not approved by the holders of any liens or security interests in the Building, or would cause Landlord to be in default of, or to be unable to perform any of its covenants or obligations under, any agreements between Landlord and any third party; (vii) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises because the proposed tenant is unwilling to execute and deliver Landlord’s standard lease form or such tenant requires improvements to the Premises to be paid at Landlord’s cost and expense; (viii) Landlord refuses to relet the Premises to a person or entity whose character or reputation, or the nature of such prospective tenant’s business, would not be acceptable to Landlord in its reasonable discretion; and (ix) Landlord refuses to expend any material sums of money to market the Premises in excess of the sums Landlord typically expends in connection with the marketing of other space in the Project. As used in this Section 20.3, an “affiliate” means a person or entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person or entity.

20.4 No Waiver. If Landlord shall institute proceedings against Tenant and a compromise or settlement thereof shall be made, the same shall not constitute a waiver of any other covenant, condition or agreement herein contained, nor of any of Landlord’s rights hereunder. No waiver by Landlord of any breach shall operate as a waiver of such covenant, condition or agreement itself, or of any subsequent breach thereof. No payment of Rent by Tenant or acceptance of Rent by Landlord shall operate as a waiver of any breach or default by Tenant under this Lease. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the monthly installment of Rent herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account of the earliest unpaid Rent, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or communication accompanying a check for the payment of Rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord’s right to recover the balance of such Rent or to pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease. No act, omission, reletting or re-entry by Landlord, and no acceptance by Landlord of keys from Tenant, shall be considered an acceptance of a surrender of this Lease, shall be construed as an actual or constructive eviction of Tenant, or an election on the part of Landlord to terminate this Lease unless a written notice of such intention is given to Tenant by Landlord.

20.5 Late Payment. If Tenant fails to pay any Rent within five days after such Rent becomes due and payable, Tenant shall pay to Landlord without notice a late charge of 5% of the amount of such overdue Rent. Such late charge shall be deemed Rent and shall be due and payable within two days after written demand from Landlord.

20.6 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby waives, for itself and all persons claiming by and under Tenant, all rights and privileges which it might have under any present or future law to redeem the Premises or to continue this Lease after being dispossessed or ejected from the Premises.
20.7 Default by Landlord. If Landlord fails to observe or perform any term, condition or covenant herein binding upon or obligating Landlord pursuant to this Lease, then a “Default” shall exist if such failure continues for thirty (30) days after the receipt by Landlord of written notice from Tenant specifying in detail Landlord’s alleged failure to so observe or perform; provided, however, that if such failure cannot be cured within said 30-day period, then Landlord shall not be in Default under this Lease if it commences such observance or performance within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently pursues the same to completion within 180 days after the initial 30-day cure period. Tenant hereby covenants that, prior to the exercise of any remedies for a Default, Tenant will give notice and an opportunity to cure to any Mortgagor of which Tenant has been given notice and as otherwise required under any applicable SNDA.

XXI. MORTGAGES

Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant and Landlord shall execute and acknowledge, and Landlord shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from the existing Mortgagor (as defined in this Article XXI), an SNDA on the existing Mortgagor’s form attached as Exhibit L, and incorporated herein (“Existing Mortgage SNDA”). Subject to the terms of a fully executed SNDA, this Lease is subject and subordinate to any future ground or underlying leases (each a “Ground Lease”) and to any mortgage, deed of trust, security interest, or title retention interest now or hereafter affecting the Land, Building or Project (each a “Mortgage”) and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. This subordination shall be self-operative; however, in confirmation thereof, Tenant shall, within 10 days of receipt thereof, execute any instrument that Landlord, or any ground lessor under a Ground Lease (“Ground Lessor”) or any holder of any note or obligation secured by Mortgage (“Mortgagor”) may request confirming such subordination or Tenant’s attornment to such Ground Lessor or purchaser of Landlord’s interest under this Lease, as applicable, and providing, among other things, that so long as there is no Event of Default hereunder, Tenant’s use and occupancy of the Premises and its rights under this Lease shall not be disturbed or affected following, as applicable the termination of such Ground Lease or by any foreclosure or other action (or by the delivery or acceptance of a deed or other conveyance or transfer in lieu thereof) which may be instituted or undertaken in order to enforce any right or remedy available under the Mortgage (“SNDA”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, before any foreclosure sale under a Mortgage or termination of a Ground Lease, subject to the terms of any applicable SNDA, the Mortgagor or Ground Lessor, as applicable, shall have the right to subordinate the Mortgage or Ground Lease, as applicable, to this Lease, in which case, in the event of such foreclosure or termination, this Lease may continue in full force and effect and Tenant shall attorn to and recognize as its landlord, as applicable, the Ground Lessor or the purchaser at foreclosure of Landlord’s interest under this Lease.

XXII. SURRENDER: HOLDING OVER

22.1 Surrender of the Premises. Tenant shall peaceably surrender the Premises to Landlord on the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, in broom-clean condition and in as good condition as when Tenant took possession, including, without limitation, the repair of any damage to the Premises caused by the removal of any of Tenant’s personal property, Alterations, Rooftop Installations, or trade fixtures from the Premises, except for reasonable wear and tear and loss by fire or other casualty and condemnation and any Alterations that Tenant is not required to remove pursuant to Section 12.3. All trade fixtures, equipment, furniture, inventory, effects and Alterations left on or in the Premises or the Project after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease will be deemed conclusively to have been abandoned and may be appropriated, removed, sold, stored, destroyed or otherwise disposed of by Landlord without notice to Tenant or any other person and without obligation to account for them; and Tenant will pay Landlord for all expenses incurred in connection with the same, including, but not limited to, the costs of repairing any damage to the Premises or the Project caused by the removal of such property. Tenant’s obligation to observe and perform this covenant will survive the expiration or other termination of this Lease.

22.2 Holding Over. In the event that Tenant shall not immediately surrender the Premises to Landlord on the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, including removing all trade fixtures, equipment, furniture, inventory, effects and Alterations from the Premises, Tenant shall be deemed to be a tenant-at-will pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Lease, except the daily Basic Rent shall be 150% the daily Basic Rent in effect on the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease (computed on the basis of a 30 day month). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Tenant shall hold over after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, and Landlord shall desire to regain possession of the Premises, then Landlord may forthwith re-enter and take possession of the Premises without process, or by any legal process provided under applicable state law. If Landlord is unable to deliver possession of the Premises to a new tenant, or to perform improvements for a new tenant, as a result of Tenant’s holdover for more than 120 days, Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for all damages, including, without limitation, special or consequential damages, that Landlord suffers from the holdover, including, without limitation, as the result of any claims against Landlord brought by the new tenant.

XXIII. QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord covenants that if Tenant shall pay Rent and perform all of the terms and conditions of this Lease to be performed by Tenant, Tenant shall during the Term peaceably and quietly occupy and enjoy possession of the Premises without molestation or hindrance by Landlord or any party claiming through or under Landlord, subject to the provisions of this Lease, any Mortgage to which this Lease is subordinate, the Declaration, the Phase II Easement Agreement, the Sports Park Easement Agreement and any other applicable recorded easement agreements, covenants, conditions and restrictions, if any amendments to the Declaration, Phase II Easement Agreement or Sports Park Easement Agreement are adopted in accordance with the terms thereof, then Landlord shall promptly deliver to Tenant a copy of any such amendments after Landlord receives a recorded copy of such of amendment or is otherwise aware that such amendment has been recorded.

XXIV. MISCELLANEOUS

24.1 No Representations by Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that neither Landlord nor its Agents nor any broker has made any representation or promise with respect to the Premises, the Project, the Land or the Common Area, except as expressly set forth in this Lease, and no rights, privileges, easements or licenses are acquired by Tenant except as expressly set forth in this Lease.
24.2 No Partnership. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed to create a partnership or joint venture of or between Landlord and Tenant, or to create any other relationship between Landlord and Tenant other than that of landlord and tenant.

24.3 Brokers. Landlord recognizes Broker(s) as the sole broker(s) procuring this Lease and shall pay Broker(s) a commission therefor pursuant to a separate agreement between Broker(s) and Landlord. Landlord and Tenant each represents and warrants to the other that it has dealt with no broker, agent, finder or other person other than Broker(s) relating to this Lease. Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless, and Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless, from and against any and all loss, costs, damages or expenses (including, without limitation, all attorneys’ fees and disbursements) by reason of any claim of liability to or from any broker or person arising from or out of any breach of the indemnitor’s representation and warranty.

24.4 Estoppel Certificate. Tenant shall, without charge, at any time and from time to time, within 10 days after request therefor by Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a written estoppel certificate certifying, as of the date of such estoppel certificate, the following: (i) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if modified, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified and setting forth such modifications); (ii) whether the Term has commenced (and setting forth the Commencement Date and Expiration Date); (iii) whether Tenant is presently occupying the Premises; (iv) the amounts of Basic Rent and Additional Rent currently due and payable by Tenant; (v) that any Tenant Work or Alterations required by this Lease to have been made by Landlord have been made to the satisfaction of Tenant; (vi) that there are no existing set-offs, charges, liens, claims or defenses against the enforcement of any right hereunder, including, without limitation, Basic Rent or Additional Rent (or, if alleged, specifying the same in detail); (vii) that no Basic Rent (except the first installment thereof) has been paid more than 30 days in advance of its due date; (viii) that Tenant has no knowledge of any then uncured default by Landlord of its obligations under this Lease (or, if Tenant has such knowledge, specifying the same in detail); (ix) that Tenant is not in default (or, if Tenant is in default, specifying the same in detail); (x) that the address to which notices to Tenant should be sent is as set forth in this Lease (or, if not, specifying the correct address); and (xi) to the extent accurate, any other certifications reasonably requested by Landlord. In the event Tenant fails to deliver to Landlord an estoppel certificate as required by this Section within the specified 10-day period, Tenant shall be conclusively presumed to have adopted and affirmed the contents of the form of estoppel certificate delivered to Tenant by Landlord, and any prospective mortgagee, purchaser, or other third-party may rely on the accuracy of such estoppel certificate as if executed and affirmed by Tenant. Landlord and Tenant intend that any statement delivered pursuant to this Section 24.4 may be relied upon by Landlord, and any owner, prospective mortgagee or prospective purchaser in the Project.

24.5 Waiver of Jury Trial. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Landlord and Tenant each waive trial by jury in connection with proceedings or counterclaims brought by either of the parties against the other with respect to any matter whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant hereunder or Tenant’s use or occupancy of the Premises.
24.6 Notices. All notices, demands and requests which may be given or which are required to be given by either party to the other, shall be in writing and shall be deemed effective either: (i) on the date personally delivered to the address set forth in Article I, as evidenced by written receipt for the same, whether or not actually received by the person to whom addressed; (ii) on the third business day after being sent, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the intended recipient at the address specified Article I; (iii) on the next succeeding business day after being deposited into the custody of a nationally recognized overnight delivery service such as Federal Express, addressed to the party at the address specified Article I; (iv) on the date delivered by facsimile to the respective numbers specified in Article I, provided confirmation of facsimile is received; or (v) on the date an electronic mail message with a pdf copy of the signed notice is delivered to the e-mail addresses specified in Article I; provided, however, that in the case of any notice delivered in accordance with items (iv) or (v) above, any such facsimile notice or e-mail notice shall be sent by one of the other permitted methods of providing notice (other than facsimile or e-mail notice) on the next succeeding business day. Landlord and Tenant may from time to time by written notice to the other designate another address for receipt of future notices.

24.7 Invalidity of Particular Provisions. If any provisions of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Lease shall be valid and be enforced to the full extent permitted by law.

24.8 Gender and Number. All terms and words used in this Lease, regardless of the number or gender in which they are used, shall be deemed to include any other number or gender as the context may require.

24.9 Benefit and Burden. Subject to the provisions of Article X and except as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and each of their respective representatives, heirs, successors and assigns.

24.10 Entire Agreement. This Lease (which includes the Exhibits attached hereto) contains and embodies the entire agreement of the parties hereto, and no representations, inducements or agreements, oral or otherwise, between the parties not contained in this Lease shall be of any force or effect. This Lease (other than the Rules and Regulations, which may be changed from time to time as provided herein) may not be modified, changed or terminated in whole or in part in any manner other than by an agreement in writing duly signed by Landlord and Tenant.

24.11 Authority. If Tenant signs as a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, the person executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant hereby represents and warrants that Tenant is duly formed, validly existing, in good standing (with respect to a corporation or limited liability company), and qualified to do business in the state in which the Project is located, that Tenant has full power and authority to enter into this Lease and that he or she is authorized to execute this Lease on behalf of Tenant. Tenant further agrees that it shall provide Landlord with a secretary’s certificate from the secretary of said corporation or limited liability company, if applicable, certifying as to the above in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto and made a part hereof, or, if Tenant is a partnership, it shall provide Landlord with a partnership authorization.
certifying as to the above in a form acceptable to Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall provide to Landlord copies of Tenant’s organizational documents and such incumbency certificate and minutes or resolution certified by an authorized representative of Tenant as being true, correct, and complete, as may be reasonably required to demonstrate that this Lease is binding upon and enforceable against Tenant. Landlord represents and warrants that Landlord is a duly formed, validly existing, in good standing limited liability company that is qualified to do business in the state in which the Project is located, that Landlord has full power and authority to enter into this Lease and that the person executing this Lease on behalf of Landlord is authorized to execute this Lease on behalf of Landlord.

24.12 Attorneys’ Fees. If either Landlord or Tenant commences any legal action or proceeding against the other party (including, without limitation, litigation or arbitration) arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the Premises, or the Project (including, without limitation (a) the enforcement or interpretation of either party’s rights or obligations under this Lease (whether in contract, tort, or both) or (b) the declaration of any rights or obligations under this Lease), the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the losing party reasonable attorneys’ fees, together with any costs and expenses, incurred in any such action or proceeding, including any attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses incurred on collection and on appeal.

24.13 Interpretation. This Lease is governed by the laws of the state in which the Project is located. All references in this Lease to specific sections of California law shall be deemed to mean and refer to any amendment thereto, and to any renumbered counterpart or superseding successor thereto. Furthermore, this Lease shall not be construed against either party more or less favorably by reason of authorship or origin of language.

24.14 Limitation of Liability. None of Landlord’s shareholders, partners, members, managers, directors, officers or employees, whether disclosed or undisclosed, shall have any personal liability under any provision of this Lease. If Landlord defaults in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder or otherwise becomes liable, responsible or in any way accountable to Tenant for any loss, injury, death or damage (including consequential damages) in connection with this Lease, Tenant shall look solely to Landlord’s equity, interest and rights in the Project for satisfaction of Tenant’s remedies on account thereof, including, subject to the rights of any Mortgagee, Landlord’s interest in the rents of the Building and any insurance proceeds payable to Landlord. Landlord or any successor owner shall have the right to transfer and assign to a third party, in whole or in part, all of its rights and obligations hereunder and in the Building, the Project or the Land, or any portion thereof, and in such event, all liabilities and obligations on the part of the original Landlord, or such successor owner, under this Lease occurring thereafter, shall terminate as of the day of such sale, and thereupon all such liabilities and obligations shall be binding on the new owner. In the event of such transfer or assignment, Landlord shall transfer to such transferee or assignee the balance of the Security Deposit, if any, remaining after lawful deductions and, in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.7, after notice to Tenant, Landlord shall thereupon be relieved of all liability with respect to the Security Deposit.

24.15 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence as to Tenant’s obligations contained in this Lease.
24.16 Force Majeure. Landlord and Tenant (except with respect to the payment of Rent) shall not be chargeable with, liable for, or responsible to the other for anything or in any amount for any failure to perform or delay caused by: fire; earthquake; explosion; flood; hurricane; the elements; acts of God or the public enemy; actions, restrictions, governmental authorities (permitting or inspection), governmental regulation of the sale of materials or supplies or the transportation thereof; war; invasion; insurrection; rebellion; riots; strikes or lockouts, inability to obtain necessary materials, goods, equipment, services, utilities or labor; or any other cause whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing which is beyond the reasonable control of such party (collectively, “Events of Force Majeure”): and any such failure or delay due to said causes or any of them shall not be deemed to be a breach of or default in the performance of this Lease.

24.17 Headings. Captions and headings are for convenience of reference only.

24.19 Intentionally Deleted.

24.20 Financial Reports. Within 15 days after Landlord’s request, but in no event more than once per Lease Year unless an uncured Event of Default exists or such request is in connection with a sale or financing of the Project, in which event no such limitation shall apply, Tenant will furnish Tenant’s and Guarantor’s most recent audited financial statements (including any notes to them) to Landlord, or, if no such audited statements have been prepared, such other financial statements (and notes to them) as may have been prepared by an independent certified public accountant, or, failing those, Tenant’s and Guarantor’s internally prepared financial statements, certified by Tenant and Guarantor, as applicable. If requested by Tenant, Landlord shall execute a confidentiality agreement confirming that Landlord will keep confidential Tenant’s confidential and proprietary financial information provided to Landlord in accordance with this Section 24.20 in accordance with terms substantially consistent with the Non-Disclosure Agreement dated effective February 22, 2019, between Landlord and Tenant, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit K.

24.21 Landlord’s Fees. Whenever Tenant requests Landlord to take any action or give any consent required or permitted under this Lease, Tenant will reimburse Landlord for all of Landlord’s actual documented out-of-pocket costs incurred in reviewing the proposed action or consent, including, without limitation, attorneys’, engineers’ or architects’ fees, within 30 days after Landlord’s delivery to Tenant of a statement of such costs. If requested by Tenant in connection with the request for action or consent, Landlord shall provide Tenant with an estimate for any actual out-of-pocket costs to be incurred by Landlord in reviewing a proposed action or consent requested by Tenant. In no event shall Tenant be obligated to pay more than the estimate amount without Tenant’s prior consent thereto. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord shall not have any obligation to proceed with the evaluation of any request until Tenant has approved the estimate amount. Tenant will be obligated to make such reimbursement without regard to whether Landlord consents to any such proposed action.
24.22 Effectiveness. The furnishing of the form of this Lease shall not constitute an offer and this Lease shall become effective upon and only upon its execution by and delivery to each party hereto.

24.23 Light, Air or View Rights. Any diminution or shutting off of light, air or view by any structure which may be erected on lands adjacent to or in the vicinity of the Building and Project shall not affect this Lease, abate any payment owed by Tenant hereunder or otherwise impose any liability on Landlord.

24.24 Special Damages. Under no circumstances whatsoever shall Landlord ever be liable hereunder for punitive damages, consequential damages or special damages. Except to the extent of Tenant’s liability for consequential damages and special damages pursuant to Section 22.2, under no circumstances whatsoever shall Tenant ever be liable hereunder for consequential, special or punitive damages.

24.25 Counterparts. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Lease may be executed by a party’s signature transmitted by facsimile or e-mail, and copies of this Lease executed and delivered by means of faxed or e-mailed signatures shall have the same force and effect as copies hereof executed and delivered with original signatures. All parties hereto may rely upon faxed or e-mailed signatures as if such signatures were originals. All parties hereto agree that a faxed or e-mailed signature page may be introduced into evidence in any proceeding arising out of or related to this Lease as if it were an original signature page.

24.26 Nondisclosure of Lease Terms. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the terms of this Lease are confidential and constitute proprietary information of Landlord. Disclosure of the terms could adversely affect the ability of Landlord to negotiate other leases and impair Landlord’s relationship with other tenants. Without limitation to the foregoing, Tenant agrees that it, and its Agents shall not intentionally or voluntarily disclose the terms and conditions of this Lease to any publication or newspaper or any other tenant or apparent prospective tenant of the Building or the Project, without the prior written consent of Landlord, provided, however, that Tenant may disclose the terms to prospective subtenants or assignees under this Lease. If Tenant or its Agents are required by applicable law or a valid legal order or on the advice of its counsel to disclose any terms and conditions of this Lease, Tenant shall, prior to disclosure, notify Landlord of the requirements so that Landlord may seek a protective order or other remedy, and Tenant shall reasonably assist Landlord therewith.

24.28 Anti-Terrorism. Tenant represents and warrants to and covenants with Landlord that (i) neither Tenant nor any of its owners or affiliates currently are, or shall be at any time during the term hereof, in violation of any laws relating to terrorism or money laundering (collectively, the “Anti-Terrorism Laws”), including without limitation Executive Order No. 13224 on Terrorist Financing, effective September 24, 2001, and regulations of the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) related to Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (SDN’s OFAC Regulations), and/or the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-56)
(the "USA Patriot Act"); (ii) neither Tenant nor any of its owners, affiliates, investors, officers, directors, employees, vendors, subcontractors or agents is or shall be during the term hereof a "Prohibited Person" which is defined as follows: (1) a person or entity owned or controlled by, affiliated with, or acting for or on behalf of any person or entity that is identified as an SDN on the then-most current list published by OFAC at its official website, https://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/SDN-List/Pages/default.aspx, or at any replacement website or other replacement official publication of such list, and (2) a person or entity who is identified as or affiliated with a person or entity designated as a terrorist, or associated with terrorism or money laundering pursuant to regulations promulgated in connection with the USA Patriot Act; and (iii) Tenant has taken appropriate steps to understand its legal obligations under the Anti-Terrorism Laws and has implemented appropriate procedures to assure its continued compliance with such laws. Tenant hereby agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Landlord, its officers, directors, agents and employees, from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, risks, liabilities and expenses (including attorney’s fees and costs) arising from or related to any breach of the foregoing representations, warranties and covenants. At any time and from time-to-time during the term, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord within 10 days after receipt of a written request therefor, a written certification or such other evidence reasonably acceptable to Landlord evidencing and confirming Tenant’s compliance with this paragraph.

24.29 Green Initiatives. The parties agree it is in their mutual best interest that the Building and the Premises be operated and maintained in a manner that is environmentally responsible, fiscally prudent, and provides a safe and productive work environment. Accordingly, Tenant shall endeavor to conduct its operations in the Building and within the Premises to: (1) minimize to the extent reasonably feasible: (i) direct and indirect energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions; (ii) water consumption; (iii) the amount of material entering the waste stream; and (iv) negative impacts upon the indoor air quality of the Building; and (2) permit the Building to achieve and maintain its LEED rating and an Energy Star label, to the extent applicable. Landlord shall endeavor to operate and maintain the Common Area to: minimize to the extent reasonably feasible: (i) direct and indirect energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions; (ii) water consumption; (iii) the amount of material entering the waste stream; and (iv) negative impacts upon the indoor air quality of the Building. Tenant shall comply with all building energy benchmarking and other requirements imposed by applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations or requirements, including regulations promulgated by the California Energy Commission in implementation of AB 802 and retain copies of its utility data, including, without limitation, Tenant’s utility bills and invoices pertaining to Tenant’s energy, water, and trash usage at the Premises during the Term. In addition, if requested by Landlord or a governmental entity having jurisdiction over the Premises, Tenant shall report to Landlord and such requesting entity the Tenant’s utility usage and such other related information as may be requested within the time required by the governmental entity or such other reasonable time frame as may be requested by Landlord or, at Landlord’s option, provide any written authorization, utility release forms or other documentation required for Landlord to request information regarding Tenant’s utility usage with respect to the Premises directly from the applicable utility company.

XXV. RENEWAL OPTIONS

25.1 Grant of Option and General Terms. Provided that (i) Tenant meets or exceeds the Minimum Credit Standards, and proof satisfactory to Landlord that such Minimum Credit Standards have been met shall be delivered to Landlord with Tenant’s delivery of the Renewal Notice (as defined in Section 25.2), (ii) this Lease is in full force and effect, (iii) no Event of Default shall exist under this Lease or would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided under Section 20.1 herein on the date Tenant exercises its Renewal Option (as defined in this Section 25.1) and (iv) McAfee, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, its Related Entity pursuant to an assignment or sublease in accordance with Section 10.4 or its assignee pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Section 10.5 is in possession of at least the entire Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises; Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease with respect to the entire Premises for two (2) additional periods (each a “Renewal Option”) of five (5) years each (each a “Renewal Term”). Each Renewal Option shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions contained in the Lease except that (i) the Renewal Rent (as defined in Section 25.3) shall be at the then prevailing Market Rate (as defined in Section 25.3) on the commencement date of the applicable Renewal Term; (ii) Landlord shall have no obligation to improve the Premises or provide any improvement allowance; and (iii) there shall be no further option to extend the Term beyond the second Renewal Term.

25.2 Determination of Market Rate. Tenant shall send Landlord a preliminary expression of Tenant’s willingness to renew this Lease (the “Renewal Notice”) no earlier than September 30, 2029, or later than December 31, 2029, with respect to the first Renewal Option and, if the Term is extended for the first Renewal Term in accordance with this Article XXV, no earlier than September 30, 2034, or later than December 31, 2034, with respect to the second Renewal Option. Tenant and Landlord shall negotiate in good faith to determine and mutually agree upon the Market Rate for the applicable Renewal Term. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree upon the Market Rate for the applicable Renewal Term, or on or before 240 days prior to the expiration of the initial Term of this Lease or the expiration of the first Renewal Term with respect to the second Renewal Term, as applicable (the “Negotiation Period”), as evidenced by an amendment to the Lease executed by both Landlord and Tenant, then within 10 days after the last day of the applicable Negotiation Period, Tenant may, by written notice to Landlord (the “Notice of Exercise”), irrevocably elect to exercise such Renewal Option. In order for Tenant to exercise such Renewal Option, Tenant shall send the Notice of Exercise to Landlord stating (i) that Tenant is irrevocably exercising its right to extend the Term pursuant to Article XXV; and (ii) Landlord and Tenant shall be irrevocably bound by the determination of Market Rate set forth hereinafter in this Section 25.2, and if applicable, Section 25.4. If Tenant shall fail to deliver the Notice of Exercise on or before 10 days after the last day of the applicable Negotiation Period, then Tenant shall have waived any right to exercise the Renewal Options. In the event any date referenced in this Section 25.2 falls on a day other than a business day, such date shall be deemed to be the next following business day.

In the event Tenant timely delivers the Notice of Exercise to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall each simultaneously present to the other party their final determinations of the Market Rate for the applicable Renewal Term (the “Final Offers”) within 15 days after the last day of the applicable Negotiation Period. If the Market Rate as determined by the lower of the two (2) proposed Final Offers is not more than ten percent (10%) below the higher, then the Market Rate shall be determined by averaging the two (2) Final Offers.
If the difference between the lower of the two (2) proposed Final Offers is more than ten percent (10%) below the higher, then the Market Rate shall be determined by the procedure (“Baseball Arbitration”) set forth in Section 25.4.

25.3 Renewal Rent. The “Renewal Rent” for each Renewal Term shall be an amount equal to the prevailing Market Rate determined in accordance with this Article XXV. As used in this Article XXV “Market Rate” shall mean the then prevailing market rate for triple net base rent for tenants, at arm’s length, of comparable quality for renewal leases located on the top two floors in similar vintage multi-story, multi-tenant steel frame, Class A office buildings of comparable size, age, use, location and quality in the North San Jose/Santa Clara market area, taking into consideration the extent of the availability of space as large as the Premises in the marketplace, the location of the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises on the top two floors of the Building, Tenant’s right to Building Signage, Building Monument Signage and freeway-visible Project Monument Signage, the Common Area Amenities and the Amenity Building Rent and all other economic terms then customarily prevailing in such renewal leases in said marketplace.

25.4 Baseball Arbitration. For all purposes of this Lease, Baseball Arbitration shall follow the following procedures:

(a) Within 20 days after Landlord’s receipt of Tenant’s Notice of Exercise, Tenant and Landlord shall each select an arbitrator (“Tenant’s Arbitrator” and “Landlord’s Arbitrator”, respectively) who shall be a qualified and impartial person licensed in the State of California as an MAI appraiser with at least five (5) years of experience in appraising the type of matters for which they are called on to appraise under this Article XXV in the North San Jose/Santa Clara market area.

(b) Landlord’s Arbitrator and Tenant’s Arbitrator shall name a third arbitrator, similarly qualified, within 10 days after the appointment of Landlord’s Arbitrator and Tenant’s Arbitrator.

(c) Said third arbitrator shall, after due consideration of the factors to be taken into account under the definition of Market Rate set forth in Section 25.2 and hearing whatever evidence the arbitrator deems appropriate from Landlord, Tenant and others, and obtaining any other information the arbitrator deems necessary, in good faith, make its own determination of the Market Rate for the Premises as of the commencement of the applicable Renewal Term (the “Arbitrator’s Initial Determination”) and thereafter select either Landlord’s Final Offer or the Tenant’s Final Offer, but no other, whichever is closest to the Arbitrator’s Initial Determination (the “Final Determination”), such determination to be made within 30 days after the appointment of the third arbitrator. The Arbitrator’s Initial Determination, Final Determination and the market information upon which such determinations are based shall be in writing and counterparts thereof shall be delivered to Landlord and Tenant within said 30 day period. The arbitrator shall have no right or ability to determine the Market Rate in any other manner. The Final Determination shall be binding upon the parties hereto.

(d) The costs and fees of the third arbitrator shall be paid by Landlord if the Final Determination shall be Tenant’s Final Offer or by Tenant if the Final Determination shall be Landlord’s Final Offer.
(e) If Tenant fails to appoint Tenant’s Arbitrator in the manner and within the time specified in Section 25.4, then the Market Rate for the applicable Renewal Term shall be the Market Rate contained in the Landlord’s Final Offer. If Landlord fails to appoint Landlord’s Arbitrator in the manner and within the time specified in Section 25.4 then the Market Rate for the applicable Renewal Term shall be the Market Rate contained in the Tenant’s Final Offer. If Tenant’s Arbitrator and Landlord’s Arbitrator fail to appoint the third arbitrator within the time and in the manner prescribed in Section 25.4, then Landlord and Tenant shall jointly and promptly apply to the local office of the American Arbitration Association for the appointment of the third arbitrator.

25.5 Personal Option. The Renewal Options are personal with respect to MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and either a Related Entity to whom this Lease is assigned in accordance with Section 10.4 or an assignee to whom this Lease is assigned pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Section 10.5. Any assignment of the Lease or subletting of any portion of Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises other than to a Related Entity in accordance with Section 10.4 or pursuant to an Ownership Transfer in accordance with Section 10.5 shall automatically terminate MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company’s rights under this Article XXV. Time is of the essence with respect to the provisions of this Article XXV.

XXVI. RIGHT OF FIRST OFFERING

26.1 General. If, at any time during the Term, any portion of the remainder of the first floor of the Building or the second, third, or fourth floors of the Building (each a, and collectively, the “Right of First Offering Space”) becomes vacant and is not subject to any Senior Rights (as defined in Section 26.1.1), Landlord shall so notify Tenant (the “Right of First Offering Notice”), which Right of First Offering Notice shall contain the material economic terms on which Landlord is willing to lease the Right of First Offering Space to Tenant (including, without limitation, prevailing annual market rent, length of term, and Rentable Square Footage). Prevailing annual market rent for the Right of First Offering Space shall be an amount equal to the then prevailing market rate (“ROFO Market Rent”) for triple net base rent for tenants, at arm’s length, of comparable quality for new leases in similar vintage multi-story, multitenant steel frame, Class A office buildings of comparable size, age, use, location and quality in the North San Jose/Santa Clara market area, taking into consideration the extent of the availability of space as large as the Right of First Offering Space in the marketplace, the location of the floors of the Right of First Offering Space in the Building, Tenant’s right to Building Signage, Building Monument Signage and freeway-visible Project Monument Signage, the Common Area Amenities and the Amenity Building Rent and all other economic terms then customarily prevailing in such leases in said marketplace. Tenant shall have a period of seven (7)-business days after the date of Landlord’s delivery of such Right of First Offering Notice during which to elect either to lease all of the Right of First Offering Space described in the Right of First Offering Notice (on the terms set forth in such Right of First Offering Notice), refuse to lease the same or counter the ROFO Market Rent presented by the Landlord along with the reasons for the Tenant’s counter of a differing rental amount based on the factors listed in the preceding sentence (“Right of First Offering”). Failure of Tenant to deliver notice of such election (“Election Notice”) within such seven business-day period shall be deemed a refusal to lease such Right of First Offering Space. In the event Tenant timely delivers the Election Notice countering the ROFO Market Rent, Landlord and Tenant agree to negotiate in good faith within the seven (7)-business day period after Tenant’s delivery of such Election Notice. If the parties agree to the ROFO Market Rent during such seven (7)-business day period, then during such seven (7)-business day period, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a revised Right of First Offering Notice containing the revised ROFO Market Rent (the “Revised Right of First Offering Notice”) and Tenant shall deliver notice to Landlord electing to exercise Tenant’s Right of First Offering to lease all of the Right of First Offering Space on the terms set forth in the Revised Right of First Offering Notice (“Second Election Notice”). If the parties do not agree to the ROFO Market Rent during such seven (7)-business day period, then Tenant shall by the end of the seven (7)-business day period deliver the Second Election Notice to Landlord, except that Tenant shall either elect in such Second Election Notice to exercise Tenant’s Right of First Offering to lease all of the Right of First Offering Space on the terms set forth in the original Right of First Offering Notice, or refuse to lease the same. Failure of Tenant to deliver the Second Election Notice within such seven business-day period shall be deemed a refusal to lease such Right of First Offering Space. If Tenant refuses, or is deemed to have refused, to lease such Right of First Offering Space pursuant to this Section 26.1, then Landlord shall be free to lease the Right of First Offering Space to a third party (or parties) without regard to the Right of First Offering, and this Article XXVI shall terminate and be of no further force and effect. If Tenant properly exercises its Right of First Offering, Tenant’s Right of First Offering shall continue to apply to the balance of the Right of First Offering Space, subject to the terms of this Article XXVI.

26.1.1 Limitations. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the entire Right of First Offering Space is currently vacant and that this Right of First Offering shall not apply until such currently vacant Right of First Offering Space is leased and subsequently becomes vacant. The Right of First Offering is also subject and subordinate to (a) the rights of first offer, rights of first refusal, and other expansion rights of Hewlett Packard Enterprise Company, a Delaware corporation (“HPE”) under that certain Option Rights and Competitor Restriction Agreement executed as of March 23, 2018, between Landlord, as Owner, and HPE, as Tenant, (“HPE Expansion Rights”) and (b) the right of Landlord to renew or extend the term of any of the following leases or subleases (whether or not, the renewal or extension is on the exact terms contained in the applicable tenant’s lease, subtenant’s sublease or consummated pursuant to a lease amendment or a new lease and regardless of whether such lease or sublease contained a written renewal option) (“Other Tenant Renewal Rights”): (i) each and any initial lease of all or any portion of the Right of First Offering Space entered into after the Date of Lease and (ii) each and any lease of Right of First Offering Space entered into in connection with the HPE Expansion Rights. Such HPE Expansion Rights and Other Tenant Renewal Rights are, collectively, referred to as “Senior Rights”.

26.1.2 Lease Amendment. If Tenant elects to lease the Right of First Offering Space, then Landlord and Tenant, within 10 business days after Tenant delivers to Landlord the Election Notice exercising the Right of First Offering, or, if applicable, 10 business days after Tenant delivers the Second Election Notice exercising the Right of First Offering, shall execute an amendment to this Lease which shall (i) add the applicable Right of First Offering Space to the Premises under this Lease, (ii) increase the annual Basic Rent by an amount equal to the product of the total number of Rentable Square Feet in the Right of First Offering Space, multiplied by the ROFO Market Rent for the Right of First Offering Space, as reasonably determined by Landlord and as set forth in the Right of First Offering Notice or, if applicable, in the Revised Right of First Offering Notice, (iii) increase the annual Amenity Building Rent by an amount equal to the product of the total number of Rentable Square Feet of the Amenity Building that is allocable to the Right of First Offering Space, multiplied by the then-prevailing annual rent rate for the Amenity Building, as reasonably determined by Landlord and as set forth in the Right of First Offering Notice, (iv) increase Tenant’s Proportionate Share in direct proportion to the increase of Rentable Square Footage in the Premises as a result of said amendment, and (v) memorialize the other terms set forth in Landlord’s Right of First Offering Notice or, if applicable, in the Revised Right of First Offering Notice. Except as otherwise indicated in Landlord’s Right of First Offering Notice or, if applicable, in the Revised Right of First Offering Notice, and this Article XXVI, all of the terms and conditions contained in this Lease shall apply to the Right of First Offering Space; provided, however, Tenant shall not be entitled to any improvement allowance, moving allowance, free rent or rent abatement concession for any Right of First Offering Space, unless specifically set forth in Landlord’s Right of First Offering Notice or, if applicable, in the Revised Right of First Offering Notice. Unless otherwise set forth in Landlord’s Right of First Offering Notice, the commencement date for any Right of First Offering Space shall be 30 days after the later of (x) Tenant’s delivery to Landlord of the Election Notice exercising said Right of First Offering Space or (y) vacation of such Right of First Offering Space by the previous tenant; provided, however, in the event Tenant actually occupies any portion of the Right of First Offering Space prior to such date for the conduct of its business, the commencement date shall be the earlier date upon which Tenant occupies such Right of First Offering Space.

26.2 Condition of Premises. Tenant shall accept any Right of First Offering Space in “as is” condition as of the date of any election to lease such space hereunder, except as may be provided in the Right of First Offering Notice.

26.3 Conditions Precedent. Tenant’s Right of First Offering and Landlord’s obligation to deliver the Right of First Offering Notice or, if applicable, the Revised Right of First Offering Notice, are expressly subject to the following conditions precedent: (i) this Lease is in full force and effect; (ii) Tenant meets or exceeds the Minimum Credit Standards, and proof satisfactory to Landlord that such Minimum Credit Standards have been met shall be delivered to Landlord with Tenant’s delivery of the Election Notice, (iii) no Event of Default exists or would exist but for the pendency of any cure periods provided for in Section 20.1 at the time Tenant delivers the Election Notice, or, if applicable, the Second Election Notice, to Landlord exercising the Right of First Offering; and (iv) at least one (1) Lease Year remains in the Term or Tenant has timely exercised the applicable Renewal Option.

26.4 Holdover. Landlord shall not be liable for the failure to give possession of any Right of First Offering Space to Tenant by reason of the unauthorized holding over or retention of possession by any other tenant or occupant thereof, and no such failure shall impair the validity of this Lease or extend the Term thereof.

26.5 Personal Right. The Right of First Offering is personal with respect to MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and either a Related Entity to whom this Lease is assigned in accordance with Section 10.4 or an assignee to whom this Lease is assigned pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Section 10.5. Any assignment of the Lease or subletting of any portion of the Premises other than to a Related Entity in accordance with Section 10.4 or pursuant to an Ownership Transfer in accordance with Section 10.5 shall automatically terminate MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company’s rights under this Article XXVI. Time is of the essence with respect to the provisions of this Article XXVI.

XXVII. RESTRICTIONS ON COMPETITORS

For purposes of this Article XXVII, “Competitors” shall mean Forcepoint, LLC; Palo Alto Networks, Inc.; Symantec Corporation; and ForeScout Technologies, Inc.; provided that such entity is in actual business competition with Tenant. During the Term, Landlord will not, without the prior written consent of Tenant, enter into any direct lease or license of space on any of the floors of the Building with a Competitor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions in this Article XXVII will terminate automatically if (i) Landlord terminates this Lease or Tenant’s right to possession of the Premises upon the occurrence of an Event of Default; (ii) the entire Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises ceases to be occupied by MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, or its Related Entity pursuant to an assignment or sublease made in accordance with Section 10.4, or its assignee pursuant to an Ownership Transfer made in accordance with Section 10.5; (iii) Tenant terminates this Lease prior to the Expiration Date; or (iv) MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company assigns this Lease or sublets any portion of the Fifth & Sixth Floor other than to a Related Entity in accordance with Section 10.4 or its assignee pursuant to an Ownership Transfer in accordance with Section 10.5.

2. Tenant Work Allowance.

2.1 Allowance for Tenant Work. Tenant shall receive as a credit against the actual Cost of the Tenant Work (as defined in this Paragraph) an amount up to $6,741,840.00 (the “Tenant Work Allowance”); provided, however, except as expressly provided in this Paragraph 2.1, the Tenant Work Allowance shall not be available for any portion of the Cost of the Tenant Work applicable to the purchase or installation of trade fixtures, equipment, furniture, furnishings, telephone and data equipment, Cabling, or other personal property, including, without limitation, any demountable walls that constitute movable systems. Landlord shall pay the Tenant Work Allowance directly to Tenant or, at Tenant’s option, to Tenant's architect or Tenant's general contractor, as the case may be. All costs of the Tenant Work in excess of the Tenant Work Allowance (“Tenant’s Contribution”) shall be payable by Tenant. The Tenant Work Allowance will be released in installments pro-rata with Tenant’s Contribution, based upon the proportion of the Cost of the Tenant Work that will be paid by the Tenant Work Allowance and the proportion of the Cost of the Tenant Work that will be paid by the Tenant’s Contribution. With each request for release of the Tenant Work Allowance, Tenant must provide Landlord with Tenant’s certification that the Tenant Work can be completed for the remaining pro-rata balance of the Tenant Contribution and Tenant Work Allowance “In-Balance Certification”). If for any reason Tenant cannot deliver the In-Balance Certification, Tenant shall modify the Project Budget (as defined in Paragraph 3.2) and increase Tenant’s Contribution, modify Tenant’s Work, re-bid elements of Tenant’s Work or take other actions so as to allow Tenant to issue the In-Balance Certification. Landlord may withhold release of the Tenant Work Allowance at any time that Tenant cannot deliver the In-Balance Certification until final completion of the Tenant Work. Upon final completion of the Tenant Work, Landlord will pay any unutilized portion of the Tenant Work Allowance to Tenant, subject to terms of Paragraph 2.2. “Cost of the Tenant Work” means all costs to be expended in connection with the construction of the Tenant Work, including but not limited to the following: (i) architectural and engineering fees incurred in connection with the preparation of the Tenant’s Plans (as defined in Paragraph 3.1); (ii) governmental agency plan check, permit and other fees (including any changes required by any governmental entity or authority having jurisdiction thereof); (iii) sales and use taxes, if any; (iv) insurance fees associated with the construction of the Tenant Work; (v) testing and inspecting costs; and (vi) the actual costs and charges for material and labor, contractor’s profit and contractor’s general overhead incurred in constructing the Tenant Work, plus Landlord’s administrative fee, which shall be three percent (3%) of the Tenant Work Allowance, unless SteelWave CDS, Inc. is selected as the general contractor pursuant to Paragraph 4, in which case Landlord will waive such administrative fee. The Tenant Work Allowance shall be available to Tenant through the date that is 18 months after the Date of Lease (“Allowance Deadline”). Landlord shall have no obligation to pay, reimburse or allow Tenant any right of offset to the extent of any unspent portion of the Tenant Work Allowance remaining on the Allowance Deadline.
Disbursement of Tenant Work Allowance for Tenant Work. Except as otherwise set forth herein, Landlord shall disburse portions of the Tenant Work Allowance by check once each month during the period of Tenant’s construction of the Tenant Work, commencing no sooner than thirty (30) calendar days after Tenant commences construction of the Tenant Work and provides Landlord written notice of such commencement of construction. The regular monthly Tenant Work Allowance disbursement date (the “Disbursement Date”) shall be the thirtieth (30th) day of each month.

No later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a request for payment in form and content reasonably acceptable to Landlord which shall include, without limitation, (i) a certification by Tenant and Tenant’s architect of the percentage of completion of the Tenant Work; (ii) an itemization of the costs paid by Tenant’s Contribution until Tenant’s Contribution has been fully paid, together with invoices therefor; (iii) an itemization of new costs, together with invoices therefor, incurred by Tenant and not previously reimbursed by Landlord; (iv) unconditional lien waivers from all contractors and suppliers for all preceding payments (including the payment of Tenant’s Contribution) in the form required by California law and reasonably approved by Landlord, and conditional lien waivers from all contractors and suppliers for the current month’s requested payment (including the payment of Tenant’s Contribution) in the form required by California law and reasonably approved by Landlord; and (v) the In-Balance Certification. If Tenant fails to timely deliver the required information, Landlord shall disburse the Tenant Work Allowance to Tenant on or before the next following Disbursement Date, provided that Tenant has delivered the required information and except as otherwise provided under Paragraph 2.1 if Tenant is unable to deliver the In-Balance Certification.

On the Disbursement Date, Landlord shall disburse to Tenant a sum equal to the lesser of (i) “Landlord’s Share” (as hereinafter defined) less a ten percent (10%) retention; or (ii) the balance of any remaining available portion of the Tenant Work Allowance less a ten percent (10%) retention. “Landlord’s Share” shall mean a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the Tenant Work Allowance by the percentage of Tenant Work completed from the last Tenant’s architect certification date (including the certification date applicable to the portion of the Cost of the Tenant Work paid through Tenant’s Contribution), as such additional percentage is verified by Landlord, and as adjusted based on the In-Balance Certification in order that Landlord’s Share is released pro-rata with Tenant’s Contribution. Landlord shall have the right to withhold from any such disbursement of Landlord’s Share such amount as Landlord reasonably deems necessary to account for items of Tenant Work which are not acceptable in Landlord’s reasonable discretion. Disbursement by Landlord of a portion of the Tenant Work Allowance shall not be deemed to constitute a representation or warranty by Landlord that such work complies with the Tenant Plans (as hereinafter defined) or any governmental law, code or regulation and no third party may rely on such disbursement as evidence that the Tenant Work complies with same.
The sums retained by Landlord from each request for payment and the final installment payment of Landlord’s Share shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) calendar days after the last to occur of: (i) final completion and acceptance of the Tenant Work by Landlord’s Representative after completion of all Punch-List Items (as defined in Paragraph 9); (ii) acceptance of the Tenant Work by all governmental agencies having authority therefore and issuance of a final unconditional certificate of occupancy; (iii) Tenant’s filing of a notice of completion in the form required by California law and reasonably approved by Landlord; (iv) delivery to Landlord of final unconditional mechanic’s lien releases from Tenant’s subcontractors, laborers, materialmen and suppliers with respect to the Tenant Work in the form required by California law and reasonably approved by Landlord; (v) Tenant’s delivery to Landlord of evidence of costs incurred in a form reasonably acceptable to Landlord; and (vi) Tenant’s delivery to Landlord of all contracts, warranties (including, without limitation, for labor, materials and equipment), operating manuals, descriptions and instructions for all equipment and systems, and a full set of final “as built” Construction Drawings and Specifications.

If a Lien is recorded against the Building or the Project or any stop notices are served on Landlord during the course of and in connection with the Tenant Work, then Landlord shall have the right to withhold from the Tenant Work Allowance a sum equal to one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the claimed or disputed amount. Landlord shall have the right to make payment of the claimed or disputed sum directly to the claimant to cause the release of any Lien where said Lien has not been removed by the recordation of either a release of mechanic’s lien or a statutory lien release bond issued by a corporate surety reasonably acceptable to Landlord within ten (10) business days following the date Tenant receives notice of filing or delivery of the Lien.

3. Design and Schedule.

3.1 Tenant Plans for Tenant Work.

(a) Space Plan: The “Space Plan” as used herein shall mean a plan containing, among other things, a partition layout, door location and system furniture located in key spaces within the Premises. Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of Tenant’s initial test fit, up to but not exceeding $10,112.76, which cost shall be in addition to, and not a part of, the Tenant Work Allowance. Landlord shall pay such cost directly to Tenant’s architect within 30 days after Landlord’s receipt of the invoice for such test-fit.

Construction Drawings and Specifications: The "Construction Drawings and Specifications" as used herein shall mean the construction working drawings, the mechanical, electrical and other technical specifications, and the finishing details, including wall finishes and colors and technical and mechanical equipment installation, if any, all of which details the installation of the Tenant Work in the Premises sufficient for obtaining a building permit. The Construction Drawings and Specifications shall:

(iii) comply with all applicable insurance regulations and the requirements of the Board of Underwriters for a fire resistant Class A building;

(iv) include locations of all Tenant Work including complete dimensions and provide for Tenant Work to fully build-out the entire Premises; and

(v) conform to Landlord’s Building standard specifications attached as Exhibit B-2 ("Specifications") unless Landlord approves deviations from such Specifications in Landlord’s sole discretion.

(c) Except as specified by Landlord pursuant to Paragraph 8 hereof, all Tenant Work, whether covered by the Tenant Work Allowance or not, including, without limitation, Tenant Work which is permanently affixed to the Premises or alters the operational systems of the Building shall become the property of Landlord upon expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and shall remain on the Premises at all times during the Term.

The Space Plan and Construction Drawings and Specifications are collectively referred to as the “Tenant Plans.”

3.2 Approvals by Landlord. Landlord has approved the following architects as Tenant’s architect: AP+I Design, NELSON, M Moser Associates, Ware Malcomb, RMW. If Tenant engages any other architect or engineers separately from the approved architects as Tenant’s engineer to generate the mechanical, electrical and plumbing plans, then such architects and engineers, as applicable, shall be subject to Landlord’s approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. If Tenant desires to engage a different architect or engineer than those pre-approved in this Paragraph 3.2, then Landlord’s approval shall be required, but shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Tenant and Landlord have approved the Space Plan for the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises attached as Exhibit B-4. All Tenant Plans, including, without limitation, the Space Plan for the First Floor Premises, for the Tenant Work shall be subject to Landlord’s prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, except that Landlord shall have complete discretion with regard to granting or withholding approval of (a) all light fixtures, entry doors, interior doors, HVAC diffusers and demountable walls included in the Tenant Plans or (b) to the extent the Tenant Work included in the Tenant Plans (i) impacts the Building’s structure or systems, (ii) affects future marketability of the Building, (iii) would be visible from the Common Areas or the exterior of the Building, (iv) is inconsistent with use of the Premises as a class A office building, or (v) does not fully build-out the entire Premises. Any changes, additions or modifications that Tenant desires to make to the Tenant Plans also shall be subject to Landlord’s prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld except as provided above for Building structure, system, marketability or appearance impact. The contract with Tenant’s general contractor shall be subject to Landlord’s prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, except that Landlord shall have the right to withhold its approval in the event that the contract does not contain a budget for the Tenant Work ("Project Budget"), a written construction schedule (the “Written Construction Schedule”) and a staging plan that identifies where in the Surface Lot and other Common Area located on the Land on which the Building is located that such general contractor will place its vehicles, equipment, materials, supplies or other property, to the extent not stored in the Building (“Staging Plan”). For purposes of this Work Letter, at any time that the prior written approval of the Landlord is required, Landlord’s approval or disapproval shall be given within 10 business days after receipt of such request, accompanied with the reasons for Landlord’s disapproval, if applicable.

3.3 Course of Construction. If the course of construction of the Tenant Work as set forth in the Written Construction Schedule is delayed for a time period equal to or greater than two weeks, then Landlord shall have the right to require a meeting with Tenant’s general contractor and appropriate consultants.

4. Construction of Tenant Work. Following Landlord’s final approval of the Tenant Plans, Tenant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all building and other governmentally required permits within 60 days after Landlord’s approval. Following Tenant’s satisfaction of the conditions set forth in this Paragraph 4, Tenant shall commence and diligently proceed with the construction of the Tenant Work in accordance with the Written Construction Schedule. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that Tenant shall hire its own general contractor or contractors to complete the Tenant Work in accordance with this Work Agreement. The Tenant Work shall be conducted with due diligence, in a good and workmanlike manner befitting a first class office building, and in accordance with the Tenant Plans, the Lease, this Work Agreement and all applicable laws, codes, ordinances and rules and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction.

In addition to Tenant’s indemnity obligations under the Lease, Tenant hereby agrees to indemnify Landlord and hold Landlord harmless from any and all Claims for personal or bodily injury and property damage that may arise from the performance of the Tenant Work, whether resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of its general contractors, subcontractors or their respective Agents. Tenant and its contractors and subcontractors shall execute such additional documents as Landlord deems reasonably appropriate to evidence said indemnity and in order to indemnify, protect, hold harmless and defend (by counsel acceptable to Landlord) Landlord, its affiliates and each of their respective Agents, successors and assigns, from and against any and all claims, damages, penalties, fines, liabilities and cost (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and court costs) to the extent caused by or arising out of (i) a violation of the prohibitions set forth in Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not commence the Tenant Work until Tenant has delivered at least 30 days’ prior written notice to Landlord and the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) Insurance. Prior to construction, Tenant shall provide Landlord with an original certificate and a certified copy of the policy, together with appropriate endorsement(s) and other documents, of All-Risk Builder’s Risk Insurance (the “Builder’s Risk Insurance Policy”), subject to Landlord’s reasonable approval, in the minimum amount of the replacement cost of the Tenant Work issued by a company or companies acceptable to Landlord and authorized to do business in California, covering the Premises, with premiums prepaid, and which names the Landlord as loss payee. Said policy shall insure the Tenant Work and all materials and supplies for the Tenant Work stored on the Premises (or at any other sites) against loss or damage by fire and the risks and hazards insured against by the standard form of extended coverage, and against vandalism and malicious mischief, and such other risks and hazards as Landlord may reasonably request. Said insurance coverage shall be for 100% of replacement cost, including architectural fees. The Builder’s Risk Insurance Policy shall contain a provision that the insurance company waive the rights of recovery or subrogation against the Landlord, its Agents, Mortgagee, co-tenants, co-venturers, affiliates, and their insurer.

(b) Approved Contractors and Estimate. Tenant shall bid for contracts for the Tenant Work from at least three (3) general contractors, including SteelWave CDS, Inc., and three (3) subcontractors, materialmen and suppliers per trade, which contractors and subcontractors shall be selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Furthermore, Landlord shall recommend one of the three (3) mechanical, electrical and plumbing subcontractors per trade from which bids are to be solicited.

(c) Governmental Permits. Tenant shall obtain all building permits and other appropriate permits and licenses from the appropriate agency or office of any governmental or regulatory body having jurisdiction over the Premises and which are required for the construction of the Tenant Work.

(d) Additional Insurance. Tenant shall provide Landlord with the required evidence of satisfaction of the insurance requirements set forth in Exhibit B-3 attached hereto in the form meeting the requirements of Exhibit B-3 attached hereto.

(e) Accepted Contract and Bid. Tenant’s acceptance of the general contractor’s bid shall be subject to Landlord approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed if such bid is complete and representative of all the work and materials required to construct the Tenant Work. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant is not obligated to select the lowest bid. Landlord and Tenant may also consider, among other things, the amount of the bid, construction time, availability and reputation of and prior business dealings with such general contractor. Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of the contract entered into with the general contractor, which shall include the Project Budget, Written Construction Schedule, the indemnity agreements required under this Work Agreement, the requirement to comply with the insurance requirements set forth in Exhibit B-3 and the names of all subcontractors, materialmen and suppliers. Tenant shall further provide Landlord with a copy of the contract for the architect, engineer and other design professionals, as applicable, and the contract for other vendors involved in the execution of the Tenant Work (which may be in the form of a purchase order or work authorization).

5. Change Orders. If Tenant desires any change or addition to the Tenant Work after Tenant’s and Landlord’s approval of the Construction Drawings and Specifications, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a request for a “Proposal for Change”, including a change quotation containing the scope of the work, the cost, and the delay in Substantial Completion. If Landlord approves such Proposal for Change, Tenant shall issue a “Change Order”. Landlord’s approval of a Change Order shall not be unreasonably withheld, unless the Change Order involves work which, when completed, (i) could impact the Building’s structure or systems, (ii) could affect future marketability of the Building, (iii) would be visible from the Common Areas or the exterior of the Building, (iv) are inconsistent with use of the Premises as a class A office building or (v) would result in Tenant Work that does not fully build-out the entire Premises.

6. Cooperation With Other Tenants. Tenant shall promptly remove from the Surface Lot and other Common Areas any vehicles, equipment, materials, supplies or other property of Tenant or contractors deposited in the Surface Lot and other Common Areas during the construction of the Tenant Work. The parties recognize and acknowledge that the Tenant Work constitutes a major construction project that may require scheduling of access to the Project and Building and may cause disruption customary to comparable construction projects. Tenant will exercise reasonable care to require that its contractors adhere to the Written Construction Schedule and Staging Plan and not unreasonably disrupt or allow disruption to existing Project tenants’ parking vehicles and pedestrian access, nor allow unreasonable disruptions of mechanical, electrical, telephone and plumbing services serving any space in the Project occupied by other tenants nor unreasonably interrupt the normal business operation of any other tenant at the Project.

7. Inspection by Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Tenant Work at all reasonable times upon prior notice to Tenant. Landlord’s failure to inspect the Tenant Work shall in no event constitute a waiver of any of Landlord’s rights hereunder nor shall Landlord’s inspection of the Tenant Work constitute the Landlord’s approval of same.

8. Removal of Tenant Improvements. Portions of the Tenant Work, as reasonably determined by Landlord to be specialized Tenant Work (including, without limitation, floor and ceiling mounted auxiliary air conditioning units, non-building standard fire suppression/control systems, computer rooms, auditoriums, laboratories, and Cabling), shall, at the election of Landlord either be removed by Tenant at its expense before the expiration of the Term or shall remain upon the Premises and be surrendered therewith at the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease as the property of Landlord without disturbance, molestation or injury. Landlord must make such election by written notice to Tenant delivered on or before the later of the date on which Landlord and Tenant approve the Construction Drawings and Specifications or applicable Change Orders. If Landlord requires the removal of all or part of said Tenant Work, Tenant, at its expense, shall repair any damage to the Premises or the Building caused by such removal and restore the Premises to its condition prior to the installation of such Tenant Work. If Tenant fails to remove said Tenant Work upon Landlord’s request, then Landlord may (but shall not be obligated to) remove the same and the cost of such removal, repair and restoration, together with any and all damages which Landlord may suffer and sustain by reason of the failure of Tenant to remove the same, shall be charged to Tenant and paid upon demand. All Cabling installed by Tenant inside any of the interior walls of the Premises, above the ceilings of the Premises, in any portion of the ceiling plenums above or below the Premises, or in any portion of the common areas, including but not limited to any of the shafts or utility rooms of the Building, shall be clearly labeled or otherwise identified as having been installed by Tenant. All Cabling installed by Tenant shall comply with the requirements of the National Electric Code and any other applicable fire and safety codes. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, unless Landlord consents, in its sole discretion, to a request by Tenant not to remove such Cabling, Tenant shall remove all Cabling installed by Tenant anywhere in the Premises or the Building in accordance with the Lease to the point of the origin of such Cabling, and repair any damage to the Premises or the Building resulting from such removal.

9. Completion of Tenant Work. “Substantial Completion” of the Tenant Work shall be conclusively deemed to have occurred as soon as the Tenant Work to be installed by Tenant pursuant to this Work Agreement has been constructed in accordance with the approved Construction Drawings and Specifications and approved Change Orders, except for items reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant, including but not limited to minor or insubstantial details of construction, decoration or mechanical adjustment, the lack of completion of which will not materially interfere with Tenant’s permitted use of the Premises (“Punch List Items”). Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing when the Tenant Work has been Substantially Completed. Landlord shall thereupon have the opportunity to inspect the Tenant Work in order to determine if the Tenant Work has been Substantially Completed and approve the identified Punch List Items. If the Tenant Work has not been Substantially Completed, Landlord shall immediately following inspection, provide Tenant with written notification of the items deemed incorrect or incomplete. Tenant shall forthwith proceed to correct the incorrect or incomplete items. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Tenant Work shall not be considered suitable for review by Landlord until all designated or required governmental inspections, permits and certifications necessary for the Tenant Work, including, but not limited to final inspection by the governing jurisdiction, have been made, given and/or posted. Tenant shall complete any Punch List Items within 30 days after Substantial Completion.
10. Third Party Beneficiary. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that Landlord shall be included as a third party beneficiary under any and all agreements between Tenant and its contractors, together with any warranties pursuant to the same, which agreements and warranties shall be fully assignable to Landlord and permit Landlord to enforce such warranties and agreements, including, without limitation, in a court of competent jurisdiction.

EXHIBIT C

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No part or the whole of the sidewalks, plaza areas, entrances, passages, courts, elevators, vestibules, stairways, corridors or halls of the Project shall be obstructed or encumbered by Tenant or used for any purpose other than ingress and egress to and from the Premises. Except as provided in the Lease and the License Agreement (Rooftop Installations), Tenant shall not have access to the roof of the Building, unless accompanied by a representative of Landlord.

2. No equipment, furnishings, personal property or fixtures shall be placed on any balcony of the Building without first obtaining Landlord’s written consent. 3. No showcases or other articles shall be put in front of or affixed to any part of the exterior of the Building, nor placed in the Common Area.

4. Tenant shall not place or permit its Agents to place any trash or other objects anywhere within the Project (other than within the Premises) without first obtaining Landlord’s written consent, except that trash may be deposited in the Building’s exterior dumpsters or any garbage cans located throughout the Project for the general use of tenants and occupants of the Project.

5. The water and wash closets and other plumbing fixtures shall not be used for any purposes other than those for which they were constructed, and no sweepings, rubbish bags or other substances (including, without limitation, coffee grounds) shall be thrown therein.

7. No cooking shall be done or permitted in the Building by Tenant or its Agents except that Tenant may install and use microwave ovens. Tenant shall not cause or permit any unusual or objectionable odors to emanate from the Premises.

8. The Premises shall not be used for the manufacturing or storage of merchandise (other than merchandise for use in displays and meetings in the Premises).

9. Tenant shall not make or permit any unseemly or disturbing noises or disturb or interfere with other tenants or occupants of the Project or neighboring buildings or premises by the use of any musical instrument, radio, television set, other audio device, unmusical noise, whistling, singing or in any other way.
10. Nothing shall be thrown out of any doors, windows or skylights or down any passageways.

11. No additional locks or bolts of any kind shall be placed upon any of the doors or windows of the Premises, nor shall any changes be made in locks or the mechanism thereof without prior notice to and the approval of Landlord. Tenant shall, upon the termination of its Lease, return to Landlord all keys to the Premises and other areas furnished to, or otherwise procured by, Tenant, in the event of the loss of any such keys or card keys, as applicable, Tenant shall pay Landlord the cost of replacement keys.

12. Tenant shall not use or occupy or permit any portion of the Premises to be used or occupied as an employment bureau or for the storage, manufacture or sale of liquor, narcotics or drugs. Tenant shall not engage or pay any employees in the Building except those actually working for Tenant in the Building, and Tenant shall not advertise for non-clerical employees giving the Building as an address. The Premises shall not be used, or permitted to be used, for lodging or sleeping or for any immoral or illegal purpose.

13. Subject to the terms of the Lease, Tenant shall have access to the Premises 24 hours per day, seven days per week. Landlord reserves the right to control and operate the Common Area in such manner as it deems best for the benefit of the Project tenants. Landlord may exclude from all or a part of the Common Area at all hours, other than during Normal Business Hours, all unauthorized persons. “Normal Business Hours” shall be deemed to be between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M. Monday through Friday, but excluding Building holidays. Tenant shall be responsible for all Agents of Tenant who enter the Building and Project, including, without limitation, on Building holidays and during other than Normal Business Hours and shall be liable to Landlord for all acts of such persons.

14. Tenant shall have the responsibility for the security of the Premises and, before closing and leaving the Premises at any time, Tenant shall see that all entrance doors are locked and Landlord shall have no responsibility relating thereto. Landlord will not be responsible for any lost or stolen personal property, equipment, money or jewelry from the Premises or Common Areas regardless of whether such loss occurs when the area is locked against entry or not.

15. Requests and requirements of Tenant shall be attended to only upon application at the office of Landlord. Project employees shall not be required to perform any work outside of their regular duties unless under specific instructions from Landlord.

16. Vending, canvassing, soliciting and peddling in the Project are prohibited, and Tenant shall cooperate in seeking their prevention.

17. In connection with the delivery or receipt of merchandise, freight or other matter, no hand trucks or other means of conveyance shall be permitted, except those equipped with rubber tires, rubber side guards or such other safeguards as Landlord may require.

18. No animals of any kind shall be brought into or kept about the Building or the Project by Tenant or its Agents, except (a) service dogs meeting the requirements of the ADA who are individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability or (b) on Fridays only, dogs in compliance with the dog visitation policy attached as Exhibit C-1 (“Dog Visitation Policy”).
19. Landlord reserves the right to place or install vending machines in the Project (other than in the Premises).

20. Tenant shall not allow in the Premises, on a regular basis, more than six persons for each 1000 Rentable Square Feet of the Premises (“Standard Density Limitation”).

21. So that the Building may be kept in a good state of cleanliness, Tenant shall permit only contractors approved by Landlord or Landlord’s employees and contractors to clean its Premises.

22. Intentionally Deleted.

23. The persons employed to move Tenant’s equipment, material, furniture or other property in or out of the Building must be a professional moving company, whose primary business is the performing of relocation services, must be licensed to the extent required by applicable law and must be bonded and fully insured. A certificate or other verification of such insurance must be received and approved by Landlord prior to the start of any moving operations. Insurance must be sufficient in Landlord’s sole opinion, to cover all personal liability, theft or damage to the Project, including, but not limited to, floor coverings, doors, walls, elevators, stairs, foliage and landscaping. Special care must be taken to prevent damage to foliage and landscaping during adverse weather. All moving operations will be conducted at such times and in such a manner as Landlord will direct, and all moving will take place during non-business hours unless Landlord agrees in writing otherwise. Tenant will be responsible for the provision of Building security during all moving operations, and will be liable for all losses and damages sustained by any party as a result of the failure to supply adequate security. Landlord will have the right to prescribe the weight, size and position of all equipment, materials, furniture or other property brought into the Building. Heavy objects that are reasonably likely to meet or exceed the load bearing capacity of flooring in the Premises will, as necessary, stand on wood or metal strips of such thickness as is necessary properly to distribute the weight. The elevator designated for freight by Landlord will be available for use by all tenants in the Building during the hours and pursuant to such procedures as Landlord may determine from time to time. Landlord will not be responsible for loss of or damage to any such property from any cause, and all damage done to the Project by moving or maintaining such property will be repaired at the expense of Tenant. Landlord reserves the right to inspect all such property to be brought into the Building and to exclude from the Building all such property which violates any of these Rules and Regulations or the Lease of which these Rules and Regulations are a part.

24. A directory of the Building will be provided for the display of the name and location of tenants only and such reasonable number of the principal officers and employees of tenants as Landlord in its sole discretion approves, but Landlord will not in any event be obligated to furnish more than one (1) directory strip for each 2,500 square feet of Rentable Area in the Premises. Any additional name(s) which Tenant desires to place in such directory must first be approved by Landlord, and if so approved, Tenant will pay to Landlord a charge, set by Landlord, for each such additional name. All entries on the building directory display will conform to standards and style set by Landlord in its sole discretion. Space on any exterior signage will be provided in Landlord’s sole discretion.
25. Neither Landlord nor any operator of the Parking Facilities within the Project, as the same are designated and modified by Landlord, in its sole discretion, from time to time will be liable for loss of or damage to any vehicle or any contents of such vehicle or accessories to any such vehicle, or any property left in any of the Parking Facilities, resulting from fire, theft, vandalism, accident, conduct of other users of the Parking Facilities and other persons, or any other casualty or cause. Further, Tenant understands and agrees that: (i) Landlord will not be obligated to provide any traffic control, security protection or operator for the Parking Facilities; (ii) Tenant and Tenant’s Agents use the Parking Facilities at their own risk; and (iii) Landlord will not be liable for personal injury or death, or theft, loss of or damage to property.

26. Tenant (including Tenant’s Agents) will use the Parking Space Allocation solely for the purpose of parking passenger model cars, small vans and small trucks and will comply in all respects with any rules and regulations that may be promulgated by Landlord from time to time with respect to the Parking Facilities. The Parking Facilities may be used by Tenant or its Agents for occasional overnight parking of vehicles. Tenant will ensure that any vehicle parked in any of the Parking Space Allocation will be kept in proper repair and will not leak excessive amounts of oil or grease or any amount of gasoline. If any of the Parking Space Allocation are at any time used: (i) for any purpose other than parking as provided above; or (ii) in any way or manner reasonably objectionable to Landlord; provided, however, in lieu of such violation constituting an Event of a Default, Landlord will be entitled to revoke parking privileges of any individual Agent of Tenant, but no violation by Tenant’s Agent of the Rules and Regulations relating to use of the Parking Facilities will constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease. In addition to Landlord’s rights to revoke parking privileges for violation by any individual Agents of Tenant of the Rules and Regulations with respect to use of the Parking Facilities, Landlord shall have the right to charge Tenant $575 per day for each violation that remains uncured after Landlord has delivered notice to Tenant of the violation, unless Tenant cures the violation within 30 days thereafter. If the violation is of the nature that it may be repeated or continuing after the initial cure thereof or is committed by more than one individual Agent of Tenant, such as by way of example, employees parking a vehicle in the Surface Lot that leaks excessive amounts of oil, then such violation shall not be considered cured by the fact that the vehicle is subsequently removed from the Surface Lot, if that same violation is then subsequently repeated and continues to be repeated, unless and until the violation ceases completely and Tenant or Tenant’s Agents, as applicable, cease the action causing the violation or take the required action to prevent, and actually does prevent, the violation from repeating or continuing.

27. Subject to the terms of the Lease, Tenant’s right to use the Parking Facilities will be in common with other tenants of the Project and with other parties permitted by Landlord to use the Parking Facilities. Landlord reserves the right to assign and reassign, from time to time, particular parking spaces for use by persons selected by Landlord provided that Tenant’s rights under the Lease are preserved. Landlord will not be liable to Tenant for any unavailability of Tenant’s designated spaces, if any, nor will any unavailability entitle Tenant to any refund, deduction, or allowance. Tenant will not park in any numbered space or any space designated as: RESERVED, HANDICAPPED, VISITORS ONLY, or LIMITED TIME PARKING (or similar designation).
28. Intentionally Deleted.

29. Tenant has no right to assign or sublicense any of its rights in the Parking Space Allocation, except as part of a permitted assignment or sublease of the Lease; however, Tenant may allocate the Parking Space Allocation among its employees.

30. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in keeping its Premises neat and clean.

31. Smoking or vaping of cigarettes, pipes, cigars, e-cigarettes or any other substance is prohibited at all times within the Premises, elevators, Common Area restrooms, any other interior Common Area of the Building or Project and, unless designated as a smoking area, any exterior Common Area of the Project.

32. If required by Landlord, each tenant is required to participate in the Project’s recycling or other trash management program, as well as any green initiatives that may be in effect from time to time. This includes compliance with all instructions from the Project’s recycling or other vendor which Landlord shall distribute to each tenant from time to time. Each tenant shall store all trash and garbage within its premises or in such other areas specifically designated by Landlord. No materials shall be placed in the trash boxes or receptacles in the Project unless such materials may be disposed of in the ordinary and customary manner of removing and disposing of trash and garbage and will not result in a violation of any law or ordinance governing such disposal. All garbage and refuse disposal shall be only through entryways and elevators provided for such purposes and at such times as Landlord shall designate.

33. These Rules and Regulations are in addition to, and shall be construed to modify and amend the terms, covenants, agreements and conditions of the Lease; provided, however, in the event of any inconsistency between the terms and provisions of the Lease and the terms and provisions of these Rules and Regulations, the terms and provisions of the Lease shall control.

34. Tenant shall give Landlord prompt notice of any known accidents to or defects in the water pipes, gas pipes, electric lights and fixtures, heating apparatus, or any other service equipment.

35. Tenant and its Agents shall not bring into the Building or keep on the Premises any bicycle or other vehicle without the written consent of Landlord.

36. Subject to the terms of the Lease, Landlord reserves the right to amend these Rules and Regulations and to make such other and further reasonable Rules and Regulations as, in its judgment, may from time to time be needed and desirable; provided that any such amendment to these Rules and Regulations shall be nondiscriminatory and apply to all tenants of the Building.

37. Tenant will refer all contractors, contractors’ representatives and installation technicians rendering any service for Tenant to Landlord for Landlord’s supervision and/or approval before performance of any such contractual services, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld if the contractor is a professional company, whose primary business is performing the contracted services, and is licensed to the extent required by applicable law, bonded and fully insured. A certificate or other verification of such insurance must be received and approved by Landlord prior to the start of any contractual services. Insurance must be sufficient in Landlord’s sole opinion, to cover all personal liability, theft or damage to the Project, including, but not limited to, floor coverings, doors, walls, elevators, stairs, foliage and landscaping. This shall apply to all work performed in the Building, including, but not limited to, installation of telephones, telegraph equipment, electrical devices and attachments, and installations of any and every nature affecting floors, walls, woodwork, trim, windows, ceilings, equipment or any other physical portion of the Building. None of this work will be done by Tenant without first obtaining Landlord’s written approval.

38. Without limitation to the Rules and Regulations that are applicable to the Common Areas, the following Rules and Regulations shall apply to any use of the Sports Park, subject to the terms of the Lease:
   a. The Sports Park is only available for use on a first come-first served basis by tenants of America Center and their adult employees (“Authorized User”).
   b. No guests or minors are permitted on the Sports Park unless accompanied by an Authorized User at all times.
   c. Use of the Sports Park is prohibited between the hours of 9:00 pm and 5:00 am, after dark (unless lighted) and when wet.
   d. The following are prohibited at the Sports Park at all times: smoking, cooking and use of barbeque grills (except in the Orchard), animals, food and drinks on the Basketball Court (except water in closeable plastic containers), glass containers, use of the Sports Park under the influence of alcohol, stimulants, or depressants, items with wheels on the synthetic turf, and use of tape and adhesives on the synthetic turf.
   e. No medical professionals or fitness instructors are provided by Landlord or supervising the Sports Park at any time.
   f. Only persons who are physically able, including with personally available medical assistance, are permitted to use the Sports Park. Any person who feels ill, dizzy or faint should discontinue activity at the Sports Park and seek help.
   g. Appropriate exercise shoes and attire are required. Shoes with cleats are prohibited on the Basketball Court at all times.
   h. Please report any malfunctioning equipment or damage to the Sports Park to the Project management office. Do not relocate or use any equipment at the Sports Park, except as in the manner intended for its proper use.
   i. Always practice safety and courtesy to others.
   j. Use of the Sports Park is contingent on compliance with any rules and regulations posted at the Sports Park from time to time, regardless of whether stated in these Rules and Regulations.
k. Landlord retains sole discretion to interpret and amend the rules and regulations for the use of the Sports Park, terminate use of the Sports Park at any time and to regulate use of the Sports Park through reservations, time limitations or otherwise.

39. Without limitation to the Rules and Regulations that are applicable to the Common Areas, the following Rules and Regulations shall apply to any use of the Amenities, the Amenity Building, the Phase II Common Area, the fire pit lounge and any other amenities provided in the Common Areas for Tenant’s non-exclusive use (collectively, “Common Area Amenities”):

a. Tenant understands that Landlord has provided certain Common Area Amenities for Tenant’s non-exclusive use. Such Common Area Amenities are for the use of tenants during Normal Business Hours and such additional hours as may be designated by Landlord and may be subject to reservation, at Landlord’s option, through the Project management office in advance. Landlord may condition the use of Common Area Amenities on the execution of use, release or waiver agreements by Tenant and Tenant’s Agents using the Common Area Amenities. Use of the Common Area Amenities is contingent on compliance with any rules and regulations posted at the Common Area Amenities from time to time or contained in any use, release or waiver agreements that Landlord requires to be signed by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents as a condition to use of the Common Area Amenities, regardless of whether stated in these Rules and Regulations.

b. To the extent movable, all Common Area Amenities and the equipment for the Common Area Amenities shall remain at the locations designated by Landlord all times. Tenant must use the equipment for the Common Area Amenities only in the manner intended. Landlord reserves the right to limit Tenant’s use of any such equipment or Common Area Amenities to ensure the equitable use of such equipment and Common Area Amenities by all applicable tenants. Please report any malfunctioning equipment or damage to the Common Area Amenities to the Project management office.

c. Tenant acknowledges that if gas powered Common Area Amenities are offered (i.e. the fire pit lounge or the BBQ area) that they shall not be available when the Bay Area Air Quality Management District has issued a spare the air day alert.

d. Tenant and Tenant’s Agents shall conduct themselves in a safe, courteous, quiet and well-mannered fashion when on or about the Common Area Amenities and not cause any disturbances or interfere with the use or enjoyment of the Common Area Amenities by other tenants.

e. Unless otherwise provided in the rules and regulations posted at the Common Area Amenities, the following are prohibited in the Common Area Amenities at all times without Landlord’s consent: smoking, animals, glass containers, use of the Common Area Amenities under the influence of alcohol, stimulants, or depressants, items with wheels on any synthetic turf, and use of tape and adhesives on any synthetic turf.
Subject to compliance with the “Dog Visitation Policy” described in this Exhibit C-1, Tenant’s employees may bring dogs into the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises on Fridays only.

Bringing a dog to work is a privilege and requires complete responsibility on the part of the person bringing the dog to work (each, an “Owner”). Owners must recognize that (1) not all employees, visitors and other occupants of the Project appreciate dogs in the office, and (2) certain employees, visitors and other occupants of the Project may have intolerance to dogs, such as allergy, fear of, or phobia. The Dog Visitation Policy does not apply to the use of service animals at work, and appropriate arrangements will be determined in such cases. When bringing a dog into the Project, Owners are required to follow the Rules and Regulations and all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations and requirements related to bringing a dog into the Project and such other Rules and Regulations as may be implemented by Landlord or Tenant from time to time. Landlord shall have the right to revoke Tenant’s rights, or an Owner’s rights, to bring dog(s) onto the Project or the permission for a particular dog to enter the Project under this Dog Visitation Policy, if (a) such Owner or Tenant fails to comply with the Dog Visitation Policy, (b) such dog violates the Dog Visitation Policy, (c) any other tenant, occupant or invitee at the Project complains about such dog, (d) Landlord determines in its sole discretion that any such dog is bothersome in any way or a nuisance to other tenants, occupants or invitees at the Project or that revocation of permission is otherwise necessary for the welfare of the Project; or (e) Tenant does not provide immediately upon request of Landlord a copy of the registration forms and executed agreement with each Owner that Tenant is required to maintain and obtain under this Dog Visitation Policy.

Prerequisites for a Doe to be at the Project
Tenant shall maintain a system of registration for each Owner and their dog and program guidelines with which each Owner shall agree to comply prior to bringing a dog on the Project or the Premises, which program guidelines shall include the requirements in this Dog Visitation Policy and the McAfee P.A.W. Program Guidelines attached as Exhibit C-2, which is incorporated to this Dog Visitation Policy by this reference. Such registration and program guidelines will not be amended in any respect without Landlord’s prior consent. Upon Landlord’s request, Tenant shall provide reasonably satisfactory evidence that Tenant has registered the dog of each Owner, verified the compliance of each Owner and their dog with the Dog Visitation Policy and that any dog brought on the Project pursuant to this Dog Visitation Policy is properly licensed and vaccinated with proof of such license and vaccination. Tenant agrees not to permit any employee to bring a dog on the Project pursuant to this Dog Visitation Policy unless (a) Tenant has confirmed the presence of dog(s) in the Project does not violate any certificate of occupancy or other use permit affecting the Building, (b) the Owner has agreed to comply with all of the requirements of this Dog Visitation Policy and (c) the Owner has agreed not to bring its dog on the Project, unless the dog meets the following prerequisites:

- Exhibits appropriate office behavior: Walks beside you on a leash; reliably housebroken; remains calm when left alone; well socialized to people, places, sounds, and objects; enjoys being around people.
• Does not exhibit inappropriate office behavior (including but not limited to): aggression, growling, barking, chasing, biting, nipping, over-exuberance, dominance, territorialism, running away, having accidents (i.e., urinating indoors), chewing or damaging office furniture or equipment, whining, howling, or otherwise interfering with an employee’s ability to do their work. Inappropriate office behavior by a dog will result in the animal no longer being allowed in the Building as reasonably determined by Landlord. In no event shall Tenant be permitted to bring any aggressive breeds of dogs to the Project. The term “aggressive breeds” includes, without limitation, German shepherds, Dobermans, Rottweilers, pit bulls (e.g. American Staffordshire terriers, Staffordshire Bull Terriers, American Pit Bull Terriers, American Bullys and English Staffordshire Terriers), Presa Canarios, wolf mixes or any mixed breed dog whose dominant breed is one or more of the foregoing named dog breeds.

Dog Boundaries at Work

• Dogs must be on a leash or confined to a crate while entering and leaving the Project and may not be left alone in any Common Area. Dogs must enter the Building through the service entrance adjacent to the Building’s loading dock (and no other entrance) and the Owner must use the stairs on the loading side of the Building or the freight elevator designated by Landlord (and no passenger elevator) in order to access the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises and the Dog Area (as defined in this Exhibit C-1) with the Owner’s dog. Such entrance, stairs and freight elevator, together with the path each Owner must use to access the entrance, stairs and freight area are referred to herein as the “Dog Path” and are identified on Exhibit C-3 attached hereto and incorporated herein.

• Dogs are not permitted in the First Floor Premises, must remain in the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises, are not permitted in any Common Areas of the Project except for the Dog Path and Dog Area and not must wander throughout the Project or otherwise be left: unattended in the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises, Building or the Project.

• Dogs must not be kenneled for periods longer than one (1) hour or otherwise remain in the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises for periods longer than 12 hours in a 24-hour period.

• Dogs must not be in or near the employee cafeteria, break rooms, bathrooms, or conference rooms.

• Dogs must be taken to relieve themselves in the designated area identified on Exhibit C-3 attached hereto and incorporated herein (“Dog Area”) only and shall not relieve themselves in any other area in the Project. In no event shall any toilet boxes, “pee-pee pads” or dog waste of any kind be permitted, or exist, in the Premises.

• In no event shall Tenant or its employees collectively bring more than fifteen (15) dogs at any one time to the Project.

Expectations of Dog Owners

• Owners must supervise their dogs at all times, or appoint a willing and able watcher.

• Owners may not bathe or groom their dogs within the Premises, Building or the Project.

• Owners must strictly control their dogs at all times and shall not permit their dogs to foul, damage or otherwise mar any part of the Building or the Premises or cause any loud noise whether through barking, growling or otherwise.

• Owners must clean up after their dogs, immediately remove any dog waste and excrement from the Premises, the Building, and the Project, and bring supplies such as pet waste bags. If Owner is not able to completely clean and remove all of dog waste and excrement from the affected area, then Tenant shall immediately notify property management. Tenant shall pay the costs and charges of property management associated with cleaning and removing any dog waste and excrement that is not completely cleaned and removed by an Owner or Tenant to Landlord’s satisfaction.
• Owners may not leave pet food or water outside the Premises.

• Owners must maintain adequate liability insurance coverage in accordance with this Dog Visitation Policy against dog mishaps and take full responsibility.

• Owners must not bring any dog with (or suspected of having) any infection, contagious illness or internal or external parasites, including, without limitation, fleas and ticks.

Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines

Landlord acknowledges and agrees that it has received and reviewed Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that, even though portions of Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines are drafted in the form of tips and suggestions, that Tenant will advise all Owners that the Dog Visitation Policy, which includes Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines, constitute requirements and conditions and that each Owner must fully comply with the Dog Visitation Policy, including Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines, as a condition to bringing a dog on the Project. To the extent the Tenant’s P.A.W. Program Guidelines conflict with any other provisions of the Dog Visitation Policy set forth in this Exhibit C-1, the Dog Visitation Policy set forth in this Exhibit C-1 shall control.

Personal to Tenant

The Dog Visitation Policy and the rights of Tenant and the Owners to bring dogs into the Project are personal with respect to MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Any assignment of the Lease or subletting of any portion of the Fifth & Sixth Floor Premises shall automatically terminate MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company’s rights under this Dog Visitation Policy.
McAfee P.A.W. Program Guidelines

We trust and empower our employees to manage their dog while on McAfee premises. At the same time, we have provided a few important program guidelines and tips for success. Please consider the following before deciding to bring your dog to work:

Things to Consider

• All employees are required to show proof of “current” vaccinations (DDHP, Rabies, Bordetella, Fecal)
• If your dog has shown any signs of aggression towards other dogs or people before, we ask you to please refrain from bringing them to work.
• If your dog becomes aggressive or causes issues for other employees or dogs, you will be asked to remove your dog from the premises immediately.
• If your schedule requires significant time in meetings or periods of time when your dog is unattended, please consider bringing your dog another Friday instead.

Program Guidelines

Employees who bring their dogs to work are responsible for:

• Ensuring that your dog is current on vaccination records and free of fleas or other communicable ailments
• Providing your own food, pillows, crates and any other necessary items needed for your pet
• Keeping your dog with you and on leashes at all-times (please see leash guidelines below)
• Keeping your dog out of all food areas, bathrooms, and other team members work areas
• Taking your dog outside and picking up after them using the dog receptacle bins outside
• Cleaning up after your dog if they have an accident inside and notifying Facilities
• Ensuring not to bring aggressive dogs to work
• Ensuring not to leave your dog unattended in a vehicle
• Liability if your dog bites other dogs or humans

Leash Guidelines

All dogs that are brought on-site will be required to receive a McAfee provided, color coordinated leash. These will be purchased for your dog, based on your sign-up information. As a reminder, we will be following the below color guidelines, based on your dog’s temperament:

• Green: Friendly—Plays well with all
• Yellow: Nervous—Please ask owner before petting
• Red: Caution—Please do not pet (NOTE: This is not for aggressive dogs, they are not permitted onsite)

Any employee with specific concerns should please discuss with their manager. Managers, if you have additional questions, please send us an email here.
Suggested Tips from Pet Sitters International for a Successful Pups at Work (P.A.W.) Program

• Puppy-proof your work space. If you plan on working with your dog, make sure your office environment is safe. Remove poisonous plants and pesticides, hide electrical cords and wires and secure toxic items such as permanent markers. Any office items in question should be placed out of paw’s reach.

• Make sure Fido is fit for work. Even dogs don’t get a second chance to make a first impression. Be sure your dog’s shots are current. Make plans to have your dog bathed and groomed before accompanying you to work. Be mindful of your dog’s “work readiness.” You know your dog’s demeanor, so if they are aggressive or overly shy, it’s best to leave them at home. Consider how your dog has behaved in the past around strangers before making the decision to bring them. If your dog has shown fear, irritability or aggression, or if your dog has never met strangers, the workplace is not the best place for them.

• Prepare a doggie bag. Include food, treats, bowls, toys, leash, paper towels, clean-up bags and pet-safe disinfectant. If you are routinely in and out of your work space, consider bringing a baby gate for your doorway or a portable kennel for your dog’s comfort and your peace of mind.

• Plan your dog’s feeding times carefully. During an important sales call is probably not the best time for a puppy potty break. Plan your dog’s feeding time around your work schedule and be sure to choose an appropriate area for your dog to relieve themselves afterward.

• Avoid forcing co-workers to interact with your dog. Dog lovers will make themselves known. Sally from Accounting and Joe in HR may not want to play fetch or offer belly rubs, so be mindful of fellow employees’ time and space. To avoid pet accidents, monitor the amount of treats your pet is being given from your co-workers. Remember that chocolate, candy and other people food should not be shared with dogs and that not all non-dog owners will be aware that these items can be very toxic to your pooch.

• Have an exit strategy. Although most dogs enjoy being brought to work, your pet may not. Should your dog become overly boisterous, agitated or withdrawn, consider taking him home or plan for a professional pet sitter to offer a midday check-in visit. Never, under any circumstance, leave your pet alone in a vehicle while you work.

1. In connection with a potential office lease by Recipient from Disclosing Party at the building located at 6220 America Center Drive, San Jose, California 95002 (the “Purpose”), Recipient desires to review Disclosing Party’s environmental reports and materials that are non-public, confidential or proprietary in nature. Recipient shall not disclose the Confidential Information (as defined in Section 2) other than to its agents, employees, officers, directors, attorneys and consultants (collectively, “Representatives”) who: (a) need to know such Confidential Information for the Purpose; (b) know of the existence and terms of this Agreement; and (c) are bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective of the Confidential Information than the terms contained herein. Recipient shall safeguard the Confidential Information from unauthorized use, access or disclosure using at least the degree of care it uses to protect its most sensitive information and no less than a reasonable degree of care. Recipient will be responsible for any breach of this Agreement caused by its Representatives. Recipient acknowledges and agrees that the Confidential Information was prepared by parties other than Landlord and that Landlord makes no representation or warranty regarding the Confidential Information, including, without limitation, the completeness or accuracy thereof.

2. “Confidential information” means all non-public, proprietary or confidential environmental reports and materials of Disclosing Party, in oral, visual, written, electronic or other tangible or intangible form, whether or not disclosed prior to the date hereof and whether or not marked or designated as “confidential”. In addition, any analyses, compilations, forecasts, studies or other documents prepared by Recipient or its Representatives using the Confidential Information shall be included in the definition of “Confidential Information” and subject to the same confidentiality requirements as the Confidential Information disclosed by Disclosing Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Confidential Information does not include any information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of Recipient’s or its Representatives’ act or omission in violation of the terms of this Agreement; (b) is obtained by Recipient or its Representatives on a non-confidential basis from a third party that was not, to Recipient’s knowledge, legally or contractually restricted from disclosing such information; (c) was in Recipient’s or its Representatives’ possession, prior to Disclosing Party’s disclosure hereunder, provided that such information was documented in Recipient’s files prior to the disclosure by Disclosing Party, lawfully received by Recipient and Recipient is under no duty of confidentiality with respect to that information; or (d) was or is independently developed by Recipient or its Representatives, without using any Confidential Information.

3. If Recipient or any of its Representatives is required by applicable law or a valid legal order or on the advice of its counsel to disclose any Confidential Information, Recipient shall, so long as legally permissible, prior to disclosure, notify Disclosing Party of the requirements so that Disclosing Party may seek a protective order or other remedy, and Recipient shall reasonably assist Disclosing Party therewith. If Recipient remains legally compelled to make such disclosure, it shall: (a) only disclose that portion of the Confidential Information that, on the advice of its legal counsel, Recipient is required to disclose; and (b) use reasonable efforts to ensure that the Confidential information is afforded confidential treatment.

4. Upon the expiration of this Agreement or otherwise at Disclosing Party’s request, Recipient shall promptly within 10 days thereafter, at Disclosing Party’s option, either return to Disclosing Party or destroy all Confidential Information in its and its Representatives’ possession and provide a written statement certifying that all such Confidential Information has been returned or destroyed; provided, Recipient shall not be required to return or destroy Confidential Information originally provided to it by electronic transmission, contained in the archival backup systems systemically created pursuant to the technology procedures of Recipient, or in a secure location if required to be retained for legal, regulatory or internal compliance purposes, as long as Recipient continues to comply with the confidentiality obligations under this Agreement.

5. The rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of negotiations between Disclosing Party and Recipient with respect to the Purpose and shall survive the execution of a lease and any other definitive documentation with respect to the Purpose; provided, however, upon mutual execution of such lease or other documentation, such lease and documentation shall govern with respect to the matters addressed therein and to the extent of any conflict with this Agreement.

6. Recipient acknowledges and agrees that any breach of this Agreement may cause injury and irreparable harm to Disclosing Party for which money damages would be an inadequate remedy and that, in addition to remedies at law, Disclosing Party is entitled to seek injunctive and other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity. Recipient shall promptly notify Disclosing Party of any actual or suspected misuse or unauthorized disclosure of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information.

7. This Agreement and all matters relating hereto are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the California, without regard to the conflict of laws provisions of that State. Any legal suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement must be instituted in the federal or state courts located in Santa Clara County, California. Each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of those courts in any such suit, action or proceeding.

All notices must be personally delivered or sent prepaid by nationally recognized courier or certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and are effective upon actual receipt.

9. If any provision or portion of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will be unaffected thereby and will remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.
10. This Agreement may not be assigned except with the prior written consent of the other party and any attempt to assign this Agreement without the other party’s consent shall be null and void.

11. EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO THE OTHER PARTY’S ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

12. Recipient hereby represents and warrants that Recipient has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and that the undersigned officer is authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of Recipient.

13. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, whether written or oral, with respect to the subject matter. This Agreement may only be amended, modified, waived or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by or on behalf of both parties. Licensor may revoke Licensor’s access rights if any such access or the installation of Rooftop Installations by Licensor’s contractor interferes with any tenant’s business.

8. Use of Building Electricity. Licensor agrees that Licensee may use electricity in the Building for the purposes of operation of the Equipment. However, the proposed Connections, Cabling and Cable Path on the roof and throughout the Building in order to connect to the Equipment shall be subject to Licensor’s prior review and approval, to the extent of any deviation from Exhibit A or Exhibit B or to extent not outlined on such Exhibits. Licensor, at its sole discretion, may have a submetering devise installed at Licensee’s expense to bill additional electrical usage to Licensee as a result of the use of the Equipment.

9. Changes in Environment. Any future installations of additional equipment or changes in the previously approved and installed Rooftop Installations shall be subject to all the conditions and restrictions for original installation of the Rooftop Installations as set forth herein, and shall be subject to Licensor’s prior approval, which may be withheld at Licensor’s reasonable discretion.

10. Non-Exclusive Use. Licensor reserves the right to install any other equipment or allow any tenants in the Building or other licensees to install, maintain and operate other similar equipment on the roof and in the Building. Licensor shall have the right to do maintenance, repairs and remodeling to the Building and its roof at any time without Licensee’s prior approval.
Operation of the Equipment by Licensee shall not interfere in any way with the ability of the Building or its tenants to receive radio, television, microwave, short-wave, long-wave or other signals of any sort that are transmitted through the air or that will interfere with the use of any other facilities, appliances or equipment in the Building, or that will interfere with the use of any antennae, satellite dishes or other electronic equipment currently or hereafter located on the roof or elsewhere in the Project.

11. Installation and Maintenance of Equipment Cable in the Building. Licensee agrees that all Cabling shall be shielded cable, that the cable coating shall comply with all applicable fire codes and such Cabling shall be properly labeled so that it can be identified by Licensor, Licensor’s agents or third parties.

12. Zoning. Licensee acknowledges that Licensor has made no representations or warranties to Licensee that the Rooftop Installations will be permitted under applicable zoning ordinances or other applicable laws. Licensee represents and warrants to Licensor that it has ascertained that the Rooftop Installations and the installation thereof is permitted under all applicable zoning ordinances and other applicable laws, including, but not limited to, any zoning ordinances or other laws relating to height restrictions.

13. Compliance With Law. Licensee warrants that it will comply with all applicable laws and regulations of the United States, the State of California, or any political subdivision thereof in connection with Licensee’s installation, operation, use and removal of the Rooftop Installations, including, but not limited to, any laws relating to height restrictions. Licensee further warrants that Licensee shall, at its sole cost and expense, obtain any and all governmental licenses and permits necessary, not only to install the Rooftop Installations, but also to use, operate and remove the Rooftop Installations as herein contemplated. Licensee further agrees to obtain and maintain all necessary permits during the term hereof and that if it fails to do so, Licensor may require Licensee to remove the Rooftop Installations at Licensee’s sole cost and expense. Licensee shall give Licensor copies of any notices which Licensee receives from third parties that the Rooftop Installations are or may be in violation of any law, ordinance or regulation.

14. Insurance Requirements of Licensee. Licensee acknowledges that insurance maintained by Licensee shall be in full force and effect as of the first day of the term of this License and throughout the term of this License. Such insurance shall be provided as described in the Lease. Said insurance shall include the Equipment as an insured risk. It is further agreed that any insurance maintained by Licensor will apply in excess of, and not contribute with, insurance provided by Licensee. The procuring of the required policy or policies of insurance shall not be construed to limit Licensee’s liability.

15. Insurance Requirements of Licensee’s Contractor. Licensee’s choice of contractor for the installation and removal of the Rooftop Installations shall be subject to Licensor’s prior review and approval and such contractor must provide evidence of insurance satisfactory to Licensor no later than ten (10) days prior to the commencement date of the installation or removal of the Rooftop Installations. Such insurance shall be provided by a company reasonably acceptable by Licensor and licensed and authorized to provide insurance in the state in which the Project is located and shall include coverages meeting the minimum requirements set forth in Paragraphs A, B and C of Schedule I attached to Work Agreement of the Lease. Licensor, its affiliates and its

16. Risk of Loss. Except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Licensor or its Agents, subject to the waiver of subrogation in Section 15.5 of the Lease, Licensee hereby assumes all risk of loss or damage to the Rooftop Installations, and the Licensor will have no liability to Licensee for damaged or stolen Rooftop Installations. Licensee agrees not to attach additional equipment or cables to the Equipment installed by Licensee pursuant hereto.

17. Liens. Licensee will indemnify Licensor against and hold Licensor, the Building, and the Project free, clear and harmless from and against, any Liens arising out of installation, maintenance or use or removal of the Rooftop Installations. If any such Lien, at any time, is filed against the Building, or any part of the Project, Licensee will cause such Lien to be discharged of record within 30 days after the date Licensee receives notice of the filing of such Lien, either by resolving the matter and causing a release to be recorded in the Official Records of the Santa Clara County, California, or by recording a mechanic’s lien release bond in accordance with the provisions of Civil Code Section 8424. If Licensee fails to timely cause the Lien to be removed as described above, then Licensor may, at its option, pay to the claimant all amounts necessary to discharge the Lien, regardless of the validity or enforceability of the claim, together with any related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with attorneys’ fees incurred in connection with such Lien, will be immediately due from Licensee to Licensor as Additional Rent as provided in the Lease. Nothing contained in this License will be deemed the consent or agreement of Licensor to subject Licensor’s interest in all or any portion of the Project to liability under any Lien or any other lien law. If Licensee receives notice that a Lien has been or is about to be filed against the Building or any part of the Project, or that any action affecting title to the Project has been commenced to enforce a Lien or otherwise on account of work done by or for or materials furnished to or for Licensee, it will immediately give Licensor written notice of such notice. At least 15 days prior to the commencement of any work (including, but not limited to, any maintenance, repairs or Alterations to the Rooftop Installations) pursuant to this License, Licensee will give Licensor written notice of the proposed work and the names and addresses of the persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed work. Licensor will have the right to post notices of non-responsibility or similar notices, if applicable, on the Building or in the public records in order to protect the Building and Project against such Liens.

18. Termination: Default Remedies. This License shall automatically terminate upon Expiration Date or the earlier termination of the Lease. In the event of default of any obligation under this License by either party, the injured party shall notify the defaulting party by written notice clearly and specifically identifying the default. Within three (3) days after receipt of such notice by the defaulting party, the defaulting party shall cure the default or, if such default cannot reasonably be cured within such three (3)-day period, commence the cure within such period and diligently and continuously prosecute the correction of the default until such has been corrected. If the defaulting party fails to cure the default or to commence within such three (3) day period the cure and diligently and continuously commence prosecute the correction of any default, then the injured party shall have the right to terminate this License by providing the defaulting party at least three (3) days’ prior written notice. Notices shall be delivered in the same manner and to the same addresses set forth in the Lease. Licensor, at its sole option, may require Licensee at any time prior to the expiration or termination of this License, to immediately terminate or suspend the operation of the Equipment if in Licensor’s reasonable opinion the Equipment is (i) causing physical damage to the Building; (ii) causing a safety hazard; or (iii) causing interference in violation of the Lease or this License. If Licensee promptly corrects the item(s) in (i) - (iii) caused by the Equipment to Licensor’s sole satisfaction, Licensee may restore operation of the Equipment. If Licensee is unable or unwilling to correct the items in (i) - (iii) caused by the Equipment to Licensor’s sole satisfaction, Licensor, at its sole discretion, may immediately terminate this License for cause. Such suspension shall not affect the parties’ rights or responsibilities pursuant to this License. The indemnities and hold harmless agreements under this License and the obligations of Licensor and Licensee regarding removal of the Rooftop Installations shall survive the termination of this License. If a default by Licensee occurs under this License and remains uncured after the expiration of any applicable cure period, then Licensor may, at its option, elect one or more of the following remedies, in addition to or in conjunction with any other remedies available under this License, at law or in equity: (a) terminate this License for such default; (b) cure any such default for the account of Licensee, and in such event Licensee shall pay Licensor upon invoice as Additional Rent under the Lease all costs and expenses incurred by Licensor in connection therewith, including consultants’ and attorneys’ fees and costs, together with an administrative charge equal to twenty percent (20%) of such costs; or (c) pursue injunctive relief, and/or recovery of damages, without terminating this License. Any amounts that Licensee is obligated to pay under this License that remain unpaid for more than ten (10) days after Licensee’s receipt of an invoice shall be immediately due and payable, plus interest at the Default Rate set forth in the Lease.

19. Indemnity. WITHOUT LIMITATION TO THE TERMS OF THE LEASE, LICENSEE AGREES TO USE THE ROOF AT ITS OWN RISK AND HEREBY RELEASES LICENSOR AND ITS AGENTS FROM ALL CLAIMS FOR ANY DAMAGE OR INJURY TO PERSONS OR PROPERTY SUSTAINED BY LICENSEE OR ANY PERSON CLAIMING THROUGH LICENSEE RESULTING FROM AN ACCIDENT OR OCCURRENCE IN, ON OR ABOUT THE ROOF, UNLESS RESULTING SOLELY FROM THE NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF LICENSOR OR ITS AGENTS. WITHOUT LIMITATION TO THE TERMS OF THE LEASE, EXCEPT FOR THE SOLE NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF LICENSOR OR ITS AGENTS, LICENSEE SHALL INDEMNIFY AND HOLD LICENSOR HARMLESS FROM AND AGAINST ALL LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE, EXPENSE OR OTHER LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF LICENSEE’S USE OF THE ROOF.

20. Subordination. Licensee accepts Licensor’s consent herein granted subject and subordinate to any Mortgage or Ground Lease and to all amendments, renewals, extensions and refinancing thereof, that may now or hereafter exist or constitute a lien upon the interest of Licensor in the Building or any part thereof.

21. Attorneys’ Fees. In the event of any legal action or proceeding between the parties hereto, reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses of the prevailing party in any such action or proceeding may be added to the judgment therein.
22. Waiver. The waiver by Licensor of any breach of any term, covenant or condition herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, covenant or condition of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition herein contained.

23. Repair and Removal. Licensee and its Agents shall not in any manner deface, injure or damage the roof or any other part of the Building or any equipment belonging to Licensor or any other third party and Licensee shall pay Licensor as Additional Rent under the Lease the cost of repairing any damage or injury to the roof, the Building, or any part thereof, or other equipment belonging to any Licensor or any other third party during the course of or in any way arising out of the installation, operation, maintenance or removal of the Rooftop Installations. Upon expiration or sooner termination of the License and in accordance with the terms of the Lease, Licensee shall promptly remove the Equipment and repair any damages caused by such removal and restore the roof, Building and/or other equipment belonging to any tenant or other licensee to the condition it was in prior to installation of the Equipment. Additionally, at Licensee’s sole cost and expense and in accordance with Lease, Licensee shall remove any Cabling, repair any damage caused by such removal, and restore the affected portions of the Building to the condition they were in prior to the installation of the Cabling. If, at any time under the provisions of this License, Licensee is required to remove or repair the Rooftop Installations and fails to do so, Licensor may after ten (10) days’ notice remove or repair same and Licensee shall pay Licensor as Additional Rent under the Lease for the cost of said removal or repairs, as applicable, plus interest at the Default Rate set forth in the Lease.

24. Limitation of Liability. In consideration of the benefits accruing hereunder, Licensee agrees that in the event of any actual or alleged failure, breach or default of this License by Licensor, Licensee’s remedies shall be limited to, and Licensee shall look solely to, the interest of Licensor in the Building. Licensee agrees that each of the foregoing provisions shall be applicable to any covenant or agreement either expressly contained in this License or imposed by statute or at common law.

25. Increased Costs to Licensor Arising From This License. If the insurance premium or real estate tax assessment charged to Licensor with respect to the Building increases as a result of the presence or operation of the Rooftop Installations, Licensee shall pay as Additional Rent under the Lease the amount of such increase as an additional use fee within ten (10) days after receipt of an invoice from Licensor.

26. Special Damages. Under no circumstances whatsoever shall Licensor or Licensee ever be liable under this License for punitive damages, consequential damages or special damages. Licensee shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of Rent for any failure with respect to the operation of the Rooftop Installations, damage to the Rooftop Installations or stolen Rooftop Installations.

27. Cross Default. If Licensor terminates the Lease for an Event of Default under the Lease, then the parties acknowledge that Licensor shall have the right to terminate this License for such Event of Default; provided, however, Licensor shall not have the right to terminate the Lease for a default under the License.

THIS SUBORDINATION, NON-DISTURBANCE AND ATTORNMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) executed on the date(s) indicated on each acknowledgment, but effective as of __________, 20__, among BANK OZK, formerly known as BANK OF THE OZARKS (“Lender”), MCAFEE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Tenant”), and US ER AMERICA CENTER 4, LLC, a California limited liability company (“Landlord”).

STATEMENT OF BACKGROUND

Landlord and Tenant (or the predecessor in interest to either) entered into that certain Office Lease dated __________, 20__ (as the same may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Lease”), relating to the premises described therein (the “Premises”) and being part of the Property (as defined below). Lender has made or has committed to make a loan (the “Loan”) to Landlord (or Landlord’s successor in interest) secured by a deed of trust, mortgage or security deed (the “Mortgage”) and an assignment of leases and rents (the “Assignment of Leases”) from Landlord to Lender covering certain property described in Exhibit A attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof (the “Property”), and including the Premises. Tenant has agreed that the Lease shall be subject and subordinate to the Mortgage, provided that, subject to the terms of this Agreement, Tenant is assured of continued occupancy of the Premises under the terms of the Lease.

STATEMENT OF AGREEMENT

For and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) and other good and valuable considerations, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, it is hereby agreed as follows:

1. Lease Subordinate to Mortgage. Lender, Tenant and Landlord do hereby covenant and agree that the Lease with all rights, liens and charges created thereby, and all of Tenant’s right, title and interest in and to the Premises and any lease hereafter executed by Tenant covering any part of the Property, is and shall continue to be subject and subordinate in all respects to (i) the Mortgage and all liens and security interests securing payment of the Loans and all other security instruments securing payment of any indebtedness of Landlord to Lender now or hereafter created by Tenant covering any part of the Property and to any renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof and to all advancements made thereunder, and to (ii) all right, title and interest of Lender in the Property created by the Mortgage or any other security instrument held by Lender in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Lease had been executed subsequent to the execution, delivery and recordation of such Mortgage. Landlord and Tenant hereby expressly subordinate to the Mortgage any and all options to purchase the Property contained in the Lease or in any modification or amendment to the Lease, and further acknowledge that any such option or right of first refusal pursuant to the Lease to acquire all or any portion of the Property shall not be applicable to or effective after Lender’s acquisition of the Property by foreclosure or otherwise.
2. Non-Disturbance: Lender’s Liability Limited. Lender does hereby covenant and agree with Tenant that, in the event Lender (or its designee) acquires title to the Premises by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise, so long as Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice and cure periods and Tenant complies with and performs its obligations under the Lease, (a) the Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct Lease between Lender (or its designee) and Tenant, upon and subject to all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease, for the balance of the term of the Lease (including any extensions thereof), and Lender will not disturb the possession of Tenant, and (b) the Premises shall be subject to the Lease and Lender shall recognize Tenant as the tenant of the Premises for the remainder of the term of the Lease (including any extensions thereof) in accordance with the provisions thereof; provided, however, that Lender (or its designee) shall not be (i) subject to any claims, offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against any prior landlord (including Landlord), (ii) liable for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including Landlord), (iii) bound by any rent or additional rent which Tenant might have paid for more than the current month or any security deposit or other prepaid charge paid to any prior landlord (including Landlord), or (iv) bound by any material amendment or modification of the Lease made without its written consent. Nothing contained herein shall prevent Lender from naming Tenant in any foreclosure or other action or proceeding initiated by Lender pursuant to the Mortgage to the extent necessary under applicable law in order for Lender to avail itself of and complete the foreclosure or other remedy.

3. Tenant to Attorn to Lender. Tenant does hereby covenant and agree with Lender that, in the event Lender (or its designee) acquires title to the Premises by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise, then Tenant shall attorn to and recognize Lender (or its designee) as the landlord under the Lease for the remainder of the term thereof (including any extensions thereof), and Tenant shall perform and observe its obligations thereunder, subject only to the terms and conditions of the Lease. Tenant further covenants and agrees to execute and deliver upon request of Lender an appropriate agreement of attornment to Lender and any subsequent titleholder of the Premises.

4. Assignment of Leases: Rent Payable to Lender upon Landlord Default. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord will execute and deliver to Lender the Assignment of Leases as security for the Loan, and Tenant hereby expressly consents to such assignment. Tenant has been advised that the Assignment of Leases gives Lender the right to collect rent and other sums payable under the Lease directly from Tenant upon the occurrence of a default thereunder, and Tenant agrees that upon the receipt from Lender of notice of any such default, Tenant will thereafter pay all rent and other sums payable under the Lease directly to Lender (or as Lender shall direct) as they become due and payable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Mortgage or the Assignment of Leases, Landlord authorizes and directs Tenant to immediately and continuously make all such payments by wire transfer to or at the direction of Lender, releases Tenant of any and all liability to Landlord for any and all payments so made, and defends, indemnifies and holds Tenant harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, losses or liabilities asserted by, through or under Landlord for any and all payments so made. Tenant agrees that neither Lender’s demanding or receiving any such payments, nor Lender’s exercising any other right, remedy, privilege, power of immunity granted by the Mortgage or the Assignment of Leases, will operate to impose any liability upon Lender for performance of any obligation of Landlord under the Lease unless and until Lender elects otherwise in writing or acquires the Property through foreclosure of the Mortgage or by deed from Landlord in lieu of foreclosure. Such payments shall continue until Lender directs Tenant otherwise in writing.

5. Notice of Default or Termination Event. Tenant hereby agrees to give prompt written notice to Lender of any default of Landlord under the Lease, and Lender shall have the same right to cure such default(s) as is provided to Landlord under the Lease within the same time periods as is provided to Landlord under the Lease. It is further agreed that such notice will be given to any successor in interest of Lender under the Mortgage, provided that prior to any such default of Landlord such successor in interest shall have given written notice to Tenant of its acquisition of Lender’s interest therein, and shall have designated the address to which such notice is to be directed.

6. Construction of Premises.

   (a) In the event that the construction of the Premises which is the obligation of the Landlord has not been substantially completed at the time the Lender or any third party succeeds to the interest of Landlord under the Lease by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings brought by Lender or by any transfer in lieu of foreclosure, then, in such event, Tenant hereby agrees that Lender or any such third party shall have the right to cancel and terminate the Lease upon written notice to Tenant.

   (b) Any provision of this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, Lender shall have no obligation or incur any liability with respect to the construction or completion of the improvements in which the Premises are located or for completion of the Premises or any improvements for Tenant’s use and occupancy. Lender (or its designee) shall have no obligations nor incur any liability with respect to any warranties of any nature whatsoever, including any warranties respecting use, compliance with zoning, hazardous wastes or environmental laws, Landlord’s title, Landlord’s authority, habitability, fitness for purpose or possession. In the event that Lender (or its designee) acquires title to the Premises, Lender shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Lender’s then equity interest, if any, in the Premises, and Tenant shall look exclusively to such equity interest of Lender, if any, in the Premises for the payment and discharge of any obligations or liability imposed upon Lender hereunder, under the Lease or under any new lease of the Premises.

7. Casualty and Condemnation Proceeds. Landlord, Tenant and Lender hereby acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the application of casualty and condemnation proceeds with respect to Landlord’s Premises shall be governed by the terms and conditions contained in the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any insurance proceeds or condemnation awards are received prior to the Commencement Date of the Lease and such amount is sufficient to pay Landlord’s indebtedness to Lender in full, then such amount shall be so applied.
8. Lease Status. The Lease is in full force and effect and there are no amendments, supplements or modifications of any kind (except as referenced above) and together herewith constitutes the entire agreement between Tenant and Landlord with respect to the Premises. There are no other promises, agreements, understandings, or commitments of any kind between Landlord and Tenant with respect to the Premises or any other space at the Property.

9. Amendment, Rent Prepayment or Surrender. Without Lender’s prior written consent, Tenant will not (i) enter into any agreement amending the rental, lease term or Landlord’s obligations provided for in the Lease or terminating the Lease, (ii) prepay any of the rents, additional rents or other sums due under the Lease for more than one (1) month in advance of its accrual or (iii) voluntarily surrender any portion of the Premises or terminate the Lease without cause or shorten the Lease term, and no such purported amendment, modification, termination, prepayment or voluntary surrender made without Lender’s prior written consent shall be binding on Lender.

10. Invalid or Inoperative Provisions. If any portion or portions of this Agreement shall be held invalid or inoperative, then all of the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect, and, so far as is reasonable and possible, effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion or portions held to be invalid or inoperative.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

12. No Mortgagee in Possession. Lender shall not, either by virtue of the Mortgage, the Assignment of Leases or this Agreement, be or become a mortgagee in possession or be or become subject to any liability or obligation under the Lease or otherwise until Lender acquires title to the Premises by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise, and then such liability or obligation of Lender under the Lease shall extend only to those liabilities or obligations accruing subsequent to the date that Lender has acquired the interest of Landlord in the Premises as modified by the terms of this Agreement.
13. Notices. Any and all notices, elections, approvals, consents, demands, requests and responses thereto ("Communications") permitted or required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been properly given (i) if mailed by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified with return receipt requested; (ii) by delivering same in person to the intended addressee; or (iii) by delivery to a reputable independent third party commercial delivery service for same day or next day delivery and providing for evidence of receipt at the office of the intended addressee. EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (this “Agreement”), is made and entered into as of June 1, 2017 (“Effective Date”), by and among McAfee Employee Holdings, LLC (the “Company”), Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“Parent”) and Christopher D. Young (“Executive”). This Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date.

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ Executive on the terms and conditions contained herein; and

WHEREAS, Executive desires to be employed by and render services to the Company upon and subject to the terms, conditions and other provisions set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, the adequacy of all of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. EMPLOYMENT

1.1 Agreement and Term. The Company hereby agrees to continue to employ Executive, and Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to render such services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Unless terminated earlier as set forth in Section 3 herein, Executive’s employment and the term under this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 3 below (the “Term”).

1.2 Position and Duties. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, during the Term of this Agreement, Executive shall serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Parent, and shall report directly to the Board of Managers of Parent (the “Board”). In addition, for so long as Executive remains the Chief Executive Officer of Parent, Executive shall serve as a member of the Board. Executive shall perform duties, undertake the responsibilities, and exercise the authorities customarily performed, undertaken and exercised by persons situated in a similar capacity at a similar company. Executive’s principal work location shall be at the Company’s offices in Santa Clara, California or such other location as Executive and the Company shall mutually agree, (hereinafter the “Principal Place of Business”) provided that Executive may be required to travel as reasonably necessary in order to perform his duties and responsibilities hereunder. Executive shall carry out his duties and responsibilities at all times in compliance with the Company’s written policies and procedures that have been made available to Executive, as in effect from time to time. Executive shall also perform such other duties, commensurate with his position, as reasonably requested by the Board, including service as an officer or director of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (as defined in the LLC Agreement, as defined below) (together with Parent, and each individually a member of, the “Company Group”) without additional compensation. During the Term of this Agreement, Executive shall use his best business efforts to serve the Company Group faithfully, diligently and competently and to the best of his ability, and to devote his full time business hours, energy, ability, attention and skill to the business of the Company Group; provided, however, that the foregoing is not intended to preclude Executive from noncompetitive activities that are conducted outside normal business hours and permitted under Section 1.3 hereof.
1.3 Outside Activities. During the Term of this Agreement, (i) with the prior written consent of the Board, Executive may serve on the board of directors of a for-profit entity and as a director or advisor of other not-for-profit educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations (which consent is hereby granted for Executive’s service to the Board of Directors of Snap Inc. and on the National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee), and (ii) Executive may perform charitable and other activities, and manage his personal investments; provided, however, that in the case of either (i) or (ii) such activities do not materially interfere with the performance of his duties hereunder and otherwise to the Company Group and are not in conflict or competitive with, or adverse to, the interests of the Company Group. Executive shall not, however, under any circumstances, provide services or advice in any capacity whatsoever for or on behalf of any entity that competes with or is competitive with the Company Group.

2. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS; EXPENSES

   2.1 Salary. The Company shall compensate and pay Executive for his services at a rate equivalent to $585,000 per year (the “Base Salary”), less payroll deductions and all required tax withholdings, which salary shall be payable in accordance with the Company’s customary payroll practices applicable to its executives, but no less frequently than semi-monthly. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review and possible increase by the Board based on individual and Company performance.

   2.2 Bonus. With respect to each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Term and subject to the achievement of any applicable performance goals, based on corporate, business unit and/or individual performance, to be established by the Board after conferring with Executive, Executive shall be entitled to participate in the Company’s annual incentive plan, as such, and on such terms and conditions as, may be established by the Board from time to time, under which Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) with a target amount initially equal to 125.708% of the Base Salary (the “Target Bonus”), subject to Executive being employed with the Company on the date that the Annual Bonus is paid (except as otherwise provided in Section 3). The Company shall pay earned Annual Bonuses to Executive no later than 2¹⁄₂ months following the end of each fiscal year. The Target Bonus shall be subject to review and possible increase by the Board based on individual and Company performance at the Board’s sole discretion.

   2.3 Employee Benefits. During the Term of this Agreement, to the extent eligible under the applicable plans or programs and applicable law, Executive shall be entitled to participate in the employee benefits plans and programs made available to executive level employees of the Company generally, such as health, medical, dental, death and disability and other insurance coverage and group retirement plans. The terms and conditions of Executive’s participation in any employee benefit plan or program shall be subject to the terms and conditions of such plan or program, as may be modified by the Company from time to time. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the Company from amending or terminating any employee benefit plan or program, subject to the terms of the applicable plan or program.
2.4 Vacations. Executive shall be entitled to twenty (20) days of vacation per year, in addition to holidays observed by the Company. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as Executive shall determine, subject to the business needs of the Company Group. Vacation shall otherwise be subject to the policies of the Company Group, as in effect from time to time.

2.5 Long-Term Incentives.

(a) As soon as practicable following the Effective Date, Parent will grant Executive restricted share units payable in Class A Units of Parent (such restricted share units, the “RSUs”, and such Class A Units the “Class A Units”), Management Incentive Units of Parent (the “Management Incentive Units”), and (unless Executive elects otherwise) a cash award (the “Cash Award”) in each case, pursuant to the Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC 2017 Management Incentive Plan (the “Plan”).

(b) Pursuant to this Section 2.5, Executive will be granted 910,000 Management Incentive Units and 90,000 RSUs, which together will represent approximately 1% of the units, convertible securities and other equity-based awards of Parent outstanding as of the date of grant, calculated on a fully-diluted basis but without including (i) any Redemption Units (as defined in the LLC Agreement (as defined below)) and (ii) any units that may be issued in settlement of RSUs granted in lieu of cash-based awards that are scheduled to vest on or before April 3, 2018. The amount that may become payable under the Cash Award is $7,054,358 (inclusive of amounts paid prior to the Effective Date), which represents the value of Executive’s unvested Intel restricted stock units, unvested Intel outperformance restricted stock units (with performance determined in accordance with Section 7.1(j) of the Subscription Agreement by and among Parent, Intel Corporation and TPG VII Manta Holdings, L.P. dated as of September 6, 2016, as amended (the “Subscription Agreement”)) and unvested Intel stock options, in each case, that were scheduled to vest not later than April 3, 2018; provided that the amount payable under such Cash Award will be reduced by the value of any additional RSUs that Executive elects to receive in lieu of any portion of such Cash Award; and provided further that, in the event Executive so elects, Executive will be granted additional RSUs with an aggregate Fair Market Value (as defined in the LLC Agreement) equal to the amount of such portion of the Cash Award that Executive elects not to receive.

(c) The specific terms and conditions governing all aspects of the RSUs, Management Incentive Units and the Cash Awards shall be consistent with the Plan and as set forth in the grant agreement governing such awards, and as a condition to receiving the Class A Units and Management Incentive Units, Executive shall be required to become party to Parent’s Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of April 3, 2017 (the “LLC Agreement” and together with the Plan and the applicable grant agreement, the “LTI Agreements”).

(d) As soon as practical after the Effective Date, Executive shall be given the opportunity to purchase Class A Units at the same price per Class A Unit as is paid by TPG VII Manta Holdings, L.P. at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Subscription Agreement, subject to Executive executing a subscription agreement in the form provided by the Company and the LLC Agreement.
(e) Notwithstanding anything in the LTI Agreements or the subscription agreement to the contrary, if Parent exercises its call rights pursuant to Section 13 of the LLC Agreement in respect of any vested Class A Units or Management Incentive Units and Executive believes in good faith that the Fair Market Value (as defined in the LTI Agreements) of such Class A Units or Management Incentive Units is greater than the amount determined by the Board of Managers (as defined in the LTI Agreements), then Executive may deliver a written objection notice to Parent within thirty (30) days of such determination (an “Objection Notice”). If Executive timely delivers such an Objection Notice, then Parent will promptly engage an Independent Appraiser. The Independent Appraiser will be engaged to deliver to Parent and Executive a written determination (such determination to include a report setting forth all material analyses used in arriving at such determination) within sixty (60) days of being engaged stating the Independent Appraiser’s determination of the fair market value, as of the date the notice of repurchase was delivered, of such vested Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Units, as applicable, as determined by such Independent Appraiser shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value and shall be final and binding on the parties. If such Fair Market Value determined by the Independent Appraiser is at least 10% higher than the Fair Market Value previously determined by the Board of Managers, then the costs and expenses of such Independent Appraiser shall be borne by Parent. If such Fair Market Value determined by such Independent Appraiser is not at least 10% higher than the Fair Market Value previously determined by the Board of Managers, then the costs and expenses of such Independent Appraiser shall be borne by Executive (which costs and expenses may, in whole or in part, be deducted from the cash or other consideration otherwise deliverable to Executive in respect of the repurchase of such Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Units or any other payment owing to Executive by the Company Group).

For purposes of this Agreement, “Independent Appraiser” means an independent appraiser selected by Parent and agreed upon by Executive (which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

2.6 Business Expenses. The Company shall reimburse Executive or otherwise provide for or pay for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Executive in furtherance of or in connection with the business of the Company Group, including, but not limited to, travel and entertainment expenses commensurate with his duties hereunder (including attendance at industry conferences), subject to the Company Group’s policies as periodically reviewed by the Board and in effect from time to time, including without limitation such reasonable documentation and other limitations as may be established or required by the Company Group.

3. TERMINATION

3.1 Notice of Termination. With the exception of termination of Executive’s employment due to Executive’s death, any purported termination of Executive’s employment by the Company for any reason, including without limitation for Cause or Disability, or by Executive for any reason, shall be communicated by a written “Notice of Termination” to the other party. “Notice of Termination” means a dated notice that (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) specifies a Termination Date, except in the case of the Company’s termination of Executive’s employment for Cause, for which the Termination Date may be the date of the notice. “Termination Date” means (i) if Executive’s employment is terminated for Cause or Disability, the date specified in the Notice of Termination, (ii) in the case of termination of employment due to death, the date of Executive’s death, or (iii) if Executive’s employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which a Notice of Termination is given or as specified in such Notice which, in the event of a termination by Executive without Good Reason, shall not be less than thirty (30) days after such notice, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. For purposes of clarification, the Term shall end on the Termination Date.

3.2 Termination Due to Death or Disability. If Executive’s employment and the Term is terminated by reason of Executive’s death or Disability, Executive or his estate shall be entitled to receive: (a) Executive’s earned but unpaid Base Salary through the Termination Date; (b) an amount for reimbursement, paid within thirty (30) days following submission by Executive (or if applicable, Executive’s estate) to the Company of appropriate supporting documentation for any unreimbursed business expenses properly incurred prior to the Termination Date by Executive pursuant to Section 2.5 and in accordance with Company Group policy; (c) any earned but unpaid Annual Bonus related to the completed fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which termination of employment occurs (the “Prior Year’s Bonus”); (d) any earned and unused vacation, paid when required by applicable law and no later than thirty (30) days following the Termination Date; and (e) such employee benefits, if any, to which Executive (or, if applicable, Executive’s estate) or his dependents may be entitled under the employee benefit plans or programs of the Company, paid in accordance with the terms of the applicable plans or programs (the amounts described in clauses (a) through (e) hereof being referred to as the “Accrued Rights”). For purposes hereof, “Disability” means Executive is unable to perform the essential functions of his position with substantially the same level of quality as immediately prior to such incapacity (notwithstanding the provision of any reasonable accommodation) by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which has lasted or can reasonably be expected to last for a period of one hundred twenty (120) or more consecutive days or one hundred twenty (120) days during any consecutive six (6) month period, as determined by a physician to be selected by mutual agreement between Executive and the Company.

3.4 Termination by the Company for Cause. In the event the Company terminates his employment and the Term for Cause, Executive shall be entitled to receive the Accrued Rights (other than the Prior Year’s Bonus).

3.5 Termination by the Company without Cause or by Executive for Good Reason. If Executive’s employment and the Term is terminated by the Company without Cause, or by Executive for Good Reason, Executive shall be entitled, in addition to the Accrued Rights and subject to Executive’s continued compliance with this Agreement and the LTI Agreements, and Executive’s execution, delivery and non-revocation of an effective release of all claims against the Company Group in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Release”) within the sixty (60) day period following the date of the termination of Executive’s employment (the “Release Period”) to receive:

(a) equal or substantially equal payments over the twelve (12)-month period following the date of termination (the "Severance Period"), in an aggregate amount equal to one (1) times (x) Executive’s then-current Base Salary plus (y) the Target Bonus, with such amounts to be paid in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes;

(b) Executive’s Annual Bonus for the year in which the Termination Date occurs with payment based on actual performance during the year of termination, pro-rated to reflect the number of days during the bonus year in which Executive was employed by the Company;

(c) provided that Executive timely elects COBRA (as defined below) coverage, a taxable subsidy (the “COBRA Subsidy”) to participate in the Company’s medical, dental and vision plans, in an amount, on an after-tax basis, that is equal to the employer-paid portion for active employees who elect the same type of coverage (e.g., individual only, individual plus family, etc.) through the earlier of the end of the twelve (12)-month period immediately following the Termination Date and the time at which Executive becomes eligible for group health coverage from another employer, with such subsidies payable by the Company on a monthly basis in substantially equal installments not later than the end of the month to which they relate. Executive must notify the Company within seven (7) days of learning that he will become eligible to for group health coverage from another employer.

(d) full accelerated vesting upon the Termination Date of all Cash Awards granted pursuant to Section 2.5 above, with such Cash Awards to be paid out within sixty (60) days of the Termination Date in the form of a lump sum in cash equal to their value; and

(e) full accelerated vesting upon the Termination Date of all RSUs granted pursuant to Section 2.5 above, with such RSUs to be paid out within sixty (60) days of the Termination Date in the form of a lump sum in cash equal to the lesser of (i) the sum of (a) the fair market value of the unvested Intel restricted stock units and unvested Intel outperformance share units (with performance determined in accordance with Section 7.1(j) of the Subscription Agreement) and (b) the spread value of the unvested Intel stock options, in each case, for which they were substituted and determined as of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Subscription Agreement and (ii) the Fair Market Value of the RSUs at the time of termination of Executive’s employment with the Company.

If the Release Period spans two (2) calendar years, then payments that would otherwise have been made prior to the end of the Release Period will be made, after the release becomes irrevocable, in the form of a lump sum on the first payroll date that occurs in the second calendar year.

(i) "Cause" means, as determined by the Board in its reasonable good faith judgment, Executive’s: (i) commission of an act of material fraud; (ii) intentional refusal or willful failure to carry out the lawful and reasonable instructions of the Board or commission of an act of material dishonesty; (iii) conviction of (or a plea of no contest to) a (x) felony or (y) misdemeanor crime involving moral turpitude, where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (iv) gross misconduct or gross negligence in connection with the performance of his duties; (v) material breach of any provision of this Agreement or material violation of any material written policy or written code of conduct of the Company Group that has been made available to Executive; (vi) breach of fiduciary duty to the Company Group; (vii) failure to cooperate with the Company Group in any investigation or formal proceeding or being found liable in a Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) enforcement action; or (viii) breach of duty of loyalty to the Company Group. Executive will not be terminated for Cause until Executive has been given the opportunity to appear in person with legal counsel before the entire Board in order to explain Executive’s position on the allegations or claims that constitute Cause.

(ii) “Good Reason” shall mean, without Executive’s consent: (i) a material breach by the Company Group of this Agreement or other written material agreement between Executive and the Company Group; (ii) a material diminution of Executive’s duties, responsibilities or status (except to the extent such diminution results solely from a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan) in which the Company becomes a subsidiary of another entity (or substantially all of the assets of the Company Group are otherwise combined with the assets of the acquirer)); (iii) a material reduction by the Company Group in Executive’s Base Salary or bonus opportunity, unless related to a broad reduction of no more than 15% applying to all similarly-situated employees; or (iv) the relocation of the Principal Place of Business by more than fifty (50) miles. In all cases, an event or condition shall not constitute “Good Reason” unless (x) within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the event or condition Executive believes constitutes Good Reason Executive provides the Company with a written notice (a “Good Reason Notice”) that specifically explains the basis for Executive’s belief that facts constituting Good Reason exist, (y) in the case of any of the above events which is capable of being cured within thirty (30) days of the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, the Company fails to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable event or condition within thirty (30) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, and (z) Executive actually terminates his employment (and, if applicable, other service relationship) within sixty (60) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice.

3.6 No Other Benefits Upon Termination. Except as provided in the applicable sub-section of this Section 3 and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified pension plans of the Company, and continuation of health insurance benefits on the terms and to the extent required by Section 4980B of the Code and Section 601 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (which provisions are commonly known as “COBRA”), the Company shall have no additional obligations upon the termination of Executive’s employment with the Company.

3.7 Cooperation with Company after Termination of Employment. Following termination of Executive’s employment for any reason, Executive shall reasonably cooperate with the Company in all matters relating to the winding up of his pending work on behalf of the Company including, but not limited to, any litigation in which the Company is involved and the orderly transfer of any such pending work to other employees of the Company as may be designated by the Company. Executive’s obligations hereunder shall be subject to his reasonable availability, and, without limiting any of the restrictions in Section 4 below, the parties shall cooperate to avoid having Executive’s commitment under this Section 3.7 materially interfere with other business obligations of Executive. The Company shall reimburse Executive for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses he incurs in performing any work on behalf of the Company following the Termination Date.
4. NON-SOLICITATION & NON-COMPETITION

4.1 Non-Compete; Non-Solicit of Customers. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and, solely to the extent such act or activity involves the use of the Company Group’s trade secrets and other Confidential Information, for the twelve (12)-month period following the Termination Date, (i) become an employee, director, or independent contractor, stockholder or other owner (other than as (a) a holder of less than 1% of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) or (b) a holder of a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Executive does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund) of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Person that engages in security solutions related to computers, mobile devices and networks (a “Competing Business”), or (ii) solicit or engage or attempt to solicit or engage, as applicable, any customer or supplier of the Company Group in connection with a Competing Business or to terminate or alter in a manner adverse to the Company Group such customer’s or supplier’s relationship with the Company Group. For purposes of this Agreement, “Person” shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

4.2 Non-Solicit of Employees. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and for the twelve (12)-month period following the Termination Date solicit or attempt to solicit, as applicable, any Company Group employee, any natural person serving as an independent contractor (or any entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company Group) (an “Independent Contractor”) or individual who was a Company Group employee or Independent Contractor within the six (6) month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his, her or its employment or other service relationship with the Company Group.

4.3 Confidential Information. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all information regarding the Company Group or the activity of the Company Group that is not generally known to persons not employed or retained (as employees or as independent contractors or agents) by the Company Group, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company Group (the “Confidential Information”) is established at great expense and protected as confidential information and provides the Company Group with a substantial competitive advantage in conducting its business. Executive further acknowledges and agrees that by virtue of his employment with the Company, he has had access to and will have access to, and has been entrusted with and will be entrusted with Confidential Information, and that the Company Group could suffer great loss and injury if Executive would disclose this information or use it in a manner not specifically authorized by the Company. Therefore, Executive agrees that during the Term and at all times thereafter, he will not, directly or indirectly, either individually or as an employee, agent, partner, shareholder, owner trustee, beneficiary, co-venturer distributor, consultant or in any other capacity, use or disclose or cause to be used or disclosed any Confidential Information, unless and to the extent that any such information becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Executive’s acts or omissions. Executive shall deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment and the Term, or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports, computer tapes, printouts and software and other documents and data (and copies thereof) relating to the Confidential Information, or the business of the Company which he may then possess or have under his control. In addition, Executive agrees that, notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Executive is compelled to disclose Confidential Information by lawful service of process, subpoena, court order, or otherwise compelled to do by law, Executive shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Company with a copy of the document(s) seeking disclosures of such information promptly upon receipt of such document(s) and prior to Executive’s disclosure of any such information, so that the Company may take such action as it deems to be necessary or appropriate in relation to such subpoena or request and Executive may not disclose any such information until the Company has had the opportunity to take such action. Nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Executive’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity, or requires Executive to provide notice to the Company with notice of the same. Executive cannot be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (1) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (2) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Executive may be held liable if Executive unlawfully accesses trade secrets by unauthorized means.

4.4 Intellectual Property

(a) If Executive creates, invents, designs, develops, contributes to or improves any works of authorship, inventions, intellectual property, materials, documents or other work product (including, without limitation, research, reports, software, databases, systems, applications, presentations, textual works, content or audiovisual materials) (“Works”), either alone or with third parties, at any time during Executive’s employment with the Company Group and within the scope of such employment and/or with the use of any the Company Group resources (“Company Works”), Executive shall promptly and fully disclose same to the Company and hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers and conveys, and agrees to assign, transfer and convey, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, all rights and intellectual property rights therein (including rights under patent, industrial property, copyright, trademark, trade secret, unfair competition and related laws) to the Company (or any member of the Company Group so designated by the Company) to the extent ownership of any such rights does not vest originally in the Company Group.

(c) Executive shall not improperly use for the benefit of, bring to any premises of, divulge, disclose, communicate, reveal, transfer or provide access to, or share with, the Company Group, any confidential, proprietary or non-public information or intellectual property relating to a former employer or other third party without the prior written permission of such third party. Executive shall comply with all relevant written policies and guidelines of the Company Group that have been made available to Executive, including, without limitation, policies and guidelines regarding the protection of confidential information and intellectual property and potential conflicts of interest. Executive acknowledges that the Company Group may amend any such policies and guidelines from time to time, and that Executive remains at all times bound by their most current version.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.4 is subject to the provisions of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872. In accordance with Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, Executive’s obligation to assign Executive’s right, title and interest throughout the world in and to all Company Works does not apply to any Works that Executive developed entirely on his own time without using the Company’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or Confidential Information except for those Company Works that either (A) relate to the business of the Company Group at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Work, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Company Group or (B) result from any work performed by Executive for the Company Group. A copy of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872 is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B. Executive shall disclose all Works to the Company, even if Executive does not believe that Executive is required under this Agreement, or pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2870, to assign his interest in such Works to the Company.

4.5 Reasonable Limitation and Severability; Injunctive Relief. The parties agree that the above restrictions are (i) reasonable given Executive’s role with the Company, and are necessary to protect the interests of the Company Group and (ii) completely severable and independent agreements supported by good and valuable consideration and, as such, shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever. The parties further agree that any invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of such restrictions on competition shall not render invalid or unenforceable any remaining restrictions on competition. Additionally, should a court of competent jurisdiction determine that the scope of any provision of this Section 4 is too broad to be enforced as written, the parties hereby authorize the court to reform the provision to such narrower scope as it determines to be reasonable and enforceable and the parties intend that the affected provision be enforced as so amended. Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company’s remedies at law for a breach or threatened breach could be inadequate and the Company could suffer significant harm and irreparable damages as a result of a breach or threatened breach. In recognition of this fact, Executive agrees that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, in addition to any remedies at law, the Company, without posting any bond, shall be entitled to cease making any payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by this Agreement and obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction or any other equitable remedy which may then be available. The remedies under this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company’s right to seek any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law or in equity.
5. GENERAL PROVISIONS

5.1 Assignment; Successors. This Agreement is binding on and is for the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives. Neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder may be assigned by Executive. The Company shall require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to assume this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would have been required to perform it if no such succession had taken place. As used in the Agreement, “the Company” shall mean both the Company as defined above and any such successor that assumes this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise.

5.2 Legal Fees. Not later than ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, the Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for any and all reasonable attorneys’ fees and related costs paid in connection with his negotiation and execution of this Agreement and the LTI Agreements, up to a maximum amount of $50,000.

5.4 Amendment and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived unless such amendment or waiver is in writing, with such written document explicitly referencing this Agreement, and signed by each of the parties hereto.

5.5 Non-Waiver of Breach. No failure by either party to declare a default due to any breach of any obligation under this Agreement by the other, nor failure by either party to act quickly with regard thereto, shall be considered to be a waiver of any such obligation, or of any future breach.

5.6 Severability. In the event that any provision or portion of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be unaffected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

5.7 Governing Law. To the extent not preempted by federal law, the validity and effect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be construed and determined in accordance with the law of Delaware. The parties irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of, and venue in, the state and federal courts in the State of Delaware, with respect to any matters pertaining to, or arising from, this Agreement.

5.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains all of the terms agreed upon by the Company and Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements and communications between the parties dealing with such subject matter, whether oral or written, including, without limitation, the Non-Binding Employment Term Sheet dated as of September 7, 2016.

5.9 Headings. Numbers and titles to Sections hereof are for information purposes only and, where inconsistent with the text, are to be disregarded.

5.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together, shall be and constitute one and the same instrument.

5.11 Taxes.
   (a) The Company may withhold from any payment hereunder such state, federal or local income, employment or other taxes and other legally mandated withholdings as it reasonably deems appropriate. The Company makes no representation about the tax treatment or impact of any payment(s) hereunder.

(b) The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 409A”), to the extent subject thereto, and, accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and administered to be in compliance therewith. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary: (i) if at the time of Executive’s termination of employment with the Company, Executive is a “specified employee” as defined in Section 409A and the deferral of the commencement of any payments or benefits otherwise payable hereunder as a result of such termination of employment is necessary in order to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, then the Company will defer the commencement of the payment of any such payments or benefits hereunder (without any reduction in such payments or benefits ultimately paid or provided to Executive) until the date that is six (6) months and one (1) day following Executive’s termination of employment with the Company (or the earliest date as is permitted under Section 409A); (ii) if any other payments of money or other benefits due to Executive hereunder could cause the application of an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, such payments or other benefits shall be deferred if deferral will make such payment or other benefits compliant under Section 409A, or otherwise such payment or other benefits shall be restructured, to the extent possible, in a manner determined by the Company that does not cause such an accelerated or additional tax; (iii) to the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A, Executive shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company for purposes of this Agreement and no payment shall be due to Executive under this Agreement until Executive would be considered to have incurred a “separation from service” from the Company within the meaning of Section 409A; and (iv) each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided to Executive pursuant to this Agreement, shall be construed as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, amounts reimbursable to Executive under this Agreement shall be paid to Executive on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in-kind benefits provided to Executive) during any one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year and may not be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Neither the Company nor any of its employees or representatives shall have any liability to Executive with respect to Section 409A.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 3.5, in the event that the COBRA Subsidy would subject the Company Group or Executive to any tax or penalty under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (as amended from time to time, the “ACA”) or Section 105(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 105(h)”), or applicable regulations or guidance issued under the ACA or Section 105(h), Executive and the Company agree to work together in good faith, consistent with the requirements for compliance with or exemption from Section 409A, to restructure such benefit.

5.12 Clawback. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Executive acknowledges that the Company Group may be entitled or required by law, the Company Group’s policy (the “Clawback Policy”) or the requirements of an exchange on which the shares of an affiliate of the Company are listed for trading, to recoup compensation paid to Executive pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, and Executive agrees to comply with any such request or demand for recoupment by the Company; provided that, except as required by law or the requirements of an exchange on which the shares of an affiliate of the Company are listed for trading, no compensation paid or equity awards granted to Executive, whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, prior to a public offering and sale of the common equity of the Company, a parent company thereof or any successor to either the Company or such parent for cash that is registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, on Form S-1 (or a successor form), shall subject to recoupment under the Clawback Policy. Executive acknowledges that the Clawback Policy may be modified from time to time in the sole discretion of the Company and without the consent of Executive.

5.13 Return of Property. Upon termination of Executive’s employment with the Company for any reason, Executive shall immediately destroy, delete, or return to the Company, at the Company’s option, all originals and copies in any form or medium (including memoranda, books, papers, plans, computer files, letters and other data) in Executive’s possession or control that contain Confidential Information or otherwise relate to the business of the Company Group, and cooperate with the Company regarding the delivery or destruction of any other Confidential Information of which Executive is or becomes aware, and shall otherwise return to the Company all property of the Company Group.

5.14 No Conflict. Executive represents and warrants to the Company that (i) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Executive does not and shall not conflict with, breach, violate or cause a default under any contract, agreement, instrument, order, judgment or decree to which Executive is a party or by which he is bound, and (ii) Executive is not a party to or bound by an employment agreement, non-compete agreement, non-solicit agreement or confidentiality agreement with any other Person which would interfere in any material respect with the performance of his duties hereunder.

5.15 Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company agrees that it shall indemnify Executive and provide Executive with Directors & Officers liability insurance coverage to the same extent that it indemnifies and/or provides such insurance coverage to the Company’s Board members and other most senior executive officers.

5.16 Survival. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all covenants, representations and warranties, express or implied, in addition to the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of this Agreement, shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed on the date and year first written above.

EMPLOYEE RELEASE OF CLAIMS

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION OF the severance pay and benefits to be provided to me under the Employment Agreement between me and McAfee Employee Holdings, LLC (the “Company”), Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“Parent”) (the “Employment Agreement”), which are conditioned on my signing this Release of Claims and to which I am not otherwise entitled, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, I, on my own behalf and on behalf of my heirs, executors, administrators, beneficiaries, representatives and assigns, and all others connected with or claiming through me, hereby release and forever discharge the Company, Parent and their current and past parents, subsidiaries and other affiliates and all of their respective past, present and future officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, employees, agents, employee benefit plans, general and limited partners, members, managers, investors, joint venturers, representatives, successors and assigns, and all others connected with any of them, both individually and in their official capacities (collectively, the “Released Parties”), from any and all causes of action, rights and claims of any type or description, known or unknown, which I have had in the past, now have, or might now have, through the date of my signing of this Release of Claims, in any way related to, connected with or arising out of my employment or its termination or the Employment Agreement or pursuant to any federal, state or local law, regulation or other requirement (including without limitation Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and/or the fair employment practices statute of the state or states in which I was previously employed by the Company or otherwise had a relationship with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, each as amended from time to time) (collectively, the “Released Claims”). This Release of Claims shall not apply to (a) any claim that arises after I sign this Release of Claims, (b) any rights to indemnification that I may have, (c) any claim that may not be waived pursuant to applicable law, (d) my rights to severance pay and benefits under the Employment Agreement as set forth on Schedule I, (e) my rights following the date hereof with respect to any equity interests I hold in Parent or any of its affiliates or (f) my rights to any vested benefits to which I am entitled under the terms of any of the Company’s benefit plans.

In signing this Release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which Section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

1 Schedule to reflect severance owed at termination.
Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, I expressly acknowledge that this Release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all Released Claims which I do not know or suspect to exist in my favor at the time of execution hereof, and that this Release contemplates the extinguishment of such Release Claim or Released Claims.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Release of Claims shall be construed to prohibit me from filing a charge with or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a comparable state or local agency, except that I hereby agree to waive my right to recover monetary damages or other individual relief in any such charge, investigation or proceeding, or any related complaint or lawsuit filed by me or by anyone else on my behalf.

In signing this Release of Claims, I acknowledge my understanding that I may consider the terms of this Release of Claims for up to [twenty-one (21)/forty-five (45)] days from the date I receive it and that I may not sign this Release of Claims until after the date my employment with the Company terminates. I also acknowledge that I am hereby advised by the Company to seek the advice of an attorney prior to signing this Release of Claims; that I have had sufficient time to consider this Release of Claims and to consult with an attorney, if I wished to do so, or to consult with any other person of my choosing before signing; and that I am signing this Release of Claims voluntarily and with a full understanding of its terms.

I further acknowledge that, in signing this Release of Claims, I have not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in the Release of Claims. I understand that I may revoke this Release of Claims at any time within seven (7) days of the date of my signing by written notice to the Chairman of the Company’s Board of Directors and that this Release of Claims will take effect only upon the expiration of such seven-day revocation period and only if I have not timely revoked it.

Intending to be legally bound, I have signed this Release of Claims as of the date written below.

COMPANY RELEASE OF CLAIMS

The Company hereby and forever releases Christopher D. Young (the “Employee”) from any and all claims arising out of or relating to the Employee’s employment or other relationship with the Company and the conclusion of that employment or other relationship that the Company may possess against the Employee arising from any omissions, acts, facts, or damages that have occurred up until and including the date of execution of this release of claims. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this release of claims shall not apply to any claim (a) that arises after the execution of this release of claims or (b) related to any intentional or grossly negligent act or omission of the Employee.

In signing this release of claims, the Company expressly waives and relinquishes all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and does so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which Section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Employee (subject to the exceptions noted above), the Company expressly acknowledges that this release of claims is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all released claims (subject to the exceptions noted above) which the Company does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of execution hereof, and that this release of claims contemplates the extinguishment of such released claims.

Intending to be legally bound, the Company has signed this Release of Claims as of the date written below.

You are hereby notified that the Employment Agreement to which this Exhibit B is attached does not apply to any invention which qualifies fully for exclusion under the provisions of Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, and that the provisions of Section 4.4 of the Employment Agreement are subject to the provisions of Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872 of the California Labor Code.

(a) Any provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any of his or her rights in an invention to his or her employer shall not apply to an invention that the employee developed entirely on his or her own time without using the employer’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information except for those inventions that either:

(1) Relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the employer’s business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the employer; or

(2) Result from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

(b) To the extent a provision in an employment agreement purports to require an employee to assign an invention otherwise excluded from being required to be assigned under subdivision (a), the provision is against the public policy of this state and is unenforceable.

No employer shall require a provision made void and unenforceable by Section 2870 as a condition of employment or continued employment. Nothing in this article shall be construed to forbid or restrict the right of an employer to provide in contracts of employment for disclosure, provided that any such disclosures be received in confidence, of all of the employee’s inventions made solely or jointly with others during the term of his or her employment, a review process by the employer to determine such issues as may arise, and for full title to certain patents and inventions to be in the United States, as required by contracts between the employer and the United States or any of its agencies.

If an employment agreement entered into after January 1, 1980 contains a provision requiring the employee to assign or offer to assign any of his or her rights in any invention to his or her employer, the employer must also, at the time the agreement is made, provide a written notification to the employee that the agreement does not apply to an invention which qualifies fully under the provisions of Section 2870. In any suit or action arising thereunder, the burden of proof shall be on the employee claiming the benefits of its provisions.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, during the Term of this Agreement, Executive shall serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Parent, and shall report directly to the Board of Managers of Parent (the “Board”). In addition, for so long as Executive remains the Chief Executive Officer of Parent, Executive shall serve as a member of the Board. Executive’s principal work location shall be at the Company’s offices in Santa Clara, California or such other location as Executive and the Company shall mutually agree, (hereinafter the “Principal Place of Business”), provided that Executive may be required to travel as reasonably necessary in order to perform his duties and responsibilities hereunder. Executive shall carry out his duties and responsibilities at all times in compliance with the written policies and procedures of Parent, and following an initial Public Offering (as defined in Parent’s Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of April 3, 2017 (as amended from time to time, the “LLC Agreement”)), the Issuer (as defined in the LLC Agreement) or any of their respective subsidiaries (collectively and each individually a member of, the “Company Group”) that have been made available to Executive, as in effect from time to time. Executive shall also perform such other duties as reasonably requested by the Board, including service as an officer or director of any other member of the Company Group without additional compensation. During the Term of this Agreement, Executive shall use his best business efforts to serve the Company Group faithfully, diligently and competently and to the best of his ability, and to devote his full time business hours, energy, ability, attention and skill to the business of the Company Group; provided, however, that the foregoing is not intended to preclude Executive from noncompetitive activities that are conducted outside normal business hours and are permitted under Section 1.3 hereof.
1.3 Outside Activities. During the Term of this Agreement, (i) Executive may continue to serve in the positions listed on Annex I hereto, (ii) serve on the board of directors with the prior written consent of the Board (not to be unreasonably withheld), Executive may serve on the board of directors of a for-profit entity and as a director or advisor of other not-for-profit educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, and (iii) Executive may perform charitable and other activities, and manage his personal investments; provided, however, that in the case of either (i) or (ii) such activities do not materially interfere with the performance of his duties hereunder and otherwise to the Company Group and are not in conflict or competitive with, or adverse to, the interests of the Company Group.

2. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS; EXPENSES

2.1 Salary. The Company shall compensate and pay Executive for his services a Base Salary at a rate equivalent to $900,000 per year, less payroll deductions and all required tax withholdings, which salary shall be payable in accordance with the Company’s customary payroll practices applicable to its executives. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review for possible increase (but not decrease) by the Board or its Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) based on individual and Company performance. The term “Base Salary” shall refer to Executive’s annual base salary as may be in effect from time to time.

2.2 Bonus. With respect to each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Term and subject to the achievement of applicable performance goals, based on corporate, business unit and/or individual performance, to be reasonably established by the Board or the Committee in consultation with the Executive, Executive shall be entitled to participate in the Company’s annual incentive plan, under which Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) with a target amount equal to 150% of the Base Salary (the “Target Bonus”), subject to Executive being employed with the Company on the date that the Annual Bonus is paid (except as otherwise provided in Section 3). The Company shall pay earned Annual Bonuses to Executive no later than 2½ months following the end of each fiscal year. The Target Bonus shall be subject to review for possible increase (but not decrease) by the Board or the Committee based on individual and Company performance at the Board’s or the Committee’s sole discretion.

2.3 Employee Benefits. During the Term of this Agreement, to the extent eligible under the applicable plans or programs and applicable law, Executive shall be entitled to participate in the employee benefits plans and programs made available to executive level employees of the Company generally, such as health, medical, dental, disability and other insurance coverage and group retirement and deferred compensation plans. The terms and conditions of Executive’s participation in any employee benefit plan or program shall be subject to the terms and conditions of such plan or program, as may be modified by the Company from time to time. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the Company from amending or terminating any employee benefit plan or program, subject to the terms of the applicable plan or program.
2.4 Vacations. Executive shall be entitled to vacation in accordance with the Company Group’s vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as Executive shall determine, subject to the business needs of the Company Group.

2.5 Long-Term Incentives.

(a) As soon as practicable following the Effective Date, (i) Parent will grant Executive restricted share units payable in Class A Units of Parent (such restricted share units, the “RSUs”, and such Class A Units the “Class A Units”) with an aggregate grant date Fair Market Value (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of $16.2 million, but with respect to no less than 468,614 Class A Units, and Management Incentive Units of Parent (the “Management Incentive Units”) with an aggregate per unit Management Incentive Unit Return Threshold (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of $10.8 million, but for no less than 312,409 Management Incentive Units, in each case, pursuant to the Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC 2017 Management Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), and (ii) Executive shall purchase Class A Units having an aggregate Fair Market Value of $500,000 from Parent at a price per Class A Unit equal to the Fair Market Value of a Class A Unit on the date of purchase. The specific terms and conditions of the RSUs and Management Incentive Units shall be set forth in the Plan, the grant agreement governing such awards and the LLC Agreement and the specific terms and conditions of the Class A Units purchased by Executive shall be set forth in a subscription agreement between Parent and Executive and the LLC Agreement. As a condition to receiving the Class A Units, RSUs and Management Incentive Units, Executive shall be required to become party to the LLC Agreement (together with the Plan and the applicable grant agreements and subscription agreement, the “Equity Agreements”, the forms of which are attached hereto).

(b) In connection with any initial Public Offering, the Company Group or such affiliate may cause the RSUs, the Class A Units and/or the Management Incentive Units, at the election of the Board or the Committee, to be exchanged for shares of Issuer stock and/or, in the case of RSUs and Management Incentive Units, awards based on or convertible into Issuer stock, in any case, having the same value, and subject to the same vesting and other terms and conditions as of immediately following the exchange as such awards had as of immediately prior to such exchange. Further, in connection with an initial Public Offering, shares of Issuer stock received or to be received by Executive (or his permitted transferees) shall be subject to a lock-up period (which, shall not be longer than any lock-up period applicable to the TPG Investor (as defined in the LLC Agreement)) described in a lock-up agreement, in the form agreed upon between Issuer and the underwriters in connection with the initial Public Offering and, following the expiration of such lock-up period, During the Term and for twelve (12) months thereafter, Executive shall only be entitled to transfer such shares of Issuer stock (to the extent vested) if and when (i) shares of Issuer stock held by investment funds affiliated with TPG are sold, with the number of shares of Issuer stock eligible to be sold by Executive (and his permitted transferees) upon each sale by such investment funds determined on a pro rata basis with the number of shares Issuer stock sold by such investment funds at such time based on their respective holdings of Issuer stock at the time of such sale and (ii) otherwise approved by the TPG Investor in writing. Subject to the other restrictions set forth herein or in the Equity Agreements, following an initial Public Offering, all sales by Executive will be pursuant to a pre-approved trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b-5-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or when Executive is not otherwise in possession of material nonpublic information. In connection with the closing of an initial Public Offering, Parent and Executive shall enter into a registration rights agreement with respect to any shares of Issuer stock held by or to be received by Executive (or his permitted transferees), which shall provide for customary piggyback registration rights with respect to such shares on secondary offerings, without cutbacks that are not proportionate to any cutbacks that apply to investment funds affiliated with TPG. In furtherance of the foregoing, Executive agrees to take such actions and execute such documents as are reasonably requested by the Board or the Committee to effectuate such exchange, registration rights and/or transfer restrictions.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Equity Agreements, (i) if Executive’s employment or other service with the Company Group terminates for any reason, Executive’s vested Management Incentive Units and Class A Units received in respect of the RSUs (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, any Class A Units purchased by Executive) shall be subject to repurchase as described in Section 13(a) of the LLC Agreement, (ii) if Executive’s employment or other service with the Company Group is terminated by the Company Group for Cause (as defined hereunder) (or Executive’s employment terminates under circumstances when Cause exists) or Executive materially violates the restrictive covenants in Section 4 of this Agreement, Management Incentive Units and Class A Units (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, any Class A Units purchased by Executive) received on settlement of RSUs will be forfeited for no consideration and Executive will be required to repay any amounts received in the preceding twelve (12) months in respect of Executive’s Management Incentive Units, RSUs and/or Class A Units received in respect of RSUs, in each case, after Executive has been given notice and, to the extent the circumstances constituting Cause or such breach are reasonably susceptible to cure, has failed to cure within ten (10) days of receiving such notice, and (iii) if Parent exercises its call rights pursuant to Section 13 of the LLC Agreement in respect of any of Executive’s Class A Units or Management Incentive Units or the Board otherwise makes a determination of Fair Market Value of Class A Units or Management Incentive Units pursuant to the Equity Agreements in connection with determining the number of Class A Units withheld under any net tax withholding arrangement for RSUs or the number of additional RSUs credited to Executive in connection with any distribution on Class A Units, and Executive believes in good faith that the Fair Market Value of such Class A Units or Management Incentive Units is greater than the amount determined by the Board, then Executive may deliver a written objection notice to Parent within thirty (30) days of such determination (an “Objection Notice”). If Executive timely delivers such an Objection Notice, then Parent will promptly engage a third-party independent valuation expert selected by Parent and consented to by Executive (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or hindered) (the “Independent Appraiser”) to deliver a written determination of the fair market value of such Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Units as of the date the applicable notice of repurchase was delivered (such determination to include a report setting forth all material analyses used in arriving at such determination, which for the avoidance of doubt, such analyses shall not include any discount for lack of marketability or lack or of majority interest) within sixty (60) days of being engaged. Such determination shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value of Executive’s Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Units.
Units and shall be final and binding on the parties. If such Fair Market Value determined by the Independent Appraiser is more than 10% higher than the Fair Market Value previously determined by the Board, then the costs and expenses of the Independent Appraiser shall be borne by Parent. If such Fair Market Value determined by such Independent Appraiser is not more than 10% higher than the Fair Market Value previously determined by the Board, then the costs and expenses of the Independent Appraiser shall be borne by Executive (which costs and expenses may, in whole or in part, be deducted from the cash or other consideration otherwise deliverable to Executive in respect of the repurchase of such Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Units or any other payment owing to Executive by the Company or Parent).

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Equity Agreements:

(i) Executive shall be entitled to the tag-along rights described in Section 12 of the LLC Agreement (which rights shall apply to any Transfer by the TPG Investor to the Intel Investor (as such terms are defined in the LLC Agreement) or, in the event carry is payable to the TPG Investor or its affiliates in connection with such Transfer, to any Transfer to an affiliate of the TPG Investor) with respect to all vested Class A Units, vested RSUs and vested Management Incentive Units held by Executive (or his permitted transferees) and all Class A Units and Management Incentive Units (after otherwise applying the terms set forth in the Equity Agreements) shall be subject to the drag-along obligations set forth in such section, in each case, in accordance with the terms set forth therein.

(ii) In the event of a Drag-Along Sale (as defined in the LLC Agreement), Executive shall not receive a greater proportion of non-cash consideration than the TPG Investor in respect of his Class A Units or Management Incentive Units sold in such transaction.

(iii) During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to the information rights set forth in Section 9.7 of the LLC Agreement.

(iv) Executive shall be entitled to the pre-emptive rights described in Section 14 of the LLC Agreement with respect to his vested Class A Units and Class A Units underlying his vested RSUs.

(v) The call option set forth in Section 13.1(a) of the LLC Agreement shall lapse upon the consummation of an initial Public Offering and, in the event of any repurchase delay described in Section 13.2 of the LLC Agreement, the Fair Market Value of the applicable units shall be determined as of the date of the repurchase.

(vi) Executive’s Management Incentive Units and RSUs may only be adjusted in accordance with Section 9(a) of the Plan on an equitable basis.

(vii) The provisions in Section 9(b) of the Plan shall not be applied to abridge Executive’s rights set forth herein or in any of his individual Equity Agreements.

(viii) For purposes of Executive’s Management Incentive Units and RSUs, Section 14 of the Plan shall be deemed to include a reference to Section 4 of this Agreement, and Section 4 of this Agreement shall control in the event of any inconsistency with the terms set forth therein.

A. Prior to an initial Public Offering (and not in connection with any restructuring taken in connection with an initial Public Offering), the TPG Majority (as defined in the LLC Agreement) ceasing to have the authority pursuant to the LLC Agreement to appoint and remove fifty percent (50%) or more of the members of the Board, whether as a TPG Manager (as such term is defined in the LLC Agreement) or an Independent Manager (as such term is defined in the LLC Agreement) or otherwise;

Following an initial Public Offering, the acquisition by any person or group (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of equity securities representing thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the voting power of Issuer provided that (i) following such acquisition such person or group holds outstanding equity securities representing more of the voting power of Issuer than the outstanding equity securities then held by the TPG Investor, (ii) following such acquisition, neither the TPG Investor nor any affiliates of TPG Global, LLC (excluding portfolio companies) have the right to designate a majority of the nominees to the board of directors of the Issuer, (iii) if such person or group is or includes the TPG Investor or any affiliate of TPG Global, LLC (excluding portfolio companies), the Issuer, Parent or any subsidiary of Issuer or Parent (all such parties, the “Excluded Parties”), all equity securities held by the Excluded Parties shall be excluded from the equity securities held by such person or group for purposes of this definition, and (iv) if such person or group is or includes the Intel Investor or any of its affiliates, following such acquisition, such person or group holds outstanding equity securities entitling it to designate a majority of the nominees to the board of directors of Issuer.
2.6 Business Expenses. The Company shall reimburse Executive or otherwise provide for or pay for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Executive in furtherance of or in connection with the business of the Company Group, including, but not limited to, travel and entertainment expenses commensurate with his duties hereunder (including attendance at industry conferences), subject to the Company Group’s policies as in effect from time to time, including without limitation such reasonable documentation and other limitations as may be reasonably established or required by the Company Group.

3. TERMINATION

3.1 Notice of Termination. In addition to the Accrued Rights, if Executive’s employment is terminated by reason of Executive’s death or by the Company due to Disability, subject, in the case of a termination due to Disability, to Executive’s continued compliance with this Agreement and the Equity Agreements, and Executive’s (or his estate’s or legal representative’s) execution, delivery and non-revocation of an effective release of all claims against the Company Group in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Release”) within the sixty (60) day period following the date of the termination of Executive’s employment (the “Release Period”), Executive or his estate shall be entitled to receive (x) any earned but unpaid Annual Bonus related to the completed fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which termination of employment occurs and (y) an Annual Bonus for the year in which the Termination Date occurs, with payment based on actual performance during the year of termination, pro-rated to reflect the number of days during the bonus year in which Executive was employed by the Company, in each case, payable in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes, on the later of (x) the first regular payroll date following the date on which the Release becomes fully effective and (y) the date annual bonuses with respect to such fiscal year are payable to other executives of the Company, but in no event later than two and one-half months following the end of the year of termination (the amounts described in clauses (x) and (y) hereof being referred to as the “Bonus Severance”). For purposes hereof, “Disability” shall be determined in accordance with the Company’s long-term disability plan as then in effect, whether or not Executive participates in such plan.

3.3 Termination by Executive for Other Than Good Reason. In the event Executive terminates his employment for other than Good Reason, Executive shall be entitled to receive the Accrued Rights.

3.4 Termination by the Company for Cause. In the event the Company terminates his employment for Cause (or Executive’s employment terminates under circumstances where Cause exists), Executive shall be entitled to receive the Accrued Rights.

3.5 Termination by the Company without Cause or by Executive for Good Reason. If Executive’s employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, or by Executive for Good Reason, in either case, other than within two years following a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan, as modified by Section 2.5(d)(ix)) or under circumstances where Cause exists, Executive shall be entitled, in addition to the Accrued Rights and subject to Executive’s continued material compliance with this Agreement and the Equity Agreements, and Executive’s execution, delivery and non-revocation of the Release within the Release Period, to receive:

(a) equal or substantially equal payments over the eighteen (18)-month period following the date of termination, in an aggregate amount equal to one and one-half times (1.5x) the sum of (x) Executive’s then-current Base Salary plus (y) Executive’s Target Bonus, with such amounts to be paid in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes, beginning on the first regular payroll date following the date on which the Release becomes fully effective (and with the first payment to include all payments that would otherwise have been made prior to such date);

(e.g., individual only, individual plus family, etc.) through the earlier of the end of the eighteen (18)-month period immediately following the Termination Date and the time at which Executive becomes eligible for group health coverage from another employer, with such subsidies payable by the Company on a monthly basis in substantially equal installments not later than the end of the month to which they relate. Executive must notify the Company within seven (7) days of learning that he will become eligible to for group health coverage from another employer.

To the extent any payments made of contemplated hereunder constitute nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") and if the Release Period spans two (2) calendar years, then such payments that would otherwise have been made prior to the end of the Release Period will be made, after the release becomes irrevocable, in the form of a lump sum on the first payroll date that occurs in the second calendar year.

(i) “Cause” means, as determined by the Board in its reasonable good faith judgment, Executive’s: (i) conviction of an act of material fraud or dishonesty; (ii) intentional refusal or willful failure to carry out the lawful and reasonable instructions of the Board; (iii) commission of a felony or a misdemeanor crime involving moral turpitude (where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (iv) gross misconduct or gross negligence in connection with the performance of his duties; (v) material breach of any provision of this Agreement or any other employment or restrictive covenant agreement with the Company; (vi) material violation of any material written policy or written code of conduct of the Company Group that has been made available to Executive; (vii) material breach of fiduciary duty (including duty of loyalty) to the Company Group; or (viii) willful failure to cooperate with the Company Group in any investigation or formal proceeding or being found liable in a Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") enforcement action or otherwise being disqualified from Executive’s job.

(ii) “Good Reason” shall mean, without Executive’s consent: (i) a material breach by the Company Group of this Agreement; (ii) a material diminution of Executive’s duties, responsibilities or status (other than as a result of the sale, license or other divestiture of a business line or division or business segment); (iii) a reduction by the Company Group in Executive’s Base Salary or Target Bonus; or (iv) the relocation of the Principal Place of Business by more than fifty (50) miles. In all cases, an event or condition shall not constitute “Good Reason” unless (x) within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the event or condition Executive believes constitutes Good Reason Executive provides the Company with a written notice (a “Good Reason Notice”) that specifically explains the basis for Executive’s belief that facts constituting Good Reason exist, (y) in the case of any of the above events which is capable of being cured within thirty (30) days of the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, the Company fails to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable event or condition within thirty (30) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, and (z) Executive actually terminates his employment (and, if applicable, other service relationship) within sixty (60) days following the end of such cure period.
3.6 Change in Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, or by Executive for Good Reason, in either case, within two years following a Change in Control and other than under circumstances where Cause exists, in lieu of any severance benefits described in Section 3.5 above, Executive shall be entitled, in addition to the Accrued Rights and subject to Executive’s continued material compliance with this Agreement and the Equity Agreements, and Executive’s execution, delivery and non-revocation of the Release within the Release Period, to receive:

(a) equal or substantially equal payments over the twenty four (24)-month period following the date of termination, in an aggregate amount equal to two times (2.0x) the sum of (x) Executive’s then-current Base Salary plus (y) Executive’s Target Bonus, with such amounts to be paid in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes, beginning on the first regular payroll date following the date on which the Release becomes fully effective (and with the first payment to include all payments that would otherwise have been made prior to such date);

Executive must notify the Company within seven (7) days of learning that he will become eligible to for group health coverage from another employer.

3.7 No Other Benefits Upon Termination. Except as provided in the applicable sub-section of this Section 3 and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified pension plans of the Company, and continuation of health insurance benefits on the terms and to the extent required by Section 4980B of the Code and Section 601 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (which provisions are commonly known as “COBRA”), the Company shall have no additional obligations upon the termination of Executive’s employment with the Company.

3.8 No Mitigation. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive shall have no duty to seek employment following termination of employment or otherwise to mitigate damages. The amounts or benefits payable or available to Executive under this Agreement shall not be reduced by any amount Executive may earn or receive from employment with another employer or from any other source.

3.9 Cooperation with Company after Termination of Employment. Following termination of Executive’s employment for any reason, Executive shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group in all matters relating to the winding up of his pending work on behalf of the Company Group including, but not limited to, any litigation in which the Company Group is involved and the orderly transfer of any such pending work to other employees of the Company Group as may be designated by the Company. Executive’s obligations hereunder shall be subject to his reasonable availability, and, without limiting any of the restrictions in Section 4 below, the parties shall cooperate to avoid having Executive’s commitment under this Section 3.7 materially interfere with other personal and business commitments or obligations of Executive. The Company Group shall reimburse Executive for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses he incurs in performing any work on behalf of the Company Group following the Termination Date. In addition, if more than incidental cooperation is required at any time after the Termination Date, Executive shall be paid an amount to be mutually agreed on by the Executive and the Company Group.

4. NON-SOLICITATION & NON-COMPETITION

4.1 Non-Compete; Non-Solicit of Customers. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and for the eighteen (18)-month period following the Termination Date, (i) become an employee, director, or independent contractor, stockholder or other owner (other than as (a) a holder of less than 1% of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) or (b) a holder of a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Executive does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund) of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any of the following companies: Avast, Broadcom, Crowdstrike, NortonLifeLock, and Trend Micro (each, a “Competitor”), or (ii) solicit or engage or attempt to solicit, any customer of the Company or prospective customer that has been actively pursued by the Company within the twelve (12) month period preceding the Termination Date (provided that Executive has knowledge of such pursuit or such prospective customer is or could reasonably be expected to bring material benefit to the Company or its affiliates) to terminate or alter in a manner adverse to the Company Group such current or prospective customer’s relationship with the Company Group. For purposes of this Agreement, “Person” shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

4.2 Non-Solicit of Employees. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and for the eighteen (18)-month period following the Termination Date, solicit or attempt to solicit, as applicable, any Company Group employee or individual who was a Company Group employee within the six (6) month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his, her or its employment with the Company Group.

4.3 Confidential Information. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all information regarding the Company Group or the activity of the Company Group that is not generally known to persons not employed or retained (as employees or as independent contractors or agents) by the Company Group, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company Group (the “Confidential Information”) is established at great expense and protected as confidential information and provides the Company Group with a substantial competitive advantage in conducting its business. Executive further acknowledges and agrees that by virtue of his employment with the Company, he will have access to, and will be entrusted with Confidential Information, and that the Company Group could suffer great loss and injury if Executive would disclose this information or use it in a manner not specifically authorized by the Company. Therefore, Executive agrees that during the Term and at all times thereafter, he will not, directly or indirectly, either individually or as an employee, agent, partner, shareholder, owner trustee, beneficiary, co-venturer, distributor, consultant, or in any other capacity, use or disclose or cause to be used or disclosed any Confidential Information, unless and to the extent that any such information becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Executive’s acts or omissions, or Executive is required to disclose by applicable law, regulation or legal process. Executive shall deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment, or at any other time the Company may reasonably request, all memoranda, notes, plans, reports, computer tapes, printouts and software and other documents and data (and copies thereof) relating to the Confidential Information, or the business of the Company which he may then possess or have under his control. In addition, Executive agrees that, notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Executive is compelled to disclose Confidential Information by lawful service of process, subpoena, court order, or otherwise compelled to do by law, Executive shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Company with a copy of the document(s) seeking disclosures of such information promptly upon receipt of such document(s) and prior to Executive’s disclosure of any such information, so that the Company may take such action as it reasonably deems to be necessary or appropriate in relation to such subpoena or request and Executive may not disclose any such information until the Company has had the opportunity to take such action. Nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Executive’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity, or requires Executive to provide notice to the Company with notice of the same. Executive cannot be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (1) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (2) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Executive may be held liable if Executive unlawfully accesses trade secrets by unauthorized means.

(a) If Executive creates, invents, designs, develops, contributes to or improves any works of authorship, inventions, intellectual property, materials, documents or other work product (including, without limitation, research, reports, software, databases, systems, applications, presentations, textual works, content or audiovisual materials) (“Works”), either alone or with third parties, at any time during Executive’s employment with the Company Group and within the scope of such employment and/or with the use of any the Company Group resources (“Company Works”), Executive shall promptly and fully disclose the same to the Company and hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers and conveys, and agrees to assign, transfer and convey, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, all rights and intellectual property rights therein (including rights under patent, industrial property, copyright, trademark, trade secret, unfair competition and related laws) to the Company (or any member of the Company Group so designated by the Company) to the extent ownership of any such rights does not vest originally in the Company Group. All copyrightable works that Executive creates during employment with the Company Group will be considered “work made for hire” and will, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company (or an affiliate designated by the Company).
(b) Executive shall take all reasonably requested actions and execute all reasonably requested documents (including any licenses or assignments required by a government contract) at the Company Group’s expense (but without further remuneration) to assist the Company Group in validating, maintaining, protecting, enforcing, perfecting, recording, patenting or registering any of the Company Group’s rights in the Company Works. If the Company is unable for any other reason to secure Executive’s signature on any document for this purpose, then Executive hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as Executive’s agent and attorney in fact, to act for and in Executive’s behalf and stand to execute any documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts in connection with the foregoing.

(c) Executive shall not improperly use for the benefit of, bring to any premises of, divulge, disclose, communicate, reveal, transfer or provide access to, or share with, the Company Group, any confidential, proprietary or non-public information or intellectual property relating to a former employer or other third party without the prior written permission of such third party. Executive shall comply with all relevant written policies and guidelines of the Company Group that have been made available to Executive, including, without limitation, policies and guidelines regarding the protection of confidential information and intellectual property and potential conflicts of interest. Executive acknowledges that the Company Group may amend any such policies and guidelines from time to time, and that Executive remains at all times bound by their most current version.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.4 is subject to the provisions of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872. In accordance with Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, Executive’s obligation to assign Executive’s right, title and interest throughout the world in and to all Company Works does not apply to any Works that Executive developed entirely on his own time without using the Company’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or Confidential Information except for those Company Works that either (A) relate to the business of the Company Group at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Work, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Company Group or (B) result from any work performed by Executive for the Company Group. A copy of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872 is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B. Executive shall disclose all Works to the Company, even if Executive does not believe that Executive is required under this Agreement, or pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2870, to assign his interest in such Works to the Company.

4.5 Reasonable Limitation and Severability; Injunctive Relief. The parties agree that the above restrictions are (i) reasonable given Executive’s role with the Company, and are necessary to protect the interests of the Company Group and (ii) completely severable and independent agreements supported by good and valuable consideration and, as such, shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever. The parties further agree that any invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of such restrictions on competition shall not render invalid or unenforceable any remaining restrictions on competition. Additionally, should a court of competent jurisdiction determine that the scope of any provision of this Section 4 is too broad to be enforced as written, the parties hereby authorize the court to reform the provision to such narrower scope as it determines to be reasonable and enforceable and the parties intend that the affected provision be enforced as so amended. Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company’s remedies at law for a breach or threatened breach could be inadequate and the Company could suffer significant harm and irreparable damages as a result of a breach or threatened breach. In recognition of this fact, Executive agrees that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, in addition to any remedies at law or under the Equity Agreements or any other agreement between Executive and any member of the Company Group, the Company, without posting any bond, shall be entitled to cease making payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by this Agreement and obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction or any other equitable remedy which may then be available. The remedies under this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company’s right to seek any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law or in equity.

5. GENERAL PROVISIONS

5.1 Assignment; Successors. This Agreement is binding on and is for the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives. Neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder may be assigned by Executive. The Company may at any time assign all or any of its obligations under this Agreement to any other member of the Company Group, subject to Executive’s consent (not to be unreasonably withheld), provided that no such consent shall be required to assign all or any of its obligations under this Agreement to Issuer or in order to cause Executive to remain employed by a member of the Company Group following any sale or license of a Divested Business. The Company shall require any such assignee or successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to assume this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would have been required to perform it if no such succession had taken place. As used in the Agreement, “the Company” shall mean both the Company as defined above and any such successor that assumes this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, and the terms “Board” and “Committee” shall refer to the Board of Managers and Compensation Committee of Parent, to the board of directors or managers and/or compensation or similar committee of any successor or assign, including Issuer.

5.2 Legal Fees. Not later than ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, the Company shall pay or reimburse Executive for any and all reasonable attorneys’ fees and related costs paid in connection with his negotiation and execution of this Agreement and the Equity Agreements, up to a maximum amount of $40,000.

5.3 Notice. For the purposes of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered in person or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the respective addresses set forth below (or such other address as is provided in writing to the other party):
5.4 Amendment and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived unless such amendment or waiver is in writing, with such written document explicitly referencing this Agreement, and signed by each of the parties hereto.

5.5 Non-Waiver of Breach. No failure by either party to declare a default due to any breach of any obligation under this Agreement by the other, nor failure by either party to act quickly with regard thereto, shall be considered to be a waiver of any such obligation, or of any future breach.

5.6 Severability. In the event that any provision or portion of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be unaffected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

5.7 Governing Law. To the extent not preempted by federal law, the validity and effect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be construed and determined in accordance with the law of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of law provisions thereof. The parties irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of, and venue in, the state and federal courts in the State of Delaware, with respect to any matters pertaining to, or arising from, this Agreement, the Equity Agreements or Executive’s employment by the Company Group. By signing this Agreement, Executive acknowledges and agrees that he has been individually represented by legal counsel in negotiating the terms of this Agreement and the Equity Agreements (including without limitation as to all restrictive covenants contained herein, the remedies for breaches of such covenants, and the governing law and forum that will apply in the event of any disputes related to such restrictive covenants).

5.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains all of the terms agreed upon by the Company and Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements and communications between the parties dealing with such subject matter, whether oral or written, including, without limitation, the CEO Employment Term Sheet dated as of January 7, 2020.

5.9 Headings. Numbers and titles to Sections hereof are for information purposes only and, where inconsistent with the text, are to be disregarded.

5.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together, shall be and constitute one and the same instrument.

5.11 Taxes.
(a) The Company may withhold from any payment hereunder such state, federal or local income, employment or other taxes and other legally mandated withholdings as it reasonably deems appropriate. The Company makes no representation about the tax treatment or impact of any payment(s) hereunder.
(b) The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with or be exempt from Section 409A, to the extent subject thereto, and, accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and administered to be in compliance with or exempt from Section 409A. The payments to Executive pursuant to this Agreement are also intended to be exempt from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible, under either the separation pay exemption pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) or as short-term deferrals pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(4), and each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided to Executive pursuant to this Agreement, shall be construed as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any payments made or contemplated hereunder constitute nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A: (i) if at the time of Executive’s termination of employment with the Company, Executive is a “specified employee” as defined in Section 409A and the deferral of the commencement of any payments or benefits otherwise payable hereunder as a result of such termination of employment is necessary in order to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, then the Company will defer the commencement of the payment of any such payments or benefits hereunder (without any reduction in such payments or benefits ultimately paid or provided to Executive) until the date that is six (6) months and one (1) day following Executive’s termination of employment with the Company (or the earliest date as is permitted under Section 409A); (ii) if any other payments of money or other benefits due to Executive hereunder could cause the application of an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, such payments or other benefits shall be deferred if deferral will make such payment or other benefits compliant under Section 409A, or otherwise such payment or other benefits shall be restructured, to the extent possible, in a manner determined by the Company that does not cause such an accelerated or additional tax; and (iii) to the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A, Executive shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company for purposes of this Agreement and no payment shall be due to Executive under this Agreement until Executive would be considered to have incurred a “separation from service” from the Company within the meaning of Section 409A. To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, amounts reimbursable to Executive under this Agreement shall be paid to Executive on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in-kind benefits provided to Executive) during any one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year and may not be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Neither the Company nor any of its employees or representatives shall have any liability to Executive with respect to Section 409A.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Sections 3.5 or 3.6, in the event that the COBRA Subsidy would subject the Company Group or Executive to any material tax or penalty under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (as amended from time to time, the “ACA”) or Section 105(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 105(h)”), or applicable regulations or guidance issued under the ACA or Section 105(h), Executive and the Company agree to work together in good faith, consistent with the requirements for compliance with or exemption from Section 409A, to restructure such benefit.

5.12 Clawback. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Executive acknowledges that the Company Group may be entitled or required by law, the Equity Agreements or, in connection with or following an initial Public Offering, a customary clawback policy adopted by the Company Group (as amended from time to time, the “Clawback Policy”) or the requirements of an exchange on which the shares of an affiliate of the Company are listed for trading, to recoup compensation paid to Executive pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, and Executive agrees to comply with any such reasonable request or demand for recoupment by the Company.

5.13 Company Policies. Executive shall be subject to Company Group policies as they may exist from time-to-time, including policies with regard to equity ownership by senior executives, the Clawback Policy, policies regarding the hedging or pledging of securities, and policies regarding trading of securities to the extent that such policies have been made available to Executive.

5.14 Return of Property. Upon termination of Executive’s employment with the Company for any reason, Executive shall immediately destroy, delete, or return to the Company, at the Company’s option, all originals and copies in any form or medium (including memoranda, books, papers, plans, computer files, letters and other data) in Executive’s possession or control that contain Confidential Information or otherwise relate to the business of the Company Group, and cooperate with the Company regarding the delivery or destruction of any other Confidential Information of which Executive is or becomes aware, and shall otherwise return to the Company all material property of the Company Group.
5.15 No Conflict; Representations. Executive represents and warrants to the Company that (i) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Executive does not and shall not conflict with, breach, violate or cause a default under any contract, agreement, instrument, order, judgment or decree to which Executive is a party or by which he is bound, (ii) Executive is not a party to or bound by an employment agreement, non-compete agreement, non-solicit agreement, confidentiality or similar agreement or arrangement with any other Person which would interfere with the performance of his duties hereunder; and (iii) Executive has never been the subject of a sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sex-based discrimination allegation, including at any prior employer. In connection with his employment with the Company Group, Executive will not use, disclose or rely on any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information belonging to a former employer or other third party.

5.16 Indemnification; Liability Insurance. During the Term and thereafter, the Company and Parent agree that they each shall provide Executive with Directors & Officers liability insurance coverage to the same extent that they indemnify and/or provide such insurance coverage to their respective directors and other most senior executive officers. In addition, Executive and the Company shall enter into an indemnification agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C.

5.17 Survival. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all covenants, representations and warranties, express or implied, in addition to the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of this Agreement, shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION OF the severance pay and benefits to be provided to me under the Employment Agreement between me and McAfee Employee Holdings, LLC (the “Company”), Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“Parent”) (the “Employment Agreement”), which are conditioned on my signing this Release of Claims and to which I am not otherwise entitled, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, I, on my own behalf and on behalf of my heirs, executors, administrators, beneficiaries, representatives and assigns, and all others connected with or claiming through me, hereby release and forever discharge the Company, Parent and their current and past parents, subsidiaries and other affiliates and all of their respective past, present and future officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, employees, agents, employee benefit plans, general and limited partners, members, managers, investors, joint venturers, representatives, successors and assigns, and all others connected with any of them, both individually and in their official capacities (collectively, the “Released Parties”), from any and all causes of action, rights and claims of any type or description, known or unknown, which I have had in the past, now have, or might now have, through the date of my signing of this Release of Claims, in any way related to, connected with or arising out of my employment or its termination or the Employment Agreement or pursuant to any federal, state or local law, regulation or other requirement (including without limitation Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and/or the fair employment practices statute of the state or states in which I was previously employed by the Company or otherwise had a relationship with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, each as amended from time to time) (collectively, the “Released Claims”). This Release of Claims shall not apply to (a) any claim that arises after I sign this Release of Claims, (b) any rights to indemnification that I may have, (c) any claim that may not be waived pursuant to applicable law, (d) my rights to severance pay and benefits under the Employment Agreement as set forth on Schedule I, (e) any rights I may have in respect of any vested equity that remains outstanding in accordance with its terms after my termination of employment under the Equity Agreements or (f) my rights to any vested benefits to which I am entitled under the terms of any of the Company’s employee benefit plans.

In signing this Release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which Section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

1 Schedule to reflect severance owed at termination.
Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, I expressly acknowledge that this Release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all Released Claims which I do not know or suspect to exist in my favor at the time of execution hereof, and that this Release contemplates the extinguishment of such Release Claim or Released Claims.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Release of Claims shall be construed to prohibit me from filing a charge with or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a comparable state or local agency, except that I hereby agree to waive my right to recover monetary damages or other individual relief in any such charge, investigation or proceeding, or any related complaint or lawsuit filed by me or by anyone else on my behalf.

In signing this Release of Claims, I acknowledge my understanding that I may consider the terms of this Release of Claims for up to [twenty-one (21)/forty-five (45)] days from the date I receive it and that I may not sign this Release of Claims until after the date my employment with the Company terminates. I also acknowledge that I am hereby advised by the Company to seek the advice of an attorney prior to signing this Release of Claims; that I have had sufficient time to consider this Release of Claims and to consult with an attorney, if I wished to do so, or to consult with any other person of my choosing before signing; and that I am signing this Release of Claims voluntarily and with a full understanding of its terms.

I further acknowledge that, in signing this Release of Claims, I have not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in the Release of Claims. I understand that I may revoke this Release of Claims at any time within seven (7) days of the date of my signing by written notice to the Chairman of the Company’s Board of Directors and that this Release of Claims will take effect only upon the expiration of such seven-day revocation period and only if I have not timely revoked it.

Intending to be legally bound, I have signed this Release of Claims as of the date written below.

2. To be determined by the Company at the time of separation.
Exhibit B

You are hereby notified that the Employment Agreement to which this Exhibit B is attached does not apply to any invention which qualifies fully for exclusion under the provisions of Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, and that the provisions of Section 4.4 of the Employment Agreement are subject to the provisions of Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872 of the California Labor Code.

(a) Any provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any of his or her rights in an invention to his or her employer shall not apply to an invention that the employee developed entirely on his or her own time without using the employer’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information except for those inventions that either:

1. Relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the employer’s business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the employer; or

2. Result from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

(b) To the extent a provision in an employment agreement purports to require an employee to assign an invention otherwise excluded from being required to be assigned under subdivision (a), the provision is against the public policy of this state and is unenforceable.

No employer shall require a provision made void and unenforceable by Section 2870 as a condition of employment or continued employment. Nothing in this article shall be construed to forbid or restrict the right of an employer to provide in contracts of employment for disclosure, provided that any such disclosures be received in confidence, of all of the employee’s inventions made solely or jointly with others during the term of his or her employment, a review process by the employer to determine such issues as may arise, and for full title to certain patents and inventions to be in the United States, as required by contracts between the employer and the United States or any of its agencies.

If an employment agreement entered into after January 1, 1980 contains a provision requiring the employee to assign or offer to assign any of his or her rights in any invention to his or her employer, the employer must also, at the time the agreement is made, provide a written notification to the employee that the agreement does not apply to an invention which qualifies fully under the provisions of Section 2870. In any suit or action arising thereunder, the burden of proof shall be on the employee claiming the benefits of its provisions.

[Amendment to Employment Agreement]
This Employment Agreement (this “Agreement”), is made and entered into as of August 7, 2020, by and among McAfee, LLC (the “Company”), Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“Parent”) and Venkat Bhamidipati (“Executive”). This Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date (as defined below).

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ Executive on the terms and conditions contained herein; and

WHEREAS, Executive desires to be employed by and render services to the Company upon and subject to the terms, conditions and other provisions set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, the adequacy of all of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. EMPLOYMENT

1.1 Agreement and Term. The Company hereby agrees to employ Executive, and Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to render such services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Unless terminated earlier as set forth in Section 3 herein, Executive’s employment and the term under this Agreement shall commence on September 2, 2020 (the “Effective Date”) and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 3 below (the “Term”).

Executive’s principal work location shall be at the Company’s offices in Santa Clara, California or such other location as Executive and the Company shall mutually agree, (hereinafter the “Principal Place of Business”), provided that Executive shall not be required to relocate his principal residence to the area of the Principal Place of Business within the first twelve (12) months following the Effective Date but upon his relocation, the Company will provide him with direct moving expenses for personal effects up to $50,000 in the aggregate, and until such time as he may relocate his principal residence, the Company will reimburse him for his reasonable commuting and other reasonable related costs from and back to his current principal residence, provided further that Executive may be required to travel as reasonably necessary in order to perform his duties and responsibilities hereunder. Executive shall carry out his duties and responsibilities at all times in compliance with the written policies and procedures of the Company and its affiliates (Parent, the Company and their respective affiliates from time to time, collectively, and each individually a member of, the “Company”).
that have been made available to Executive, as in effect from time to time. Executive shall also perform such other duties as reasonably requested by the Board of Managers of Parent (the “Board”), including service as an officer or director of any other member of the Company Group without additional compensation. During the Term of this Agreement, Executive shall use his best business efforts to serve the Company Group faithfully, diligently and competently and to the best of his ability, and to devote his full time business hours, energy, ability, attention and skill to the business of the Company Group; provided, however, that the foregoing is not intended to preclude Executive from noncompetitive activities that are conducted outside normal business hours and are permitted under Section 1.3 hereof.

1.3 Outside Activities. During the Term of this Agreement, (i) with the prior written consent of the Board, Executive may serve on the board of directors of a for-profit entity and as a director or advisor of other not-for-profit educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, and (ii) Executive may perform charitable and other activities, and manage his personal investments; provided, however, that in the case of either (i) or (ii) such activities do not materially interfere with the performance of his duties hereunder and otherwise to the Company Group and are not in conflict or competitive with, or adverse to, the interests of the Company Group. Executive shall not, however, under any circumstances, provide services or advice in any capacity whatsoever for or on behalf of any entity that competes with or is competitive with the Company Group.

2. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS; EXPENSES

The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review and possible increase (but not decrease) by the Board or its Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) based on individual and Company performance. The term “Base Salary” shall refer to Executive’s annual base salary as may be in effect from time to time.

2.2 Bonus. With respect to each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Term and subject to the achievement of any applicable performance goals, based on corporate, business unit and/or individual performance, to be established by the Board or the Committee, Executive shall be entitled to participate in the Company’s annual incentive plan, as such, and on such terms and conditions as, may be established by the Board or the Committee from time to time, under which Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) with a target amount equal to 100% of the Base Salary (the “Target Bonus”), subject to Executive being employed with the Company on the date that the Annual Bonus is paid (except as otherwise provided in Section 3). For the avoidance of doubt, Executive’s Annual Bonus for the Company’s 2020 fiscal year will be pro-rated based on the number of days he is employed by the Company. The Company shall pay earned Annual Bonuses to Executive no later than 21⁄2 months following the end of each fiscal year. The terms and conditions of Executive’s participation in any employee benefit plan or program shall be subject to the terms and conditions of such plan or program, as may be modified by the Company from time to time. As a condition to receiving the Class A Units, RSUs and Management Incentive Units, Executive shall be required to become party to the LLC Agreement (together with the Plan and the applicable grant agreements, the “Equity Agreements”, the form of which Equity Agreements are appended hereto as Exhibit A).

(b) In connection with any initial public offering of the shares of stock of any member of the Company Group, including any present or future affiliate thereof (together with any related reorganization transaction(s), an “IPO” and, such member of the Company Group or affiliate, “Pubco”), the Company Group or such affiliate may cause the RSUs, the Class A Units and/or the Management Incentive Units to, at the election of the Board or the Committee, be exchanged for shares of Pubco stock and/or, in the case of RSUs and Management Incentive Units, at the election of the Board or the Committee, be exchanged for shares of Pubco stock and/or, in the case of RSUs and Management Incentive Units, awards based on or convertible into Pubco stock, in any case, having the same value and subject to the same vesting and other terms and conditions, in each case, as of immediately following the exchange, as such RSUs, Class A Units and/or Management Incentive Unit for which they were exchanged were subject as of immediately prior to such exchange. Subject to the other restrictions set forth herein or in the Equity Agreements, following an IPO, all sales by Executive will be pursuant to a pre-approved trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b-5-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or when Executive is not otherwise in possession of material nonpublic information. In furtherance of the foregoing, Executive agrees to take such actions and execute such documents as are requested by the Board or the Committee to effectuate such exchange and/or transfer restrictions.

With the exception of termination of Executive’s employment due to Executive’s death, any purported termination of Executive’s employment by the Company for any reason, including without limitation for Cause or Disability, or by Executive for any reason, shall be communicated by a written “Notice of Termination” to the other party. “Notice of Termination” means a dated notice that (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon and (ii) specifies a Termination Date, which may be the date of the notice except as described below. “Termination Date” means (A) in the case of termination of employment due to death, the date of Executive’s death, or (B) if Executive’s employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which a Notice of Termination is given or as specified in such notice, which, in the case of a resignation by Executive other than for Good Reason, shall be no less than thirty (30) days following the date on which the Notice of Termination is given. For purposes of clarification, the Term shall end on the Termination Date.

3.2 Termination Due to Death or Disability. If Executive’s employment and the Term is terminated by reason of Executive’s death or Disability, Executive or his estate shall be entitled to receive: (a) Executive’s earned but unpaid Base Salary through the Termination Date; (b) an amount for reimbursement, paid within thirty (30) days following submission by Executive (or if applicable, Executive’s estate) to the Company of appropriate supporting documentation for any unreimbursed business expenses properly incurred prior to the Termination Date by Executive pursuant to Section 2.8 and in accordance with Company Group policies; (c) any earned and unused vacation, paid when required by applicable law and no later than thirty (30) days following the Termination Date; and (d) such employee benefits, if any, to which Executive (or, if applicable, Executive’s estate) or his dependents may be entitled under the employee benefit plans or programs of the Company Group, paid in accordance with the terms of the applicable plans or programs (the amounts described in clauses (a) through (d) hereof being referred to as the “Accrued Rights”). For purposes hereof, “Disability” means Executive is unable to perform the essential functions of his position with substantially the same level of quality as immediately prior to such incapacity (notwithstanding the provision of any reasonable accommodation) by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which has lasted or can reasonably be expected to last for a period of one hundred twenty (120) or more consecutive days or one hundred and twenty (120) days during any consecutive six (6) month period, as determined by a physician to be selected by mutual agreement between Executive and the Company.

3.4 Termination by the Company for Cause. In the event the Company terminates his employment and the Term for Cause (or Executive’s employment terminates under circumstances where Cause exists), Executive shall be entitled to receive the Accrued Rights.

3.5 Termination by the Company without Cause or by Executive for Good Reason. If Executive’s employment and the Term is terminated by the Company without Cause, or by Executive for Good Reason, Executive shall be entitled, in addition to the Accrued Rights and subject to Executive’s continued compliance with this Agreement and the Equity Agreements, and Executive’s execution, delivery and non-revocation of an effective release of all claims against the Company Group in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Release”) within the sixty (60) day period following the date of the termination of Executive’s employment (the “Release Period”) to receive:

(a) equal or substantially equal payments over the twelve (12)-month period following the date of termination, in an aggregate amount equal to one (1) times the sum of (i) Executive’s then-current Base Salary plus (ii) the Target Bonus, with such amounts to be paid in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes, beginning on the first regular payroll date following the date on which the Release becomes fully effective (and with the first payment to include all payments that would otherwise have been made prior to such date) (the “Severance Payments”); and

(b) provided that Executive timely elects COBRA (as defined below) coverage, monthly COBRA enrollment premiums (the “COBRA Coverage”, and together with the Severance Payments, the “Severance Benefits”) to participate in the Company’s medical, dental and vision plans, in an amount equal to the employer-paid portion for active employees who elect the same type of coverage (e.g., individual only, individual plus family, etc.) through the earlier of the end of the twelve (12)-month period immediately following the Termination Date and the time at which Executive becomes eligible for group health coverage from another employer, with such premiums payable directly to the Company’s COBRA provider on a monthly basis. Executive must notify the Company within seven (7) days of learning that he will become eligible to for group health coverage from another employer.
(c) In addition to the Severance Benefits, solely if Executive’s employment and the Term is terminated by the Company without Cause, any earned but unpaid Annual Bonus related to the (i) the fiscal year of Executive’s termination solely if Executive was employed through the end of the third quarter of such fiscal year, or (ii) the completed fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which Executive’s termination of employment occurs (the “Bonus Severance”), in each case, with payment of the Bonus Severance to be based on actual performance for the applicable fiscal year. The Bonus Severance will be payable in accordance with regular payroll practices, less applicable withholdings and taxes on the later of (x) the first regular payroll date following the date on which the Release becomes fully effective and (y) the date annual bonuses with respect to such fiscal year are payable to other executives of the Company, but in no event later than two and one-half months following the end of the year of termination.

To the extent any payments made or contemplated hereunder constitute nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 409A”) and if the Release Period spans two (2) calendar years, then such payments that would otherwise have been made prior to the end of the Release Period will be made, after the release becomes irrevocable, in the form of a lump sum on the first payroll date that occurs in the second calendar year.

(i) “Cause” means, as determined by the Board in its reasonable good faith judgment, Executive’s: (A) conviction of an act of material fraud or dishonesty; (B) intentional refusal or willful failure to carry out the lawful and reasonable instructions of the Board; (C) commission of a felony or a misdemeanor crime involving moral turpitude (where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (D) gross misconduct or gross negligence in connection with the performance of his duties; (E) material breach of any provision of this Agreement or any other employment or restrictive covenant agreement with the Company or material violation of any material written policy or written code of conduct of the Company Group that has been made available to Executive; (F) breach of fiduciary duty to the Company Group; (G) willful failure to cooperate with the Company Group in any investigation or formal proceeding or being found liable in a Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) enforcement action or otherwise being disqualified from Executive’s job; or (H) breach of duty of loyalty to the Company Group.

(ii) “Good Reason” shall mean, without Executive’s consent: (A) a material breach by the Company Group of this Agreement; (B) a material diminution of Executive’s duties, responsibilities or status; (C) a reduction by the Company Group in Executive’s Base Salary or Target Bonus; or (D) the relocation of the Principal Place of Business by more than fifty (50) miles. In all cases, an event or condition shall not constitute “Good Reason” unless (x) within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the event or condition Executive believes constitutes Good Reason Executive provides the Company with a written notice (a “Good Reason Notice”) that specifically explains the basis for Executive’s belief that facts constituting Good Reason exist, (y) in the case of any of the above events which is capable of being cured within thirty (30) days of the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, the Company fails to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable event or condition within thirty (30) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, and (z) Executive actually terminates his employment (and, if applicable, other service relationship) within sixty (60) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice.
3.6 No Other Benefits Upon Termination. Except as provided in the applicable sub-section of this Section 3 and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified pension plans of the Company, and continuation of health insurance benefits on the terms and to the extent required by Section 4980B of the Code and Section 601 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (which provisions are commonly known as “COBRA”), the Company shall have no additional obligations upon the termination of Executive’s employment with the Company.

3.7 No Mitigation. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive shall have no duty to seek employment following termination of employment or otherwise to mitigate damages. The amounts or benefits payable or available to Executive under this Agreement shall not be reduced by any amount Executive may earn or receive from employment with another employer or from any other source.

3.8 Cooperation with Company after Termination of Employment. Following termination of Executive’s employment for any reason, Executive shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group in all matters relating to the winding up of his pending work on behalf of the Company Group including, but not limited to, any litigation in which the Company Group is involved and the orderly transfer of any such pending work to other employees of the Company Group as may be designated by the Company. Executive’s obligations hereunder shall be subject to his reasonable availability, and, without limiting any of the restrictions in Section 4 below, the parties shall cooperate to avoid having Executive’s commitment under this Section 3.8 materially interfere with other personal and business commitments or obligations of Executive. The Company Group shall reimburse Executive for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses he incurs in performing any work on behalf of the Company Group following the Termination Date.

4. NON-SOLICITATION & NON-COMPETITION

4.1 Non-Compete; Non-Solicit of Customers. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and for the twelve (12)-month period following the Termination Date, (i) become an employee, director, or independent contractor, stockholder or other owner (other than as (a) a holder of less than 1% of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) or (b) a holder of a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Executive does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund) of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Person that engages in security solutions related to computers, mobile devices and networks or any other business the Company Group is engaged in, or is actively planning to engage in, as of the Termination Date (each, a “Competing Business”), or (ii) solicit or engage or attempt to solicit or engage, as applicable, any current or prospective customer that has been actively pursued by the Company within the twelve (12) month period preceding the Termination Date (provided that Executive has or should have knowledge of such pursuit or such prospective customer is or could reasonably be expected to bring material benefit to the Company or its affiliates) or supplier of the Company Group or to terminate or alter in a manner adverse to the Company Group such current or prospective customer’s or supplier’s relationship with the Company Group. For purposes of this Agreement, “Person” shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

4.2 Non-Solicit of Employees/Contractors. Executive agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, during the Term and for the twelve (12)-month period following the Termination Date hire, solicit or attempt to solicit, as applicable, any Company Group employee, any natural person serving as an independent contractor (or any entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company Group) (an “Independent Contractor”) or individual who was a Company Group employee or Independent Contractor within the six (6) month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his, her or its employment or other service relationship with the Company Group.

4.3 Confidential Information. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all information regarding the Company Group or the activity of the Company Group that is not generally known to persons not employed or retained (as employees or as independent contractors or agents) by the Company Group, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company Group (the “Confidential Information”) is established at great expense and protected as confidential information and provides the Company Group with a substantial competitive advantage in conducting its business. Executive further acknowledges and agrees that by virtue of his employment with the Company, he has had access to and will have access to, and has been entrusted with and will be entrusted with Confidential Information, and that the Company Group could suffer great loss and injury if Executive would disclose this information or use it in a manner not specifically authorized by the Company. Therefore, Executive agrees that during the Term and at all times thereafter, he will not, directly or indirectly, either individually or as an employee, agent, partner, shareholder, owner trustee, beneficiary, co-venturer distributor, consultant or in any other capacity, use or disclose or cause to be used or disclosed any Confidential Information, unless and to the extent that any such information becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Executive’s acts or omissions. Executive shall deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment and the Term, or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports, computer tapes, printouts and software and other documents and data (and copies thereof) relating to the Confidential Information, or the business of the Company which he may then possess or have under his control. In addition, Executive agrees that, notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Executive is compelled to disclose Confidential Information by lawful service of process, subpoena, court order, or otherwise compelled to do by law, Executive shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Company with a copy of the document(s) seeking disclosures of such information promptly upon receipt of such document(s) and prior to Executive’s disclosure of any such information, so that the Company may take such action as it deems to be necessary or appropriate in relation to such subpoena or request and Executive may not disclose any such information until the Company has had the opportunity to take such action. Nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Executive’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity, or requires Executive to provide notice the Company with notice of the same. Executive cannot be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (1) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (2) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Executive may be held liable if Executive unlawfully accesses trade secrets by unauthorized means.

(a) If Executive creates, invents, designs, develops, contributes to or improves any works of authorship, inventions, intellectual property, materials, documents or other work product (including, without limitation, research, reports, software, databases, systems, applications, presentations, textual works, content or audiovisual materials) ("Works"), either alone or with third parties, at any time during Executive’s employment with the Company Group and within the scope of such employment and/or with the use of any the Company Group resources ("Company Works"), Executive shall promptly and fully disclose the same to the Company and hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers and conveys, and agrees to assign, transfer and convey, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, all rights and intellectual property rights therein (including rights under patent, industrial property, copyright, trademark, trade secret, unfair competition and related laws) to the Company (or any member of the Company Group so designated by the Company) to the extent ownership of any such rights does not vest originally in the Company Group. All copyrightable works that Executive creates during employment with the Company Group will be considered “work made for hire” and will, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company (or an affiliate designated by the Company).

(b) Executive shall take all requested actions and execute all requested documents (including any licenses or assignments required by a government contract) at the Company Group’s expense (but without further remuneration) to assist the Company Group in validating, maintaining, protecting, enforcing, perfecting, recording, patenting or registering any of the Company Group’s rights in the Company Works. If the Company is unable for any other reason to secure Executive’s signature on any document for this purpose, then Executive hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as Executive’s agent and attorney in fact, to act for and in Executive’s behalf and stead to execute any documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts in connection with the foregoing.

(c) Executive shall not improperly use for the benefit of, bring to any premises of, divulge, disclose, communicate, reveal, transfer or provide access to, or share with, the Company Group, any confidential, proprietary or non-public information or intellectual property relating to a former employer or other third party without the prior written permission of such third party. Executive shall comply with all relevant written policies and guidelines of the Company
Group that have been made available to Executive, including, without limitation, policies and guidelines regarding the protection of confidential information and intellectual property and potential conflicts of interest. Executive acknowledges that the Company Group may amend any such policies and guidelines from time to time, and that Executive remains at all times bound by their most current version.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.4 is subject to the provisions of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872. In accordance with Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, Executive’s obligation to assign Executive’s right, title and interest throughout the world in and to all Company Works does not apply to any Works that Executive developed entirely on his own time without using the Company’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or Confidential Information except for those Company Works that either (A) relate to the business of the Company Group at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Work, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Company Group or (B) result from any work performed by Executive for the Company Group. A copy of California Labor Code Sections 2870, 2871 and 2872 is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C. Executive shall disclose all Works to the Company, even if Executive does not believe that Executive is required under this Agreement, or pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2870, to assign his interest in such Works to the Company.

4.5 Reasonable Limitation and Severability; Injunctive Relief. The parties agree that the above restrictions are (i) reasonable given Executive’s role with the Company, and are necessary to protect the interests of the Company Group and (ii) completely severable and independent agreements supported by good and valuable consideration and, as such, shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever. The parties further agree that any invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of such restrictions on competition shall not render invalid or unenforceable any remaining restrictions on competition. Additionally, should a court of competent jurisdiction determine that the scope of any provision of this Section 4 is too broad to be enforced as written, the parties hereby authorize the court to reform the provision to such narrower scope as it determines to be reasonable and enforceable and the parties intend that the affected provision be enforced as so amended. Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company’s remedies at law for a breach or threatened breach could be inadequate and the Company could suffer significant harm and irreparable damages as a result of a breach or threatened breach. In recognition of this fact, Executive agrees that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, in addition to any remedies at law or under the Equity Agreements or any other agreement between Executive and any member of the Company Group, the Company, without posting any bond, shall be entitled to cease making any payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by this Agreement and obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction or any other equitable remedy which may then be available. The remedies under this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company’s right to seek any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law or in equity.
5. GENERAL PROVISIONS

5.1 Assignment; Successors. This Agreement is binding on and is for the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives. Neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation hereunder may be assigned by Executive. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may at any time assign all or any of its obligations under this Agreement to any of its affiliates, including Pubco with or without notice or consent. The Company shall require any such assignee or any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to assume this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would have been required to perform it if no such succession had taken place. As used in the Agreement, “the Company” shall mean both the Company as defined above and any such successor that assumes this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, and the terms “Board” and “Committee” shall refer to the Board of Managers and Compensation Committee of Parent, to the board of directors or managers and/or compensation or similar committee of any successor or assign, including Pubco.

5.3 Amendment and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived unless such amendment or waiver is in writing, with such written document explicitly referencing this Agreement, and signed by each of the parties hereto.

5.4 Non-Waiver of Breach. No failure by either party to declare a default due to any breach of any obligation under this Agreement by the other, nor failure by either party to act quickly with regard thereto, shall be considered to be a waiver of any such obligation, or of any future breach.
5.5 Severability. In the event that any provision or portion of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be unaffected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

5.6 Governing Law. To the extent not preempted by federal law, the validity and effect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be construed and determined in accordance with the law of Delaware (or, if Executive is Washington-based as of a relevant time, in Washington), without regard to any conflict of law provisions thereof. The parties irrevocably consent to arbitrate all disputes related in any manner to this Agreement, Executive’s employment (including the terms and conditions thereof) and all matters in accordance with terms of the Arbitration Agreement attached as Exhibit D; provided that any such arbitration shall in all events take place in the State of Delaware (or, if Executive is Washington-based as of a relevant time, in Washington); and provided further that in any conflict between this Agreement and the Arbitration Agreement, this Agreement shall control. By signing this Agreement, Executive acknowledges and agrees that he has been individually represented by legal counsel in negotiating the terms of this Agreement and the Equity Agreements (including without limitation as to all restrictive covenants contained herein, the remedies for breaches of such covenants, and the governing law and forum that will apply in the event of any disputes related to such restrictive covenants).

5.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains all of the terms agreed upon by the Company and Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements and communications between the parties dealing with such subject matter, whether oral or written, including, without limitation, any prior offer letter.

5.8 Headings. Numbers and titles to Sections hereof are for information purposes only and, where inconsistent with the text, are to be disregarded.

5.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together, shall be and constitute one and the same instrument.

5.10 Taxes.

(a) The Company may withhold from any payment hereunder such state, federal or local income, employment or other taxes and other legally mandated withholdings as it reasonably deems appropriate. The Company makes no representation about the tax treatment or impact of any payment(s) hereunder.

(b) The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with or be exempt from Section 409A, to the extent subject thereto, and, accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and administered to be in compliance with or exempt from Section 409A. The payments to Executive pursuant to this Agreement are also intended to be exempt from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible, under either the separation pay exemption pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) or as short-term deferrals pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(4), and each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided to Executive pursuant to this Agreement, shall be construed as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any payments made or contemplated hereunder constitute nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A: (i) if at the time of Executive’s termination of employment with the Company, Executive is a “specified employee” as defined in Section 409A and the deferral of the commencement of any payments or benefits otherwise payable hereunder as a result of such termination of employment is necessary in order to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, then the Company will defer the commencement of the payment of any such payments or benefits hereunder (without any reduction in such payments or benefits ultimately paid or provided to Executive) until the date that is six (6) months and one (1) day following Executive’s termination of employment with the Company (or the earliest date as is permitted under Section 409A); (ii) if any other payments of money or other benefits due to Executive hereunder could cause the application of an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, such payments or other benefits shall be deferred if deferral will make such payment or other benefits compliant under Section 409A, or otherwise such payment or other benefits shall be restructured, to the extent possible, in a manner determined by the Company that does not cause such an accelerated or additional tax; and (iii) to the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A, Executive shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company for purposes of this Agreement and no payment shall be due to Executive under this Agreement until Executive would be considered to have incurred a “separation from service” from the Company within the meaning of Section 409A. To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, amounts reimbursable to Executive under this Agreement shall be paid to Executive on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in-kind benefits provided to Executive) during any one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year and may not be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Neither the Company nor any of its employees or representatives shall have any liability to Executive with respect to Section 409A.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 3.5, in the event that the COBRA Subsidy would subject the Company Group or Executive to any tax or penalty under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (as amended from time to time, the “ACA”) or Section 105(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 105(h)”), or applicable regulations or guidance issued under the ACA or Section 105(h), Executive and the Company agree to work together in good faith, consistent with the requirements for compliance with or exemption from Section 409A, to restructure such benefit.

5.11 Clawback. [Amendment to Employment Agreement]
Dear Michael:

Hello and congratulations! I am thrilled to invite you to join a talented team at McAfee, currently Intel Security, and to offer you a full time exempt position as described below. Intel Security anticipates transitioning to a stand-alone company, McAfee, LLC, in accordance with the transaction agreement entered into between Intel and TPG, currently anticipated to close in April 2017 (the “Closing”).

Section I of this offer letter addresses certain terms and conditions of employment with Intel prior to the Closing (the “Transition Period”). When the Transition Period ends, you will no longer receive compensation and benefits from Intel.

As of and following the Closing, you will become employed by McAfee, LLC or an affiliate (“McAfee”) according to certain terms and conditions of employment in Section II of this offer letter. While we expect the Closing to occur, in the unlikely event that it does not, except to the extent described under the heading “Severance”, you will not be eligible for the compensation and benefits described in Section II.

I. TRANSITION PERIOD (Intel Employment)

This first section describes the terms and conditions of your employment with Intel during the Transition Period.

During the Transition Period, you will be employed in a full-time, exempt position EVP, Intel Security Chief Financial Officer and will be reporting to me in Intel’s Intel Security Group organization. Your work location will be the Santa Clara, CA Office. Your agreed upon start date will be February 6, 2017.

Base Salary. Your annual base salary will be $475,000.

Annual Bonus. With respect to each of Intel’s fiscal years during the Transition Period and subject to the achievement of any applicable performance goals to be established by Intel, you shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) with a target amount equal to 100% of your base salary (the “Target Bonus”), subject to your continued employment with Intel through the date of payment of the annual bonus and the terms of the applicable annual bonus plan (except as described below). In the event that the Closing occurs, any unpaid amounts that are payable by Intel pursuant to this paragraph shall not be payable and you shall instead by paid an annual bonus on the same basis as other senior executives employees of McAfee, but pro-rated to reflect your hire date with Intel.

Hiring Bonus. You will receive a bonus in the first pay cycle following your hire in the amount of $1,000,000.

Quarterly Profit Bonus. You will be eligible for quarterly bonuses under the Intel Quarterly Profit Bonus (QPB) plan, subject to the terms of the QPB Plan.
Comprehensive Benefits. You will be eligible for Intel’s medical, dental, vision, short-term and long term disability and life insurance programs. In addition, you will be eligible to participate in Intel’s 401(k) Plan. You will also be eligible for pro-rated time off under Intel’s exempt vacation policy, about 3 weeks per year, and standard company holidays. Of course, each of these benefits is subject to the terms and conditions of the benefit program and plans, including waiting periods for some. Learn more right now about these and other outstanding benefits at http://www.intel.com/jobs/offer.

Because the Transition Period is anticipated to end in April 2017, during the Transition Period you will not be eligible to participate in certain other Intel benefit programs such as Intel’s stock programs (other than Intel’s employee stock purchase plan), and you will not be eligible for a discretionary Intel retirement contribution to your Intel 401(k).

Mandatory Requirements

We have to verify your eligibility to work at Intel before your start date. For example, your offer of employment is conditioned upon your satisfactory completion of a background investigation, as well as your meeting all requirements of the position offered to you. Similarly, because Intel works in technology areas that are subject to export controls by the United States government, we must obtain authorization from the Bureau of Industry and Security and the U.S. Department of Commerce before employing citizens from certain controlled countries. So, if you are a resident of a country that is subject to export controls, your offer of employment is conditioned upon Intel’s timely acquisition of an export license on your behalf. Moreover if you are a foreign national requiring sponsorship to obtain the indefinite right to work in the U.S., you must meet Intel’s sponsorship guideline by filling a position for which Intel experiences a shortage of qualified and available U.S. workers and meeting the requirements for obtaining a work visa and permanent residence. We reserve the right to withdraw your offer of employment if we are unable to secure such a license in a timely manner or if you fail to meet the conditions described in this paragraph.

Additional requirements, if any, for the anticipated transition to McAfee will be communicated in the coming months.

An Equal Opportunity Employer Intel Corporation

While Intel is an equal opportunity employer that hires thousands of people from all over the globe, the Immigration and Nationality Act requires all new Intel employees to provide documentation of their legal right to work in the United States as a condition of employment. To help you breeze through this requirement, we have provided a “List of Acceptable Employment Verification Documents” at www.intel.com/jobs/offer. All you must do is bring these documents with you to New Employee Orientation on your first day in order to complete the hiring process. It’s that easy.

“At Will” Employment

You should be aware that your employment at Intel during the Transition Period (and following the Closing, with McAfee) is “at will,” which means that both Intel (and, following the Closing, McAfee) and you have the right to end your employment at any time, with or without advance notice, and with or without cause. In addition, your employment with Intel during the Transition Period is contingent on you signing an Employment Agreement, which outlines your obligations as an employee, including among others your obligation to protect Intel’s intellectual property (as well as confidential information of your prior employers) and to follow our Employment Guidelines and Code of Conduct. You can review a copy of the Employment Agreement at www.intel.com/jobs/offer and selecting “Employment Forms.”
II. AS OF CLOSING (McAfee employment)

You will no longer receive compensation and benefits from Intel when the Transition Period ends. Effective as of the Closing, you will be employed by McAfee in the full-time, exempt position EVP & Chief Financial Officer reporting to me, your work location will be Santa Clara, CA Office and you will receive the compensation and benefits described in this Section II.

Base Salary. Your annual base salary will continue to be $475,000, subject to any increases that occur before the Closing.

Total Incentive Target. You will be eligible for the following incentive bonus programs with a total annual target of 100% of your base salary, or an annual target of $475,000 based on the base salary listed above.

- Annual Incentive Program. All of your total annual bonus target is anticipated to be paid out annually for the prior year based on McAfee’s financial performance, as well as (in certain cases) achievement of specified operational and/or individual goals, subject to your continued employment with McAfee through the date of payment of the annual bonus and the terms of the applicable annual bonus plan, unless otherwise described below. The attached Profile contains an estimate of your annual performance bonus payout for 2017.

- Long-term incentive pool. The parent holding company (“Parent”) of McAfee, LLC plans to establish a long-term incentive pool effective as of the Closing to allow key employees, such as you, to share in future increases in value of the company. As a reflection of your future achievements and contributions, your long-term incentive awards will consist of profits interests. Profits interests are a form of partnership interest in McAfee. Through your equity grant, you will share in the appreciation in the value (if any) of McAfee from the date of grant, which is expected to be the Closing. One-half of your grant will be subject to time-based vesting and the remainder will be subject to performance-based vesting. The grant will be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement, a long-term incentive plan and the award agreement. For an illustration of your long-term incentive award, please see Addendum A. During the period beginning with the Closing and ending on June 30, 2019, you also shall be eligible for a change in control bonus as described on Addendum A.

Looking ahead: Your compensation, including your base pay, cash incentive target and long-term incentive grant, will be reviewed through McAfee’s annual performance review process. McAfee anticipates providing a comprehensive benefits package for eligible employees that will include a 401(k) Plan, medical, dental, vision, short-term and long term disability and life insurance programs.

Your employment with McAfee after the Closing is contingent on (i) your completion of additional documents relating to employment with McAfee, including documents related to McAfee’s code of conduct, confidentiality and trade secret protection, certain post-employment restrictions, right to work in the U.S. and export license controls, (ii) the Closing and (iii) your continued service with Intel through the Closing; provided, however, that in the event of a conflict between such post-employment restrictions and the terms of the restrictive covenants set forth in Addendum C, the terms of Addendum C will control.

Please note that your acceptance of this offer of employment is an acceptance of employment with Intel up until the Closing and, subject to the Closing, with McAfee as of and following the Closing. If the Closing does not occur, the terms and conditions described in Section II with respect to employment with McAfee will not apply, and Intel will be under no obligation or liability with respect to the potential future compensation and benefits described above in Section II.

Severance. If the Closing does not occur prior to the one-year anniversary of the commencement of your employment, if you are terminated without “Cause” or you resign for “Good Reason”, in each case prior to the Closing, you will be eligible to receive a severance amount equal to (i) one (1) year of your base salary in effect prior to your termination plus 100% of your Target Bonus, plus (ii) a payment equal to the employer contribution rate in effect for similarly situated active employees for you and your eligible dependents to continue healthcare coverage under COBRA for one (1) year, plus (iii) solely if such termination is by Intel without “Cause” and occurs prior to the date of payment of any annual bonus relating to a prior fiscal year for which you were employed on the last day, or during the fourth quarter of any fiscal year, you will be eligible to receive an annual bonus in respect of such fiscal year, based on actual performance for the applicable performance year and in accordance with the terms of the applicable annual bonus plan, prorated based on the number of days during which you were employed by Intel during the fiscal year (the “Severance Amount”). In exchange for the foregoing severance benefits, you will sign a release in the form consistent with the form attached as Addendum B hereto and the release must become fully effective within 60 days of the termination of your employment. The Severance Amount will be paid as salary continuation in accordance with Intel’s regular payroll schedule, with the first installment being due on the first regular payroll date that follows the date on which the release is fully effective and including all amounts having accrued prior to such date.

In the event you are terminated without “Cause” or you resign for “Good Reason”, in each case after Closing, you will be eligible to receive the Severance Amount set forth in the preceding paragraph (except that references to Intel and the applicable annual bonus plan shall be construed as references to McAfee and its annual bonus plan, as applicable), in exchange for your compliance with the restrictive covenants that apply to you and are attached hereto as Addendum C, and your signing of a release in the form consistent with the form attached as Addendum B hereto and the release becoming fully effective within 60 days of the termination of your employment. Such Severance Amount will be paid as salary continuation in accordance with McAfee’s regular payroll schedule, with the first installment being due on the first regular payroll date that follows the date on which the release is fully effective and including all amounts having accrued prior to such date.

“Cause” means your (i) conviction of an act of material fraud or dishonesty against McAfee or any of its affiliates; (ii) intentional refusal or willful failure to carry out the lawful and reasonable instructions of McAfee’s board of managers; (iii) commission of a felony or a misdemeanor crime involving moral turpitude, (where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (iv) gross misconduct or gross negligence in connection with the performance of your duties; (v) material breach of any provision of this agreement or any other employment or restrictive covenant agreement with McAfee or material violation of any material written policy or written code of conduct of McAfee or any of its affiliates that has been made available to you; (vi) breach of fiduciary duty to McAfee or any of its affiliates; (vii) failure to cooperate with McAfee or its affiliates in any investigation or formal proceeding or being found liable in a Securities and Exchange Commission enforcement action or otherwise being disqualified from serving in your job; or (viii) breach of duty of loyalty to McAfee or any of its affiliates. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, during the pre-Closing period references to “McAfee” will be deemed to refer solely to “Intel” and references to “McAfee or any of its affiliates” (or similar formulations) will be deemed to refer solely to “Intel or any of its affiliates”.

You shall not, however, under any circumstances, provide services or advice in any capacity whatsoever for or on behalf of any entity that competes with or is competitive with McAfee and its affiliates.

Participant agrees that all Confidential Information which Participant creates or to which Participant has access as a result of Participant’s Employment and other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates is and will remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. Participant agrees that, except as required for the proper performance of Participant’s regular duties for the Company, as expressly authorized in writing in advance by a duly authorized officer of the Company, or as required by applicable law, Participant will never, directly or indirectly, use or disclose any Confidential Information. Participant understands and agrees that this restriction will continue to apply after the termination of Participant’s Employment for any reason. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Participant’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity. Participant will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (a) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (b) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Participant may be held liable if Participant unlawfully access trade secrets by unauthorized means.

   2.2. Participant agrees that all documents, records and files, in any media of whatever kind and description, relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Affiliates, and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the “Documents”), whether or not prepared by Participant, will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company. Participant agrees to safeguard all Documents and to surrender to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all Documents then in Participant’s possession or control. Participant also agrees to disclose to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all passwords necessary or desirable to obtain access to, or that would assist in obtaining access to, any information which Participant has password-protected on any computer equipment, network or system of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

3. Assignment of Intellectual Property Rights. Participant agrees to promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. Participant hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) Participant’s full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. Participant agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. Participant will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that Participant creates during Employment with the Company will be considered “work made for hire” and will, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company.

4. Restricted Activities.

While Participant is employed by the Company and, solely to the extent such act or activity involves the use of the Company’s or its Affiliates’ trade secrets and other Confidential Information (as defined in Participant’s employment agreement) during the twelve (12) month period immediately following the date of termination of Participant’s Employment (the “Restricted Period”), Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, engage in the Business in any geographic area in which the Company or any of its Affiliates engage in the Business or are actively planning to engage in the Business during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination (the “Restricted Area”), or undertake any planning to do any of the foregoing anywhere in the Restricted Area. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, Participant agrees not to work or provide services, in any capacity, anywhere in the Restricted Area, whether as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise, whether with or without compensation, to any Person that is engaged in the Business; provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, that for purposes of this Agreement, Participant may engage in (i) owning, directly or indirectly, solely as an investment, up to five percent (5%) of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) that is competitive or substantially similar to the Business; (ii) owning a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Participant does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund; (iii) any activity consented to in advance in writing by the Company, or (iv) rendering services in any capacity to a separate business unit of an entity that is engaged in the Business, as long as such business unit is not engaged in the Business and Participant does not render any services to, and has no participation in, the Business.

4.1. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit or encourage any customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them; or (b) seek to persuade any customer, such vendor, supplier or other business partner or any prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates, to conduct with anyone else any business or activity which such customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner conducts, or such prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner could conduct, with the Company or any of its Affiliates; provided, however, that these restrictions will apply (y) only with respect to those Persons who are or have been a business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates at any time within the six (6)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.1 or whose business has been solicited on behalf of the Company or any of the Affiliates by any of their officers, employees or agents within such six (6)-month period, other than by form letter, blanket mailing or published advertisement, and (z) only if Participant has performed work for such Person during Participant’s Employment or has been introduced to, or otherwise had contact with, such Person as a result of Participant’s Employment or other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates or has had access to Confidential Information which would assist in Participant’s solicitation of such Person.

4.2. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, and to not assist any other Person to, directly or indirectly, (a) hire or engage, or solicit for hiring or engagement, any employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates or seek to persuade any such employee to discontinue employment or (b) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) an “employee” or an “independent contractor” of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any Person who was such at any time within the twelve (12)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.2 and (ii) an “independent contractor” means only a natural person independent contractor or an entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Agreement, (i) the placement of general advertisements that may be targeted to a particular geographic or technical area but that are not specifically targeted toward employees of independent contractors of the Company; (ii) the hiring or solicitation of any Person whose services with the Company were terminated by the Company; or (iii) the hiring or solicitation of any Person who is a present or former employee, consultant, or exclusive independent contractor of the Company, if such Person has initiated contact with Participant, shall not be deemed to be a breach of this Section 4.2.

5. Nondisparagement. Subject to the third to last sentence of Section 2.1 of this Agreement, Participant agrees that he or she will not disparage or criticize the Company, its Affiliates, their business, their management or their products or services, and that Participant will not otherwise do or say anything that could disrupt the good morale of employees of the Company or any of its Affiliates or could harm the interests or reputation of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

6. Enforcement of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Participant gives the Company assurance that Participant has carefully read and considered all of the restraints hereunder, has not relied on any agreements or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement, and has signed this Agreement knowingly and voluntarily. Participant agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its Affiliates, and are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Participant further agrees that, were Participant to breach any of the covenants contained herein, the damage to the Company and its Affiliates would be irreparable. Participant therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, will be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by Participant of any such covenants, without having to post bond. So that the Company may enjoy the full benefit of the covenants contained in Section 4 above, Participant agrees that the Restricted Period will be tolled, and will not run, during the period of any breach by Participant of such covenants. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, that provision will be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law. Participant agrees that each of the Company’s Affiliates will have the right to enforce Participant’s obligations to that Affiliate under this Agreement. No claimed breach of this Agreement or other violation of law attributed to the Company or any of its Affiliates, or change in the nature or scope of Participant’s Employment or other relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, will operate to excuse Participant from the performance of Participant’s obligations under this Agreement.

7. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

“Affiliates” has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

“Business” means (i) the business of providing security solutions related to computers, mobile devices, and networks, internet security products and services and/or (ii) any other business that the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged in or is actively planning to be engaged in, during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company which is not generally known by the public, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company, unless and to the extent that any such information (i) becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Participant’s acts or omissions, or (ii) was properly known to Participant, without restriction, prior to disclosure by the Company.

“Intellectual Property” means inventions, discoveries, developments, improvements, methods, processes, procedures, plans, projects, systems, techniques, strategies, information, compositions, works, concepts and ideas, or modifications or derivatives of any of the foregoing (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) (collectively, “Inventions”) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by Participant (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during Participant’s Employment that relate either to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates or to any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates or that result from any work performed by Participant for the Company or any of its Affiliates or that make use of Confidential Information or any of the equipment or facilities of the Company or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Intellectual Property does not include any Invention that qualifies fully under the provisions of California Labor Code Section 2870, the current terms of which are set forth here:

CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE SECTION 2870

(a) Any provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any of his or her rights in an invention to his or her employer shall not apply to an invention that the employee developed entirely on his or her own time without using the employer’s equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information except for those inventions that either:

(1) Relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the employer’s business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the employer; or

(2) Result from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

C-4
To the extent a provision in an employment agreement purports to require an employee to assign an invention otherwise excluded from being required to be assigned under subdivision (a), the provision is against the public policy of this state and is unenforceable.

8. Compliance with Other Agreements and Obligations. Participant represents and warrants that Participant’s Employment with the Company and the execution and performance of this Agreement will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which Participant is a party or is bound, and that Participant is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or other obligations to third parties or to any court order, judgment or decree that would affect the performance of Participant’s obligations hereunder or Participant’s duties and responsibilities to the Company. Participant will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company or an Affiliate, or induce the Company or any of its Affiliates to possess or use, any confidential or proprietary information of any previous employer or other third party without that party’s consent.

9. Entire Agreement; Severability; Modification. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between Participant and the Company, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not supersede any effective assignment of any invention or other intellectual property to the Company or any of its Affiliates and shall not constitute a waiver by the Company or any of its Affiliates of any right that any of them now has or may now have under any agreement imposing obligations on Participant with respect to confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation of employees, independent contractors or like obligations. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. This Agreement may not be modified or amended, and no breach will be deemed to be waived, unless agreed to in writing by Participant and an expressly authorized officer of the Company. Provisions of this Agreement will survive any termination if so provided in this Agreement or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purpose of other surviving provisions.

10. Assignment. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without Participant’s consent to any of its Affiliates or to any Person with whom the Company will hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidation or merger, or to whom the Company will hereafter transfer all or substantially all of its properties or assets. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Participant and the Company, and each of their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

11. At-Will Employment. Participant acknowledges that this Agreement is not meant to constitute a contract of employment for a specific duration or term, and that Participant’s employment with the Company is at-will. The Company and Participant will each retain the right to terminate Participant’s employment at any time, with or without notice or cause.

12. Choice of Law. This is a California contract and will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of California, without regard to any conflict of laws principles that could result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Participant agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of and in the state of California in connection with any dispute arising out of this Agreement.
Intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties have signed this Agreement as of the day and year written above.

Dear John:

I am excited to have you join the McAfee family following the closing (the "Closing") of the transaction between Intel and TPG in which Intel Security will once again become a stand-alone company named McAfee (the "Transaction"). We share a common vision of where we want to take McAfee. You are considered a key leader and driver of our vision, and your contribution is critical to the success of McAfee.

I am pleased to offer you the compensation package described below. The attached compensation profile provides an estimate of your annual compensation package (the "Profile").

Base Salary. Your annual base salary will continue at its current level, subject to any increases that occur before the Closing.

Total Incentive Target. Effective as of the Closing, you will be eligible for the following incentive bonus programs with a total annual target of 124% of your base salary, or an annual target of $583,766 based on your current base salary.

- Annual Incentive Program. All of your total annual bonus target is anticipated to be paid out annually for the prior year based on McAfee’s financial performance, as well as (in certain cases) achievement of specified operational and/or individual goals, subject to the terms of the Corporate Bonus Plan. The attached Profile contains an estimate of your annual performance bonus payout for 2017.

Long-Term Incentives. Additionally, the parent holding company ("Parent") of McAfee is establishing a long-term incentive pool to allow key employees, such as you, to share in future increases in value of the company. In recognition of your past contributions and as a reflection of your future achievements and contributions, your long-term incentive awards will consist of three elements:

- Cash Award. At the Closing, you will receive a cash award, the value of which will be equal to the value at the Closing of the unvested Intel RSUs that you held that are scheduled to vest during the first year following the Closing (with a value based on the closing price of Intel’s stock on the last trading day prior to the Closing, and with such amount payable without interest). This cash award will vest on the same basis as the Intel restricted stock units ("Intel RSUs") to which they relate (or pursuant to a vesting schedule with earlier vesting dates). The cash award will be subject to the terms and conditions of a long-term incentive plan and the award agreement.

- Restricted Share Units. At the Closing, you will receive a grant of Restricted Share Units ("RSUs"), which will have the same value (at grant) as unvested Intel RSUs that you held immediately prior to the Closing, that are scheduled to vest after the first year following the Closing. The initial value of the RSUs will be determined based on Intel’s closing price on the last trading day prior to the Closing. The RSUs will vest on the same basis as the Intel RSUs that they replace (or pursuant to a vesting schedule with earlier vesting dates), and will be payable in the form of common units of Parent. Accordingly, the value at distribution will take into account increases in value of the equity after the date of grant.

The RSU grant will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Parent limited liability company agreement (the “LLC Agreement”), a long-term incentive plan and the award agreement.

You may elect to receive an additional cash award in lieu of the RSU grant. If you elect to receive the additional cash award instead of RSUs, the aggregate amount payable under the additional cash award will be fixed at the date of the Closing and will be equal to the number of your unvested Intel RSUs that are scheduled to vest after the first year multiplied by the Intel closing price on the last trading day prior to the Closing. You will not receive interest or share in any increase in or appreciation in the value of McAfee through this cash award. This additional cash award will vest on the same basis as the Intel RSUs to which they relate (or pursuant to a vesting schedule with earlier vesting dates). The cash award will be subject to the terms and conditions of a long-term incentive plan and the award agreement.

- Profits Interest. You will receive an equity grant consisting of profits interests, which is a form of partnership interest, in McAfee. Through your equity grant, you will share in the appreciation in the value of McAfee from the date of grant, which is expected to be the Closing. One-half of your grant will be subject to time-based vesting and the remainder will be subject to performance-based vesting. The grant will be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement, a long-term incentive plan and the award agreement.

Looking ahead: Your compensation, including your base pay, cash incentive target and long-term incentive grants will be reviewed through McAfee’s annual performance review process. McAfee anticipates providing a comprehensive benefits package for eligible employees that will include a 401(k) Plan to be established by McAfee and medical, dental, vision, short-term and long term disability and life insurance programs. After the Closing, you will need to complete additional documents relating to employment with McAfee, including documents related to McAfee’s code of conduct, confidentiality and trade secret protection, certain post-employment restrictions, right to work in the US and export license controls. You acknowledge that this offer is expressly conditioned on your completion of such documents.

Taxation. Payments described in this letter will be subject to applicable taxes, deductions and withholdings.

Effective Date. This offer letter is contingent, and will become effective, upon the successful closing of the Transaction, subject to your continued service with Intel through the closing of the Transaction. If the Transaction does not close or your service with Intel terminates prior to the Closing, this offer will be null and void.

Assignment and Assumption. McAfee may assign its rights and obligations under this offer letter at any time to an affiliate or a successor, in which case, references in this offer letter to “McAfee” shall mean such affiliate or successor. In that event, the affiliate or successor will assume the rights and obligations of McAfee under this offer letter. You may not assign any of your rights or obligations hereunder.
Entire Agreement. Effective as of the Closing, this offer letter will supersede and replace all prior agreements and communications related to your Intel compensation following the Closing. This letter and your response are not intended to constitute, and shall not be construed to constitute, a contract of employment for a definite term. Employment with McAfee is on an at-will basis.

Our goal is to provide you with a rewarding career at McAfee with outstanding compensation.

John, thank you once again for all you do. We truly believe that McAfee’s best days are ahead of us. We have the assets, the technology, and the talent to win. We hope that you will be a critical part of this winning strategy and are delighted to be welcoming you to McAfee.

Sincerely,

Christopher Young
President
McAfee, Inc.

Lynne Doherty

Dear Lynne:

Hello and congratulations! On behalf of McAfee, LLC, I am thrilled to invite you to join a talented team of 7,000 passionate people around the globe and to offer you the full-time position of EVP, Global Sales and Marketing reporting to Peter Leav.

Some particulars. Your work location will be Washington, DC. Your new position is exempt, and you will be paid on a salaried basis. As part of a competitive compensation package, your annual base pay will be $850,000.

Additionally, you will be eligible to participate in an annual incentive plan with a total annual target of 105.9% of your base salary, or $900,000.

Long-term incentive plan

The parent holding company ("Parent") of McAfee has established a long-term incentive plan that allows key employees, such as you, to share in the value of the company. As a reflection of your future achievements and contributions, your long-term incentive awards are expected to consist of profits interests (Management Incentive Units or "MIUs"), a form of partnership interest in Parent, and restricted equity units ("RSUs"). Approximately 75% of your targeted award value would be comprised of MIUs and approximately 25% of your targeted award value would be comprised of RSUs. Through MIUs, you would share in the appreciation in the value, if any of McAfee from the date of grant. Through RSUs, you would share in the value of the company irrespective of any change in value from the date of grant, as RSUs are generally settled upon vesting in Parent’s common equity units. Your grant will be subject to time-based vesting conditions. The grant will be subject to the terms and conditions of Parent’s LLC agreement, a long-term incentive plan, and the award agreements. For additional information regarding your long-term incentive award, please see Addendum A.

You must remain employed through each payment date in order to earn the associated hiring bonus payment. Hiring bonuses are expected to pay in the next 1-2 pay cycles after being earned.
Additionally, you understand and agree that if you resign for any reason or are terminated for cause (i) on or prior to June 30, 2021, you agree to repay 100% ($1,500,000) of the hiring bonus package to the Company, or (ii) on or between July 1, 2021 and September 30, 2021 you agree to repay $1,000,000 of the hiring bonus package to the company, or (iii) on or between October 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021 you agree to repay $500,000 of the hiring bonus package to the Company, and any repayment due will be made to the Company within 30 days following your termination date.

Severance

In the event you are terminated without “Cause” or you resign for “Good Reason”, you will be eligible to receive a severance amount equal to (i) one (1) year of your base salary in effect prior to your termination, plus (ii) a payment equal to the employer contribution rate in effect for similarly situated active employees for you and your eligible dependents to continue healthcare coverage under COBRA for one (1) year (the “Severance Amount”). In exchange for the foregoing severance benefits, you will sign a release in the form consistent with the form attached as Addendum B hereto and the release must become fully effective within sixty (60) days of the termination of your employment. The Severance Amount will be paid as salary continuation in accordance with McAfee’s regular payroll schedule, with the first installment being due on the first regular payroll date that follows the date on which the release is fully effective and including all amounts having accrued prior to such date.

“Cause” means your (i) conviction of an act of material fraud or dishonesty against McAfee or any of its affiliates; (ii) intentional refusal or willful failure to carry out the lawful and reasonable instructions of McAfee’s board of managers; (iii) commission of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude (where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (iv) gross misconduct or gross negligence in connection with the performance of your duties; (v) material breach of any provision of this agreement or any other employment or restrictive covenant agreement with McAfee or material violation of any material written policy or written code of conduct of McAfee or any of its affiliates that has been made available to you; (vi) breach of fiduciary duty to McAfee or any of its affiliates; (vii) failure to cooperate with McAfee or its affiliates in any investigation or formal proceeding or being found liable in a Securities and Exchange Commission enforcement action or otherwise being disqualified from serving in your job; or (vii) breach of duty of loyalty to McAfee or any of its affiliates.

“Good Reason” means in each case, without your consent: (i) a material breach of this agreement by McAfee or any of its affiliates, (ii) a material diminution of your duties, responsibilities or status, (iii) material reduction by McAfee or any of its affiliates in your base salary or your target annual bonus opportunity, (iv) the relocation of your principal place of business by more than fifty (50) miles; or (v) McAfee’s failure to assume the obligations set forth in this letter agreement described as obligations of McAfee. In all cases, an event or condition shall not constitute “Good Reason” unless (x) within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the event or condition you believe constitutes Good Reason you provide McAfee with a written notice (a “Good Reason Notice”) that specifically explains the basis for your belief that facts constituting Good Reason exist, (y) in the case of any of the above events which is capable of being cured within thirty (30) days of McAfee’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, McAfee fails to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable event or condition within thirty (30) days after McAfee’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, and (z) you actually terminate your employment within sixty (60) days after McAfee’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice.
If any portion of your severance qualifies as “deferred compensation” subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code (along with the regulations thereunder, “Section 409A”) and the release could become effective in either of two taxable years, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein the first installment of the severance will be paid on the first payroll date in the later taxable year. Each payment of severance and benefits will be treated as a “separate payment” for purposes of Section 409A and references to termination of employment will be construed to require a separation from service as defined in Section 409A (after giving effect to the presumptions set forth therein). In the event that your COBRA subsidy is determined to result in any additional tax or penalty to you, McAfee or any of its affiliates under Section 105(h) of the Internal Revenue Code or the non-discrimination provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, as amended, the parties agree to cooperate in good faith to restructure such benefit to avoid or minimize such issues.

Comprehensive Benefits

McAfee is a great place to work. One of the reasons this holds true is the collection of outstanding benefits we offer. You will be eligible for our 401(k), our health benefits, dental, vision, disability and life insurance. In addition, we offer flexible work arrangements (for some roles), holidays and unlimited PTO, education reimbursement, and volunteer opportunities. Of course, each of these benefits is subject to the terms and conditions of the benefit program and plans, including waiting periods for some.

Mandatory Requirements

We have to verify your eligibility to work at McAfee before your start date. For example, your offer of employment is conditioned upon your satisfactory completion of a background investigation, as well as your meeting all requirements of the position offered to you. Similarly, because McAfee works in technology areas that are subject to export controls by the United States government, we must obtain authorization from the Bureau of Industry and Security and the U.S. Department of Commerce before employing citizens from certain controlled countries. If you are subject to export controls, your offer of employment is contingent upon McAfee’s timely acquisition of an export license on your behalf. Moreover if you are a foreign national requiring sponsorship to obtain the indefinite right to work in the U.S., you must meet McAfee’s sponsorship guideline by filling a position for which McAfee experiences a shortage of qualified and available U.S. Workers and meeting the requirements for obtaining a work visa and permanent residence. We reserve the right to withdraw your offer of employment if we are unable to secure such a license in a timely manner or if you fail to meet the conditions described in this paragraph.

While McAfee is an equal opportunity employer that hires thousands of people from all over the globe, the Immigration and Nationality Act requires all new McAfee employees to provide documentation of their legal right to work in the United States as a condition of employment. To help you breeze through this requirement, we have provided a “List of Acceptable Employment Verification Documents” at www.uscis.gov/i-9-central/acceptable-documents. All you need to do is bring these documents with you on your first day in order to complete the hiring process. It’s that easy.
Your employment at McAfee is "at will," which means that both McAfee and you have the right to end your employment at any time, with or without advance notice, and with or without cause. In addition, your employment is contingent on you signing the enclosed Proprietary Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement and Arbitration Agreement. These documents outline your obligations as an employee and provide a framework for the resolution of any disputes that may arise out of your employment. Both must be signed and returned prior to your start date.

Finally, we intend this offer letter to capture completely all the terms of your employment offer. If you think we have missed something, please let us know ASAP. Additionally, if you don’t start on the start date we agreed upon with you, this offer could be rescinded.

To indicate your acceptance of McAfee, Inc.’s offer, please sign and return this letter to Chatelle Lynch within seven (7) days from offer date.

We are excited to have you join the McAfee team.

Sincerely,

Chatelle Lynch
SVP, Chief People Officer

I understand, accept and agree to the terms of this letter.

John Giamatteo

Dear John:

On behalf of McAfee, LLC, I am thrilled to offer you a new and exciting role at McAfee in the full time exempt position of President and Chief Revenue Officer, Corporate. You will continue to report to Chris Young, Chief Executive Officer, and your work location will remain Plano, Texas. Upon acceptance of your new role as evidenced by your signature on this promotional offer letter, you will receive the compensation and benefits described below.

Base Salary. Your new annual base salary will be $650,000 effective June 1, 2018.

Total Incentive Target. Your new annual target for the annual incentive bonus program will be $850,000, effective June 1, 2018. Your 2018 annual incentive bonus will be adjusted to reflect the portion of the performance period correlating with the respective annual target for your role at McAfee (5/12 based upon your existing annual target, and 7/12 based upon your new annual target). Consistent with your current annual incentive bonus opportunity, your total annual bonus target is anticipated to be paid out annually for the prior year based upon McAfee’s financial performance, as well as achievement of specified operational and/or individual goals and your continued employment with McAfee through the date of payment of the annual bonus, in each case subject to the terms of the corporate bonus plan.

Recognition Bonus. You will receive a one-time cash recognition bonus in the amount of $500,000, payable in the first pay cycle following the acceptance of your promotional offer letter. You must remain employed with a McAfee company through the date of payment in order to receive the recognition bonus. If (i) you terminate your employment with McAfee, or (ii) McAfee terminates your employment for Cause (as defined below) (or your employment terminates at a time when it is determined by McAfee that Cause exists), in either case, within twelve (12) months of the date on which the recognition bonus is paid, you will be required, not later than thirty (30) days after the date of such termination, to repay the gross amount of the recognition bonus to McAfee. If you do not timely pay such amount, subject to applicable law, McAfee will be permitted to recover such amount by reducing the amount that would otherwise be payable to you under any compensatory plan, program or arrangement maintained by McAfee.

Cash Retention Bonuses. You will receive cash retention bonuses in the total amount of $1,500,000, payable in three $500,000 increments on June 1st of each of 2019, 2020 and 2021. You must remain employed with a McAfee company through the date of payment in order to receive each such retention bonus. If (i) you terminate your employment with McAfee, or (ii) McAfee terminates your employment for Cause (or your employment terminates at a time when it is determined by McAfee that Cause exists), in either case, within twelve (12) months of the date on which any such retention bonus is paid, you will be required, not later than thirty (30) days after the date of such termination, to repay the gross amount of the most recent retention bonus to McAfee. If you do not timely pay such amount, subject to applicable law, McAfee will be permitted to recover such amount by reducing the amount that would otherwise be payable to you under any compensatory plan, program or arrangement maintained by McAfee.

Long-Term Incentive Awards. As a reflection of your future achievements and contributions, we will recommend to the Board of Managers of McAfee’s parent holding company (“Parent”) that you be awarded additional long-term incentive awards consisting of profits interests (Management Incentive Units or (“MIUs”), a form of partnership interest in Parent, and restricted equity units (“RSUs”), which are generally settled upon vesting in Class A common equity units of Parent.

MIU Award. The total value of your MIU award is estimated to be $6,500,000. In order to vest in your MIU award, you must be continuously employed by a McAfee company from the date of grant to the date of vesting, unless your employment is terminated without “cause” (as customarily defined in the MIU award agreement) within two years following a change in control of McAfee, in which case your time-based vesting awards would accelerate in full.

RSU Award. The total value of your RSU award is estimated to be $3,000,000, based upon the fair market value of Parent’s Class A common equity units at the time of grant. Your RSU award is not subject to performance-based vesting conditions. In order to vest in your RSU award, you must be continuously employed by a McAfee company from the date of grant to the date of vesting, unless your employment is terminated without Cause (as defined below), in which case McAfee will pay you a cash amount equal to the fair market value upon termination of service of any unvested RSUs subject to the RSU award (with such unvested RSUs forfeited upon termination of service). For the avoidance of doubt, the vesting terms applicable to the RSU award described in this promotional offer letter are unique to this one-time RSU award, and are not applicable to any other RSU award that you have or may receive.

Award Agreements. The description of your MIU and RSU awards contained in this letter is a high-level summary only and necessarily incomplete. The definitive terms of your MIU and RSU awards will be set forth in award agreements that will govern your awards, and in the event of any conflict between this description and that document, the award agreements (and the documents they reference) will control. Of course, we cannot guarantee that you will receive the full value of your awards, nor achievement by the company of our long-range plan exit equity value.

Equity Sale Opportunity. In addition, you will have the unique opportunity during each of the next three (3) years to elect to sell back to Parent up to $1,000,000 in Parent’s Class A common equity units (whether you acquired the Class A common equity units via subscription or settlement upon vesting of an RSU award). Should you wish to exercise this sale right, you must email McAfee’s General Counsel not later than thirty (30) days following June 1st of each of 2019, 2020 and 2021, and specify the value of Parent’s Class A common equity units that you wish to sell. You may sell an amount not to exceed $1,000,000 per year; provided, that, if you elect to sell an amount less than $1,000,000 in 2019 or 2020, the difference between the maximum eligible sales amount and the amount sold will carry forward to the following year, with the aggregate amount sold over such three-year period not to exceed $3,000,000. The fair market value of Parent’s Class A common equity units on the date you deliver the email notice will determine the number of units subject to the repurchase transaction. Upon receipt of any such notice, Parent will promptly deliver to you a customary unit repurchase agreement setting forth the terms and conditions of the repurchase event. The parties will consummate the unit repurchase as soon as reasonably practicable in accordance with applicable securities laws and, to the extent applicable, publicly-traded partnership tax safe harbors. In order to avail yourself of each right of sale, you must remain continuously employed with a McAfee company through the date you deliver any notice of unit sale.
Severance. In the event you are terminated without “Cause”, you will be eligible to receive a severance amount equal to (i) one (1) year of your base salary in effect prior to your termination, plus (ii) a payment equal to the employer contribution rate in effect for similarly situated active employees for you and your eligible dependents to continue healthcare coverage under COBRA for one (1) year, plus (iii) 100% of your target annual incentive bonus amount in effect prior to your termination, plus (iv) any remaining unpaid portion of the special $1,500,000 cash retention bonus described above, plus (v) a cash amount, equal to the fair market value upon termination of service of any unvested RSUs subject to the special $3,000,000 RSU award described above (with such unvested RSUs forfeited upon termination of service) (the “Severance Amount”). Your receipt of the foregoing severance benefits shall be subject to the execution and non-revocation by you of a general release of claims in a form acceptable to McAfee, and the release must become fully effective within sixty (60) days of the termination of your employment. The Severance Amount will be paid as salary continuation in accordance with McAfee’s regular payroll schedule, with the first installment being due on the first regular payroll date that follows the date on which the release is fully effective and including all amounts having accrued prior to such date.

“Cause” means McAfee, LLC’s reasonable belief that you have engaged in any one of the following: (i) financial dishonesty, including, without limitation, misappropriation of funds or property, or any attempt by you to secure any personal profit related to the business or business opportunities of McAfee, LLC without the informed, written approval of McAfee, LLC’s Board of Managers; (ii) refusal to comply with reasonable directives of your direct supervisor or McAfee, LLC’s Board of Managers after thirty (30) days notice and an opportunity to cure; (iii) reckless or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties in the event such conduct continues after thirty (30) days written notice and an opportunity to cure; (iv) misconduct which has a material adverse effect upon McAfee, LLC’s business or reputation; (v) the conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, any felony or a misdemeanor involving dishonesty or fraud; (vi) your material breach of any provision of this agreement after thirty (30) days notice of such breach and a reasonable opportunity to cure such breach; (vii) your breach of the Employee Inventions Proprietary Rights Assignment Agreement; or (viii) violation of McAfee, LLC’s policies including, without limitation, its policies on equal employment opportunity and prohibition of unlawful harassment after thirty (30) days notice of such breach and a reasonable opportunity to cure such breach.

If any portion of your severance qualifies as “deferred compensation” subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code (along with the regulations thereunder, “Section 409A”) and the release could become effective in either of two taxable years, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein the first installment of the severance will be paid on the first payroll date in the later taxable year. Each payment of severance and benefits will be treated as a “separate payment” for purposes of Section 409A and references to termination of employment will be construed to require a separation from service as defined in Section 409A (after giving effect to the presumptions set forth therein). In the event that your COBRA subsidy is determined to result in any additional tax or penalty to you, McAfee or any of its affiliates under Section 105(h) of the Internal Revenue Code or the non-discrimination provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, as amended, the parties agree to cooperate in good faith to restructure such benefit to avoid or minimize such issues.

“At Will” Employment. Your employment with McAfee remains “at will,” which means that McAfee and you have the right to end your employment at any time for any reason, with or without advance notice, and with or without cause.
McAfee has an amazing opportunity ahead and a bold vision to achieve. We cannot achieve this vision without supremely talented people like you!

Should you have any questions, please email me.

Sincerely,

Chatelle Lynch
Chief Human Resources Officer

Provided you remain employed with the Company through the Termination Date, the Company agrees to provide you with your current base salary through the Termination Date. To the extent that you are owed reimbursement for business expenses timely submitted, the Company will reimburse those expenses in accordance with Company policy. The payments in this Section 1(a) will be paid in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll schedule. You will also be entitled to participate in COBRA benefits as permitted by law, and will receive information about such benefits under separate cover.
   b. Severance Pay. Provided that you remain employed with the Company through the Termination Date, comply with your employment obligations through the Termination Date, execute, deliver, and do not revoke this Agreement, execute, deliver, and do not revoke Termination Release attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Termination Release”), and comply with the terms of this Agreement, then, in exchange for your promises in this Agreement and other good and valuable consideration, you are eligible for the following Severance Pay (defined below) and Bonus Severance (defined below) as follows:

(i) McAfee will pay you an amount equal to $3,972,136.50, less all applicable taxes and withholdings (the “Severance Pay”), in equal installments over the period of twelve (12) months after the Termination Date in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll policy with the final installment payment scheduled to occur not later than December 31, 2020; provided, however, that you will not be entitled to the last installment payment unless you execute, deliver, and do not revoke the Final Release attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Final Release”) and until the occurrence of the Final Release Effective Date (as defined in the Final Release). McAfee will promptly issue or otherwise make available to you a written statement for each installment payment detailing the gross payment amount, applicable taxes and withholdings, and net payment amount.

(ii) Notwithstanding the Termination Date preceding the date on which any annual incentive bonus for the 2019 performance becomes payable under the Company’s annual incentive plan, you will be deemed to be eligible to receive an annual incentive bonus for the 2019 performance period (the “Bonus Severance”). The amount of any Bonus Severance will be determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Managers in accordance with the terms of the Company’s annual incentive plan and authority pursuant to the Compensation Committee Charter. You acknowledge and agree that any and all unvested equity interests issued pursuant to the Equity Agreements that are outstanding as of January 10, 2020, and any and all other equity interests under any other agreements or plans, are cancelled and forfeited. For the avoidance of doubt, all vested equity interests issued pursuant the Equity Agreements that are outstanding as of January 10, 2020 shall remain outstanding until such interests are sold, cancelled or forfeited (e.g., violation of Restrictive Covenant Agreement).

Other than what has already been received or that may be due under this Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that you have received all compensation and benefits owed by the Company and that the Company does not owe you any additional compensation or benefits, including but not limited to accrued vacation time, sick time, or personal time. You acknowledge and agree that your eligibility for any other employee benefit programs maintained by the Company for current employees will cease as of the Termination Date. The Company reserves any and all of its rights with respect to any Company-affiliated awards or equity participation made available to you under the applicable award agreements, subscription agreements, and/or plan documentation.

You have up to twenty-one (21) days from the date you receive this Agreement to consider whether to sign it. To accept this Agreement, you must sign and return it to the attention of Chatelle Lynch, SVP & Chief People Officer, with the original mailed to her at: 5000 Headquarters Blvd., Plano, TX, 75024. The Agreement will not become effective until the eighth (8th) calendar day after you sign it (the “Effective Date”).

5. Release Exclusions. This Agreement does not affect any rights you may have to receive unemployment compensation benefits, workers’ compensation benefits, or any claim which, by operation of law, may not be waived or which arises after the date on which this Agreement becomes effective. Nothing contained in this Agreement limits your ability to file a charge or complaint with any government agencies or limits your ability to provide information to or communicate with any government agencies or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any government agencies in connection with any charge or complaint, whether filed by you, on your behalf, or by any other individual. However, to the maximum extent permitted by law, you agree that if such a charge or complaint is made, you shall not be entitled to recover any individual monetary relief or other individual remedies. This Agreement does not limit or prohibit your right to receive an award for information provided to any government agency to the extent that such limitation or prohibition is a violation of law.

6. Representations and Promises. The following representations and promised are being relied upon by the Company in entering into this Agreement, and they survive the execution of this Agreement. You represent, warrant and agree that:
   a. You are intentionally releasing claims against the Releasees that you may not know that you have and that, with hindsight, you might regret having released. You agree that such general release is fairly and knowingly made.
   b. The Company would not have been obligated to provide you the payments and benefits described in this Agreement without the promises you are making here.
   c. You have had sufficient time to consider and have resolved all doubts and concerns about the subjects in this Agreement before signing this Agreement, and you are entering into this Agreement freely and voluntarily.
   d. You were advised by this Agreement to consult with an attorney before signing it and you have had an adequate opportunity to do so.
   e. You have carefully read this Agreement, and fully understand what it means. You enter into it knowingly and voluntarily, and all of your representations here are true.
   f. You are not relying upon any statements, understanding, expectations, or agreements other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, and are relying solely on your own knowledge and the advice of your legal counsel, if any.
   g. You knowingly waive any claim that this Agreement has been induced by any misrepresentation, omission, or nondisclosure and any right to rescind or avoid this Agreement based upon presently existing facts, known or unknown.
   h. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission that the Company or any Releasee engaged in any improper or unlawful conduct.
Withholdings. All payments under or otherwise relating to this Agreement are subject to all appropriate taxes, deductions and withholdings as determined by the Company. This Agreement and any payments or benefits provided hereunder are intended to either qualify as short-term deferrals for purposes of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code or otherwise be exempt therefrom, and will be interpreted, construed, and performed by the parties consistent with such intent.

Clawback. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Company may claw back and recover any bonus or other incentive compensation provided to you pursuant to this Agreement or any agreement you have with the Company, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and other applicable law, and you hereby consent to the Company doing so to the maximum extent permitted by law, after written notice of the amount subject to claw back and the basis for such claw back. To the extent that you received or receive any amount in excess of the amount that you should otherwise have received under the terms of the applicable compensation plan, program, agreement or arrangement (including, without limitation, by reason of a financial restatement, mistake in calculations or other administrative error) you shall be required to repay any such excess amount to the Company.

Continuing Post-Employment Obligations. You understand that nothing in this Agreement relieves or excuses you from the existing or post-employment obligations that you owe to the Company or any of the Releasees in accordance with other written agreements between the parties (and applicable documents relating thereto) and in particular: the Restrictive Covenant Agreements, the Plans, and the Equity Agreements. You acknowledge and agree that any and all such obligations remain in full force and effect.

Confidentiality. You agree that you will not disclose this Agreement or its terms to any third party, whether individual or entity, except as may be required by law; provided, however, that you will not be prohibited from making disclosures on a confidential basis to your spouse, attorney(s), tax advisor(s), and financial planner(s).

Return of Company Property. You recognize that you are obligated to, and will return to the Company any and all Company property (files, documents, laptop, company-issued mobile device or phone, keys, credit cards, etc.) and any and all property in your possession by the Termination Date. You agree you will not erase, or instruct any third person to erase, data from any Company equipment (i.e., Company-owned laptops and mobile devices). In addition, before the Termination Date, you agree to search for and then delete all of the Company’s business information, whether or not confidential, from all of your personal devices, including phones, tablets, computers, and electronic storage devices and cloud storage, other than information that you may need for personal finances and tax filings, or agreements between you and the Company.

Non-Disparagement. You agree that you will not make, publish or communicate, to any entity or person or in any public forum, any defamatory remarks, comments or statements concerning the Company’s products or services, officers or employees. This obligation includes disparagement in any form or forum, including but not limited to any print or electronic media, social networking site, blog, tweet, website, statements to or in the press including any trade press. This Section does not in any way restrict or impede you from exercising protected rights, including rights under the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) or the federal securities laws, including the Dodd-Frank Act, to the extent that such rights cannot be waived by agreement or from furnishing truthful information in response to a legal subpoena or other legal process or complying with any applicable law or regulation or a valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized government agency, provided that such compliance does not exceed that required by the law, regulation, or order. You agree that you will promptly provide written notice of any such valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction to the Chief Legal Officer of McAfee.

Governing Law and Interpretation. This Agreement and the rights and duties of the Parties under it will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas. You agree that if any provision in this Agreement is void or held to be unenforceable, the rest of the Agreement will remain valid and enforceable, except that, if the release in Section 3 (or any

a. Subject to Section 15(b), you and the Company agree that all claims or disputes arising out of or relating to, or in connection with the construction, meaning, or effect of this Agreement, the Letter Agreement, your employment, your separation from the Company, the Restrictive Covenant Agreements, the Equity Agreements, the Plans, the Termination Release, or the Final Release, shall be submitted to binding resolution in arbitration with the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") before one neutral arbitrator admitted to practice law at least 15 years and who is a former judge. The arbitration shall be administered by the AAA Dallas office. The final arbitration hearing shall take place in the city where you were employed by the Company or any location mutually agreed to by the Parties and shall be administered under the AAA's then-existing Commercial Rules. The arbitration proceeding and all related documents will be confidential, unless disclosure is required by law. The arbitrator’s decision will be final and binding. ARBITRATION SHALL PROCEED SOLELY ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS WITHOUT THE RIGHT FOR ANY CLAIMS TO BE ARBITRATED ON A CLASS ACTION OR COLLECTIVE ACTION BASIS OR ON BASES INVOLVING CLAIMS BROUGHT IN A PURPORTED REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY ON BEHALF OF OTHERS. The arbitrator’s authority to resolve and make written awards is limited to claims between you and the Company alone. Claims may not be joined, coordinated, or consolidated unless agreed to in writing by all Parties. In the event that any court determines that the foregoing waiver of class or collective actions is unenforceable, any such class or collective proceeding may only proceed in court and not in arbitration. The Parties shall divide the AAA and arbitrator’s fees costs equally. YOU HEREBY WAIVE YOUR RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY AND AGREE THAT ALL CLAIMS BROUGHT BY YOU WILL BE SUBJECT TO THIS SECTION 15(a).

b. You understand that damages would not be a sufficient remedy in the event of an actual or threatened breach of Sections 9 through 12 of this Agreement or the Restrictive Covenant Agreements (collectively, the "Restrictive Covenants") and that the Company would be irreparably and immediately harmed if you breach or threaten to breach the Restrictive Covenants. Accordingly, you agree that, as the sole exception to the exclusive and binding arbitration obligation in Section 15(a), the Company, in addition to any other rights or remedies the Company may have, shall be entitled to injunctive relief to restrain any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants or to obtain specific enforcement of the Restrictive Covenants, without notice and without payment of bond to the maximum extent permitted by law, and you hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Dallas County, Texas. You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection you may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such proceedings brought in such a court, and any claim that any such proceeding brought in such a court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

15. Miscellaneous. This Agreement embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with regard to your separation from the Company and any claims you might have against the Company and supersedes any and all prior and/or contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between you and the Company regarding such matters; provided, however, that this Agreement does not supersede or waive your surviving obligations to the Company, including those arising under the Equity Agreements, the Plans, and the Restrictive Covenant Agreements. This Agreement shall be interpreted as if the parties jointly prepared it, without any uncertainty or ambiguity being interpreted against any one party. This Agreement may be amended or any provision of it waived only in a writing signed by the parties. The section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and should not be deemed to affect the interpretation or modify the provisions hereof. This Agreement and the rights, obligations and representations contained herein shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, heirs and assigns.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Confidential Separation and General Release Agreement on the latest date set forth below.

However, to the maximum extent permitted by law, you agree that if such a charge or complaint is made, you shall not be entitled to recover any individual monetary relief or other individual remedies. This Termination Release does not limit or prohibit your right to receive an award for information provided to any government agency to the extent that such limitation or prohibition is a violation of law.

c. Nothing in this Section 1 shall be deemed to release (i) the right to enforce the terms of the Agreement, or (ii) any claim that cannot be waived under applicable law, including any rights to workers’ compensation or unemployment insurance.

d. If no such revocation occurs, the Release shall become effective on the eighth (8th) day following his execution of this Agreement (the “Termination Release Effective Date”). You acknowledge and agree that, if you fail to execute this Termination Release, or revoke this Termination Release pursuant to this Section 1(e), you are not entitled to any Separation Pay as provided by Section 1(b) of the Agreement.

2. Other Representations, Warranties, and Acknowledgements. By executing this Termination Release, you acknowledge that you: (i) are not relying upon any statements, understandings, representations, expectations, or agreements other than those expressly set forth in this Termination Release; (ii) have made your own investigation of the facts and are relying solely upon your own knowledge and the advice of your own legal counsel; (iii) knowingly waive any claim that this Termination Release was induced by any misrepresentation or nondisclosure and any right to rescind or avoid this Termination Release based upon presently existing facts, known or unknown; (iv) are entering into this Termination Release freely and voluntarily; (v) have carefully read and understood all of the provisions of this Termination Release; and (vi) have had the opportunity to be represented by the counsel of your choice in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Termination Release. Christopher D. Young

Dear Mr. Young:

As we have discussed, your employment with McAfee, LLC (the “Company”) and its affiliates has terminated, effective as of February 3, 2020 (the “Separation Date”). The purpose of this letter (this “Agreement”) is to confirm the terms concerning your separation from employment, as follows:

1. Separation from Employment. You acknowledge and agree that as of the Separation Date, your employment with the Company and its affiliates terminated and you were deemed to resign from any and all (i) officer positions you held with the Company or any of its affiliates (as defined below); (ii) memberships you hold on any boards of directors, boards of managers or other governing boards or bodies of the Company or any of its affiliates; and (iii) memberships you hold on any of the committees of any such boards or bodies.

2. Final Salary. You acknowledge that you have received pay for all work you performed for the Company and its affiliates through the Separation Date and all other amounts required to be paid to you under applicable law.

3. Severance Benefits. In consideration of your acceptance of this Agreement and subject to your meeting in full your obligations hereunder, you will be entitled to receive:

   (a) One (1) times the sum of (x) your final base salary ($800,000), plus (y) your target annual bonus ($1,200,000), paid in accordance with the Company’s regular payroll practices in substantially equal payments over the twelve (12)-month period following the Separation Date (the “Severance Period”), beginning on the first payroll date after this Agreement becomes effective (and with the first payment to include all payment that would otherwise have been made prior to such date);

   (b) An amount equal to your 2019 annual bonus, calculated and determined by actual Company performance relative to Company performance objectives during the 2019 fiscal year and assuming individual performance goals are met at 100% of target, payable in a lump sum on the date that bonuses are paid to senior executives generally during the 2020 fiscal year;

   (c) An amount equal to your target 2020 annual bonus, pro-rated to reflect the number of days you worked during the 2020 fiscal year prior to the Separation Date (i.e., $101,639), payable in a lump sum on the date that bonuses are paid to senior executives generally during the 2021 fiscal year; and
(d) Provided that you timely elect COBRA (as defined below) coverage, a taxable subsidy (the “COBRA Subsidy”) to participate in the Company’s medical, dental and vision plans, in an amount, on an after-tax basis, that is equal to the employer-paid premium-equivalent portion for active employees who elect the same type of coverage (e.g., individual only, individual plus family, etc.) through the earlier of the end of the Severance Period and the time at which you become eligible for group health coverage from another employer, with such subsidies payable by the Company on a monthly basis in substantially equal installments not later than the end of the month to which they relate. You are obligated to notify the Company within seven (7) days of learning that you will become eligible for group health coverage from another employer.

4. Acknowledgement of Full Payment and Withholding.

(a) You acknowledge and agree that the payments provided under Section 2 of this Agreement are in complete satisfaction of any and all compensation due to you from the Company and its affiliates, whether for services provided to the Company or its affiliates or otherwise, through the Separation Date and that, except as expressly provided under this Agreement, no further compensation is owed or will be paid to you.

(b) All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax and other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law and all other lawful deductions authorized by you.

(a) Except for any right you may have to continue your participation and that of your eligible dependents in the Company’s medical plans under the federal law known as “COBRA”, your active participation in all employee benefit plans of the Company and its affiliates shall end in accordance with the terms of those plans. The vested balance of your account under the McAfee Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan will be paid to you in accordance with the terms of such plan. You will not continue to earn paid time off or other similar benefits after the Separation Date. You will receive information about your COBRA continuation rights under separate cover.

(b) Within four (4) weeks following the Separation Date, you must submit your final expense reimbursement statement reflecting all business expenses you incurred through the Separation Date, if any, for which you seek reimbursement, and, in accordance with Company policy, shall provide reasonable substantiation and documentation for the same. The Company will reimburse you for your authorized and documented expenses within thirty (30) days of receiving such statement pursuant to its regular business practice.
6. Equity.

(a) You acknowledge and agree that as of immediately prior to the Separation Date you held the number of vested and unvested Class A Units of Parent (as defined below) and Management Incentive Units of Parent ("MIUs"), in each case, that are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, that were granted to you under Parent’s 2017 Management Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and award agreements thereunder (the "Award Agreements") or that were purchased by you pursuant to those Class A Unit Subscription Agreements, dated June 1, 2017 and September 16, 2017, respectively, between you and Parent (the "Subscription Agreements," and collectively with the Plan, the Award Agreements, and Parent’s Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of April 3, 2017, in each case, as amended from time to time, the "Equity Documents"). Other than the Class A Units and MIUs set forth on Exhibit A, you acknowledge and agree that you do not directly or indirectly hold any equity or equity-based awards in Parent or any of its affiliates. Subject to your execution (and non-revocation) of this Agreement and subject to your meeting in full your obligations hereunder, the 113,750 unvested MIUs that are subject to time-based vesting and that are ordinarily scheduled to vest (without regard to your termination of employment) on or before December 31, 2020 and 227,500 unvested MIUs that are eligible to vest if the TPG Investor receives a TPG Return equal to [ ] times the Investment Amount (as such terms are defined in the applicable Award Agreement) will remain outstanding following the Separation Date and will vest in full on the date that is six (6) months following the Separation Date (or, if earlier, upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan)), and all accrued distribution amounts with respect to such unvested MIUs ($1,162,027, plus the distributable share attributable to such MIUs of any distribution made after the date hereof) shall be paid within thirty (30) days following such vesting date. The MIUs that become vested following the Separation Date in accordance with this Section 6(a) shall be referred to herein as the “Accelerated MIUs”. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, all MIUs that were unvested as of the Separation Date were forfeited in accordance with their terms for no consideration due or payable to you as of the Separation Date.

(b) All vested Class A Units and Management Incentive Units of Parent held by you (including the Accelerated MIUs) will remain subject to the terms of the applicable Equity Documents, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. In addition, you agree that the following provisions shall apply in the event of the consummation of the initial public offering of shares of stock of the Company or any present or future affiliate thereof (together with any related reorganization transaction(s), the “IPO” and such publicly-traded company, “Pubco”):

(i) Class A Units and MIUs held by you and your permitted transferees may be converted into shares of Pubco stock on terms determined by the Parent’s Board of Managers or the compensation committee thereof (the “Parent Board”), in its good faith discretion, based on the value of the Class A Units and MIUs they replace as of immediately prior to conversion (and to the extent any MIUs that shall remain outstanding and unvested at such time in accordance with Section 6(a) above, subject to the same vesting terms as applied to such MIUs immediately prior to the conversion);

(ii) any Pubco stock may be subjected to a post-IPO lock-up restriction if requested by the underwriters and may be subject to such other transfer restrictions, which shall not apply for longer than one (1) year, following the consummation of the IPO, as the Parent Board determines in good faith is appropriate to avoid material market disruption, taking into account the size your remaining equity holdings, the public company’s public float and average trading volumes, applicable securities law restrictions and disclosure requirements; and in the event you are eligible for benefits under any tax receivable agreement entered in connection with the IPO, the Parent Board may elect to pay you the net present value (as determined in good faith by the Parent Board) of any payments that would otherwise be payable to you under such tax receivable agreement.

(c) You agree to sell, and Parent agrees to purchase, your Accelerated MIUs and your vested Class A Units and MIUs set forth on Exhibit A. As illustrated on Exhibit B hereto, you and Parent agree that Class A Units and MIUs having an aggregate repurchase price of $10 million (less the value of any non-tax distributions made after the date hereof but prior to the repurchase date and after taking into account appropriate adjustments for any tax distributions relative to pro rata ownership made prior to the repurchase date) shall be repurchased by Parent on the sixtieth (60th) day following the Separation Date (the “First Repurchase Date”) and the Accelerated MIUs and the remainder of your Class A Units and other MIUs shall be repurchased on the sixtieth (60th) day after the first anniversary of the Separation Date (the “Second Repurchase Date”). The purchase price for such Accelerated MIUs, Class A Units and other MIUs will be equal to (i) $34.57 per Class A Unit and per MIU for the repurchase made on the First Repurchase Date and (ii) the aggregate fair market value of the Accelerated MIUs, Class A Units and other MIUs repurchased on the Second Repurchase Date, in any case under clause (i) or (ii), (x) taking into account any previous tax distributions relative to pro rata ownership received by you in respect of such Accelerated MIUs, Class A Units and other MIUs that, as of the applicable repurchase date, have not otherwise been appropriately taken into account when calculating prior non-tax distributions and (y) less any non-tax distributions in respect of your units between the date hereof (in the case of the first repurchase) or the date of the applicable valuation (in the case of the second repurchase) and the applicable repurchase date, as determined in good faith by the Parent Board on a basis consistent with other actions relating to its management equity program, provided that you retain your appraisal rights with respect to such valuation(s) pursuant to Section 2.5(e) of the Employment Agreement (as defined below). The purchase price for such Accelerated MIUs, Class A Units and other MIUs shall be paid in cash on the applicable repurchase date specified above, unless payment in cash would violate applicable law or the Parent Board determines in good faith that doing so would reduce available baskets under the Company’s credit agreement (in effect as of the First Repurchase Date, Second Repurchase Date, or any subsequent repurchase date, as applicable) below 50% of their aggregate annual limits (the “Credit Agreement Limitations”), in which case, to the extent a repurchase in cash on the otherwise applicable repurchase date would require a payment in excess of such threshold, the portion of the repurchase price in excess of such threshold shall instead be paid on or within sixty (60) days following on the first possible date(s) that such Credit Agreement Limitation no longer applies. In the event of an IPO prior to any such repurchase, this Section 6(c) shall cease to apply.

7. Continuing Obligations In exchange for the compensation and benefits provided to you under this Agreement to which you would not otherwise be entitled, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, you acknowledge and agree that the following restrictions on your activities... during and after your employment with the Company and/or any of its affiliates (collectively, the “Continuing Obligations”) are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company. You agree that the following restrictions on your activities after your employment are necessary to protect the good will, confidential information, trade secrets and other legitimate interests of the Parent and its subsidiaries (together with Parent, and each individually a member of, the “Company Group”):

(a) Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. You agree that for the twelve (12)-month period following the Separation Date (the “Restricted Period”) you shall not directly or indirectly, with or without consideration, (i) become an employee, director, or independent contractor, stockholder or other owner (other than as (a) a holder of less than 1% of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) or (b) a holder of a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which you do not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund) of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Person that engages in security solutions related to computers, mobile devices and networks or any other business the Company Group is engaged in, or has made an investment decision to engage in as of the Separation Date (a “Competing Business”); (ii) on behalf of a Competing Business, solicit or engage or attempt to solicit or engage, as applicable, any current customer or supplier of the Company Group, or prospective customer or supplier that the Company Group has expended material resources to engage or procure during the twelve (12)-month period prior to the Separation Date, or to terminate or alter in a manner adverse to the Company Group such current or prospective customer’s or supplier’s relationship with the Company Group; or (iii) hire, solicit or attempt to solicit, as applicable, any Company Group employee, any natural person serving as an independent contractor (or any entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company Group) (an “Independent Contractor”) or individual who was a Company Group employee or Independent Contractor within the six (6)-month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his, her or its employment or other service relationship with the Company Group. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent you from (a) providing services to a venture capital investment fund, as long as you do not serve as a member of the board of directors of, or otherwise directly or indirectly provide services to or for the benefit of, any portfolio company that is engaged, in whole or in part, in a Competing Business or (b) rendering services to a separate business unit of a Person that is engaged in a Competing Business, as long as such business unit is not engaged in and does not provide support to the Competing Business, such Competing Business could reasonably be expected to account for less than 10% of such Person’s annual revenues and you have no participation in the Competing Business. For purposes of this Agreement, “Person” shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof. For the sake of clarity, the Company acknowledges and agrees that the terms of that certain Senior Advisor Agreement between you and TPG Global, LLC, dated on or around February 3, 2020 (the “Advisor Agreement”), shall not extend the Restricted Period nor shall they expand, supplement or otherwise amend the scope of the restrictive covenants set forth in this in this Section 7. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the Advisor Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall be controlling.
(b) Confidential Information. You acknowledge and agree that all information regarding Company Group or the activity of the Company Group that is not generally known to persons not employed or retained (as employees or as independent contractors or agents) by the Company Group, including, without limitation, information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company Group (the "Confidential Information") is established at great expense and protected as confidential information and provides the Company Group with a substantial competitive advantage in conducting its business. You further acknowledge and agree that by virtue of your employment with the Company Group, you had access to, and were entrusted with Confidential Information, and that the Company Group could suffer great loss and injury if you would disclose this information or use it in a manner not specifically authorized by the Company. Therefore, you agree that following the Separation Date, you will not, directly or indirectly, either individually or as an employee agent, partner, shareholder, owner, trustee, beneficiary, co-venturer distributor, consultant or in any other capacity, use or disclose or cause to be used or disclosed any Confidential Information, unless and to the extent that any such information becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of your own acts or omissions. You shall deliver to the Company at the Separation Date, or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports, computer tapes, printouts and software and other documents and data (and copies thereof) relating to the Confidential Information, or the business of the Company Group which you may then possess or have under your control. In addition, you agree that, notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent you are compelled to disclose Confidential Information by lawful service of process, subpoena, court order, or otherwise compelled to do by law, you shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Company with a copy of the document(s) seeking disclosures of such information promptly upon receipt of such document(s) and prior to your disclosure of any such information, so that the Company may take such action as it deems to be necessary or appropriate in relation to such subpoena or request and you may not disclose any such information until the Company has had the opportunity to take such action. Nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects your communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity, or requires you to provide the Company with notice of the same. You understand that you cannot be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (1) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (2) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, you may be held liable if you unlawfully access trade secrets by unauthorized means.

(c) Reasonable Limitation and Severability; Injunctive Relief. You agree that the above restrictions are (i) reasonable given your role with the Company, and are necessary to protect the interests of the Company Group and (ii) completely severable and independent agreements supported by good and valuable consideration and, as such, shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever. The parties further agree that any invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of such restrictions on competition shall not render invalid or unenforceable any remaining restrictions on competition. Additionally, should a court of competent jurisdiction determine that the scope of any provision of this Section 7 is too broad to be enforced as written, the parties hereby authorize the court to reform the provision to such narrower scope as it determines to be reasonable and enforceable and the parties intend that the affected provision be enforced as so amended. You acknowledge and agree that the Company’s remedies at law for a breach or threatened breach could be inadequate and the Company could suffer significant harm and irreparable damages as a result of a breach or threatened breach. In recognition of this fact, you agree that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, in addition to any remedies at law, the Company, without posting any bond, shall be entitled to cease making any payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 2 and the second sentence of Section 5(a)), cause any vested or unvested MIUs (as well as related distribution holdback amounts) and/or other distributions which you may be entitled to be forfeited, not consummate any agreed equity repurchase, recover any such amounts that were previously paid to you or paid to you in respect of such vested equity (including related distribution holdback amounts) and/or obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction or any other equitable remedy which may then be available. The remedies under this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company’s right to seek any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law or in equity.

(d) Other Remedies. Notwithstanding the forgoing or any other agreement or arrangement with the Company Group, if the Parent Board determines in good faith in the course of any governmental or internal investigation, regulatory matter, legal proceeding or similar matter relating to the Company Group, based on information that was not known to the Parent Board or the Company’s General Counsel, each having been generally updated in good faith on internal investigations, as of the date hereof, that you committed any act of material misconduct (or unreasonably failed to act as to a material issue that you had or should have had knowledge of), in either case, in a manner that is, was or is reasonably expected to be materially and demonstrably harmful to the Company Group, or its business (collectively, “Investigation Developments”), the Company may immediately stop making any payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 2 and the second sentence of Section 5(a)) and cause any vested or unvested MIUs (as well as related distribution holdback amounts) and/or other distributions to which you may be entitled pursuant to MIUs to be forfeited, and will not be required to consummate any agreed equity repurchase and may recover (and if so determined, you must reimburse) any such amounts that were previously paid to you or paid to you in respect of such vested MIUs (including related distribution holdback amounts); provided that the aggregate amount of such forfeitures and recoveries shall be limited to the amount of any losses or other damages suffered or incurred by the Company Group as a result of your actions or inaction, as reasonably determined by the Company in good faith. Further, notwithstanding the foregoing or any other arrangement with the Company Group, if within eighteen (18) months following the Separation Date the Parent Board in good faith determines that the Company Group must prepare an accounting restatement due to the material noncompliance of the Company, as a result of your material misconduct, with applicable financial reporting requirements, you must reimburse the Company for any bonuses or incentive-based or equity-based compensation (including amounts received in respect thereof and profits from the sale of any equity-based compensation), including any bonus or incentive-based or equity-based compensation paid, provided or accelerated pursuant to Sections 3, 5 or 6 of this Agreement or otherwise, you received during the period beginning twelve (12) months prior to the Separation Date and ending fifteen (15) months after the Separation Date; provided that prior to the Parent Board requiring any reimbursement described in this sentence you, along with your legal counsel (should you so elect), will be given a reasonable opportunity to present relevant information to the Parent Board.

8. Return of Company Documents and Other Property. In signing this Agreement, you represent and warrant that you have used your best efforts to return to the Company or to destroy or delete any and all documents, materials and information (whether in hardcopy, on electronic media or otherwise) related to the business of the Company Group (whether present or otherwise), and all keys, access cards, credit cards, computer hardware and software, telephones and telephone-related equipment and all other property of the Company Group in your possession or control, provided that you are entitled to keep personal copies of (i) your compensation records, (ii) materials distributed to equityholders generally and (iii) any written agreement to which you are a party. Further, you represent and warrant that you have not otherwise retained any copy or derivation of any documents, materials or information (whether in hardcopy, on electronic media or otherwise) of the Company Group. Further, you acknowledge that to the best of your knowledge you have disclosed to the Company all passwords necessary to enable the Company to access all information which you have password-protected on any computer equipment, network or system of the Company or any of its affiliates.

9. Cooperation. At the reasonable request of the Company and subject to your reasonable availability and other business obligations, you agree to cooperate as reasonably necessary with the Company Group for six (6) months following the Separation Date on all matters relating to the winding up of your pending work on behalf of the Company including, but not limited to, any litigation in which the Company Group is involved and the orderly transfer of any such pending work to other employees of the Company as may be designated by the Company or Parent. In addition, at all times after the Separation Date, subject to your reasonable availability, taking into account your other reasonable business obligations, you will fully and truthfully cooperate on any governmental or internal investigations, regulatory matters, legal proceedings or similar matters relating to the Company. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the preceding cooperation covenant shall not apply to any matter that arises out of or relates to a dispute between you and (i) any member(s) of the Company Group; (ii) any and all parent companies, subsidiaries (direct and indirect), affiliates, successor and assigns of the Company Group; and/or (iii) any of the foregoing entities’ directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, insurers, representatives, and benefit plans (including all such plans’ insurers, fiduciaries, administrators, and the like), in each case, only if complying with such cooperation covenant would adversely affect your legal rights in any such dispute in any material respect.

(a) In exchange for the severance pay, acceleration of vested equity (and related distribution holdbacks) and other benefits provided to you under this Agreement, as well as the repurchase provisions set forth in Section 6(c), to which you would not otherwise be entitled, on your own behalf and on the behalf of your heirs, executors, administrators, beneficiaries, representatives and assigns, and all others connected with or claiming through you, hereby release and forever discharge the Company, Parent and their current and past parents, subsidiaries and other affiliates and all of their respective past, present and future officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, employees, agents, employee benefit plans, general and limited partners, members, managers, investors, joint venturers, representatives, successors and assigns, and all others connected with any of them, only to the extent such parties were acting in their official capacities (collectively, the “Released Parties”), from any and all causes of action, rights and claims of any type or description, known or unknown, which you have had in the past, now have, or might now have, through the date of you signing of this Agreement, in any way related to, connected with or arising out of your employment or its termination or the Employment Agreement by and among you, McAfee Employee Holdings, LLC and Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“Parent”) dated as of June 1, 2017 (the “Employment Agreement”) or pursuant to any federal, state or local law, regulation or other requirement (including without limitation Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and/or the fair employment practices statute of the state or states in which you were previously employed by the Company or otherwise had a relationship with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, each as amended from time to time) (collectively, the “Released Claims”). The foregoing release shall not apply to (a) any claim that arises after you sign this Agreement, (b) any rights to indemnification that you may have under the Company’s Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, by contract, as a matter of law, or otherwise, or under any power that the Company or its predecessor or affiliate entities may have to indemnify you or hold you harmless, (c) any claim that may not be waived pursuant to applicable law, (d) your rights to severance pay and benefits under this Agreement, (e) your rights following the date hereof with respect to any equity interests you hold in Parent or any of its affiliates as set forth in this Agreement, (f) your right to enforce the terms of this Agreement or (g) your rights to any vested benefits to which you are entitled under the terms of any of the Company’s or its affiliates’ benefit plans, programs, or policies.

In signing this Agreement, to the extent applicable, you expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits provided by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or the released party.
Therefore, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, you expressly acknowledge that the general release and waiver of claims set forth in this Section 10(a) is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all Claims which you do not know or suspect to exist in your favor at the time you sign it, and that this Agreement contemplates the extinguishment of any and all such Claims.

(b) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit you from filing a charge with or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a comparable state or local agency, provided, however, that you hereby agree to waive your right to recover monetary damages or other individual relief in any charge, investigation, proceeding, complaint or lawsuit filed by you or by anyone else on your behalf. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to limit, restrict or in any other way affect your communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity.

(c) This Agreement, including the general release of claims set forth in Section 10(a), creates legally binding obligations and the Company and its affiliates therefore advise you to consult an attorney before signing this Agreement. In signing this Agreement, you give the Company and its affiliates assurance that you have signed it voluntarily and with a full understanding of its terms; that you have had sufficient opportunity of not less than twenty-one (21) days, before signing this Agreement, to consider its terms and to consult with an attorney, if you wished to do so, or to consult with any other of person, and that, in signing this Agreement, you have not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement.

(a) The Company hereby and forever releases you from any and all claims, except as set forth below, arising out of or relating to the your employment or other relationship with the Company and the conclusion of that employment or other relationship that the Company may possess against you arising from any omissions, acts, facts, or damages that have occurred up until and including the date of execution of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this release of claims shall not apply to any claim (a) that arises after the execution of this Agreement, (b) related to your intentional or grossly negligent act or omissions or (c) related to Investigation Developments.

(b) In signing this release of claims, to the extent applicable, the Company expressly waives and relinquishes all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and does so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which Section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.
Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge (subject to the exceptions noted above), the Company expressly acknowledges that this release of claims is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all released claims (subject to the exceptions noted above) which the Company does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of execution of this Agreement, and that this release of claims contemplates the extinguishment of such released claims.

12. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and the Company and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, with respect to your employment, its termination and all related matters, excluding only your and the Company Group’s obligations under the Equity Documents that survive your termination of employment, the provisions of which shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) This Agreement may not be modified or amended, and no breach shall be deemed to be waived, unless agreed to in writing by you and the Company or its expressly authorized designee. The captions and headings in this Agreement are for convenience only, and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

(c) The obligation of the Company to make payments or provide benefits to you or on your behalf under this Agreement, and your right to retain the same, is expressly conditioned upon your continued full performance of your obligations under this Agreement, and under the Equity Documents.

(d) For purposes of any payment or benefit provided under this Agreement that is conditioned on your meeting your obligations under this Agreement and/or the Equity Documents, as applicable, you will not be considered to be in breach of, or deficient in meeting your obligations under, this Agreement or the Equity Documents, unless the Company has (i) provided you with written notice of such deficiency or breach, and (ii) a reasonable period to cure such deficiency or breach. In the event you fail to cure such deficiency or breach, you will be deemed in breach of, or deficient in meeting your obligations under, this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company will not be required to provide more than one notice and opportunity to cure with respect to repeated or substantially similar circumstances.

(e) Not later than ten (10) business days following the date that this Agreement becomes effective, the Company shall pay or reimburse you for any and all reasonable attorneys’ fees and related costs paid in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement, up to a maximum amount of $15,000.

(f) All amounts payable under the Agreement are intended to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and will be construed and administered accordingly. The payments made pursuant to this Agreement are also intended to be exempt from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible, under either the separation pay exemption pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) or as short-term deferrals pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(4), and each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided to you pursuant to this Agreement, shall be construed as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any payments made or contemplated hereunder constitute nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A if you are a “specified employee” as defined in Section 409A as of the Separation Date and the deferral of the commencement of any payments or benefits otherwise payable hereunder as a result of such termination of employment is necessary in order to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, then the Company will defer the commencement of the payment of any such payments or benefits hereunder (without any reduction in such payments or benefits ultimately paid or provided to you) until the date that is six (6) months and one (1) day following Separation Date (or the earliest date as is permitted under Section 409A). To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, amounts reimbursable to you under this Agreement shall be paid to you on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in-kind benefits provided to you) during any one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year and may not be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. In no event shall the Company Group have any liability relating to the failure or alleged failure of any payment or benefit under this Agreement to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A.

(g) To the extent not preempted by federal law, the validity and effect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be construed and determined in accordance with the law of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of law provisions thereof. The parties irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of, and venue in, the state and federal courts in the State of Delaware, with respect to any matters pertaining to, or arising from, this Agreement. By signing this Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that you have been individually represented by legal counsel in negotiating the terms of this Agreement (including without limitation as to all restrictive covenants contained herein, the remedies for breaches of such covenants, and the governing law and forum that will apply in the event of any disputes related to such restrictive covenants).
If the terms of this Agreement are acceptable to you, please sign, date and return it to me within twenty-one (21) days of the date you receive it. You may revoke this Agreement at any time during the seven (7)-day period immediately following the date of your signing by notifying the Company’s General Counsel in writing of your revocation within that period. If you do not revoke this Agreement, then, on the eighth (8th) day following the date that you signed it, this Agreement shall take effect as a legally binding agreement between you and the Company on the basis set forth above. The enclosed copy of this letter, which you should also sign and date, is for your records.

Re: Severance

This letter agreement (this “Agreement”) sets forth the terms and conditions pursuant to which McAfee Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), will provide you with severance benefits if your employment with the Company, Foundation Technology Worldwide, a Delaware limited liability company (“FTW”) and their respective subsidiaries (your “Employment”) is terminated in a Qualifying Termination (as such terms are defined below). This Agreement will be effective as of immediately prior to the consummation of the initial public offering of shares of the Company’s Class A common stock (the time this Agreement becomes effective, the “Effective Time”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Effective Time does not occur on or before March 31, 2021, this Agreement shall be null and void and of no force or effect. Following the Effective Time, the severance payments and benefits described in this Agreement will be the only severance payments or benefits that you will be entitled to in connection with a termination of your Employment, and you will not be entitled to any severance payments or benefits under the terms of any other agreement with the Company or any of its Affiliates or any plan, policy or program of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except as specifically provided herein.

1. Severance and Change in Control Payments and Benefits.

(a) Non-Change in Control Severance. If your Employment is terminated in a Non-Change in Control Qualifying Termination, then, subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company will provide you with the following severance payments and benefits:

   i. the Accrued Benefits;

   ii. an amount equal to one (1) times your annual base salary and target annual bonus, in each case, as in effect on the Separation Date (or, if higher, the base salary and target annual bonus in effect immediately prior to any reduction in such amounts which resulted in “Good Reason”) (the “Severance Payment”); and

   iii. provided that you timely and properly elect to purchase continued healthcare coverage under COBRA, direct payment to its COBRA provider on your behalf of a monthly amount equal to the employer portion of the monthly premiums paid under the Company’s group health plans as of the Separation Date, for the period ending on the earlier of (i) the date that is twelve (12) months following the Separation Date, and (ii) the date on which you become eligible to be covered under another employer’s health plan (of which you will provide prompt notice to the Company) (the “COBRA Payment”).

The Accrued Benefits will be payable in a lump sum on or as soon as practicable following the Separation Date (or, with respect to the amounts payable under clause (ii) of the definition of Accrued Benefits, in accordance with the terms of the applicable bonus), but, in all cases, within the time period required by applicable law. The Severance Payment and COBRA Payment (to the extent payable as described above) will be paid in substantially equal installments over a period of twelve (12) months following the Separation Date in accordance with the Company’s regular payroll practices, beginning on the Company’s first regular payroll date following the date that the Release (as defined below) becomes fully effective and irrevocable (and the first installment will include all amounts that would have been paid on the regular payroll dates of the Company following the Separation Date prior to such date), except as described in Section 6 below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any severance payments or benefits that you were entitled to receive under the Prior Agreement were subject to Section 409A, the Severance Payment and COBRA Payment shall be paid on the schedule set forth in the Prior Agreement to the extent required to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A. To the extent payable, the COBRA Payment will be paid directly by the Company or one of its Affiliates on your behalf or reimbursed to you in accordance with applicable policies of the Company and its Affiliates regarding substantiation of reimbursable expenses; provided that with respect to any group health plan to which Section 105(h) of the Code or any similar provision applies, the value of such payments may be provided in a manner that is intended to avoid adverse tax consequences to you, the Company or its Affiliates.

(b) Change in Control Equity Treatment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documents governing your Time-Based Equity, in the event your then unvested Time-Based Equity awards are not continued, assumed or substituted for in connection with a Change in Control with awards or rights having the same intrinsic value (determined as of the Change in Control), such Time-Based Equity awards shall vest in full effective as of the Change in Control. For the avoidance of doubt, all equity awards other than the Time-Based Equity shall be treated in accordance with the terms of the applicable equity plan and other documents governing such awards.

(c) Change in Control Severance. If your Employment is terminated in a Change in Control Qualifying Termination, then, in lieu of the payments described in Section 1(a) above and subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company will provide you with the following benefits:

i. the Accrued Benefits;

ii. an amount equal to one and one-half (1.5) times your annual base salary and target annual bonus, in each case, at the highest level in effect during the 12-month period leading up to the Separation Date (the “Change in Control Severance Payment”);

iii. a pro rata portion (prorated based on the percentage of the fiscal year that shall have elapsed through the Separation Date) of your annual bonus earned based on actual performance for the year in which your Employment terminates (the “Pro Rata Bonus”);

iv. provided that you timely and properly elect to purchase continued healthcare coverage under COBRA, direct payment to its COBRA provider on your behalf of a monthly amount equal to the employer portion of the monthly premiums paid under the Company’s group health plans as of the Separation Date, for the period ending on the earliest of (i) the date that is eighteen (18) months following the Separation Date, and (ii) the date on which you become covered under another employer’s health plan (the “CIC COBRA Payment”); and
v. all unvested Time-Based Equity held by you as of the Separation Date shall vest in full as of the Separation Date and all Performance-Based Equity held by you as of the Separation Date shall vest as of the Separation Date based on target performance or, if higher and if determinable, based on the actual performance of the Company through the Separation Date, as determined in accordance with the applicable documents governing such Performance-Based Equity (the “Change in Control Equity Acceleration”).

The Accrued Benefits will be payable in a lump sum as soon as practicable following the Separation Date (or, with respect to the amounts payable under clause (ii) of the definition of Accrued Benefits, in accordance with the terms of the applicable bonus), but in any case within the time period required by applicable law. The Change in Control Severance Payment will be paid in a lump sum on the Company’s first regular payroll date following the date that the Release becomes fully effective and irrevocable, except as described in Section 6 below, but in no event will be paid later than two and a half months following the fiscal year in which the Separation Date occurs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any severance payments or benefits that you were entitled to receive under the Prior Agreement were subject to Section 409A, the Change in Control Severance Payment shall be paid on the schedule set forth in the Prior Agreement to the extent required to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A. To the extent payable, the CIC COBRA Payment will be paid directly by the Company or one of its Affiliates on your behalf or reimbursed to you in accordance with applicable policies of the Company and its Affiliates regarding substantiation of reimbursable expenses; provided that with respect to any group health plan to which Section 105(h) of the Code or any similar provision applies, the value of such payments may be provided in a manner that is intended to avoid adverse tax consequences to you, the Company or its Affiliates.

The Pro Rata Bonus shall be paid in the fiscal year of the Company that follows the fiscal year in which in the Qualifying Termination occurs, at the time at which annual bonuses are payable to senior executives of the Company and its Affiliates generally, but in no event later than two and a half months following the fiscal year in which the Qualifying Termination occurs.

The Change in Control Equity Acceleration shall occur effective on the Separation Date, but any shares or other equity delivered in settlement of such awards shall not be delivered until a date following the date the Release becomes fully effective and irrevocable (but in no event later than two and a half months following the fiscal year in which the Separation Date occurs or such other time as the Company in good faith determines would not result in additional taxes becoming due under Section 409A) and will be forfeited for no consideration in the event the Release does not become so fully effective and irrevocable by the deadline specified in Section 2 of this Agreement.

(d) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
i. “Accrued Benefits” means the (i) the earned but unpaid portion of your base salary through the Separation Date, (ii) any annual cash bonus that relates to a completed fiscal year or performance period, as applicable, and has been earned based on performance for such completed fiscal year or performance period (but is not yet paid) on or before the Separation Date, which shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such bonus, (iii) a lump-sum payment in respect of any accrued but unused vacation days payable to you under the Company's vacation policies, (iv) any unpaid expense or other reimbursements due to you under the Company’s expense reimbursement policies, and (v) any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided by law or under any plan, program, policy or practice of the Company or any of its Affiliates (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts or benefits payable under any severance or similar plan, program, policy or practice maintained by the Company or any of its Affiliates).

ii. “Affiliate” means any entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by, controls or is under common control with the Company and/or any entity in which the Company has a significant equity interest, in either case, as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company, including, for the avoidance of doubt, Foundation Technology Worldwide, LLC, McAfee, LLC and their respective subsidiaries.

iii. “Cause” means any of the following, as determined by the Administrator, (i) gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with the performance of duties with respect to (A) your Employment or (B) your duties under any employment or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates; (ii) your commission of (or pleading guilty or pleading no contest or nolo contendere to) a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude (where moral turpitude means so extreme a departure from ordinary standards of honesty, good morals, justice or ethics as to be shocking to the moral sense of the community); (iii) the performance by you of any act or acts of fraud or material dishonesty in connection with or relating to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates or the misappropriation (or attempted misappropriation) of any of the funds or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates; (iv) breach of any Restrictive Covenant relating to non-competition, non-solicitation or no hiring or material breach of any other Restrictive Covenant applicable to you in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates; or (v) a material violation of the material written policies or procedures of the Company or of any of its Affiliates (with it being understood that any violation of a policy regarding sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, or any form of discrimination shall be considered a material violation of a written policy). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you are party to an individual employment, severance-benefit, change-in-control or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates that contains a definition of “Cause” (or a correlative term), such definition will apply in lieu of the definition set forth above during the term of such agreement.

iv. “Change in Control” shall mean any of the following events or series of related events after the date hereof: (i) any person, or group of persons acting together which would constitute a “group” for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, or any successor provisions thereto, is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing more than 50% of the combined voting power of the Company's then-outstanding voting securities (other than a group formed pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, dated as of [____] (as amended from time to time, the "Stockholders Agreement"); (ii) there is consummated a merger, consolidation or similar business transaction involving the Company with any other person or persons, and, either (x) the Board immediately prior to the merger or consolidation does not constitute at least a majority of the board of directors of the company surviving the merger or, if the surviving company is a subsidiary, the ultimate parent thereof, or (y) immediately after the consummation of such transaction, the voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such transaction do not continue to represent or are not converted into more than 50% of the combined voting power of the then-outstanding voting securities of the person resulting from such transaction or, if the surviving company is a subsidiary, the ultimate parent thereof; or (iii) there is consummated an agreement or series of related agreements for the sale or other disposition, directly or indirectly, by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company’s assets (including a sale of assets of FTW), other than such sale or other disposition by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company’s assets to an entity at least 50 percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the voting securities of which are owned by shareholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of the Company immediately prior to such sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a “Change in Control” shall not be deemed to have occurred (x) by virtue of the consummation of any transaction or series of integrated transactions immediately following which the ultimate beneficial owners of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of the Company immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions continue to have substantially the same proportionate ownership in and voting control over, and own substantially all of the shares or equity of, an entity which owns all or substantially all of the assets of the Company immediately following such transaction or series of transactions or (y) by virtue of the consummation of any transaction or series of transactions, immediately following which, the Company and one or more other entities (the “Other Constituent Companies”) shall have become separate wholly-owned Subsidiaries of a holding company, and the ultimate beneficial owners of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions, together with the ultimate beneficial owners of the outstanding equity interests in the Other Constituent Companies immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions, shall have become the equityholders of the new holding company in exchange for their respective equity interests in the Company and the Other Constituent Companies, and such transaction or transactions would not otherwise constitute a “Change in Control” assuming references to the Company are references to such holding company. In addition, with respect to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a Change in Control or other similar event, to the extent required to avoid the imposition of any additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A of the Code, no amount will be payable unless such Change in Control or other event constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

v. “Change in Control Qualifying Termination” means a Qualifying Termination that occurs during the period beginning three (3) months prior to, and ending eighteen (18) months following, the consummation of a Change in Control.

vii. “Good Reason” means, (A) if you are a party to an employment, severance-benefit, change-in-control or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company, FTW or any of their respective subsidiaries that contains a definition of “Good Reason,” the definition set forth in such agreement for so long as such agreement is in effect; or (B) otherwise, it shall mean, in each case, without your consent: (i) a material breach by the Company or its Affiliates of this Agreement or any other material agreement between you and the Company or its Affiliates, including any employment agreement or offer letter of employment; (ii) a material diminution of your duties, responsibilities or status other than a change in reporting line or position as a result of, and consistent with, changes in the organizational structure due to a Change in Control in which the Company or any of its Affiliates becomes a subsidiary of an acquiring entity or its affiliates or as a result of the sale, license or other divestiture of a business line or division or business segment; (iii) a material reduction by the Company or its Affiliates in your base salary or target bonus opportunity; or (iv) the relocation of your principal place of business by more than fifty (50) miles. In all cases, an event or condition shall not constitute “Good Reason” unless (x) within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the event or condition you believe constitutes Good Reason, you provide the Company with a written notice (a “Good Reason Notice”) that specifically explains the basis for your belief that facts constituting Good Reason exist, (y) in the case of any of the above events which is capable of being cured within thirty (30) days of the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, the Company fails to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable event or condition within thirty (30) days after the Company’s receipt of the Good Reason Notice, and (z) you actually terminate your Employment (and, if applicable, other service relationship) within sixty (60) days following the end of such cure period.

viii. “Non-Change in Control Qualifying Termination” means a Qualifying Termination that is not a Change in Control Qualifying Termination.

ix. “Performance-Based Equity” means equity or equity-based awards (or portions) granted to you by the Company after the Effective Time that are eligible to vest, as of the Separation Date, in whole or in part (excluding any portion that qualifies as Time-Based Equity) based on the performance of the Company and its Affiliates; provided that in no event shall any equity or equity-based award granted to you under the McAfee 2017 Management Incentive Plan and no award issued in exchange or substitution therefor (e.g., performance-based restricted stock units settled in shares of the Company’s Class A common stock substituted for performance-based restricted equity units of Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC) will be treated as “Performance-Based Equity”.

x. “Prior Agreement” means [____].

xi. “Qualifying Termination” means a termination of your Employment by (i) the Company or any of its Affiliates without Cause, or (ii) your resignation from the Company and its Affiliates for Good Reason. A “Qualifying Termination” does not include a termination of your Employment due to your death or disability.
xii. “Restrictive Covenants” means all non-competition, non-solicitation, no-hire, non-disparagement, invention assignment, cooperation and other restrictive covenants or similar obligations, in each case, to or in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates by which you are currently bound, which shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

xiii. “Section 409A” means, collectively, Section 409A of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

xiv. “Separation Date” means the date your Employment terminates.

xv. “Time-Based Equity” means equity or equity-based awards (or portions) issued to you by the Company or Foundation Technology Worldwide, LLC that are eligible to vest solely based on your continued Employment.

2. Conditions to Payment; Restrictive Covenants. Any obligation of the Company to pay or provide you with any severance payments or benefits under this Agreement is conditioned upon (i) your continued (A) compliance with any Restrictive Covenants regarding non-competition, non-solicitation and no-hire and (B) material compliance with any other Restrictive Covenants, and (ii) your execution and delivery to the Company of a general release and waiver of claims in favor of the Company and its Affiliates in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Release”) and the Release becoming fully effective and irrevocable by the date specified therein, but in no event more than sixty (60) days following the Separation Date. BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT YOU EXPRESSLY AFFIRM THAT YOU ARE AND SHALL REMAIN BOUND BY ALL RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS THAT APPLY TO YOU IN ACCORDANCE WITH THEIR TERMS TO THE SAME EXTENT AS IF SET FORTH IN FULL HEREIN.

3. No Other Severance Benefits. The payments provided by this Agreement are in lieu of and shall supersede any severance or similar payments or benefits that you may otherwise be entitled to upon termination of your Employment, including, without limitation, under the Prior Agreement or any severance policy of the Company or any of its Affiliates; provided that if payments or benefits become payable hereunder and if the severance payments and benefits provided under the Prior Agreement remained payable, to the extent such payments and benefits would be greater than the payments and benefits payable hereunder (the “Excess Payments”), the Excess Payments shall, subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, be payable hereunder but in accordance with the payment schedule that would have applied to them under the Prior Agreement as determined in good faith by the Company (taking into account the payments and benefits provided hereunder and with due regard for Section 409A).

4. Withholding. The Company and its Affiliates may withhold from all amounts payable under this Agreement any taxes or other amounts required by law to be withheld with respect to such payments, as determined by the Company or any of its Affiliates in its sole discretion.

5. Scope of Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to entitle you to continued Employment or other service, limit the rights of the Company or its Affiliates to terminate your Employment at any time for any reason or alter the at-will nature of your Employment.
6. Section 409A. All amounts payable under this Agreement are intended to be exempt from, or comply with, the requirements of Section 409A. To the extent required to comply with or be exempt from Section 409A, you will not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company or its Affiliates for purposes of this Agreement, and no payment will be due to you under this Agreement, until you have incurred a “separation from service” from the Company and its Affiliates within the meaning of Section 409A (after giving effect to the presumptions set forth therein). If you are determined to be a “specified employee” at the time of your separation from service and the payments to you hereunder are deemed to be “nonqualified deferred compensation” within the meaning of Section 409A then, to the extent necessary to prevent any accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, payment of the amounts payable under this Agreement will be delayed until the earlier of (i) the date that is six months and one day following your separation from service or (ii) your death. Each amount paid to you pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A and the right to a series of installment payments under this Agreement shall be treated as the right to a series of separate payments. To the extent required by Section 409A, if the period available to execute (and not revoke) the Release spans two calendar years, any payments or benefits provided to you under this Agreement will be paid in the second calendar year. To the extent required to comply with Section 409A, a Change in Control will not be deemed to occur for purposes of this Agreement unless it is a “change in control event” as defined in Section 1.409A-3(i)(5)(i) of the Treasury Regulations, and if it is not a “change in control event,” payment of the severance described in Section 1(b) of this Agreement shall instead be paid as provided under Section 1(a) of this Agreement (unless the severance, or portion thereof, could be paid earlier without resulting in adverse tax consequences under Section 409A). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Agreement, neither the Company nor any other person will be liable to you by reason of any acceleration of income, or any additional tax (including any interest and penalties), asserted with respect to any of the payments under this Agreement, including by reason of the failure of this Agreement to satisfy the applicable requirements of Section 409A in form or in operation. To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A, amounts reimbursable to you under this Agreement shall be paid to you on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in-kind benefits provided to you) during any one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year and may not be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit.

7. Section 280G. If all, or any portion, of the payments or benefits provided under this Agreement or otherwise, either alone or together with any other payment or benefit that you receive or are entitled to receive from the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, could reasonably be expected to constitute an “excess parachute payment” within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, then, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other agreement or plan to the contrary, you will be entitled to receive: (A) the amount of such payments or benefits, reduced such that no portion thereof shall fail to be tax deductible under Section 280G of the Code (the “Limited Amount”), or (B) if the amounts otherwise payable hereunder and under any other agreements and plans of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates (without regard to clause (A)), reduced by all taxes applicable thereto (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code) would be greater than the Limited Amount reduced by all taxes applicable thereto, the amounts otherwise payable hereunder and thereunder. All determinations under this Section 7 will be made by an accounting, consulting, or valuation firm selected, and paid for, by the Company and any reductions in payments or benefits hereunder shall be made by reducing first any payments or benefits that are exempt from Section 409A and then reducing any payments or benefits that are subject to Section 409A in the reverse order in which such payments or benefits would be paid or provided (beginning with such payment or benefit that would be made last in time and continuing, to the extent necessary, through to such payment or benefit that would be made first in time). 8
8. Assignment. Neither the Company nor you may assign any rights or obligations under this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other, except that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without your consent to one of its Affiliates, and the Company will assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement in the event of a reorganization, consolidation, or merger involving the Company or any of its Affiliates in which the Company is not the surviving entity, or a transfer of all or substantially all of the Company’s assets or line of business to which your Employment principally relates. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon you and the Company and your and its respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

9. Company Policies. By your execution of this Agreement, you acknowledge that all compensation and benefits paid or provided to you under this Agreement or otherwise shall be subject to the McAfee Clawback Policy and the McAfee Executive Officer and Director Equity Ownership Requirements, and you agree that you will comply with the terms of such policies as in effect from time to time.

10. Choice of Law; Forum; Validity. This Agreement, including Exhibit A will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of laws principles that could result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Except as otherwise provided by any applicable arbitration agreement with the Company or its Affiliates by which you are bound, you and all persons claiming through you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of and in the State of Delaware in connection with any dispute arising out of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other document, no exception to the application of Delaware law or choice of forum shall apply with respect to you or any person claiming through you even if you are an employee who primarily resides and/or works in California. By signing this Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that you have been individually represented by legal counsel in negotiating the terms of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Restrictive Covenants will be subject to the law of the jurisdiction specified by the terms set forth in the applicable Restrictive Covenant agreement.

11. Notice. For purposes of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for in the Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered by hand or overnight courier or three days after it has been mailed by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the respective addresses set forth below in this Agreement, or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notice of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

Subject to Section 3, this Agreement (including Exhibit A) is the entire agreement between you and the Company, and replaces all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements, and understandings, whether written or oral, with respect to the subject matter described herein; provided that the foregoing shall not supersede (i) any effective confidentiality, assignment of intellectual property or other restrictive covenant agreement, policy or other similar arrangement in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates by which you are bound, including under the Prior Agreement or (ii) any arbitration or similar agreement with the Company or any of its Affiliates by which you are bound.

If I am a California-based employee, in signing this Release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which Section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

Schedule to reflect severance owed at termination.
Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, I expressly acknowledge that this Release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all Released Claims which I do not know or suspect to exist in my favor at the time of execution hereof, and that this Release contemplates the extinguishment of such Release Claim or Released Claims.

2017 MANAGEMENT INCENTIVE PLAN
(Amended and Restated as of ____________, 2020)

1. Defined Terms. Schedule A, which is incorporated herein by reference, defines the terms used in the Plan and sets forth certain operational rules related to those terms.

2. Purpose. The Plan is intended to advance the interests of FTW and McAfee by providing for the grant to Participants of equity- and cash-based Awards. Awards under the Plan are intended to align the incentives of Participants and investors in McAfee and FTW and to improve the performance of McAfee, FTW and their Subsidiaries.

3. Administration. The Administrator shall administer the Plan, and shall have discretionary authority, subject only to the express provisions of the Plan, to administer and interpret the Plan and the Award Agreements; to determine eligibility for and grant Awards; to determine, alter, amend, modify or waive the terms and conditions of any Award; to prescribe the purchase price or Management Incentive Unit Return Threshold, if any, applicable to any Award; to prescribe forms, rules and procedures; and to otherwise do all things necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan and any Award Agreement. All determinations of the Administrator made with respect to the Plan or any Award Agreement are conclusive and will bind all Persons (including, without limitation, Participants and their beneficiaries, successors or Permitted Transferees).

4. Limits on Awards. As of immediately following the Effective Time, Awards consisting of or in respect of (a) __________ FTW Management Incentive Units, (b) __________ FTW Class A Units, and (c) __________ McAfee Shares are outstanding under the Plan. Other than such Awards, no further Awards based on, or consisting of, such securities will be granted to any Participant; however, for the avoidance of doubt, such Awards may be converted or exchanged for Awards consisting of or in respect of any other type of security.

5. Eligibility and Participation. The Administrator, in its sole discretion, has selected Participants from among those current and prospective key employees and other service providers (including partners) of, and consultants and advisors to, McAfee, FTW or any of their Subsidiaries who, in the opinion of the Administrator, have made or may make a significant contribution to the success of McAfee, FTW or any of their Subsidiaries.

6. Rules Applicable to Awards.
   (a) Award Provisions. The Administrator has determined or will determine the terms of all Awards, subject to the limitations provided herein, and shall furnish or has furnished to each Participant an Award Agreement setting forth the terms applicable to the Participant’s Award. By accepting an Award, the Participant agrees to the terms of the Award Agreement and of the Plan.
(b) Vesting. A Participant’s Award will vest on the terms and conditions set forth in the Participant’s Award Agreement.

(c) Transferability. Except as the Administrator otherwise expressly consents to in writing, all Awards are non-transferable, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; provided that, subject to Section 11(d), Awards consisting of FTW Management Incentive Units or FTW Class A Units and FTW Class A Units received upon the settlement of FTW RSUs (in each case, to the extent they are vested) may be transferred to the extent permitted under, and subject to the conditions of, the LLC Agreement, any applicable documents governing the terms of such Awards in respect of the initial public offering of McAfee Shares and any other documents governing the terms of such Awards.

(d) Taxes. The Administrator may make such provision for the withholding or other payment of taxes as it deems necessary or appropriate with respect to any Award, FTW Class A Units issued under an Award, securities received upon or in connection with settlement of an Award, securities exchanged for an Award, FTW MIUs or FTW Class A Units or otherwise in connection with the issuance, disposition, holding or exchange of any of the foregoing. Any payment to a Participant, or other transaction in respect of Participant’s Award or any securities issued in respect thereof (including in connection with any exchange or similar transaction) will be conditioned upon the Participant’s full satisfaction of such withholding or other tax requirements. Without limiting the foregoing, in order to satisfy such withholding or other tax requirements, FTW and/or McAfee may (i) require withholding or other taxes to be paid in cash or cash equivalents, (ii) require or permit broker-assisted “same day sale” transactions of McAfee Shares to cover taxes up to the maximum statutory tax withholding rates, (iii) if authorized by FTW or McAfee in its sole discretion, provide for “net withholding” of securities based on their fair market value (as determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion) up to the maximum statutory tax withholding rates, or (iv) any provide for combination of the foregoing. Any amounts so withheld by the Administrator pursuant to this Section 6(d) shall be treated as though such payment had been made directly to the Participant.

7. Rights Limited. Nothing in the Plan will be construed as giving any Person the right to continued Employment. The grant of an Award to a Participant shall not give the Participant the right to any Award in the future. The loss of potential appreciation in an Award will not constitute an element of damages in the event of a termination of a Participant’s Employment for any reason, even if such termination is in violation of an obligation of McAfee, FTW or any of their Affiliates to the Participant.

8. Section 409A. Subject to Section 11(g), Awards under the Plan are intended to be exempt from, or comply with, the requirements of Section 409A and shall be construed and administered accordingly. If a Participant is determined on the date of the Participant’s termination of Employment to be a “specified employee” within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code, then, with regard to any payment that is considered nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A, to the extent applicable, and that is payable on account of a “separation from service”, such payment will be made or provided on the date that is the earlier of (i) the first business day following the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of such “separation from service” and (ii) the date of the Participant’s death (the “Delay Period”). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments delayed pursuant to this Section 8 (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single lump sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) will be paid, without interest, on the first business day following the expiration of the Delay Period in a lump sum and any remaining payments due under the Award will be paid in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them in the applicable Award Agreement. For purposes of Section 409A, each payment made under the Plan or any Award will be treated as a separate payment.

9. Adjustments; Covered Transactions.

   (a) In the event of any stock or FTW Unit split, stock or FTW Unit dividend or distribution, combination of stock or FTW Units, recapitalization or other similar change in the capital structure of FTW or McAfee that constitutes an equity restructuring within the meaning of FASB ASC Topic 718 (or any successor provision), the Administrator shall make appropriate adjustments to the number and kind of securities subject to Awards, any Management Incentive Unit Return Threshold applicable to such Awards, and any other provision of Awards determined by the Administrator to be affected by such change. The Administrator may also make adjustments of the type described in this Section 9(a) in connection with any other event if the Administrator determines that such adjustments are appropriate to avoid economic distortion in the operation of the Plan.

   (b) In the event of a Covered Transaction (including a Covered Transaction undertaken in connection with a Public Offering), outstanding Awards shall be subject to the agreement or arrangement governing the terms of the Covered Transaction, which may provide, without limitation, for (i) the assumption or substitution of Awards with similar awards by an acquiring or surviving entity (which may include requiring Participants holding unvested FTW Management Incentive Units, FTW Class A Units, FTW RSUs, restricted stock units payable in McAfee Shares or McAfee Shares to exchange or convert such unvested Award(s) for equity securities or other property or rights that may include, but are not limited to, awards to acquire the same consideration paid to or received by the equityholders of McAfee or FTW (or by McAfee or FTW directly), as the case may be, pursuant to the Covered Transaction), (ii) a cash-out of Awards (including for no payment if the Fair Market Value of an Award is zero at the time of the Covered Transaction) or (iii) the termination of unvested Awards without payment in respect thereof; provided, however, that, in connection with any Covered Transaction that does not constitute a Change in Control, notwithstanding the terms of any document to the contrary, in the event that unvested Awards are to be terminated without payment (except as provided in clause (ii) above) and without assumption or substitution as contemplated by clause (i) above, then 100% of such Awards shall immediately vest as of the date immediately preceding the Covered Transaction.

   (c) The Administrator may provide that Awards held by different Participants, or different portions of an Award or Awards held by a Participant, shall be treated differently in connection with a Covered Transaction.

   (d) Nothing in this Section 9 shall limit the rights of McAfee, FTW, the Intel Investors, the TPG Investor, or any of their Permitted Transferees under the LLC Agreement.
10. Amendment and Termination. The Administrator may at any time or times amend or terminate the Plan or any Award for any purpose which may at the time be permitted by applicable law; provided that, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or in an Award Agreement, the Administrator may not, without the Participant’s consent, alter the terms of the Plan or an outstanding Award so as to materially and adversely affect the Participant’s rights under an outstanding Award, except to the extent the Administrator expressly reserved the right to do so in the Plan or the applicable Award Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, an adjustment to an Award pursuant to the terms of the LLC Agreement or Section 9(a) or (b) above shall not be treated as an amendment requiring the Participant’s consent.

11. Miscellaneous.

(a) Conditions to Issuance of Securities. Neither McAfee or FTW shall be required to issue any securities upon the grant or vesting of any Award (or portion thereof) prior to the satisfaction of all of the following conditions: (i) the completion of any registration or other qualification of such securities under any state, federal or non-U.S. law, stock exchange requirements or under the rules or regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other state, federal or non-U.S. regulatory body which the Administrator shall, in its reasonable discretion, deem necessary or advisable; (ii) the obtaining of any approval or other clearance from any state, federal or non-U.S. governmental agency which the Administrator shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable; and (iii) the receipt by McAfee or FTW of any other document or agreement required by the Administrator in good faith in connection with the grant of an Award.

Once an Award consisting of FTW Units is granted, the Participant shall have the rights and obligations provided for under the LLC Agreement; provided that until all of the restrictions imposed under the applicable Award Agreement, if any, expire or shall have been removed, the Participant’s interest in such FTW Units shall be subject to forfeiture as provided in the Plan and in the applicable Award Agreement. No Participant shall have any rights as a Member in respect of any Award based on or payable in FTW Units unless and until such FTW Units are actually issued. As a condition to receiving any Award consisting of FTW Management Incentive Units or receiving any FTW Units upon the vesting or settlement of any Award, the Participant will become a party to the LLC Agreement will be required to sign such customary investment, investment intent or similar documents as may be prescribed by the Administrator.

If securities are certificated, McAfee or FTW may place such legends on certificates (or such other appropriate documents) evidencing Awards issued under this Plan as the Administrator deems necessary or appropriate in order to comply with applicable law or the LLC Agreement, including, but not limited to, legends describing restrictions on the transfer of the securities.

The provisions of this Section 11(d) shall apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, any Award Agreement or the LLC Agreement, except as may be expressly provided in a sub-plan established pursuant to Section 13. If at any time the Administrator determines, in its sole discretion, that the transfer, forfeiture or repurchase of an Award (or portion thereof) consisting of FTW Management Incentive Units or of FTW Class A Units delivered in satisfaction of an Award could result in FTW being treated as a Publicly Traded Partnership: (i) such Award or such FTW Units may not be transferred, (ii) the forfeiture of such Award (or portion thereof) shall be delayed, (iii) the closing of any repurchase or redemption of such Award (or portion thereof) or any such FTW Units in accordance with the exercise of any call or redemption rights set forth in the LLC Agreement, the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise shall not occur sooner than sixty (60) days after written notice thereof is given to the Participant and (iv) either (A) the repurchase price of such Award (or portion thereof) or any such FTW Class A Units shall not be established until at least 60 calendar days after receipt of written notice by the Participant or (B) the Fair Market Value for such Award or FTW Units for purposes of effecting repurchases or redemptions shall be established no more than four (4) times in any taxable year of FTW, in each case, until the earliest time at which such transfer, forfeiture or repurchase could be made without FTW being so treated, as determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion. In the event that forfeiture of any Award is delayed in accordance with this Section 11(d), during any such period of delayed forfeiture, to the extent that such Award was unvested at the date such forfeiture would have occurred absent the application of this Section 11(d), (x) such Award (or portion thereof) shall no longer be eligible to vest in the ordinary course pursuant to its terms and (y) in connection with any Covered Transaction that occurs during such period of delayed forfeiture, such Award shall be treated in the same manner as it would have been treated had the event triggering the forfeiture that is delayed pursuant to the application of this Section 11(d) not occurred. Any transfer, forfeiture or repurchase that is not in compliance with the terms of this Section 11(d) shall be null and void \textit{ab initio}.

Each Participant holding FTW Management Incentive Units or FTW Class A Units shall receive distributions, if any, in respect of such FTW Management Incentive Units or FTW Class A Units, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of the LLC Agreement. Except as provided for in an Award Agreement, no holder of Awards not described in the immediately preceding sentence shall be entitled to any distributions, dividends, dividend equivalents or similar payments with respect thereto.

By accepting an Award under the Plan, to the extent permitted by applicable law, each Participant waives any right to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim concerning any rights under the Plan and any Award, or under any amendment, waiver, consent, instrument, document or other agreement delivered or which in the future may be delivered in connection therewith, and agrees that any such action, proceedings or counterclaim shall be tried before a court and not before a jury. By accepting an Award under the Plan, each Participant certifies that no officer, representative, or attorney of McAfee, FTW or any of their Affiliates has represented, expressly or otherwise, that McAfee or FTW would not, in the event of any action, proceeding or counterclaim, seek to enforce the foregoing waivers.
(g) Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or any Award Agreement, none of McAfee or FTW or any of their Affiliates, or any Person acting on behalf of McAfee or FTW or any of their Affiliates, shall be liable to any Participant, to the estate, or any beneficiary or Permitted Transfersee of any Participant or to any other Person by reason of any acceleration of income, any additional tax, or any other tax or liability asserted by reason of the failure of an Award to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A, by reason of Section 4999 of the Code, or by reason of the failure of any FTW Management Incentive Unit to be treated or qualify as a profits interest for U.S. federal income tax or other purposes.

(h) Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the members, partners, officers, employees and agents of the Administrator (solely in their capacities as such and not, for the avoidance of doubt, in their capacity as a Participant) shall be indemnified and held harmless by McAfee or FTW from any loss, cost, liability, or expense that may be imposed upon or reasonably incurred by such Person in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be a party or in which he or she may be involved by reason of any action or failure to act pursuant to the Plan. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled as a matter of law, or otherwise, or any power that McAfee or FTW may have to indemnify them or hold them harmless.

(i) Unfunded Plan. The obligations of McAfee and FTW under the Plan are unfunded, and Participants shall have no right to specific assets of McAfee or FTW in respect of any Award. Participants will be general unsecured creditors of McAfee or FTW with respect to any amounts due or payable under the Plan.

Any action or suit with respect to the Plan or an Award Agreement will be brought in the federal or state courts of the State of Delaware, and each Participant agrees and submits to the personal jurisdiction and venue thereof.

13. Establishment of Sub-Plans. The Administrator may from time to time establish one or more sub-plans under the Plan for purposes of satisfying applicable blue sky, securities, tax or other laws of various jurisdictions. The Administrator will establish such sub-plans by adopting supplements to the Plan setting forth (a) such limitations on the Administrator’s discretion under the Plan as it deems necessary or desirable and (b) such additional terms and conditions as it deems in good faith to be necessary or appropriate, which may supersede contrary terms in the LLC Agreement, the Plan or an applicable Award Agreement. All supplements so established will be deemed to be part of the Plan, but each supplement will apply only to Participants within the applicable jurisdiction (as determined by the Administrator).
14. Entire Agreement. The Plan, any applicable Award Agreements and the LLC Agreement (if applicable) constitute the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof. In the event of any inconsistency between the Plan and an Award Agreement, the terms and conditions of the Plan shall control. In the event of any inconsistency between the LLC Agreement and the Plan or an Award Agreement, the LLC Agreement (if applicable) shall control, except to the extent expressly set forth in the Plan or an Award Agreement.

11. Survival of Representations and Warranties and Restrictive Covenants. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in Section 7 hereof shall survive until Participant and his or her Permitted Transferees no longer hold any of the Management Incentive Units issued hereunder. The restrictive covenants contained herein and the remedies for violation of such restrictive covenants contained in Section 6 hereof shall survive the termination of this Award Agreement and shall only expire, if at all, pursuant to their terms or as otherwise agreed in a signed writing by the parties hereto.
12. Unit Certificate Restrictive Legends. The certificates evidencing any Management Incentive Units that are certificated may bear such restrictive legends as the Company and/or the Company’s counsel may deem necessary or advisable under applicable law or pursuant to this Award Agreement to evidence the restrictions applicable to such Management Incentive Units.

13. Notices. All notices required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing deemed effectively given when delivered in person or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the other party hereto at the address shown beneath his or her or its respective signature to this Award Agreement, or at such other address or addresses as either party shall designate to the other in writing.

14. Successors and Assigns. The rights, duties, and obligations under this Award Agreement and the Plan may not be assigned by Participant or the Company, except that this Award Agreement shall be assignable by the Company to any successor entity, including an entity acquiring all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company. The provisions of this Award Agreement shall be binding on any such assignee.

15. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Award Agreement, the Plan, and the LLC Agreement, constitute the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties, including, without limitation, any offer letter or other document or communication to the extent related to any long-term incentive awards of the Company or its Affiliates or the terms thereof. There are no agreements, understandings, specific restrictions, warranties, or representations relating to said subject matter between the parties other than those set forth herein or herein provided for. This Award Agreement may be amended only in accordance with Section 10 of the Plan.

16. Waivers. The failure of a party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Award Agreement in any one or more instances shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon strict compliance with such provision in the future. In the event of any ambiguity in this Award Agreement or any matters as to which this Award Agreement is silent, the Plan will govern.

17. Invalidity. In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Award Agreement or any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or other portion thereof shall be deemed to be illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or portion thereof shall be modified or deleted in such a manner so as to make this Award Agreement, as modified, legal and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

18. Number; Titles. As used in this Award Agreement, the singular form shall include, if appropriate, the plural. The headings used in this Award Agreement are solely for the convenience and reference of the parties and are not intended to be descriptive of the entire contents of any paragraph and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms, provisions, or construction thereof.
19. Governing Law. The validity, construction and effect of this Award Agreement, and of any determinations or decisions made by the Administrator relating to this Award Agreement, and the rights of any and all Persons having, or claiming to have, any interest under this Award Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to otherwise governing principles of conflicts of law. Any suit with respect to this Award Agreement will be brought in the federal or state courts in the districts which include the State of Delaware, and Participant agrees and submits to the personal jurisdiction and venue thereof.

20. Counterparts. This Award Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, any of which may be executed and transmitted by facsimile or electronic means (including “pdf”), and each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

21. Accession to LLC Agreement. By execution of this Award Agreement, Participant hereby agrees, in respect of the Management Incentive Units awarded to him or her under this Award Agreement, to be bound by the terms of the LLC Agreement as a Member, and such terms are hereby incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full, except as provided herein. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 21 shall survive the termination of this Award Agreement.

22. Power of Attorney. Participant hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Administrator (or its designee) with full power of substitution, acting jointly or severally, as his or her attorney-in-fact and agent to sign, execute and deliver, in Participant’s name and on his or her behalf, all or any such agreement, deeds, instruments, documents and/or any counterpart thereof or certificates or to take any such action as it deems necessary from time to time or as is required under any applicable law to admit Participant as a Member of the Company or to conduct the business of the Company, including (without limitation) the power and authority to sign, execute and deliver (or attach signature pages to) (i) the LLC Agreement, (ii) any amendment to the LLC Agreement adopted in accordance with its terms, (iii) any agreements, deeds, instruments or documents reasonably necessary to satisfy Participant’s obligations under Section 13 of the LLC Agreement, or (iv) such documents as the Administrator deems necessary in good faith to effectuate the customary lock-up following a Public Offering as set forth in Section 11.1(e) of the LLC Agreement. This power of attorney is given to secure the obligations of Participant hereunder and deemed coupled with an interest of the Administrator and is irrevocable.

23. Further Representations and Acknowledgements of Participant.

   (a) Participant hereby represents that he or she has read the Plan and is familiar with the Plan’s terms. Participant hereby acknowledges that he or she has carefully read this Award Agreement and agrees, on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of his/her beneficiaries, estate and permitted assigns, to be bound by all of the provisions set forth herein and that this Award and Management Incentive Units are subject to all of the terms and provisions of this Award Agreement and of the Plan, as the Plan may be amended in accordance with its respective terms. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Award Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall control.

(b) Participant acknowledges that nothing in this Award Agreement (including exhibits hereto) alters the nature of employment with Company or any Affiliate of the Company. Participant acknowledges having been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult with financial or legal advisors regarding the consequences of Participant’s acceptance of the grant on the terms and conditions set forth in this Award Agreement.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANT AGREEMENT

This Restrictive Covenant Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of [_____] by and between Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (the “Company”) on its own behalf and on behalf of its Affiliates (defined below), as may exist from time to time, and [_____] (“Participant”). Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not otherwise defined herein shall have their respective meanings set forth in Participant’s Award Agreement.

1. Mutual Agreement. Participant acknowledges the importance to the Company and its Affiliates of protecting their Confidential Information and other legitimate business interests, including the valuable trade secrets and good will that they have developed or acquired. In consideration of Participant’s Employment, Participant’s Award and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which Participant hereby acknowledges, Participant agrees that the following restrictions on Participant’s activities during and after Employment are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company.

2. Confidentiality.

   2.1. Participant agrees that all Confidential Information which Participant creates or to which Participant has access as a result of Participant’s Employment and other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates is and will remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. Participant agrees that, except as required for the proper performance of Participant’s regular duties for the Company, as expressly authorized in writing in advance by a duly authorized officer of the Company, or as required by applicable law, Participant will never, directly or indirectly, use or disclose any Confidential Information. Participant understands and agrees that this restriction will continue to apply after the termination of Participant’s Employment for any reason. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Participant’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity. Participant will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (a) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (b) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Participant may be held liable if Participant unlawfully access trade secrets by unauthorized means.

   2.2. Participant agrees that all documents, records and files, in any media of whatever kind and description, relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Affiliates, and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the “Documents”), whether or not prepared by Participant, will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company. Participant agrees to safeguard all Documents and to surrender to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all Documents then in Participant’s possession or control. Participant also agrees to disclose to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all passwords necessary or desirable to obtain access to, or that would assist in obtaining access to, any information which Participant has password-protected on any computer equipment, network or system of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

3. Assignment of Intellectual Property Rights. Participant agrees to promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. Participant hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) Participant’s full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. Participant agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. Participant will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that Participant creates during Employment with the Company will be considered “work made for hire” and will, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company.

4. Restricted Activities.

4.1. While Participant is employed by the Company and during the eighteen (18)-month period immediately following the date of termination of Participant’s Employment (the “Restricted Period”), Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, engage in the Business in any geographic area in which the Company or any of its Affiliates engage in the Business or are actively planning to engage in the Business during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination (the “Restricted Area”), or undertake any planning to do any of the foregoing anywhere in the Restricted Area. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, during the Restricted Period, Participant agrees not to work or provide services, in any capacity, anywhere in the Restricted Area, whether as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise, whether with or without compensation, to any Person that is engaged in the Business; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, that for purposes of this Agreement, Participant may engage in (i) owning, directly or indirectly, solely as an investment, up to five percent (5%) of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) that is competitive or substantially similar to the Business; (ii) owning a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Participant does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund; or (iii) any activity consented to in advance in writing by the Company.
4.2. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit or encourage any customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them; or (b) seek to persuade any customer, such vendor, supplier or other business partner, or any prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates, to conduct with anyone else any business or activity which such customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner conducts, or such prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner could conduct, with the Company or any of its Affiliates; provided that these restrictions will apply (y) only with respect to those Persons who are or have been a business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates at any time within the six (6)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.2 or whose business has been solicited on behalf of the Company or any of the Affiliates by any of their officers, employees or agents within such six (6)-month period, other than by form letter, blanket mailing or published advertisement, and (z) only if Participant has performed work for such Person during Participant’s Employment or been introduced to, or otherwise had contact with, such Person as a result of Participant’s Employment or other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates or has had access to Confidential Information which would assist in Participant’s solicitation of such Person.

4.3. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, and to not assist any other Person to, directly or indirectly, (a) hire or engage, or solicit for hiring or engagement, any employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates or seek to persuade any such employee to discontinue employment or (b) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) an “employee” or an “independent contractor” of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any Person who was such at any time within the twelve (12)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.3 and (ii) an “independent contractor” means only a natural person independent contractor or an entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Agreement, the placement of general advertisements that may be targeted to a particular geographic or technical area but that are not specifically targeted toward employees or independent contractors of the Company shall not be considered solicitation.

5. Nondisparagement. Subject to the third to last sentence of Section 2.1 of this Agreement, Participant agrees that he or she will not disparage or criticize the Company, its Affiliates, their business, their management or their products or services, and that Participant will not otherwise do or say anything that could materially disrupt the good morale of employees of the Company or any of its Affiliates or could materially harm the interests or reputation of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

Enforcement of Covenants.

6.1. In signing this Agreement, Participant gives the Company assurance that Participant has carefully read and considered all of the restraints hereunder, has not relied on any agreements or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement, and has signed this Agreement knowingly and voluntarily. Participant agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its Affiliates, and are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Participant further agrees that, were Participant to breach any of the covenants contained herein, the damage to the Company and its Affiliates would be irreparable. Participant therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, will be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by Participant of any such covenants, without having to post bond, together, to the extent the Company prevails in securing any such relief, with an award of its reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred in enforcing its rights hereunder.

6.2. So that the Company may enjoy the full benefit of the covenants contained in Section 4 above, Participant agrees that the Restricted Period will be tolled, and will not run, during the period of any breach by Participant of such covenants. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, that provision will be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law. Participant agrees that each of the Company’s Affiliates will have the right to enforce Participant’s obligations to that Affiliate under this Agreement. No claimed breach of this Agreement or other violation of law attributed to the Company or any of its Affiliates, or change in the nature or scope of Participant’s Employment or other relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, will operate to excuse Participant from the performance of Participant’s obligations under this Agreement.

7. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

“Affiliates” has the meaning set forth in the Plan, provided that for purposes of Section 4 above, the term “Affiliate” shall exclude the TPG Investor, Intel, the Intel Investors (each as defined in the LLC Agreement) and all Affiliates of such entities other than the Company, its subsidiaries and any brother/sister entities acting in concert with the business or planning of the Company and its subsidiaries.

“Business” means (i) the business of security solutions related to computers, mobile devices, and networks, providing internet security products and services and/or (ii) any other business that the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged in or is actively planning to be engaged in, during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination.
“Confidential Information” means any and all information of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company which is not generally known by the public, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company, unless and to the extent that any such information (i) becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Participant’s acts or omissions, or (ii) was properly known to Participant, without restriction, prior to disclosure by the Company.

“Intellectual Property” means inventions, discoveries, developments, improvements, methods, processes, procedures, plans, projects, systems, techniques, strategies, information, compositions, works, concepts and ideas, or modifications or derivatives of any of the foregoing (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) (collectively, “Inventions”) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by Participant (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during Participant’s Employment that relate either to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates or to any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates or that result from any work performed by Participant for the Company or any of its Affiliates or that make use of Confidential Information or any of the equipment or facilities of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

8. Compliance with Other Agreements and Obligations. Participant represents and warrants that Participant’s Employment with the Company and the execution and performance of this Agreement will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which Participant is a party or is bound, and that Participant is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or other obligations to third parties or to any court order, judgment or decree that would affect the performance of Participant’s obligations hereunder or Participant’s duties and responsibilities to the Company. Participant will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company or an Affiliate, or induce the Company or any of its Affiliates to possess or use, any confidential or proprietary information of any previous employer or other third party without that party’s consent.

9. Entire Agreement; Severability; Modification. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between Participant and the Company, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not supersede any effective assignment of any invention or other intellectual property to the Company or any of its Affiliates and shall not constitute a waiver by the Company or any of its Affiliates of any right that any of them now has or may now have under any agreement imposing obligations on Participant with respect to confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation of employees, independent contractors or like obligations. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. This Agreement may not be modified or amended, and no breach will be deemed to be waived, unless agreed to in writing by Participant and an expressly authorized officer of the Company. Provisions of this Agreement will survive any termination if so provided in this Agreement or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purpose of other surviving provisions, including, without limitation, Sections 2-7.
10. Assignment. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without Participant’s consent to any of its Affiliates or to any Person with whom the Company will hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate or merge, or to whom the Company will hereafter transfer all or substantially all of its properties or assets. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Participant and the Company, and each of their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

11. At-Will Employment. Participant acknowledges that this Agreement is not meant to constitute a contract of employment for a specific duration or term, and that Participant’s employment with the Company is at-will. The Company and Participant will each retain the right to terminate Participant’s employment at any time, with or without notice or cause.

12. Choice of Law. This is a Delaware contract and will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of laws principles that could result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Participant agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of and in the State of Delaware in connection with any dispute arising out of this Agreement.
Intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties have signed this Agreement as of the day and year written above.

THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Award. (a) “Cause” means (i) gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with the performance of duties with respect to (A) Participant’s Employment or (B) Participant’s duties under any employment or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates; (ii) Participant’s commission of (or pleading guilty or pleading no contest or nolo contendere to) a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; (iii) the performance by Participant of any act or acts of fraud, disloyalty or dishonesty in connection with or relating to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates; (iv) material breach of any restrictive covenant relating to noncompetition or material breach of any other restrictive covenant applicable to Participant in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates (“Restrictive Covenants”); or (v) a material violation of the written policies or procedures of the Company or of any of its Affiliates or Participant’s causing substantial harm to the business reputation of any of them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Participant is party to an individual employment, severance-benefit, change-in control or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates (other than Intel Corporation) that contains a definition of “Cause” (or a correlative term), such definition will apply in lieu of the definition set forth above during the term of such agreement.

(b) [ ]

3. Cessation of Employment.

(a) Termination for Cause. In the event that Participant’s Employment is terminated for Cause (or Participant voluntarily terminates his or her Employment at a time when the Company or any of its Affiliates could terminate Participant for Cause) or upon the material violation of an applicable Restrictive Covenant, each portion of the Award (whether vested or unvested) and any and all Class A Units previously delivered thereunder shall be immediately forfeited for no consideration and Participant shall be required to repay to the Company, in cash and upon demand, the proceeds resulting from any sale or other disposition (including to the Company or any of its Affiliates) of Class A Units issued or issuable upon the vesting of the Award.

(b) Cessation of Employment other than for Cause. Except as set forth in Section 3(b) or Section 3(c), any unvested portion of the Award shall be automatically forfeited upon the termination of Participant’s Employment for any reason other than for Cause. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, upon and following the termination of Participant’s Employment for any reason other than for Cause or upon violation of a Restrictive Covenant, as described in Section 4(a) of this Award Agreement, any and all Class A Units received in respect of the Award will be subject to the repurchase provisions applicable to Management Incentive Units under Section 13.1(a) of the LLC Agreement.
4. Delivery of Class A Units or Cash. The Company shall, as soon as practicable following the vesting of any portion of the Award (but in no event later than thirty (30) days following the date on which the relevant portion of the Award vests), effect delivery of the Class A Units subject to such vested portion of the Award to Participant; provided, that if Participant becomes vested in any portion of the Award as a result of Participant’s termination of Employment without Cause or resignation for Good Reason in accordance with Section 3(c), then in lieu of delivery of the Class A Units subject to such portion of the Award, the Company may pay to Participant an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of the Class A Units underlying such portion on the date Participant’s Employment terminates.

5. Representations, Warranties, Covenants, and Acknowledgments of Participant. Participant hereby represents, warrants, covenants, acknowledges and agrees that:

   (a) Investment. Participant is acquiring the Award for Participant’s own account, and not for the account of any other Person. Participant is acquiring the Award for investment and not with a view to distribution or resale thereof except in compliance with applicable laws regulating securities.

   (b) Relation to the Company. Participant is presently an Employee of the Company or one of its Subsidiaries, and in such capacity has become personally familiar with the business of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries.

   (c) Access to Information. Participant has had the opportunity to ask questions of, and to receive answers from, the Company with respect to the terms and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and with respect to the business, affairs, financial conditions, and results of operations of the Company and its Affiliates.

   (d) Registration. Participant understands that the neither the Award nor the Class A Units underlying the Award have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable securities law, and that, subject to the further restrictions in the LLC Agreement, neither the Award nor the underlying Class A Units can be transferred by Participant unless such transfer is registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. The Company has made no agreements, covenants or undertakings whatsoever to register the transfer of the Award or the Class A Units under the Securities Act or any applicable securities law. The Company has made no representations, warranties, or covenants whatsoever as to whether any exemption from the Securities Act or any applicable securities law, including, without limitation, any exemption for limited sales in routine brokers’ transactions pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act, will be available. If an exemption under Rule 144 is available at all, it will not be available until at least one year from issuance of the Award and then not unless (a) a public trading market then exists in Class A Units (or a successor security thereto); (b) adequate information as to the Company’s financial and other affairs and operations is then available to the public; and (c) all other terms and conditions of Rule 144 have been satisfied.
(e) Public Trading. None of the Company’s equity securities are presently publicly-traded, and the Company has made no representations, covenants or agreements as to whether there will be a public market for any of its securities.

(f) Tax Advice. The Company has made no warranties or representations to Participant with respect to the income tax consequences of the transactions contemplated by this Award Agreement, and Participant is in no manner relying on the Company or its representatives for an assessment of such tax consequences.

(g) One-Time Award. The Award represents a one-time, discretionary award and shall not in any way be considered as part of Participant’s employment compensation, wages, entitlements, or any other similar compensation or benefits plan or scheme. Eligibility for awards under the Plan are determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion and eligibility for, or receipt of, an award in a certain fiscal year does not imply or guarantee entitlement to an award in any future fiscal years.

6. Binding Effect. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Award Agreement, the Plan and the LLC Agreement (including, without limitation, limitations on transfer), this Award Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the executors, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

7. Taxes.

   (a) Withholding. The Administrator will make such provision for the withholding of taxes as it deems necessary under applicable law; provided that Participant will make arrangements satisfactory to the Company (or an applicable Affiliate of the Company, if such Affiliate is involved in the administration of the Plan) for the payment and satisfaction of any income tax, social security tax, payroll tax, social taxes, applicable national or local taxes, or payment on account of other tax related to withholding obligations that arise by reason of granting, settling or vesting of RSUs or sale of Class A Units delivered in settlement of vested RSUs (whichever is applicable). If Participant does not make arrangements satisfactory to the Company (or an applicable Affiliate of the Company, if such Affiliate is involved in the administration of the Plan) for the payment and satisfaction of such taxes, the Administrator may, in its discretion, satisfy such taxes by withholding a number of Class A Units that would otherwise be issued under the Award that the Administrator determines has a Fair Market Value sufficient to satisfy such tax withholding obligations. Except to the extent the Administrator permits Participant to pay by other means, Participant shall remit cash in an amount sufficient to satisfy such taxes. The Company will not be required to issue or lift any restrictions on Class A Units delivered pursuant to Participant’s RSUs or to recognize any purported transfer of Class A Units until Participant’s obligations hereunder are satisfied.

   (b) Section 409A.

      (i) The Award is intended to be exempt from the rules of Section 409A and shall be construed accordingly. The Award may be modified at any time, in the Administrator’s discretion, so as to increase the likelihood of compliance with the rules of Section 409A as determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion. Each payment under this Award shall be treated as a “separate payment” under Section 409A.

(ii) All references in this Award Agreement to a termination of Employment or similar or correlative references shall be construed to require a “separation from service” (as defined in Treasury regulation 1.409A-1(h)) from the Company and from all other corporations and trades or businesses, if any, that would be treated as a single “service recipient” with the Company under Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(h)(3).

(iii) If Participant is deemed on the date of Participant’s termination of Employment to be a “specified employee” within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code, then, with respect to any payment that is considered nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A, to the extent applicable, payable on account of a “separation from service,” such payment will be made or provided on the date that is the earlier of (i) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of such “separation from service” and (b) the date of Participant’s death (the “Delay Period”). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments delayed pursuant to this Section 8(b)(iii) will be paid on the first business day following the expiration of the Delay Period in a lump sum.

8. Data Privacy. The Company and Participant’s employer hereby notify Participant of the following in relation to Participant’s personal data and the collection, processing and transfer of such data in relation to the Award and Participant’s participation in the Plan:

(a) the collection, processing and transfer of Participant’s personal data is necessary for the Company’s administration of the Plan and Participant’s participation in the Plan, and Participant’s denial and/or objection to the collection, processing and transfer of personal data may affect Participant’s ability to participate in the Plan. As such, Participant voluntarily acknowledges, consents and agrees (where required under applicable law) to the collection, use, processing and transfer of personal data as described herein.

(b) The Company and Participant’s employer hold certain personal information about Participant, including (but not limited to) Participant’s name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security number or other employee identification number, salary, nationality, job title, any equity interests or directorships held in the Company, details of all equity awards or any other entitlement to equity awarded, canceled, purchased, vested, exercised, unvested or outstanding in Participant’s favor for the purpose of managing and administering the Plan (collectively, the “Data”). The Data may be provided by Participant or collected, where lawful, from third parties, and the Company and Participant’s employer will process the Data for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing Participant’s participation in the Plan. Processing of the Data will take place through electronic and non-electronic means according to logics and procedures strictly correlated to the purposes for which the Data is collected and with confidentiality and security provisions as set forth by applicable laws and regulations in Participant’s country of residence. Data processing operations will be performed in a manner that minimizes the use of personal and identification data when such operations are unnecessary for the processing purposes sought. The Data will be accessible within the Company’s organization only by those persons requiring access for purposes of the implementation, administration and operation of the Plan and for Participant’s participation in the Plan.

(c) The Company and Participant’s employer will transfer Data as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of Participant’s participation in the Plan, and the Company and/or Participant’s employer may each further transfer Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the European Economic Area, the United States or elsewhere throughout the world. Participant hereby authorizes (where required under applicable law) the recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for purposes of implementing, administering and managing Participant’s participation in the Plan, including any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required for the administration of the Plan and/or the subsequent holding of equity interests on Participant’s behalf to a broker or other third party with whom Participant may elect to deposit any equity interest acquired pursuant to the Plan, subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the LLC Agreement and this Award Agreement. Participant may, at any time, exercise Participant’s rights provided under applicable personal data protection laws (if any), which may include the right to (i) obtain confirmation as to the existence of the Data, (ii) verify the content, origin and accuracy of the Data, (iii) request the integration, update, amendment, deletion, or blockage (for breach of applicable laws) of the Data, and (iv) oppose, for legal reasons, the collection, processing or transfer of the Data that is not necessary or required for the implementation, administration and/or operation of the Plan and Participant’s participation in the Plan. Participant may seek to exercise these rights by contacting Participant’s local human resources manager.

9. Survival of Representations and Warranties and Restrictive Covenants. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in Section 6 hereof shall survive until Participant and his or her Permitted Transferees no longer hold the Award or any of the Class A Units issued hereunder.

10. Unit Certificate Restrictive Legends. The certificates evidencing any Class A Units that are certificated may bear such restrictive legends as the Company and/or the Company’s counsel may deem necessary or advisable under applicable law or pursuant to this Award Agreement to evidence the restrictions applicable to such Class A Units.

11. Notices. All notices required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing deemed effectively given when delivered in person or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the other party hereto at the address shown beneath his or her or its respective signature to this Award Agreement, or at such other address or addresses as either party shall designate to the other in writing.

12. Successors and Assigns. The rights, duties, and obligations under this Award Agreement and the Plan may not be assigned by Participant or the Company, except that this Award Agreement shall be assignable by the Company to any successor entity, including an entity acquiring all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company. The provisions of this Award Agreement shall be binding on any such assignee.

13. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Award Agreement, the Plan, and the LLC Agreement, constitute the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties, including, without limitation, any offer letter or other document or communication to the extent related to any long-term incentive awards of the Company or its Affiliates or the terms thereof. There are no agreements, understandings, specific restrictions, warranties, or representations relating to said subject matter between the parties other than those set forth herein or herein provided for. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that (a) to the extent of the Fair Market Value (determined as of the Grant Date) of the Class A Units underlying the Award, he or she has elected to receive the Award in lieu of a Cash Award of equal value, (b) none of the Company, the Intel Investors, the TPG Investors or any Affiliate of any of them will have any liability with respect to such election other than the Company’s obligations as expressly set forth herein, and (c) the TPG Investors, the Intel Investors and their Affiliates are intended third party beneficiaries of this sentence. This Award Agreement may be amended only in accordance with Section 10 of the Plan.

14. Waivers. The failure of a party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Award Agreement in any one or more instances shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon strict compliance with such provision in the future. In the event of any ambiguity in this Award Agreement or any matters as to which this Award Agreement is silent, the Plan will govern.

15. Invalidity. In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Award Agreement or any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or other portion thereof shall be deemed to be illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or portion thereof shall be modified or deleted in such a manner so as to make this Award Agreement, as modified, legal and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

16. Number; Titles. As used in this Award Agreement, the singular form shall include, if appropriate, the plural. The headings used in this Award Agreement are solely for the convenience and reference of the parties and are not intended to be descriptive of the entire contents of any paragraph and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms, provisions, or construction thereof.

17. Governing Law. The validity, construction and effect of this Award Agreement, and of any determinations or decisions made by the Administrator relating to this Award Agreement, and the rights of any and all Persons having, or claiming to have, any interest under this Award Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to otherwise governing principles of conflicts of law. Any suit with respect to this Award Agreement will be brought in the federal or state courts in the districts which include the State of Delaware, and Participant agrees and submits to the personal jurisdiction and venue thereof.
18. Counterparts. This Award Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, any of which may be executed and transmitted by facsimile or electronic means (including “pdf”), and each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

19. Accession to LLC Agreement. By execution of this Award Agreement, Participant hereby agrees, in respect of any Class A Units delivered to him or her under this Award Agreement, to be bound by the terms of the LLC Agreement as a Member, and such terms are hereby incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full, except as provided herein. Participant further agrees that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the LLC Agreement, any Class A Units delivered under this Award shall entitle Participant to the rights of, and be subject to the terms, conditions, and obligations applicable to, Management Incentive Units for purposes of Sections 11-14 of the LLC Agreement and shall be deemed to be Management Incentive Units (and not Class A Units) for all purposes of such Sections; provided that for purposes of Section 13.1(a) of the LLC Agreement the Company’s call rights following Participant’s termination of Employment (or, if applicable, following Participant’s commencement of employment or other services to a Competitor (as defined in the LLC Agreement)) shall arise at the later of (x) such termination (or, if applicable, the date on which the Company obtained actual knowledge of the commencement of such employment or other service relationship) or (y) the date that is six (6) months plus one (1) day following the date on which any Class A Units were delivered hereunder. Participant acknowledges and agrees that he or she will not be treated as an Affiliate of the TPG Investor for purposes of Section 12.2 of the LLC Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 20 shall survive the termination of this Award Agreement.

20. Power of Attorney. Participant hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Administrator (or its designee) with full power of substitution, acting jointly or severally, as his or her attorney-in-fact and agent to sign, execute and deliver, in Participant's name and on his or her behalf, all or any such agreement, deeds, instruments, documents and/or any counterpart thereof or certificates or to take any such action as it deems necessary from time to time or as is required under any applicable law to admit Participant as a Member of the Company or to conduct the business of the Company, including (without limitation) the power and authority to sign, execute and deliver (or attach signature pages to) (i) the LLC Agreement, (ii) any amendment to the LLC Agreement adopted in accordance with its terms, (iii) any agreements, deeds, instruments or documents reasonably necessary to satisfy Participant’s obligations under Section 13 of the LLC Agreement (iv) any proxy related to the 280G Vote (as defined in the LLC Agreement) authorized by Section 20.3 of the LLC Agreement, under which the Chief Executive Officer of the Company or a substitute appointed by the TPG Investors may approve or disapprove certain compensatory payments subject to Section 280G of the Code or (v) such documents as the Administrator deems necessary in good faith to effectuate the customary lock-up following a Public Offering as set forth in Section 11.1(e) of the LLC Agreement. This power of attorney is given to secure the obligations of Participant hereunder and deemed coupled with an interest of the Administrator and is irrevocable.
Further Representations and Acknowledgements of Participant.

(a) Participant hereby represents that he or she has read the Plan and is familiar with the Plan’s terms. Participant hereby acknowledges that he or she has carefully read this Award Agreement and agrees, on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of his/her beneficiaries, estate and permitted assigns, to be bound by all of the provisions set forth herein and that the Award and Class A Units are subject to all of the terms and provisions of this Award Agreement and of the Plan, as the Plan may be amended in accordance with its respective terms. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Award Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall control.

(b) Participant acknowledges that nothing in this Award Agreement (including exhibits hereto) alters the nature of employment with Company or any Affiliate of the Company. Participant acknowledges having been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult with financial or legal advisors regarding the consequences of Participant’s acceptance of the grant on the terms and conditions set forth in this Award Agreement.

1. DEFINED TERMS

Exhibit A, which is incorporated herein by reference, defines certain terms used in the Plan and includes certain operational rules related to those terms.

2. PURPOSE

The Plan has been established to advance the interests of the Company by providing for the grant to Participants of Stock and Stock-based Awards.

3. ADMINISTRATION

The Administrator shall administer the Plan and shall have discretionary authority, subject only to the express provisions of the Plan, to interpret the Plan and any Award Agreements; to determine eligibility for and grant Awards; to determine, alter or amend the exercise price, base value from which appreciation is measured, or purchase price, if any, applicable to any Award; to determine, modify, accelerate or waive the terms and conditions of any Award; to determine the form of settlement of Awards (whether in cash, shares of Stock, other Awards or other property); to prescribe forms, rules and procedures relating to the Plan and Awards; and to otherwise do all things necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan or any Award. Determination made under the Plan and/or with respect to Awards need not be uniform among Participants. All determinations of the Administrator made with respect to the Plan or any Award are conclusive and shall bind all persons.

4. LIMITS ON AWARDS UNDER THE PLAN

(a) Number of Shares. Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 7(b), the maximum number of shares of Stock that may be issued in satisfaction of Equity Awards under the Plan is ________ shares (the number of shares available under the Plan from time to time, the “Share Pool”). The Share Pool shall increase annually on the first day of each fiscal year beginning with the first day of the second fiscal year beginning after the Date of Adoption and ending with the first day of the tenth fiscal year beginning after the Date of Adoption, in each case, with such increase equal to the lesser of (i) 5% of the sum of (x) the number of shares of Stock, plus (y) the number of FTW units (excluding those held by the Company), in each case, outstanding as of the last day of the preceding fiscal year, and (ii) the amount determined by the Board. Up to ________ shares of Stock in the Share Pool may be issued in satisfaction of ISOs, but nothing in this Section 4(a) will be construed as requiring that any, or any fixed number of, ISOs be granted under the Plan. For purposes of this Section 4(a), the number of shares of Stock issued in satisfaction of Equity Awards will be determined (i) by reducing the Share Pool at the time an applicable Award is issued by the maximum number of shares of Stock that can be delivered under an Award, even if such Award is denominated in a lesser number of Shares; (ii) by reducing the Share Pool at the time SARs are issued by the full number of shares covered by a SAR any portion of which is settled in Stock (and not only the number of shares of Stock delivered in settlement); (iii) after giving effect to clauses (i) and (ii) when an Award is issued, by subsequently increasing the Share Pool by the number of shares of Stock “net” withheld by the Company in payment of the exercise price or purchase price of an Award or in satisfaction of tax withholding requirements with respect to an Award, and (iv) after giving effect to clauses (i) and (ii) when an Award is issued (to the extent applicable), by increasing the Share Pool by any shares of Stock underlying any portion of an Award issued under this Plan or any portion of an award issued under the Prior Plan (or Class A Units or Management Incentive Units of FTW subject to an award under the Prior Plan) that is settled in cash or that expires, becomes unexercisable, terminates or is forfeited to or repurchased by the Company without the issuance (or retention, in the case of Restricted Stock or Unrestricted Stock) of Stock. For the avoidance of doubt, the Share Pool will (i) not be decreased by awards or shares of Stock granted or issued under the Prior Plan and (ii) not be increased by any shares of Stock (or any shares of Common Stock exchanged for Class A Units or Management Incentive Units of FTW) delivered under the Plan or the Prior Plan that are subsequently repurchased using proceeds directly attributable to Stock Option exercises. The limits set forth in this Section 4(a) will be construed to comply with the applicable requirements of Section 422.

(b) Substitute Awards. The Administrator may grant Substitute Awards under the Plan. To the extent consistent with the requirements of Section 422 and the regulations thereunder and other applicable legal requirements (including applicable stock exchange requirements), shares of Stock issued in respect of Substitute Awards will be in addition to and will not reduce the Share Pool. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in Section 4(a) to the contrary, if any Substitute Award is settled in cash or expires, becomes unexercisable, terminates or is forfeited to or repurchased by the Company without the issuance (or retention, in the case of Restricted Stock or Unrestricted Stock) of Stock, the shares of Stock previously subject to such Award will not increase the Share Pool or otherwise be available for future issuance under the Plan. The Administrator will determine the extent to which the terms and conditions of the Plan apply to Substitute Awards, if at all, provided, however, that Substitute Awards will not be subject to the limits described in Section 4(d) below.

(c) Type of Shares. Stock issued by the Company under the Plan may be authorized but unissued Stock, treasury Stock or previously issued Stock acquired by the Company. The Company shall not be required to issue any fractional shares of Stock under the Plan and may make such rules for the treatment of fractional shares of Stock (or other securities issued in respect of an Award or portion thereof) as it deems appropriate (including, without limitation, rounding down the number of securities deliverable and, with due regard for Section 409A to the extent applicable and other applicable tax considerations, providing that a fractional security cannot be acquired until aggregated with other fractional securities such that a whole security is owned and/or exercisable).

(d) Director Limits. The maximum grant date fair value of Equity Awards granted to any Director in any fiscal year for his or her services as a Director, together with the aggregate value of all compensation granted or paid to any Director with respect to any fiscal year, including Awards granted under the Plan and cash fees or other compensation paid by the Company to such Director outside of the Plan, in each case, for his or her services as a Director during such fiscal year, may not exceed $600,000 in the aggregate, calculating the value of any Equity Awards based on the grant date fair value in accordance with the Accounting Rules, assuming maximum payout levels to the extent applicable and determined without regard to any deferrals in accordance with any deferred compensation arrangement of the Company or any of its Affiliates. The limits in this Section 4(d) will not apply to an Award or shares of Stock granted pursuant to a Director’s election to receive an Award or shares of Stock in lieu of cash retainers or other fees, to the extent such Award or shares of Stock have a grant date fair value equal to the value of such cash retainers or other fees.

5. ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

The Administrator will select Participants from among current and prospective Employees and Directors of, and consultants and advisors to, the Company and its Affiliates. Eligibility for ISOs is limited to individuals described in the first sentence of this Section 5 who are employees of the Company or of a “parent corporation” or “subsidiary corporation” of the Company as those terms are defined in Section 424 of the Code. Eligibility for Stock Options, other than ISOs, and SARs is limited to individuals described in the first sentence of this Section 5 who are providing direct services on the date of grant of the Award to the Company or to an Affiliate that would be described in the first sentence of Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(iii)(E) of the Treasury Regulations.

6. RULES APPLICABLE TO AWARDS

(a) All Awards.

(1) Award Provisions. The Administrator will determine the terms and conditions of all Awards, subject to the limitations provided herein. No term of an Award shall provide for automatic “reload” grants of additional Awards upon the exercise of a Stock Option or SAR. By accepting (or, under such rules as the Administrator may prescribe, being deemed to have accepted) an Award, the Participant will be deemed to have agreed to the terms and conditions of the Award and the Plan. Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, Substitute Awards may contain terms and conditions that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions specified herein, as determined by the Administrator. Each Award will be granted pursuant to an applicable Award Agreement.

(2) Term of Plan. No Awards may be made after ten (10) years from the Date of Adoption, but previously granted Awards may continue beyond that date in accordance with their terms.

(3) Transferability. Neither ISOs nor, except as the Administrator otherwise expressly provides in accordance with the third sentence of this Section 6(a)(3), other Awards may be transferred other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. During a Participant’s lifetime, ISOs and, except as the Administrator otherwise expressly provides in accordance with the third sentence of this Section 6(a)(3), SARs and NSOs may be exercised only by the Participant. The Administrator may permit the gratuitous transfer (i.e., transfer not for value) of Awards other than ISOs, subject to applicable securities and other laws and such terms and conditions as the Administrator may determine.
(4) Vesting; Exercisability. The Administrator will determine the time or times at which an Award vests or becomes exercisable and the terms and conditions on which a Stock Option or SAR remains exercisable. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator may at any time accelerate the vesting and/or exercisability of an Award (or any portion thereof), regardless of any adverse or potentially adverse tax or other consequences resulting from such acceleration. Unless the Administrator expressly provides otherwise, however, the following rules will apply if a Participant’s Employment ceases:

(A) Except as provided in (B) and (C) below, immediately upon the cessation of the Participant’s Employment each Stock Option and SAR (or portion thereof) that is then held by the Participant or by the Participant’s permitted transferees, if any, will cease to be exercisable and will terminate and each other Award that is then held by the Participant or by the Participant’s permitted transferees, if any, to the extent not then vested will be forfeited.

(B) Subject to (C) and (D) below, each vested and unexercised Stock Option and SAR (or portion thereof) held by the Participant or the Participant’s permitted transferees, if any, immediately prior to the cessation of the Participant’s Employment, to the extent then exercisable, will remain exercisable for the lesser of (i) a period of three months following such cessation of Employment or (ii) the period ending on the latest date on which such Stock Option or SAR could have been exercised without regard to this Section 6(a)(4), and will thereupon immediately terminate.

(C) Subject to (D) below, each vested and unexercised Stock Option and SAR (or portion thereof) held by a Participant or the Participant’s permitted transferees, if any, immediately prior to the cessation of the Participant’s Employment due to his or her death or by the Company or an Affiliate due to his or her Disability, to the extent then exercisable, will remain exercisable for the lesser of (i) the one-year period ending on the first anniversary of such cessation of Employment or (ii) the period ending on the latest date on which such Stock Option or SAR could have been exercised without regard to this Section 6(a)(4), and will thereupon immediately terminate.

(D) All Awards (whether or not vested or exercisable) held by a Participant or the Participant’s permitted transferees, if any, immediately prior to the cessation of the Participant’s Employment will immediately terminate upon such cessation of Employment if the termination is for Cause or occurs in circumstances that in the determination of the Administrator would have constituted grounds for the Participant’s Employment to be terminated for Cause (in each case, without regard to the lapping of any required notice or cure periods in connection therewith).

(5) Recovery of Compensation. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement, the Administrator may cause any outstanding Award (whether or not vested or exercisable), the proceeds from the exercise or disposition of any Award or Stock acquired under any Award, and any other amounts received in respect of any Award or Stock acquired under any Award to be forfeited and disgorged to the Company (or its designated Affiliate), with interest and other related earnings, if the Participant to whom the Award was granted is not in compliance with any provision of the Plan or any applicable Award Agreement or any non-competition, non-solicitation, no-hire, non-disparagement, confidentiality, invention assignment, or other restrictive covenant by which he or she is bound. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement, each Award will be subject to any policy of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates that provides for forfeiture, disgorgement, recoupment or clawback with respect to incentive compensation that includes Awards under the Plan and will be further subject to forfeiture and disgorgement to the extent required by law or applicable stock exchange listing standards, including, without limitation, Section 10D of the Exchange Act. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement, each Participant, by accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, agrees (or will be deemed to have agreed) to the terms of this Section 6(a)(5) and any clawback, recoupment or similar policy of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates and further agrees (or will be deemed to have further agreed) to cooperate fully with the Administrator, and to cause any and all permitted transferees of the Participant to cooperate fully with the Administrator, to effectuate any forfeiture or disgorgement described in this Section 6(a)(5). Neither the Administrator nor the Company nor any other person, other than the Participant and his or her permitted transferees, if any, will be responsible for any adverse tax or other consequences to a Participant or his or her permitted transferees, if any, that may arise in connection with this Section 6(a)(5).

(6) Taxes. The grant of an Award and the issuance, delivery, vesting and retention of Stock, cash or other property under an Award are conditioned upon the full satisfaction by the Participant of all tax and other withholding requirements with respect to the Award. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement, the Administrator will prescribe such rules for the withholding of taxes and other amounts with respect to any Award as it deems necessary or appropriate. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement but without limitation to the foregoing, the Company or any of its Affiliates will have the authority and the right to deduct or withhold (by any means set forth herein or in an Award agreement), or require a Participant to remit to the Company, an Affiliate or a subsidiary of the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy all U.S. and non-U.S. federal, state and local income tax, social insurance, payroll tax, fringe benefits tax, payment on account or other tax-related items related to participation in the Plan and legally applicable to the Participant and required by law to be withheld (including, any amount deemed by the Company, in its discretion, to be an appropriate charge to the Participant even if legally applicable to the Company or any of its Affiliates). The Administrator, in its sole discretion, may (but is not required to) hold back shares of Stock from an Equity Award, permit a Participant to tender previously-owned shares of Stock, in satisfaction of tax or other withholding requirements (but not in excess of the amount payable in respect of an Award based on maximum statutory withholding rates in the applicable jurisdiction(s), consistent with the Award being subject to equity accounting treatment under the Accounting Rules). Subject to the terms of any applicable Award Agreement, the Administrator may also permit or require a Participant to enter into a broker-assisted “same day sale” arrangement in satisfaction of tax or other withholding requirements, up to the amount payable in respect of an applicable portion of an Award based on maximum statutory withholding rates in the applicable jurisdiction(s). Any amounts withheld pursuant to this Section 6(a)(6) or any applicable Award Agreement will be treated as though such amounts had been made directly to the Participant. In addition, the Company may, to the extent permitted by law, deduct any such tax and other withholding amounts from any payment of any kind otherwise due to a Participant from the Company or an Affiliate.

(7) Dividend Equivalents. Subject to the terms of an applicable Award Agreement, the Administrator may provide for the payment of amounts (on terms and subject to conditions established by the Administrator) in lieu of cash dividends or other distributions with respect to Stock subject to an Award whether or not the holder of such Award is otherwise entitled to share in the actual dividend or distribution in respect of such Award; provided, however, that, except as provided by the Administrator, (a) dividends or dividend equivalents relating to an Award that, at the dividend payment date, remains subject to a risk of forfeiture (whether service-based or performance-based) shall be subject to the same risk of forfeiture as applies to the underlying Award and (b) no dividends or dividend equivalents shall be payable with respect to Options or SARs. Any entitlement to dividend equivalents or similar entitlements will be established and administered either consistent with an exemption from, or in compliance with, the applicable requirements of Section 409A. Dividends or dividend equivalent amounts payable in respect of Awards that are subject to restrictions may be subject to such additional limitations or other restrictions as the Administrator may impose.

(8) Rights Limited. Nothing in the Plan or any Award will be construed as giving any person the right to be granted an Award or to continued Employment with the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries, or any rights as a stockholder except as to shares of Stock actually issued under the Plan. The loss of existing or potential profit in any Award will not constitute an element of damages in the event of a termination of a Participant’s Employment for any reason, even if the termination is in violation of an obligation of the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries to the Participant.

(9) Coordination with Other Plans. Shares of Stock and/or Awards under the Plan may be issued or granted in tandem with, or in satisfaction of or substitution for, other Awards under the Plan or awards made under other compensatory plans or programs of the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries. For example, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, awards under other compensatory plans or programs of the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries may be settled in Stock (including, without limitation, Unrestricted Stock) under the Plan if the Administrator so determines, in which case the shares delivered will be treated as awarded under the Plan (and will reduce the Share Pool).

(A) Without limiting the generality of Section 11(b) hereof, each Award will contain such terms as the Administrator determines and will be construed and administered, such that the Award either qualifies for an exemption from the requirements of Section 409A or satisfies such requirements.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or any Award Agreement, the Administrator may unilaterally amend, modify or terminate the Plan or any outstanding Award, including but not limited to changing the form of the Award, if the Administrator determines that such amendment, modification or termination is necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of an additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A.

(C) If a Participant is determined on the date of the Participant’s termination of Employment to be a “specified employee” within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code, then, with regard to any payment that is considered nonqualified deferred compensation under the Plan or otherwise under Section 409A, to the extent applicable, payable on account of a “separation from service”, such payment will be made or provided on the date that is the earlier of (i) the first business day following the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of such “separation from service” and (ii) the date of the Participant’s death (the “Delay Period”). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments delayed pursuant to this Section 6(a)(10)(C) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single lump sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) will be paid, without interest, on the first business day following the expiration of the Delay Period in a lump sum and any remaining payments due under the Award will be paid in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them in the applicable Award Agreement.

(D) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment made under the Plan or any Award will be treated as a separate payment.

(E) With regard to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A, to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a change in control of the Company or other similar event, to the extent required to avoid the imposition of an additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A, no amount will be payable unless such change in control constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

(b) Stock Options and SARs.

(1) Time and Manner of Exercise. Unless the Administrator expressly provides otherwise, no Stock Option or SAR will be deemed to have been exercised until the Administrator receives a notice of exercise in a form acceptable to the Administrator that is signed by the appropriate person and accompanied by the payment required under the Award. The Administrator may limit or restrict the exercisability of any Stock Option or SAR in its discretion, including in connection with any blackout periods, market limitations, Change in Control or other corporate transactions or events. Any attempt to exercise a Stock Option or SAR by any person other than the Participant will not be given effect unless the Administrator has received such evidence as it may require that the person exercising the Award has the right to do so.

(2) Exercise Price. The exercise price (or the base value from which appreciation is to be measured) per share of each Award requiring exercise must be no less than 100% (in the case of an ISO granted to a 10-percent stockholder within the meaning of Section 422(b)(6) of the Code, 110%) of the Fair Market Value of a share of Stock, determined as of the date of grant of the Award, or such higher amount as the Administrator may determine in connection with the grant.

(3) Payment of Exercise Price. Where the exercise of an Award (or portion thereof) is to be accompanied by a payment, payment of the exercise price must be made by cash or check acceptable to the Administrator or, if so permitted by the Administrator and if legally permissible, (i) through the delivery of previously acquired unrestricted shares of Stock, or the withholding of unrestricted shares of Stock otherwise issuable upon exercise, in either case that have a Fair Market Value equal to the exercise price; (ii) through a broker-assisted cashless exercise program acceptable to the Administrator; (iii) by other means acceptable to the Administrator; or (iv) by any combination of the foregoing permissible forms of payment. The delivery of previously acquired shares in payment of the exercise price under clause (i) above may be accomplished either by actual delivery or by constructive delivery through attestation of ownership, subject to such rules as the Administrator may prescribe.
4. Maximum Term. The maximum term of Stock Options and SARs must not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant (or five years from the date of grant in the case of an ISO granted to a 10-percent stockholder described in Section 6(b)(2) above); provided that, notwithstanding anything in an applicable Award Agreement to the contrary, if a Participant is still holding an outstanding but unexercised NSO or SAR ten (10) years from the date of grant (or, in the case of an NSO or SAR with a maximum term of less than ten (10) years, such maximum term), is prohibited by applicable law or a written policy of the Company applicable to similarly situated employees from engaging in any open-market sales of Stock, and if at such time the Stock (or other securities received in respect of an Award or any portion thereof) is publicly traded (as determined by the Administrator), the maximum term of such Award will instead be deemed to expire on the thirtieth (30th) day following the date the Participant is no longer prohibited from engaging in such open market sales.

5. No Repricing. Except in connection with a corporate transaction involving the Company (which term includes, without limitation, any stock dividend, stock split, extraordinary cash dividend, recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination or exchange of shares, in each case, determined consistent with the Accounting Rules) or as otherwise contemplated by Section 7 below, the Company may not, without obtaining stockholder approval, (i) amend the terms of outstanding Stock Options or SARs to reduce the exercise price or base value of such Stock Options or SARs, (ii) cancel outstanding Stock Options or SARs in exchange for Stock Options or SARs that have an exercise price or base value that is less than the exercise price or base value of the original Stock Options or SARs, or (iii) cancel outstanding Stock Options or SARs that have an exercise price or base value greater than the Fair Market Value of a share of Stock on the date of such cancellation in exchange for cash or other consideration.

7. EFFECT OF CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

   (a) Mergers, etc. Except as otherwise expressly provided in an Award Agreement or by the Administrator (subject to any limitations set forth in the Award Agreement), the following provisions will apply in the event of a Change in Control:

   1. Assumption or Substitution. If the Change in Control is one in which there is an acquiring or surviving entity, the Administrator may provide for (i) the assumption or continuation of some or all outstanding Awards or any portion thereof or (ii) the grant of new awards in substitution therefor by the acquiror or survivor or an affiliate of the acquiror or survivor.

   2. Cash-Out of Awards. Subject to Section 7(a)(5) below, the Administrator may provide for payment (a “cash-out”), with respect to some or all Awards or any portion thereof (including only the vested portion thereof, with the unvested portion terminating as provided in subsection 7(a)(4) below), equal in the case of each applicable Equity Award or portion thereof to the excess, if any, of (i) the Fair Market Value of a share of Stock multiplied by the number of shares of Stock subject to the Award or such portion, minus (ii) the aggregate exercise or purchase price, if any, of such Award or such portion thereof (or, in the case of a SAR, the aggregate base... value above which appreciation is measured), in each case, on such payment and other terms and subject to such conditions (which need not be the same as the terms and conditions applicable to holders of Stock generally) as the Administrator determines, including that any amounts paid in respect of such Award in connection with the Change in Control be placed in escrow or otherwise made subject to such restrictions as the Administrator deems appropriate. For the avoidance of doubt, if the per share exercise or purchase price (or base value) of an Equity Award or portion thereof is equal to or greater than the Fair Market Value of one share of Stock, such Award or portion may be cancelled with no payment due hereunder or otherwise in respect thereof.

(3) Acceleration of Certain Awards. Subject to Section 7(a)(5) below, the Administrator may provide that any Award requiring exercise will become exercisable, in full or in part, and/or that the issuance of any shares of Stock remaining issuable under any outstanding Award of Stock Units (including Restricted Stock Units and Performance Awards to the extent consisting of Stock Units) will be accelerated, in full or in part, in each case on a basis that gives the holder of the Award a reasonable opportunity, as determined by the Administrator, following the exercise of the Award or the issuance of the shares, as the case may be, to participate as a stockholder in the Change in Control.

(4) Termination of Awards upon Consummation of Change in Control. Except as the Administrator may otherwise determine, each Award will automatically terminate (and in the case of outstanding shares of Restricted Stock, will automatically be forfeited) immediately upon the consummation of the Change in Control, other than (i) any Award that is assumed, continued or substituted for pursuant to Section 7(a)(1) above, and (ii) any Cash Award that by its terms, or as a result of action taken by the Administrator, continues following the Change in Control.

(5) Additional Limitations. Any share of Stock and any cash or other property or other award delivered pursuant to Section 7(a)(1), Section 7(a)(2) or Section 7(a)(3) above with respect to an Award may, in the discretion of the Administrator, contain such restrictions, if any, as the Administrator deems appropriate in its sole discretion, including to reflect any performance or other vesting conditions to which the Award was subject and that did not lapse (and were not satisfied) in connection with the Change in Control (e.g., the Administrator may determine that performance conditions applicable to an Award (or portion thereof) were not met as of the time of a Change in Control and therefore that the Award (or such portion) is forfeited for no consideration in connection with the Change in Control, or may deem performance conditions met at a specified level in connection with a Change in Control, in its discretion). For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, a cash-out under Section 7(a)(2) above or an acceleration under Section 7(a)(3) above will not, in and of itself, be treated as the lapsing (or satisfaction) of a performance or other vesting condition. In the case of Restricted Stock that does not vest and is not forfeited in connection with the Change in Control, the Administrator may require that any amounts delivered, exchanged or otherwise paid in respect of such Stock in connection with the Change in Control be placed in escrow or otherwise made subject to such restrictions as the Administrator deems appropriate to carry out the intent of the Plan.

(6) Uniform Treatment Not Required. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrator need not treat Participants or Awards (or portions thereof) in a uniform manner, and may treat different Participants and/or Awards differently, in connection with a Change in Control.
(b) Changes in and Distributions with Respect to Stock.

1. Basic Adjustment Provisions. In the event of a stock dividend, stock split or combination of shares (including a reverse stock split), merger, spin-off transaction, extraordinary dividend or distribution, recapitalization or other change in the Company’s capital structure that constitutes an equity restructuring, in each case, determined consistent with the Accounting Rules, the Administrator shall make appropriate adjustments (as the Administrator determines in its sole discretion) to the Share Pool, the number and kind of shares of stock or securities underlying Equity Awards then outstanding or subsequently granted, any exercise or purchase prices (or base values) relating to Awards and any other provision of Awards affected by such change. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrator may determine in its sole discretion in any such case that no adjustment is appropriate in the event that cash or other property is provided (or may be provided subject to vesting or other conditions) in lieu of an adjustment to the Award (or portion thereof).

2. Certain Other Adjustments. The Administrator may also make adjustments of the type described in Section 7(b)(1) above to take into account distributions to stockholders other than those provided for in Sections 7(a) and 7(b)(1) above, or any other event, if the Administrator determines that adjustments are appropriate to avoid distortion in the operation of the Plan or any Award, having due regard for the qualification of ISOs under Section 422, the requirements of Section 409A, to the extent applicable, and the Accounting Rules.

3. Continuing Application of Plan Terms. References in the Plan to shares of Stock will be construed to include any stock, securities, cash-based arrangements or other property resulting from an adjustment pursuant to this Section 7.

8. LEGAL CONDITIONS ON DELIVERY OF STOCK

The Company will not be obligated to issue any shares of Stock pursuant to the Plan or to remove any restriction from shares of Stock previously issued under the Plan until: (i) the Company is satisfied, in its sole discretion, that all legal matters in connection with the issuance of such shares have been addressed and resolved; (ii) if the outstanding Stock is at the time of issuance listed on any stock exchange or national market system, the shares to be issued have been listed or authorized to be listed on such exchange or system upon official notice of issuance; and (iii) all conditions of the Award have been satisfied or waived. The Company may require, as a condition to the exercise of an Award or the issuance of shares of Stock under an Award, such representations or agreements as counsel for the Company may consider appropriate to avoid violation of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any applicable state or non-U.S. securities law. Any Stock issued under the Plan will be evidenced in such manner as the Administrator determines appropriate, including book-entry registration or delivery of stock certificates. In the event that the Administrator determines that stock certificates will be issued in connection with Stock issued under the Plan, the Administrator may require that such certificates bear an appropriate legend reflecting any restriction on transfer applicable to such Stock, and the Company may hold the certificates pending the lapse of the applicable restrictions.
9. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Administrator may at any time or times amend the Plan or any outstanding Award for any purpose which may at the time be permitted by applicable law, and may at any time terminate the Plan as to any future grants of Awards; provided, however, that except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or the applicable Award, the Administrator may not, without the Participant's consent, alter the terms of an Award so as to affect materially and adversely the Participant's rights under the Award, unless the Administrator expressly reserved the right to do so in the Plan or at the time the applicable Award was granted. Any amendments to the Plan will be conditioned upon stockholder approval only to the extent, if any, such approval is required by applicable law (including the Code) or stock exchange requirements, as determined by the Administrator. For the avoidance of doubt, without limiting the Administrator's rights hereunder, no adjustment to any Award pursuant to the terms of Section 7 or Section 12 will be treated as an amendment requiring a Participant's consent.

10. OTHER COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS

The existence of the Plan or the grant of any Award will not affect the right of the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries to grant any person bonuses or other compensation in addition to Awards under the Plan.

(a) Waiver of Jury Trial. By accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, each Participant waives (or will be deemed to have waived), to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, any right to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim concerning any rights under the Plan or any Award, or under any amendment, waiver, consent, instrument, document or other agreement delivered or which in the future may be delivered in connection therewith, and agrees (or will be deemed to have agreed) that any such action, proceedings or counterclaim will be tried before a court and not before a jury, subject to the last sentence of this Section 11(a). By accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, each Participant certifies that no officer, representative, or attorney of the Company or any of its Affiliates has represented, expressly or otherwise, that the Company would not, in the event of any action, proceeding or counterclaim, seek to enforce the foregoing waivers. Nonetheless anything to the contrary in the Plan, nothing herein is to be construed as limiting the ability of the Company and a Participant to agree (or superseding any prior agreement) to submit any dispute arising under the terms of the Plan or any Award to binding arbitration or as limiting the ability of the Company to require any individual to agree to submit such disputes to binding arbitration as a condition of receiving an Award hereunder.

(b) Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or any Award, none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates, nor any of its subsidiaries, nor the Administrator, nor any person acting on behalf of the Company, its Affiliates, any of its subsidiaries, or the Administrator, will be liable to any Participant, to any permitted transferee, to the estate or beneficiary of any Participant or any permitted transferee, or to any other person by reason of any acceleration of income, any additional tax, or any penalty, interest or other liability asserted by reason of the failure of an Award to satisfy the requirements of Section 422 or Section 409A or by reason of Section 4999 of the Code (or, in each case, any similar state or local tax law) or otherwise asserted with respect to any Award.
(c) Unfunded Plan. The Company’s obligations under the Plan are unfunded, and no Participant will have any right to specific assets of the Company in respect of any Equity Award. Participants will be general unsecured creditors of the Company with respect to any amounts due or payable under the Plan.

12. RULES FOR PARTICIPANTS SUBJECT TO NON-U.S. LAWS

The Administrator may at any time and from time to time (including before or after an Award is granted) establish, adopt, or revise any rules and regulations as it may deem necessary or advisable to administer the Plan for Participants based outside of the U.S. and/or subject to the laws of countries other than the U.S., including by establishing one or more sub-plans, supplements or appendices under the Plan or any Award Agreement for the purpose of complying or facilitating compliance with non-U.S. laws or taking advantage of tax favorable treatment or for any other legal or administrative reason determined by the Administrator. Any such sub-plan, supplement or appendix may contain, in each case, (i) such limitations on the Administrator’s discretion under the Plan and (ii) such additional or different terms and conditions, as the Administrator deems necessary or desirable and will be deemed to be part of the Plan but will apply only to Participants within the group to which the sub-plan, supplement or appendix applies (as determined by the Administrator); provided that no sub-plan, supplement or appendix, rule or regulation established pursuant to this provision shall increase the Share Pool or cause a violation of any U.S. or non-U.S. law or regulation.

13. GOVERNING LAW

(a) Certain Requirements of Corporate Law. Equity Awards and shares of Stock will be granted, issued and administered consistent with the requirements of applicable Delaware law relating to the issuance of stock and the consideration to be received therefor, and with the applicable requirements of the stock exchanges or other trading systems on which the Stock is listed or entered for trading, in each case as determined by the Administrator.

(b) Other Matters. Except as otherwise provided by the express terms of an Award Agreement, under a sub-plan described in Section 12 or as provided in Section 13(a) above, the domestic substantive laws of the State of Delaware govern the provisions of the Plan and of Awards under the Plan and all claims or disputes arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award under the Plan or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule that would cause the application of the domestic substantive laws of any other jurisdiction.

(c) Jurisdiction. Unless otherwise provided in an Award Agreement or otherwise agreed in a writing with the Company or any of its Affiliates (including an arbitration agreement or arrangement described in Section 11(a)), by accepting (or being deemed to have accepted) an Award, each Participant agrees or will be deemed to have agreed to (i) submit irrevocably and unconditionally to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award; (ii) not commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award, except in the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware; and (iii) waive, and not assert, by way of motion as a defense or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that he or she is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts that his or her property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that the Plan or any Award or the subject matter thereof may not be enforced in or by such court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision shall not be construed to require a Participant who primarily resides and works in California to adjudicate outside of California a claim arising in California, except to the extent permitted by Section 925(e) of the California Labor Code.
Definition of Terms

“Administrator”: The Compensation Committee, except that the Compensation Committee may delegate (i) to one or more of its members (or one or more other members of the Board, including the full Board) such of its duties, powers and responsibilities as it may determine; (ii) to one or more officers of the Company the power to grant Awards to the extent permitted by applicable law; and (iii) to such Employees or other persons as it determines such ministerial tasks as it deems appropriate. For purposes of the Plan, the term “Administrator” will include the Board, the Compensation Committee, and the person or persons delegated authority under the Plan to the extent of such delegation, as applicable.

“Affiliate”: Any entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by, controls or is under common control with the Company and/or any entity in which the Company has a significant equity interest, in either case, as determined by the Board, including, for the avoidance of doubt, FTW, McAfee, LLC and their respective subsidiaries.

“Award”: Any or a combination of the following granted under the Plan:
   (i) Stock Options;
   (ii) SARs;
   (iii) Restricted Stock;
   (iv) Unrestricted Stock;
   (v) Stock Units, including Restricted Stock Units;
   (vi) Performance Awards;
   (vii) Cash Awards; or (viii) Awards (other than Awards described in (i) through (vii) above) that are convertible into or otherwise based on Stock.

“Award Agreement”: Any agreement, certificate, notice of grant or other similar written evidence of an Award, which may consist of one or more documents.

“Board”: The Board of Directors of the Company.
“Cash Award”: An Award denominated in cash (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, Awards that are denominated in equity but that shall or may be settled in cash).

“Cause”: as determined by the Administrator, (i) gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with the performance of duties with respect to (A) the Participant’s Employment or (B) the Participant’s duties under any employment or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates; (ii) the Participant’s commission of (or pleading guilty or pleading no contest or nolo contendere to) a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; (iii) the performance by the Participant of any act or acts of fraud, disloyalty or dishonesty in connection with or relating to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates or the misappropriation (or attempted misappropriation) of any of the funds or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates; (iv) material breach of any restrictive covenant relating to noncompetition or material breach of any other restrictive covenant applicable to the Participant in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates; or (v) a material violation of the written policies or procedures of the Company or of any of its Affiliates (with it being understood that any violation of a policy regarding sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, or any form of discrimination shall be considered a material violation of a written policy) or the Participant’s causing substantial harm to the business reputation of any of them (without regard to any mitigation of such harm resulting from the termination of the Participant’s Employment). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Participant is party to an individual employment, severance-benefit, change-in-control or similar agreement (including an offer letter) with the Company or any of its Affiliates that contains a definition of “Cause” (or a correlative term), such definition will apply in lieu of the definition set forth above during the term of such agreement.

“Change in Control”: Any of the following events or series of related events after the date hereof: (i) any person, or group of persons acting together which would constitute a “group” for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, or any successor provisions thereto, is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing more than 50% of the combined voting power of the Company’s then-outstanding voting securities (other than a group formed pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, dated in or about October 2020 (as amended from time to time, the “Stockholders Agreement”)); (ii) there is consummated a merger, consolidation or similar business transaction involving the Company with any other person or persons, and, either (x) the Board immediately prior to the merger or consolidation does not constitute at least a majority of the board of directors of the company surviving the merger or, if the surviving company is a subsidiary, the ultimate parent thereof, or (y) immediately after the consummation of such transaction, the voting securities of the Company immediately prior to such transaction do not continue to represent or are not converted into more than 50% of the combined voting power of the then-outstanding voting securities of the person resulting from such transaction or, if the surviving company is a subsidiary, the ultimate parent thereof; or (iii) there is consummated an agreement or series of related agreements for the sale or other disposition, directly or indirectly, by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company’s assets (including a sale of assets of FTW), other than such sale or other disposition by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company’s assets to an entity at least fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the voting securities of which are owned by shareholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of the Company immediately prior to such sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a “Change in Control” shall not be deemed to have occurred (x) by virtue of the consummation of any transaction or series of integrated transactions.
immediately following which the ultimate beneficial owners of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of the Company immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions continue to have substantially the same proportionate ownership in and voting control over, and own substantially all of the shares or equity of, an entity which owns all or substantially all of the assets of the Company immediately following such transaction or series of transactions or (γ) by virtue of the consummation of any transaction or series of transactions, immediately following which, the Company and one or more other entities (the “Other Constituent Companies”) shall have become separate wholly-owned Subsidiaries of a holding company, and the ultimate beneficial owners of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions, together with the ultimate beneficial owners of the outstanding equity interests in the Other Constituent Companies immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions, shall have become the equityholders of the new holding company in exchange for their respective equity interests in the Company and the Other Constituent Companies, and such transaction or transactions would not otherwise constitute a “Change in Control” assuming references to the Company are references to such holding company. In addition, with respect to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a Change in Control or other similar event, to the extent required to avoid the imposition of any additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A of the Code, no amount will be payable unless such Change in Control or other event constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

“Code”: The U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended and in effect, or any successor statute as from time to time in effect.

“Disability”: In the case of any Participant who is party to an employment, change of control or severance-benefit agreement that contains a definition of “Disability” (or a corollary term), the definition set forth in such agreement applies with respect to such Participant for purposes of the Plan for so long as such agreement is in effect. In every other case, “Disability” means, as determined by the Administrator, absence from work due to a disability for a period in excess of ninety (90) days in any twelve (12)-month period that would entitle the Participant to receive benefits under the Company’s long-term disability program as in effect from time to time (if the Participant were a participant in such program).

“Employee”: Any person who is employed by the Company or any of its Affiliates.
“Employment”: A Participant’s employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates. Employment will be deemed to continue, unless the Administrator otherwise determines, so long as the Participant is employed by, or otherwise is providing services in a capacity described in Section 5 to, the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries. If a Participant’s employment or other service relationship is with any Affiliate or subsidiary of the Company and that entity ceases to be an Affiliate or subsidiary of the Company, the Participant’s Employment will be deemed to have terminated when the entity ceases to be an Affiliate or subsidiary of the Company unless the Participant transfers Employment to the Company or one of its remaining Affiliates or subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in construing the provisions of any Award relating to the payment of “nonqualified deferred compensation” (subject to Section 409A) upon a termination or cessation of Employment, references to termination or cessation of employment, separation from service, retirement or similar or correlative terms will be construed to require a “separation from service” (as that term is defined in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury Regulations, after giving effect to the presumptions contained therein) from the Company and from all other corporations and trades or businesses, if any, that would be treated as a single “service recipient” with the Company under Section 1.409A-1(h)(3) of the Treasury Regulations. The Company may, but need not, elect in writing, subject to the applicable limitations under Section 409A, any of the special elective rules prescribed in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury Regulations for purposes of determining whether a “separation from service” has occurred. Any such written election will be deemed a part of the Plan.

“Fair Market Value”: As of a particular date, (i) the closing price for a share of Stock reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (or any other national securities exchange on which the Stock is then listed) for that date or, if no closing price is reported for that date, the closing price of a share of Stock on the immediately preceding date on which a closing price was reported or (ii) in the event that the Stock is not traded on a national securities exchange, the fair market value of a share of Stock determined by the Administrator consistent with the rules of Section 422 and Section 409A, to the extent applicable.

“FTW”: Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

“ISO”: A Stock Option intended to be an “incentive stock option” within the meaning of Section 422. Each Stock Option granted pursuant to the Plan will be treated as providing by its terms that it is to be an NSO unless, as of the date of grant, it is expressly designated as an ISO in the applicable Award Agreement.

“NSO”: A Stock Option that is not intended to be an “incentive stock option” within the meaning of Section 422.

“Participant”: A person who is granted an Award under the Plan.

“Performance Award”: An Award subject to performance vesting conditions, which may include Performance Criteria.
“Performance Criteria”: Specified criteria, other than the mere continuation of Employment or the mere passage of time, the satisfaction of which is a condition for the grant, exercisability, vesting or full enjoyment of an Award as determined by the Administrator. A Performance Criterion and any targets with respect thereto need not be based upon an increase, a positive or improved result or avoidance of loss and may be applied to a Participant individually, or to a business unit or division of the Company or to the Company as a whole and may relate to any criterion or any combination of criteria determined by the Administrator (measured either absolutely or comparatively (including, without limitation, by reference to an index or indices or the performance of one or more companies), which may be determined either on a consolidated basis or, as the context permits, on a divisional, subsidiary, line of business, project or geographical basis or in combinations thereof and subject to such adjustments, if any, as the Administrator specifies). A Performance Criterion may also be based on individual performance and/or subjective performance criteria. The Administrator may provide that one or more of the Performance Criteria applicable to such Award will be adjusted in a manner to reflect events (for example, but without limitation, acquisitions or dispositions) occurring during the performance period that affect the applicable Performance Criterion or Criteria.

“Plan”: The McAfee 2020 Omnibus Incentive Plan, as from time to time amended and in effect.

“Priority Plan”: The McAfee 2017 Management Incentive Plan, as amended and restated.

“Restricted Stock”: Stock subject to restrictions requiring that it be forfeited, redelivered or offered for sale to the Company if specified performance or other vesting conditions are not satisfied.

“Restricted Stock Unit”: A Stock Unit that is, or as to which the issuance of Stock or delivery of cash in lieu of Stock is, subject to the satisfaction of specified performance or other vesting conditions.

“SAR”: A right entitling the holder upon exercise to receive an amount (payable in cash or in shares of Stock of equivalent value) equal to the excess of the Fair Market Value of the shares of Stock subject to the right over the base value from which appreciation under the SAR is to be measured.

“Section 409A”: Section 409A of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

“Stock”: Class A Common stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share.

“Substitute Award”: An award granted under the Plan in substitution for one or more equity awards of an acquired company that are converted, replaced or adjusted in connection with the acquisition.

This agreement (this "Agreement") evidences a stock option granted by McAfee Corp. (the "Company") to the individual named above (the "Participant"), pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions of the McAfee 2020 Omnibus Incentive Plan (as from time to time amended and in effect, the "Plan"). Except as otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as in the Plan.

1. Grant of Stock Option. On the date of grant set forth above (the "Date of Grant"), the Company granted to the Participant an option (the "Stock Option") to purchase, pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in the Plan, up to the number of shares of Stock set forth above (the "Shares"), with an exercise price per Share as set forth above, in each case, subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 7 of the Plan in respect of transactions occurring after the date hereof.

The Stock Option evidenced by this Agreement is a non-statutory option (that is, an option that is not intended to qualify as an ISO) and is granted to the Participant in connection with the Participant’s Employment. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, “qualifying subsidiary” means a subsidiary of the Company as to which the Company has a “controlling interest” as described in Treas. Regs. §1.409A-1(b)(5)(iii)(E)(1).

2. Vesting. The term "vest" as used herein with respect to the Stock Option or any portion thereof means to become exercisable and the term "vested" with respect to the Stock Option (or any portion thereof) means that the Stock Option (or portion thereof) is then exercisable, subject in each case to the terms of the Plan. Unless earlier terminated, forfeited, relinquished or expired, the Stock Option will vest [ ]. Except as expressly set forth above, no portion of the Stock Option shall vest on any vesting date unless the Participant has remained in continuous Employment from the Date of Grant until such vesting date.

3. Exercise of the Stock Option. No portion of the Stock Option may be exercised unless such portion is vested. Each election to exercise any vested portion of the Stock Option will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and must be in written or electronic form acceptable to the Administrator, signed (including by electronic signature) by the Participant or, if at the relevant time the Stock Option has passed to a permitted transferee, the permitted transferee. Each such written or electronic exercise election must be received by the Company at its principal office or by such other party as the Administrator may prescribe and be accompanied by payment in full of the exercise price by cash or check, through a broker-assisted exercise program acceptable to the Administrator, or as otherwise provided in the Plan. Except to the extent provided in Section 6(b)(4) of the Plan, the latest date on which the Stock Option or any portion thereof may be exercised is the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Date of Grant (the “Final Exercise Date”) and, if not exercised by such date, the Stock Option or any remaining portion thereof will thereupon immediately terminate. No Shares will be issued pursuant to this Agreement unless and until all legal requirements applicable to the issuance or transfer of such Shares have been complied with to the satisfaction of the Administrator.

4. Cessation of Employment. If the Participant’s Employment ceases for any reason, except as expressly provided for in an employment, severance-benefit or other agreement between the Participant and the Company that is in effect at the time of such termination of Employment, the Stock Option, to the extent not then vested, will be immediately forfeited for no consideration, and any vested portion of the Stock Option that is then outstanding will remain exercisable for the period described in Section 6(a)(4) of the Plan (unless terminated as provided in Section 6(a)(4)(D)), subject to the other terms of the Plan and this Agreement.

5. Restrictive Covenants. Participant acknowledges and agrees that Participant will execute, no later than the date hereof, and shall be bound by, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement attached hereto as Schedule A. The provisions of Schedule A shall survive any termination, expiration, forfeiture, transfer or other disposition of the Stock Option or any Shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of the Stock Option. In addition to any remedies that may be available to the Company or any of its Affiliates, the Administrator may cause the Stock Option (whether or not vested or exercisable) to be forfeited and the proceeds from the exercise of the Stock Option and/or the disposition, and/or distributions or other amounts received in respect of the Shares to be disgorged to the Company, with interest and related earnings, if at any time the Participant is not in compliance with all of the provisions of Schedule A. By accepting the Stock Option, the Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that his or her rights, and those of any other holder of the Stock Option (or any portion thereof), under the Stock Option, including the right to any Shares acquired under the Stock Option and any amounts received in respect thereof, are subject to Section 6(a)(5) of the Plan.

6. Company Policies. By accepting the Stock Option, the Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Participant’s rights, and those of any permitted transferee, with respect to the Stock Option, including the right to any Shares acquired under the Stock Option or proceeds from the disposition thereof, are subject to Section 6(a)(5) of the Plan (including any successor provision). The Participant further agrees to be bound by the terms of any clawback, recoupment or similar policy of the Company or any of its Affiliates and any policy of the Company or any of its Affiliates that relates to trading on non-public information and permitted transactions with respect to shares of Stock, including limitations on hedging and pledging, in each case, as in effect from time to time. Nothing in the preceding sentence will be construed as limiting the general application of Section 10 of this Agreement.

7. Nontransferability. The Stock Option may not be transferred except as expressly permitted under Section 6(a)(3) of the Plan. Shares issued in respect of the Stock Option may be transferred subject to compliance with applicable law and the terms of any policies of the Company or any of its Affiliates.
8. Withholding. The Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Participant’s rights hereunder, including the right to be issued Shares upon exercise of the Stock Option, are subject to the Participant promptly paying to the Company in cash or by check (or by such other means as may be acceptable to the Administrator) all taxes required to be withheld with respect to the Stock Option. No Shares will be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Stock Option unless and until the person exercising the Stock Option has remitted to the Company an amount in cash sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, or local withholding tax requirements, or has made other arrangements satisfactory to the Company with respect to such taxes. The Participant authorizes the Company and its subsidiaries to withhold such amount from any amounts otherwise owed to the Participant, but nothing in this sentence will be construed as relieving the Participant of any liability for satisfying his or her obligation under the preceding provisions of this Section 8.

9. Effect on Employment. Neither the grant of the Stock Option, nor the issuance of Shares upon exercise of the Stock Option, will give the Participant any right to be retained in the employ or service of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, affect the right of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to discharge the Participant at any time, or affect any right of the Participant to terminate his or her Employment at any time.

10. Data Privacy. The Company and the Participant’s employer hereby notify the Participant of the following in relation to the Participant’s personal data and the collection, processing and transfer of such data in relation to the Stock Option and Participant’s participation in the Plan:

(a) the collection, processing and transfer of the Participant’s personal data is necessary for the Company’s administration of the Plan and the Participant’s participation in the Plan, and the Participant’s denial and/or objection to the collection, processing and transfer of personal data may affect the Participant’s ability to participate in the Plan. As such, the Participant voluntarily acknowledges, consents and agrees (where required under applicable law) to the collection, use, processing and transfer of personal data as described herein.

(b) The Company and the Participant’s employer hold certain personal information about the Participant, including (but not limited to) the Participant’s name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security number or other employee identification number, salary, nationality, job title, any interests or directorships held in the Company, details of all awards or any other entitlements awarded, canceled, purchased, vested, exercised, unvested or outstanding in Participant’s favor for the purpose of managing and administering the Plan (collectively, the “Data”). The Data may be provided by the Participant or collected, where lawful, from third parties, and the Company and the Participant’s employer will process the Data for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Participant’s participation in the Plan. Processing of the Data will take place through electronic and non-electronic means according to logics and procedures strictly correlated to the purposes for which the Data is collected and with confidentiality and security provisions as set forth by applicable laws and regulations in the Participant’s country of residence. Data processing operations will be performed in a manner that minimizes the use of personal and identification data when such operations are unnecessary for the processing purposes sought. The Data will be accessible within the Company’s organization only by those persons requiring access for purposes of the implementation, administration and operation of the Plan and for the Participant’s participation in the Plan.
(c) The Company and the Participant’s employer will transfer Data as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of the Participant’s participation in the Plan, and the Company and/or the Participant’s employer may each further transfer Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the European Economic Area, the United States or elsewhere throughout the world. The Participant hereby authorizes (where required under applicable law) the recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for purposes of implementing, administering and managing the Participant’s participation in the Plan, including any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required for the administration of the Plan. The Participant may, at any time, exercise the Participant’s rights provided under applicable personal data protection laws (if any), which may include the right to (i) obtain confirmation as to the existence of the Data, (ii) verify the content, origin and accuracy of the Data, (iii) request the integration, update, amendment, deletion, or blockage (for breach of applicable laws) of the Data, and (iv) oppose, for legal reasons, the collection, processing or transfer of the Data that is not necessary or required for the implementation, administration and/or operation of the Plan and the Participant’s participation in the Plan. The Participant may seek to exercise these rights by contacting the Participant’s local human resources manager.

11. Provisions of the Plan. This Agreement is subject in its entirety to the provisions of the Plan (including any applicable sub-Plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan), which are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Plan (and any such sub-plan) as in effect on the Date of Grant has been made available to the Participant. By accepting the Stock Option, the Participant agrees that he or she has reviewed the Plan (including any such sub-plan) and this Agreement and agrees to be bound by the terms of the Plan and this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Plan, the terms of the Plan will control.

12. Governing Law; Disputes. The validity, construction and effect of this Agreement, and of any determinations or decisions made by the Administrator relating to this Agreement, and the rights of any and all Persons having, or claiming to have, any interest under this Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction specified in Section 13 of the Plan (unless otherwise provided in an applicable sub-plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan). Any action with respect to this Agreement will be brought in as determined under Section 13 of the Plan (unless otherwise provided in an applicable sub-plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan).

13. Acknowledgements. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) The grant of the Stock Option is considered a one-time benefit and does not create a contractual or other right to receive any other award under the Plan, benefits in lieu of such awards or any other benefits in the future.

(b) The Plan is a voluntary program of the Company and future awards, if any, will be at the sole discretion of the Company, including, but not limited to, the timing of any award, the amount of any award, vesting provisions and purchase price, if any.

(c) The value of the Stock Option is an extraordinary item of compensation outside of the scope of the Participant’s employment. As such, the Stock Option is not part of normal or expected compensation for purposes of calculating any severance, resignation, redundancy, end of service payments, bonuses, long-term service awards, pension or retirement benefits or similar payments. The future value of the shares of Stock covered by the Stock Option is unknown and cannot be predicted with certainty.

(d) (i) This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be an original and all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument; (ii) this Agreement may be executed and exchanged using facsimile, portable document format (PDF) or electronic signature (including by DocuSign or by similar means), which, in each case, will constitute an original signature for all purposes hereunder; and (iii) such signature by the Company will be binding against the Company and will create a legally binding agreement when this Agreement is countersigned by the Participant.

(e) The Participant will not be treated as the owner of any stock in the Company by reason of the grant of the Stock Option until it is exercised and the applicable Shares are delivered hereunder and, as a result, will have no rights (including, rights to dividends, distributions or rights to equivalent amounts or voting rights) as a stockholder in respect of the Shares prior to the delivery of such Shares.

(f) The rights, duties, and obligations under this Agreement and the Plan may not be assigned by the Participant or the Company, except that this Agreement shall be assignable by the Company to any successor entity, including an entity acquiring all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company or an Affiliate of the Company. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding on any such assignee.

(g) This Agreement and the Plan (including the documents referenced in each), constitute the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties related to the subject matter hereof. There are no agreements, understandings, specific restrictions, warranties, or representations relating to said subject matter between the parties other than those set forth herein or herein provided for. This Agreement may be amended only in accordance with Section 9 of the Plan.
(h) The failure of a party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Agreement in any one or more instances shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon strict compliance with such provision in the future. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan will govern.

(i) In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or other portion thereof shall be deemed to be illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or portion thereof shall be modified or deleted in such a manner so as to make this Agreement, as modified, legal and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

(j) As used in this Agreement, the singular form shall include, if appropriate, the plural. The headings used in this Agreement are solely for the convenience and reference of the parties and are not intended to be descriptive of the entire contents of any paragraph and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms, provisions, or construction thereof.

14. Deadline for Acceptance. In the event that the Participant does not accept the terms of the Stock Option by executing this Agreement within forty-five (45) days after receiving it, the Company may at any time thereafter, upon notice to the Participant, immediately cancel the Stock Option without payment due thereon, in which case the Participant shall have no further rights with respect to the Stock Option.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANT AGREEMENT

This Restrictive Covenant Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of [] by and between McAfee Corp. (the “Company”) on its own behalf and on behalf of its Affiliates (defined below), as may exist from time to time, and [] (“Participant”). Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not otherwise defined herein shall have their respective meanings set forth in Participant’s Award Agreement and the Plan.

1. Mutual Agreement. Participant acknowledges the importance to the Company and its Affiliates of protecting their Confidential Information and other legitimate business interests, including the valuable trade secrets and good will that they have developed or acquired. In consideration of Participant’s Employment, Participant’s Award and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which Participant hereby acknowledges, Participant agrees that the following restrictions on Participant’s activities during and after Employment are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company.

2. Confidentiality.

2.1. Participant agrees that all Confidential Information which Participant creates or to which Participant has access as a result of Participant’s Employment and other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates is and will remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. Participant agrees that, except as required for the proper performance of Participant’s regular duties for the Company, as expressly authorized in writing in advance by a duly authorized officer of the Company, or as required by applicable law, Participant will never, directly or indirectly, use or disclose any Confidential Information. Participant understands and agrees that this restriction will continue to apply after the termination of Participant’s Employment for any reason. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects Participant’s communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to the governmental agency or entity. Without limiting the foregoing, Participant may disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by law or order of a court or governmental entity; provided however, that Participant must give the Company prompt notice in order that the Company may seek a protective order (or seek to narrow the scope of the required disclosure) and Participant shall reasonably cooperate (at the Company’s cost) with the Company in seeking such protective order or reduction in scope. Participant will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (a) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (b) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. Notwithstanding this immunity from liability, Participant may be held liable if Participant unlawfully access trade secrets by unauthorized means.

2.2. Participant agrees that all documents, records and files, in any media of whatever kind and description, relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Affiliates, and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the “Documents”), whether or not prepared by Participant, will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company. Participant agrees to safeguard all Documents and to surrender to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all Documents then in Participant’s possession or control. Participant also agrees to disclose to the Company, at the time Participant’s Employment terminates or at such earlier time or times as an authorized officer of the Company may specify, all passwords necessary or desirable to obtain access to, or that would assist in obtaining access to, any information which Participant has password-protected on any computer equipment, network or system of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

3. Assignment of Intellectual Property Rights. Participant agrees to promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. Participant hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) Participant’s full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. Participant agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. Participant will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that Participant creates during Employment with the Company will be considered “work made for hire” and will, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company.

4. Restricted Activities.

4.1. While Participant is employed by the Company and during the [•]-month period immediately following the date of termination of Participant’s Employment (the “Restricted Period”), Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, engage in the Business in any geographic area in which the Company or any of its Affiliates engage in the Business or are actively planning to engage in the Business during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination (the “Restricted Area”), or undertake any planning to do any of the foregoing anywhere in the Restricted Area. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, during the Restricted Period, Participant agrees not to work or provide services, in any capacity, anywhere in the Restricted Area, whether as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise, whether with or without compensation, to any Person that is engaged in the Business; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, that for purposes of this Agreement, Participant may engage in (i) owning, directly or indirectly, solely as an investment, up to five percent (5%) of any class of securities of any company (whether public or private) that is competitive or substantially similar to the Business; (ii) owning a passive equity interest in a private debt or equity investment fund in which Participant does not have the ability to control or exercise any managerial influence over such fund; or (iii) any activity consented to in advance in writing by the Company.

4.2. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit or encourage any customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them; or (b) seek to persuade any customer, such vendor, supplier or other business partner, or any prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates, to conduct with anyone else any business or activity which such customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner conducts, or such prospective customer, vendor, supplier or other business partner could conduct, with the Company or any of its Affiliates; provided that these restrictions will apply (y) only with respect to those Persons who are or have been a business partner of the Company or any of its Affiliates at any time within the six (6)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.2 or whose business has been solicited on behalf of the Company or any of the Affiliates by any of their officers, employees or agents within such six (6)-month period, other than by form letter, blanket mailing or published advertisement, and (z) only if Participant has performed work for such Person during Participant’s Employment or been introduced to, or otherwise had contact with, such Person as a result of Participant’s Employment or other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates or has had access to Confidential Information which would assist in Participant’s solicitation of such Person.

4.3. During the Restricted Period, Participant agrees to not, and to not assist any other Person to, directly or indirectly, (a) hire or engage, or solicit for hiring or engagement, any employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates or seek to persuade any such employee to discontinue employment or (b) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with any of them. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) an “employee” or an “independent contractor” of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any Person who was such at any time within the twelve (12)-month period immediately preceding the activity restricted by this Section 4.3 and (ii) an “independent contractor” means only a natural person independent contractor or an entity independent contractor controlled by a natural person providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Agreement, the placement of general advertisements that may be targeted to a particular geographic or technical area but that are not specifically targeted toward employees or independent contractors of the Company shall not be considered solicitation.

5. Nondisparagement. Subject to the third to last sentence of Section 2.1 of this Agreement, Participant agrees that he or she will not disparage or criticize the Company, its Affiliates, their business, their management or their products or services, and that Participant will not otherwise do or say anything that could materially disrupt the good morale of employees of the Company or any of its Affiliates or could materially harm the interests or reputation of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

6. Enforcement of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Participant gives the Company assurance that Participant has carefully read and considered all of the restraints hereunder, has not relied on any agreements or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement, and has signed this Agreement knowingly and voluntarily. Participant agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company and its Affiliates, and are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Participant further agrees that, were Participant to breach any of the covenants contained herein, the damage to the Company and its Affiliates would be irreparable. So that the Company may enjoy the full benefit of the covenants contained in Section 4 above, Participant agrees that the Restricted Period will be tolled, and will not run, during the period of any breach by Participant of such covenants. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, that provision will be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law. Participant agrees that each of the Company’s Affiliates will have the right to enforce Participant’s obligations to that Affiliate under this Agreement. No claimed breach of this Agreement or other violation of law attributed to the Company or any of its Affiliates, or change in the nature or scope of Participant’s Employment or other relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, will operate to excuse Participant from the performance of Participant’s obligations under this Agreement.

7. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

   “Affiliates” has the meaning set forth in the Plan, provided that for purposes of Section 4 above, the term “Affiliate” shall exclude the TPG Member, Intel, the Intel Member (each as defined in the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of FTW) and all Affiliates of such entities other than the Company, its subsidiaries and any brother/sister entities acting in concert with the business or planning of the Company and its subsidiaries.

   “Business” means (i) the business of security solutions related to computers, mobile devices, and networks, providing internet security products and services and/or (ii) any other business that the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged in or is actively planning to be engaged in, during Participant’s Employment or, with respect to the portion of the Restricted Period that follows termination of Participant’s Employment, at the time of such termination.
“Confidential Information” means any and all information of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company which is not generally known by the public, including without limitation information about the customers, business connections, customer lists, procedures, operations, trade secrets, techniques and other aspects of and information about the business of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company, unless and to the extent that any such information (i) becomes generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Participant’s acts or omissions, or (ii) was properly known to Participant, without restriction, prior to disclosure by the Company.

“Intellectual Property” means inventions, discoveries, developments, improvements, methods, processes, procedures, plans, projects, systems, techniques, strategies, information, compositions, works, concepts and ideas, or modifications or derivatives of any of the foregoing (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) (collectively, “Inventions”) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by Participant (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during Participant’s Employment that relate either to the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates or to any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates or that result from any work performed by Participant for the Company or any of its Affiliates or that make use of Confidential Information or any of the equipment or facilities of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

8. Compliance with Other Agreements and Obligations. Participant represents and warrants that Participant’s Employment with the Company or any of its Affiliates and the execution and performance of this Agreement will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which Participant is a party or is bound, and that Participant is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants or other obligations to third parties or to any court order, judgment or decree that would affect the performance of Participant’s obligations hereunder or Participant’s duties and responsibilities to the Company or any of its Affiliates. Participant will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company or an Affiliate, or induce the Company or any of its Affiliates to possess or use, any confidential or proprietary information of any previous employer or other third party without that party’s consent.

9. Entire Agreement; Severability; Modification. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between Participant and the Company, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not supersede any effective assignment of any invention or other intellectual property to the Company or any of its Affiliates and shall not constitute a waiver by the Company or any of its Affiliates of any right that any of them now has or may now have under any agreement imposing obligations on Participant with respect to confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation of employees, independent contractors or like obligations. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. This Agreement may not be modified or amended, and no breach will be deemed to be waived, unless agreed to in writing by Participant and an expressly authorized officer of the Company. Provisions of this Agreement will survive any termination if so provided in this Agreement or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purpose of other surviving provisions, including, without limitation, Sections 2-6.

10. Assignment. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without Participant’s consent to any of its Affiliates or to any Person with whom the Company will hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate or merge, or to whom the Company will hereafter transfer all or substantially all of its properties or assets. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Participant and the Company, and each of their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

11. At-Will Employment. Participant acknowledges that this Agreement is not meant to constitute a contract of employment for a specific duration or term, and that Participant’s employment with the Company is at-will. The Company and Participant will each retain the right to terminate Participant’s employment at any time, with or without notice or cause.

12. Choice of Law. This is a Delaware contract and will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of laws principles that could result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Participant agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of and in the State of Delaware in connection with any dispute arising out of this Agreement.
Intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties have signed this Agreement as of the day and year written above.

This agreement (this "Agreement") evidences an award (the "Award") of restricted stock units granted by McAfee Corp. (the "Company") to the individual named above (the "Participant"), pursuant to and subject to the terms of the McAfee 2020 Omnibus Incentive Plan (as from time to time amended and in effect, the "Plan"). Except as otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as in the Plan.

1. Grant of Restricted Stock Unit Award. The Company grants to the Participant on the date of grant set forth above (the "Date of Grant") the number of restricted stock units (the "Restricted Stock Units") set forth above, giving the Participant the conditional right to receive, without payment and pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in the Plan, one share of Stock (a "Share") with respect to each Restricted Stock Unit forming part of the Award, subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 7 of the Plan in respect of transactions occurring after the date hereof.

2. Vesting. Unless earlier terminated, forfeited, relinquished or expired, the Restricted Stock Units will vest [                     ]. Except as expressly set forth above, the Restricted Stock Units shall not vest on any vesting date unless Participant has remained in continuous Employment from the Date of Grant until such vesting date.

3. Cessation of Employment. If the Participant’s Employment ceases for any reason, except as expressly provided for in an employment, severance-benefit or other agreement between the Participant and the Company that is in effect at the time of such termination of Employment, the Restricted Stock Units, to the extent not then vested, will be immediately forfeited for no consideration.

4. Issuance of Shares. The Company shall, as soon as practicable upon the vesting of any portion of the Award (but in no event later than thirty (30) days following the date on which such Restricted Stock Units vest), effect delivery of the Shares with respect to such vested Restricted Stock Units to the Participant (or, in the event of the Participant’s death, to the person to whom the Award has passed by will or the laws of descent and distribution). No Shares will be issued pursuant to the Award unless and until all legal requirements applicable to the issuance or transfer of such Shares have been complied with to the satisfaction of the Administrator.
5. Restrictive Covenants. If the Participant is otherwise subject to non-competition, non-solicitation, no hire, confidentiality, non-disparagement or other restrictive covenants in favor of the Company or any of its Affiliates, in addition to any remedies that may be available to the Company or any of its Affiliates in respect of the applicable agreement, policy other applicable arrangement, the Administrator may cause the Award to be forfeited and all proceeds and amounts received in respect of the Shares received thereunder and/or the disposition, and/or distributions or other amounts received in respect of, the Shares to be disgorged to the Company, with interest and related earnings, if at any time the Participant is not in compliance with all of the provisions of such applicable restrictive covenant agreement, policy or arrangement.

6. Company Policies. By accepting the Award, the Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Participant’s rights, and those of any permitted transferee, with respect to the Restricted Stock Units, including the right to any Shares issued in respect of the Restricted Stock Units or proceeds from the disposition thereof, are subject to Section 6(a)(5) of the Plan (including any successor provision). The Participant further agrees to be bound by the terms of any clawback, recoupment or similar policy of the Company or any of its Affiliates and any policy of the Company or any of its Affiliates that relates to trading on non-public information and permitted transactions with respect to shares of Stock, including limitations on hedging and pledging, in each case, as in effect from time to time. Nothing in the preceding sentence will be construed as limiting the general application of Section 10 of this Agreement.

7. Nontransferability. The Award may not be transferred, except as expressly permitted under Section 6(a)(3) of the Plan. Shares issued in respect of vested Restricted Stock Units may be transferred subject to compliance with applicable law and the terms of any policies of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

8. Taxes.

   (a) No Shares will be delivered pursuant to the Award unless and until the Participant has remitted to the Company in cash or by check (or by such other means as may be acceptable to the Administrator) an amount sufficient to satisfy all taxes required to be withheld in connection with such vesting or settlement.

   (b) The Participant authorizes the Company and its subsidiaries to withhold any amounts due in respect of any required tax withholdings or payments from any amounts otherwise owed to the Participant, but nothing in this sentence may be construed as relieving the Participant of any liability for satisfying his or her obligation under the preceding provisions of this Section 7.

   (c) The Award is intended to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code as a short-term deferral thereunder and shall be construed and administered in accordance with that intent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the Company have any liability relating to the failure or alleged failure of any payment or benefit under this Agreement to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A.

9. Effect on Employment. Neither the grant of the Award, nor the issuance of Shares upon the vesting of the Award, will give the Participant any right to be retained in the employ or service of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, affect the right of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to discharge the Participant at any time, or affect any right of the Participant to terminate his or her Employment at any time.
10. Data Privacy. The Company and the Participant’s employer hereby notify the Participant of the following in relation to the Participant’s personal data and the collection, processing and transfer of such data in relation to the Award and Participant’s participation in the Plan:

(a) the collection, processing and transfer of the Participant’s personal data is necessary for the Company’s administration of the Plan and the Participant’s participation in the Plan, and the Participant’s denial and/or objection to the collection, processing and transfer of personal data may affect the Participant’s ability to participate in the Plan. As such, the Participant voluntarily acknowledges, consents and agrees (where required under applicable law) to the collection, use, processing and transfer of personal data as described herein.

(b) The Company and the Participant’s employer hold certain personal information about the Participant, including (but not limited to) the Participant’s name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security number or other employee identification number, salary, nationality, job title, any interests or directorships held in the Company, details of all awards or any other entitlements awarded, canceled, purchased, vested, exercised, unvested or outstanding in Participant’s favor for the purpose of managing and administering the Plan (collectively, the “Data”). The Data may be provided by the Participant or collected, where lawful, from third parties, and the Company and the Participant’s employer will process the Data for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Participant’s participation in the Plan. Processing of the Data will take place through electronic and non-electronic means according to logics and procedures strictly correlated to the purposes for which the Data is collected and with confidentiality and security provisions as set forth by applicable laws and regulations in the Participant’s country of residence. Data processing operations will be performed in a manner that minimizes the use of personal and identification data when such operations are unnecessary for the processing purposes sought. The Data will be accessible within the Company’s organization only by those persons requiring access for purposes of the implementation, administration and operation of the Plan and for the Participant’s participation in the Plan.

(c) The Company and the Participant’s employer will transfer Data as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of the Participant’s participation in the Plan, and the Company and/or the Participant’s employer may each further transfer Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the European Economic Area, the United States or elsewhere throughout the world. The Participant hereby authorizes (where required under applicable law) the recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for purposes of implementing, administering and managing the Participant’s participation in the Plan, including any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required for the administration of the Plan. The Participant may, at any time, exercise the Participant’s rights provided under applicable personal data protection laws (if any), which may include the right to (i) obtain confirmation as to the existence of the Data, (ii) verify the content, origin and accuracy of the Data, (iii) request the integration, update, amendment, deletion, or blockage (for breach of applicable laws) of the Data, and (iv) oppose, for legal reasons, the collection, processing or transfer of the Data that is not necessary or required for the implementation, administration and/or operation of the Plan and the Participant’s participation in the Plan. The Participant may seek to exercise these rights by contacting the Participant’s local human resources manager.
11. Provisions of the Plan. This Agreement is subject in its entirety to the provisions of the Plan (including any applicable sub-Plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan), which are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Plan (and any such sub-plan) as in effect on the Date of Grant has been made available to the Participant. By accepting the Award, the Participant agrees that he or she has reviewed the Plan (including any such sub-plan) and this Agreement and agrees to be bound by the terms of the Plan and this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Plan, the terms of the Plan will control.

12. Governing Law; Disputes. The validity, construction and effect of this Agreement, and of any determinations or decisions made by the Administrator relating to this Agreement, and the rights of any and all Persons having, or claiming to have, any interest under this Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction specified in Section 13 of the Plan (unless otherwise provided in an applicable sub-plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan). Any action with respect to this Agreement will be brought in as determined under Section 13 of the Plan (unless otherwise provided in an applicable sub-plan adopted pursuant to Section 12 of the Plan).

13. Acknowledgements. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

   (a) The grant of the Restricted Stock Units is considered a one-time benefit and does not create a contractual or other right to receive any other award under the Plan, benefits in lieu of such awards or any other benefits in the future.

   (b) The Plan is a voluntary program of the Company and future awards, if any, will be at the sole discretion of the Company, including, but not limited to, the timing of any award, the amount of any award, vesting provisions and purchase price, if any.

   (c) The Participant will not be treated as the owner of any Shares by reason of the grant of the Award until the applicable Shares are delivered hereunder and, as a result, will have no rights (including, rights to dividends, distributions or rights to equivalent amounts or voting rights) as a stockholder in respect of the Shares prior to the delivery of such Shares.

   (d) The value of the Restricted Stock Units is an extraordinary item of compensation outside of the scope of the Participant’s employment. As such, the Restricted Stock Units are not part of normal or expected compensation for purposes of calculating any severance, resignation, redundancy, end of service payments, bonuses, long-term service awards, pension or retirement benefits or similar payments. The future value of the Shares covered by the Award is unknown and cannot be predicted with certainty.

   (e) (i) This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be an original and all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument; (ii) this Agreement may be executed and exchanged using facsimile, portable document format (PDF) or electronic signature (including by DocuSign or by similar means), which, in each case, will constitute an original signature for all purposes hereunder; and (iii) such signature by the Company will be binding against the Company and will create a legally binding agreement when this Agreement is countersigned by the Participant.
(f) The rights, duties, and obligations under this Agreement and the Plan may not be assigned by the Participant or the Company, except that this Agreement shall be assignable by the Company to any successor entity, including an entity acquiring all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding on any such assignee.

(g) This Agreement and the Plan (including the documents referenced in each), constitute the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties related to the subject matter hereof. There are no agreements, understandings, specific restrictions, warranties, or representations relating to said subject matter between the parties other than those set forth herein or herein provided for. This Agreement may be amended only in accordance with Section 9 of the Plan.

(h) The failure of a party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Agreement in any one or more instances shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon strict compliance with such provision in the future. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan will govern.

(i) In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or other portion thereof shall be deemed to be illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or portion thereof shall be modified or deleted in such a manner so as to make this Agreement, as modified, legal and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

(j) As used in this Agreement, the singular form shall include, if appropriate, the plural. The headings used in this Agreement are solely for the convenience and reference of the parties and are not intended to be descriptive of the entire contents of any paragraph and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms, provisions, or construction thereof.

14. Deadline for Acceptance. In the event that the Participant does not accept the terms of the Award by executing this Agreement within forty-five (45) days after receiving it, the Company may at any time thereafter, upon notice to the Participant, immediately cancel the Award without payment due thereon, in which case the Participant shall have no further rights with respect to the Award.

(a) A Participant shall elect to have payroll deductions made during a Purchase Period equal to no less than 1% of the Participant’s Compensation up to a maximum of 15% (or such greater amount as the Committee establishes from time to time). The amount of such payroll deductions shall be in whole percentages. All payroll deductions made by a Participant shall be credited to his or her Purchase Account. A Participant who elects to have payroll deductions credited to his or her Purchase Account may not make any additional payments into his or her Purchase Account. Unless otherwise determined by the Company and subject to the other terms of this Plan, a Participant’s payroll deduction election will remain in effect for subsequent Offering Periods unless the Participant files an election change form in accordance with the procedures established by the Company not less than ten (10) business days (or such other deadline as is determined by the Company from time to time) prior to an applicable Purchase Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any provisions to the contrary in this Plan, the Company may (but is not required to) allow participants to make other contributions under this Plan via cash, check, or other means instead of payroll deductions, and for any Offering Period under the 423 Component, the Company determines that such other contributions are permissible under Section 423 of the Code. Any such other contributions must be made in a manner, in an amount and by the deadline prescribed by the Company and, once made, shall be credited to the Participant’s Purchase Account.

(b) Except as otherwise determined by the Committee prior to commencement of an Offering Period, (i) a Participant may not increase the rate of payroll deductions or contributions during an Offering Period and (ii) unless otherwise determined by the Company, one time during an Offering Period, a Participant may decrease the rate of payroll deductions or contributions with respect to such Offering Period. 5
Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 423(b)(8) of the Code and Section 3(b) hereof, a Participant’s payroll deductions may be decreased to 0% at any time during an Offering Period. Subject to the immediately preceding sentence, all amounts credited to a Participant’s Purchase Account that are not used to purchase Shares on an Exercise Date, whether because of the Participant’s withdrawal from participation in an Offering Period or for any other reason, shall be distributed to the Participant or his or her designated beneficiary or legal representative, as applicable, without interest, as soon as administratively practicable after such withdrawal or other event, as applicable.

   During a Participant’s lifetime, a Participant’s Option is exercisable only by him or her. The Company shall, at its sole discretion, satisfy the exercise of all Participants’ Options for the purchase of Shares through (a) the issuance of authorized but unissued Shares, (b) the transfer of treasury Shares, (c) the purchase of Shares on behalf of the applicable Participants on the open market through an independent broker and/or (d) a combination of the foregoing.

9. Issuance of Stock. The Shares purchased by each Participant shall be issued in book entry form and shall be considered to be issued and outstanding to such Participant’s credit as of the Exercise Date. The Committee may permit or require that shares be deposited directly in a Brokerage Account with one or more brokers designated by the Committee or to one or more designated agents of the Company, and the Committee may use electronic or automated methods of share transfer. The Committee may require that Shares be retained with such brokers or agents for a designated period of time and/or may establish other procedures to permit tracking of disqualifying dispositions of such shares, and may also impose a transaction fee with respect to a sale of Shares issued to a Participant’s credit and held by such a broker or agent. The Committee may (but is not required to) permit Shares purchased under this Plan to participate in a dividend reinvestment plan or program maintained by the Company and establish a default method for the payment of dividends.
10. Approval by Stockholders. Notwithstanding the above, this Plan is expressly made subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Company within 12 months before or after the date this Plan is adopted by the Board. Such stockholder approval shall be obtained in the manner and to the degree required under applicable federal and state law. If this Plan is not so approved by the stockholders within 12 months before or after the date this Plan is adopted by the Board, this Plan shall not come into effect.

11. Administration.

   (a) Powers and Duties of the Committee. This Plan shall be administered by the Committee. Subject to the provisions of this Plan, Section 423 of the Code and the regulations thereunder with respect to the 423 Component, the Committee shall have the discretionary authority to determine the time and frequency of granting Options, the duration of Offering Periods and Purchase Periods, the terms and conditions of the Options and the number of Shares subject to each Option. The Committee shall also have the discretionary authority to do everything necessary and appropriate to administer the Plan, including, without limitation, interpreting the provisions of the Plan (but any such interpretation shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of Section 423 of the Code with respect to the 423 Component). All actions, decisions, and determinations of, and interpretations by the Committee with respect to this Plan shall be final and binding upon all Participants, upon their executors, administrators, personal representatives, heirs, and legatees and upon all other persons. No member of the Board or the Committee shall be liable for any action, decision, determination, or interpretation made in good faith with respect to this Plan or any Option granted hereunder. With respect to the 423 Component, an Offering Period shall be administered in a manner that is intended to provide that all Participants have the same rights and privileges as are provided by Section 423(b)(5) of the Code.

   (b) Administrator. The Company, Board or the Committee may delegate any or all of its powers or authority under this Plan, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to one or more members of the Board or the Committee or any officer or employee of the Company or any of its affiliates. The Company, Board or the Committee may also engage the services of a brokerage firm or financial institution (the “Administrator”) to perform certain ministerial and procedural duties under this Plan including, but not limited to, mailing and receiving notices contemplated under this Plan, determining the number of Purchased Shares for each Participant, maintaining or causing to be maintained the Purchase Account and the Brokerage Account, disbursing funds maintained in the Purchase Account or proceeds from the sale of Shares through the Brokerage Account, filing with the appropriate tax authorities proper tax returns and forms (including information returns) and providing to each Participant statements as required by law or regulation.
Indemnification. Each person who is or shall have been (i) a member of the Board, (ii) a member of the Committee, or (iii) an officer or employee of the Company or any of its affiliates to whom authority was delegated in relation to this Plan, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company against and from any loss, cost, liability or expense that may be imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding to which he or she may be a party or in which he or she may be involved by reason of any action taken or failure to act under this Plan and against and from any and all amounts paid by him or her in settlement thereof, with the Company’s approval, or paid by him or her in satisfaction of any judgment in any such claim, action, suit or proceeding against him or her; provided that he or she shall give the Company a reasonable opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same before he or she undertakes to handle and defend it on his or her own behalf; and provided further that this Section 11(c) shall not apply to any loss, cost, liability or expense that is a result of an indemnified person’s own willful misconduct or except as expressly provided by statute.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled under the Company’s certificate of incorporation or bylaws, any contract with the Company, as a matter of law, or otherwise, or of any power that the Company may have to indemnify them or hold them harmless.

12. Withdrawal. A Participant may withdraw from an Offering Period by properly completing and submitting to the Company a withdrawal form in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Committee or the Company, which must be submitted prior to the date specified by the Committee or the Company before the Exercise Date. Upon withdrawal, any amounts credited to the Participant’s Purchase Account prior to the effective date of the Participant’s withdrawal from this Plan will be returned to the Participant, without interest, as soon as administratively practicable after such withdrawal. No further payroll deductions or contributions for the purchase of Shares will be made during the Offering Period in which the withdrawal occurs or any subsequent Offering Periods, unless (as to any subsequent Offering Period) the Participant properly completes and submits an election form, by the deadline prescribed by the Company. A Participant’s withdrawal from an Offering Period under this Plan will not, except as described in the immediately preceding sentence, have any effect upon his or her eligibility to participate in subsequent Offering Periods or in any similar plan that may hereafter be adopted by the Company or any of its affiliates.

13. Termination of Employment. On the Termination Date of a Participant for any reason prior to the applicable Exercise Date, whether voluntary or involuntary, and including termination of employment due to retirement, death or as a result of liquidation, dissolution, sale, merger or a similar event affecting the Company or a Participating Affiliate, the amount credited to his or her Purchase Account will be returned to him or her or, in the case of the Participant’s death, to the person or persons entitled thereto under Section 16, without interest, as soon as administratively practicable after such Termination Date and his or her Option will be automatically terminated.
14. Funding; Interest. Except as required by applicable law, the Company shall not be required to fund or set aside any funds or amounts under this Plan, including in respect of any Purchase Accounts. No interest shall accrue on the amounts credited to Purchase Accounts in this Plan.

15. Stock.
   (a) The stock subject to Options shall be common stock of the Company as traded on the Exchange or on such other exchange as the Shares may be listed from time to time.
   (b) Subject to adjustment upon changes in capitalization of the Company as provided in Section 18 hereof, the maximum number of Shares which shall be made available for sale under this Plan shall be ______ Shares. In addition, subject to adjustments upon changes in capitalization of the Company as provided in Section 18 hereof, the maximum number of Shares which shall be made available for sale under this Plan shall automatically increase on the first day of each fiscal year beginning with the first day of the second (2nd) fiscal year that begins after the date the Plan is adopted and ending with the first day of the tenth (10th) fiscal year that begins after the date the Plan is adopted, by an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one percent (1%) of the sum of (A) the number of Shares and (B) the number of FTW units (excluding those held by the Company), in each case, outstanding on the last day of the preceding fiscal year, or (ii) such number of Shares as may be established by the Board; provided that in no event shall the aggregate number of additional Shares made available under this Plan pursuant to this sentence exceed ______. If, on a given Exercise Date, the number of Shares with respect to which Options are to be exercised exceeds the number of Shares then available under this Plan, the Committee shall make a pro rata allocation of the Shares remaining available for purchase in as uniform a manner as shall be practicable and as it shall determine to be equitable.
   (c) A Participant shall have no interest or voting right in Shares covered by his or her Option until such Option has been exercised and the Participant has become a holder of record of Shares acquired pursuant to such exercise.

16. Designation of Beneficiary. The Committee may permit Participants to designate beneficiaries to receive any Purchased Shares or the amount credited to the Participant’s Purchase Account under this Plan in the event of such Participant’s death. Beneficiary designations shall be made in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Committee. If no properly designated beneficiary survives the Participant, the Purchased Shares and amount credited to the Participant’s Purchase Account, if any, will be distributed to the Participant’s estate.

17. Assignability of Options. Neither amounts credited to a Participant’s Purchase Account nor any rights with regard to the exercise of an Option or to receive Shares under this Plan may be assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise disposed of in any way (other than by will, the laws of descent and distribution or as provided in Section 16 hereof) by the Participant. Any such attempt at assignment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition shall be without effect, except that the Company may treat such act as an election to withdraw from an Offering Period in accordance with Section 12 hereof.
18. Adjustment of Number of Shares Subject to Options.

(a) Adjustment. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, the maximum number and kind of securities available for purchase under this Plan, as well as the price per security, the number of securities covered by each Option under this Plan which has not yet been exercised and all limits denominated in shares under the Plan shall be appropriately adjusted in the event of any equity restructuring (within the meaning of Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation or any successor or replacement accounting standard), such as a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization through a large, nonrecurring cash dividend, combination or reclassification of the common stock of the Company. Such adjustment shall be made by the Board or the Committee, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding, and conclusive. If any such adjustment would result in a fractional security being available under this Plan, such fractional security shall be disregarded. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of Shares subject to an Option. The Options granted pursuant to the 423 Component shall not be adjusted in a manner that causes such Options to fail to qualify as options issued pursuant to an “employee stock purchase plan” within the meaning of Section 423 of the Code.

(b) Dissolution or Liquidation. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, in the event of the planned dissolution or liquidation of the Company, the Offering Period then in progress will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed action, unless an earlier date is otherwise provided by the Committee or the Board, and the Board may either provide for the purchase of Shares as of the date on which such Offering Period terminates (which will be deemed to occur in all events prior to the consummation of such proposed action, if falling on the same date) or return to each Participant the amount credited to such Participant’s Purchase Account.

(c) Merger or Asset Sale. In the event of a Change in Control (as defined in the Company’s 2020 Omnibus Incentive Plan) or the merger of the Company with or into another corporation, each outstanding Option shall be assumed or a substantially similar option substituted by the successor corporation or a parent or subsidiary of the successor corporation, unless the Board or the Committee determines, in the exercise of its sole discretion, that in lieu of such assumption or substitution to either terminate all outstanding Options and return to each Participant the amounts credited to such Participant’s Purchase Account or to provide for the Offering Period in progress to end on a date prior to the date of the Company’s consummation of such Change in Control or merger, resulting in the Exercise Date occurring as of the last Business Day of such shortened Offering Period.
19. Amendments or Termination of this Plan.

(a) Subject to any stockholder approval required by applicable law, regulation or Exchange or other applicable stock exchange rule, the Board or the Committee may at any time and for any reason amend, modify, suspend, discontinue or terminate this Plan without notice; provided that the terms of any amendment to the Plan or any offering hereunder must be in writing or in electronic form.

(b) Without stockholder consent, the Board or the Committee shall be entitled to change the Purchase Price, Offering Periods, Purchase Periods, eligibility requirements, limit or increase the frequency and/or number of changes in the amount withheld during a Purchase Period, return all amounts in Purchase Accounts to holder of such account, establish the exchange ratio applicable to amounts withheld in a currency other than U.S. dollars, permit payroll withholding in an amount less than or greater than the amount designated by a Participant in order to adjust for delays or mistakes in the Company’s processing of properly completed withholding elections, establish reasonable waiting and adjustment periods and/or accounting and crediting procedures to ensure that amounts applied toward the purchase of Shares for each Participant properly correspond with amounts withheld from the Participant’s Compensation, and establish such other limitations or procedures as the Board or the Committee determines in its sole discretion advisable which are consistent with this Plan; provided that changes to (i) the Purchase Price, (ii) the Offering Period, (iii) the Purchase Period, (iv) the maximum percentage of Compensation that may be deducted pursuant to Section 6(a) or (v) the maximum number of Shares that may be purchased in a Purchase Period, shall not be effective until communicated to Participants.

20. No Other Obligations. The receipt of an Option pursuant to this Plan shall impose no obligation upon the Participant to purchase any Shares covered by such Option. Nor shall the granting of an Option pursuant to this Plan constitute an agreement or an understanding, express or implied, on the part of the Company or any of its affiliates to employ the Participant for any specified period.

21. Notices and Communication. Any notice or other form of communication which the Company or a Participant may be required or permitted to give to the other shall be provided through such means as designated by the Committee, including but not limited to any paper or electronic method.

22. Condition upon Issuance of Shares.

(a) Shares shall not be issued with respect to an Option unless the exercise of such Option and the issuance and delivery of such Shares pursuant thereto shall comply with all applicable provisions of law, U.S. or non-U.S., including, without limitation, the 1933 Act and the 1934 Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed, and shall be further subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance.
(b) As a condition to the exercise of an Option, the Company may require the person exercising such Option to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares if, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, such a representation is required by any of the aforementioned applicable provisions of law.

23. General Compliance. This Plan will be administered, and Options will be exercised in compliance with the 1933 Act, 1934 Act and all other applicable securities laws and Company policies, including without limitation, any insider trading policy of the Company.

24. Term of this Plan. This Plan shall become effective upon the earlier to occur of (i) its adoption by the Board and (ii) its approval by the stockholders of the Company (the “Effective Date”), and shall continue in effect until the earlier of (A) the termination of this Plan pursuant to Section 19 hereof and (B) the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, with no new Offering Periods commencing on or after such tenth anniversary.

25. Governing Law. This Plan and all Options granted hereunder shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without reference to choice of law principles and subject in all cases to the Code and the regulations thereunder with respect to the 423 Component. By electing to participate in this Plan, each Participant agrees or will be deemed to have agreed to (i) submit irrevocably and unconditionally to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Plan or any award, (ii) not commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Plan or any award, except in the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and (iii) waive, by way of motion as a defense or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that he or she is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts that his or her property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Plan or the subject matter thereof may not be enforced in or by such court. Further, by electing to participate in this Plan, each Participant waives (or will be deemed to have waived), to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, any right to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim concerning any rights under this Plan, or under any amendment, waiver, consent, instrument, document or other agreement delivered or which in the future may be delivered in connection therewith, and agrees (or will be deemed to have agreed) that any such action, proceedings or counterclaim will be tried before a court and not before a jury. By electing to participate in this Plan, each Participant certifies that no officer, representative, or attorney of the Company has represented, expressly or otherwise, that the Company would not, in the event of any action, proceeding, or counterclaim, seek to enforce the foregoing waivers.
Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, nothing herein is to be construed as limiting the ability of the Company (or any of its Participating Affiliates) and a Participant to agree to submit any dispute arising under the terms of this Plan to binding arbitration or as limiting the ability of the Company (or any of its Participating Affiliates) to require any individual to agree to submit such disputes to binding arbitration as a condition of receiving an award hereunder.

26. Non-U.S. Participants. Without the amendment of this Plan, the Company may provide for the participation in this Plan by Employees who are subject to the laws of non-U.S. countries or jurisdictions on such terms and conditions additional to or different from those specified in this Plan as may in the judgment of the Company be necessary or desirable to foster and promote achievement of the purposes of this Plan and, in furtherance of such purposes the Company may make such modifications, amendments, procedures, subplans and the like as may be necessary or advisable to comply with provisions of laws of other countries or jurisdictions in which the Company or the Participating Affiliates operate or have employees. Each subplan shall constitute a separate “offering” under this Plan in accordance with Treas. Reg. §1.423-2(a) and, to the extent inconsistent with the requirements of Section 423, any such subplan shall be considered part of the Non-423 Component, and rights granted thereunder shall not be required by the terms of this Plan to comply with Section 423 of the Code.

27. Sections 423 and 409A. The 423 Component shall be exempt from the application of Section 409A of the Code, and any ambiguities herein shall be interpreted to so be exempt from Section 409A of the Code. The Non-423 Component is intended to be exempt from the application of Section 409A of the Code under the short-term deferral exception and any ambiguities shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with such intent. In furtherance of the foregoing and notwithstanding any provision in this Plan to the contrary, if the Committee determines that an Option granted under this Plan may be subject to Section 409A of the Code or that any provision in this Plan would cause an Option to be subject to Section 409A, the Committee may amend the terms of this Plan and/or of an outstanding Option granted under this Plan, or take such other action the Committee determines is necessary or appropriate, in each case, without the participant’s consent, to exempt any outstanding Option or future Option that may be granted under this Plan from or to allow any such Options to comply with Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Company, the Board, the Committee nor any person acting on their behalf shall have any liability to a Participant or any other party by reason of any acceleration of income, any additional tax, or any other tax or liability asserted by reason of the failure of any Option or this Plan to be exempt from or compliant with Section 423 of the Code, Section 409A of the Code or by reason of any other tax resulting from a Participant’s participation in the Plan.

28. Taxes. Payroll deductions will be made on an after-tax basis. The Committee and the Company will have the right, as a condition to exercising an Option, to make such provision as it deems necessary to satisfy its obligations to withhold U.S. federal, state or local and non-U.S. income or other taxes incurred by reason of the exercise of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of Shares under this Plan. In the discretion of the Committee and the Company and subject to applicable law (including, if applicable, requirements for exemption from Section 16 of the 1934 Act), such tax obligations may be paid in whole or in part by delivery of Shares to the Company, including Shares purchased under this Plan, valued at Fair Market Value, but not in excess of the maximum statutory amounts required to be withheld. Without limiting the foregoing, the Committee or the Company may require (and by becoming a Participant in the Plan, the Participant agrees) that a Participant, as a condition to the exercise of an Option under this Plan, deliver an amount in cash necessary to satisfy all applicable withholding obligations in respect of such exercise and, if such condition is not satisfied by a Participant within ten (10) days following an otherwise applicable Exercise Date, the amount in such Participant’s Participant Account will be returned to him or her by the Company.
1. DEFINED TERMS

Exhibit A, which is incorporated by reference herein, defines certain terms used in the Plan and sets forth operational rules related to those terms.

2. PURPOSE

The Plan has been established to advance the interests of the Company and its Affiliates by providing for the grant of cash-based incentive Awards to Participants.

3. ADMINISTRATION

The Administrator shall administer the Plan and shall have discretionary authority, subject only to the express provisions of the Plan, to interpret the Plan and any Award; to determine eligibility for and grant Awards; to adjust the Performance Criterion or Criteria applicable to Awards; to determine, modify, accelerate or waive the terms and conditions of any Award; to determine the form of settlement of Awards; to prescribe forms, rules and procedures relating to the Plan and Awards; and to otherwise do all things necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan or any Award. Determination made under the Plan and/or with respect to Awards need not be uniform among Participants. All determinations of the Administrator made with respect to the Plan or any Award are conclusive and shall bind all persons.

4. ELIGIBILITY; PARTICIPATION

The Administrator may select Participants from among executive officers and other key employees of the Company and its Affiliates.

5. GRANT OF AWARDS

A Participant who is granted an Award will be entitled to a payment, if any, in respect of the Award only if all conditions to payment have been satisfied (or deemed to have been satisfied) in accordance with the Plan and the terms of the Award. By accepting (or being deemed to have accepted) an Award, the Participant agrees or will be deemed to have agreed to the terms and conditions of the Award and the Plan. The Administrator will select the Participants, if any, who receive Awards for each Performance Period and, for each Award, will establish the following:

(a) the Performance Criterion or Criteria applicable to the Award;
(b) the amount or amounts that will be payable (subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 6) if the Performance Criterion or Criteria are achieved in whole or in part; and
(c) such other terms and conditions as the Administrator determines with respect to the Award.
The Administrator may, but need not, provide that Awards will be evidenced by a written agreement, written notice or other written documentation, but in the event of any dispute regarding whether an Award has been made, the Participant must provide clear and convincing evidence that an Award has been made.

6. DETERMINATION OF PERFORMANCE; AMOUNTS PAYABLE

As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the applicable Performance Period, the Administrator will determine whether and to what extent, if at all, the Performance Criterion or Criteria applicable to each Award granted for such Performance Period have been satisfied. The Administrator will then determine the amount payable, if any, under each Award. The Administrator may, in its sole discretion and with or without specifying its reasons for doing so, after determining the amount that would otherwise be payable in respect of any Award, adjust the actual payment, if any, to be made with respect to such Award. The Administrator may exercise the discretion described in the immediately preceding sentence either in individual cases or in ways that affect more than one Participant. In each case, the Administrator’s discretionary determination, which may affect different Awards differently, is conclusive and bind all persons.

7. PAYMENTS UNDER AWARDS

The Administrator will determine the payment dates for Awards under the Plan. Except as otherwise determined by the Administrator or the Company:

(a) all payments under the Plan will be made, if at all, not later than two and one-half months after the end of the fiscal year in which the Performance Period ends; provided, that the Administrator may (but is not required to) authorize elective deferrals of any Award payments in accordance with the deferral rules of Section 409A;

(b) payment will not be made with respect to an Award unless the Participant has remained employed with the Company and its Affiliates through the date of payment; and

(c) awards under the Plan are intended to qualify for exemption from Section 409A of the Code and shall be construed and administered accordingly.

8. TAX WITHHOLDING

All payments under the Plan will be reduced by all tax and other amounts required to be withheld with respect to the payment. Any amounts withheld pursuant to this Section 9 will be treated as though such payment had been made directly to the Participant.

9. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Administrator may at any time or times amend the Plan or any outstanding Award for any purpose which may at the time be permitted by applicable law, and may at any time terminate the Plan as to any future grants of Awards. Any amendments to the Plan will be conditioned upon stockholder approval only to the extent, if any, such approval is required by applicable law (including the Code) or stock exchange requirements, as determined by the Administrator.

10. RECOVERY OF COMPENSATION

Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator in writing, each Award will be subject to any applicable policy of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates that provides for forfeiture, disgorgement, recoupment or clawback with respect to incentive compensation that includes Awards under the Plan and will be further subject to forfeiture and disgorgement to the extent required by law or applicable stock exchange listing standards, including, without limitation, Section 10D of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Subject to the terms of any applicable Award agreement, each Participant, by accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, agrees (or will be deemed to have agreed) to the terms of this Section 10 and any clawback, recoupment or similar policy of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates and further agrees (or will be deemed to have further agreed) to cooperate fully with the Administrator, and to cause any and all permitted transferees of the Participant to cooperate fully with the Administrator, to effectuate any forfeiture or disgorgement described in this Section 10. Neither the Administrator nor the Company nor any other person, other than the Participant and his or her permitted transferees, if any, will be responsible for any adverse tax or other consequences to a Participant or his or her permitted transferees, if any, that may arise in connection with this Section 10.

(a) Waiver of Jury Trial. By accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, each Participant waives (or will be deemed to have waived), to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, any right to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim concerning any rights under the Plan or any Award, or under any amendment, waiver, consent, instrument, document or other agreement delivered or which in the future may be delivered in connection therewith, and agrees (or will be deemed to have agreed) that any such action, proceedings or counterclaim will be tried before a court and not before a jury, subject to the last sentence of this Section 11(a). By accepting or being deemed to have accepted an Award under the Plan, each Participant certifies that no officer, representative, or attorney of the Company or any of its Affiliates has represented, expressly or otherwise, that the Company would not, in the event of any action, proceeding or counterclaim, seek to enforce the foregoing waivers. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, nothing herein is to be construed as limiting the ability of the Company and a Participant to agree (or superseding any prior agreement) to submit any dispute arising under the terms of the Plan or any Award to binding arbitration or as limiting the ability of the Company to require any individual to agree to submit such disputes to binding arbitration as a condition of receiving an Award hereunder.

(b) Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or any Award, none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates, nor any of its subsidiaries, nor the Administrator, nor any person acting on behalf of the Company, its Affiliates, any of its subsidiaries, or the Administrator, will be liable to any Participant, to any permitted transferee, to the estate or beneficiary of any Participant or any permitted transferee, or to any other person by reason of any acceleration of income, any additional tax, or any penalty, interest or other liability asserted by reason of the failure of an Award to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A or by reason of Section 4999 of the Code (or, in each case, any similar state or local tax law) or otherwise asserted with respect to any Award.
(c) Unfunded Plan. The Company’s obligations under the Plan are unfunded, and no Participant will have any right to specific assets of the Company in respect of any Equity Award. Participants will be general unsecured creditors of the Company with respect to any amounts due or payable under the Plan.

(d) Governing Law. Except as otherwise provided by the express terms of an Award, the domestic substantive laws of the State of Delaware govern the provisions of the Plan and of Awards under the Plan and all claims or disputes arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award under the Plan or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule that would cause the application of the domestic substantive laws of any other jurisdiction; provided that this provision shall not be construed to require an employee who primarily resides and works in California to deprive the employee of the substantive protection of California law with respect to a controversy arising in California, in each case, except to the extent permitted by Section 925(e) of the California Labor Code.

(e) Jurisdiction. Unless otherwise provided in an Award Agreement or otherwise agreed in a writing with the Company or any of its Affiliates (including an arbitration agreement or arrangement described in Section 11(a)), by accepting (or being deemed to have accepted) an Award, each Participant agrees or will be deemed to have agreed to (i) submit irrevocably and unconditionally to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award; (ii) not commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the Plan or any Award, except in the federal and state courts located within the geographic boundaries of the United States District Court Delaware; and (iii) waive, and not assert, by way of motion as a defense or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that he or she is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts that his or her property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that the Plan or any Award or the subject matter thereof may not be enforced in or by such court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision shall not be construed to require an employee who primarily resides and works in California to adjudicate outside of California a claim arising in California, except to the extent permitted by Section 925(e) of the California Labor Code.

(f) Other Compensation Arrangements. The existence of the Plan or the grant of any Award will not affect the right of the Company or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries to grant any person bonuses or other compensation in addition to Awards under the Plan.

(g) Rights Limited. Nothing in the Plan or any Award will be construed as giving any person the right to be granted an Award or to continued employment or service with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The loss of any Award will not constitute an element of damages in the event of a termination of a Participant’s employment for any reason, even if the termination is in violation of an obligation of the Company or any of its Affiliates to the Participant.
(h) Effective Date. The Plan will be effective upon adoption of the Plan by the Administrator and will supersede and replace the Company’s annual cash bonus program with respect to awards granted to eligible executive officers and employees for fiscal years beginning after the date of adoption. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan will not supersede any provisions in an individual employment agreement, offer letter, severance agreement or similar written agreement between a Participant and the Company or one of its Affiliates regarding any individual terms that apply with respect to such Participant’s annual or other periodic cash bonus opportunities.

The Subscriber is purchasing the Units to be acquired by the Subscriber hereunder for his, her or its own account and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, the distribution or public offering thereof in violation of the Securities Act, or any other applicable federal, state or foreign securities laws or regulations. The Subscriber understands that the holding of the Units involves substantial risk. There is not expected to be any public or other market for the Units, and there can be no assurance as to when, or whether, any such market will develop. The Subscriber understands that there are substantial restrictions on the transferability of the Units and, accordingly, it may not be possible to liquidate his, her or its investment in the Company.

3.2.4 Knowledge and Experience. The Subscriber has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Subscriber is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of subscribing for Units under this Agreement, is able to incur a complete loss of such investment and is able to bear the economic risk of such investment for an indefinite period of time.

3.2.5 Accredited Investor. The Subscriber is an accredited investor as that term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, unless otherwise indicated on the Accredited Investor Questionnaire provided to the Company.
3.2.6 Disclosure.

(a) The Subscriber is employed by or provides services to the Company or one of its Affiliates. In connection with the Subscriber’s investment in the Units, the Company has made available to the Subscriber certain confidential information relating to the opportunity to invest in Units of the Company and describing the equity securities of the Company, including the Units, and certain risks associated with investing in such securities, including without limitation a confidential information memorandum containing a description of certain risk factors associated with such securities.

(b) The Subscriber has carefully considered the potential risks relating to the Company and the purchase of the Units. The Subscriber is familiar with and has been given access to all other information regarding the financial condition, properties, operations, prospects and the proposed business and operations of the Company and its Affiliates that the Subscriber has requested in order to evaluate his, her or its investment in the Company. During the course of the offering of the Units and prior to the date hereof, the Company has made available to the Subscriber the opportunity to ask questions of, and to receive answers from, persons acting on behalf of the Company concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Units, and to obtain any additional information desired by the Subscriber with respect to the Company and its Affiliates. The Subscriber has had an opportunity (a) to question, and to receive information from, the Company concerning the Company and the Subscriber’s investment in the Company and (b) to obtain additional information necessary to verify the accuracy of any information that the Subscriber deems relevant to make an informed investment decision as to the purchase of the Units.

(c) The Subscriber has carefully considered the potential risks relating to the Company and the purchase of the Units. The Subscriber has made, either alone or together with its advisors, such independent investigation of the Company and its Affiliates as the Subscriber deems to be, or his, her or its advisors deem to be, necessary or advisable in connection with this investment. The Subscriber understands that no federal or state agency has made any finding or determination as to the fairness of this investment.

3.2.7 No Representations or Warranties; Acknowledgments. No representations or warranties, oral or otherwise, have been made to the Subscriber or any party acting on the Subscriber’s behalf in connection with the offer and sale of the Units other than the representations and warranties specifically set forth in this Agreement. The Subscriber has had an opportunity, and has been urged and advised by the Company, to consult an independent financial, tax and legal advisor and the Subscriber’s decision to enter into this Agreement has been based solely upon the Subscriber’s evaluation. The Subscriber is aware that there are significant restrictions, including those provided for in the LLC Agreement, on the Subscriber’s ability to transfer or dispose of the Units.
4. Company Call Option.

4.1. Upon (i) the termination of the Subscriber’s employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates for any reason, or (ii) the Subscriber’s violation of any restrictive covenant with the Company or any of its Affiliates (including without limitation any restrictive covenants relating to noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidential information, or assignment of intellectual property) (each, a “Restrictive Covenant”), the Company may, within one hundred and eighty days (180) days following the latest to occur of (a) such termination of employment, (b) the date that is six (6) months plus one (1) day following the date the Units were acquired, and (c) the date the Company obtains actual knowledge of the violation of such Restrictive Covenant, repurchase all or any of the Units (whether held by the Subscriber or a direct or indirect transferee of such Unit or Units) for cash at their aggregate Fair Market Value determined on the date that the notice of the repurchase is sent to the Subscriber (or his, her or its transferee).

4.2. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the event that the Subscriber commences employment or a service relationship with a “Competitor” (or similar or correlative term, as defined in the applicable Restrictive Covenant), other than an Affiliate of the Company, that is not in violation of any Restrictive Covenant, the Company may, within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the later to occur of (a) the date on which the Company obtained actual knowledge of the commencement of such employment or other service relationship or (b) the date that is six (6) months plus one (1) day following the date the Units were acquired, repurchase all or any of the Units (whether held by the Subscriber or a direct or indirect transferee of such Unit or Units) for cash at their aggregate Fair Market Value determined on the date that notice of the repurchase is sent to the Subscriber (or his, her or its transferee).

4.3. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the LLC Agreement to the contrary, if required under the Company’s debt covenants, the Company may repurchase such Unit or Units with a promissory note.

4.4. The closing of any repurchase effected pursuant to this Section 4 shall occur not later than the end of the fiscal quarter following the fiscal quarter in which the Company delivers to the repurchase notice contemplated hereby (provided, that such time may be extended as necessary to comply with requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or applicable foreign antitrust laws or other applicable legal requirements) at the principal office of the Company, or at such other time and location as the parties to such repurchase may mutually determine. As a condition of entering into this Agreement, the Subscriber agrees that at any time after entering into this Agreement that he, she or it shall execute, and cause any of his, her or its transferees to execute, any documents (including a power of attorney and/or a Unit repurchase agreement containing customary representations and a release of claims) determined by the Company to be necessary or appropriate to give effect to the rights and obligations set forth herein.

4.5. This Section 4 shall expire upon the closing of an Initial Public Offering.
5. Accession to LLC Agreement. By executing this Agreement, the Subscriber hereby agrees, in respect of the Units, to be bound by the terms of the LLC Agreement as a Member, and to execute an Accession Agreement to the LLC Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the “Accession Agreement”) concurrently with the execution of this Agreement. The Subscriber and the Company acknowledge and agree that the Accession Agreement will provide that (i) Section 12.1 of the LLC Agreement shall not apply to the Units and (ii) the Subscriber will not be treated as an Affiliate of the TPG Investor for purposes of Section 12.2 of the LLC Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the LLC Agreement or any other document, including the Accession Agreement, the Subscriber shall have no right to access or review Exhibit 3.1 to the LLC Agreement without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers, which may be granted or withheld in the Board of Managers’ sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

6. Entity Subscribers. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that the Subscriber is an entity, the Subscriber and the individual in respect of whom the subscription opportunity is being offered (the “Service Provider”) agree as follows:

   6.1. The Subscriber is a trust or other estate planning vehicle the beneficiaries of which include only the Service Provider and Members of the Immediate Family (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of the Service Provider;

   6.2. For so long as the Subscriber continues to hold any of the Units, neither the Subscriber nor the Service Provider will permit any interest in the Subscriber to be transferred to any Person other than the Service Provider or a Member of the Immediate Family of the Service Provider in accordance with the requirements of the LLC Agreement; and

   6.3. For purposes of Section 4 of this Agreement (and any other provisions related to the provision of services by the Subscriber to the Company or any of its Affiliates), all references to the Subscriber shall be construed as references to the Service Provider.

   6.4. For purposes of Section 3 of this Agreement (and any other representations contained herein), all references to the Subscriber shall be deemed to also refer to the Service Provider (with it being acknowledged, however, that the Subscriber alone is acquiring the Units and that Service Provider’s representations are made in connection with the acquisition of the Units by the Subscriber as the Person making the decision on behalf of the Subscriber).

7. Legends.

   7.1. Restrictive Securities Act Legend. In the event that any of the Units are certificated, he certificate or certificates evidencing such Units may bear such restrictive legends as the Company and/or the Company’s counsel may deem necessary or advisable under applicable law or pursuant to this Agreement, including, without limitation, the following legend:
7.2. Termination of Restrictions. The legends authorized by this Section 7 shall be removed by the Company upon request without charge as to any particular Units (a) when, in the opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Company, such restrictions are no longer required in order to assure compliance with the Securities Act or (b) when such Units shall have been registered under the Securities Act.

8. Power of Attorney. The Subscriber hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Board of Managers (or its designee) with full power of substitution, acting jointly or severally, as his, her or its attorney-in-fact and agent to sign, execute and deliver, in the Subscriber’s name and on his, her or its behalf, all or any such agreement, deeds, instruments, documents and/or any counterpart thereof or certificates or to take any such action as it deems necessary from time to time or as is required under any applicable law to admit the Subscriber as a Member of the Company or to conduct the business of the Company, including (without limitation) the power and authority to sign, execute and deliver (or attach signature pages to) (i) the LLC Agreement, (ii) any amendment to the LLC Agreement adopted in accordance with its terms, (iii) any agreements, deeds, instruments or documents reasonably necessary to satisfy the Subscriber’s obligations under Section 4 hereof, (iv) any proxy related to the 280G Vote (as defined in the LLC Agreement) authorized by Section 20.3 of the LLC Agreement, under which the Chief Executive Officer of the Company or a substitute appointed by the TPG Investor may approve or disapprove certain compensatory payments subject to Section 280G of the Code, or (v) such documents as the Board of Managers deems necessary in good faith to effectuate the customary lock-up following a Public Offering as set forth in Section 11.1(e) of the LLC Agreement. This power of attorney is given to secure the obligations of the Subscriber hereunder and deemed coupled with an interest of the Board of Managers and is irrevocable.

9.1. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Plan, the LLC Agreement, the Accession Agreement and the other agreements referred to herein set forth the entire understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede any prior contemporaneous understandings, agreements, or representations by or between the parties hereto, written or oral, to the extent they related in any way to the subject matter hereof.

9.2. Amendment and Waivers. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement will be valid unless the same is in writing and signed by each of the parties hereto; provided, however, that any direct or indirect amendment or modification to Section 4, Section 5, this Section 9.2, Section 9.3, Section 9.4, Section 9.5 or Section 9.9 shall require the prior written consent of the Intel Majority. Any waiver of any term or condition will not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or a subsequent waiver of the same term or condition, or a waiver of any other term or condition of this Agreement. The failure of any party hereto to assert any of its rights hereunder will not constitute a waiver of any of such rights. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

9.3. Succession and Assignment. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, heirs and representatives; provided, however, that the Subscriber may not assign any of the Subscriber’s rights hereunder except in connection with a transfer of the Units in compliance with the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement and this Agreement. Any purported assignment of this Agreement made in breach of this Section 9.3 shall be void ab initio and of no force or effect.

9.4. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement will not confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Intel and its Subsidiaries shall be express third-party beneficiaries of Section 5 and Section 9.9 hereof.

9.5. Survival. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made herein shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and transfer of any Units.

9.6. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

9.7. Electronic Signatures. The signature to this Agreement on behalf of the Company may be an electronic signature that will be treated as an original signature for all purposes hereunder and such electronic signature will be binding against the Company and will create a legally binding agreement when this Agreement is countersigned by the Subscriber.

9.8. Headings. The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

9.9. Indemnity. The Subscriber hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its Members (other than the Subscriber), Affiliates, directors and officers and their successors and permitted assignees (other than those of the Subscriber and its Affiliates) from and against all losses, damages, liabilities and expenses (including without limitation reasonable attorneys fees and charges) resulting from any breach of any representation, warranty or agreement of such indemnifying party in this Agreement or any misrepresentation by such indemnifying party in this Agreement. If and to the extent that the foregoing undertaking may be unavailable or unenforceable for any reason, the Subscriber hereby agrees to make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of such losses, damages, liabilities and expenses which is permissible under applicable law.

9.10. No Recourse. Notwithstanding anything that may be expressed or implied in this Agreement, each of the Company and the Subscriber covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection with this Agreement shall be had against any current or future director, officer, employee, partner, shareholder, subscriber, member or trustee of the Company or the Subscriber or of any partner, member, subscriber, trustee, affiliate or assignee thereof, whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any statute, regulation or other applicable law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any current or future officer, agent or employee of the Company or any current or future director, officer, employee, partner, shareholder, subscriber, member or trustee of any affiliate or assignee thereof, as such for any obligation of the Subscriber under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection with this Agreement for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation.

9.11. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction.

9.12. Notices. Any notice, request or other communication given in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given (i) when personally delivered to the recipient (provided written acknowledgement of receipt is obtained), (ii) two days after being sent by reputable overnight courier service or (iii) three days after being mailed by first class mail, return receipt requested, to the recipient at the address below indicated:

Effective: [DATE]
Equity Adjustment Agreement for Senior Executives

This agreement (this “Agreement”) describes certain adjustments that are being made to outstanding equity or equity-based incentive awards of Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC (“FTW”) and any FTW Class A Units received under such awards (collectively, “Awards”) issued under the McAfee 2017 Management Incentive Plan (formerly known as the Foundation Technology Worldwide LLC 2017 Management Incentive Plan) (as amended from time to time, the “2017 Plan”), as well as purchased or otherwise acquired FTW Class A Units (“Co-Invest Equity”), in connection with the initial public offering of shares of Class A common stock of McAfee Corp. (“McAfee”) and the related reorganization transactions (together, the “IPO”). FTW, its subsidiaries, and McAfee are collectively referred to in this Agreement as the “Company”.

In connection with the IPO, McAfee is becoming an equityholder in FTW and shares of Class A common stock of McAfee (“McAfee Shares”) are expected to become publicly traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

You are receiving this Agreement because you and/or persons related to you (which we together refer to as “you” or the “Participant”) currently hold one or more Awards (“your Awards”) and/or Co-Invest Equity (“your Co-Invest Equity”) that will be adjusted in connection with IPO. The IPO constitutes a Covered Transaction under the 2017 Plan and this Agreement (including all terms set forth herein) reflects the arrangement governing the terms of such Covered Transaction. The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth certain adjustments that are being made to your Awards and/or your Co-Invest Equity that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in your Award Agreement(s), the 2017 Plan, any subscription agreement and/or equity investment plan related to your Co-Invest Equity and/or the FTW limited liability company agreement (as amended and/or amended and restated from time to time, including the amendment and restatement effective in connection with the consummation of the IPO (unless otherwise expressly provided herein), the “LLC Agreement”) or any other plan or agreement applicable to you or to which you are a party, apply to your Award(s) and/or your Co-Invest Equity as of and following the effective time of this Agreement, as described below.

1. Effective Time; Defined Terms; No Call Option.

   a. This Agreement, in its entirety, is effective as of immediately prior to the consummation of the IPO (the “Effective Time”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the IPO is not consummated on or before March 31, 2021, this Agreement will be null and void and have no force or effect. In the event that any Awards or Co-Invest Equity described herein are not outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, the treatment described herein shall not apply and such Awards and/or Co-Invest Equity will be treated in accordance with its otherwise applicable terms.
b. Capitalized terms used and not defined herein have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the 2017 Plan, a relevant award agreement, a relevant subscription agreement or the LLC Agreement, in each case, as applicable. All references in the remainder of this Agreement and in the governing documents to Award(s) and Co-Invest Equity dated prior to the date hereof to “RSUs”, “Class A Units”, and “Management Incentive Units” (and, in each case, similar and correlative terms) are to be construed to refer to “FTW RSUs”, “FTW Class A Units”, or “FTW Management Incentive Units” (or, in each case, similar and correlative terms), respectively, after taking into account the adjustments described herein and Reorganization Transactions contemplated by Section 8 below. With respect to any Award (or portion thereof) that is being converted into an award in respect of McAfee Shares, references in the governing documents to the “Company” shall be construed to refer to (or to also include) McAfee to the extent necessary or appropriate to give effect to such assumption or conversion and the transactions described herein, in each case, as determined by the Administrator of the 2017 Plan in its sole discretion.

c. Notwithstanding anything herein or in the LLC Agreement to the contrary, the call option set forth in Section 4.03 of the LLC Agreement shall not apply to your FTW Class A Units or FTW MIUs.

2. FTW Class A Units.

a. FTW Class A Units issued to you prior to the Effective Time (however acquired) may, at your election, but subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement (including the right of McAfee to cash settle exchanged FTW Class A Units), be exchanged for McAfee Shares (but, notwithstanding any term of the LLC Agreement to the contrary, in no event earlier than January 1, 2021). Any election to exchange FTW Class A Units for McAfee Shares will be subject to the additional terms and conditions specified in the LLC Agreement and McAfee Shares acquired upon any such exchange will be subject to the transfer restrictions described herein.

b. Any FTW Class A Units that you do not exchange for McAfee Shares (and that are not cash settled pursuant to the LLC Agreement) will continue to be governed by the terms of the governing documents pursuant to which they were issued and the LLC Agreement (as the same have been or may be amended from time to time, including as set forth herein).

3. FTW Management Incentive Units.

i. Any unvested FTW Management Incentive Units (“FTW MIUs”) you hold will remain outstanding and continue to vest on the same time-based vesting schedule that applies to them currently, and will remain subject to the same performance-vesting conditions that apply to them currently (if any), except as adjusted in this Agreement. Vested FTW MIUs (including FTW MIUs that, by their terms as adjusted herein, become vested following the IPO), may, at the election of the Participant, but not earlier than January 1, 2021 and subject to the other terms of the LLC Agreement (including the right of McAfee to cash settle exchanged Units of FTW), be exchanged for McAfee Shares after first being converted to FTW Class A Units. Except as expressly set forth herein, all FTW MIUs will remain subject to the terms of the governing documents pursuant to which they were issued and the LLC Agreement (as the same have been or may be amended from time to time) and McAfee Shares acquired upon any such exchange will be subject to the transfer restrictions described herein.

b. Any FTW MIUs that are not exchanged for McAfee Shares (and that are not cash settled pursuant to the LLC Agreement) will continue to be governed by the terms of the governing documents pursuant to which they were issued and the LLC Agreement (as the same have been or may be amended from time to time, including as set forth herein).

4. FTW RSUs, PSUs, CRSUs and CPSUs

a. As of the IPO, FTW “RSUs” (including those with time- and/or performance-based vesting conditions (including those sometimes referred to as “PSUs”), collectively, “FTW RSUs”) and cash-settled FTW RSUs (and including those with time- and/or performance-based vesting conditions (and including those sometimes referred to as “CPSUs”), collectively, “FTW CRSUs”) that by their terms become payable in connection with the IPO will be settled in McAfee Shares, unless otherwise set forth in the Non-U.S. Addendum, based on the price of a share of Class A common stock of McAfee as of the Effective Time (or, if applicable, as of the date of your earlier termination of employment). Except as otherwise permitted by the Company pursuant to Section 9 below or as otherwise set forth in the Non-U.S. Addendum, a portion of such McAfee Shares will be sold pursuant to a broker-assisted sale in order to generate sufficient cash to satisfy applicable withholding taxes, if any (at up to maximum statutory withholding rates) in respect of such FTW RSUs and/or FTW CRSUs, as applicable.

b. Unvested FTW RSUs and unvested FTW CRSUs will be, as of the Effective Time, assumed by McAfee and converted into an equal number of restricted stock units that will be settled in McAfee Shares (“McAfee Converted RSUs”) once vested, which will be eligible to vest on the same time-based vesting schedule, and subject to the same performance-based vesting conditions (if any), except as adjusted in this Agreement, as applied to the original FTW RSUs or FTW CRSUs, as applicable.

c. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, McAfee Converted RSUs will remain subject to the same terms that applied to original FTW RSUs or FTW CRSUs, as applicable, by the terms of the governing documents pursuant to which they were issued (as the same have been or may be amended from time to time, including as set forth herein).

5. Tax Receivable Payments. You will be eligible for payments under that certain Tax Receivable Agreement by and among McAfee Corp., FTW and certain other parties, as amended from time to time, pursuant to its terms.

a. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, and without limiting the terms set forth herein, all Units of FTW and all McAfee Shares received in respect of your Awards and your Co-Invest Equity will be subject to transfer restrictions during the 180-day period that follows the IPO (the “Lock-Up Period”) as agreed upon with the underwriters in connection with the IPO, which will be communicated to you separately.
b. In addition, notwithstanding anything herein or any other document to the contrary, in connection with any public offering of capital stock of McAfee that follows the IPO, if determined by the Board or the underwriters managing such public offering, you will be subject to a customary lock-up following such public offering restricting sales of (and similar transactions in) McAfee Shares, Units of FTW and all other classes of capital stock of McAfee; provided that the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that any such lock-up will not exceed 90 days and will include a customary exception for sales pursuant to a Rule 10b5-1 plan. The Board (or its delegate) shall act as the attorney-in-fact for you to act on your behalf in executing any such lock-up agreement and such power-of-attorney will survive your bankruptcy, dissolution, death, adjudication of incompetence or insanity giving such power and the transfer or assignment of all or any part of your equity interest in McAfee or FTW.

7. Additional Transfer Restrictions. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, after the expiration of the Lock-Up Period (and, for the avoidance of doubt, without limiting the other limitations set forth or referenced herein), all FTW Class A Units, FTW MIUs and McAfee Shares constituting or received in respect of FTW Class A Units, FTW MIUs or other Awards held by you will be subject to the following additional transfer restrictions:

a. Except as provided in Section 7(b) and (c) below, in each calendar quarter beginning with the calendar quarter in which the Lock-Up Period expires, sales of McAfee Shares by you will be limited to the sum of: (i) 5.0% of vested McAfee Shares (including, without limitation, vested MAC Conversion Shares (as defined below)) you hold after having received them in respect of Awards (or in exchange for FTW Class A Units received under Awards or for Co-Invest Equity, as applicable), (ii) 5.0% of the number of McAfee Shares you are eligible to receive in respect of the exchange of vested FTW Class A Units you hold, and (iii) the number of McAfee Shares you are eligible to receive in respect of the exchange of 5.0% of the number of vested FTW MIUs subject to each grant you hold (the sum of the McAfee Shares described in clauses (i) through (iii) (without regard to the 5.0% limit applicable to each clause), collectively, your “Eligible Equity” and the number of McAfee Shares represented by Eligible Equity (taking into account the 5.0% limit applicable in respect of each of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii)) that are eligible for sale in any given calendar quarter, the “Quarterly Max”). For purposes of determining your Eligible Equity and Quarterly Max, and for purposes of determining the number of McAfee Shares you may sell pursuant to this Section 7(a) and Section 7(c), any McAfee Shares you acquire but are then sold to pay withholding taxes (up to maximum statutory withholding rates) in a broker-assisted or similar transaction will be disregarded (and will not be subject to the restrictions set forth in this Section 7(a) and Section 7(c)). For purposes of Section 7(a), (b) and (c), the amount of your Eligible Equity and your Quarterly Max will be determined as of the first trading day of the applicable calendar quarter. Regardless of whether you choose to sell Eligible Equity up to the Quarterly Max for a given calendar quarter, you will be treated as having sold such amount for purposes of determining the amount of Eligible Equity and the Quarterly Max for each subsequent calendar quarter; provided that if the amount of the Quarterly Max exceeds the number of McAfee Shares that constitute or relate to your Eligible Equity that you sell in a given calendar quarter, such difference (the “Quarterly Shortfall”) may be carried forward for up to the next three calendar quarters and will (to the extent unused and without double counting) be deemed to increase your Quarterly Max during such quarters; and provided further that to the extent that all or any portion of a given Quarterly Shortfall expires without being used the McAfee Shares related to such portion will again be counted as part of your Eligible Equity immediately following such expiration.
b. As of each date on which TPG sells McAfee Shares or FTW Class A Units (an “Applicable TPG Sale Date”), the following will be calculated:

i. the “Applicable TPG Selldown Percentage”, which is the percentage determined based on (x) the number McAfee Shares and/or FTW Class A Units sold by TPG on the Applicable TPG Sale Date, divided by (y) the number of FTW Class A Units plus the number of McAfee Shares held by TPG as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (after giving effect to the Reorganization Transactions); and

ii. your “Pro Rata Selldown Amount”, which is the number of McAfee Shares determined by (x) multiplying (1) the Applicable TPG Selldown Percentage by (2) your Eligible Equity as of the beginning of the applicable calendar quarter in which the Applicable TPG Sale Date falls, and then subtracting (y) the number of McAfee Shares related to your Eligible Equity that you sold between the beginning of the applicable calendar in which the Applicable TPG Sale Date falls and the Applicable TPG Sale Date.

c. If, as of an Applicable TPG Sale Date, your Pro Rata Selldown Amount exceeds your then available Quarterly Max (for the avoidance of doubt, taking into account its increase by unused and unexpired Quarterly Shortfalls), then:

i. you will become eligible to sell an additional number of McAfee Shares equal to the Pro Rata Selldown Amount; and

ii. the Quarterly Max (as adjusted to the extent of any unused and unexpired Quarterly Shortfalls) for the remainder of the applicable calendar quarter in which the Applicable TPG Sale Date falls will be reduced to zero, all then unused Quarterly Shortfalls will be eliminated and the calculation of the Quarterly Max under Section 7(a) (and your related opportunity to sell McAfee Shares) will commence again in the next calendar quarter that follows the Applicable TPG Sale Date.

In addition, on the date on which the Lock-Up Period expires, the calculation under Section 7(b) will be made based on any McAfee Shares, if any, sold by TPG in the IPO (treating the IPO as the Applicable TPG Sale Date) and such calculation shall be applied under this Section 7(c) to determine whether you will become eligible as of the date the Lock-Up Period expires to sell any McAfee Shares pursuant to this Section 7(c).

If you do not sell the full number of McAfee Shares that become eligible for sale under this Section 7(c) (the “Unused Pro Rata Sale Amount”) as of the date on which a relevant determination is first made, you will retain the right to sell a number of McAfee Shares equal to the Unused Pro Rata Sale Amount (reduced by any subsequent sales of McAfee Shares by you pursuant to this Section 7(c) and the other limitations set forth herein).

d. You will be subject to the rules, policies and agreements of McAfee, FTW, and their affiliates, which may change from time to time in accordance with applicable laws. Such policies may include, without limitation, equity ownership requirements, clawback policies, insider trading policies, registration rights agreements and policies regarding hedging or pledging of securities. In the event of any conflict between such policy, rule or agreement and this Agreement, the more restrictive of the two shall apply.
e. All sales of McAfee Shares (including vested MAC Conversion Shares (as described below)) will be made (i) pursuant to pre-approved trading plans pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, with such plan being in a form reasonably acceptable to McAfee or (ii) when you are not otherwise in possession of material nonpublic information, subject, in each case, to the other limitations described herein.

f. All determinations under this Section 7 will be made by McAfee in good faith and once made will be final and binding on all persons. If there is any change in the capitalization of McAfee or FTW following the Reorganization Transactions that affects the calculations hereunder, such calculations will be equitably adjusted to reflect such change in capitalization, as determined by McAfee in good faith.

g. The restrictions set forth in this Section 7 (other than under Section 7(d), 8(e) and 8(h)) will cease to apply as of the earliest of (i) six (6) months after your employment and all other service relationships with the Company and its affiliates cease, (ii) the date on which TPG ceases to hold at least 10% of the combined FTW Class A Units, McAfee Shares or other equity securities into which such securities are converted or for which they are exchanged that it held as of immediately prior to the IPO and (iii) the date that is forty-two (42) months following the IPO.

h. You will be ineligible to transfer Units of FTW except (i) to an applicable permitted transferee in according with the terms of the LLC Agreement (in which case, such permitted transferee shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement and as set forth herein mutatis mutandis) or (ii) in exchange for McAfee Shares on the terms set forth in the LLC Agreement.

8. Reorganization Transactions.

a. Prior to or concurrent with the consummation of the IPO, the equity of FTW, including your Awards and your Co-Invest Equity, may be split into a different number of Units of FTW and/or there may be a reorganization of FTW and its affiliates and/or McAfee (which may include a merger or similar transaction of FTW into an affiliate), in order to facilitate the IPO and the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Reorganization Transactions”). In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, your Awards and your Co-Invest Equity will be converted, exchanged and/or adjusted in accordance with the 2017 Plan, the LLC Agreement, the definitive documents that relate to the Reorganization Transactions and/or this Agreement.

b. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, as part of the Reorganization Transactions, prior to the IPO, holders of Units of FTW may receive a distribution of shares in McAfee Acquisition Corp., which (if received) shall be exchanged for McAfee Shares (the “MAC Conversion Shares”). If the Units of FTW with respect to which MAC Conversion Shares are received were unvested at the time of such distribution, such MAC Conversion Shares will be subject to the same vesting schedule and performance-vesting conditions (if any) as those which applied to the unvested Units of FTW to which they relate, as adjusted by this Agreement.
Each Participant holding unvested MAC Conversion Shares will make an 83(b) election not later than fifteen (15) days following the Effective Time. The Lock-Up Period and the additional transfer restrictions described in this Agreement will apply with respect to MAC Conversion Shares. The number of MAC Conversion Shares issued to you will be (or has been) communicated to you separately.

9. Withholding. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if tax or other withholding is due in connection with any transaction contemplated hereby, McAfee may (i) at its election, reduce the number of McAfee Shares or other securities, property or rights delivered to you pursuant to this Agreement by a number of McAfee Shares or other securities, property or rights with an aggregate fair market value equal to the aggregate amount of such withholding at maximum statutory rates for U.S. federal, state, non-U.S. and other taxes (with any fractional McAfee Shares or other securities rounded down to the nearest whole share), (ii) if you and McAfee agree, permit you to deliver cash or cash equivalents in an amount necessary to satisfy such withholding obligations, or (iii) permit or require you to enter into a “broker-assisted” sale of McAfee Shares pursuant to which a number of McAfee Shares with an aggregate fair market value equal to the aggregate amount of such withholding at maximum statutory rates for U.S. federal, state, non-U.S. and other taxes (plus any applicable transaction fees) shall be sold with the net proceeds remitted directly to McAfee or an affiliate of McAfee designated by the Administrator. Any McAfee Shares or other securities, property or rights withheld pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence will be treated as having been delivered to you for all purposes.

10. Certain Non-U.S. Persons. Notwithstanding any provisions in this Agreement, the applicable terms set forth in the Non-U.S. Addendum for your country will supplement or supersede the terms set forth in this Agreement. Moreover, if you relocate to one of the countries included in the Non-U.S. Addendum, the additional terms and conditions for such country will apply to you, to the extent the Company determines that the application of such terms and conditions is necessary or advisable for legal or administrative reasons. The Non-U.S. Addendum constitutes part of this Agreement.

11. Participant Group. In the event that “you” is construed to refer to a current or former individual employee of, or other service provider to, the Company, and related persons (e.g., permitted transferees of such individual), this Agreement shall be construed so all rights of such individual and such related persons shall be applied on a pro rata or other equitable basis among such individual and such other persons (e.g., rights to sell McAfee Shares pursuant to Section 7). Such individual, however, shall be responsible for ensuring the compliance of all persons related to such individual with the requirements hereunder and for obtaining from such requirements any agreements, consents or other documents that the Company may require to give effect to the provisions set forth herein from time to time. All determinations regarding allocations of rights and obligations among any such individual and any related persons will be made by the Company in good faith and will be binding on all persons.

12. Required Actions. You must sign (including by DocuSign or other electronic means, if required by the Company) and return this Agreement not later than 5:00 p.m. CDT on October 7, 2020. By delivering your executed signature page (or causing it to be delivered, including, if applicable, by electronic means), you will be confirming that: (a) you have reviewed and understand the terms set forth of this Agreement and agree to be bound thereby (notwithstanding any applicable local laws regarding the use or enforceability of electronic signatures); and (b) you authorize the Company to take all action it deems necessary or appropriate to effectuate the foregoing on behalf of you without further notice to date to effect such terms.
13. Binding Effect. This Agreement constitutes (and serves as your consent to) an amendment to the terms applicable to your Award(s), the LLC Agreement and any equity received thereunder and your Co-Invest Equity (as applicable) to the extent set forth herein, which (a) will be binding upon the executors, administrators, estates, heirs and legal successors of the Participant as well as any other persons as contemplated by Section 19.1 of the LLC Agreement as in effect as of April 3, 2017 through its amendment and restatement in connection with the IPO; (b) will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of laws and (c) if applicable, will be subject to any existing arbitration agreement that you have with the Company. Except as described in this Agreement, your Award(s), any equity received thereunder and your Co-Invest Equity (as applicable) will remain subject to their existing terms.

In addition, the Company expects to provide general country-by-country summaries of the tax consequences and certain other issues associated with the adjustment of your FTW Awards and grant of McAfee Awards under the Agreement. Tax laws often are complex and can change frequently. As a result, you should consult with your personal tax advisor for current information and further guidance regarding your personal tax liabilities and responsibilities associated with the adjustment of your FTW Awards, the grant, vesting and exercise of McAfee Awards, any dividends or distributions under Company Awards, and the sale of McAfee Shares.

UNITED KINGDOM

Terms and Conditions

Tax Withholding. The following provisions supplement Section 9 of the Agreement:

Without limitation to Section 9, you hereby agree that you are liable for all Tax-Related Items and hereby covenant to pay all such Tax-Related Items, as and when requested by the Company or the Employer, as applicable, or by Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (“HMRC”) (or any other tax authority or any other relevant authority). You also hereby agree to indemnify and keep indemnified the Company and the Employer, as applicable, against any Tax-Related Items that they are required to pay or withhold or have paid or will pay on your behalf to HMRC (or any other tax authority or any other relevant authority).
Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you are an executive officer or director of the Company (within the meaning of Section 13(k) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), you understand that you may not be able to indemnify the Company or the Employer for the amount of Tax-Related Items not collected from or paid by you because the indemnification could be considered to be a loan. In this case, any income tax not collected or paid within ninety (90) days of the end of the U.K. tax year in which an event giving rise to the Tax-Related Items occurs may constitute a benefit to you on which additional income tax and employee national insurance contributions (“NICs”) may be payable. You understand that you will be responsible for reporting and paying any income tax due on this additional benefit directly to HMRC under the self-assessment regime and for reimbursing the Company and/or the Employer (as appropriate) for the value of employee NICs due on this additional benefit which the Company and/or the Employer may recover from you by any of the means set forth in Section 9 of the Agreement.

Section 431 Election. You agree that you are required, as a condition of the adjustment of your FTW Awards and grant of McAfee Awards, to enter into a joint election with the Employer pursuant to section 431 of Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (or such other election as the Company may direct for the same purpose) electing that the fair market value of the McAfee Shares to be acquired upon the conversion of your FTW CRSUs (or upon the future vesting of McAfee Replacement RSUs or McAfee Converted RSUs, which may be granted to you under the Agreement) will be calculated as if they were not “restricted securities.” The issuance of McAfee Shares under the conversion of FTW CRSUs is conditioned upon your entering into the form of section 431 election attached to this Non-U.S. Addendum.
United Kingdom
Section 431 Joint Election Form
Joint Election under s431 ITEPA 2003 for full disapplication of Chapter 2 Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003

One Part Election

1. Between the Employee whose National Insurance Number is and the Company (who is the Employee’s employer) of Company Registration Number

2. Purpose of Election

This joint election is made pursuant to section 431(1) Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (“ITEPA”) and applies where employment-related securities, which are restricted securities by reason of section 423 ITEPA, are acquired.

The effect of an election under section 431(1) is that, for the purposes of income tax and National Insurance contributions (“NICs”), the employment-related securities and their market value will be treated as if they were not restricted securities and that sections 425 to 430 ITEPA do not apply. Additional income tax will be payable as a result of this election (with PAYE withholding and NICs being applicable where the securities are Readily Convertible Assets).

Should the value of the securities fall following the acquisition, it is possible that income tax/NICs that would have arisen because of any future chargeable event (in the absence of an election) would have been less than the income tax/NICs due by reason of this election. Should this be the case, there is no income tax/NICs relief available under Part 7 of ITEPA 2003; nor is it available if the securities acquired are subsequently transferred, forfeited or revert to the original owner.

3. Application

This joint election is made not later than 14 days after the date of acquisition of the securities by the employee and applies to:

To be acquired by the Employee on or after the date of this Election under the terms of the McAfee 2017 Management Incentive Plan.

4. Extent of Application

This election disapplies S.431(1) ITEPA: All restrictions attaching to the securities.

5. Declaration

This election will become irrevocable upon the later of its signing or the acquisition (and each subsequent acquisition) of employment-related securities to which this election applies.
In signing this joint election, we agree to be bound by its terms as stated above.
